C A P. XXVIII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act to dissolve the present, and prevent the future Combination of Coal-Owners, Lightermen, Masters of Ships, and others, to advance the Price of Coals, in prejudice of the Navigation, Trade, and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement of the Coal-Trade.

Ship-master, paying Over-Sea Duties for Coals, to have Coast-Bond discharged.

VI. AN D whereas the exporting Coals to Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, tends very much to the Improvement and Increase of the British Navigation; To the end therefore that all reasonable Encouragement may be given to such Exportation, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Ship-master, whose Ship is Laden with Coals only, and has entered into Bond to deliver the said Coals in some Port of Great Britain, may, upon producing his Coast-Cocquet, and making Oath of the true quantity of Coals aboard his Ship (such Quantity not being less than is expressed in the said Cocquet) before the proper Officer of the Customs, in any Port of Great Britain, pay the Custom or Over-Sea Duty for such Coals, and shall, on such Payment, receive a Certificate, signed and sealed by the Customer and Comptroller of such Port, for such Duty so paid; which Certificate, being given into the Custom house of the Port where such Coals were laid on board, shall discharge the Coast-Bond given by such Ship-Master, in the same manner as if the said Coals had been Landed in some Port of Great Britain.

VIII. And

VIII. And for preventing the great Abuses to her Majesty in her Customs and Revenue, by the secret Practices between the Fitter, or Person laying Coals on board the Ships, and the Ship masters, by laying the said Coals on board in Keels and Vessels not admeasured, gauged and marked, according to Law; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Fitter, or other Person laying, loading, or putting Coals on board any Ship, or other Vessel, in the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne, Sunderland upon the River Wear, Collescoats, Seaton, Slime, Blythe Nook, or any other the Members, Havens, Creeks and Places whatsoever, to the said Port of Newcastle belonging, or in any wise appertaining, by or in any Keel, Cart, Wain, or other Vessel, not admeasured, gauged and marked, according to the Law in that case made and provided, shall forfeit also and pay for every such Offence, the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Fitters, &c. laying Coals aboard Keels, &c. not gauged, forfeit 10 l.

XI. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned shall be, One moiety to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety thereof to him or them that shall sue for the same within the space of Three Months next after the Offence shall be committed, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager at Law, shall be allowed, or more than one Imparllance given.

Penalties how to be distributed, &c.

XII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in force for Three Years, and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Act to continue 3 Years, &c.

Made perpetual 1 Geo. cap. 16.

C A P. XIX.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for laying several Duties upon all Sape and Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and upon chequered and striped Linens imported; and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained; and upon several kinds of Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and upon certain printed Papers, Pamphlets and Advertisements, for raising the Sum of Eighteen hundred thousand Pounds by way of a Lottery towards her Majesties Supply; and for Licencing an Additional Number of Hackney Chairs; and for charging certain Stocks of Cards and Dice; and for better securing her Majesties Duties to arise in the Office for the Stamp-Duties by Licences for Marriages and otherwise; and for relief of Persons who have not claimed their Lottery Tickets in due time, or have lost Exchequer Bills or Lottery Tickets; and for borrowing Money upon Stock (part of the Capital of the South-Sea Company) for the Use of the Publick.

Preamble.

Most Gracious Sovereign, we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, finding it absolutely necessary to raise large Supplies of Money to carry on the present War, until your Majesty shall be enabled to establish a good and lasting Peace, and for defraying your Majesties other extraordinary Expences, have, for those ends and purposes, given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several and respective Rates and Duties for and upon all Sope made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all chequered and striped Linens, to be imported into Great Britain; and for and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted, stained or dyed, as are herein after mentioned; and for and upon such Stampd Mestum, Parchment and Paper, and other things as are hereafter in this Act more particularly described, for and during such term and terms of Years, and in such manner and form, as are herein after expressed: And we do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Sope which, at any time or times within or during the term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Tenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Sum of Two Pence for every Pound weight, consisting of Sixteen Dunces Averdupoize, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser quantity, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, from time to time, before the Landing of the same: And that there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Sope of what kind soever, which, at any time or times within or during the said term of Thirty two Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the Sum of One Penny for every such Pound weight Averdupoize, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser quantity, the same to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said imported Sope shall be landed or put on shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Custom-house in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon, shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the Landing or Delivering the same first signed by the Commissioner, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively, that all such imported Sope, of what kind soever, as shall be so landed or put on shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true meaning hereof, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, (to wit) One moiety of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the Sope so imported and forfeited, or the Value thereof, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in her Majesties Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, by Action, Suit, Bill or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Sope, by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, shall be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered and answered, for the uses and purposes in this Act expressed, by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Sope imported, or any of them, are by any Law or Statute now in force, to be ascertained, secured, levied, raised, recovered and answered, during the Continuance thereof respectively.

All Sope imported, to pay 2 d. per lb. for 32 Years.

All Sope made in Great Britain to pay 1 d. per lb.

Sope landed before Entry, &c. forfeited, or the Value.

How to be divided.

How these Duties shall be raised.

IV. And

These Duties
to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

IV. And be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Sope, as shall arise in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England for the time being; and such of the Duties imposed by this Act upon imported Sope, as shall arise in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in Scotland for the time being; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland for the time being, shall, from time to time, pay, or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties for imported Sope (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesties Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenues, for the purposes in this Act expressed, and under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities as are to be inflicted by this Act, for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for any the purposes herein after mentioned.

Sope that hath paid the Duty
may be Exported on Security,
&c.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesties Duties by this Act payable for any quantities of Sope whatsoever, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such quantity of Sope from the said Person or Persons, who actually paid her Majesties Duties for the same, to export such Sope for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, That the particular quantities of Sope which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same, or any part thereof, shall not be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation, is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesties Name, and to her Use.

Such Sope so reloaded, forfeited.

XXII. Provided always, That if after the shipping any such Sope to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Sope so shipped to be exported, or any part thereof, shall be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, that then, and in every such case, (over and above the Penalty of the Bond which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesties Use) all the Sope which shall be Landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

On Oath that the Duty has been paid, and on Debenture from the Customer, &c. Collector to repay
the Duties.

XXIII. And it is also hereby Enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Sope to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof, upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, that the Duty of such Sope hath been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Collector who received the said Duty is hereby required and impowered to Administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the Sope so exported; and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Sope in such County or Place where the said Sope was exported (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act for the Sope so exported to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Sope are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Sope arising by this Act, or if the Duty of such Sope so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same

shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Paper of what kind soever, and all Pastboards, Bindboards and Scaleboards, and all Books, Prints and Maps, which at any time or times, within or during the term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same) the several and respective Rates and Duties herein after expressed, (that is to say)

which they are now usually known) should be altered, or by whatsoever other Name or Names, the same or any of them, now are, or during the said Term, shall or may be called or known.

LVI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesties Duties by this Act payable for any quantity of Paper, Pastboard, Wildboard, and Scaleboard whatsoever, made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, or for any such printed, painted or stained Paper, as aforesaid, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such quantity of Paper, or any other the Goods last mentioned, from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesties Duties for the same, to export such Paper, Pastboard, Wildboard or Scaleboard, or printed, painted or stained Paper, for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandise, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular quantities of such Commodities which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall be shipped and exported; and that the same, or any part thereof, shall not be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customs or Collector of the respective Ports of such Exportation is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesties Name, and to her Use.

Paper, &c. that hath paid the Duty, may be exported, on Security, &c.

LVII. Provided always, That if after the Shipping any such Paper, or other the Commodities last mentioned, to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Paper or other Commodities so shipped to be exported, or any part thereof, shall be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, that then and in every such case (over and above the Penalties of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesties Use) all the Paper and Commodities which shall be so landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

Paper, &c. reloaded, forfeited, or the Value, and the Bond.

LVIII. And it is also hereby Enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Paper, or any Pastboard, Wildboard or Scaleboard, or any such printed, painted or stained Paper, as aforesaid, to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, That the Duties thereof have been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Collector who received the said Duties is hereby required and impowered to Administer) and thereupon the said Customs or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Quantities and Kinds of such Commodities so exported, and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Paper in such County or Place where the same were exported (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act, for the Paper, Pastboard, Wildboard and Scaleboard so exported, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his hands to pay any such Debenture, then the said respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Paper, are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Paper arising by this Act; or if the Duty of such Commodities aforesaid so exported, were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Security of the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Oath that the Duty has been paid or Secured, and on Debenture from the Collector to repay the Duties.

LXV. And be it also Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, to and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all chequered and striped Linens, and upon all Linens printed, painted, stained or dyed, after the Manufacture, or in the Thread or Yarn before the Manufacture, in any Foreign Parts, which at any time or times, within or during the term of Thirty two Years, to be LXVII. And moreover it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Duties hereby granted upon the said chequered, striped, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Linens imported, as aforesaid, from time to time, shall be paid to her Majesties Use, the respective Commissioners, Officer and Officers of the Customs of the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, shall cause every Piece and Parcel thereof, to be marked or stamped with a distinct Seal or Mark, to be provided and used as this Act directs, to denote the Payment of the Duties for the same.

These Goods
having paid the Duty, may be exported, on Security, &c.

XCI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid her Majesties Duties by this Act payable for any of the said imported Linens, or for any Silks, Callicoes, Linens or Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such imported Linens, or any such Goods printed, painted, stained or dyed, as aforesaid, in Great Britain, from the Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesties Duties payable by this Act for the same, to export any such Goods for which the Duty was so paid for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof, That the particular quantities so intended to be exported, and every part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and not to be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customs or Collector of the Port of Exportation shall take in her Majesties Name, and to her Use.

If reloaded,
forfeited,

and the Bond.

XCII. Provided always, That if after the Shipping of any such Goods, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the same, or any Part thereof, shall be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, That then, and in every such Case (over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesties Use) all the said Goods which shall be so Loaded, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

On Oath that the Duty has been paid,

XCIII. And it is also hereby Enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any such chequered, striped, printed, painted, stained or dyed Goods, as aforesaid, to or for any Foreign Parts, shall and may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, That the Duties thereof have been paid or secured according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation, the Customs or Collector of the Port of Exportation is hereby requi-required and impowered to Administer) and thereupon the said Customer or Collector of the said Port of Exportation shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the chequered and striped Linens, and of the said printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods so exported; and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon such chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained and dyed Goods, in the County or Place where such Exportation was made (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act for the Goods so exported, to the Persons or Agents to exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties on chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained and dyed Goods, are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid the said Debenture out of any Duties upon chequered and striped Linens, printed, painted, stained, and dyed Goods arising by this Act; or if the Duty of the Goods so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Security for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Commissioners of the Customs in Great Britain, shall, on or before the Twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, provide or cause to be provided such and so many Seals or Stamps with which all the said imported Linens, during the continuance of this Act, shall be marked, upon payment of the Duties thereof, as aforesaid, and shall cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officers of the Customs for that purpose; and that the respective Commissioners to be appointed for managing the said Duties upon Silks, Callicoos, Linens and Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, shall on or before the Twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, provide proper Seals or Stamps (of another kind) for marking such of the said Silks, Callicoos, Linens and Stuffs, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, as aforesaid, during the continuance of this Act, as are to be stamped and marked for and in order to the charging of the respective Duties for the same, and also so many Seals or Stamps (of a Third kind) with which all the said Stocks or Quantities of chequered and striped Linens, and of such printed, painted, stained or dyed Goods, as aforesaid, on the said Twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, upon paying or securing the said Half Duties for the same, are to be marked or stamped, and shall cause the said respective Seals or Stamps to be distributed to the respective Officers for the several purposes before mentioned; which Officers are hereby enjoined and required, in using the same, to do no hurt or damage, or the least damage that may be to the Goods to be so marked or stamped; and the said respective Commissioners, in providing the said respective Seals or Stamps, shall take care that they be so contrived, that the Impression thereof may be durable, and so as the same may be least liable to be forged or Counterfeited; and that the said Stamps, or any of them, shall or may be altered or renewed, from time to time, as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall think fit: And if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any time or times hereafter, Counterfeit or Forge any Stamp or Seal to resemble any Stamp or Seal which shall be provided or made in pursuance of this Act, or shall Counterfeit or Resemble the Impression of the same upon any of the said Commodities chargeable by this Act, thereby to defraud her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties hereby granted, then every such Person so offending, being thereof convicted in due form of Law, shall be judged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and if any Person or Persons shall at any time or times, during the continuance of this Act, sell any XCVI. And for the more easie collecting the Duties, and preventing disputes that may arise from the difference of the Breadths of Callicoes which are or shall be printed, painted or stained, Be it Enacted and Declared, That all such Callicoes which are or shall be printed, painted or stained, and which shall be within One eighth part of a Yard of Yard broad, or not exceeding One eighth part of a Yard of Yard broad, shall pay as Yard broad, and no more nor less; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXXI. And it is hereby Enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested or prosecuted for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff shall discontinue his Action, or be Nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him upon Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff.

CXXII. And to the end all the said Rates and Duties upon Sops, Paper, chequered and striped Linens, and upon printed, painted, stained or dyed Goods, and upon Stampd Aellum, Parchment and Paper, or otherwise howsoever before granted by this Act, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of executing of this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true meaning hereof; It is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting and paying the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein shall perform their several Duties, in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any offence or neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any part of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, [Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding Two millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies] for the like Offence or Neglect, relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

16800*l.* to be the yearly Fund for clearing off the Principal Sum of 2341740*l.* with Interest at 6*l.* per Cent.

CXXIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the term of Thirty two Years, reckoning the first Year to begin from the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, the full Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the several Duties, Rates and Sums of Money by this Act herein before granted or appropriated, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforesaid (in case the same shall extend thereunto) shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies specifie Additional Rates or New Duties herein after expressed; that is to say, for and upon all Vellum so imported an Additional Rate of Three Shillings for every Dozen; and for all Parchment so imported, an Additional Rate of Two Shillings for every Dozen, and proportionally for greater or lesser numbers of quantities, to be paid by the Importers thereof respectively; and for and upon all Vellum which shall be made in Great Britain, as aforesaid, an Additional Duty after the rate of Two Shillings for every Dozen; And for all Parchment which shall be made in Great Britain, as aforesaid, an Additional Duty after the rate of One Shilling for every Dozen, to be paid by the Bakers thereof respectively.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the severall and respective Additional or New Rates and Duties by this Act imposed or chargeable for and upon all or any such Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum and Parchment, as aforesaid, for and during the said Term of Years hereby granted, of and in the same, shall and may, from time to time, be ascertained, raised, received, levied, recovered and secured, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and by the same or different Stamps and Marks, and under such Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Powers of adjudging the said Duties, and adjudging and mitigating the said Penalties and Forfeitures, or any of them, and other Powers, and subject to proportional Allowances, Drawbacks and Repayments, and to such Rules and Directions, and in such Methods, Manner and Form, as the respective Duties upon the like Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum and Parchment, granted by an Act in the Ninth Year of her Majesties Reign [intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of Thirty two Years, for prosecuting the War and other her Majesties most necessary Occasions] are by that Act, or any Law or Statute thereby referred unto, prescribed, appointed or enacted, during the Continuance thereof, to be ascertained, raised, received, levied, secured or recovered; and that the Act last mentioned, and all the Clauses, Pains of Death, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters and Things, therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, or accounting for the said Duties thereby granted, or any Arrearages of the same, or any way relating to the same Duties, Pains, Penalties or Forfeitures, by that Act chargeable, by force and virtue of this present Act, be continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum and Parchment, by this Act granted, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were particularly and at large repeated in the body of this present Act.

V. And whereas some Doubts have arisen upon the said Act of the Ninth Year of her Majesties Reign, whether a Debenture could be given in pursuance of the said Act by the Customer or Collector of the Customs for Two thirds of the Duties upon Hides and Calve-skins shipped for Exportation, unless the Marks or Stamps denoting the charging the Duty payable by that Act did appear to them thereupon; and it being often found Inconvenient that the Exporters should be obliged to open their Bails or Packs of Leather at the Port of Exportation; It is hereby Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Oath made by the Exporter, unless such Exporter be a known Quaker, and if he be, then upon the Solemn Affirmation of such Quaker (which Oath or Affirmation the Customer or Collector is hereby impowered to Administer) That all the Hides or Skins contained in such Bails or Packs respectively, were marked with the Marks or Stamps denoting the charging of the Duties payable by this Act and the said former Act, or either of them, and expressing particularly how much the Duty so denoted to have been paid or charged by the said former Act for such Hides or Skins doth amount unto, exclusive of the Duty upon the Stock in Hand; and also how much the Duty so denoted to have been paid or charged by this Act for such Hides or Skins doth amount unto, and expressing the Weight of the Hides and Calve-skins so exported or shipped for Exportation, in such Oath or Affirmation; Then and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Customer or Collector (such Security being given as the said Act requires) to make forth a Debenture for the Two third parts of the said Duties payable by the said former Act and this present Act, or either of them, for the Hides and Calve-skins already exported, or shipped to be exported, for which no Drawback hath already been paid, and for the like Hides and Calve-skins which shall hereafter be exported, or shipped to be exported, and for which a Drawback ought to be made, according to the true meaning of this or the said former Act; and every such Debenture being verified by the Certificate of the Searcher, attesting the Shipping of such Hides and Skins, shall be satisfied according to this and the said former Act, as fully as if the Marks or Stamps on the said Hides and Skins had been seen by the proper Officers of the Customs; any thing in this or the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

These New Duties to be raised as the Duties on Leather 9 Anne.

On Oath of the Exporter, that the Hides have been marked, &c. Debentures to be made out for a Drawback of Two thirds of the Duty.

Hides dressed or curried to have a Drawback on Exportation of One Penny per lb.

VI. And whereas by the said Act made last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins, 9 A. cap. 11. tanned, tawed or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of Thirty two Years, for prosecuting the War, and other her Majesties most necessary Occasions, There is Provision made in the said Act, that a Drawback be allowed upon all tanned or rough Hides and and Calves-skins, upon their Exportation, but no Allowance is made for a Drawback on Hides or Calve-skins that are dressed or curried: For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Hides or Calve-skins that are or shall be dressed or curried, shall be entitled to a Drawback upon their Exportation of One Penny per Pound weight, as they shall Weigh at the Custom-house, to be paid and allowed in the same manner, and under such Cautions, Rules and Security, as the Drawback upon rough tanned Hides and Calve-skins is to be paid or allowed.

Duties on Starch, for 32 Years, imported 2 d.

VII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Starch which, at any time or times, within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Sum of Two Pence for every Pound weight, consisting of Sixteen Dunces Averdupoize, and after that rate for a greater or lesser quantity, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, from time to time, before the landing of the same; and for and upon all Starch of what kind soever, which at any time or times within or during the same Term of Thirty two Years, shall be made within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, the Sum of One Penny for every such Pound weight Averdupoize, and after that rate for a greater or lesser quantity; the same to be paid by the Bakers thereof respectively.

Made in Great Britain 1 d.

Duties on imported Starch to be raised as the Duties on Soap.

VIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon imported Starch shall be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid, and be brought into the Receipt of her Majesties Exchequer in England, (to and for the uses and purposes in this Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, and with such Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon imported Soap, granted by One other Act of the present Session of Parliament, or by any Laws and Statutes therein referred unto, are to be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid.

9 A. cap. 11.

Continued for ever, by 3 Geo. cap. 7.

10 A. cap. 19.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons who shall have actually paid her Majesties Duties, by this Act payable for any quantities of Starch whatsoever, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy or be lawfully entitled to any such quantity of Starch from the said Person or Persons who actually paid her Majesties Duties for the same, to export such Starch for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandise, giving sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular quantities of Starch which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same or any part thereof, shall not be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security, the Customor or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation, is hereby directed and authorized to take in her Majesties Name, and to her Use.

Starch that hath paid the Duty, may be exported, on Security, &c.

XXVI. Provided always, That if after the Shipping any such Starch to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tending such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Starch so shipped to be exported, or any part thereof, shall be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, that then and in every such case (over and above the Penalty of the Bond which shall be levied and recovered to her Majesties Use) all the Starch which shall be Landed, or the value thereof, shall be forfeited.

Such Starch reloaded, forfeited.

XXVII. And it is also hereby Enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall export any Starch to any Foreign Parts, shall or may make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, That the Duty of such Starch hath been paid or secured, according to this Act (which Oath or Affirmation the Customor or Collector of the Port of Exportation is hereby empowered to Administer) and thereupon the said Customor or Collector of the said Port of Exportation, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of the Starch so exported, and the Exportation thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector appointed to receive the said Duties upon Starch in such County or Place where the said Starch was exported (upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him) shall forthwith pay the Duties which shall have been received upon this Act for the Starch so exported, to the Persons or Agents so exporting the same; and if such Collector shall not have Money in his hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duties of Starch are hereby required to pay, or cause to be paid, the said Debenture out of any Duties upon Starch arising by this Act; or if the Duty of such Starch so exported were only secured, and shall remain unpaid, then the same shall be discharged upon the Securities for the same; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Oath that the Duty hath been paid, and on Debenture from the Customor, &c. Collector to repay the Duties.

XXXII. And be it also Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, answered and paid unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coffee, Tea and Drugs, of what kind soever, (dying Drugs imported from any Foreign Parts, and Turpentine imported from the British Plantations, excepted) which at any time or times within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same, or any of them) the several New Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money following; That is to say, for all Coffee imported, as aforesaid, Twelve Pence for every Pound weight Averdupoize, and proportionally for greater or lesser quantities: For all kinds of Tea imported from any Place or Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company, Two Shillings for every such Pound weight; and for all

all kinds of Tea imported from any other Place or Places, Five Shillings for every such Pound weight, and proportionally for greater or lesser quantities of Tea; and for all kinds of Drugs imported (except as aforesaid) within or during the Term last mentioned, a Duty after the rate of Twenty Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of the same; which said Duties upon Coffee, Tea and Drugs, chargeable by this Act, as aforesaid, shall be paid by the respective Importers thereof from time to time.

Values of rated or unrated Drugs how to be ascertained.

XXXIII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the Values of such of the said Drugs chargeable by this Act, as had any particular Valuation set thereupon in the Book of Rates, annexed to the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, shall be valued according to the gross Valuations contained in the said Book, for the Payment of the said Duty after the rate of Twenty per Centum by this Act charged thereupon, without any Abatement in respect of the Clause contained in the said Book for Drugs imported in English built Shipping; and that all such unrated Drugs as shall be brought from any Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company, shall be valued by the Price thereof upon Sale at the Candle, for the Payment of the Duty by this Act granted, in the same Manner, and with such Allowances, as are prescribed by the Laws now in force for Payment of the other Duties upon unrated Goods brought from Places within those Limits; and that the Values of all other the Drugs chargeable by this Act, shall, in all cases, be taken to be so much as such imported kinds are really worth to be sold at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement for the Duties thereupon charged by this or any former Acts; and that the respective Customer, Collector, or other Person or Persons, Officer or Officers of the Customs for the time being, shall receive and levy the same Duties of the said Drugs so payable ad Valorem, upon the Oath of the Merchant or Importer accordingly; and such Oath shall and may be administered, and all other matters done for ascertaining the said Duties of such Drugs as are last mentioned, in the same manner and form as are lawfully used and practised for ascertaining any Duties payable ad Valorem by the Oath of the Importer upon any other Commodities imported.

Coffee imported from any Place, and Tea imported from any Place within the Limits of the Companies Charter, to be Warehoused,

XXXIV. And for the better securing the Duties upon Coffee imported from any Foreign Parts, and all such Tea as shall be imported from any Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company by this and other Acts of Parliament imposed; and to the intent the same may not be too burdensome on the Importers of such Coffee and Tea, as shall again be exported to Ports beyond the Seas, It is hereby Provided and further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the continuance of the said Duties on Coffee and Tea hereby granted, all such Coffee as shall be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, from any Foreign Parts, and all such Tea as shall be imported from any Places within the Limits of the said Charter granted to the East-India Company, shall upon Entry thereof, be forthwith carried and put into such Ware-house or Ware-houses as shall for that purpose be provided, by and at the Charge of the Importers of such Coffee and Tea, and be approved of by the Commissioners of her Majesties Customs for the time being; and so much of the Duties of the same Coffee and Tea as (in case of Exportation) would remain or not be drawn back by any former Laws now in Force, shall be paid down in ready Money by the Importer or Importers thereof, who shall have power to garble such Coffee, as hath been usual, to make it Merchantable; which said Coffee and Tea so brought into such Ware-house or Ware-houses shall not be taken or carried out thence upon any account whatsoever, other than as is herein after mentioned, that is to say, such of the said Coffee and Tea as shall be sold to be and so much of the Duty as would not be drawn back on Exportation to be paid down, consumed in Great Britain, shall be delivered out of such Ware-house or Ware-houses, upon Payment of her Majesties Duties payable by this and any other Act or Acts for the same Coffee and Tea (other than and except so much as was before paid down, as aforesaid;) and such of the said Coffee and Tea as shall be for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, shall be delivered out of such Ware-house or Ware-houses unto the Importers, or such Buyers, or other Person or Persons as such Importers shall appoint in that behalf, upon sufficient Security to be first given to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (which Security the said Commissioners of the Customs, or such Officers of the Customs as they shall appoint, are hereby required and impowered to take) that the same, and every Part thereof, shall be exported, and not re-landed in Great Britain; which said Securities shall be discharged without Fee or Reward, upon Certificate returned or produced to the Commissioners of the Customs, or such Officers, as aforesaid, under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in any Place or Places in Parts beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known British Merchants then being at such Place or Places, that such Coffee or Tea was there landed, or upon Proof by Credible Persons, that such Coffee or Tea was taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas; the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the said Commissioners of the Customs for the time being.

and if to be consumed in Great Britain, the remaining Duty to be paid on delivery out. If to be exported; Security to be given, &c.

How to be discharged.

XXXV. And for preventing all Clandestine Importing or bringing of Coffee or such Tea, as aforesaid, into this Kingdom of Great Britain, Be it further Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, from and after the said Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the continuance of the said Duties upon Coffee and Tea, shall import or bring any Coffee, or such Tea as is to be secured in such Ware-houses, as aforesaid, into Great Britain, and shall not make due Entries thereof, and bring the same into the said Ware-house or Ware-houses, as aforesaid, the same shall be and is hereby adjudged to be Clandestine running, and unlawful Importation thereof; and such Person and Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, offending therein, and their Abettors, shall forfeit all the Coffee and Tea so clandestinely Run, and the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and divided, One moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other moiety, together with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons that shall seize, inform or sue for the same in any of her Majesties Courts aforesaid.

What shall be deemed Clandestine Importation of Coffee and Tea

Penalty.

XXXVI. And for preventing the Clandestine carrying any the said Coffee or Tea out of the said Ware-houses, Be it Enacted, That the Keeper or Keepers of the said Ware-house and Ware-houses (who shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs, and be at the charge of the Importers) shall keep One or more Book or Books, wherein he or they shall fairly enter or write down an exact Particular and true Account of all Coffee and Tea which shall be brought into, and carried out of his or their said Ware-house and Ware-houses, and the Days and Times when the same was so brought in and carried out, and how much thereof was delivered out to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, and how much for Exportation, as aforesaid, and shall at the end of every Six Months transmit in writing an exact Account thereof, upon Oath, to the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, together with an exact Account of how much shall be remaining in his or their said Ware-house or Ware-houses respectively; and the said Commissioners are hereby impowered and enjoined, within One Month after the same shall be transmitted to them, as aforesaid, to appoint One or more Person or Persons to inspect the said Book or Books, Ware-house or Ware-houses, and to examine the same Accounts, and if upon Examination it shall appear that any of the said Coffee or Tea was delivered out otherwise than as aforesaid, or before Payment of her Majesties Duties for such of the said Coffee or Tea as shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain,

For preventing the Clandestine carrying Coffee and Tea out of the said Ware-houses.

Companies Charter.)

XXXIX. Provided always, That if any Importers of Coffee or Tea, shall pay down all her Majesties Duties for the same, upon the Importation and before the Landing thereof, then such Importers shall not be obliged to secure the same in a Ware house or Ware-houses, as aforesaid.

XL. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties hereby granted upon imported Tea and Druggs (except such Tea as shall be imported from any Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company) chargeable by this Act, shall be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid (to and for the uses and purposes in this Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Allowances, as the other Duties upon the same Goods respectively are by any Law or Statute now in force, to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered and answered, during the continuance thereof respectively.

New Duties on such Tea and Drugs to be repaid on Exportation.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted and Declared, That in case any of the said Tea and Druggs hereby charged (except as before excepted) upon which the said New Duties by this Act granted, shall, upon the Importation thereof, be duly paid or secured to be paid, be again exported at any time or times within Eighteen Months by British Merchants, or within Nine Months by Aliens, to be accounted from the respective times of the Importation of the said Goods inwards, and that Proof be first made upon Oath, That the said Tea or Druggs, except as before ex-

cepted, so exported, be the same for which the said Duties are paid, or secured to be paid, as aforesaid, that then and in every such case, and not otherwise, the same Duties so paid shall, without any delay or reward, be wholly repaid out of any the Duties upon Tea and Drugs by this Act granted, or the Security for such of the said Duties as shall be secured shall be vacated (on a Debenture or Debentures regularly certified and sworn to) as to so much of the said Tea and Drugs as shall be so exported; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLII. And whereas several Companies, and divers Merchants Importers, have or may have, on the Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, several Stocks or Quantities of Coffee and Tea, It is hereby further Enacted, That all and every such Companies and Merchants Importers, having on the Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons in Trust for them, or any of them, or for their, or any of their Benefit or Account, any Stock or Quantity of Coffee or Tea, or either of them, within the Realm of Great Britain, being for Sale, shall yield and pay unto her Majesty the like respective Duties for the same, as are by this Act granted and to be paid for and upon the like Goods respectively, to be imported after the said Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve; the said Duties for such Stocks to be answered and paid to her Majesties Use, within Six Months after the said Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve.

Importers of Coffee and Tea to pay for Stock in Hand.

XLV. And whereas, upon the garbling and cleaning of Pepper, great quantities of Stones, Dirt and Trash have been found, and now remaining in the Ware-houses appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs for the receiving of Pepper, by virtue of the Act of the Ninth of the Queen, and more of the same may probably be found among the Pepper, to be imported, and the same being of no Use, either to the Importers or Buyers; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of her Majesties Customs for the time being shall have hereby, at the request of the Importers or Buyers, power to cause such Stones, Dirt or other Trash, to be destroyed, from time to time, in such manner as they shall think fit, so as no prejudice doth or shall arise to the Revenue thereby; and the said Commissioners shall have the like Power, with respect to any Stones, Dirt or Trash that may be found amongst Coffee, to be lodged in Ware-houses, in pursuance of this Act; and the respective Ware-house Keepers shall be discharged in their respective Books, of so much Pepper or Coffee as shall be so destroyed, as aforesaid.

Stones, Dirt, &c. found among Pepper or Coffee, to be destroyed.

XLVI. And moreover be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, answered and paid, unto and for the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Gold and Silver Wire, which at any time or times, within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the first day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties already imposed thereupon) the Duties following, that is to say, for all Gold Wire imported, as aforesaid, a Duty after the rate of One Shilling for every Ounce Troy, and for all Silver Wire imported, as aforesaid, Nine Pence for every such Ounce, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importer thereof, from time to time, before the landing of the same: and for and upon all Gold and Silver Wire, which at any time or times, within or during the same Term, shall be made in Great Britain, the Duties following, that is to say, for all Gold Wire so made in Great Britain, a Duty after the rate of Eight Pence for every Ounce Troy, and for all Silver Wire so made in Great Britain, a Duty after the rate of Six Pence for every Ounce

Duties on Gold and Silver Wire imported or made in Great Britain, for 32 Years.

Troy,

Troy, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities, to be paid by the Bakers thereof respectively.

Duties on imported Wire to be raised as the Duties on Sops and Starch.

XLVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered and paid, and be brought into the said Exchequer (to and for the uses and purposes in the said Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon imported Sops, granted by One other Act of this Session of Parliament, and the Duties on Starch, granted by this Act, or any of them, are prescribed and appointed to be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid.

On Exportation of Gold Thread, &c. made after 1 July, 1772. and on Debenture from the Customer, &c. Collector to allow a Draw-back.

LXII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, at any time or times, after the first day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, during the continuance of the said Duties on Gilt and Silver Wire, export, by way of Merchandize, for any Foreign Parts, any Gold or Silver Thread, or any Gold or Silver Lace, or Fringe made of Plate-Wire spun upon Silk, and shall give sufficient Security before the Shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Thread, or of such Lace or Fringe, intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought again into Great Britain, and shall make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, That the said Gold and Silver Thread, or the said Gold and Silver Lace or Fringe, was actually made after the said first day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve (which Securities shall be taken in her Majesties Name, and to her Use; and the said Oaths and Affirmations shall be administered by the Customer or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation) that then and in every such case, the said Customer or Collector shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture, expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of such Gold or Silver Thread, and Gold and Silver Lace, or Fringe so exported or shipped to be exported, and the Exportation or Shipping thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector or Receiver for the said Duties upon Wire (upon producing the said Debentures so certified to him) shall forthwith pay a Draw-back or Allowance, after the rate of Five Shillings for every Pound weight Averdupoize, of such Silver Thread, Lace or Fringe, and after the rate of Six Shillings and Eight Pence for every Pound weight Averdupoize, of such Gold Lace, Thread or Fringe, out of the Monies of the said Duties on Wire then in the hands of such Receiver or Collector, without fee or reward; and if such Receiver or Collector shall not have Money in his hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners of the said Duties upon Wire are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid the said Debenture out of any the Duties on Gilt or Silver Wire arising by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

During this Act no Gold or Silver Thread Lace, &c. to be imported.

LXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the continuance of the said Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire by this Act granted, no Gold or Silver Thread, Lace, Fringe, or other Work made thereof, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, upon Pain of being forfeited, and upon the further Penalty of One hundred Pounds to be paid by the Importer for every Parcel so imported; and that One moiety of such Forfeitures shall be to the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety (besides full Costs of Suit) to him or them that will seize, inform or sue for the same in any of her Majesties Courts aforesaid.

Persons sued upon this Act, or the Leather or Candle Acts, may plead the General Issue.

LXXV. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any time or times be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Part or Thing

Thing in this Act contained, or in pursuance of the said former Act, [ Intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the term of Thirty two Years, for Prosecuting the War, and other her Majesties most necessary Occasions; ] or if any Person or Persons now is, or hereafter shall be sued or prosecuted for any Matter or Thing by him or them done in pursuance of an Act of the Eighth Year of her Majesties Reign, For laying certain Duties on Candles, and certain Rates upon Monies to be given with Clerks and Apprentices; or in pursuance of an Act of the Ninth Year of her Majesties Reign, For granting further Duties on Candles, and other Duties therein mentioned, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

LXXVI. And to the end all the said Rates and Duties upon Skins and Hides, and pieces of Skins and Hides, made Clares, Vellum and Parchment, Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, Silk and Silver Wire, Policies of Assurance, and any other Duties before by this Act granted, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of executing this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer, according to the true meaning hereof, It is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for managing, raising, collecting, and paying the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein, shall perform their several Duties in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any offence or neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the same Rates and Duties, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding Two millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, for the like offence or neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting and misapplying any part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

LXXVII. And whereas it is intended that the said several Rates and Duties upon Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, made Clares, Vellum and Parchment, and upon Starch, Coffee, Tea and Drugs, and upon Silk and Silver Wire, and the said Duties upon Policies of Assurance, and all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall arise or be brought into the Receipt of her Majesties Exchequer, by, upon, or for all and every or any the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, shall all together be made a fund or Security for raising any Sum not exceeding Eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, towards your Majesties Supply, by such Methods, and in such Manner and Form as are herein after mentioned: Now we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for and towards the raising the said Sum of Eighteen hundred thousand Pounds, do further most humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of Thirty two Years, reckoning the First Year to begin from the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, the full Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, by, or out of the Monies to arise by or for the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, or any of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, from time to time, in case the same shall extend to the said Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, shall be computed and reckoned to be a yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer of or for all the Rates, Duties and Sums of Money charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, Then the Monies so arising, so far as the same shall extend, shall be part of the said yearly Fund of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, for and towards the answering and paying of all and every the Principal Sums herein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to the Sum of Two millions three hundred forty one thousand nine hundred and ninety Pounds, Principal Money, together with Interest for the same after the rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, as herein after is also mentioned; and in case the said Monies by this Act appointed or appropriated, as aforesaid, shall, at any time or times, appear to be deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any One Year to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies arising into the Exchequer for all the Rates, Duties and Sums of Money charged, as aforesaid, shall not amount to so much as One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, That then, and so often, and in every such case, so much as shall be wanting to make up the said Fund or Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, for every or any such Year, shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, by and out of the First Aid or Supply to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall, from time to time, be transferred thereunto as soon as the same shall be granted.

Commissioners and Officers to be appointed, who are to be liable to the Act 9 W. 3.

Penalty on Officers of the Exchequer, and other Officers offending.

LXXXIX. And be it further Enacted, for the better encouraging Persons to advance the said Sum of One million eight hundred thousand Pounds upon the Terms aforesaid, That all Receipts and Issues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, and by any other Officers or Persons, shall be done and performed by the Officers there, without Demanding or Receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the same; and in case the Officers of the Exchequer, or other Officers or Persons, shall take or demand any such Fees or Reward, or shall divert or misapply any of the Sums to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for making the aforesaid Fund, or shall pay or issue out the same otherwise than according to the intent of this Act, or shall not keep Books and Registers, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things, which by this Act they are required to do and perform in every such Office, such Officer shall forfeit his Office, and be for the future incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be sued for by any Adventurer or Contributor, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of any Adventurer or Contributor, and to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or Wager of Law, Injunction, Order of Restraint, or more than one Imparcellance shall be granted or allowed; and in the said Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery, shall have full Costs; One third part of which Sum, so to be recovered, shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Benefit of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Two third parts shall be to and for the Use of the Prosecutor.

If Principal and Interest be fully paid off before the 22 Years, then the Duties to be disposed by Parliament.

CII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if before the end of the said Term of Thirty two Years, all the said Principal and Interest Monies payable by virtue of this Act, shall be fully paid and discharged, or sufficient Money reserved, as aforesaid, for Payment thereof, that then, and in such case, and from thenceforth, all and every the Rates, Duties and Sums

Sums of Money hereby charged, as aforesaid, shall be reserved to be disposed of by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXVIII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That so much Money as, before the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be deficient to complete the quarterly Payments incurred before that time, for or upon the Annuities, amounting to Eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, settled by One Act of Parliament made and passed in the Sixth Year of her Majesties Reign; and so much Money as shall be deficient to complete the quarterly Payments incurred or to incur at any Quarter-day, on or before the Twenty fifth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, for or upon the Annuities, amounting to Forty thousand Pounds per Annum, settled by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the said Sixth Year of her Majesties Reign, shall and may be supplied out of any Publick Money that is or shall be in the Exchequer, not appropriated to particular Uses by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament; and in Default thereof, the same Deficiencies, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid out of such Publick Money, shall and may be completed and made good out of any Money that is or shall be in the Exchequer, of the Aids or Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, and hereby appropriated for Services relating to the War, as aforesaid; the same Appropriations, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for continuing the Trade to the South-Seas, granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, although the Capital Stock of the said Corporation should be redeemed.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of her Majesties Reign, [Intituled, An Act for making good De-9 A. cap. 21. ficiencies, and satisfying the Publick Debts; and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South-Seas; and for the Encouragement of the Fishery; and for Liberty to Trade in unwrought Iron with the Subjects of Spain; and to repeal the Acts for Registring Seamen,] It is Provided and Enacted, That at any time upon One Years Notice after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, upon repayment by Parliament of the Principal Sum of which the Capital Stock of the Company, which was intended to be established by virtue of the said Act, should, for the time being, consist, and of all Arrears of the Annuities or yearly Payments therein mentioned, or by Payment thereof, by and out of the Surplus Monies of the Funds settled by the said Act for Payment of the said Annuities to the said Company, then all the Impositions and Duties thereby granted or appropriated, should or might be disposed of by Parliament, and the yearly Fund therein mentioned, and the Annuities issuing out of the same, shall absolutely cease and determine; and her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the Eighth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, grounded on the said Act of Parliament, hath Incorporated all and every the Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who then were or should be interested in, or entitled unto any the Bills, Tickets, Debentures, Certificates, or other Publick Debts, Deficiencies or Sums of Money, intended to be provided for by that Act, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title derived, or to be derived from, by, or under the Original Proprietors, at any time or times, should have and be entitled to any Part, Share or Interest of or in the yearly Fund, by the First Act settled, so long as they respectively should have any Part, Share or Interest therein, to be One Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for Encouraging the Fishery; And by that Name to have Perpetual Succession, with such Powers, Privileges and Advantages, as in the said Charter are mentioned, subject nevertheless to the Condition or Power of Redemption in the said Act expressed, as by the said Act of Parliament and Charter may respectively appear: And whereas some doubts have arisen, or may arise, concerning the Power of Redemption intended by the said Act and Charter, which might tend to discourage the said Company in expending such large Sums of Money as are necessary to be expended for making new Settlements within the Limits of their Charter, and settling a Trade there, for the future Benefit of Great Britain : For Explanation whereof, Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any time upon One Years Notice, after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, upon Repayment by Parliament of the said Principal Sum, of which the Capital Stock of the said Company shall, for the time being, consist, and of all Arrears of the Annuities and yearly Payments aforesaid, or by Payment thereof, by and out of the Surplus Money of the Funds settled by the said Act, for Payment of the said Annuities to the said Company, then all the Impositions and Duties by the said Act granted or appropriated, shall and may be disposed of by Parliament, and the said yearly Fund, and the said Annuities out of the same, shall cease and determine : but that the said Corporation by the Name aforesaid, after such Redemption of the said yearly Fund, shall continue for ever, and have Perpetual Succession, and shall hold and enjoy all Forts, Factories and Acquisitions that they shall erect, establish and make within the Limits prescribed by the said Act and Charter, and the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, that shall be by them purchased in Great Britain, not exceeding One thousand Pounds per Annum ; and the Members thereof, without having any Share or Interest in the yearly Fund so to be redeemed, shall have, and be entitled to have, the sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere, and such Power of Trade in the Fishery, as by the said Act is directed, and all other Benefits, Powers, Privileges and Advantages (the Annuities issuing out of the said yearly Fund only excepted) as if no such Redemption were had or made ; and from and after such Redemption of the said yearly Fund, all Persons having any Share or Interest in the Money or Stock paid into or gained by the said Company, to carry on the Trade of the said Company, shall be, and be deemed Members of the said Company, and be entitled to all the Benefits, Profits, Privileges and Advantages thereof, in proportion to their respective Parts and Shares in the said Money or Stock, that is, or shall, from time to time, be paid in for Trade, or shall be gained thereby ; and the said Money or Stock so paid, or to be paid in for Trade, or gained thereby, shall be Assignable and Transferrable in such and the like manner (mutatis mutandis) as the Shares in the Capital Stock and yearly Fund are now Assignable, or may be Assigned ; and that from and after such Redemption of the said yearly Fund by Parliament, or after One moiety thereof, or more, shall be redeemed and discharged, by and out of the Surplus of the Funds settled by the said Act for Payment of the same, the said Governor and Company may, from time to time, by By-laws or Orders to be made in their General Court or General Courts, declare and direct how much and what Part or Share in the then remaining Capital Stock or yearly Fund, and the Money or Stock paid in for Trade, or gained thereby, or in both or either of them, shall qualifie the Members of the said Company to give any Vote or Votes in any General Court or General Courts, and for the electing of a Governor, Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor and Directors of the said Company, and for the continuing and being elected in the said Offices, or any of them.

An Act for continuing an Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America; and for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from that part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that part of Great Britain called England.

Preamble.

Whereas an Act was made in the Third and Fourth Years of her present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America; which hath been found to be very Advantageous for furnishing with Naval Stores the Royal Navy and Shipping of this Kingdom, wherein, under God, the Wealth, Safety and Strength of this Nation is so much concerned, and depends on the due Supply of Stores necessary for the same; which, by a due Encouragement, may be had from her Majesties Colonies and Plantations in America, which were at first settled, and are still maintained and protected at a great Expence from this Kingdom; and in regard the said Colonies and Plantations may (as they have done) commodiously afford great quantities of all sorts of Naval Stores, by continuing the Encouragement given in the said Act for importing the same into England: And whereas the said Act is near expiring: Be it therefore Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of her present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America, and every part thereof, shall be and is hereby continued from the time of the Expiration of the same, for and during the space and term of Eleven Years, and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament.

Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores continued for 11 Years.

II. And whereas there are in several parts of North Britain, commonly called Scotland, great store of Pine and Fir-trees, fit for Masts, and for the making of Pitch, Tar, Rozin and other Naval Stores; but the Lands and Woods which may yield such Naval Stores are mostly in Parts mountainous and remote from Navigable Rivers; therefore for the Encouragement of the Proprietors of such Lands and Woods, in the making the Roads, Passages and Rivers in those Northern Parts useful and commodious to the Publick, as well as for conveying such Naval Stores to Sea-Ports in North Britain, to be brought by Sea to that part of Great Britain called England; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid.

aforesaid, That every Person or Persons that shall, from and after the first day of September, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, during the Remainder of the time limited for the granting Premiums to the Importers of Naval Stores from America, by virtue of the said Act, and of this present Act, bring from North Britain aforesaid, into any Port of South Britain aforesaid, in any Ship or Ships built in Great Britain, any Trees fit for Masts, Pards or Bowspights, or any Pitch, Tar, Rozin or Turpentine, neat and in good and merchantable Condition, shall have and receive, as a Reward or Premium for bringing such Naval Stores from North Britain to South Britain, after and according to the several Rates for such Naval Stores, as follows; (viz.) For good and merchantable Tar per Tun, containing Eight Barrels, and each Barrel to Gage One and thirty Gallons and an half, the Sum of Four Pounds; for good and merchantable Pitch per Tun, each Tun containing Twenty gross hundreds (neat Pitch) to be brought in Eight Barrels, the Sum of Four Pounds; for good and merchantable Rozin or Turpentine per Tun, each Tun containing Twenty gross hundreds (neat Rozin or Turpentine) to be brought in Eight Barrels, the Sum of Three Pounds; for all Masts, Pards and Bowspights per Tun, allowing Forty foot to each Tun, Girt Measure, according to the Customary way of measuring round Bodies, the Sum of Twenty Shillings: Which several Rewards or Premiums shall likewise be paid and answered in good and lawful Money of Great Britain, by the Commissioners or Principal Officers of her Majesty's Navy, who are hereby empowered and required to make out Bill or Bills to be paid in Course for the same, upon Certificate of the respective Chief Officer or Officers of the Customs in any Port of South Britain, where such Naval Stores shall be imported, as aforesaid; such Bill or Bills to be made out and given to the Person or Persons importing the same, as aforesaid, within Twenty Days after the discharge or unlading of the Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, in which such Stores shall be imported, upon a Certificate or Certificates to be produced to the Chief Officer or Officers of the Customs where such Stores shall be imported; which Certificate or Certificates shall be under the Hands and Seals of the Comptroller and Collector of her Majesty's Customs, and such Naval Officer as her Majesty shall think fit to appoint or any Two of them, residing at any such Port or Ports in North Britain, as her Majesty, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, shall think fit to appoint, where such Naval Stores shall be imbarqued or shipped in order for importing the same into any Port of South Britain, That before the Departure of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, the Persons, Traders or Factors concerned or employed in the preparing or manufacturing such Naval Stores, or any Two of them, had made Affidavit in writing before such Comptroller and Collector of her Majesty's Customs in North Britain, and such Naval Officer as her Majesty shall think fit to appoint, or any Two of them, that such Naval Stores so brought to such Port of North Britain, were truly, and bona fide, of the Growth and Produce of North Britain aforesaid; in which Affidavit the particular Quantities and Qualities of such Naval Stores, together with the Time when such Naval Stores were prepared and manufactured, the Names of the Proprietors thereof, and the Place or Places where the same grew, were prepared and manufactured, shall be fully and plainly Specified and Contained; which Affidavits the said Comptroller and Collector of her Majesty's Customs in North Britain, and such Naval Officer as her Majesty shall think fit to appoint, or any Two of them, are hereby empowered to take, and to administer such Oaths, as aforesaid, and the same Affidavits to keep in their Custody, and in which Certificate a true Copy of such Affidavit shall be inserted; as likewise upon Oath, to be made within any Port in South Britain, by the Master or Masters of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels importing such Naval Stores, That the same were truly Laden on board such Ship

An Act for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Preamble.

Whereas the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain, is of great Use and Benefit to the Nation, being set up in several Parts of this United Kingdom, employing many thousands of the Poor, and is brought to great Perfection; but by the Duties on Hemp and Flax imported, and Drawback on Foreign-made Sail-Cloth exported, the Makers of British Sail-Cloth have not a sufficient Encouragement for so useful and beneficial a Manufacture; Therefore we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have given and granted to your Majesty, such Additional Duty upon Foreign Sail-Cloth to be imported, as is herein after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech beseech your Majesty, That it may be Enacted : And be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the One and twentieth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, over and above all Subsidies, Duties, Impositions and Payments, already due and payable, or which ought to be paid to her Majesty, for or upon such Foreign made Sails and Sail Cloth, or Canvas usually entered as Hollands Duck or Vitry Canvas, which shall be fit and proper to be made use of for making of Sails for navigating Ships and Vessels, and which shall be imported into Great Britain by way of Merchandize, except such Canvas as is of the Produa and Manu facture of Ireland, there shall be raised and levied, collected and paid unto her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, a further Duty of One Penny per Ell, and after that rate for greater or lesser quantities, during the Term of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer ; the same to be raised, levied, collected and recovered, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as any Subsidy payable to her Majesty for any other Goods or Merchandizes imported, or to be imported, may by any Law or Laws now in force, be raised, levied, collected and recovered.

Foreign Sail-Cloth, usually entered as Hollands Duck or Vitry Canvas, imported, to pay One Penny per Ell above all former Impositions, Except as to Ireland,

for 7 Years, &c.

II. And whereas Hemp and Flax imported, draws back nothing of the Duties paid for the same, when brought up into British Sail-Cloth ; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the said Additional Duty of One Penny per Ell, a Reward or Remuneration of One Penny be given and paid for every Ell of British-made Sail-Cloth or Canvas, fit for or made into Sails, which from and after the One and twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and within the said Term of Seven Years, or at any time before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be exported out of Great Britain by way of Merchandize : Provided always, That the Exporter of such British-made Sail-Cloth, shall always before he receives any such Reward, make Oath (which the proper Officers of the Customs have hereby Power to Administer) that such Sail-Cloth was made in Great Britain, is actually exported or shipped to be exported, without any intention to be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain, and that no former Reward upon this Act was made for the same Sail-Cloth.

A Reward of One Penny per Ell to be given for all British Sail-Cloth exported,

III. And it is hereby Enacted, That if any British-made Sail-Cloth, for which such Reward shall have been given, shall be reloaded in Great Britain, the same shall be forfeited, and every Person concerned in bringing back or reloading the same, shall forfeit Two Shillings for every Ell so brought back or reloaded, One moiety of which Forfeitures shall be to her Majesty, and the other moiety thereof to such as will seize, inform or sue for the same, or the Value thereof, to be recovered by Action, Bill, Suit or Information, in any her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Exchequer at Edinburgh, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance shall be allowed.

Such Sail-Cloth reloaded forfeited, and a s. per Ell.

III. AND whereas Cochineal, being of the Growth of the Spanish West-Indies, is of Principal Use in dying of Clothes, and other the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, Scarlets, Purples, and other Colours, called Grain Colours, to the great Improvement thereof, and employing of great Numbers of her Majesties Subjects, in finishing and perfecting such Woollen Manufacture: And whereas before the Act passed in the Sixth Year of her present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Importation of Cochineal from any Ports in Spain, during the present War, and Six Months longer, Cochineal could not be imported into this Kingdom, but from the Places of its Growth, although the same was then, and is now sold at cheaper Rates in several Parts of Europe, and used, as well in dying the said Manufactures of this Kingdom abroad, as also Foreign Manufactures, at lower Prices than her Majesties Subjects can, to the Encouragement of Foreign Woollen Manufactures, and the great Prejudice of those of this Kingdom, and Impoverishment of many of her Majesties Subjects employed therein, if the said Act should not be further continued; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act made in the Sixth Year of her present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Importation of Cochineal from any Ports in Spain, during the present War, and Six Months longer, shall be and is hereby made perpetual; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding. <sup>6 A. cap. 33.</sup>

Cochineal may be imported from any Ports in Spain.

IV. And whereas in an Act made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of the late King William, Intituled, An Act to Settle the Trade to Africa, a Clause was Enacted in the Words following, viz. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the late Queen Mary, amongst other Things, It was Enacted, That no other Copper than what is made of English Ore only, should be exported, which proving very Prejudicial to the Trade of England, by enabling Foreigners to export Copper much cheaper than it can be carried from England, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesties Subjects to export from England, all such Copper Bars as hath or shall be imported into England, from Foreign Parts, and upon Exportation shall draw back all Duties, or vacate the Securities, saving the Half of the Old Subsidy, as is usual in other Commodities: Which Clause being expired, and for as much as the Copper Manufacture of this Kingdom is brought to such Perfection, that there is more made than can be expended here, and in the Plantations; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause, and every Matter and Thing therein contained, shall be and is hereby immediately from and after the time of the Expiration thereof, revived in full Force, and shall be and is hereby continued for and during the Space and Term of Fourteen Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. <sup>6 A. cap. 33.</sup>

Foreign Copper may be exported for 14 Years, &c.

No Drawback but for East-India or Barbary Copper.

V. Provided nevertheless, and be it Enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed on the Exportation of any Copper, but such as hath been or shall be imported from the East-Indies, and the Coast of Barbary only.

An Act for taking away the New Additional Duty of Thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem, imposed upon all Books and Prints imported into Great Britain, by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty Queen Anne.

Whereas by divers Acts of Parliament heretofore made, sever-10 A. cap. 19. Preamble.
 ral Duties have been laid upon all Books and Prints imported into Great Britain: And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty Queen Anne, a further Duty of Thirty Pounds per Centum ad Valorem was laid upon all Books and Prints imported into Great Britain; which said Additional Duty of Thirty Pounds per Centum has been found, by Experience, to have tended very much to the Discouragement of Learning, and to have been Prejudicial to the other Duties formerly laid: Be it therefore Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hun-

II. And whereas by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and by the Book of Rates thereunto annexed, an Additional Duty of One Penny per Pound was made payable for all Tobacco of the English Plantations, upon giving Security for Payment of the same at Nine Months after the Importation: And whereas by the said Act made in the First Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, a Duty or Impost of Three Pence per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco, and Six Pence per Pound on all Tobacco of Foreign Plantations, the Method of collecting which Impost Duty was altered by the said Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of the late King William the Third, and thereby the Payment thereof was to be at the end of Eighteen Months, with certain Discounts at different Rates for Prompt Payment within the respective times thereby limited: And whereas by an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, a further Subsidy of One Penny per Pound was laid on all Tobacco of the English Plantations, payable in Three Months from the Importation, upon Security: And whereas by One other Act made in the Second Year of her Majesty's Reign, a Duty of One third part of One Penny per Pound was made payable on the same Tobacco, and the Importer to have Nine Months for the Payment thereof, on sufficient Security; all which Acts before mentioned are, by several subsequent Acts, since continued, and are now in force: And whereas the Payment of the said several Duties, at the different times, as before mentioned according to the respective Acts of Parliament, has by Experience, been found prejudicial and burthensome to Trade, and a loss to the Revenue: For Prevention whereof for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, during the Term of Five Years, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, all the said several and respective Provided always, That in case any Tobacco put into the said Ware-houses, and so locked up, as aforesaid, shall be burnt or destroyed by Fire, during the time it remains in the said Ware-houses, the Proprietors or Owners of such Tobacco shall be allowed the Duties paid, and the Bond shall be discharged for so much thereof as shall have been so burnt or destroyed.

VII. And whereas divers great Quantities of Tobacco of the English Plantations have been imported for some time, but by reason of the Deadness of the Tobacco Trade, occasioned by the Length of the late War, the Importers or Proprietors thereof have not entered the said Tobacco, and paid or secured the Duties for the same, as the Law requires: For Relief therefore of the said Importers or Proprietors of the said Tobacco in this special case, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the time of Importation of all such Tobaccos, as are already imported, and not entered, shall be reckoned to be from the Second day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, in like manner as if the Masters of the said Ships or Vessels had made Report of their several Ladings on that Day; and the Importers or Proprietors of such Tobacco shall pay or secure the Duties, and have and enjoy the several Allowances and Discounts, and be entitled to drawback the Duties, as fully and in like manner as if the said Tobacco had been imported, and the Masters of the Ships had made their respective Reports of their Ladings, on the said Second day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. And whereas it has been found by Experience, That her Majesties Revenue suffers great Prejudice, as well by Allowances for Damaged Tobacco, as by the obtaining a Drawback by Debenture on the reshipping the same, as if such Tobacco had been Sound and Good, and paid the Duties at Importation: For preventing the like Abuses for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, within or during the Term of five Years thence next ensuing, or at any time before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, no Merchant or other Person whatsoever shall have any Allowance or Abatement for the Subsidies or other Duties made him, for any sort of Tobacco imported, or to be imported, under pretence of such Tobacco being Corrupt or Unmerchantable; But in case any Merchant or other Person shall refuse to make Entry of such Damaged Tobacco, and to pay and secure the whole Duties due and payable for the same, then he or they shall have Liberty to separate from his or their Tobacco, so much thereof as they shall refuse to pay Custom for, and the Principal Officers of her Majesties Customs, or any Two or more of them, shall cause all such Corrupt Tobacco to be weighed, and publickly burnt, or otherwise destroyed, as not wholesome and fit for use, and the Owner or Importer thereof shall be discharged from paying or securing any Subsidy, or other Duties for the same, to her Majesty; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Importer of such Damaged and Corrupt Tobacco, shall, as a Compensation for Freight and other Charges, and for that the cutting off and separating the same may deface the Remainder of the Tobacco, have an Allowance of Twenty five Pounds weight of Tobacco, free of all Duties, for every One hundred Pounds of such Corrupt and Damaged Tobacco so separated to be burnt or destroyed, as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; which Allowance of Twenty five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of Tobacco so to be made, as aforesaid, shall be by Certificate, and the Officers are hereby required to make, pass, and pay such Certificate without Fee or Reward, the Tobacco mentioned in such Certificate not to be placed to the Merchants Export Account, so as such Allowance of Twenty five Pounds of Tobacco for every One hundred Pounds of Damaged Tobacco, so separated or destroyed, does not exceed the Quantity of One hundred and fifty Pounds of Tobacco, upon or for any Hoghead of Arranoco Tobacco, or the Quantity of Two hundred Pounds of Tobacco, upon or for any Hoghead of Sweet-scented Tobacco.

Owner to be allowed 25 lb. for every 100 lb. of Damaged Tobacco to be burnt, &c.

The Allowance to be by Certificate, without Fee, and not to be placed to the Export Account, &c.

X. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to forbid or hinder the Merchants or Importers having an Allowance made them for Damaged Tobacco, in such manner as hath been usual, so as such Allowance doth not exceed Forty Pounds weight of Tobacco upon any One Hoghead; and for the more ready Dispatch of Business, such small Damages, not exceeding Forty Pounds weight on any One Hoghead, shall be viewed, and the Allowance made in the Scale; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to hinder former Allowances, not exceeding 40 lb. on any One Hoghead, to be made in the Scale.

XI. And whereas it frequently happens that divers Goods and Merchandizes are brought into her Majesties Storehouses for want of being Entred, and because the Duties of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties are not Paid and Secured as the Law directs, which Goods do remain there divers Years, and often so long, until they are Perished, and become of no Value, whereby the Queen hath lost the whole Custom due on the Importation of the said Goods; for Prevention whereof for the future, Be it likewise Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First day of July, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, shall in all Cases where the Goods are or shall be brought into her Majesties Storehouses for Security of the Customs, and other Duties due thereon, as soon as conveniently they can, cause all Goods so brought into her Majesties Storehouses, as aforesaid, which shall have remained there for the space of Twelve Months, the Subsidy and other Duties not paid, compounded for, or otherwise secured, as the Law directs, to be publicly sold by Auction, or such of Candle, and after such Sale, the Produce thereof is first to be applied to or towards the Payment of the Freight, Primage, and Charges of Ware-house room, and other Charges that shall arise thereon, next the Customs and Duties, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor, or other Persons authorized to receive the same.

Goods in Warehouses unpaid for, to be sold at Publick Sale.

Produce how to be applied.

XII. And whereas an Act passed in the Eighth Year of her Majesties Reign, for continuing several Impositions, Additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan for Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten, and for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; in which there were several Regulations Enacted to be complied with, in order to entitle the Exporters of Tobacco to their Debentures, which new Regulations being made to commence from the Twenty seventh day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, by which time the same could not be known in Scotland, several Parcels of Tobacco, through Ignorance, were exported from thence without regard to the Regulations laid down in the said Act, the Debentures of which Tobacco have been refused to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants upon that account only; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Tobacco exported from Scotland, after the Twenty seventh day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and before the Sixteenth day of April following, the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland shall cause the Debentures to be made forth, and allowed to the Merchants according to the Laws in force before the said Twenty seventh day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten; any thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And whereas there has been some doubt whether the Deputations or Authorities granted to Collectors, Surveyors, or other Inferior Officers of the Customs, do remain in force upon the Death or Removal of any of the Commissioners of the Customs, by whom the Deputations were granted; Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Collectors, Surveyors, or other Inferior Officers of the Customs who are or have been, or shall be hereafter deputed or appointed, as aforesaid, shall be deemed to remain and continue in their respective Offices and Employments, notwithstanding the Death or Removal of any of the Commissioners of the Customs, who deputed and appointed such Officers, until the Deputations of such Officers respectively shall be, by the said Commissioners, or any Superior Authority, revoked, annulled or made void.

Anno 12 A N N Æ Regina. Sess. 1. Parl. 2.

C A P. IX.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for laying Additional Duties on Sope, and Paper, and upon certain Linens, Silks, Callicoes and Stuffs, and upon Starch, and exported Coals, and upon Stampt Vellum, Parchment and Paper, for raising One million four hundred thousand Pounds, by way of a Lottery, for her Majesties Supply; and for Allowances on exporting made Wares of Leather, Sheep-skins and Lamb-skins; and for Distribution of Four thousand Pounds due to the Officers and Seamen for Gun-Money; and to adjust the Property of Tickets in former Lotteries; and touching certain Shares of Stock in the Capital of the South-Sea Company; and for appropriating the Monies granted to her Majesty.

Preamble.

MAJ it please your most Excellent Majesty, we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that such Supplies as are necessary for defraying your Majesties Publick Expences may be effectually raised, have therefore cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto your Majesty the several and respective Rates and Duties for and upon all Sope made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and for and upon all chequered and striped Linens to be imported into Great Britain; and for and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, and other enumerated Goods, which shall be printed, painted, stained or dyed in Great Britain; and for and upon all Starch made in Great Britain; and for and upon all Coals exported for Foreign Parts; and for and upon such Stampt Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and other things hereafter in this Act more

The imported Duties, and the Duty on Coals exported, to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively.

XII. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Soap, Paper, Pastboards, Millboards, Scaleboards, chequered and striped Linens, or any other Commodities before charged, as shall be imported into England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, during the Term or Terms aforesaid, and all the Duties which shall arise in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, for Coals to be exported, during the Term therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in England, for the time being, according to the Duties of their respective Offices; and that all the Duties imposed by this Act upon such Soap, Paper, Pastboards, Millboards, Scaleboards, and chequered and striped Linens, or any the Commodities before charged, as shall be imported into Scotland, during the respective Terms aforesaid, and all the Duties imposed by this Act, which shall arise in Scotland, for Coals to be exported during the said Term therein granted, as aforesaid, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs in in Scotland, for the time being, according to the Duties of their respective Offices; and that the respective Receivers General of the Customs in England and Scotland, for the time being, shall, from time to time, pay, or cause to be paid, all the Monies that they shall respectively receive for the said imported Commodities, and for the said exported Coals (the necessary Charges of raising and Accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of her Majesties Exchequer in England, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenues, for the purposes in this Act expressed, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are to be inflicted by this Act for diverting or misapplying any Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for any the purposes herein after mentioned.

XIV. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the several Duties by this Act imposed, as aforesaid, upon Sops, Paper of all sorts, Pastboards, Billboards, Scaleboards, chequered and striped Linens, and upon printed, painted, stained and dyed Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, during the said Term or Terms of Years, therein by this Act granted, in all cases whatsoever (except where other Provision or Direction is specially made or given by this Act) shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered, and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Discounts, Allowances, Exemptions and Drawbacks, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties imposed on the same Commodities respectively, by an Act made in the Tenth Year of her Majesties Reign, for laying several Duties upon Sops, Paper, chequered and striped Linens, and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained, (amongst other things thereby charged) for and during the respective Terms thereby granted, towards raising the Sum of One million eight hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament thereby referred unto, or by any other Act of this Session of Parliament, are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid respectively; and that the said Duty by this Act imposed upon Starch, during all the said Term of Two and thirty Years therein by this Act granted, shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Discounts, Allowances, Exemptions and Drawbacks, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties imposed by another Act of the Tenth Year of her Majesties Reign, upon Starch (amongst other things thereby charged) for and during the Term thereby granted, towards Raising another Sum of One million eight hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament thereby referred unto, are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid respectively, except in such Case or Cases, touching which other Directions are given by this Act; and that the said Duties by this Act imposed upon Coals exported to any foreign Parts, (except before excepted) during the said Term of Years by this Act granted of and in the same, shall be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Exportation of Coals, or any other Customable Goods, to any foreign Parts, by any Law or Statute now in force, during the Continuance thereof, are to be raised, levied, ascertained, secured, collected, answered and paid.

XV. And for better securing the Duties by this Act Chargeable upon such of the Commodities aforesaid, as by the first mentioned Act of the Tenth Year of her Majesties Reign are directed to be marked or stamped; and to the End the Duties arising thereupon by this Act may be better distinguished, and applied to the separate Use by this Act intended, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such proper Stamps or Seals shall, on or before misses, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any part of the Monies arising by the same Duties, or any of them, as are prescribed, and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third [Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding Two millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies] for the like Offence or Neglect, relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

XLVII. And be it further Enacted, That for the better encouraging Persons to advance the said Sum of One million four hundred thousand Pounds upon the Terms aforesaid, That all Receipts and Issues, and all other things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, and by any other Officers or Persons, shall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the same; and in case the Officers of the Exchequer, or other Officers or Persons shall take or demand any such Fees or Reward, or shall divert or misapply any of the Sums to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for making up the aforesaid Fund, or shall pay or issue out the same, otherwise than according to the Intent of this Act, or shall not keep Books and Registers, and make Entries, and do and perform all other things which by this Act they are required to perform, every such Officer shall forfeit his Office, and be for the future incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall answer and pay treble Damages and Costs of Suit to any Adventurer, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of any Adventurer that will sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Restraint, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed, and in the said Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery shall have full Costs; One third part of which Sum so to be recovered, shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Benefit of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors; and the other Two third parts shall be to and for the Use of the Prosecutor.

LXVIII. And whereas, by an Act passed the Ninth Year of her Majesties Reign, certain Duties are laid on tanned Leather; and by another Act passed the Tenth Year of her Majesties Reign, further Duties are laid thereon, and by the said Acts only Two thirds of the respective Duties are to be drawn back, or allowed upon the Exportation of Boots, Shoes, Globes or other Manufactures, which by Experience is found to be a Discouragement to the Manufacturers employed therein; For remedy whereof, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the Second day of August, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, there shall, in lieu of the said Two thirds of the said Duties, be paid and allowed to the Exporter or Exporters, for all tanned Leather which shall be Manufactured and actually made into Goods or Wares, by him or them exported, on a proper Debenture to be made for that purpose, and Security given for the same, as by the said Acts are prescribed, the Sum of One Penny Half-penny for every Pound-weight thereof, and so in proportion for every greater or lesser Quantity; which Drawback of One Penny Half-penny per Pound, shall be paid out of the respective Duties granted by the said Acts of the Ninth and of the Tenth Years of her Majesties Reign; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And for the Encouragement of such Persons as shall give their Assistance to such Ships or Vessels, so in distress, as aforesaid, Be it further Enacted, That the said Collectors of the Customs, and the Master or Commanding Officer of any Ships or Vessels, and all others who shall act or be employed in the preserving of any such Ship or Vessel in distress, as aforesaid, or their Cargoes, shall within Thirty Days after the Service performed be paid a reasonable Reward for the same, by the Commander, Master, or other Superior Officer, Mariners or Owners of the Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, or by the Merchant, whose Ship, Vessel, or Goods shall be so saved, as aforesaid; and in default thereof, the said Ship, Vessel or Goods, so saved, as aforesaid, shall remain in the Custody of such Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, until such time that all Charges shall be paid, and until the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, and the said Master or other Officer of the Ship or Vessel, and all others so employed, as aforesaid, shall be reasonably gratified for their said Assistance and Trouble, or good Security given for that purpose, to the Satisfaction of the several Parties that are to receive the same; and that in case after such Salvage, the Commander or other Superior Officer, Partners or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, so saved, as aforesaid, or Merchant whose Goods shall be so saved, as aforesaid, shall disagree with the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, touching the Monies deserved by any of the Persons so employed, as aforesaid, It shall be lawful for the Commander of such Ship or Vessel so saved, or the Owner of the Goods, or the Merchant interested therein, and also for the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, to nominate Three of the Neighbouring Justices of the Peace, who shall thereupon adjust the Quantum of the Monies or Gratuities to be paid to the several Persons aforesaid or being employed in the Salvage of the said Ship, Vessel or Goods; and such Adjustments shall be binding to all Parties, and shall be recoverable in an Action at Law to be brought in any of her Majesties Courts of Record, by the respective Persons to whom the same shall be allotted by the said Justices of Peace; and in case it shall happen, that no Person shall appear to make his Claim to all or any the Goods that shall be saved, That then and in such Case, the Chief Officer of the Customs of the nearest Port to the Place where the said Ship or Vessel was so in distress, as aforesaid, shall apply to Three of the nearest Justices of Peace, who shall put him or some other responsible Person in Possession of the said Goods, such Justices of Peace taking an account in writing of the said Goods, to be signed by such Officer of the Customs; and if the said Goods shall not be legally claimed within the space of Twelve Month next ensuing, by the rightful Owner thereof, then publick Sale shall be made thereof, and if perishable Goods, forthwith to be sold, and after all Charges deducted, the residue of the Monies arising by such Sale, with a fair and just Account of the whole, shall be transmitted to her Majesties Exchequer, there to remain for the Benefit of the rightful Owner when appearing, who upon Affidavit or other Proof made of his or their Right or Property thereto, to the Satisfaction of One of the Barons of the Exchequer, shall upon his Order, receive the same out of the Exchequer.

III. And it is hereby also Enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, besides those impowered by the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, and the Constables, as aforesaid, shall enter or endeavour to enter on Board any such Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, without the Leave or Consent of the Commander, or other Superior Officer of the said Ship, or of the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, or of the said Constable, or some or One of them employed for the Service and Preservation of the said Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid; or in case any Person shall molest him, them, or any of them, in the saving of the said Ship, Vessel or Goods, or shall endeavour to impede or hinder the saving of any such Ship, Vessel or Goods, or when any such Goods are saved, shall take out or deface the Marks of any such Goods, before the same shall be taken down in a Book or Books for that purpose provided by the Commander or Ruling Officer, and the First Officer of the Customs, as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall, within the space of Twenty Days, make double Satisfaction to the Party grieved, at the Discretion of the Two next Justices of Peace, or in default thereof, shall by such Justices of Peace be sent to the next House of Correction, where he shall continue and be employed in hard Labour by the space of Twelve Months then next ensuing; and that it shall be lawful for any Commander or Superior Officer of the said Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, or for the said Officer of the Customs, or Constables on board the same Ship or Vessel, to repel by force any such Person or Persons as shall, without such Leave or Consent from the said Commander or Superior Officer, or the said Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, or such Constables, as aforesaid, press on board the said Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, and thereby molest them in the Preservation of the said Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid.

IV. And it is hereby likewise Enacted, That in case any Goods shall be found upon any Person or Persons, that were stolen or carried off from any such Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, he, she or they, on whom such Goods shall be found, shall immediately, upon demand, deliver the same to the Owner thereof, or to such Person by such Owner authorized to receive the same, or in default thereof, shall be liable to pay treble the Value of such Goods, to be recovered by such Owner in an Action at Law to be brought for the same.

V. And it is hereby moreover Enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall make, or be assisting in the making any Hole in the Bottom, Side, or any other Part of any Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, or shall Steal any Pump belonging to any Ship or Vessel, so in distress, as aforesaid, or shall be aiding or abetting in the Stealing such Pump, as aforesaid, or shall wilfully do any thing tending to the immediate Loss or Destruction of such Ship or Vessel, such Person or Persons shall be and are hereby made guilty of Felony, without any Benefit of his, her, or their Clergy.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year, One thousand seven hundred and nine, It is expressly Enacted and Provided, That all European Linens, Silfers Thread, and Tapes or Incles (among other things) shall be exempted from the Payment of the Duties called the Two third Subsidies, for all times to come during the Continuance of the same: And whereas some doubts and disputes have arisen between the Commissioners of her Majesties Customs, and the Merchants and other Importers of the said Tapes and Incles, by means of the Uncertainty whether the Exception of the Tape or Incle, mentioned in the said Act, be only of Tapes that are wrought Incle, so that all wrought Incle is thereby exempted from the Payment of the aforesaid Duties, though manufactured Abroad in Parts beyond the Seas, and unwrought Incles, which employ great Numbers of Poor in manufacturing the same, is construed to be liable to, and is charged with the said Duties, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Law, as appears evidently, in that the bringing in, and importing wrought Incle is prejudicial to Great Britain, and the Poor Subjects and Manufacturers thereof; Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Provision and Exception in the said Act above mentioned, in relation to Tapes or Incles, shall extend, and be construed to exempt European unwrought Incle, commonly called or known by the Name of Short Spinnal, as well as wrought Incle, from the Payment of the said Duties of the Two third Subsidies, which shall be entred at any of her Majesties Custom-houses within the Kingdom of Great Britain, after the Twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act to explain the Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, Intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better Securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King William the Third, Intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better Securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, It is amongst other things Enacted, That from and after the time that the further Limitation of the Crown by that Act should take effect, no Person born out of the Kingdoms of England, Scotland or Ireland, or the Dominions thereunto belonging, although he be naturalized or made a Denizen, except such as are born of English Parents, should be capable to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either House of Parliament, or to enjoy any Office or Place of Trust, either Civil or Military, or to have any Grant of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments from the Crown, to himself or to any others in Trust for him: And whereas some doubts have arisen concerning the Construction of the said Law, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it was not the intent and meaning of the said Act, that the said Clause or any thing therein contained, should extend, nor shall the said Clause be construed, adjudged, or taken to extend to disable or incapacitate any Person, who at or before his Majesties Accession to the Crown was naturalized, to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either House of Parliament, or to take or enjoy any Office or Place of Trust, either Civil or Military, or to take or have any Grant of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments from the Crown, to himself, or any other in Trust for him.

II. And for the better preserving the said recited Clause, in the said Act of the Twelfth Year of the late King William the Third, entire and inviolable, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall hereafter be naturalized, unless in the Bill exhibited for that purpose, there be a Clause or particular Words inserted to declare, that such Person shall not thereby be enabled to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either House of Parliament, or to take any Office or Place of Trust, either Civil or Military, or to have any Grant of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments from the Crown, to himself, or any other Person in Trust for him: and that no Bill of Naturalization shall hereafter be received in either House of Parliament, unless such Clause or Words be first inserted or contained therein.

Honies, Remains and Arrears, as are already commenced or arisen, and the Residue thereof, as they shall arise and take effect, shall be and are by this Act appropriated, and shall be applied thereunto accordingly; any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And it is hereby Enacted, That after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as is or shall be grown due or demandable for the said Allowance of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and Interest of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Allowance of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum, and Eight thousand Pounds per Annum, then the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds for the Service of his Majesties Household and Family, and other his necessary Expences and Occasions, shall grow due and be payable to his Majesty quarterly, from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, at the Four most usual Feasts in the Year, by equal Portions, during his Majesties Natural Life, as aforesaid, out of the Honies of the said General or Aggregate Fund, arising, or to arise, by the said Duties or Revenues already commenced, or hereafter to come in, as aforesaid; and that the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury, or Lord Treasurer, and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer, for the time being, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and required to cause the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds to be issued and applied, weekly, or as soon as the same can be satisfied, in the Order and Course aforesaid, for the same Services out of the said Honies of the said General or Aggregate Fund, or any of them, so as by such weekly or other Payments, the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds to be due thereupon at the End of each Quarter be not exceeded.

After that, the yearly Sum of 120000 l. shall be paid for the Civil List.

XIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as is or shall be grown due or demandable for the said Allowance of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and Interest of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Allowances of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum, and Eight thousand Pounds per Annum, and for or upon the said Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, then the said Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, from the Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, for ever, shall, at the said Four usual Feasts in the Year, by equal Portions, without any Deduction or Abatement, be separated and set apart in the said Receipt of Exchequer, out of the Honies of the said General or Aggregate Fund arising and to arise by the said Duties or Revenues already commenced, or hereafter to come in, as aforesaid, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied to Answer and Satisfie such Perpetual Annuities as shall be purchased thereupon, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament, according to the true intent and meaning of such Act or Acts of Parliament, as is, are, or shall be Passed, for raising thereupon any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the said Sum of Nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, for the Service of the Publick.

After that, the yearly Sum of 54600 l. shall be set apart to answer the perpetual Annuities.

XX. And it is hereby Declared to be the true intent and meaning of this Act, That the said Allowance after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the said Payments for Interest, shall, from time to time, take place, and be preferred in point of Payment, out of the said General or Aggregate Fund hereby established, before the said yearly Sums of Forty five thousand, and Eight thousand Pounds, or either of them; and that the said yearly Sums of Forty five thousand Pounds, and Eight thousand Pounds, shall, from time to time, take place, and be preferred in point of Payment, before the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds; and that the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds shall, from time to time, take place, and be preferred in point of Payment, out of the said General Fund, before the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds; and that the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, shall, from time to time, take place, and be preferred before any Sums herein after mentioned, for making good Deficiencies (when any such shall happen) of or in other Funds of the said Governor and Company, and before the yearly Sum herein after mentioned, for cancelling and discharging the said Exchequer Bills.

How the Deficiencies shall be made good.

XXI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after paying or reserving sufficient to Pay and Satisfie, from time to time, so much as is or shall be grown due or demandable for the said Allowance of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and Interest of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Allowances of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum, and Eight thousand Pounds per Annum, and for and upon the said yearly Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, then the said Deficiency and Deficiencies for making good the Payments, to be, from time to time, incurred and grown due, for or upon the said yearly Sums of One hundred thousand Pounds, and One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings and Five Pence, and either of them (when and often as any such shall happen) shall, from time to time, be satisfied and answered out of the Monies of the said General or Aggregate Fund, arising or to arise by the said Duties or Revenues already commenced, or hereafter to come in, as aforesaid; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord Treasurer, and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being, are hereby authorized and required to cause every such Deficiency or Deficiencies so happening, to be satisfied and paid accordingly, with preference to any Issues then to be made for cancelling the said Bills; which Deficiencies (if any such be) shall be annually computed at the Exchequer, from the Produce of the said respective Revenues there (to wit) the Deficiency of the said Original Fund on the first day of June yearly, and the Deficiency of the Annuity last mentioned at Michaelmas yearly.

How the Principal Money of the Exchequer Bills shall be paid off.

XXII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfie, from time to time, so much as is or shall be grown due or demandable for the said Allowance of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and Interest of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, and the said Sums of Forty five thousand Pounds per Annum, Eight thousand Pounds per Annum, One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, and so much as shall be demandable by virtue of this Act, to make good such Deficiency and Deficiencies, as aforesaid (all which are always to be preferred, as aforesaid) then the said full and entire yearly Sum of Two hundred and seventy thousand nine hundred ninety nine Pounds seven Shillings, or so much thereof, as the Remainder of the Monies of the said General or Aggregate Fund, arising or to arise by the said Duties or Revenues already commenced, or hereafter to come in, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, produce for that purpose, shall be, and is by this Act appropriated for paying off all the Principal Money contained in all and every the said Exchequer Bills made forth upon the Acts aforesaid, or any of them, and for cancelling the same, until all the said Bills shall be discharged and cancelled, and shall be issued and applied to and for that Use and Purpose, in such manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord Treasurer for the time being, shall, from time to time, direct and appoint in that behalf; and that the Issues thereof shall be made quarterly, or oftner, so as by the Payments within any Quarter, the fourth part of the yearly Sum last mentioned for that Quarter be not exceeded.

XXIII. Pro:

XXIII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Produce of the said General or Aggregate Fund, to arise by all or any the Subsidies, Duties and Revenues hereby appropriated for all the Purposes aforesaid, shall, at the end of any Year, reckoning from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, exceed all the Money due at the end of every such Year for all the Purposes aforesaid, so that there shall be an Excess or Surplus of the said General Fund, such Excess or Surplus shall be disposable, from time to time, for the Publick Use and Service by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise; any thing herein, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overplus of any Year disposable by Parliament, and not otherwise.

XXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Produce of the said General or Aggregate Fund, to arise by all or any the Subsidies, Duties and Revenues hereby appropriated for all the Purposes aforesaid, shall, at any time or times, appear to be so Deficient, that within any One Year, reckoning from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, the same shall not be sufficient to answer and satisfy the said several and respective Purposes to which the same is hereby intended to be applied, Then and in every such case, and as often as any such Deficiency of the said General Fund shall happen, the same shall be provided for, answered and made good by and out of the next Aids to be granted in Parliament.

Deficiency to be made good by Parliament.

XXV. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Revenues settled or appointed for the Service of his Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, by the late Act of Parliament of the First Year of his Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for the better Support of his Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain] together with the said Additional Revenue of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, intended by this Act to be supplied, as aforesaid, shall, from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, at any time during his Majesties Life, produce in clear Money more than the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, That then the Overplus of such Produce (being more than the said yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds) shall go to, and be deemed and taken to be part of the General or Aggregate Fund by this Act intended to be established for the several Purposes aforesaid, and be appropriated, issued, and applied accordingly, till all the said Exchequer Bills shall be paid off and cancelled; and from and after the cancelling and discharging of all the said Exchequer Bills, then the said Overplus, which from thenceforth shall arise, exceeding the said yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, shall not be issued, disposed, made use of, or applied to any Use or Purpose, or upon any Pretext whatsoever, without the Authority of Parliament: And that all Grants and Dispositions whatsoever hereafter to be made by his Majesty of such Overplus, or any part thereof, from time to time, without Authority of Parliament, shall be utterly void and of none effect; and the Grantees, or other Persons, to whom such Grants or Dispositions, or any of them, shall be made of such Overplus, or any part thereof, shall be adjudged incapable in Law to take, hold, keep, detain or enjoy the same; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overplus of 700000 £. for the Civil List, shall be part of the General or Aggregate Fund.

All Grants of such Overplus, without Authority of Parliament, void.

XXVI. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Revenues settled or appointed for the Service of his Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown by the said Act of the First Year of his Majesties Reign; and the said Additional Revenue of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, taken together, shall, at the end of any Year successively, during his Majesties Life, reckoning the First Year from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, in this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said former Acts above recited or mentioned, and every of them, and all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Advantages and Exemptions, and all Rules, Directions and Precepts, and all Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, in them or any of them contained (being now in force) touching or concerning the said Exchequer Bills issued, as aforesaid, or the circulating or exchanging the said Bills, or any of them, or touching or concerning any the Subsidies, Duties or Funds in the said Acts, or any of them mentioned, or any way relating thereunto (such Alterations as are therein made by this Act only excepted) shall continue, and be used, exercised, inflicted, raised, levied, applied, and put in practice and execution, in relation to all and every the said Exchequer Bills, and in relation to the Subsidies, Duties and Funds settled by this and the said former Acts, as fully as if the said Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Advantages, Exemptions, Rules, Directions, Precepts, Pains of Death, and other Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things (except as aforesaid) were repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and that the said Governor and Company, or any the Members thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in pursuance of this Act.

The Bank
established.

XXIX. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue a Corporation, with all the Powers, Privileges and Advantages thereunto belonging, until all the said Exchequer Bills, issued by virtue of the said Acts, or any of them, shall be discharged and cancelled, notwithstanding the Redemption of their other Funds, in pursuance of the Acts by which the same are established, or any of them; any thing in this or the said other Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

When the General or Aggregate Fund shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the complete paying off and discharging all the Principal and Interest which shall be due upon all the said Exchequer Bills issued, as aforesaid, and cancelling the same, and full Payment made of all Arrearages (if any shall be then due) as well for and upon the said Allowance after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for and upon the said yearly Sums of Forty five thousand Pounds, Eight thousand Pounds, One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, and every of them, as also of such Deficiency or Deficiencies as shall then appear to be unsatisfied (if any such be) for or upon the said Original Fund of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and for and upon the said Annuity of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, then, and not till then, the said General or Aggregate Fund by this Act established, or intended to be established, for the several Purposes aforesaid, and the said Subsidies, Duties and Revenues, contained, or to be contained therein, and every of them, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid or applied, to any use, intent or purpose whatsoever, without the Authority of Parliament; other than and except the said Duties called the Two thirds of a Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage upon Goods and Merchandizes imported, and other than and except the said Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, Pistaches and Musks, and other than and except the said increased Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs,

megs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Haxe and Pictures, and other than and except the said further Rates and Duties upon all white Callicoes, Porcelain, called China-Ware, and Drugs; all which said Subsidies and Duties, so excepted, are intended to be continued, and are hereby enacted to be continued, for answering and paying out of the same all the Payments which shall, after such Redemption, grow due for and upon the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, by quarterly Payments, for the Service of his Majesties Household and Family, and other his necessary Occasions, during his Majesties Life, and also for answering and paying out of the same excepted Subsidies, and other Duties, all the Payments which shall, after such Redemption, grow due for or upon the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, for Payment of the said Annuities to be purchased, as aforesaid; which Annuities are to continue for ever, unless the same be redeemed by Parliament, according to the tenor and true meaning of the said other Act or Acts of Parliament, passed, or to be passed in that behalf; and the said excepted Subsidies and Duties so to be continued for answering the Payments of the said yearly Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the same, are and shall be appropriated, issued and applied thereunto, during the Continuance of the same yearly Sums respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXI. And it is hereby Declared to be the true intent and meaning of this Act, That the said General Fund by this Act established for the several Purposes aforesaid, and all the said Subsidies, Duties and Revenues comprehended, or intended to be comprehended therein (except before excepted) may be redeemed in the Manner and Form prescribed in and by the foregoing Provision and Condition, without redeeming the said Original Fund of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum of the said Governor and Company, or their said Annuity of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings and Five Pence per Annum; which Original Fund and Annuity respectively shall and may be redeemed upon such Notices, and in such Manner and Form, and upon such Terms and Conditions, as are prescribed by the respective Acts of Parliament now in force concerning the same, and not otherwise; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That from and after such Redemption of the said Original Fund of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and of the said Annuity of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, and from and after Redemption shall likewise be made of the General Fund established by this Act for the several Purposes aforesaid, (except before excepted) Then, and not till then, the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall cease and determine; but till then the said Governor and Company shall continue a Corporation, and shall have and enjoy all the Powers and Privileges they are entitled to, as aforesaid.

XXXIII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That so much of the Sum of One hundred and eighty thousand Pounds, which was borrowed on the said former Act, which said a Duty on Hops for four Years, and the Interest thereof, as is deficient, and remains unpaid, shall be satisfied out of the said Sum, not exceeding Nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, to be raised, as aforesaid.

Deficiency on the Hop Act to be made good.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesties Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his Open and Secret Abettors.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William, of Glorious and Immortal Memory, Intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, <sup>12 W. 3. cap. 2.</sup> It was Enacted, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, with the Royal State and Dignity of the said Realms, and all Honours, Styles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Jurisdictions and Authorities, to the same belonging and appertaining, after the Decease of his said Majesty, and of the Princess Anne of Denmark, and in Default of Issue of the said Princess Anne of Denmark, and of his said Majesty respectively, should be, remain, and continue to the most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutchess Dowager of Hanover, Daughter of the most Excellent Princess Elizabeth late Queen of Bohemia, Daughter of our late Sovereign Lord King James the First, and the Heirs of the Body of the said Princess Sophia, being Protestants: And whereas also an Act was made in England in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of the said King William, Intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesties Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their Open and Secret Abettors, whereby, amongst other things, it was Provided, That all and every Person and Persons, mentioned in the said last recited Act, should take the Oath therein mentioned, and subscribe the same, in the Manner, at the Times and Places, and under the Pains and Penalties therein expressed; and upon the Demise of his late Majesty King William, there was another Act made in the First Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to Declare the Alterations in the Oath appointed to be taken by the Act, Intituled, <sup>13 & 14 W. 3. cap. 6.</sup> An Act for the further Security of his Majesties Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their Open and Secret Abettors; and for declaring the Association to be determined; and for the same end there was another Act passed in the Fourth Year of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for the better Security of her Majesties Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of England in the Protestant Line: And whereas by the Treaty of Union, and Second Article thereof, It is Provided, That the Succession to the Monarchy of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, after her said late most Sacred Majesty Queen Anne, and in default of Issue of her said Majesty, should be, remain, and continue to the most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutchess Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants, upon whom the Crown of England stood settled by the aforesaid Act, made in England in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William; pursuant to which Treaty and State of Union, there were sundry Acts made in the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, for taking certain Oaths and Declarations, for Security of her Majesties Person and Government, and settling the Crown in the Protestant Line: And whereas the said pretended Prince of Wales hath assumed

sumed the Stile and Title of James the Third, King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, in open Defiance of the Provisions made for the Establishment of the Title and Succession of the Crown by the said Acts of Parliament, on which said Acts the Safety of your Majesties Royal Person and Government, the Continuance of the Monarchy of Great Britain, the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, the Maintenance of the Churches of England and Scotland, as by Law Established, the Security of the Ancient and Undoubted Rights and Liberties, and the future Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom do (under God) entirely Depend: And whereas the said pretended Prince of Wales, since the Demise of the late Queen, in Prejudice of your Majesties just Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, has continued to assume the said Name and Title of James the Third, King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, in manifest Violation of your Majesties most lawful and rightful Title to the Crown, and of the Acts and Treaty aboves mentioned, made for Settling, and further Security of the same, and for Extinguishing the Hopes of him the said Pretender, and of all other Pretenders, and their Open and Secret Abettors: And whereas also several wicked and evil minded Persons have, even since your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne, in Riotous, Seditious and Treasonable Manner, taken upon them to give to the said pretended Prince of Wales the aforesaid Name and Title: To the intent therefore the said Acts may be for ever inviolably Preserved, and that all future Questions and Divisions, by reason of any pretended Titles to the Crown, may be prevented, we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your most Excellent Majesty, That it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons, as well Peers as Commoners, that shall bear any Office or Offices, Civil or Military, or shall receive any Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages, by reason of any Patent or Grant from his Majesty, or shall have Command or Place of Trust from or under his Majesty, or from any of his Majesties Predecessors, or by his, her or their Authority, or by Authority derived from him, her or them, within Great Britain, or in his Majesties Navy, or in the several Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, or shall be of the Household, or in the Service or Employment of his Majesty, or of his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, or her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, or their Issue, and all Ecclesiastical Persons, Heads or Governors, of what Denomination soever, and all other Members of Colleges and Halls in any University, that are or shall be of the Foundation, or that do or shall enjoy any Exhibition, (being of the Age of Eighteen Years) and all Persons teaching or reading to Pupils in any University, or elsewhere, and all Schoolmasters and Others, and all Preachers and Teachers of Separate Congregations, all Constables, and every Person that shall Act as a Sergeant at Law, Counsellor at Law, Barrister, Advocate, Attorney, Solicitor, Writer in Scotland, Proctor, Clerk or Notary, by practising in any manner as such in any Court whatsoever, who shall inhabit, reside or be within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within Thirty Miles distant from the same, on the First day of Michaelmas Term next, at any time during the said Term, shall personally appear before the End of the said Term in his Majesties Court of Chancery, Kings Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, and there, in publick and open Court, between the Hours of Nine of the Clock and Twelve in the Forenoon, take the Oaths herein after mentioned: That is to say,

I A. B. do sincerely Promise and Swear, That I will be Faithful, and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George: Oath of Allegiance.

Allegation.

I A. B. do truly and sincerely Acknowledge, Profess, Testifie, and Declare in my Conscience, before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lord King George is Lawful and Rightful King of this Realm, and all other his Majesties Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely Declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King James, and since his Decease, pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of James the Third, or of Scotland, by the Name of James the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging : And I do Renounce, Refuse, and Abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do Swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to his Majesty King George, and him will defend, to the utmost of my Power, against all Traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown or Dignity. And I will do my utmost Endeavour to Disclose and make Known to his Majesty, and his Successors, all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies which I shall know to be against him, or any of them. And I do faithfully Promise, to the utmost of my Power, to Support, Maintain, and Defend the Succession of the Crown against him the said James, and all other Persons whatsoever ; which Succession, by an Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better Securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subj<sup>et</sup>, is and stands limited to the Princess Sophia, Electress and Duchess Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these things I do Plainly and Sincerely Acknowledge and Swear, according to these Express Words by me spoken, and according to the Plain and Common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, Mental Evasion, or Secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation, and Promise, Heartily, Willingly and Truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian :

So help me God.

Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to any Person who hath, since his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, taken the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Abjuration Oath, in any of the said Courts at Westminster, or at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or in either Houses of Parliament, unless by reason of such Persons having some New Office or Employment, or his coming hereafter under some of the Qualifications which require the taking the Oaths before mentioned, by virtue of this Act or any other Law now in being.

Not to extend to Persons who have taken the Oaths since his Majesties Accession.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it Declared and Enacted, That all Persons whatsoever, who, by virtue of any Law now in being, are or would be obliged, if this Act was not had or made, to receive the Sacrament according to the usage of the Church of England, and to make and subscribe the Declaration against Transubstantiation, or either of them, on any Occasion whatsoever, shall continue obliged, in all such Cases, to receive the said Sacrament, and make and subscribe the said Declaration, together with the Oaths appointed by this Act, in such Manner, and under such Penalties, in case of Neglect, as is required by any former Law.

All Persons who before were obliged to receive the Sacrament, &c.
shall still continue obliged.

XXVII. Provided always, That no Person or Persons, who by reason of any such Neglect or Omission, hath or have lost or forfeited any Office, Benefit, Place, Dignity or Employment whatsoever, to which any other Person or Persons hath or have been Preferred or Promoted, shall be restored to such Office, Benefit, Place, Dignity or Employment; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No restoring to Office where others have been preferred thereto.

XXIX. Provided always, That the Oath of Abjuration, and the Assurance in this Act contained, shall in all Cases be taken to be in lieu of the Oath of Abjuration, and the Assurance formerly appointed.

These Oaths to be in lieu of the other Oaths formerly appointed.

Anno I GEORGII Regis. Sess. I.

C A P. XVIII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the better preventing Fresh Fish taken by Foreigners being imported into this Kingdom; and for the Preservation of the Fry of Fish; and for the giving Leave to import Lobsters and Turbets in Foreign Bottoms; and for the better Preservation of Salmon within several Rivers in that Part of this Kingdom called England.

Preamble.

Whereas notwithstanding the many good Laws made for the Preservation and Improvement of the Fishery in that Part of this Kingdom called England, particularly an Act of Parliament made in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade; <sup>15 Car. 2. c. 7.</sup> and one other Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, Intituled, An Act against importing Cattle from <sup>18 Car. 2. c. 2.</sup> Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners, many Evasions have of late Years been invented and practised, whereby that useful Design has been very much obstructed, and more especially by the fraudulent Practices of divers Persons trading in English Smacks, and other Vessels, who when they are off at Sea, buy great Quantities of Fish caught by Foreigners, and import and market the same in this Kingdom, to the great Discouragement and Impoverishment of his Majesties Subjects, and manifest Detriment of the Fishery and Navigation: For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, no Herring, Codd, Pilchards, Salmon, or Ling, fresh or salted, dried or bloated, nor any Gull, Hackarel, Whiting, Haddock, Sprats, Coal-fish, Gull-fish, Cengers, nor any sort of Flat-fish, nor any other sort of Fresh Fish whatsoever, shall be imported into, sold or exposed to sale, in that Part of this Kingdom called England, which shall be taken by, bought of, or received from any Foreigner or Foreigners, or out of any Stranger or Strangers Bottom, except Protestant Strangers inhabiting within this Kingdom; nor shall any Person or Persons give or exchange any Goods or other Things in exchange for any sort of Fish, so taken, as aforesaid.

After 29 Sept. 1715. no fresh Fish whatsoever, taken by Foreigners, to be imported.

Exception.

Penalty on Master of Smack, Hoy, or Offending.

II. And be it further Enacted, That every Master or Commander, for the time being, of any Smack, Hoy, Pager, Boat, Ship or other Vessel, in which any Fish shall be imported or brought to Shore, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, being thereof lawfully convicted, upon his Appearance or Default made after due Summons before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Place, where the Offender shall reside, or be found, by the Oath of Two or more Credible Witnesses, which Oath such Justice or Justices are hereby impowered and required to administer, shall forfeit for every Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be levied by distress and sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any be; and in default of Payment of the said Twenty Pounds, or sufficient distress, the same Justice or Justices shall commit every such Offender to the Common Goal of such County, City or Place, there to suffer Imprisonment during the space of Twelve Months.

III. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Importing, buying or exposing to Sale, any Cels, Stock-fish, Anchovies, Sturgeon, Botarge or Cabear.

Proviso for Fels, Stock-
Fish, Anchovies, &c.

IX. Provided also, That no Person shall suffer any Punishment for any Offence committed against this Act, unless the Prosecution for the same be commenced within One Month after such Offence committed; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prosecution to be within One Month.

X. And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of King William the Third, Intituled, An Act for making Billinggate a Free Market for Sale of Fish, the Importation of Lobsters and Turbets in Foreign Vessels is prohibited: And whereas the said Prohibition has made Lobsters and Turbets much dearer than they were before the passing the said Act: For remedy whereof, and for the better supplying this Kingdom with Lobsters and Turbets at Reasonable Rates, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person whatsoever, as well Foreigners as British, freely to import, bring into, and sell in the Kingdom of Great Britain, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, any Quantity of Lobsters or Turbets, whether they be of Foreign or British catching, in the same manner they might have done before the said recited Act, of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William, was made; any thing in the said Act, or any other Act since made, or usage, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Foreigners may import Lobsters or Turbets.

XVII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That all Persons who shall think themselves aggrieved by any Judgment of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in any of the Cases aforesaid, may appeal to the Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Place, where such Judgment shall be given, at their next General Quarter-Sessions, who are hereby impowered to hear and finally determine the same.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the General Quarter-Sessions.

Several Clauses in an Act, intituled, An Act for making Provision for the Ministers of the Fifty New Churches, which are to be Built in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof; and for rebuilding and finishing the Parish-Church of Saint Mary Woolnoth in the said City of London.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for building Fifty New Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned, it was Enacted, That for all sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the Fourteenth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, should be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there should be paid to her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon, over and besides all other Impositions and Duties, according to the Rates therein and herein after mentioned; that is to say, From and after the said Fourteenth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, for all such sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing Thirty six Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of Two Shillings; and for such sort of Coals as are sold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Two Shillings; and from and after the Eight and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Eight and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, there should be paid for every such said Chalder of Coals and Culm, and Tun of Coals, the Sum of Three Shillings, the same to be raised, levied, collected and paid to her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as therein is mentioned: And it is thereby further Enacted, That all and every such Sum and Sums of Money, which should be raised, collected and levied, by virtue of that Act (the necessary Charges of raising, managing and accounting for the same, excepted) should, from time to time, be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and by force and virtue of that Act were and should be appropriated, Mised, applied and disposed, for the building of fifty New Churches of Stone and other proper Materials, with Towers or Steeples to each of them; whereof One was by the said Act directed to be erected in the Parish of East-Greenwich in the County of Kent; and for purchasing of Sites of Churches and Church-Yards, and Burying Places, in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof; and for making such Chapels Churches, as were then already Built and Capable thereof, Parish-Churches, and for purchasing Houses for the Habitations of the Ministers of the said Churches; and for applying the Sum of Four thousand Pounds per Annum, out of the said Duties and Impositions, towards the repairing and finishing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster, and the Chapels of the same; and also for applying the Sum of Six thousand Pounds per Annum out of the said Duties and Impositions arising by that Act, towards the finishing Greenwich-Hospital, and the Chapels thereunto belonging, and to and for none other use, intent or purpose whatsoever: And it was thereby further Enacted, That it should and might be lawful, to and for her said late Majesty, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute and appoint such Persons as her said late Majesty should think fit to be Commissioners for the purposes in that Act mentioned; which said Commissioners, or so many of them as should by the said Commission be authorized, are by the said Act directed to enquire and inform themselves, in what Parishes the said New Churches (except that for Greenwich) were most necessary to be Built, and of proper Places for the Sites of the said respective New Churches, and also a Cemetery or Church-Yard for each of the said Churches, for the Burial of Christian People, to be purchased; and also which of the said Chapels were fit to be made Parish-Churches; and to ascertain the several Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and the Bounds and Limits which in their Judgment or Opinion might be fit to be made distinct Parishes; and to enquire and inform themselves, by the best Means they could, of the Value of such Houses, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and of the respective Estates and Interests therein, which they should think necessary to be purchased for the said Sites and Cemeteries, and for Houses for the Habitations of the respective Ministers; and the said Commissioners were by the said Act required, on or before the four and twentieth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, to report or certify to her said late Majesty in writing, under their hands and Seals, such Matters and Things as should appear to them upon their Enquiries aforesaid, with their Opinions thereupon, and present a Duplicate of such Report or Certificate to each of the Two Houses of Parliament, to the end such further Directions might be given thereupon, as might be pursuant to her said late Majesty's Pious Intentions in the Premises: And whereas by One other Act of Parliament, made in the Tenth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, Intituled, An Act for enlarging the Time given to the Commissioners appointed by her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties on Coals, for building Fifty New Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster and Suburbs thereof, and other purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners further Powers for better effecting the same; and for appointing Monies for Rebuilding the Parish-Church of St. Mary Woolnoth in the City of London; reciting therein in part the said recited Act, and that in pursuance thereof her said late Majesty, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, did nominate, constitute, and appoint several Commissioners for the purposes in the said first recited Act mentioned, with such Powers and Authorities as in the same Act are expressed; and further reciting, that the said Commissioners missioners did apply themselves to the Execution of the Powers therein mentioned, but could not perfect within the time limited what was by the said Act intended; It was therefore Enacted by the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, That notwithstanding the time limited by the said Letters Patent was expired, it should and might be lawful, to and for the said Commissioners so appointed by the said Letters Patent, or any five or more of them, and they were thereby authorized and required to meet, from time to time, as often as there should be Occasion, either with or without Adjournments, and to enquire and inform themselves of all and every the Matters and Things therein committed to them, or any five or more of them, in or by the said first recited Act, or by that present Act intended to be by them performed, until they should have completed and finished the same: And it was thereby further Provided and Enacted, That it should and might be lawful, to and for her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, at any time before the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate, constitute, and appoint such Persons to be Commissioners to execute all and every the Powers in the said several Acts mentioned, as her said late Majesty should think fit; and from such Appointment so made, the Powers granted by the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, to the Commissioners in the former Letters Patent, should determine: And whereas her said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the said last recited Act, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date on or about the Seven and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, nominate, constitute, and appoint several Persons to be Commissioners for the purposes in the said recited Acts mentioned; and that they, or any five or more of them, should do, perform, and execute all and every the Powers, Matters and Things in and by the said recited Acts, and either of them, appointed to be done and performed: We your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being zealous to provide such Supplies as may enable your Majesty to pursue your Pious and Gracious Intentions, to provide for the Maintenance of the Ministers who are to attend the Service of God in the New Churches to be erected, pursuant to the said recited Acts of Parliament, in or about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, for the Honour of the Church of England, and the Advancement of our Holy Religion, do most humbly present to your Majesty the several Impositions, Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, and do beseech your Majesty, that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for all sort of Coals and Culin which, from and after the Twenty seventh day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, and before the Twenty eighth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, shall be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon, over and besides all other Impositions and Duties, according to the Rates hereafter mentioned, that is to say, For all such sorts of Coals and Culin as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing Thirty six Bushels, Winchester Measure, the Sum of Three Shillings; and for such sort of Coals as are sold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Three Shillings: Which said respective Sums of Three Shillings for every Chalder of Coals and Culin, and Tun of Coals, shall, from time to time, during the Term before mentioned, be raised, levied, collected, and paid to his Majesty, his

from 27 Sept.
1724, to 28 Sept.
1725,

how to be raised.

Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner, Method and Form, and at such Places, and by such Rules, Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expressed and referred unto, in and by any Act, Law or Statute, Acts, Laws, or Statutes now in force, for raising, levying, collecting, or answering any other Duty or Duties now payable to his Majesty for or upon any Coals or Culm whatsoever, imported or brought Coastwise into the said Port of London; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Articles, Rules and Clauses, in the same Acts, Laws and Statutes, or any of them, mentioned or contained (except such and so much of them for and concerning which it is otherwise provided in this present Act) shall be of such force and effect, to all intents and purposes, for the raising, levying, collecting and answering the Impositions hereby granted, for and during the said Term herein before limited, as if the same were particularly and at large set down and enacted by this Act.

The Money to be paid into the Exchequer, and appropriated for the Maintenance of the Ministers of the New Churches.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Sum and Sums of Money, which shall be raised, collected and levied, by virtue of this Act (the necessary Charges of raising, managing and accounting for the same excepted) shall, from time to time, be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, and by force and virtue of this Act, are and shall be appropriated for and towards the providing due Maintinances for the Ministers to attend the Service of God in the New Churches to be erected in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, pursuant to the said recited Acts of Parliament, and shall for that purpose be issued, applied and disposed, in such manner as shall hereafter be directed by Parliament.

100 Chalders of Coals for Chelsea-Hospital not chargeable.

III. Provided, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend to charge or lay any of the Duties or Impositions hereby imposed upon such Coals, (not exceeding One hundred Chalders by the Year) as shall be brought into the Port of London from New-Castle upon Tyne, or any other Place, for the only Use and Service of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act to Continue Duties for encouraging the Coinage of Money; and to charge the Duties on Senna as a Medicinal Drug; and for the appropriating several Supplies granted to his Majesty.

Preamble.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty, whereas great Benefit and Advantage did accrue to England by one Act of Parliament passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and continued by another Act made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King Charles, Intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage; both which said Acts were revived by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of his Majesty King James the Second, and were continued by an Act made in the Fourth Year of King William and Queen Mary, of Blessed Memory, and were further continued by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King William, and were further continued by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, of Blessed Memory, to be in force for Seven Years from the First day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eight, and until the End of the First Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; so that unless the said Acts be revived and continued, the Encouragement given thereby will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the future of so great a Good as it hath for many Years last past Enjoyed: Now we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant unto your Majesty the Rates, Duties, and Impositions herein after mentioned, for and during the Term and Time herein after expressed, and do humbly pray that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties and Impositions, as by the said Act of Parliament of the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second were granted, and by the said subsequent Acts were continued, for and upon the Importation of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and Strong Waters imported, during the respective Terms therein mentioned, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and Strong Waters, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain within or during the Space of Seven Years, to commence from the First day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; and that all the said former Acts, and all other Acts of Parliament concerning Coinage, and every of them, and every Clause, Article, and Sentence in them or any of them contained, now being in force, shall be and are, by virtue of this Act, revived and continued, and shall be in force, and be duly put in Execution, for and during all such Term and Time as are before mentioned, as fully and effectually as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the body of this present Act.

Coinage-Duties continued for 7 Years from the 1 March, 1715, and until the End of the First Session of Parliament then next following.

Deficiency in the Coinage-Duty how to be supplied.

II. And to the end the Importers of Gold and Silver into the Mints of England and Scotland respectively may not be discouraged by any Deficiency of the Revenue by this Act settled for defraying the Coinage thereof; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of

of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, out of the Monies arising by this Act, or out of any other the Publick Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament, to cause so much Money to be applied, as shall be necessary for defraying the Expences of the said Mints of England and Scotland respectively, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for that Service, so as the same, together with the Coinage-Duties arising by this Act, do not exceed, in any one Year, the Sum of Fifteen thousand Pounds, and so as the said Monies be issued out of the Exchequer of Great Britain to the Master of the Mint in England, and the General of the Mint in Scotland respectively, for said purposes.

III. And whereas in the Book of Rates annexed to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money Payable upon Merchandize exported and imported, a Rate is fixed upon Senna under the Title of Drugs, in order to pay the Duty charged thereon by the said Act; which Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts now in force: And whereas the said Duty is by a subsequent Act increased, and further Duties are by several other Acts laid upon the Importation of all Drugs, all which Acts are still in force: And whereas by several of the said last mentioned Acts, Drugs used in Dying are exempted from Payment of the respective Duties thereby granted; and for the better adjusting the Duties upon Goods used in Dying, by an Act of the Third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty, for continuing Duties on Low Wines and other things therein mentioned, it is declared what Goods are meant to be used in Dying, amongst which Senna is contained; nevertheless it being Notorious that Senna is not or ever was used in the Dying Trade, but was inserted in the said last mentioned Act, by mistake, to the great Loss of his Majesties Revenue in the Duties intended to be paid for the same: For prevention thereof for the future, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Senna imported into Great Britain, after the Ninth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the Duties charged by the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and by the several Acts for increasing and continuing the same, and to all and every other the respective Duties laid or intended to be laid by other respective Acts, as if the said Exemptions in the several Acts for Goods or Drugs used in Dying had not been therein inserted; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas several Merchants and other Traders and Stock in Hand Dealers in Senna, have, or may have, on the Ninth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, several Stocks or Quantities of Senna, It is hereby further Enacted, That all Merchants, Drugsters, or other Persons who do sell or retail Senna, having in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, Benefit, or Account, any Stock or Quantity of Senna (such Stock or Quantity respectively exceeding Twenty Pounds weight) within the Realm of Great Britain, being for sale, shall yield and pay unto his Majesty for every Pound of such Senna, so much as will make up the Duties thereof equal to the Duties intended to be payable for Senna by virtue of this Act hereafter to be imported; which said Duties shall be paid within Three Months after the said Ninth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen.

V. And to the end the said Stocks of Senna may be known, and the Duties thereupon duly ascertained and secured, it is hereby Enacted, That all and every the said Merchants, Drugsters, and other Persons selling or retailing Senna, shall, on or before the Twenty fifth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, make a just Entry thereof at the Custom-house nearest the Place where such Senna doth remain, as aforesaid, and permit the proper

Anno 1 GEORGII Regis. Sess. 1.

C A P. XLVI.

An Act to prevent the Mischiefs by Manufacturing Leaves or other Things to resemble Tobacco, and the Abuses in making and mixing of Snuff.

Preamble.

Whereas Tobacco is one of the chief Products of Virginia and Mariland, upon which their Welfare and Subsistence doth much depend; and by the Importation thereof the Navigation and Trade of this Kingdom, and the Publick Revenues of the same, are very much increased: And whereas it is found by Experience, that of late several Evil Persons have cut, cured, manufactured, and sold Walnut-Tree-Leaves, Hop-Leaves, Sycomore-Leaves, or other Leaves, Herbs, Plants or Materials, resembling Tobacco of the Growth or Product of the British Plantations, to the Prejudice of his Majesties Plantations in America, and of the Navigation and Trade of this Kingdom, and of the Publick Revenues arising upon Tobacco: For Remedy whereof for the future, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who at any time or times after the Twentieth day of June, in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall cut, or cause or procure to be cut, any Walnut-Tree-Leaves, Hop-Leaves, Sycomore-Leaves, or any other Leaves, Herbs, Plants, or Materials whatsoever (not being Tobacco-Leaves or Plants) into the Form or in Imitation of any the usual Sizes or Cuts, which Tobacco has been or shall be cut into, for sale, or shall colour or cure, or cause or procure to be coloured or cured any such Leaves, Herbs,

After 20 June, 1716, cutting of Walnut-Tree-Leaves,
Hop-Leaves,
Sycomore-Leaves, or any other Leaves, &c. in imitation of Tobacco,

Plants,

Plants, or Materials to make the same resemble Tobacco, for sale, or shall sell, or cause or procure to be sold, or agree or offer to sell knowingly any such Leaves, Herbs, Plants or Materials, mixed or unmixed with Tobacco, as if the same were Tobacco, shall for every Pound weight of such Leaves, Herbs, Plants or Materials, so cut, coloured, cured, sold or agreed for, or knowingly offered to sale, and for every Pound weight of such Birture, as aforesaid, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; that is to say, One Moiety or Half-part thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors (he or they bearing the Charge of Prosecution out of the Moiety to accruing to the Crown, and not otherwise) and the other Moiety or Half-part thereof to the Use of such Person or Persons as will inform or sue for the same, to be recovered (with full Costs of Suit) by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Exchequer of Scotland, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be allowed.

Half to the Crown, Half to the Informer.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who at any time or times after the said Twentieth day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, shall export or cause to be exported, or shall lade or put on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or put on Board for Exportation, any such Leaves, Herbs, Plants or Materials, or such Birture, as aforesaid, or endeavour to obtain a Drawback for the same, as if the same were Tobacco which had paid or secured his Majesties Duties thereupon, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings for every Pound weight, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above all other Penalties which may be inflicted for such Offence by any Law now in force, to be recovered and distributed in such manner, as aforesaid.

Exporting or endeavouring to obtain a Drawback for such Materials, forfeits 5 s. per Pound.

III. And be it also Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Leaves, Herbs, Plants and Materials, so cut, coloured, cured, or manufactured, sold, contracted for, or knowingly offered to sale, as aforesaid, and all such Birtures, as aforesaid, and all Engines, Utensils and Tools, made use of in the cutting, colouring, curing or manufacturing the same, or prepared for such Use, shall and may be searched for and seized by any Officer of the Customs, or by any Person or Persons thereunto specially authorized by Writing under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or of the Lord Treasurer for the time being, or of the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, or any Three or more of them for the time being.

Officers of the Customs, may search for such Leaves, &c. and all Engines for cutting the same.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That no House or Warehouse whatsoever shall be opened to search for, or seize such Leaves, Herbs, Plants, Materials or Birtures, or such Engines, Utensils, or Tools, but at reasonable Hours, and not without a special Warrant first had and obtained from Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such search is to be made; and that the Leaves, Herbs, Plants and Materials, and the said Birtures, Engines, Utensils and Tools, which shall, at any time or times, be found and seized within the Limits of any Port, or within Six Miles of the same, shall be brought to the next Custom house Warehouse; and if found and seized at any greater distance from any Port, shall be secured by order of any Two Justices of Peace of the County or Place where they shall be found, at the Kings Charge, till the Cause of such Seizure shall be determined by the Justices of Peace in their Quarter-Sessions; and that the Cause of every such Seizure shall be heard and determined at the next Quarter Sessions or (at farthest) at the Second Quarter-Sessions after such Seizure made, and all such Leaves, Herbs, Plants, Materials, Birtures, Engines, Utensils and Tools (after Condemnation or Recovery by Judgment of such Sessions)

No Warehouse to be searched but at reasonable Hours, and without Warrants.

Materials, &c. seized where to be secured.

Cause of Seizure to be determined at the Quarter-Sessions, and things condemned to be burnt.

Servants employed to be committed to the House of Correction for 6 Months.

shall be openly burnt or destroyed by order of the same at his Majesty's Charge.

V. And it is hereby further Enacted, That all Servants and Labourers which shall be employed in the cutting, colouring, curing, or manufacturing any such Leaves, Herbs, Plants or Materials, to resemble Tobacco, or in the making any such Mixture, as aforesaid, or in knowingly vending the same, and shall be convicted thereof by the Oath of any One or more Credible Persons, before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, shall or may by order of such Justices be committed to the Common-Goal or House of Correction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any time not exceeding Six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

General Issue.

VI. And be it likewise Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued or prosecuted for what he or they shall do in pursuance or execution of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue (not Guilty) and after Issue joyned may give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence, and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall be Nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs, for which he shall have the like remedy as in Cases where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

Making or colouring Snuff with any Okers, &c. except with Venetian Red only, forfeits the Snuff and 3 l. per lb.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any time after the said Twentieth day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, make, mix or colour, or cause to be made, mixed or coloured, any sort of Snuff with any sort of Okers, Amber, or any other kind of colouring, except with Water ting'd with the colouring commonly called Venetian Red only, or shall mix, or cause to be mixed with any sort of Snuff, any Fussick, or Yellow Ebony, Touchwood, or any other sort of Wood, or any Dirt or Sand, or Dust sifted from Tobacco, or shall knowingly sell, or expose to sale, any Snuff so made, mixed or coloured, as aforesaid, every such Person so offending, shall, for every Pound weight of Snuff, so made, mixed or coloured, forfeit the said Snuff, and likewise the Sum of Three Pounds, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, where in no Essoign, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance, One moiety of which Forfeitures shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the other moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same.

C A P. VII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for redeeming the Duties and Revenues which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on Four Lottery Acts passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her late Majesties Reign; and for redeeming certain Annuities payable on Orders out of the Hereditary Excise, according to a former Act in that behalf; and for establishing a General Yearly Fund, not only for the future Payment of Annuities at several Rates, to be payable and transferrable at the Bank of England, and redeemable by Parliament; but also to raise Monies for such Proprietors of the said Orders as shall choose to be paid their Principal and Arrears of Interest in Ready Money; and for making good such other Deficiencies and Payments as in this Act are mentioned; and for taking off the Duties on Linseed imported, and British Linen exported.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parlia-<sup>Preamble</sup> ment made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne (of Blessed Memory) several Cu-<sup>reciting the</sup> stoms, Subsidies, or Duties, were revived, continued, and made<sup>First Lottery</sup> payable for and upon certain Goods and Merchandizes which should<sup>Act 9 Anne.</sup> be exported from Great Britain from and after the Eighth day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ten, during the Term of Thirty two Years from thence next ensuing (except as therein is excepted) and a Duty of Twelve Pence per Hundred Weight was thereby imposed upon the Exportation of Leather, Sheep-skins and Calve-skins, tanned, tawed or dyed, which were thereby permitted to be bought and exported during the same Term: And it was thereby Enacted, That several Duties therein mentioned (and none other) should be payable for all Coals, which, during the said Term, should be exported or shipped to be exported beyond the Seas; and that during the said Term there should be raised and paid for and upon all Coals, Culm, and Cynders (except as therein is excepted) which should be shipped or waterborn, and carried from any Port or Place in Great Britain, to any other Port or Place within the same; and for all Coals (if any such be) which should be imported into Great Britain from any Foreign Parts, the respective Duties therein mentioned; and that there should be raised and paid for and upon all Candles, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Twenty fifth day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eleven, should be imported or brought into Great Britain, or made within the same, the further Duties therein mentioned: And it was thereby also Enacted and Declared, That the several Duties imposed by the said Act, and all the Monies, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the said Eighth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, should arise of or for an Hereditary Duty of One per Centum chargeable upon Goods exported in certain Ships to the Mediterranean Sea, and of or for another Hereditary Duty formerly imposed on white Woollen Clothes, should be liable and they are hereby appropriated for or towards making good a certain Fund of One hundred thirty five thousand Pounds per Annum thereby settled or intended to be settled during the Term of Thirty two Years (which commenced from the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eleven) for answering and paying all and every the Principal Sums therein therein after mentioned, amounting in the whole to Nineteen hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred and seventy Pounds, together with Interest for the same, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons as should contribute or advance the Sum of Fifteen hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on the then War, or to those claiming from or under them, in the manner thereby prescribed: And it was thereby Enacted, That any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties granted or appropriated by that Act yearly (over and above the said yearly Sum of One hundred thirty five thousand Pounds) should be applied for or towards the Discharging the said Principal Monies payable by virtue of that Act. And whereas by an Act made and passed in the said Ninth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, for establishing a General Post-Office, It was Enacted, That from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of Thirty two Years from thence next ensuing, the weekly Sum of Seven hundred Pounds out of the Duties and Revenues arising by that Act, should be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as is therein mentioned: And by another Act of the said Ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, several Duties were laid upon such Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, Uellum and Parchment as are therein specified, for the Term of Thirty two Years, reckoned from the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eleven: And by another Act of the same Year a Power was given for Licensing such Persons as, after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, at any time or times within the Term of Thirty two Years, should drive or keep any Hackney-Coach or Coach-horses in London, Westminster, or the Suburbs of the same, or within the Parishes comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, not exceeding the Number therein limited, reserving upon every such Licence the weekly Sum of five Shillings to be paid Monthly, after its Commencement, during the Continuance thereof respectively; and a Power was thereby given for Licensing all such Hackney-Chairs, which, after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, at any time or times within the Term of Thirty two Years from thence next ensuing, should be kept and used for Hire in London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof, and within all the Parishes and Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, reserving upon every such Licence the Annual Sum of Ten Shillings to be paid Quarterly during the Continuance of every such Licence for a Chair: And it was thereby Enacted, That there should be throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, raised, levied and paid, several Duties for Uellum, Parchment, and Paper, whereupon several things should be ingrossed, written or printed, or whereby several Matters should be done (as is therein expressed) within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and eleven; and that from and after the Eleventh day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of Thirty two Years from thence next ensuing, there should be raised, levied and paid, for all playing Cards and Dice, which, within or during the Term last mentioned, should be made fit for sale or use in Great Britain, or imported into the same, the Duties therein mentioned; and that during the like Term, there should be paid a certain Duty upon Rock-Salt which should be put on board any Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, and exported to Ireland, or entred out for such Exportation: And by the Act last mentioned, It was further Enacted, That yearly and every Year during the Term of Thirty two Years (which commenced from the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and eleven) the Sum of One hundred eighty six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise of or for the said weekly Sum of Seven hundred Pounds out of the Revenues of the General Letter Office, and by or out of all the Monies to

to arise, of or for the said Duties on Hides and Skins, and pieces of Hides and Skins, Tallow and Parchment, by virtue of the said other Acts, or either of them, and by the said Licences for Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, and by the said particular Duties upon Stamp Tallow, Parchment and Paper, and upon Cards and Dice, and upon the Exportation of Rock-Salt for Ireland, granted, as aforesaid, or to be made good by such Ways and Means as are therein mentioned, should be a yearly Fund for answering and paying all and every the Principal Sums thereby appointed to be paid, amounting in the whole to Two millions six hundred and two thousand two hundred Pounds, together with Interest for the same, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons as should contribute or advance the Sum of Two millions for the Service of the then War, and other her Majesties Occasions, or to those Claiming from or under them in the manner thereby prescribed. And whereas by certain Clauses contained in an Act of the Tenth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, a Power was given to Licence an Additional Number not exceeding One hundred Hackney Chairs, which after the Twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, at any time or times within or during the Term of Thirty two Years from thence next ensuing, should be kept and used for Hire within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, reserving upon every such Licence the like yearly Rent of Ten Shillings, payable Quarterly, which Rents are thereby added to the said Fund for or towards Payment of the Principal and Interest last mentioned. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Tenth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, It was Enacted, That there should be raised and paid for and upon all Soap, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Tenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into, or made in Great Britain, the respective Duties therein specified; and for and upon all Paper of what kind soever, and all Pastboards, Mouldboards and Scaleboards; and all Books, Prints and Maps, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into Great Britain, several Duties therein particularly expressed; and for and upon all Paper of what kind soever, and upon all Pastboards, Mouldboards and Scaleboards, which, during the Term last mentioned, should be made in Great Britain, several Duties therein also particularly expressed; and for and upon all chequered and striped Linens, and upon all Linens printed, painted, stained, or dyed in any Foreign Parts, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Twentieth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into Great Britain, and might lawfully be used or worn there, a Duty after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof; and for and upon all Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, which, during the Term last mentioned, should be printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain (except as therein is excepted) several Duties therein expressed; and for the several and respective things therein particularly mentioned, which at any time or times within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be ingrossed, printed, or written, the several and respective Duties therein particularly specified: And it was thereby Enacted, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of Thirty two Years (which commenced from the Twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve) the full Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, by and out of the Monies of the several Duties by that Act granted, or to be made good, as is therein mentioned, should be a yearly Fund for or towards answering and paying off all and every the Principal Sums therein mentioned, amounting in the whole to Two millions three hundred forty one thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds, with Interest after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons as should Contribute or Advance the Sum of Eighteen hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on the then War, or to those claiming from or under them in the manner thereby prescribed. And whereas by an Act made and passed in the said Tenth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, It was Enacted, That there should be raised and paid for and upon such Skins and Hides, and pieces of Skins and Hides, and for and upon such made Clores therein described, as, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into Great Britain, the Additional Rates or New Duties therein particularly expressed; and for and upon all such Skins and Hides, and pieces of Skins and Hides therein described, as, during the same Term, should be tanned, tawed, or dyed in Great Britain, the Additional Rates or New Duties therein also particularly expressed; and for and upon all Vallum and Parchment, which, during the same Term, should be made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, such Additional Rates or New Duties as are therein specified; and for and upon all Starch, which, during the same Term, should be imported into, or made in Great Britain, the respective Duties therein mentioned; and for and upon all Coffee, Tea, and Drugs (except as therein is excepted) which, within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Sixteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into Great Britain, the New Duties therein expressed; and for and upon all Silk and Silver Wre, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the First day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be imported into or made in Great Britain, the respective Duties therein mentioned; and for and upon every Policy of Assurance, which, during the Term of Thirty two Years to be reckoned from the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, should be made or entered into within the Cities of London and Westminster, or elsewhere within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, an Additional Duty therein expressed: And it was thereby Enacted, That yearly and every Year, during the Term of Thirty two Years, which commenced from the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twelve, the Sum of One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds, by and out of the Monies of the several Duties by that Act granted, or to be made good, as is therein mentioned, should be a yearly fund for or towards answering or paying off all and every the Principal Sums therein mentioned, amounting in the whole to Two millions three hundred forty one thousand nine hundred and ninety Pounds, with Interest after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons as should Contribute or Advance the Sum of One million eight hundred thousand Pounds for her Majesties Supply, or to those claiming from or under them, in the manner thereby prescribed. And whereas by the several Acts before recited, It was Provided, That if the several Duties by them respectively granted or appropriated, for raising the several yearly Funds by them established, or intended to be established, should at the End of any one Year appear to be deficient for answering the said yearly Funds respectively, that then such Deficiencies should be made good out of the next Aids to be granted in Parliament, or otherwise, as by the same Acts respectively is prescribed: And her said late Majesty, by the same Acts respectively, was authorized to appoint Managers or Directors, who, or some of them, were thereby respectively directed to prepare Lottery Tickets, and to cause the said Lottery Tickets to be drawn in such several manners as were thereby appointed, and to transmit into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer Books, containing the Names, Surnames, and Places of Abode, of the Persons, which, upon such Drawings should be entitled to such Fortunate or Beneficial Lots as are therein set down; and that the same Persons, their

Executors,

Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, should have, receive and enjoy, out of the said respective Funds, the Principal Monies which should be entred in such Books for them respectively, in Course or Courses, and the Interest thereof by such Payments as in the said Acts are severally prescribed; and that the other Contributors or Adventurers upon the said several Acts (not having Fortunate Lots) their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, respectively should have, receive, and enjoy, out of the said respective Funds, such Principal Monies, in Course or Courses, and such Interest, as in and by the said Lottery Acts respectively were prescribed for them severally to have, receive and enjoy; and by the same Acts it was severally directed, that the said Tickets should be exchanged for Standing Orders, and that such Orders should be registred, and be assignable; and that during the several Terms therein mentioned, (unless the Principal and Interest directed to be paid by the said several Acts, should be sooner paid off) the said Duties should be severally applied for answering the said Principal and Interest, and other Purposes therein mentioned: And in the several Acts for the said Lotteries, are contained several Provisions or Clauses, Importing, that if before the End of the respective Terms of Thirty two Years therein mentioned, all the Principal and Interest Monies payable by virtue of the same Acts respectively, should be fully paid and discharged, or sufficient Money should be reserved in the Exchequer for Payment thereof, that then, and in such Case, and from thenceforth, the Duties by the same Acts respectively granted or charged therewith, should cease, or be disposable by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise, as by the said several Acts, relation being thereunto severally had, doth, and may more fully and at large appear. And whereas the said several Sums of One million five hundred thousand Pounds, Two millions, One million eight hundred thousand Pounds, and One million eight hundred thousand Pounds, were advanced for the Publick Service, upon the several Acts before mentioned, and the Tickets thereby directed, were made forth and drawn, and Books were transmitted, or are to be transmitted into the Exchequer by the said Managers or Directors, or by some other Persons appointed thereunto, in pursuance of Acts of Parliament in that behalf; and the said several Sums of One million nine hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred and seventy Pounds, Two millions six hundred and two thousand two hundred Pounds, Two millions three hundred forty one thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds, and Two millions three hundred forty one thousand nine hundred and ninety Pounds, became payable as Principal Monies, with Interest, after the said Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the several Contributors or Adventurers, or to Claimants from or under them, according to their several Shares therein, and Standing Orders have been, or are to be made forth for the same. And whereas several Sums amounting to One million six hundred sixty six thousand and seventy Pounds, or thereabouts, (part of the said Principal Sum of One million nine hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred and seventy Pounds) and Two millions five hundred twenty five thousand nine hundred and seventy Pounds, or thereabouts, (part of the said Principal Sum of Two millions six hundred and two thousand two hundred Pounds) and Two millions two hundred sixty eight thousand five hundred and twenty Pounds, or thereabouts, (part of the said Principal Sum of Two millions three hundred forty one thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds) and Two millions three hundred and twelve thousand and sixty five Pounds, or thereabouts, (part of the said Principal Sum of Two millions three hundred forty one thousand nine hundred and ninety Pounds) do, upon the Fourth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, remain unsatisfied; which Principal Sums to remain unsatisfied, do amount in the whole to Eight millions seven hundred sixty two thousand six hundred twenty five Pounds, or thereabouts, carrying Interest after the said Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William, it was (among other things) provided and Enacted, That in lieu and discharge of certain perpetual Annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by his late Majesty King Charles the Second by Letters Patents out of the Hereditary Revenue of Excise, in Satisfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patents, to be then due from his said late Majesty, to the respective Patentees therein named, the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise should, from and after the Twenty sixth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and five, be and stand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of Annual Sums after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the said respective Letters Patents, to be issued and paid out of the said Revenue by Quarterly Payments out of the Receipt of the Exchequer by the Officers of the same, unto the respective Owners and Proprietors of the said Annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Assigns, for ever, without any Fee or Charge; the said Annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be subject nevertheless to be redeemed upon Payment of a moiety of the Principal Sums mentioned in the said respective Letters Patents: And by or in pursuance of an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, the respective Proprietors have or ought to have Standing Orders for Payment of the Annuities last mentioned, quarterly, until the same shall be redeemed, as aforesaid, free from all Taxes and Impositions whatsoever. And whereas the whole of all the Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patents, did amount to One million three hundred twenty eight thousand five hundred twenty six Pounds, and the moiety thereof, for which the said Annual Sums are redeemable, doth amount to Six hundred sixty four thousand two hundred sixty three Pounds, and the said Annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, wherewith the said Hereditary Revenue is now charged, or liable to be charged, till such Redemption, doth amount to Thirty nine thousand eight hundred fifty five Pounds, fifteen Shillings, Seven Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, (which is equal to a Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Sum of Six hundred sixty four thousand two hundred sixty three Pounds. And whereas since the making of the several Acts herein above recited, the common Rate of Interest for Money is very much lessened, so that it is become just and reasonable for the Publick to have and enjoy as well the Benefit of redeeming the said several Duties and Revenues charged or chargeable with the said Lottery Orders so remaining unsatisfied, as also the Benefit of redeeming the said Annual Sums now payable out of the Hereditary Excise. And whereas the Proprietors of the said Lottery Orders, or several of them, are or may be willing and desirous to accept (in lieu and discharge thereof) an Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum redeemable by Parliament, and the Proprietors of the said Annual Sums now charged or chargeable upon the said Hereditary Excise, or several of them, are, or may be also willing and desirous to accept (in lieu and discharge thereof) an Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and to be computed only upon one moiety of their respective Principal Sums (by the Payment of which moieties, their Annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, were formerly made redeemable, as aforesaid:) And several of the Proprietors of the said Lottery Orders are or may be willing and desirous to have their Principal and Interest due thereupon, paid and satisfied to them in ready Money; and several of the Proprietors of the said Annual Sums payable out of the Hereditary Excise, are or may be also willing and desirous to have the moiety of the Principal Monies (for which the same are redeemable, redeemable, as aforesaid) paid and satisfied to them in ready Money; and several Persons or Corporations are or may be willing to Advance ready Monies for the Purposes aforesaid, and for other the Purposes in this Act particularly mentioned, so as they respectively (for their Monies so to be advanced) may have such Annuities as are herein after expressed, secured to them respectively, until Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the true meaning of this Act: Now to the End a good, sure and sufficient Fund and Security may be settled and established for the due, regular, and constant Payment of all the Annuities which shall be payable by or in pursuance of this Act, until such several and respective Redemptions, as aforesaid, We your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly pray your Majesty, That it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all such or the like Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Rates and Duties, and all Proportional Parts of any Duties, and all Revenues and Weekly or other Payments out of any Duties or Revenues which were granted, imposed, appropriated, or directed by the said several recited Acts, and every of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, for such several and respective Terms of Years as are therein mentioned, for or towards the answering, paying, securing, or making good the said several and respective Funds of One hundred thirty five thousand Pounds per Annum, One hundred eighty six thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds per Annum, One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, and One hundred sixty eight thousand and three Pounds per Annum, or for or towards Payment of the Principal and Interest Monies on the said Lottery Orders, and for or towards answering or paying the said Annual Sums amounting to Thirty nine thousand eight hundred fifty five Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, Seven Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum (except as in the said several Acts or any of them is excepted, and except such of the said Duties or Revenues as are since taken away by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf) shall continue and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, for the Purposes in this Act prescribed and directed; and that such of the hereditary Duties mentioned in the said former Acts of Parliament, or any of them, as during the respective Terms of Years therein expressed, were appropriated or directed to be applied for or towards the Payment of the said yearly Funds or Sums, or any of them, shall also continue and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, for the Purposes in this Act prescribed and directed; and that all and every the Powers, which, in and by the said former Acts, or any of them, were vested or intended to be vested in her said late Majesty, or such Commissioners or others, as she should appoint, for granting Licences, or doing any other Matters or Things in order to raise any the Duties or Revenues hereby intended to be continued and made perpetual, shall be and are, by force and virtue of this Act, revived and vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and his and their Commissioners, in the same manner, for raising the same Duties or Revenues respectively for the Purposes in and by this Act prescribed and directed; and that all other Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters, and Things whatsoever, contained in the said former Acts of Parliament, and every or any of them, now being in force, for raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, and Additional Rates and Duties, and proportional Parts of Duties, and the said Revenues and weekly or other Payments, out of any Duties or Revenues granted, imposed, appropriated plated or directed for such several and respective Terms of Years, as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) shall be revived, and be for ever continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates and Duties, Additional Rates and Duties, proportional Parts, and the said weekly and other Payments, out of any Duties or Revenues by this Act intended to be continued and made perpetual, for the Purposes in and by this Act prescribed and directed, as fully and effectually as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters and Things, were at large repeated and particularly re-enacted in the Body of this present Act: the said former Acts, or any of them contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Nevertheless the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, weekly and other Payments, and every of them, by this Act intended to be continued and made perpetual, as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Provisions and Powers of Redemption as are hereafter in and by this Act contained and prescribed of and concerning the same.

The Duties, &c. granted for making good the several Lottery Funds aforesaid, continued for ever.

These Duties how to be raised.

But subject to Redemption.

All the Monies to be brought into the Exchequer, and registered there.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising of or for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, weekly and other Payments, hereby intended to be continued and made perpetual, subject to such Redemption, as aforesaid (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Uses and Purposes in this Act prescribed, and shall, from time to time, be fairly and distinctly entered and registered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells, severally, for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all seasonable times, shall have free Access, without Fee or Charge.

The Monies arising after 29 Sept. 1717. appropriated for Payment of Annuities payable by this Act, &c.

III. And it is hereby also Enacted, That all the Monies, which, from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, shall be brought into the Exchequer, or shall be then remaining there, of or for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, weekly and other Payments, by this and the said former Acts, or any of them, granted or continued, as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of issuing and applying the said Monies to the same Uses and Purposes, and rending the Accounts thereof) shall be and are hereby appropriated, and shall be issued and applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of such Annuities as shall be payable by virtue of this Act, and making such other Payments as are hereby directed, in their due Order, Method and Form, and with such Preferences, and subject to such Redemptions, as are in and by this Act prescribed of and concerning the same respectively, and without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded of or paid by the respective Persons or Corporations, who are to receive the said Monies; and that the respective Officers of the Exchequer, who shall make any delay in issuing or paying the same, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies, contrary to this Act, for any such Offence shall be forejudged from their respective Offices or Places, and be rendred incapable to serve his Majesty, his heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and shall also be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums of Money so delayed, diverted, or misapplied, to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt or upon the Case, Bill, Suit or Information, in any his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted and allowed.

XVIII. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where the Principal and Interest payable on the said Lottery Orders, or any of them, or the said Poieties of the said Principal Sums for which the said Annual Payments are charged on the Hereditary Excise, or any of them, with the Arrearages of the same Annual Payments respectively, shall be converted into Annuities, or be paid off in ready Money, pursuant to this Act, the Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional and other Duties, proportional Parts, weekly and other Payments, formerly charged therewith, as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby freed, exonerated, and discharged of, from, and against the same, and shall be liable for or towards making good the said General yearly Fund by this Act intended to be established, as aforesaid.

Where Lottery Orders, &c. are converted into Annuities, or paid off in ready Money, the Duties shall be liable to make good the General Fund.

XXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That as soon as ready Money shall be advanced, sufficient to pay off all or any the Principal Sums or the Poieties of the Principal Sums by this Act intended to be paid off, with the Interest or Arrears of the Annuity attending the same respectively, Publick Notice thereof shall be given by Writing, to be openly set up at the Exchequer, and advertized in the London Gazette; and the ready Money so advanced shall be reserved and kept in Bank at the Exchequer for the Persons or Corporations entitled thereunto; but from the time of such Notice given, the said Interest, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the said Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, of such Persons and Corporations respectively, shall cease and determine.

As soon as ready Money is advanced to pay off Principal, &c. Publick Notice to be given, and Interest to cease.

XXXVIII. And whereas by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, and the Book of Rates thereto annexed, and by other Acts of Parliament since made and now in force, several Duties are payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon Linseed imported; and it having been found by Experience, that those Duties are a Discouragement to the Importation thereof, and that should they be discontinued and taken off, the same would tend to the Service of the Woollen and other Manufactures, and to the Improvement of Tillage in this Kingdom: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import Linseed into this Kingdom, without paying to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, any Custom, Subsidy or other Duties for the same; any thing in the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Linseed may be imported Duty-free.

12 Car. 2. c. 4.

XXXIX. And whereas in and by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and the said Book of Rates, which Act has been by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued, and is now in force, a Duty of Six Pence is payable upon the Exportation of every piece of Linen Cloth of British Manufacture made of Hemp or Flax, fine or Course, not exceeding Forty Ells (except British made Sail Cloth, which by Law is permitted to be exported Duty-free:) And whereas the said Duty is a Discouragement to the said Manufacture, which employs many Thousands of the Poor of this Kingdom: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to export out of this Kingdom, to Parts beyond the Seas, all sorts of Linen Cloth of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, which shall be made of Hemp or Flax, whether fine or Course, free of all Duties payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; any thing in the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, or any other Act, or any thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

British Linen may be exported Duty-free.

All Drawbacks,
 &c. to continue till Duty ceases.

XL. Provided always, and be it hereby further Enacted, That all Drawbacks, Allowances and Abatements, granted or enacted to be made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, upon or out of any Duties upon any Goods or Merchandizes imported or exported, shall be and continue, and are hereby continued until the Duties on which such Allowances, Drawbacks, or Abatements are granted or enacted to be made, shall respectively cease and determine.

Anno 3 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. VIII.

Part of the First Clause, and several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for redeeming several Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, pursuant to former Provisoes of Redemption; and for securing to them several New Funds and Allowances redeemable by Parliament; and for obliging them to advance further Sums not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, at Five Pounds per Centum, as shall be found necessary to be employed in lessening the National Debts and Incumbrances; and for continuing certain Provisions formerly made for the Expences of his Majesties Civil Government; and for Payment of Annuities formerly purchased at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum; and for other Purposes in this Act mentioned.

 said Duties,

NOW we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to ease the present Burthen of National Debts and Incumbrances, and in due time the heavy Taxes lying upon this Kingdom, so far as it is consistent with Honour, Justice, and Equity, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, shall be fully satisfied, contented, and paid all such Monies as are due and unpaid, or at any time or times, on or before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen inclusively, shall grow due, and remain unpaid, or be in Arrear to them for or upon the said Annuity or Sum of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and five Pence per Annum, out of the Monies arisen or to arise at the Receipt of Exchequer, of or for the said particular Duties on Houses, and of or for the said Duties and Revenues, called the Aggregate Fund, or any of them; and that from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, all Payments of or upon the said Annuity or Sum of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and five Pence per Annum, which from thenceforth should and might grow due and payable, shall cease and determine.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors (subject nevertheless to the Proviso and Power of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained in this behalf, and none other) shall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled, by virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the said Annuity or yearly Sum of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, in respect of the said Principal Sum of One million seven hundred seventy five thousand twenty seven Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, which Annual or yearly Sum of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, shall be and is hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable, from time to time, out of all the Monies arisen or to arise at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the said particular Duties on Houses, and of or for the said Duties and Revenues, called the Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them; and shall be paid and payable to the said Governor <sup>payable from</sup> and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for <sup>24 June, 1718.</sup> ever, from the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year before mentioned, by even and equal Portions; all which Payments shall also be made in such Manner and Form, and with such Preference, as are herein after prescribed in that behalf.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That at any time, upon One Years Notice to be given at the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, or at any Quarterly Feast-day after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and not before; and upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the said Sum of One million seven hundred seventy five thousand twenty seven Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, without Deduction, Discount or Abatement whatsoever, to be made out of the same, or any part thereof, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny per Annum, if any such shall be then due, then, and not till then, the said Annuity of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny per Annum, shall from thenceforth cease and determine; any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Provisions, Statutes, or Things therein contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for ever (Subject nevertheless to the Proviso and Power of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained in this behalf, and none other) shall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act, to have, receive and enjoy, One Annuity or yearly Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, computed upon the said Principal Sum of Two millions, which yearly Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds shall be, and is hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable, from time to time, out of all the Monies arising or to arise at the said Receipt of Exchequer, as well of or for the said several Duties, Revenues, and Incomes called the Aggregate Fund, as aforesaid, as of or for the said particular Duties on Houses, and every or any of them; and shall be paid and payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for ever, at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year before mentioned, by even and equal Portions, without any Deduction, Defalcation, or Abatement whatsoever; and that all the Payments thereof shall be made in such Manner and Form, and with such Preference as are hereafter in this Act prescribed in that behalf.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for all and every Sum and Sums of Money which they shall advance for or in part of the said Sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, shall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled, by force and virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy an Annuity after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ever, subject nevertheless to the Proviso of Redemption herein after contained in that behalf; and that all and every such Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Money so to be advanced, shall be charged upon and shall be paid and payable, from time to time, out of the Monies which shall, from time to time, arise, as well of or for the aforesaid Duties upon Houses, as of or for the said Duties, Revenues, and Incomes composing the said Fund, called the Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them, and shall be paid and payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, in manner following, That is to say, The first Payment or Payments of such Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be computed by the Day, and satisfied from the Day or respective Days on which the said Sum, not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, or any part or parts thereof, shall be advanced or paid, as aforesaid, until the Quarterly Feast-day, or respective Quarterly Feast days then next ensuing; and from thenceforth the same Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year before mentioned, by even and equal Portions; all which Payments shall also be made in such Manner and Form, and with such Preference as are herein after prescribed in that behalf.

Duties on Houses, and the Aggregate Fund, &c. continued for ever.

XVII. And for the better securing all the several and respective Payments prescribed or intended to be made, by or in pursuance of this Act, It is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That as well the said particular Duties on Houses, and the said Duties, Revenues, and Incomes composing the said Aggregate Fund (which latter are particularly described or referred unto in the said Act of the first Year of his Majesty's Reign) and all other Duties which were settled for Payment of the said former yearly Sums of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and five Pence, and of the said Interest and Allowances relating to the said former Exchequer Bills, and every of them, are and shall be continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever; and shall be raised, levied, collected, and brought into the Exchequer in England, by and according to such Rules, Methods and Directions, and with such Drawbacks, Repayments and Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are prescribed in and by the respective Act and Acts of Parliament now in force, or any Articles, Clauses, Matters, or Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for raising, levying, or bringing in of the same, as fully and effectually as if the same Acts, Articles, Clauses, Matters and Things, and every of them, were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; nevertheless all the Monies arising thereby into the said Receipt, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and all the Monies then remaining in the said Receipt, of the same Rates, Duties, Revenues or Incomes, shall be disposable to and for the several and respective Uses and Purposes by this Act appointed, and subject to the several Provisoes of Redemption herein contained; any former Law, Statute, Provision, Restriction, Clauses of Appropriation, or other Clauses, Matter, or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all the Monies of the said particular Rates and Duties on Houses, and of the said Aggregate Fund, or other Duties, by this Act required to be brought into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be duly and fairly entered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, for that purpose; to which all Persons concerned, at all seasonable times, shall have free Access, without Fee or Charge.

1 Geo. 3. c. 12.

For the Purposes in the Act contained.

The Monies to be entered in Books in the Exchequer.

XLII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until all the Exchequer Bills to be circulated upon this Act shall be paid off, discharged and cancelled, no more or other Exchequer Bills, or Bills of the like Nature, though by another Name, shall or may be made out and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, either with or without the Authority of Parliament, unless by Consent of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors.

Till all the Bills be paid off, no other to be issued.

XLVI. Provided, and it is hereby Enacted, That as often as any Interest upon the said Exchequer Bills, hereby continued to be circulated, shall be demanded to be paid by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, they shall not be obliged to pay for such Interest to any lesser Sum than One Penny upon such Bill, in case a single Bill be produced for Payment, or for the Total of the Interest of such Bills where Two or more shall be offered at one time by the same Person; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank not obliged to pay for Interest to a lesser Sum than a Penny.

XLVII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Redemption of all the said several Annuities or Sums of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, One hundred thousand Pounds, and Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, and fifteen Shillings per Annum; and the said other Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, by Payments to be made according to the several and respective Provisoos or Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained of or concerning the same; and full Payment of all Arrearages (if any shall be then due) for and upon the said yearly Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum; and for the Deficiency (if any shall then be) of the said Original Fund of the said Governor and Company of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and every of them, then, and not till then, the said General or Aggregate Fund by this Act continued and established, and the said Subsidies, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, contained therein, and every of them, and also the said particular Duties on Houses, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid, or applied to any Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without Authority of Parliament; other than and except the Duties called the Two thirds of a Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage upon Goods and Merchandises imported, and other than and except the Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, Pictures and Bustings, and other than and except the increased Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Pictures, and other than and except the further Rates and Duties upon all white Calicoes, Porcelain, called China-Ware, and Drugs; all which said Subsidies and Duties, so excepted, are part of the said Aggregate Fund, and are intended to be continued, and they are hereby Enacted to be continued, for answering and paying out of the same, all the Payments which shall after such Redemption grow due for and upon the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, as aforesaid, for the Service of his Majesties Household and Family, and other his necessary Occasions, during his Majesties Life; and also for answering and paying out of the same excepted Subsidies, and other Duties, all the Payments which shall, after such Redemption, grow due for or upon the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, for Payment of Annuities, as aforesaid; and also for answering and paying out of the same excepted Subsidies and other Duties, all the Payments which shall after such Redemption grow due, for or upon the said yearly Sum of Four thousand Pounds to be issued to Sheriffs, as aforesaid, which Annuities or yearly Sums are to continue for ever, except such of them as shall be redeemed by Parliament, according to other Acts in

After Redemption of all the Annuities, &c. the Aggregate Fund and Duties on Houses shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament:

Except the here enumerated Duties, continued for answering the 200000 l. per Annum, for his Majesties Life,

and for paying the 4000 l. per Annum to Sheriffs.

that behalf; and the said excepted Subsidies and Duties so to be continued for answering the Payments of the said yearly Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, and Four thousand Pounds per Annum, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the same, are and shall be hereby appropriated, issued and applied thereunto, during the Continuance of the same yearly Sums respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Annuities may be separately redeemed.

XLVIII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained, for or concerning the Redemption of any of the said Annuities or yearly Sums hereby payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall in any wise prevent or hinder the Redemption of any other of the same Annuities or yearly Sums to them payable by this Act, but that every one of the said Annuities or yearly Sums may separately be redeemed at the time and in the manner by this Act prescribed, according to the respective Proviso herein contained for Redemption of the same; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to obstruct the making good the Deficiencies which may happen in the yearly Fund of 116673*l.* 12*s.* in Act 1 Geo.

LIV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall hinder or obstruct, or be construed to hinder or obstruct the making good any Deficiency or Deficiencies, which at any time or times shall happen of or in the yearly Fund of One hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred seventy three Pounds twelve Shillings, mentioned in an Act of Parliament of the first Year of his Majesties Reign, [Intituled, An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Commissioners for the Land-Tax for the Year One thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and for raising so much as is wanting to make up the Sum of Fourteen hundred thousand Pounds, intended to be raised by a Lottery for the Publick Service in the said Year] but that every such Deficiency shall and may be made good, and satisfied out of any the Publick unappropriated Monies, as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LV. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by the Speaker of the said House in writing, and delivered at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a sufficient Notice within the words and meaning of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Anno 3 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. IX.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for redeeming the yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company (being after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum) and settling on the said Company a yearly Fund after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and to raise for an Annuity or Annuities at Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, any Sum, not exceeding Two millions, to be employed in lessening the National Debts and Incumbrances, and for making the said New yearly Fund and Annuities to be hereafter redeemable in the time and manner thereby prescribed.

Preamble.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN, whereas the Capital or Joynt Stock of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, being adjusted and settled pursuant to several Acts of Parliament in that behalf, doth amount to the Sum of Ten millions; and in respect thereof a yearly Fund of

Sir

Six hundred thousand Pounds hath been and is payable to the said Governour and Company after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, besides a yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds for or towards the Charges of the said Governour and Company for Management, subject nevertheless to a Proviso contained in one Act of Parliament of the first Year of your Majesties Reign, [ Intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock and yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, and for supplying thereby Eight hundred twenty two thousand thirty two Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eight Pence to Publick Uses; and for raising One hundred sixty nine thousand Pounds for the like Uses, by Sale of Annuities upon divers Encouragements therein mentioned; and for appropriating several Supplies granted to his Majesty ] whereby the said yearly Sums of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and Eight thousand Pounds, were redeemable upon one Years Notice, which was to be given after the Twenty fifth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and upon Payment as well of the said Sum of Ten millions, as of all Arrears of the said yearly Sums, in such Manner and Form as in the said Proviso of Redemption are prescribed: And whereas the said Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain are willing and contented, in regard the Common Rate of Interest for Money is very much lessened under your Majesties most Auspicious Government, to accept from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, one Annuity or yearly Fund of Five hundred thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Ten millions, together with the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds to be continued to them for Management, so as they may be satisfied the said yearly Sums of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and Eight thousand Pounds, until and for the Quarter to end at the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and so as the future Payments of the said yearly Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds, and Eight thousand Pounds, may be secured to them from the same Feast day, until the Redemption thereof, according to the tenor and true meaning of this present Act: Now we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to ease the present Burthen of Debts and Incumbrances, and in due time the heavy Taxes lying upon this Kingdom, so far as is consistent with Honour, Justice and Equity, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for Encouraging the Fishery, or their Successors, shall be fully satisfied, contented and paid in the first place, all such Monies as are due and unpaid, or at any time or times, on or before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen inclusively, shall grow due and remain unpaid, or be in Arrear to them, for or upon the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and either of them, out of the several Revenues charged therewith, or by such other Ways and Means as by any former Act or Acts of Parliament are provided or prescribed in that behalf.

II. And it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, all Payments of or upon the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, which from thenceforth should or might grow due or payable, shall cease and determine.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, ( Subject nevertheless to the Proviso of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained in this behalf, and none other) shall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled, by force and virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the said yearly Fund or Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds; which Annual or yearly Sums shall be and are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable, from time to time, out of all and every the Duties, Impositions, Additional Impositions and Revenues, and all proportional Parts of them, or any of them whatsoever, which by an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, [Intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and Satisfying the Publick Debts; and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South-Seas, and for the Encouragement of the Fishery; and for Liberty to Trade in unwrought Iron with the Subjects of Spain; and to repeal the Acts for Registering of Seamen] or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Clause or Clauses contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, were charged or chargeable with the said former yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and the said former yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and either of them, or any part thereof; and shall be paid and payable to the said Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, for ever, at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year, that is to say, the Feasts of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Nativity of St. John Baptist, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be made at the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighteen; and that all the Payments thereof shall be made out of the Duties, Impositions, Additional Impositions, Revenues, and proportional Parts before mentioned, with Preference to all Payments hereafter to be charged thereupon (the Monies of the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and of the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, which are or shall be due or in Arrear at or before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, always excepted and foreprized.)

Payable Quarterly.

First Payment at Mich. 1718.

Orders to be made forth weekly for these Annuities.

IX. And for the more speedy Payment of the Monies which shall be due or payable thereupon, It is hereby Declared and Enacted, That weekly, or otherwise, as Monies of the said Duties, Impositions, Revenues and proportional Parts, or any of them, applicable to the Payment of the said yearly Funds, Annuities or Sums of Money, or any of them, payable to the said Governour and Company, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer for Payment thereof, such Monies shall and may be issued upon such Order and Orders for or towards discharging the said yearly Funds, Annuities, and Sums of Money to grow due for or at the end of the Quarter of a Year in which such Issues or Payments shall be made, so as such Weekly or other speedy Payments, do not exceed the Sum of the Quarterly Payment which shall grow due for or at the end of such Quarter respectively.

X. And for better securing to the said Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, all the Payments intended to be made to them by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, It is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Rates, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional Impositions, and other Duties and Revenues whatsoever, and all proportional Parts of them, or any of them, which were applicable to the Payment and Satisfaction of the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and the said former yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, during the Continuance thereof, are and shall be continued, and be payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, for satisfying and discharging as well the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and the said former yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and all Arrearages of them, which are or shall be due at or before the said Feast

9 A. cap. 21.

Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, as aforesaid, as also the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds hereafter to be paid; and all and every such New Annuity and Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Sum of Two millions, or so much thereof as shall be advanced upon this Act, and every of them, in the Order, Manner, and Form before in this Act prescribed in that behalf, and subject to such Redemption, as aforesaid, according to the tenor and true meaning of this Act; and that the same Rates, Subsidies, Impositions and other Duties, Revenues, and proportional Parts before mentioned, and every of them, shall be raised, levied, collected, and brought into the Exchequer in England for the same purposes, by and according to such Rules, Methods and Directions, and with such Drawbacks, Repayments and Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are prescribed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, or by any Articles, Clauses, Matters or Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for raising, levying, collecting, or bringing in of the same, as fully and effectually as if the same Acts, Articles, Clauses, Matters and Things, and every of them, were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; and that all the Monies which shall be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer of the said Rates, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional Impositions, and other Duties and Revenues, and all proportional Parts of them, for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be fairly and distinctly entered and registered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells, severally, for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all reasonable times, shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

subject to Redemption, and to be raised as by the former Acts, and to be entered in a Book in the Exchequer.

XI. And it is hereby also Enacted, That all the Monies of the said Rates, Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties and Revenues, and proportional Parts of them, or any of them, which shall or ought to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Purposes aforesaid (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, issuing, paying, and accounting for the same, and except such part thereof as by any former Act of Parliament is applicable to the Repayment of Loans still remaining unsatisfied, and to pay the Interest of the same) shall be, and are hereby appropriated, and shall be issued and applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of the said yearly Fund of Six hundred thousand Pounds, and of the said former yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, due or to grow due at or before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and the said growing yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and to and for the Payment of the said Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, hereafter to be acquired by virtue of this Act, and every of them, in their due Method and Order before prescribed, according to the tenor and true meaning of this Act, and without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be paid by the said Governor and Company for the same, or any part thereof, but subject to such Redemption as is herein after prescribed, and to none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever: And that the respective Officers of the Exchequer, who shall make any delay in issuing or paying the same, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any the said Monies contrary to this Act, for any such Offence shall be forejudged from their respective Offices or Places, and be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and shall also be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums of Money so delayed to be paid, or so diverted or misapling Making, Misdemeanors of Felony, Seditions and Unlawful Meetings and Conventicles, and all Offences whereby any Person may be charged with the Danger and Penalty of Praemunire; and also of and from all Riots, Routs, Offences, Contempts, Trespasses, Entries, Wrongs, Deceits, Misdemeanors, Forfeitures, Penalties, and Sums of Money, Pains of Death, Pains Corporal, and Pains Pecuniary; and generally of and from all other Things, Causes, Quarrels, Suits, Judgments, and Executions, in this present Act hereafter not Excepted or Forfeizured, which have been had, made, done, committed, omitted, perpetrated, incurred or forfeited, before and unto the Sixth day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventeen.

II. And also the Kings most Excellent Majesty is contented that it be Enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament; and be it Enacted by the Authority of the same, That this his Majesties Free Pardon shall be as Good and Effectual in Law to every of his said Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, in, for, and against all things aforesaid, and not hereafter in this present Act excepted and forfeizured, as the same Pardon should have been if all such Offences, Contempts, Forfeitures, Causes, Matters, Suits, Quarrels, Judgments, Executions, Penalties, and other things not hereafter in this Act particularly excepted and forfeizured, had been particularly, singularly, specially, and plainly named, rehearsed and specified, and also Pardoned by proper and express Words and Names; and that his said Subjects, or any of them, the Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of any of them, or the said Bodies Corporate, and others before named and rehearsed, or any of them, be not, nor shall be sued, vexed, or inquieted in their Bodies, Goods, Chattels, Lands or Tenements, for any Matter, Cause, Contempt, Misdemeanor, Forfeiture, Trespass, Offence, or any other Thing, suffered, done, or committed, or omitted before the said Sixth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, against his Majesty, his Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, or the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, but only for such Causes, Matters and Offences, as be rehearsed or mentioned in the Exceptions of this present Act to be excepted and forfeizured, and for none other; any Statute or Statutes, Laws or Customs, heretofore had, made or used, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

All things not excepted, shall be pardoned by the general Words of this Act, as well as if particularly named.

III. And the Kings Majesty, of his Bounteous Liberality, and by the Authority of this present Parliament, doth grant and freely give to every of his Subjects, every of the said Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, and every of them, all Goods, Chattels, Debts, Fines, Issues, Profits, Amerciaments, Forfeitures, and Sums of Money, by any of them forfeited, which to his Majesty do or shall appertain, by reason of any Offence, Contempt, Trespass, Entry, Misdemeanor, Matter, Cause or Quarrel, suffered, done or committed by them, or any of them, before the said Sixth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, not hereafter in this present Act forfeizured and excepted.

All Fines, &c. forgiven, not hereafter excepted.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it Enacted, That all Grants thereof, or of any Part thereof, made by any such as have to forfeited the same, and are hereby restored, as aforesaid, and all Executions thereof, or of any Part thereof, had against any such, after such Forfeiture thereof committed or made, shall be of such force and effect as if no such Forfeiture had been had or made, and of no other; the same Forfeiture or any thing in this Act before to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso,

V. And be it further Enacted, That all and every his Majesties Subjects, and all and singular Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, may by him or themselves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies, or by his or their Attorney or Attornies, according to the Laws of this Realm, Plead and Minister this Act of Free Pardon for his or their Discharge, of or for any thing that is, by virtue of this Act, pardoned, discharged, given or granted, without any Fee or any other Thing paying to any Person or Persons for the writing or entering of the Judgments or other Cause concerning such Plea, Writing or Entry, but only Sixteen Pence to the Clerk or Officer that shall enter such Plea or Matter for Judgment or the Parties Discharge in that behalf; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

All Persons may Plead this Act of Pardon.

This Pardon to be expounded in all Courts most beneficial for the Subject.

VI. And further the Kings Majesty is contented and pleased that it be Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this his Majesties Free Pardon, by the General Words, Clauses, and Sentences before rehearsed, shall be reputed, deemed, adjudged, expounded, allowed and taken, in all manner of Courts of his Majesty, and elsewhere, most Beneficial and Available to all and singular the said Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, and to every of them, in all things not in this present Act excepted and forepized, without any Ambiguity, Question, or other Delay whatsoever, to be made, pleaded, objected, or alledged by the Kings Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by his or any of their General Attorney or Attornies, Advocate or Advocates, or by any Person or Persons for his Majesty, or any of his Heirs or Successors.

Except Prosecutions before 15 July, 1717.

XXIII. And also excepted all other Offences, Contempts and Misdemeanors, had, committed or done contrary to any Act of Parliament (other than using, or causing to be used, any Craft, Mystery or Occupation by any Person or Persons not brought up therein Seven Years as an Apprentice) or contrary to the Laws of this Realm, for which any Person hath been or shall be so far Prosecuted, that on or before the Fifteenth day of July, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, any Verdict hath been or shall be obtained upon such Prosecution, or any Outlawry, Conviction, Judgment by Default, or other Judgment, Sentence or Decree, had, given or entered in any of his Majesties Courts, or before any Commissioners of his Majesty within this Realm of Great Britain, or by his Majesties Commissioners for the Management of his Receipt of Excise, or other Duties under their Management, or by his said Majesties Justices of the Peace, upon any Prosecution or Prosecutions before such Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace respectively, relating to the said Excise, or other Duties, or any of them; subject to the Clause herein after contained for the Pardoning the Imprisonment and Execution of certain Persons who be and remain Attainted for High Treason on the Fifth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen: Nevertheless none of such Offences, Contempts, or Misdemeanors (not being Capital) shall be Pardoned by this Act, but are hereby excepted thereout, whereof or for which any Action, Bill, Plaint, Information, Indictment, or other Prosecution at any time within Two Years next before the last Day of Trinity Term, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, hath been or shall be found, commenced or sued in any of his Majesties Courts at Westminster, or before any Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, Goal Delivery, or Justices of Assize, and on the said last Day of the said Term shall be depending and remaining to be Prosecuted, although no Outlawry, Verdict, Conviction, Judgment or Decree, shall, on the said Fifteenth day of July be had or obtained on the same, and which have been Prosecuted at the Charge of any private Person or Persons, unless the Defendant or Defendants in such Prosecution or Prosecutions shall pay to such private Prosecutor or Prosecutors, his or their Executors or Administrators, such Costs as the Court where or before whom such Prosecution shall be, shall award to be paid to such private Prosecutor or Prosecutors in respect of the Charges of such Prosecution.

Except Monies arising by Customs, &c.

XXXII. And also excepted out of this Pardon all and every the Sums of Money and Duties accruing or arising by or from any Customs or Subsidies, Excise, Imposition upon Wine, or other Liquors or Commodities, Duties upon Malt, Hops, Candles, Soap, Paper, Duties on printing, painting, staining or dying Silks, XXXIII. And also excepted all Offences, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating to the Exportation of any Wooll, or the Importation of Brandy from foreign Parts beyond the Seas in any Cessel or Cask which shall not contain Sixty Gallons at the least, and all Prosecutions for the same. Except Forfeitures relating to the Exportation of Wooll, and Brandy.

XXXV. And also excepted out of this Pardon all Arrears of Rent due from any Farmer or Tacksmen of any part of the Publick Revenue, and all Arrears of Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents. And all Arrears of Rent from Farmers of the Revenue.

XXXVI. And also excepted all and singular Accounts of all and every Collector and Collectors, Commissioners, Treasurers, Receivers, or other Officers, or other Accountant whatsoever, who have received or collected, or are any other way accountable to his Majesty for any the Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Excises, Duties, Land-Taxes, Poll-Honey, Rents, or other Matters before mentioned, or for Prize-Goods, or for any other Tar, Assessment, Duty, Imposition, Debt, or Sum of Honey, or other Things whatsoever, given to the Kings Majesty, or leviabie by Act of Parliament, or otherwise belonging to his Majesty, and all Accounts of every other Person whatsoever, that ought to be accountant to the Kings Majesty, for or in respect of any Receipt or other Charge, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Sureties of any Person that ought to account for all Things touching only the same Accounts; and all and singular Arrearages of Accounts, and all Impetitions, Charges, Seizures, Suits, Demands, and Executions, which may or can be had of or for any such Account or Accounts, or any Arrearages of the same. And all Accounts of Collectors, &c.

XXXVII. And also excepted all Recognizances, Obligations, and other Securities, given or entered into by any Receiver of any Land-Tar or any other Duties, Impositions, or other Sums of Honey whatsoever, due or payable to his Majesty by Act of Parliament, or otherwise, or by any Reeve, Bailiff, Collector, or other Accountant in either of the Courts of Exchequer in England or Scotland, and their Sureties and their Accounts respectively, and all other Recognizances and Obligations whatsoever, conditioned for Payment of Honey, and all Obligations or other Securities given or entered into by any Officer or Officers of any his Majesties Revenues, or their Sureties for the true Discharge of his or their Trusts. And all Recognizances of Receivers, &c.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to pardon or discharge any Recognizance or Obligation not yet forfeited, nor to pardon or discharge any forfeited Recognizance or Obligation, or any other Forfeiture or Penalty, whereof any Person or Persons who are or have been Farmers or Tacksmen of any part of the Publick Revenue, ought to receive any Benefit or Advantage, nor to pardon Or of Farmers or Tacksmen of the Publick Revenue, &c.

don or discharge any Debt due by Recognizance or Obligation; or otherwise, to any Person or Persons indebted to the Crown, which hath been duly seized in Aid of the Crowns Debt; nor to pardon or discharge any Debt due by Recognizance, Obligations, Condemnation, or otherwise, whereupon any Estallment or Seizure has been at any time heretofore made, upon which Estallment or Seizure any Thing is, or at any time since the Nineteenth day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine, hath been answered and paid; nor to pardon or discharge any Penalties, Forfeitures, or Sums of Money due or accrued to his Majesty by reason of any Act, Statute or Statutes; which Forfeitures, Penalties, and Sums of Money, since the said Nineteenth day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine, be converted into the nature of any Debt, by Judgment, Order, Decree, or by the Agreement of the Offender or Offenders, or have been Estalled, or any Seizure made for the same, and upon such Seizure or Estallment any thing answered or paid since the said Nineteenth day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine; nor to extend, or be construed to pardon or discharge any Recognizance which hath been entered into and forfeited, for or on account of any Crimes or other Matters which by this Act are excepted or forepized out of this Pardon.

And all Fines,
&c. entered in any Court of Record since 6 May, 1715.

Exception.

XLI. And also excepted all such Issues, Fines and Amerciaments, returned, affected, taxed, set, or entered, in any Court of Record within this Realm of Great Britain, at any time since the Sixth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen.

XLII. And yet nevertheless, all Estreats of such Fines, Issues, and Amerciaments, as be now pardoned by this Act, and which be already estreated forth of either of the Courts of Exchequer of England or Scotland, and be remaining in the Hands of the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, or other proper Officer for collecting of the same Fines, Issues, and Amerciaments, shall, upon the Return of the said Estreats, be duly and orderly charged and delivered by Scrows into the Office of the Pipe in the said respective Courts of Exchequer, as heretofore hath been accustomed in England; To the intent that thereupon Order may be taken that his Majesty may be truly answered all such Fines, Issues, and Amerciaments, not by this Act pardoned, and which any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Officer or Minister has received, or ought to answer by force or colour of any such Estreat, Process, or Precept to him or them made for levying thereof; and yet all and every Sheriff and Sheriffs, and other Accountant, upon his or their Petition or Petitions to be made for the Allowance of any such Fines, Issues, or Amerciaments, as by this Act are pardoned, shall have all and every such his and their Petition allowed in his and their Account and Accounts, without paying any Fee or Reward to any Officer, Clerk, or other Minister, for the making, entering, and allowing of any such Petition or Petitions; any Usage or Custom to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

General Issue.

LV. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons hereby pardoned, may plead the General Issue without special Pleading of this Pardon, and give this Act of Pardon in Evidence for his Discharge; and that the same shall be thereupon allowed, and Advantage thereof had, as fully to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been fully and well pleaded.

Pardon good against all Persons claiming under the Crown.

LVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Pardon shall be of as good force and effect to pardon and discharge all and singular the Premises above mentioned and intended to be pardoned and discharged, as well against such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, as do or shall claim the same, by or under any Letters Patents, or Lease or Grant by the Kings Majesty, or any his Predecessors, as against the Kings Majesty himself.

C A P. XXI.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for continuing the Liberty of exporting Irish Linen Cloth to the British Plantations in America Duty-free; and for the more effectual Discovery of and Prosecuting such as shall unlawfully export Wooll and Woollen Manufactures from Ireland; and for Relief of John Fletcher, in respect of the Duty by him paid for a Quantity of Salt lost in the Exportation for Ireland.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of Preamble:

3 & 4 A. cap. 8. the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to permit the Exportation of Irish Linen Cloth to the Plantations, and to prohibit the Importation of Scots Linen into Ireland; It was Enacted for the Support of the Protestant Interest of Ireland, and for the Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture of that Kingdom, That it should and might be lawful to export from Ireland, directly to the British Plantations, all sorts of white and brown Linen Cloths, being the proper Manufacture of the said Kingdom, under certain Restrictions and Conditions in the said Act mentioned, for the Term of Eleven Years; which Act hath been since continued for One Year, and to the End of this present Session of Parliament, by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George, Intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned, relating to Coals, Hemp, and Flax, Irish and Scots Linen, and the Assize of Bread, and for giving Power to Adjourn the Quarter-Sessions for the County of Anglesea, for the Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas it hath been found by Experience, That the Continuance of the said Act is and may be beneficial to both the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings ACT 3 & 4 A. cap. 8. continued. most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Queen Anne, so far forth as the same relates to the Exportation of Irish Linen Cloths to the British Plantations, shall be, and the same is hereby continued in full force, so long as the Merchants, and other Persons of Great Britain, are or shall be permitted to import into Ireland, free of all Duties, such white and brown British Linen Cloth as is or shall be made and manufactured in Great Britain.

II. And whereas some Doubt has arisen, whether Linens imported into this Kingdom from Ireland, and not subject to pay any Duties upon the said Importation, should, upon being exported again for any of the British Plantations in America, become liable to pay a Duty ad valorem; Be it Declared and Enacted, That all Linens made in Ireland, and imported from thence into this Kingdom, may, from and after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, be shipped off again and exported for any of his Majesties Plantations in America, without being liable or subject to pay any Duty whatsoever.

IV. And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wooll out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into Foreign Parts, and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England, one Society of the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby indicated for preventing the Exportation of Wooll and other Woollen Goods therein mentioned out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, other than into the Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, is given to the Encouragement of setting up the Linen Manufactures in Ireland, to be Linens imported from Ireland, may be shipped off for America Duty-free.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures of Wooll to be to the Crown.

be disposed of by the Court of Exchequer there, for that Use only; which Disposition of the said Holety has been found of very little Advantage to the said Linen Manufactures, but has tended very much to the Discouragement of Prosecutions made in pursuance of the said Act: For the more effectually putting the said Act in Execution, Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, the said Holety of all such Penalties and Forfeitures (after a Deduction made out of the said Holety of the Charges of Prosecution and Condemnation) shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

Actions about exporting Wooll to be tried at Dublin.

The first Three Persons informing not to suffer any Penalty, except Owners.

V. And for the better and more impartial Tryals of all such Actions and Informations which shall be commenced or prosecuted by virtue of any Act now in being made for the preventing the unlawful Exportation of Wooll or Woollen Manufactures from the Kingdom of Ireland, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, such Actions and Informations shall be tried in any of his Majesties four Courts at Dublin, by a Jury of Good and Lawful Freeholders to be Summoned out of any other County than that wherein the Fact shall be committed: And to Encourage Persons to discover the said Crime, the first Three Persons who have been aiding, abetting, or assisting in carrying out or exporting of Wooll, or any other of the Commodities, as aforesaid, that shall inform thereof any of his Majesties Justices of the Peace, whereby the Punishment and Penalties appointed by this Act may be inflicted and recovered, the Party or Parties so discovering (not being Owner or part Owners of the said Wooll or other Commodities aforesaid) shall not suffer any of the said Penalties or Punishment to be inflicted by this or any other Act.

C A P. III.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and eighteen; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, and Orders, Lost, Burnt, or Destroyed; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

Cyder or Perry that have paid the Duties may be exported on Security not to be reloaded:

VIII. AND be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who shall have actually paid his Majesties Duties by this Act payable for any Cyder or Perry made in Great Britain; and to or for any other Person or Persons who shall Buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Cyder or Perry, for or in respect whereof the said Duties to his said Majesty hereby granted have been duly paid, to export such Cyder and Perry for any Foreign Parts, by way of Merchandize, giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantity of Cyder or Perry which shall be intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall be shipped and exported, and that the same, or any part thereof, shall not be reloaded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Customor or Collector of the respective Port from whence such Exportation is to be (without any Fee or Reward) is hereby directed and Authorized to take in his Majesties Name, and to his Majesties Use.

IX. And

IX. Provided always, That if after the Shipping of any such Cyder or Perry to be exported, as aforesaid, and the giving or tendering such Security, as aforesaid, in order to obtain the Allowance or Drawback herein after mentioned, the Cyder or Perry so shipped to be exported, or any part thereof, shall be re-landed in any Part of Great Britain, That then and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to his Majesties Use, all the Cyder and Perry which shall be so Re-landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited.

Re-landed, forfeited, and the Bond.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, who shall export any Cyder or Perry into Foreign Parts by way of Merchandize, shall produce a Certificate or Certificates from the Collector or Officer who received the Duty of such Cyder or Perry, that the Duty imposed thereon by this Act hath been paid (which Certificate the Collector or Officer is hereby required to give gratis) and making Oath before the Officer or Collector of the Port where the same shall be so exported, that the Cyder or Perry so exported, is the same as is mentioned in such Certificate, then the Collector or Chief Officers of the Port where such Cyder or Perry shall be exported, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Certificate or Debenture, expressing the true Quantity of the Cyder or Perry so exported, or shipped for Exportation; which Certificate or Debenture being produced to the Collector or other Officer appointed to receive the said Duty in the County, Shire, Stuartry, or Place, where such Cyder or Perry was exported, he is hereby required to pay the said Duty of four Shillings per Hogshead to the Persons, or their Agents, so exporting the same; and in case the Collector or other Officer shall not have any Money in their Hands arising by the said Duties on Cyder and Perry to pay the same, then the respective Commissioners appointed for executing this Act, are hereby required to pay the same out of the Duties arising by the said Act; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Certificate that the Duties have been paid, &c. Collector to give a Debenture thereof, and the Duty to be repaid to the Exporter.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Fines, &c. how to be sued for, &c.

C A P. III.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for applying certain Overplus Monies, and further Sums, to be raised, as well by way of a Lottery, as by Loans, towards paying off and cancelling Exchequer Bills, and for lessening the present great Charge in relation to those Bills; and for circulating and exchanging for Ready Money the residue of the same Bills for the future.

MA P it please your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas by an Act of Parliament of the Third Year of your Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for redeeming several Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, pursuant to former Provisoos of Redemption; and for securing to them several New Funds and Allowances redeemable by Parliament; and for obliging them to advance further Sums not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, at Five Pounds per Centum, as shall be found necessary to be employed in lessening the National Debts and Incumbrances; and for continuing certain Provisions formerly made for the Expences of his Majesties Civil Government; and for Payment of Annuities formerly Purchased at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum; and for other Purposes in this Act mentioned] the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, for circulating certain Bills, commonly called Exchequer Bills, therein mentioned, amounting to Two millions five hundred sixty one thousand and twenty five Pounds, or thereabouts, in Principal Money, and for exchanging the same for ready Money, on Demand, are entitled to an Annuity or yearly Sum of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifty Shillings (being an Allowance, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, computed upon the said Sum of Two millions five hundred sixty one thousand and twenty five Pounds) subject nevertheless to a Proviso of Redemption in that Act contained, upon such Notice as is thereby prescribed; which Annuity or yearly Allowance is by the same Act charged upon, and made payable out of the Monies arisen or to arise at the Receipt of the Exchequer of or for certain particular Duties on Houses, and of or for several other Duties and Revenues, called the Aggregate Fund in that Act, and in former Acts relating to the said Fund more particularly mentioned and described, in the Order and Course, and with such Preference as is thereby directed; and by the Act first above mentioned it is Enacted and Declared, That as well the said particular Duties on Houses, and the Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, composing the said Aggregate Fund, and all other Duties which were settled for Payment of a former yearly Sum of One hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and five Pence, and the Interest and Allowances relating to former Exchequer Bills therein mentioned, should be continued, but be disposable to and for the several and respective Uses and Purposes appointed by that Act, and subject to the several Provisions of Redemption therein contained; and that all the Monies of the said Duties, Revenues and Incomes, which should or ought to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer (except the necessary Charges for raising, collecting, levying, issuing, paying, and accounting for the same) should be and are thereby appropriated, and should be issued and applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of several yearly and other Sums in the said Act particularly expressed, in their due Course, and with such Preferences as are thereby appointed; amongst which Payments an express Provision is made for Payment of the said Annuity or Allowance of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, Fifteen Shillings per Annum, and for answering all Demands of Interest due and to be due upon the said Exchequer Bills as is therein mentioned. And by the same Act it was Declared and Enacted, That the Excess or Surplus which, at the end of every or any Quarter of a Year (reckoning the Quarters to end at the usual Feast-days) should or might be produced by the said several Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes thereby appropriated, and should remain in the Exchequer (over and above the Money then due or demandable, for or upon the several Annuities, Allowances, and other Payments therein before mentioned, or any Arrears of the same) should attend the Disposition of Parliament, and be applied according to Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf, and not otherwise. And it was thereby Declared and Enacted, That any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by the Speaker of the said House in writing, and delivered at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company, should be deemed and adjudged to be a sufficient Notice within the words and meaning of the said Act, for redeeming the said Annuity or Allowance of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, Fifteen Shillings per Annum, as by the same Act, relation being thereunto had (amongst many other Matters and Things therein contained) may more fully appear. And whereas by another Act of Parliament of the said Third Year of your Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for redeeming the yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, being after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and settling on the said Company a yearly Fund after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and to raise for an Annuity or Annuities at Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, any Sum not exceeding Two millions, to be employed in lessening the National Debts and Incumbrances; and for making the said New yearly Fund and Annuities to be hereafter redeemable in the time and manner thereby prescribed] several other Subsidies, Impositions, Duties, Revenues, and proportional Parts of Duties and Revenues therein mentioned, or thereby referred unto, were continued for the several and respective Uses and Purposes in that Act. And it was thereby Enacted, That all the Monies thereof, which should or ought to be brought into the Exchequer for those purposes (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, issuing, and accounting for the same; and except such part thereof, as by any former Act or Acts of Parliament was applicable to the Repayment of Loans then remaining unsatisfied, and to pay the Interest of the same) should be and are thereby appropriated, and should be issued and applied to and for the Payment of the yearly and other Sums in the same Act particularly expressed, in their due Method and Order, and subject to such Redemption as are thereby prescribed. And by the same Act it was Provided and Enacted, That if at any time at the end of any Quarter of a Year, (reckoning the Quarters to end at the usual Feasts) there should be

be an Excess or Surplus of the Monies brought into the Exchequer of the said Subsidies, Impositions, Duties, Revenues, and proportional Parts, and such Excess or Surplus should remain there, over and above the Money then or before that time grown due, by or in pursuance of that Act, as is therein mentioned, then such Excess or Surplus, should, from time to time, attend the Disposition of Parliament, and be applied according to Act or Acts of Parliament, and not otherwise, as by the Act last mentioned (relation being thereunto had) may also more fully appear. And whereas by another Act of Parliament of the said Third Year of your Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for redeeming the Duties and Revenues which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on Four Lottery Acts passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of her late Majesties Reign, and for redeeming certain Annuities payable on Orders out of the Hereditary Excise, according to a former Act in that behalf; and for establishing a General yearly Fund, not only for the future Payment of Annuities at several Rates, to be payable and transferable at the Bank of England, and redeemable by Parliament, but also to raise Monies for such Proprietors of the said Orders as shall chuse to be paid their Principal and Arrears of Interest in ready Money; and for making good such other Deficiencies and Payments as in this Act are mentioned; and for taking off the Duties on Linseed imported, and British Linen exported] several other Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Rates and Duties, proportional Parts of Duties, Revenues, and Weekly and other Payments out of Duties and Revenues therein specified, or thereby referred unto, were continued for the purposes in that Act. And it was thereby Enacted, That Yearly and every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and from thenceforth for ever (Subject nevertheless to such Provisoes and Power of Redemption as are in that Act contained) the full Sum of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, by or out of the Monies arising of or for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, Weekly and other Payments by that Act appropriated and directed to be brought, from time to time, into the Exchequer, in case the same should extend to the said Sum of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny, should be computed and reckoned to be a General yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies so arising into the Exchequer of or for the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, Weekly and other Parts, should not amount to Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same would extend, should be part of the said General yearly Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, for and towards the answering and paying all the Annuities and Payments by that Act charged or chargeable thereupon; and in case all the Monies by that Act appointed or appropriated, as aforesaid, should at any time or times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any One Year to be reckoned, as aforesaid, the said Monies so arising in the Exchequer, of or for all the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, proportional Parts, Weekly and other Payments, should not amount to so much as Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny, that then, and so often, and in every such Case, so much as should be wanting to make up the said General Fund or Sum of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny, Peny, for every oz any such Pear, should be supplied and made good, from time to time, by oz out of the first Aid oz Supply to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency should appear, and should, from time to time, be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same should be granted. And it was thereby Enacted, That the Excess oz Surplus, which at the end of every oz any Quarter of a Pear (reckoning the Quarters to end at the Four most usual Feast days) should oz might be produced by the Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Additional and other Duties, proportional Parts of Duties, and by the said Weekly and other Payments, by that Act appropriated oz charged to make good the said General yearly Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Peny, over and above so much as shall be sufficient to make good the same; and so much of the said General yearly Fund as at the end of any Quarter of a Pear shall remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, over and above all the Monies then due oz payable, to discharge the several Annuities and other Payments by that Act directed to be satisfied out of the same, and all Arrears thereof (if any such were) should likewise, from time to time, attend the Disposition of Parliament, and be applied according to Act oz Acts of Parliament, and not otherwise. And by the Act last recited, It was further Declared and Enacted, That all the Monies to arise, from time to time, as well of oz for the Excess oz Surplus by virtue of the said Act made for redeeming the Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and of oz for the said Excess oz Surplus, by virtue of the said Act, made for redeeming the Funds of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, as also of and for the said Excess oz Surplus of the said Duties and Revenues by the said other Act of the Third Pear of your Majesties Reign, appropriated to make good the said General yearly Fund, as aforesaid, and the Overplus Monies of the same General yearly Fund, thereby established, oz intended to be established, as aforesaid, should be appropriated, reserved, and employed to and for the discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances, as were contracted before the Twenty fifth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and were declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Acts of Parliament, in such Manner and Form, as should be directed oz appointed by any future Act oz Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith, oz out of the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent, oz Purpose whatsoever, as by the Act last before recited (relation being thereunto had) may likewise more fully appear. And whereas the said Sum, not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, in the said first recited Act mentioned, oz any part thereof, was not advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, oz called for, oz required by the Commissioners of your Majesties Treasury, so that the said Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, called the Aggregate Fund, are not charged oz chargeable with any Annuity, oz other Payment whatsoever in respect of the same, by the said first recited Act, oz otherwise howsoever; and the said Sum, not exceeding Two millions, mentioned in the said Act relating to the South-Sea Company, oz any part thereof, was not advanced by that Company, oz called for, oz required by the Commissioners of your Majesties Treasury, so that the said Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, comprehended in the Fund of that Company, are not charged oz chargeable with any Annuity, oz other Payment whatsoever in respect of the same, by virtue of the said Act relating to that Company, oz otherwise howsoever. And whereas we your Majesties said Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled (pursuant to the Clauses contained in the Act first above recited) did, on the Tenth day of March, in the Pear of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, Resolve,

That

The Sum of 2500000 l. was not advanced by the Bank, so that the Aggregate Fund is not charged therewith :

Nor was the Sum of 2000000 l. advanced by the South-Sea Company.

That Notice should be given to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, That the House of Commons would, at Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, redeem the said Annuity of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifteen Shillings; and ordered the Speaker of the said House, on or before Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, to signify the said Resolution in writing to the said Governor and Company, which was signified accordingly. And where- as by Computation as many of the said Exchequer Bills as do amount to the said Sum of Two millions five hundred sixty one thousand twenty five Pounds, in Principal Money, made forth by the said former Act of Parliament, do, on the fourteenth day of January, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, remain undischarged and uncanceled, and the present Cost and Expence to the Publick for circulating and exchanging the same, doth, by the said Allowance of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and by the said growing Interest of One Penny per Centum per Diem, amount in the whole to One hundred and fifteen thousand seven hundred seventy nine Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and Four Pence per Annum, or thereabouts, except so much thereof as is saved, and may be abated for Bills, from time to time, in the Exchequer, or in the Hands of Receivers or Collectors of any Taxes, Aids, or Revenues, payable to your Majesty; and it being apparently Just and Necessary, with regard to the Publick, that the said present Cost and Expence, and the said National Debts and Incumbrances be lessened as far as conveniently may be, we your Majesties said Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, for that end and purpose, have Resolved, That the Surplus Monies herein after particularly directed and appointed, and a further Sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, to be raised by way of a Lottery, and another further Sum, not exceeding five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, to be raised by way of Loan, be applied towards paying off the Principal and Interest born upon the said Bills, and for cancelling the Bills, whereof the Principal and Interest shall be so paid off; and that so many of the said Exchequer Bills as shall remain undischarged and uncanceled by or with the Money so to be applied, shall be circulated and exchanged in the manner hereafter in this Act appointed in that behalf: Now we your Majesties said Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for the better and effectual Accomplishment of their Desires and Intentions in the Premises, and that your Majesty and your Subjects may be eased of the Burden of the said National Debts and Incumbrances, as fast as is consistent with Honour and Justice, do most humbly pray your Majesty, That it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the Sum of One hundred ninety six thousand four hundred forty four Pounds, Eighteen Shillings, Three Pence Half-penny, which remained in the Exchequer at Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, for the Overplus of the said particular Duties on Houses, and other Duties and Revenues comprehended in the said Fund, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, appointed to be reserved for Disposition of Parliament, as aforesaid, (being over and above the Excess of the Civil-List Fund for Three Years, ended at the same Feast-day;) and that all the Overplus Monies of the Civil-List Fund for Three Years ended at Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, which Overplus is also appointed to be reserved for Disposition of Parliament, as aforesaid; and the Sum of Nineteen thousand five hundred seventy seven Pounds, and Ten Shillings, which remained in the Exchequer at Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, for the Surplus or Overplus of the Fund, commonly called the Fund of the South-Sea Company, appointed to be reserved for Disposition of Parliament, as aforesaid; and the Sum of One hundred ninety thousand four hundred thirty six Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, Eleven Pence, and Nine twentieth Parts of a Penny, being the Excess or Surplus for the Year ended at Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, upon the yearly Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny, commonly called the General Fund, likewise appointed, as aforesaid, to be reserved for Disposition of Parliament (over and above the Sum of One hundred and thirty thousand Pounds, which is hereafter in and by this Act directed to be reserved towards making good the Half-yearly Payment on the Annuities charged on the said General Fund for the Half year ending at Christmas, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen) and all the Excess or Overplus Monies, which within and for the Half-year to end at Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall arise upon the several Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, the South-Sea Companies Fund, and the General Fund before mentioned, every or any of them, which by the said Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, were severally reserved, and intended to be reserved, for Disposition of Parliament, shall, by force and virtue of this Act, be applied (so far as the Monies of all the said several Surplusses, Excesses, or Overplusses will extend) towards redeeming the said Annuity or Allowance of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifteen Shillings per Annum, and to and for the Satisfying and Discharging so much as the same will extend to satisfy and discharge of the Principal Monies contained in the said Exchequer Bills, and the Interest due, or to be due upon the same, according to the Direction and true Meaning of this Act herein after specified.

V. And to the end a further Sum of Money may be raised by way of a Lottery, to be also applied towards discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills remaining uncanceled, and towards lessening the said present Cost and Expence thereupon, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Yearly and every Year, from and after Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the full Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies which, from and after the same Feast-day, shall arise and be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the said particular Duties upon Houses, and other the Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, which by the said first recited Act were charged with the said Allowance, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the said Interest, after the Rate of One Penny per Centum per Diem, or with the same Allowance and Interest jointly with other Annuities and Payments in that Act mentioned (all which Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes together, are denominated the Aggregate Fund, and are hereby Declared to be the Aggregate Fund) shall be, and the same yearly Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds is by this Act Declared and Enacted to be a particular Fund and Security for answering and paying all and every the Annuities or yearly Payments, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the Contributors in the Lottery herein after mentioned, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in the manner and course hereafter in this Act expressed, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Provision hereafter in this Act contained in that behalf; and that the said yearly Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the Sums which shall grow due, from time to time, for or upon the said Annuities, at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, so to be paid and payable, shall, from time to time, be paid Half-yearly at Michaelmas and Lady-day, by even and equal Portions (until Redemption of the same Annuities by Parliament, according to the true meaning of this Act) at the said Receipt of Exchequer to the chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the time being, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for

Pay.

Payment of the same Annuities; The first Payment of the said yearly Sum to the said Cashire to be made at Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and the said Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, Under Treasurer, and Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, for the time being, are hereby straitly enjoined and required to cause the said yearly Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, to be impressed and paid, from time to time, to the said Cashire accordingly, without any further or other Warrant or Authority for the same; any former Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. And it is hereby Enacted, That every Person so to be named in the said Book to be transmitted into the Receipt of Exchequer, and in the said Duplicate to be delivered to the said Cashire, his, her, and their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled, by force and virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy, an Annuity or Annuities, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the respective Principal Sums to be set against his, her, or their Name or Names respectively in the Book and Duplicate last mentioned, until Redemption thereof, according to the Proviso hereinafter contained in that behalf, out of the Honey of the said yearly Fund by this Act established and appropriated for that Purpose; which Annuities shall be payable and paid Half yearly at the Feast Days above mentioned, by even and equal Portions, or within Six Days next after every or any such Feast Day, until the said Annuities shall be redeemed, by paying off the said respective Principal Sums, and all Arrearages of the same Annuities (if any be) according to the Proviso herein after contained in that behalf; the first Payment to begin and be made at the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, or within Six Days after: And that the said yearly Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, from time to time, to answer and satisfy the said Annuities, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as the same shall become due, are and shall be appropriated and applied thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever.

Persons named in the said Book entitled to an Annuity of 4 l. per Cent. for their respective Principal Sums, payable Half-yearly.

First Payment at Mich. 1719.

XXII. And to the end all the Annual and other Payments, which by the said first recited Act were charged upon the said Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, called the Aggregate Fund, (other than and except such Payments, as from and after Lady day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, might incur for or upon the said Allowance of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifteen Shillings per Annum, hereby intended to be redeemed, and other than and except such other Sums of Money and Payments as are already satisfied and discharged, or are by this Act intended to be reduced or saved to the Publick) may, together with the said yearly Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, be well and sufficiently Secured, and may respectively obtain their due Course of Payment, with such Preferences as by the said former Act, and this present Act, are appointed in that behalf; It is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said particular Duties on Houses, and all the said other Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, which by the said first recited Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, were settled for answering the respective Payments therein mentioned (all which are by this Act denominated to be the Aggregate Fund, as aforesaid) and every of them, are and shall be continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, for ever, and shall be raised, levied, collected, and brought into the Exchequer of England, by and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, and with such Drawbacks, Repayments, and Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are prescribed in and by the respective

The Aggregate Fund continued for ever.

Act and Acts of Parliament now in force, or any Articles, Clauses, Matters, or Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for raising, levying, or bringing in the same, as fully and effectually as if the same Acts, Articles, Clauses, Matters, and Things, and every of them, were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; nevertheless all the Monies arising thereby into the said Receipt of Exchequer, from and after the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and all the Monies then remaining in the said Receipt, of the same Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, shall be disposable to and for the several and respective Uses and Purposes by this or the said first recited Act appointed or intended, (other than and except, as aforesaid) and subject to the several Provisions of Redemption herein contained; any former Law, Statute, Provision, Restriction, Clause or Clauses of Appropriation, or other Clauses, Matters, or Things whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Redeemable by Parliament.

All the Monies to be entered in a Book.

The Aggregate Fund appropriated.

XXIII. And it is hereby Enacted, That all the Monies so required to be brought into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be duly and fairly entered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Wells, for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all reasonable times, shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

XXIV. And it is also hereby Enacted, That all the Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges for raising, collecting, levying, issuing, paying, and accounting for the same) shall be and are hereby appropriated to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of such several Yearly and other Sums of Money as are hereafter in and by this Act appointed to be paid out of the same, in such Order and Course, and with such Preference, as in and by this Act are directed in that behalf; all which Yearly and other Sums are to be satisfied and discharged without any Fee or Charge whatsoever to be demanded or paid for the same, or any part thereof; any former Law, Statute, Provision, Appropriation, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding: And in case any Officer or Minister of the Exchequer shall divert or misapply any of the Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Revenues, or Incomes, by this Act appropriated for any the Uses or Purposes in this Act expressed, contrary to the purport and true meaning of this Act, or shall pay or issue the same, or any part thereof, otherwise than according to the intent of this Act, and in the Order hereby directed, or shall not keep Books, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things which by this Act he or they are required to do or perform, every such Officer or Minister shall forfeit his Office, and be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever; and shall also be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums of Money so delayed to paid, or so diverted or misapplied, with full Costs of Suit to those that shall suffer or be grieved thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imprisonment shall be granted or allowed.

Penalty on Officer misapplying the Monies.

How the Monies shall be issued and applied to the Bank, &c.

XXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, and by this Act appropriated or mentioned to be appropriated, as aforesaid, shall be issued and applied in manner and form following, That is to say, In the first Place, to pay off so much as at or before the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall grow due, and be in Arrear (if any such Arrears be) to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for or upon their said Annuity or Allowance of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifteen Shillings per per Annum, (which is from thenceforth to cease and determine) and so much as on or before the same Feast-day shall be grown due or be in Arrear to them (if any such Arrear be) for or upon their Annuity or Sum of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny per Annum, in respect of the Principal Sum of Seventeen hundred seventy five thousand twenty seven Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, in the said first recited Act mentioned, and so much as on or before the same Feast-day shall be grown due, or be in Arrear to them (if any such Arrear be) for or upon their Annuity or Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, in respect of the Principal Sum of Two millions in the said first recited Act mentioned, and after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay, so much as shall be grown due and in Arrear (if any such Arrears be) for or upon the said Annuities or Sums of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, at or before the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; then to and for the answering and discharging so much as after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall, from time to time, be incurred and grown due for or upon the said Annuities of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and either of them, to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, or to their Cashire for their Use, Weekly, or as soon as the same can be satisfied out of the Monies of the said Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, or any of them, according to the tenor and true meaning of this and the said former Act; so as by such Weekly or other Payments the whole of the same Annuities or yearly Sums to be paid to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, at the end of each Quarter, be not exceeded; and so that upon every one of the Quarterly Feast-days, the whole then due thereupon severally be completed, made up, and satisfied; and after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due upon the said several Annuities to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, then to pay and satisfy the said particular yearly Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds for answering the said Lottery Annuities, by half yearly Payments, and such Sum and Sums of Money as shall, from time to time, be demanded to pay the Interest due and to grow due on all or any the said Exchequer Bills.

XXVI. And it is hereby Enacted, That after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due or incurred for or upon the said several Annuities, payable to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and for and upon the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and to answer such Demands of Interest due, or to grow due on all or any the said Exchequer Bills, then the yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds (in the said first recited Act mentioned) for the Service of his Majesties Household, and Family, and other his necessary Expences, and Occasions, and all Arrears thereof, from time to time, grown due, shall be paid to his Majesty, during his Natural Life (which God long preserve) out of the Monies by this Act appropriated, or mentioned or intended to be appropriated, for the Uses and Purposes before mentioned: And that the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury, and the High Treasurer, and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and required for his Majesty's

to cause the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and such Arrears thereof (if any be) to be issued and applied Weekly, or as soon as the same can be satisfied, in the Order and Course before mentioned for that Service, out of the Monies arisen or to arise, as aforesaid; so as by such Weekly or other Payments, the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds to be due thereupon, at the end of each Quarter, be not exceeded; and so that upon every of the said Quarterly Feast-days, the whole then due thereupon, if the said appropriated Monies will extend thereunto, be completed, made up, and satisfied, according to the true meaning of this Act.

Perpetual Annuities of 5*l.* per Cent.

XXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due or incurred for or upon the said several Annuities, payable to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and for or upon the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and to answer such Demands of Interest due, or to grow due, on all or any the said Exchequer Bills, as aforesaid; and so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due for or upon the said Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, in the said first recited Act mentioned, for Payment of the Perpetual Annuities formerly purchased, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and all Arrears thereof (if any be) shall, without any Deduction or Abatement, be separated and kept apart in the said Receipt of Exchequer, out of the Monies by this Act appropriated, or mentioned to be appropriated, as aforesaid, for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied to answer and satisfy the said Perpetual Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, according to the true intent and meaning of such Act or Acts of Parliament as were passed in that behalf, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament, as is thereby prescribed.

Subject to Redemption.

Arrears on the several Annuities.

XXVIII. And it is hereby Declared to be the true intent and meaning of this Act, That the Arrears which shall be grown due or incurred for or upon the said several Annuities of Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, fifteen Shillings, Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, seven Shillings, Ten Pence half-penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, at or before the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and the growing Payments which from thenceforth shall, from time to time, be incurred and grown due for or upon the said Annuities of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, seven Shillings, Ten Pence half-penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and for or upon the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and the Monies necessary to answer the said Demands of Interest due, or to be due upon the said Exchequer Bills, or any of them, from time to time, standing out and undischarged, shall (in the Course, Order, and Method before prescribed) from time to time, take place and be preferred in point of Payment before the Sums which shall grow due upon the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds; and that the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, shall, from time to time, take place and be preferred in point of Payment out of the said appropriated Monies before the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds; and that the said yearly Sum of Fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds, shall, from time to time, take place and be preferred in point of Payment, before the applying any the said appropriated Monies for or towards answering any the Payments hereafter in and by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon.

XXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due or incurred for or upon the said several Annuities, payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and for or upon the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and the Monies necessary to answer such Demands of Interest, as aforesaid, and so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due and incurred for and upon the said Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, then the Deficiency and Deficiencies for making good the Payments to be, from time to time, incurred and grown due for or upon the Original Fund of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, out of the five seven parts of certain Rates and Duties of Excise, by virtue of several Acts of Parliament in that behalf made, when and as often as any such shall happen, shall, from time to time, be satisfied and answered out of the Monies by this Act appropriated, as aforesaid; and from and after paying or reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy, from time to time, so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due and incurred for or upon the said several Annuities, payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and for or upon the said particular yearly Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds, and the Monies necessary to answer such Demands of Interest due or to be due on Exchequer Bills, as aforesaid, and so much as at any time or times is or shall be grown due and incurred for or upon the said Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and fifty four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, and to make good such Deficiencies (if any such be) of the said Original Fund of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, then so much as, at time or times, shall be due or in Arrear for or upon the yearly Sum of Four thousand Pounds, in the said First recited Act mentioned, shall, out of the said appropriated Monies, be kept apart in the Exchequer, and issued, from time to time, to the respective Sheriffs of England and Wales, for the defraying the Charges of taking forth the Letters Patents for their respective Offices, and passing their several Accounts, and obtaining their Quittus's.

4000 l. per Annum for the Sheriffs.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall hinder or obstruct, or be construed to hinder or obstruct the making good any Deficiency or Deficiencies which at any times shall happen of or in the yearly Fund of One hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred seventy three Pounds, and Twelve Shillings, mentioned in an Act of Parliament of the First Year of his Majesties Reign [ Intituled, An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Commissioners for the Land-Tax for the Year One thousand seven hundred and fourteen; and for raising so much as is wanting to make up the Sum of One million and four hundred thousand Pounds intended to be raised by a Lottery, for the Publick Service in the said Year ] but that every such Deficiency shall and may be made good and satisfied out of any the Publick unappropriated Monies, as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso for the Deficiencies of or in the yearly Fund of 116573 l. 12 s.

XXXI. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That in case the Produce of the said several Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, as aforesaid, shall, at any time or times, appear to be so deficient, that within any One Year, reckoning each Year to end at Michaelmas yearly, the same shall not be sufficient to answer and pay so much as shall be then due for or upon the said yearly and other Sums before in and by this Act appointed and intended to be paid out of the same, according to the true meaning of this Act, then, and in every such case, and as often as any such Deficiency shall happen, the same shall XXXII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Annuities of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, Ten Pence Half penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, now payable out of the said Aggregate Fund to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and either of them, shall severally and respectively be redeemable upon such Payments, and in such Manner and Form, as in and by the respective Provisoers contained in the said First recited Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign are prescribed for the Redemption thereof; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Six Months
Notice to the Bank, and Repayment, Annuities to cease.

XXXIII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time, upon Six Months Notice to be given or left at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Authority of Parliament, at any of the said Half-yearly Feast-days, for Payment of the said Annuities, to be payable out of the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the respective Principal Sums for which the same Annuities shall be payable to such respective Persons and Corporations as shall be entitled to the same Annuities, and also upon full Payment of all Arrearages of the same Annuities, to be computed after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the end of the time for which such Notice shall be given, then, and not till then, the same Annuities shall cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And that any Note or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by their Speaker in Writing, to be delivered at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be deemed and adjudged to be sufficient Notice within the words and meaning of this Act.

After Redemption of the several Annuities, Aggregate Fund to cease.

XXXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Redemption of the said several Annuities of Eighty eight thousand seven hundred fifty one Pounds, Seven Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, and One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, by Payments to be made according to the several and respective Provisoers or Conditions of Redemption concerning the same, and full Payment of all Arrearages then due (if any such shall be) for and upon the said yearly Sums of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, and fifty four thousand and six hundred Pounds per Annum, and for the Deficiency, (if any shall then be) of the said Original Fund of the said Governor and Company, of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and the Deficiencies (if any shall then be) of the said yearly Fund of One hundred sixteen thousand five hundred seventy three Pounds, and Twelve Shillings per Annum, and every of them, and after Repayment of the Sum, not exceeding Five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, to be borrowed on this Act, as is herein after mentioned, and full Satisfaction of all Interest to be due for the same, then, and not till then, the said Aggregate Fund by this Act continued and established, or intended to be continued and established, and all the said Rates, Subsidies, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes contained therein, or by that Name called and intended to be called, as aforesaid, and every of them, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued or applied to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without Authority of Parliament, other than and except the Duties called the Two thirds of the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage upon Goods and Merchandizes imported, and other than and except the Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, Pistaches, and Mustins, and other than and except the increased Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa-Paste, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinna-

Exception.

Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and other than and except the further Rates and Duties upon all white Callicoese, Porcellan, called China Ware, and Drugs; all which said Subsidies and Duties, so excepted, are part of the said Aggregate Fund, and are intended to be continued, and they are hereby Enacted to be continued for answering and paying out of the same all the Payments which shall, after the said Redemption, grow due, for or upon the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, for the Service of his Majesties Household and Family, and other his necessary Decations, during his Majesties Life; and also for answering and paying out of the same excepted Subsidies, and other Duties, all the Payments which shall, after such Redemption, grow due for or upon the said yearly Sum of fifty four thousand and six hundred Pounds, for Payment of Annuities, as aforesaid; and also for answering and paying out of the same excepted Subsidies, and other Duties, all the Payments which shall, after such Redemption, grow due for or upon the said yearly Sum of four thousand Pounds to be issued to Sheriffs, as aforesaid; and also for answering and paying out of the said excepted Subsidies, and other Duties, all such Sums as, at any time or times, shall be due (if any such shall be) for Deficiencies of the said Original Annuity of One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, or of the said Lottery Annuities of One hundred fifteen thousand five hundred seventy three Pounds, and Twelve Shillings per Annum, and the said excepted Subsidies and Duties so to be continued for answering the said Yearly and other Payments so to be paid out of the same, or so much of the same excepted Subsidies and Duties, as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge those Payments, from time to time, is and shall be hereby appropriated, issued, and applied thereunto, during the Continuance of the same Yearly or other Sums respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby Enacted, That all the Powers, Directions, Provisions, Clauses, and other Matters and Things contained in the said first recited Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, which are now in force, and which are not taken away, or altered by this present Act, shall continue, remain, and be in force, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were repeated and particularly re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

XXXIX. Prohibited always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Excess or Surplus, which at the end of every or any Quarter of a Year (reckoning the Quarters to end at the usual Feasts above mentioned) shall or may be produced by the said several Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, hereby appropriated, or mentioned to be appropriated, as aforesaid, and shall remain in the Exchequer over and above the Monies then due for or upon the said several Annuities and other Payments, or for Arrears thereof, or demanded for Interest, as aforesaid, (which Monies are intended to be satisfied out of the same) shall, together with the Surplus Monies of other Funds herein after mentioned, be subject and liable to answer and satisfy the Principal and Interest of such Loans as are hereafter in this Act authorized to be charged thereupon, and the Monies to arise of or for the said several Surplusses (after Satisfaction of such Loans and the Interest thereof) shall attend the Disposition of Parliament in such manner as hereafter in this Act is provided in that behalf.

XL. And whereas it is judged necessary to raise a further Sum not exceeding five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, by way of Loan, to be likewise applied towards discharging and cancelling the said Exchequer Bills now remaining uncanceled and undischarged (over and above the several Sums of Money before by this Act appointed or intended for that purpose) and that (for the Encouragement of the Lenders) all the Excess or Surplus Monies, which, from and after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall arise, and at the end of every Quarter of a Year, shall remain in the Exchequer, of and for the said several Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund (which Excess or Surplus is by this Act reserved for Disposition by Parliament, as aforesaid) and all the Excess or Overplus Monies which, from and after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall arise, and at the end of every Quarter of a Year, shall remain in the Exchequer, of the said Rates, Duties, Impositions, Revenues, and proportional Parts of Revenues, commonly called the Fund of the South-Sea Company, (which Excess or Surplus Money was reserved for Disposition of Parliament by the Act in that behalf above recited) and all the Excess or Overplus Monies, which, from and after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall arise, and at the end of every Quarter of a Year, shall remain in the Exchequer, of the said Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Rates, Duties, Additional Duties, and proportional Parts, charged with the said General Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, and Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, and the Overplus of the said General Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, and Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny per Annum, (which Overplusses were also reserved for Disposition of Parliament, as is above recited or mentioned) be made a Security for Repayment of the Principal Monies so Lent and the Interest thereof; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury now being, and the high Treasurer, and Under Treasurer of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the time being, at the end of every Quarter of a Year, from and after the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall cause a true and just Account of the said several Surplusses or Overplus Monies for the preceding Quarters respectively, to be made up and adjusted, and the same to be fairly entered or registered in a Book to be kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer for that purpose; and that another Book shall be kept in the same Office, wherein shall be entered or registered all the Orders of Loan to be made upon this Act, to which several Books all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all seasonable times, without Fee or Charge.

Treasury every Quarter to enter in a Book a just Account of the several Surplusses for the preceding Quarters.

Another Book for entry of Orders of Loan.

After 25 March, 1719, the Annuity after the Rate of 3 l. per Cent. shall cease, and the Bank not obliged to circulate Exchequer Bills.

XLVI. And it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the said Annuity or Allowance, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, amounting unto Seventy six thousand eight hundred and thirty Pounds, Fifteen Shillings per Annum, shall cease and determine; and the said Rates, Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, denominated the Aggregate Fund, as aforesaid, shall from thenceforth be wholly discharged thereof; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall not be obliged to circulate or exchange any of the said Exchequer Bills, after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, by force or virtue of the said First recited Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament requiring or obliging them to circulate or exchange the same; but shall be from thenceforth wholly acquitted and discharged of, from, and against such Circulation or Exchanging of the said Bills, and of, from, and against their former Undertakings of the same; any Law, Statute, Contract, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Exchequer Bills to be current in the Revenue, &c.

LIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Exchequer Bills which at any time or times are or shall be standing out, and not discharged and cancelled, with the Money by this Act appointed for that purpose, shall be received and taken taken by, and shall pass, and be Current to all and every the Receivers and Collectors in Great Britain of the Customs, Excise, or of any Revenue, Supply, Aid, or Tax whatsoever, already granted, due, or payable, or which shall or may hereafter be granted, due, or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and also at the Receipt of the Exchequer, from the said Receivers or Collectors, or from any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever, making any Payment or Loan there to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for or upon any Account, Cause, or Occasion whatsoever, until the full paying off and cancelling all the said Bills, according to the purport and true meaning of this Act; and that such of the same Bills as shall be so received at the Exchequer, shall and may be locked up and secured as Cash, according to the Course of the Exchequer, settled and established by Law, for locking up, and securing Money in Specie received there; and that all and every the Receivers and Collectors in Great Britain of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply whatsoever, already granted, due, or payable, or which shall or may hereafter be granted, due, or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, shall and are hereby directed and required, out of any current coined Money as shall then be in his or their Hands, of such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, to pay such of the said Bills as shall be brought to them respectively by any Person or Persons desiring to have Money for the same; and in case any such Receiver or Collector shall refuse or neglect to exchange such Bills for ready Money by the space of four and twenty Hours, then the Person or Persons demanding the same, shall or may bring an Action of Debt, or on the Case, for the Principal and Interest Monies due upon such Bill or Bills, against such Receiver or Collector, having Money in his Hands, as aforesaid; in which Action the Plaintiff shall or may Declare, That such Receiver or Collector is indebted to such Plaintiff in the Money demanded upon every such Bill, according to the Form of the Statute, and hath not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and the Plaintiff, in every such Action, shall recover against the Receiver or Collector, not only the Monies so refused or neglected to be paid, but also his Damages, besides full Costs of Suit; and such Receiver or Collector shall be subject and liable thereunto; and in such Action no Escoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, or more than one Imparance; and upon Payment of the Monies so to be recovered, the Plaintiff, his Executors, or Assigns, shall deliver up such Bills to the Defendant, his Executors, or Assigns.

Receivers and Collectors to give ready Money for Exchequer Bills, &c.

LV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Interest which shall, from time to time, be due upon any the Bills so to be current, shall be allowed to all Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, paying the same to any Receiver or Collector, Receivers or Collectors, or any his Majesties Revenues, Aids, Tares, or Supplies, or by way of Exchange, as aforesaid, or paying or sending the same into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, to the respective Days whereupon such Bill or Bills shall be so paid, exchanged, or lent.

Receivers to allow the Interest on Exchequer Bills.

LVI. Provided always, That no Interest shall run or be paid upon, or for any such Bill or Bills, during the time that any such Bill or Bills, so paid, exchanged, or lent, shall remain in the Hands of any the said Receivers or Collectors, or in the Hands of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer; but for such time the Interest on every such Bill shall cease for the Publick Benefit and Advantage.

No Interest on Bills in Receivers Hands or in the Exchequer.

LVII. And to the end it may be known for what time such Bills shall, from time to time, remain in the Hands of such Receiver or Collector, or in the Exchequer aforesaid; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person or Persons who shall pay any such Bill or Bills to any Receiver or Collector of any his Majesties Revenues, Aids, Tares, or Supplies, by way of Exchange, or otherwise, or shall pay or lend such Bill or Bills into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall, at the time of making such Payment, Exchange, or Loan, on each Bill so paid, exchanged, or lent, put his or their Name or Names, and write thereupon in Words at Length, the Day of the Month, and Year, in which he, she, or they so paid, lent, or exchanged such Bill or Bills; all which the said Receivers and Collectors respectively, and also the respective Tellers in the Exchequer, shall take Care to see done and performed accordingly, to which respective Days the said Receivers and Collectors shall be allowed again the Interest, which he, she, or they shall have allowed or paid upon such respective Bill or Bills, upon his, her, or their paying the same into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforesaid.

Such Bills may be reissued.

LVIII. Provided also, and be it hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bills, or any of them, may be reissued or paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer; and when the same shall be reissued or paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer, the respective Teller there, from whose Office such Bill or Bills shall be so reissued or again paid out, shall endorse on such Bill and Bills so reissued, in Words at Length, the Day of the Month and Year in which the same were so reissued or repaid out of the said Exchequer, and also on what Account the same were last received into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and Sign the same; from which time the Interest on such Bill or Bills so reissued or paid again shall revive, and such Bill or Bills shall again run and pass at Interest, as the same did before they were paid unto or exchanged by the said Receivers or Collectors, or before the same were paid or lent into the Exchequer, as aforesaid.

Bills to be reissued for the Principal Money only.

LIX. And it is hereby Enacted, That the same Bills to be reissued, from time to time, or at any time, at the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be so reissued only for the Principal Money to be contained therein.

Tellers to be reimbursed the Interest they pay on Exchequer Bills.

LX. And to the end the respective Tellers of the Exchequer, who shall allow any Interest upon such Bills which shall be paid or lent into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, may be reimbursed the said Interest by them respectively allowed; It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officer or Officers to be from time to time, appointed for receiving the Monies hereby appropriated for Payment of the said Interest, shall, from time to time, out of such Monies in his or their Hands, reimburse and pay to the said Teller and Tellers respectively, so much as he or they shall have respectively allowed for the said Interest to the Payers or Lenders of such Bills, in the doing whereof he or they shall observe such Rules and Directions as he or they shall, from time to time, receive from any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or High Treasurer for the time being.

Receivers of Taxes to keep Books for Entry.

LXI. And be it Enacted, That every Receiver General of any the Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, belonging or to belong to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall keep a fair Book or Books of Accounts in Writing of all the Monies by him received; in which he or his Deputy or Deputies shall truly enter all the Sums which shall have been received by him or them for every such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, together with the Names of the several Collectors from whom the same, or any part thereof, was received, the Days when, and the Sums paid, how much thereof in Money, and how much in Exchequer Bills, and what Exchequer Bills shall have been exchanged by every such Receiver General pursuant to this Act; to which Accounts every Person concerned shall have free Access at all reasonable times without Fee or Charge; and the said Accounts shall constantly lie open at one certain Place within the Limits of his Receipt for that purpose; and if such Receiver shall neglect to keep such Book or Books, or to enter therein any Sum or Sums of Money by him or them received and paid, as aforesaid, by the space of Three Days after his Receipt or Payment of the same, or shall refuse any Person or Persons concerned to inspect such Book or Books, without Fee or Charge, as aforesaid, every such Receiver for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action on of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparllance.

LXVI. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which at the end of every or any Quarter of a Year shall or may be produced for the respective Surplusses, Eccesses, or Overplus Monies of the said several Funds, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, and the Fund of the South-Sea Company, and of the said Duties and Revenues charged with the said General yearly Fund of Seven hundred twenty four thousand eight hundred forty nine Pounds, Six Shillings, and Ten Pence, and One fifth part of a Penny, as also the Eccess or Overplus of the same General yearly Fund, when and as often as any such Surplusses, Eccesses, or Overplus Monies shall be (over and above the Monies at the end of every such Quarter respectively due or demandable, to be first paid or reserved for Payment out of the same, by virtue of this and the said recited Acts, or any of them) shall be appropriated, reserved, and applied, to and for the further discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances as were incurred before the Twenty fifth day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and are Declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act or Acts of Parliament, in such Manner and Form as shall be directed or appointed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith, or out of the same, and to or for none other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever.

All the Overplus Money at the end of every Quarter to be reserved for discharging the National Debts before 25 Dec. 1716.

An Act for Strengthening the Protestant Interest in these Kingdoms.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for Preserving the Protestant Religion, by better Securing the Church of England, as by Law established; and for Confirming the Toleration granted to Protestant Dissenters, by an Act, Intituled, An Act for Exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, Dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, and for Supplying the Defects thereof; and for the further Securing the Protestant Succession, by requiring the Practicers of the Law in North-Britain to take the Oaths, and Subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned: And whereas part of the said Act, as also another Act herein after mentioned, have been found to be inconvenient; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act, passed in the Tenth Year of the late Queen Anne, from the beginning thereof to these Words [And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Toleration granted to Protestant Dissenters] and also One Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to Prevent the Growth of Schism, and for the further Security of the Churches of England and Ireland, as by Law established, shall be and are hereby repealed, annulled, and made void.

Part of the Act 10 A. cap. 2. and the Act 12 A. cap. 7. repealed.

II. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magistrate, in that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or the Isles of Jersey or Guernsey, shall knowingly or wilfully resort to, or be present at any Publick Meeting for Religious Worship, other than of the Church of England as by Law established, in the Gown or other peculiar Habit, or attended with the Ensign or Ensigns of or belonging to such his Office, that every such Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magistrate, being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, shall be disabled to hold such Office or Offices, Employment or Employments, and shall be adjudged Incapable to bear any Publick Office or Employment whatsoever within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Isles of Jersey and Guernsey.

Mayor, &c. resorting to Publick Meetings, other than the Church of England, in their Gowns, or with the Ensigns of Office, disabled, &c.

C A P. VII.

An Act for continuing an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for encouraging the Tobacco-Trade.

Preamble.

Whereas an Act was made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for the encouraging the Tobacco-Trade, to continue for the space of five Years, to commence from the First day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, which Act is near expiring: And whereas the said Act hath been found to be very beneficial to the said Trade, and of good Use for the purposes thereby designed, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act made in the Twelfth Year of her said late Majesties Reign concerning Tobacco, and all and every the Rules, Directions, Powers, Penalties, Discounts, Allowances, Clauses, Matters, and Things, therein contained, shall, by virtue of this Act, be continued, and be in full force, during such time as the respective Duties on Tobacco shall respectively Continue; any Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Anno 5 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. IX.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for continuing certain Duties upon Coals and Culm, and for establishing certain Funds to raise Money, as well to proceed in the Building of New Churches, as also to complete the Supply granted to his Majesty, and to reserve the Overplus-Monies of the said Duties for the Disposition of Parliament, and for more effectual Suppressing Private Lotteries.

Preamble, reciting
9 A. cap. 12.

Most Gracious Sovereign, whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Ninth Year of her late Majesties Reign [ Intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for Building Fifty New Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purposes therein mentioned ] It was Enacted, That for all sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the fourteenth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, should be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames within the Liberty of the said City, upon the same River, there should be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon (over and besides all other Impositions and Duties) according to the Rates therein after mentioned, that is to say, from and after the said fourteenth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, for all such sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, contain-

fting Thirty fix Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of Two Shillings; and for such sort of Coals as are sold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Two Shillings; and from and after the Eight and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the Eight and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, there should be paid for every such said Chaldder of Coals and Culm and Tun of Coals, the Sum of Three Shillings; and that all the Monies which should be raised by virtue of that Act (the necessary Charges of raising, managing, and accounting for the same excepted) should be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, and should be appropriated and disposed for the Building of Fifty New Churches of Stone, and other proper Materials, with Towers or Steeples to each of them, and for purchasing of Sites of Churches and Church-yards, and Burying-places, in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof; and for making such Chapels Churches as were already built, and capable thereof, Parish Churches; and for purchasing Houses for the Habitations of the Ministers of the said Churches; and for applying the Sum of four thousand Pounds per Annum out of the said Duties and Impositions towards the repairing and finishing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, and the Chapels of the same; and also for applying the Sum of Six thousand Pounds per Annum out of the said Duties and Impositions arising by that Act, towards the finishing Greenwich Hospital, and the Chapel thereunto belonging; and to or for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever. And it was thereby Declared and Enacted, That there should be erected and built of Stone, and other Materials, Fifty Churches, with Towers or Steeples to each of them, whereof One should be erected in the Parish of East-Greenwich in the County of Kent. And whereas in the Tenth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, another Act was made and passed in Parliament for enlarging the time given to the Commissioners appointed by her Majesty, pursuant to the said former Act for granting the said Duties for building the said New Churches, and other Purposes therein mentioned, and for giving to the said Commissioners further Powers for better effecting the same, and for appointing Monies for rebuilding the Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the said City of London. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign [intituled, An Act for making Provision for the Ministers of the Fifty New Churches which are to be built in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and for rebuilding and finishing the Parish Church of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the said City of London] It was Enacted, That for all sorts of Coals and Culm, which, from and after the Twenty seventh day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, and before the Twenty eighth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, shall be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there should be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon (over and besides all other Impositions and Duties, according to the Rates therein after mentioned, that is to say) for all such sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chaldder, for every Chaldder thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Three Shillings; and that all the Monies which should be raised by virtue of that Act (the necessary Charges of raising, managing, and accounting for the same, excepted) should be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, and should be appropriated for and towards the providing due Maintenance for the Ministers to attend the Service of God in the said New Churches; and should for that purpose be issued, applied, and disposed, in such manner as should thereafter be directed by Parliament. And it was

was thereby Enacted, That the said Parish-Church of St. Mary Woolnoth, and the Tower thereof, should be rebuilt and finished out of the Duties granted by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of her said late Majesties Reign; and that the Monies to be employed for that purpose, should be replaced and made good out of and by the Monies applicable by virtue of the said Act of the Tenth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, to the rebuilding and finishing the said Church, and the Tower thereof, as by the said several Acts, relation being thereunto respectively had, may more fully appear. And whereas out of the said Duties of Coals and Culm, or out of Monies lent upon Credit of the same, several considerable Sums, amounting in the whole to One hundred sixty one thousand one hundred seventy and five Pounds, sixteen Shillings, and seven Pence, have been already raised and issued for the Buildings, Repairs, and other Purposes prescribed in or by the said recited Acts, and the Building of some of the New Churches thereby appointed to be built, hath been begun, and several Repairs which were thereby directed, have been entered upon, and some Scites, Cemeteries, Burying-Places, and Ministers Houses, have been purchased or contracted for, and other Charges have been born, and Payments made pursuant to the Orders of the several Commissioners, who, from time to time, have been intrusted in and for the Execution of the Powers in the said several Acts contained; but the Charge of the said Buildings and Repairs already begun or performed, hath been so Excessive, that over and above the Application of the said Monies already issued, a great Debt is now owing to Workmen and others for the same; and it evidently appears, That in case the Expence of the said Buildings and Repairs should proceed and be carried on at or near the same Excessive Rates, the whole Produce of the said Duties, during the said time or times to come therein by the said former Acts (though such Produce far exceeds the Original Estimates made for Building the said New Churches and Repairs) will be very Deficient for those purposes, and may probably, at the end of the said present Terms, leave a great Debt for Work and Materials unprovided for. And whereas it is computed or estimated, That the said Duties laid by the said former Acts on Coals and Culm to be imported, as aforesaid, between Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and the said twenty eighth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, may amount in the Whole to the Sum of Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds; and in case the present Terms in the said Duties be enlarged, so as to make up Thirty two Years, from Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, may be raised for the Purposes before mentioned, as in this Act is afterwards provided, upon a particular yearly Fund or Security in that behalf; and that the Sum of Five hundred twenty eight thousand three hundred and twenty Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence, may be raised by establishing another particular yearly Fund, and by such other Ways and Means as are hereafter in this Act provided, for making good the Supply granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament, in the manner herein after mentioned; and that the Surplusses which shall or may, from time to time, arise by the said Duties on Coals and Culm, over and above so much as shall be sufficient to discharge the Payments by this Act intended to be charged thereupon, may be reserved for the Use of the Publick: Therefore we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to pursue your Majesties Pious and Gracious Intentions for the Honour and Benefit of the Church of England, and the Advancement of our holy Religion, by making Provision for raising the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, in such Proportions at a time as shall be needed to be employed (so far as the same will extend) for or towards the building and finishing of Churches, purchasing Scites, Church-Yards, Burying Places, and Houses for Ministers, repairing the said Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, and the Chapels of the same, finishing Greenwich Hospital, and the Chapel thereunto belonging, and making Provision for Ministers, according to the true Intention of the said former Acts of Parliament; and being also desirous to make good the Supply granted to your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, by making Provision to raise a Sum, not exceeding the said Sum of five hundred twenty eight thousand three hundred and twenty Pounds, One Shilling and Nine Pence; and being also desirous to have the said Surplusses reserved for the Use of the Publick, as aforesaid, Do most humbly present to your Majesty the several Impositions, Rates, and Duties herein after mentioned; and do most humbly pray, that it may be, and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for all sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the Twenty seventh day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, and before the Feast of the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, shall be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon (over and above all other Impositions and Duties) according to the Rates hereafter mentioned (that is to say) For all such sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing Thirty six Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of Three Shillings, and for such sort of Coals as are sold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Three Shil-

Coals and Culm imported into the Port of London, after 27 Septem. 1725, and before 25 March, 1751. to pay, viz. 3 s. per Chalder and Tun.

II. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said respective Sums of Three Shillings for every Chalder of Coals and Culm and Tun of Coals, which, from time to time, from and after the Feast of the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and before the said Feast of the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, shall be imported or brought into the said Port or River within the Liberty of the said City, as aforesaid, and payable by virtue of the said recited Acts of the Ninth Year of her late Majesties Reign, and the First Year of his Majesties Reign, and by virtue of this present Act, every or any of them, shall, from time to time, be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesties Customs for the time being, according to such Orders and Directions as are or shall, from time to time, be given by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or by the High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being; and shall or may, from time to time, be raised, levied, collected, and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in such Manner, Method, and Form, and at such Places, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expressed, and referred unto, in and by any Act, Law, or Statute, Acts, Laws, or Statutes, now in force for raising, levying, collecting, or answering any other Duty or Duties now payable to his Majesty for or upon any Coals or Culm whatsoever imported or brought Coastwise into the said Port of London; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Articles, Rules, and Clauses, in the same Acts, Laws, and Statutes, or any of them, mentioned or contained (except such and so much of them, for and concerning which it is otherwise provided in this and the said recited Acts, or any of them) shall be of such force and effect, to all Intents and Purposes, for the raising, levying, collecting, and answering the Impositions here- by granted, for and during the said Term or Time herein before limited,

These Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

Duties how to be levied.

100 Chalders of Coals per Annum, for Chelsea-Hospitals, not chargeable.

III. Provided, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to charge or lay any of the Duties or Impositions hereby imposed upon such Coals, (not exceeding One hundred Chalders by the Year) as shall be brought into the Port of London, from Newcastle upon Tyne, or any other Place, for the only Use and Service of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Monies to be brought in-ance of the former Acts.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Produce of the said Duties which shall come or be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer for such Coals or Culm, as aforesaid, imported, or to be imported, before the said Feast of the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be issued and applied in such Manner as the same ought to have been issued and applied by or in pursuance of the said former Acts, or any of them, if this present Act had not been made; and if it shall appear, after the Application thereof, that any Money shall remain unsatisfied for Principal or Interest upon the Register of Loans kept at the Exchequer by virtue or in pursuance of the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of her late Majesties Reign, or either of them, then such Remainder so unsatisfied shall be paid and discharged out of the first Monies to be raised or paid in part of the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Powers,
&c. in the former Acts continued.

XI. And it is hereby Enacted, That all such Powers, Provisions, Directions, and Clauses, contained in the said recited Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of her said late Majesties Reign, and in the said Act of the First Year of his Majesties Reign, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, touching the Building and Repairing of the said Churches, and any other Matters and Things therein specified, as are now in force, and are not taken away or altered by this present Act, shall continue and be in force, to all intents and purposes, as if the same Powers, Directions, Provisions, and Clauses, were repeated and re enacted in the Body of this Act.

XXXI. And for better ascertaining and securing the Payments as well of the said Principal Sums of the Fortunate Tickets, as of the said Interest to grow due for the same; Be it further Enacted, That all such Monies as shall arise and come into the Receipt of the Exchequer of the said Fund of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, Fourteen Shillings per Annum, during the said Term of Thirty two Years (unless the said Principal Sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, and all the Interest thereof, shall be sooner paid off and discharged) shall be applied and appropriated, and the same are hereby accordingly appropriated for and towards paying and discharging the Money that shall, from time to time, remain due of the said Principal Sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof, in manner following, that is to say, That Quarterly, viz. on or within Twenty Days next after every of the Four usual Feasts aforesaid in every Year, during the said Term, the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, and the High-Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall cause an exact Account to be made and taken of the Monies which shall, on or before every respective Quarter-day of and in each and every respective Year, have risen and been brought into the Exchequer in the preceding Quarter, for or upon the said particular Fund of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, Fourteen Shillings per Annum; and that (deducting thereout so much as shall be sufficient to pay and discharge the Interest for such preceding Quarter, upon and for all the Monies then due and unpaid of the said Principal Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, or for Payment whereof Money is not reserved in the Exchequer) the whole residue and remainder of the Money so arising and coming into the Exchequer in such preceding Quarter, over and above the Interest Money for that Quarter, shall be immediately, from time to time, applicable, appropriated, and applied, towards paying and discharging such part of the said Principal Sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, as shall then remain due or unpaid, and that according to such Method and Course of Payment, as aforesaid.

The Fund of 30559 l. 14 s.
per Annum appropriated for paying Interest and Principal.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That in the paying of the said Principal Money, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, in the Course herein before directed, it shall not be interpreted any undue Preference in point of Payment, if the Officer or Officers, who shall be appointed to pay the same, do pay subsequent Orders to Persons who come and demand their Money, and bring their Orders before other Persons who did not come to take their Money, and bring their Orders in their Course, so as there be so much Money reserved as will satisfy preceeding Orders; and that such Money be not otherwise disposed, but kept for them, the Interest of such Orders being to cease from the time the Money is so reserved and kept for them.

Monies of one Year proving Deficient to be paid out of the next Year.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That if it shall be found and appear that the Monies arising and coming into the Exchequer by the said Duties in every or any of the said Years, shall have proved so Low and Deficient as not to have brought in to the Exchequer the said full yearly Sum of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, and Fourteen Shillings (over and above the said yearly Sum of Twenty one thousand Pounds) in every or any one of the said Years, to be computed, as aforesaid, from the said Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, That then and in every such case, and so often as any such Deficiency shall so happen, the Interest in Arrears shall be paid and made good out of the first Money that shall arise or be brought into the Exchequer for or upon the said yearly Fund of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, and Fourteen Shillings, after the end of such Year wherein such Deficiency happened: It being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and so hereby Declared and Enacted, That no part of the said yearly Sum of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, and Fourteen Shillings, shall be applied in any Year for or towards paying the said Principal Money charged thereupon by virtue of this Act, until all the Interest Money which shall be due and become payable by virtue of this Act, shall be fully paid, or sufficient Money reserved in the Exchequer for the Payment thereof: any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Overplus of the Duties on Coals quarterly, to make good the Residual Sum of 22325 l. 1 s. 9 d.

XLI. And to the end the Sum of Twenty two thousand three hundred and twenty five Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence, being the Remainder of the said Sum of five hundred twenty eight thousand three hundred and twenty Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence, may be raised for or towards Completing the Supply granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Monies which shall, from time to time, be brought or paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the said Duties on Coals and Culm to be imported, as aforesaid, after the said Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and shall at the end of any Quarter of a Year remain there (over and above so much as shall be applied, or be sufficient to discharge the Payments by this Act before directed, for or upon the said particular Funds of Twenty one thousand Pounds per Annum, and Thirty thousand five hundred and fifty nine Pounds, Fourteen Shillings per Annum, hereby charged thereupon) for the Quarter of a Year then ended, the said Sum of Twenty two thousand three hundred and twenty five Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence, shall and may be paid and satisfied: and the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, and the High-Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby authorized and directed to give Order for Payment thereof accordingly.

All the Surplus Money disposable by Parliament.

XLIII. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Surplus, Excess, or Overplus Monies, which shall or may Quarterly, or at the end of any Quarter of a Year, during the said Term of Thirty two Years, arise by the said Duties on Coals and Culm hereby appropriated, as aforesaid (over and above so much as shall be sufficient to discharge the Monies then due and incurred on the said particular Fund of Twenty one thousand Pounds per Annum, and on the said particular Fund, not exceeding Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, and Fourteen Shillings per Annum and over and above the necessary Charges for executing this this Act, and over and above the Monies applicable by this Act, to satisfy the said residual Sum of Twenty two thousand three hundred twenty five Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence) and that all the Surplus, Excels, or Overplus Monies which shall or may arise and remain of or for the said Duties on Coals and Culm hereby appropriated, as aforesaid, after the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds to be charged on the said particular Fund of Twenty one thousand Pounds per Annum, and after all the Principal and Interest to be charged, as aforesaid, on the said particular Sum of Thirty thousand five hundred fifty nine Pounds, and Fourteen Shillings per Annum, and after the said residual Sum of Twenty two thousand three hundred twenty five Pounds, One Shilling, and Nine Pence, and the said necessary Charges of executing this Act, shall be entirely paid off, discharged, and satisfied, (or sufficient Money shall be set off for those Purposes) shall be kept apart and reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be disposed of or applied to any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but by Authority of Parliament, and according to such future Act or Acts of Parliament as shall be made and passed for the Disposition thereof.

Anno 5 GEORGII Regis.

CAP. XI.

An Act against Clandestine running of Uncustomed Goods, and for the more Effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs.

Whereas the Laws already made for preventing the Unlawful importing and Clandestine running and landing of Customable and Prohibited Goods and Merchandizes, have, by Experience, been found to be ineffectual to prevent such Illegal Practices, whereby his Majesty is greatly defrauded of and in his Duties, and Fair Traders, who duly pay Duties, are very much discouraged and injured in their Trades: And whereas for the better carrying on such Private and Clandestine Trade, divers small Vessels, under the Burthen of Fifteen Tuns, are generally employed in the undue importing, running, and landing foreign Brandy, Strong Waters, and Spirits, contrary to the Laws already made and in force: For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That if any foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any kind whatsoever, shall, from and after the Fifth and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, under the Burthen of Fifteen Tuns (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding One Gallon for each such Seaman) every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be proceeded against and recovered in the manner herein after mentioned; and after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, the Principal Officers of his Majesties Customs in the Port or Place where the same shall be at the time of Condemnation, are hereby directed to cause such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to be entirely broke up, and the Materials to be publicly sold to the best Advantage, together with the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel thereunto belonging, the Produce whereof to be divided as herein after mentioned.

Preamble.

Brandy, &c. imported in any Ship under 15 Tuns, such Ship, &c. forfeited.

Exception.

Ships, &c. after Condemnation to be broke up and sold.

Extended to Ships, &c. of 30 Tuns, by 5 Geo. cap. 13. p. 29.

After 29 Sept.
1719. Rum imported in Casks under 20 Gallons, forfeited.

II. And whereas Rum is now imported in much greater Proportions than formerly: And whereas the importing thereof in small Casks or Vessels is many times done with Design that the same may more easily, privately, and clandestinely be carried off and conveyed without paying the Duties: For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, any Rum shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Cask or Vessel, not containing Twenty Gallons at the least (excepting only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship or Vessel) all such Rum, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited; Nevertheless if it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Principal Officers of the Customs at the Port of Importation, that such Rum, so imported in small Casks, was for the Use of the Master or Seamen belonging to the Ship or Vessel in the Voyage, or imported by Merchants or Traders, without Fraud or Concealment, that then and in every such case the said Officers are hereby impowered and directed to admit such Rum to an Entry, and cause the Duties thereof to be accepted, instead of the Forfeiture thereof before mentioned; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Exception.

If the Officers are satisfied the Rum in such Cask is imported without Fraud or Concealment, to admit Entry.

Foreign Goods taken in at Sea by any Collier, &c. to be landed or put on board any other Vessel without Payment of the Duties, forfeited, and the Master to forfeit treble the Value, unless in case of necessity, which the Master is to give immediate Notice of.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Foreign Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, shall, after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, by any Collier, Fisher-Boat, or other Coasting Vessel or Boat, be taken in at Sea, or out of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, in order to be landed or put into any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, within the Limits of any Port, without Payment of the Customs and other Duties due and payable for the same, such Goods, Wares, and Merchandises shall be forfeited, and the Master of such Collier, Fisher-Boat, or other Coasting Vessel or Boat, shall forfeit treble the Value of such Goods, unless in case of necessity, which such Master shall immediately give Notice of, and make Proof before the Chief Officers of the Customs of the first Port of this Kingdom where he shall arrive; and the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship or Vessel, out of which such Goods shall be taken in at Sea, unless in case of necessity, as aforesaid, shall forfeit treble the Value of such Goods so unshipt, one Moiety of which Forfeiture to be for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them who will inform or sue for the same, and shall and may be recovered in like manner as is herein after mentioned.

Goods not reported, and found after clearing the Ship, forfeited.

IV. And whereas in Ships from Foreign Parts, Goods are often found at clearing such Ships concealed in false Bulk heads between the Linings and false Knees, or in concealed Lockers, in order to their being landed without Payment of Duties, so that 'tis almost impossible for Officers of the Customs to discover them without having some previous Information: For prevention of which fraudulent Practices, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, all Goods not reported, and found, after the clearing the Ship by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall be liable to Forfeiture, and such Goods shall and may be seized and prosecuted in the manner herein after mentioned; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the late Queens Reign, for laying Additional Duties on Hides and Skins, Cellum, and Parchment, and New Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, and other Things, Certificates for the Discharge of Bonds given at the Custom-house upon the Exportation of Coffee or Tea, that the same shall not be resealed in any Part of Great Britain, are to be under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in such Place or Places in Parts beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known British Merchants then being at such Place or Places, That such Coffee, Tea, or Drugs, was there landed;

landed; which Provision is found insufficient for the Security of the Revenue of Customs against any Secret Relanding such Coffee, Tea, or Drugs, in some part of this Kingdom: And in regard a better Provision may be made with respect to such Goods exported to Ireland as is made in the case of Tobacco, by an Act made in the Eighth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, no such Bond given for the Exportation of Coffee, Tea, or other Certificate-Goods, exported to Ireland, shall be delivered up, or any Drawback allowed for any Goods entitled thereto, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of the Customs of some Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Goods shall be landed, Testifying the landing thereof; and for the future, the Condition of all such Bonds, required by Law to be given for the Exportation of any of the said Goods to Ireland, shall be, to produce such Certificate in Six Months from the Date thereof (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted); and in case no such Certificate shall be produced within the said time of Six Months, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively to cause such Bonds to be put in Suit, unless they shall find sufficient cause to forbear the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And whereas the Remedies already provided by Law, to prevent the Relanding Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and Foreign Goods shipped out for Parts beyond the Seas, have not been sufficient to put a stop to the fraudulent Relanding such Goods, to the Prejudice of the Revenue and the Fair Traders: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, if any such Goods shall be unshipped, or put on shore (unless in case of Distress to save the Ship from perishing, or in the Presence of an Officer of the Customs) the said Goods shall be forfeited; and if the Master, Purser, or other Person, taking Care of any Ship wherein the said Goods shall be laden, shall suffer or permit any of the said Goods to be landed or unshipped (unless as aforesaid) the said Master, Purser, or other Person, taking Care of such Ship, shall forfeit the Value of such Goods so unshipped or landed; and the Person or Persons to whose Hands or Possession the said Goods shall come, after the unshipping or landing thereof, he or they knowing the same to be so unshipped, shall forfeit double the Value of the said Goods, unless he or they shall make Discovery thereof to the Principal Officers of the Customs in Six Days after the said Goods shall so come to his or their Hands: Provided the said Goods shall not have been seized by, or Information given thereof to any Officer of the Customs before such Discovery.

VII. And whereas the Persons concerned in carrying on the said fraudulent Practices, do frequently cause the Package of such Goods to be opened on board the Ship, during the time he continues in Port, whereby they have a better Opportunity to reland the said Goods: For the prevention whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Package of any such Goods shall, with the Privy or Consent of the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Care of such Ship or Vessel, be opened on board any Ship or Vessel, or put into other Form or Package, during the time the said Ship or Vessel remains in Port, without Leave of One or more of the Principal Officers of the Port, the said Master, Purser, or other Person, taking Care of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit One hundred Pounds; and if the said Master, Purser, or other Person, taking Care of such Ship or Vessel, shall permit or suffer any of the said Goods to be unshipped or landed, or the Package of any such Goods to be opened, or put into any other Form, without Leave, as aforesaid, then such Master, Purser, or other Person, shall also suffer Six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize.

No Bond for Exportation of Certificate-Goods to Ireland, to be delivered up, or any Drawback allowed, till Certificate from the Collector, &c. in Ireland, where the Goods were landed, &c.

Bond forfeited if Certificate be not produced in Six Months.

Goods prohibited to be worn here, and Foreign Goods, relanded, forfeited.

Penalty on Master or Purser, and on the Persons to whose Hands the Goods knowingly come, unless Discovery be made in 6 Days.

Master, &c. permitting the Package of such Goods to be opened on board a Ship Outward while in Port.

And if the Goods be unshipped the Master, &c. to be imprisoned for 6 Months.

Ships of 50 Tuns, or under, hovering on the Coasts, Officers may enter and take an Account of the Lading, and demand Security in treble the Value of the Goods.

VIII. And whereas divers Ships and Vessels of the Burthen of Fifty Tuns, or under, Laden with Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, French wrought Silks, East-India Goods prohibited to be wozn in this Kingdom, Pepper, and other Spices, Brandy, Spirits, and other customable and prohibited Goods, pretending to be bound for foreign Parts, do frequently lye hovering on the Coasts of this Kingdom, with intention to run the same privately on shore, as Opportunity offers, to the great Diminution and Loss of the Revenue, and Ruin of fair Traders; and by reason of the said Vessels so hovering, frequent Opportunities are found for carrying on the clandestine Trade of exporting Wooll, and other staple Commodities of this Kingdom prohibited to be transported: For the better preventing whereof, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, where any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Fifty Tuns, or under, laden with customable or prohibited Goods, shall be found hovering on the Coasts of this Kingdom, within the Limits of any Port, and not proceeding on her Voyage for Foreign Parts, or to some other Port of this Kingdom, Wind and Weather permitting, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of his Majesties Customs to go on board every such Ship or Vessel, and to take an Account of the Lading, and to demand and take Security from the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel in that Voyage, by his own Bond by him to be entered into unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be treble the Value of such Foreign Goods then on board, with Condition, that such Ship or Vessel (as soon as Wind and Weather, and the State and Condition of such Ship or Vessel doth permit) shall and will proceed regularly on such Voyage, and shall land such Foreign Goods in and at some Foreign Port or Ports; and if such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall upon such Demand refuse to enter into such Bond, or having entered into such Bond, shall not depart or proceed regularly on such Voyage (as soon as Wind, Weather, and the State and Condition of such Ship or Vessel shall permit) unless otherwise suffered to make a longer Stay by the Collector (or other Principal Officer in his Absence) of such Port where such Ship or Vessel shall be, not exceeding Twenty Days, then and in either of the said Cases, all the Foreign Goods so on board such Ship or Vessel, shall and may, by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, by Direction of the Collector or other Principal Officer, as aforesaid, be taken out of and from such Ship or Vessel, and forthwith brought on shore and secured; and in case the said Goods are customable, the Customs and other Duties shall be paid for the same; and as concerning Wooll or any prohibited Goods, or other Goods liable to Forfeiture, which may be found on board such Ships or Vessels at the time of their unlading, as aforesaid, the same are hereby Declared to be subject to Forfeiture, and the Officers of the Customs shall and may Prosecute the same, as also the Ship or Vessel, in case the same shall be liable to Condemnation, as in the manner herein after mentioned.

Extended to Ships hovering, &c. within Two Leagues of the shore, by the 6 Geo. cap. 13. §. 31.

Master, &c. refusing to enter into Bond, or not departing, the Foreign Goods may be taken out of the Ship, and secured, and Custom paid, and Wooll or prohibited Goods forfeited.

Such Goods brought on shore, Bond to be delivered up.

How Bonds not otherwise discharged, shall be vacated.

IX. Provided always, That after such Goods are so taken out of such Ship or Vessel, and brought on shore and secured by such Officer or Officers, such Bonds so to be given, as aforesaid, shall be void and delivered up without any fee or Reward for taking or delivering up the same; and such Bond, not being otherwise discharged, shall, on a proper Certificate returned under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known British Merchants upon the Place, that such Goods were there landed, or upon Proof by Credible Persons, that such Goods were taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas (the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the Commissioners of the Customs) shall be vacated and discharged.

X. And

X. And whereas altering the Package of Coffee for Exportation hath been found to be prejudicial to his Majesties Customs; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, no Coffee shall be exported but such only as shall be contained in the Original Bale or Package, or in some Bale or Package containing the same Quantity therein, or in some Bale or Package containing not less than Four hundred Weight, and the same Marks and Numbers thereon with which it was first entered at his Majesties Custom-house; excepting only such Coffee as shall be exported to his Majesties Plantations or Ireland.

Coffee to be exported in the Original Bale, or in some Bale containing the same quantity, or not less than 400 lb. &c.

Exception.

XI. Provided, and be it further Enacted, That so much of this Act as relates to the Importation of Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters or Spirits, in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, under the Burthen of fifteen Tun; and so much of this Act as relates to such Foreign Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as shall be taken in at Sea, and out of any Ship or Vessel, in Order to be landed or put into any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat; and so much of this Act as relates to Goods not reported, and found after clearing Ships; and so much of this Act as provides further Remedies against relanding Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and Foreign Goods shipped out for Parts beyond the Seas; and so much of this Act as relates to the opening or altering the Package of Goods on board Ships outward Bound; and so much of this Act as relates to hovering Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tuns, or under; and so much of this Act as concerns the Sales or Package in which Coffee shall be exported, shall continue and be in force for Three Years, from the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament and no longer: And so much of this Act as relates to Rum imported in Tunks or Vessels not containing Twenty Gallons at the least, shall continue and be in force from the nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for Three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer: And so much of this Act as relates to Certificate Goods entered in order to be exported for Ireland, shall continue and be in force for Three Years from the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament and no longer.

Continuation of the several Parts of this Act.

XII. And whereas great Quantities of wrought Silks, Bengals, and Stuffs mixed with Silk and Herba, as also Hussins, and other Calicoes, of the Manufacture of Persia, China, or East-India, are, notwithstanding the Laws already made to the contrary, frequently imported from Foreign Parts, and landed in Ireland, to the Prejudice of Fair Traders: For the better preventing the same for the future, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That none of the before mentioned Goods shall, from and after the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, be imported into the said Kingdom of Ireland from any Place or Places whatsoever, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this and the former Acts (other than from Great Britain) under the Penalty and Forfeiture of all such of the aforesaid Goods so imported, or the Value thereof, as also of the Ship or Vessel importing the same, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall seize, inform, or sue for the same, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record in Dublin, in the said Kingdom of Ireland; and if any Officer or Officers of the Customs in Ireland, shall willingly or knowingly Con- nibe at the Fraudulent Importation of any of the Goods aforesaid, contrary to the true meaning hereof, or if any such Officer or Officers shall take upon him or them to seize any of the said Goods, and shall, by Fraud or Collusion, desist or delay the Prosecution thereof to Condemnation, he or they so committing, deserting, or deserting, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be sued for and divided in manner aforesaid; and such Officer or Officers shall also be incapable of holding any Office or Employment under his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

XIII. And whereas an Act was made in the Twelfth Year of the late Queen, Intituled, An Act for the preserving all such Ships, and Goods thereof, which shall happen to be forced on shore, or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, or any other of her Majesties Dominions, wherein is recited, (among other things) That many Ships of Trade, after all their Dangers at Sea escaped, have unfortunately, near home, run on shore, or been stranded on the Coasts thereof, and been barbarously plundered by his Majesties Subjects, and their Cargoes imbezilled; and when any part has been saved, it has been swallowed up by the exorbitant Demands for Salvage, to the great Loss of his Majesties Revenue, and Damage of his Majesties trading Subjects; and therefore it is by the said Act (among other things) Enacted, That such Ships, Vessels, or Goods, so to be saved, as therein is mentioned, shall remain in the Custody of the Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, for the purposes of the said Act; and if such Goods shall not be legally claimed by the rightful Owner within the time therein limited, that then Publick Sale shall be made thereof (and if perishable Goods, forthwith to be sold) and after all Charges deducted, the residue of the Monies arising by such Sale, with a fair and just Account of the Whole, shall be transmitted to his Majesties Exchequer, there to remain for the Benefit of the Owner; which Act was made perpetual by another Act of the fourth Year of his Majesties Reign made in that behalf: And whereas from the want of express Words whereby to subject stranded Goods so saved to the Payment of Customs, and other Duties, a doubt has arisen, whether such Goods are liable to pay the same, to the great loss of his Majesties Revenue, and contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Acts; Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which, from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be saved out of any Ship or Vessel that shall happen to be forced on shore, or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom (not being Wreckt Goods, or Jesham, Flotham, or Lagan) shall, after Charges of Salvage and other Charges paid, as aforesaid, be subject and liable to the Payments of the like Customs and other Duties, with such Drawbacks upon Exportation, and the like Allowances and Abatements, as such Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes would, by any Law or Laws now in force, be liable unto, and entitled to have, in case the same were regularly imported; any thing in the aforesaid Acts, or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods saved out of any stranded Ship, after Salvage and Charges paid, liable to Customs, &c.

Exception as to Wrecks

1 W. & M. cap. 32.

XIV. And whereas in the Preamble of the Act made in the first Year of King William and Queen Mary, for the better preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and Encouraging the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, Wooll, Wooll-Fells, Worlings, Shortlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wooll-Flocks, Fullers Earth, Fullick-Clay, and Tobacco-Pipe Clay, are enumerated, but in the enacting part thereof, which relates to the carrying Wooll Coastwise, Wooll only is mentioned, and the other enumerated Goods left out, whereby frequent Opportunities are given for the Exportation of them, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Act; It is therefore hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the like Provision made for preventing the Exportation of Wooll in and by the Act before mentioned, is hereby directed and appointed to extend to Wooll-Fells, Worlings, Shortlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wooll-Flocks, Fullers Earth, Fullick-Clay, and Tobacco-Pipe Clay aforesaid, carried Coastwise; any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provisions for preventing the Exportation of Wooll carrying Coastwise to extend to Wooll-Fells, Mortlings, &c.

XV. And

XV. And whereas great Quantities of Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed, in Great Britain, are exposed to Sale without having a Mark or Stamp to denote the Payment of the Duties: And whereas such as have been so Markt or Stampt are frequently shipt off in order to be exported into Parts beyond the Seas, whereby the Person or Persons exporting the said Goods are entitled to a great Drawback; and it hath been found by Experience, that great Quantities of such Goods, after they have been shipt for Exportation, have been privately reloaded in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law have not been sufficient to obviate a Practice so Prejudicial to his Majesty, and all fair and honest Traders in such Goods: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, during the Continuance of the said Duties, in case any Silks, Callicoes, Linens, or Stuffs, printed, painted, stained, or dyed, in Great Britain, shall be found in any Place whatsoever, on Land or Water, without being marked or sealed with a Stamp or Seal, denoting, That the Duties have been duly paid or charged (except on board such Ships or Vessels on which such Goods have been shipt for Exportation) the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the Goods so seized shall be found, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, one Part of which Forfeitures and Penalties shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Part to him or them that shall seize, inform, or sue for the same, in his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed: Provided always, That the Goods so recovered shall not be delivered out of the Custom-house Warehouse, until the same shall be marked or sealed with a proper Mark or Stamp, to be provided by the Commissioners of the Customs for that purpose; and they are hereby directed and authorized to provide the same, and to cause the said Goods to be Stampt therewith accordingly; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Painted Silks, Callicoes, &c.
found unmarked,
forfeited.

Exception.

Penalty on Possessor.

Commissioners to provide Stamps.

XVI. And whereas in and by an Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of her late Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America] It was, amongst other things, Declared and Enacted, That every Person or Persons who should import, or cause to be imported, Tar or Pitch into this Kingdom, directly from any of his Majesties Plantations in America, within the time therein mentioned, he or they so importing the same, should have and enjoy a Reward or Premium of four Pounds for every Tun, containing Eight Barrells, and each Barrell gauging Thirty one Gallons and One Half, of good and merchantable Tar; and the like Reward or Premium for every Tun of good and merchantable Pitch, each Tun containing Twenty Gross Hundreds (Net Pitch) to be brought in Eight Barrells; and by another Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty [Intituled, An Act for continuing an Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America; and for the Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from that part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that part of Great Britain called England] the first mentioned Act, and every part thereof, is continued from the time of the Expiration of the same, for and during the Term of Eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament: And it is thereby Enacted, That the like Rewards or Premiums shall be allowed on the Importation of good and merchantable Tar and Pitch from North-Britain, into any part of South-Britain, in such manner as is therein mentioned: And whereas Complaints have been made by the Commissioners or Principal Officers of his Majesties Navy, that Tar brought from the said Plantations is frequently mixed with Dross or Water, and that Dirt or Dross is often found in the Pitch, whereby the same are unfit for the Service of his Majesties Navy; Be it therefore Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, no Certificate shall be made out in order to allow the Premium or Reward for any such Pitch, until the same be freed from Dirt or Dross, or for any such Tar that is not fitting to be used for making Cordage, and that shall not be freed from Dross and Water, and until such Pitch and Tar be clean, good, merchantable, and well-conditioned.

No Certificate to be made out for Pitch or Tar till freed from Dross, &c.

Officers of the Customs, before they make such Certificate, to examine the Pitch and Tar.

XVII. And whereas by the said last mentioned Acts the Person or Persons importing such Pitch and Tar, are entitled to the said Premium or Reward, upon a Certificate from the Officers of the Customs where such Pitch and Tar is imported: And whereas the said Officers have not sufficient Authority by the said Acts to examine the said Pitch and Tar so strictly as they ought to do, to enable them in Judgment to certify whether the same is good and merchantable: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of the Customs, before they make any such Certificate, to examine the said Pitch by opening the Heads of the Barrels wherein it is imported, sawing of the Staves in the middle, and breaking the Barrel, or so many of them as they find sufficient to make a Proof, or by such other means as they shall think proper, to find out and discover whether the said Pitch is good and merchantable, not mixed with Dirt or Dross; and also it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Officers to examine and search the said Tar, to find out and discover whether the same is clean, good, merchantable, well-conditioned, and clear of Dross or Water, and fit for making Cordage.

No Fee for examining, &c.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward, shall be demanded, taken, or received by any Officers of the Customs, for the examining, viewing, or delivering such Pitch, Tar, or other Naval Stores, with respect to the Premium or Reward allowed by the Acts aforesaid mentioned, or for the making or signing a Certificate in order to the receiving such Premium or Reward, under the Penalty of the loss of his Office, and such Officer shall be also incapable of serving his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to such Person or Persons as will inform and sue for the same, by Action of Debt or of the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be granted or allowed.

Act 22 Car. 2. cap. 26. to have Continuance during such time as the Act of Tonnage and Poundage.

XIX. And whereas an Act made in the Twenty second Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act to prevent the Planting of Tobacco in England, and regulating the Plantation Trade, was by several subsequent Acts continued, and by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King William the Third, was to have Continuance for the space of Seven Years, from the Twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, which Act has been by Experience found Beneficial to the Trade of this Kingdom and the Dominions and Plantations thereto belonging; but some Doubt hath arisen whether the same hath had Continuance by the Acts for continuing the Act of Tonnage and Poundage; for obviating which Doubt, Be it hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act of the Twenty second Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and every Clause therein contained, hath, and shall have Continuance for and during such time as the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the said King Charles the Second, is continued, and no longer.

XXI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wooll out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into Foreign Parts, and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England, it was Enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety nine, should, directly or indirectly, export, transport, ship off, carry, or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried, or conveyed out of or from the said Kingdom of Ireland, into any foreign Realm, States, or Dominions, or into any Parts or Places whatsoever, other than the Parts within the Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, any the Mooll, Mooll-fells, Shortlings, Worlings, Mooll-flocks, Worsted, Bay, or Woollen-Parn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Ruckleys, Sayes, Fizes, Duggets, Cloth Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs, or Woollen Manufactures whatsoever, made up or mixt with Mooll or Mooll Flocks, or should directly or indirectly load, or cause to be loaden upon any Horse, Cart, or other Carriage, or load or lay on board, or cause to be laden, or laid on board in any Ship or Vessel in any Place or Part within or belonging to the said Kingdom of Ireland, any such Mooll, or other the Matters aforesaid, to the intent or purpose to export, transport, ship off, carry, or convey the same, or cause the same to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried, or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, or out of any Port or Place belonging to the same, or with intent or purpose that any Person or Persons whatsoever should so export, transport, ship off, carry, or convey the same out of the said Kingdom of Ireland into any Ports or Places (except as aforesaid) upon Pain of forfeiting the said Wooll, and other Matters aforesaid, so exported, transported, shipped off, or carried, conveyed or laden, contrary to the true intent and meaning of that Act, and under other the Penalties therein mentioned. And whereas it is further Enacted by the said Act, That it should and might be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to seize, take, secure and convey to his Majesties next Warehouse all such Wooll, and other the Matters aforesaid, as he or they should happen to see, find, know, or discover, to be laid on board in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or to be brought, carried, or laid on shore at or near the Sea, or any Navigable River or Water, to the intent or purpose to be exported or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to the true meaning of that Act; and that such Person or Persons who should happen so to seize, take, or secure any of the Commodities aforesaid, should be indemnified for so doing, to all intents and purposes: But it is not provided by the said Act, That the said Wooll, and other the Commodities aforesaid, which should be brought, carried, or laid on shore at or near the Sea, or any Navigable River or Water, to the intent or purpose to be exported or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to the meaning of that Act, should be forfeited: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, all such Wooll, and other the Commodities aforesaid, which shall be brought, carried, or laid on shore at or near the Sea, or any Navigable River or Water, to the intent or purpose to be exported or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to the true meaning of that Act, shall be forfeited, and the Offender and Offenders therein shall be subject and liable to the like Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, as Persons by that Act are subject unto for exporting, transporting, or shipping of Wooll, or other the Commodities aforesaid, contrary to the intent and meaning of that Act; and that such Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, shall be recovered and distributed as other the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures in that Act are by any Law now in force to be recovered and distributed.

Wooll and other Goods laid on shore near the Sea or any River, &c. to be conveyed out of Ireland into Foreign Parts, forfeited.

Penalties.

XXII. And whereas an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act to prevent the Mischiefs by manufacturing Leaves, or other Things to resemble Tobacco, and the Abuses in making and mixing of Snuff: And whereas the Provisions made by the said Act, so far as relates to Snuff, have proved ineffectual, by reason of some doubts which have arisen whether the Powers granted by the said Act to prevent the Mischiefs by manufacturing Leaves, or other Things to resemble Tobacco, can be extended to such Persons which shall commit Abuses in making and mixing of Snuff: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said recited Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and all the Clauses, Rules, Directions, Powers, Matters, and Things, therein contained, shall extend and be in full force against any Person or Persons who shall, after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, make, mix, or Colour, or shall cause to be made, mixed, or coloured, any sort of Snuff with any sort of Oakers, Amber, or any other kind of colouring (except Water tinged with Venetian Red only) or shall mix, or cause to be mixed with any sort of Snuff, Fustick, or Yellow Ebony, Touchwood, or any other sort of Wood, or any Dirt, Sand, or small Tobacco sifted from Tobacco, commonly called or known by the Name of Tobacco-dust, as if the said recited Act, and all the Clauses, Rules, Directions, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been reenacted in the Body of this present Act against the Offender or Offenders in making, mixing, and colouring of Snuff, as aforesaid; any Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. And

All the Clauses in the Act 1 Geo. relating to Snuff, to extend to Oakers, Umber, or other Colouring, Fustick, &c. mixt with Snuff.

Exception.

XXIII. And whereas divers Evil-disposed Persons have at the time, or soon after the Roasting of Coffee, made use of Water, Grease, Butter, or such like Materials, whereby the same is rendered Unwholesome, and greatly increased in Weight, to the Prejudice of his Majesties Revenue, the Health of his Subjects, and to the Loss of all Honest and Fair Dealers in that Commodity: For the prevention whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, at the Roasting of any Coffee, or before, or at any time afterwards, make use of Water, Grease, Butter, or any other Material whatsoever, which will encrease the Weight, or damage and prejudice the said Coffee in its Goodness, he, she, or they shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence; and if any Trader or Dealer in Coffee shall knowingly buy or sell any such Coffee, he, she, or they shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, one Moiety whereof to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same.

Roasters of Coffee making use of Water, Grease, Butter, &c. to forfeit 20*l*.

The same Penalty on Traders in Coffee.

XXIV. And whereas by reason of the great Duties which are payable on several Foreign Goods and Merchandizes, fraudulent Practices and Combinations may be carried on between the Importers and Owners of such Goods, by themselves or their Agents, and the Officers of the Revenue, in pursuance whereof such Goods, are seized, and after Condemnation, on Payment of the Kings Share of the Value at which the same shall be appraised (which Value is very often less than the Duties) such Goods are returned to the Importers and Owners, or their Agents, upon their giving a moderate Satisfaction to the Officer, according to the Agreement made, whereby his Majesty may be greatly defrauded of his Duties: For prevention whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer of the Revenue shall directly or indirectly make any Collusive Seizure of Foreign Goods, to the intent that the same may escape Payment of the Duties, he shall not only forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, but be incapable of serving his Majesty in any Office or Employment in the Revenue; as also the Importer and Owner of the Goods so collusively seized, shall forfeit treble the Value thereof, one Moiety of which Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform or sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparllance shall be allowed.

Penalty on Officer making Collusive Seizure.

Penalty on Importer or Owner.

XXV. Provided nevertheless, That if the Officer, or Importer and Owner of the Goods, shall discover such his Offence to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, within Two Months after the same shall have been committed, so as his Accomplice or Accomplices in such Collusive Seizure be convicted thereof, the Offender so discovering shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his Offence.

Officer or Importer discovering his Accomplices in 2 Months, acquitted.

XXVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, other than the Officer of the Revenue making such Collusive Seizure, or the Importer and Owner of the Goods so seized, shall, within Three Months after such Seizure, discover to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, any Person or Persons, who shall have been guilty of such fraud, so as such Person or Persons be convicted thereof, the Person so discovering shall receive to his own Use one Half part of his Majesties Share of what shall be recovered on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

Reward for any other discovering in 3 Months.

XXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases, touching which no special Distribution is provided by this Act, one Moiety of the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs

Distribution of Forfeitures.

Heirs and Successors, and the other Person to such Person or Persons as shall sue for and prosecute the same, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland (except where it is in this Act otherwise directed) wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Anno 5 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is found by Experience, that the Allowances given by the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties on Salt upon the Exportation of Fish, do much exceed the Duty of the Salt used in curing the same, which is so far from being an Encouragement to a Fair Trade, that it is rather an Inducement to the Curers and Exporters of Fish to commit several Frauds, by curing the said Fish in so deficient a manner, that it will but just serve the Examination upon shipping it off, and not keep Good to Foreign Markets, to the great Disparagement of the British Fishery, as well as Diminution of his Majesties said Duties: Ye it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the present Allowances given by the Laws relating to the Duties upon Salt upon the Exportation of Fish, shall not be paid for any Fish that shall be exported from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; but that the Curers of Fish shall from thenceforth be allowed to import Foreign Salt, or take from any Salt-Work, or Salt-Pits, any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same is allowed by Law, for the curing of Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for curing Fish for Foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof; such Foreign Salt being landed, or such British Salt being taken from the said Salt-Pits, or Salt-Works, and weighed in the presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt; and such Foreign or British Salt being lodged in a Warehouse, under the Lock and Key of the said Officer, as well as the Proprietor of the said Salt; which Foreign or British Salt, so lodged, as aforesaid, shall remain in the Custody of the said Officer jointly with the said Proprietor, of the said Salt, during all the several Intervals of the respective Fishing Seasons; the Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agent or Agents, entering at the next Office for the Duty on Salt, the respective Quantities of Foreign or British Salt so lodged by him or them, from time to time, as aforesaid; and the said Officer keeping an Account of every respective Quantity of the said Salt, so entered and lodged in his Custody, as aforesaid; and that at the beginning of every of the several Fishing Seasons, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Salt, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall make Oath in Writing before the Officer for the Duty on Salt, at the Office nearest to the Place where the said Salt is lodged, declaring the Quantity of the Foreign or British Salt respectively lodged, as aforesaid; and that all the said Salt is intended for the curing of Fish for Exportation only, and shall not by his or their Order, Consent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly, be sold, given away, or any ways delivered, but for the purpose aforesaid; after which Oath so made, as aforesaid, and filed up by the said Officer in the said Office for the Duty on Salt, as aforesaid, the Officer in whose joint

Custody

The present Allowances given on Salt, shall not be paid for any Fish exported after 24 June, 1719.

Curers of Fish for Exportation may use Foreign Salt or British Salt, without Duty, except the Customs.

Such Salt to be weighed and warehoused.

At every fishing Season Proprietor to make Oath of the Quantity, and that it is intended for curing Fish for Exportation only:

Custody with the Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents the Salt has continued, during the Interval of the Fishing Season, shall deliver into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, all the said Salt for the curing of Fish taken during the said Fishing Season; and that at the end of every Fishing Season, the Officer for the said Duty on Salt shall take a particular Account of the Quantities of Foreign and British Salt respectively remaining in Hand; which remaining Salt shall be immediately locked up in the joint Custody of the said Officer and Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, as aforesaid; and the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents of the said Salt, using the said Salt, as aforesaid, shall, as soon as possible, after the end of every Fishing Season, deliver also an Account in Writing into the said Office for the Duty on Salt, as aforesaid, containing the Quantity of Fish exported, or entered and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officers of the several Ports where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account; which Certificates the said Officers are hereby directed to give gratis; which said Account, delivered into the said Office, as aforesaid, shall be affirmed by the Dath of the said Proprietor or Proprietors using the said Salt, as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents who have used the same, and shall remain in the said Office, to the end that the Quantity of Fish cured for Exportation, and the Quantity of Salt used in curing the said Fish, may, from time to time, appear upon Dath, and be compared together; and in case any of the said Salt shall be delivered over to any other Persons, and used by them in curing of Fish, the several Quantities of Salt so delivered over, shall be expressed in the said Account; and each Person to whom such Salt shall be so delivered, or his Agent, shall likewise, upon Dath, make another Account of the particular Quantity of such Salt used by each of them in the curing of Fish so exported or shipped for Exportation, as aforesaid; which said Account, together with proper Certificates, as aforesaid, shall likewise be transmitted into the Office aforesaid, there to remain for the purposes above mentioned: But if such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, or any other Person or Persons, to whom any Quantity of Salt shall be by them delivered over, as aforesaid, shall, for the space of Six Months after the end of every respective Fishing Season, neglect or refuse to deliver such Account attested upon Dath, as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such other Person or Persons, as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit forty Pounds.

Then the Salt to be delivered to the Proprietor.

After fishing Season an Account to be taken of the remaining Salt, and to be warehoused.

Proprietor to give an Account of the Quantity of Fish exported, on which the Salt was used, &c.

Salt delivered over to any other to be accounted for.

Penalty.

II. And to the end that no part of the Salt delivered into the sole Custody of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, or of his or their Agent or Agents, or by them to any other Persons, for the curing of Fish for Exportation only, during the said several Fishing Seasons, may be sold, given away, or otherwise delivered, or used, directly or indirectly, but for the purpose aforesaid; and to obviate the Frauds which the Publick Revenue would otherwise be exposed to by the present Relaxation of the former Laws, and the Indulgence intended hereby to the said Trader: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Bushel of Salt so taken out of the Cellars or Salt works, which shall not be accounted for in the manner above mentioned, by the Daths of the Persons and proper Certificates, or by Certificate from the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions, that Proof was there made that such Salt was put on board any Boat or Vessel for curing of Fish at Sea, and was there taken by Enemies, or otherwise lost or perished at Sea, or shall not be returned into, or found remaining at the end of every Fishing Season, in the Cellars or Warehouses, as aforesaid, the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, his or their Agent or Agents, who took out the same, or the Person or Persons Every Bushel of Salt taken out of the Cellars, and not accounted for, forfeits so s.

sons to whom the same, or any part thereof, was delivered for curing of Fish, as aforesaid, shall respectively, according to each of their respective Quantities with which they stand accountable, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings; and every such Person selling, giving away, using, or delivering any such Salt, or Consenting, or being any ways Party to the selling, giving away, using, or delivering such Salt, directly or indirectly, otherwise than for the Purposes aforesaid, shall forfeit, pay, and undergo the Penalties and Punishments herein after mentioned; that is to say, every Proprietor of such Salt, or his Agent, for every Bushel of such Salt so sold, given away, used, or delivered, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings, One third part thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Remainder thereof to such Person that shall inform or sue for the same; and every other Person buying, taking, or using any such Salt, otherwise than for the Purposes aforesaid, and in the Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Bushel of Salt so bought, delivered, or used, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; One third part thereof for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Remainder thereof to such Person or Persons that shall inform or sue for the same: Which said Sums or Penalties shall be levied in such Manner as other Penalties herein after mentioned are to be levied; or in Default of Payment of such Sums, within Fourteen Days after Conviction of such Crime, and where no sufficient Excuses can be found to answer the same, the Person or Persons so offending shall be sent to the House of Correction, there to be Whipt, and kept to Hard Labour for any time not exceeding Three Months.

III. And for preventing the imbezilling of Salt lodged under the Lock and Key of the Officer and Proprietors, during the Intervals of the respective Fishing Seasons; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Bushel of such Salt so lodged, which shall either be carried away, or shall be found wanting at the Re-delivering thereof into the sole Custody of the Proprietor, reasonable Allowances for the Waste of such Salt being first made, the said Proprietor or Proprietors shall forfeit Twenty Shillings.

IV. And for preventing any Frauds, Imbezillments, or Misapplication of any Foreign Salt, after it is imported or landed, and before it is cellared and stored up under the joynt Custody of the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties for curing of Fish for Exportation, as aforesaid, and of any British Salt after its being weighed and taken from the Salt-Works or Salt-Pits of Great Britain, and before it is stored and locked up by the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties for curing of Fish for Exportation, as before mentioned: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons who, from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall take away, imbezil, or misapply any Foreign Salt, after the Importation or landing thereof, and before it is cellared and stored up for the curing of Fish, as above mentioned, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Bushel of Foreign Salt so taken away, imbezilled, or misapplied, reckoning such Foreign Salt at Eighty and four Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and so in proportion for a greater or less Quantity; and any Person or Persons who, from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall take away, imbezil, or misapply any British Salt after it is weighed at, and carried from any Salt-Work or Salt-Pit in Great Britain, and before it is brought unto, and locked up in any Cellar or Storehouse by the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties for the curing of Fish, as directed by this Act, every such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Bushel of British Salt so taken away, imbezilled, or misapplied, reckoning such British Salt at Fifty and six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and so in proportion for a greater or less Quantity.

V. And

V. And whereas considerable Quantities of Foreign and British Salt, as also some Quantities of Salt which has already been laid on Fish, and returned unconsumed, designed for the curing of Fish, the Duties whereof are paid or secured to be paid, are in the Hands of several Persons, Dealers in Fish, which Quantities of Salt ought to be returned under the Lock and Key of the Officers of the Duties on Salt in England, and the Officers of the Customs in Scotland, and the Duties thereof repaid, or the Security given vacated and discharged: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Foreign and British Salt, as also such Quantities of Salt which have already been laid on Fish, and returned unconsumed, remaining in the proper Custody of any Person or Persons, the Duties whereof have been paid or secured in England, on or before the first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and in Scotland, on or before the first day of October, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, shall be again put under the Lock and Key of the Salt Officers in England, and of the Custom-house Officers in Scotland respectively, on or before the first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, by delivering to them Keys of all the Cellars wherein such Salt is lodged and cellared, and thereupon weighing the same in the presence of the said Officers, with all convenient Diligence, and without Delay; and upon a Debenture, to be prepared by the Collector of his Majesties Customs at the Port within the Precinct whereof such Salt is lodged or cellared, as aforesaid, and verified by the proper Officer as to the Quantity of Salt actually cellared, the Security given for the Duties of the said Salt shall be vacated and discharged, or the Duties repaid by the said Collector, if in Scotland, or by the Officers of the Duties on Salt, if in England, out of the Monies in their Hands arising from the said Duties, so as it appears by the Salt, or Custom-house Books, that the Salt was imported or delivered on or before the first day of October, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, in Scotland, or on or before the first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, in England; and that the Duties thereof were paid, or secured to be paid; and that the Proprietor of the Salt, or his Agent, make Oath, that this is the same Salt that was so imported or delivered; and in case there is not Money in their Hands sufficient to discharge the said Debentures, then, and in that case, upon a Certificate thereof to be given gratis, the said Debentures for Salt, cellared in England, shall be paid by the Commissioners for the Duties on Salt; and the said Debentures for Salt, cellared in Scotland, shall be paid by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland, at the Option of the Merchant, in the same manner as Debentures for Fish exported are now by Law made payable.

Salt that has paid the Duty, to be again under Lock and Key of the proper Officers before 1 June, 1719.

And on a Debenture the Security to be vacated, or the Duties repaid, &c.

VI. And for the better Encouragement of the Fishing Trade of Great Britain, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all such Fish hereafter mentioned as shall be exported from any Port or Place in Great Britain into Parts beyond the Seas by any Person or Persons whatsoever, the Rates or Sums of Money hereafter expressed, that is to say, for every Cask or Vessel of Herring or Scads, containing Fifty Gallons, Seven Shillings; for every Hundred of Codfish, Ling, or Hake, (except dried Codfish, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall contain in Length fourteen Inches, or upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the Third Joint in the Tail of every such fish, five Shillings; for every Barrel of wet Codfish, Ling, or Hake, containing Thirty two Gallons, Two Shillings; for every Hundred Weight of dried Codfish, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines, Three Shillings; for every Barrel of Salmon, containing Forty two Gallons, Four Shillings and Six Pence; for every Barrel of White Herrings, containing Thirty two Gallons, Two Shillings and Eight Pence; for every Barrel of full Red Herrings, containing Thirty two Gallons, One Shilling and Nine Pence; for every Barrel of clean Hotten Red Herrings, containing Thirty two Gallons,

Allowances on Fish exported

Gallons, One Shilling; for every Last of dried Red Sprats, One Shilling; and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity of all and every the said Kinds of Fish, shall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties on Salt in the same Port from whence any such Fish shall be exported, within Thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs in the Port where such Fish shall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Fish actually shipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the Principal Officers of the said Port before the Debenture be allowed (who are hereby required and impowered to give the said Oath) that the Fish in such Debenture mentioned were British taken, and really exported to or for Parts beyond the Seas, and not re-landed, or intended to be re-landed in Great Britain; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward shall be taken; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then, upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the Principal Commissioners for managing his Majesties Revenue of Excise upon Salt for the time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in Curre out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the said Duties upon Salt; and the said Debentures for Fish exported from Scotland, shall be paid by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland at the Option of the Merchant, in the same manner as Debentures for Fish exported are now by Law made payable; and any Officer neglecting or refusing to pay the said Money, or to give such Certificate as is here directed, shall forfeit double the Sum so to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed: And that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling, or Hake, to the intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling, or Hake hath been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be re-landed or reimported; and also that it shall be lawful, upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel, or other Vessel, wherein any such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall be exported, to the intent it may be known that such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation of the same, in case the same be re-landed or reimported; and that in case any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall (after the same shall be exported) be fraudulently Re-landed in Great Britain, or Reimported, all the said Fish to Re-landed or Reimported, shall be forfeited and lost, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; and that no Allowance shall be paid out of the said Duties on Salt for or on account of the Exportation of any Fish that shall not be well cured, or shall be unmerchable.

Officers to cut off part of the Tail of Codfish, &c. before the Exportation, and to mark the Barrels wherein Pilchards, &c. are.

Such Fish re-landed, forfeited.

No Allowance for unmerchable Fish.

Officers may enter into Warehouses to view the Fish curing, &c.

VII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, at all times when Fish are curing, bulking, or packing, and at all other times, in the Day (or in the Night) in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, to enter and come into the Cellars and Warehouses of all Curers of Fish, to view and inspect them, during the time of their curing Fish; and to gauge the Salt when they shall think it necessary for the Discovering of any Frauds; and to mark the Casks wherein the Fish are are put up for Exportation, and to see them exported; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Performance of their Duties aforesaid, then, and in every such Case, the Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

VIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Fish entitled by Law to any Premium or Allowance upon Exportation thereof, shall be laden for Exportation, and duly entered and pass by the proper Officer, at any time after the Twenty fifth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and the said Fish shall be lost or spoiled before the Ships Proceeding on her Voyage, as aforesaid, then the proper Officer of the Port or Ports where the said Fish so lost or spoiled was or shall be entered, shall be obliged, upon due Proof thereof made upon Oath before any of the Chief Officers of such Port, who have hereby Power to administer the same, by the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Fish, or his or their Agents, to make out Debentures for the Premium or Bounty of the said Fish, as if the said Fish had been actually exported to Parts beyond the Seas: Provided the said Fish was sunk in the Sea or Port where the said Ship was lost or destroyed in the Sight of the proper Officer where any of the said Fish shall come ashore; and that no Ale be made of the said Fish by the Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agents; and that the said Officer is hereby required to cause such Fish to be burnt, or otherwise destroyed; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And whereas the Ship Severn Galley of Bristol, being in the River of Bristol in or about the Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and the Ship George Galley of London, being in Leofast Road in or about the Month of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and the Ship James of Leith, being in the Port of Caithness in the Isles of Orkneys in or about the Month of December, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the said Ships were, by Stress of Weather, or other Accidents, severally cast away and lost in or very near the respective Ports where the same were laden; and at the times of their being respectively lost, the said Ships were severally laden with Fish, and other Goods, for Exportation into Parts beyond the Seas; which several Ladings of Fish, or part thereof, were lost and utterly spoiled, and rendered unfit for any Market: And whereas some Doubt hath arisen about the making out the Debentures for the Drawbacks or Bounties for the Fish that was so spoiled, as aforesaid: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the proper Officers at the several Ports where the said several Ships were respectively Laden, do, upon due Proof by the Oaths of the respective Proprietors of the said Fish, or their respective Agents, that such Fish was really lost, or have been destroyed in the Presence of One or more of the said Officers, after the same had been laden and entered out for Exportation, without Intention of being Relanded in Great Britain (which Oath the Principal Officer at such Port is hereby Impowered to administer) make out Debentures for the Drawbacks and Bounties for the said Fish so lost or destroyed, as aforesaid, in the same manner as is directed to be done by the several Acts of Parliament now in force for Fish really exported into Parts beyond the Seas; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Red Herrings or Sprats shall, during the time of drying or curing, be burnt or consumed by Fire, by which means such Red Herrings or Sprats shall be rendered unfit for Use, in such case the Number or Quantity of Red Herrings or Sprats so burnt, consumed, or rendered unfit for Use, shall be computed by the Proprietor of the said Herrings or Sprats, in Conjunction with the said Officer of the said Port or Place, according to the best of their Skill and Judgment; which Computation so made, and added to the Account to be given in of the Quantity of Herrings or Sprats exported Resisting Officer forfeit 20s.

Fish lost or spoiled before the Ship proceeds on her Voyage, to be allowed the Bounty.

Proviso for the Severn Galley, George Galley, the Ship James of Leith.

Red Herrings or Sprats consumed by Fire, to be taken as if they were really exported.

packed or shipped for Exportation, shall be accepted and taken at the Salt Office in the same manner as if all the said Herrings had been really exported.

Salt imported from Jersey, &c. liable to the same Duties as Foreign Salt.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the Third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George [Intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventeen; and to authorize Allowances to be made to certain Receivers; and to obviate a Doubt concerning Goods imported from the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Sark, and Alderney; and to ascertain the Duties upon Sheep-skins, and Lamb-skins; and to prevent Frauds in the Duties upon Starch; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, and Orders, Lost, Burnt, or Destroyed; and for enlarging the time for adjusting Claims in several Lotteries; and for preventing Frauds in the Duties on Low-Wines and Spirits carried Coastwise] It is Enacted, That the Inhabitants of the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Sark, and Alderney, shall and may, with and under such Certificates and Passes as are therein mentioned, import into any lawful Port of Great Britain, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the said Islands, or any of them, without paying any Customs, Subsidies or Duties for or in respect thereof, except such Excise or other Duties as is now or shall hereafter, for the time being, be due and payable for the like Goods of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of Great Britain: And whereas it is found by Experience, that the Indulgence and Bounty given by the said Act, has been an Occasion of Tempting many evil disposed Persons to bring in great Quantities of French Salt from Guernsey, under a pretence that the same was of the Produce of that Island, by Certificates, which are since discovered to be forged; to the great Prejudice of the Revenue, and the Diminution of the Trade of the Bakers of Salt in Great Britain: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, all Salt imported from any of the said Islands shall be liable to the same Duties upon the Importation thereof as any other Foreign Salt whatsoever.

Allowance for Herrings exported from Scotland in Barrels of Scots Gauge before
1 Aug, 1719.

XII. And whereas the Laws and Acts of Parliament in Scotland, reserved in force by the Eighth Article of Union, do, among other things, Enact, That the Herring Barrel shall contain Eight Gallons Two Pints, Scots Measure, which amounts only to Nine and twenty Gallons, Three Pints, One Gill and an half, English Wine Measure; in consequence whereof all the Herring Barrels made in Scotland since the Union, as well as before, have been made according to the aforesaid Standard, and great Numbers of such Barrels remain now in Hand: And whereas Doubts have arisen in Scotland about the Payment of the present Allowances upon White Herrings exported, unless they are put up and packed in Barrels, containing precisely Thirty two Gallons, English Wine Measure; and also about the Payment of proportionable Allowances for Half Barrels, howsoever convenient for Stowage the said Half Barrels are: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the present Allowance of Ten Shillings, five Pence per Barrel of White Herrings shall be paid for all Herrings exported from Scotland in Barrels of the Scots Gauge before mentioned, and proportionally for Half Barrels; provided the said Herrings have been or shall be exported on or before the first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen.

The Proportion of the Scots Barrel to the English.

XIII. And soasmuch as great Inconvenience would arise to the Owners of the said Herring Barrels remaining now in Hand, should the Use thereof be disallowed, or no Premium be granted upon Herrings therein exported: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Premiums granted by this Act upon White Herrings shall and may be paid upon Herrings exported in the aforesaid Barrels, in such proportion as the Gauge of the said Barrels bear to Thirty two Gallons English Wine Measure; provided the said Barrels be filled with Herrings on or before the first day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty.

XIV. And

XIV. And whereas divers Merchants have exported several Quantities of Salmon in Barrels or Boxes that were neither agreeable to the Scotch or English Laws, and the Officers of the Customs having gauged the said Barrels or Boxes, have given Debentures for the Allowance or Drawback in proportion to Forty two Gallons, English Wine Measure, wherein no Circumstances of Fraud do appear: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Debentures shall and may be paid and satisfied in such manner as they ought to have been, if such Exportation had been made and carried on according to the Rules and Directions of the Law.

Salmon exported in unsizeable Barrels.

XV. And for preventing the like Mistakes and Irregularities for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the Contents of the Herring and Salmon Barrel shall be the same throughout the whole United Kingdom of Great Britain; that is to say, the Herring Barrel shall contain Thirty two Gallons, and the Salmon Barrel forty two Gallons; and that all Exportation of Salmon or Herrings in Barrels of a different Size or Content, the empty Herring Barrels now in hand excepted, shall be adjudged and taken to be an unlawful Exportation, and shall not entitle the Exporter to any Premium in respect of the same.

The Contents of the Herring and Salmon Barrel.

XVI. Provided nevertheless, soasmuch as it may be convenient for the Merchants, for the better Stowage in the Ships in which such Exportation of Herring or Salmon is made, to pack up some part thereof in Half Barrels: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to export Herring or Salmon in Half Barrels, according to the Proportion of the Barrels above mentioned respectively, but in no other Barrels or Cask of any other Size or Content whatsoever; and they shall, by virtue of this Act, be entitled to a proportionable Premium or Drawback for every such Half Barrel, videlicet, Half what they would be entitled to in case the Exportation had been made in whole Barrels.

Herrings and Salmon may be exported in Half Barrels.

XVII. And whereas by the said Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, it is Provided, That no Person whatsoever shall make use of any Brine for the pickling or curing of Flesh or Fish, or for preserving of any Provisions before the same is boiled into Salt: For the better preventing Frauds therein, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall carry or convey, or cause any Brine to be carried or conveyed from the Pits (other than such Person or Persons who are known Proprietors of Pans for boiling the same into White Salt) shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Gallon of Brine so carried and conveyed, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity.

Brine carried from the Pits, for curing Flesh or Fish, to forfeit 40 s. per Gallon.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for the better Securing and Regulating the Duties upon Salt, It is Provided, That in case any Ship or Vessel should come into any Port of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, from Ireland, or any other Foreign Part, having on board any Quantity of Salt, which was taken in only for the necessary Provisions of the Ship for such Voyage, or for curing of Fish, it should be lawful for the Master of such Ship or Vessel to land the Salt, so as an Entry should be made thereof within Ten Days after his first coming into such Port, and the Duties paid down or secured for the same, before the same, or any part thereof, should be landed or taken out of any Ship or Vessel; nevertheless for want of sufficient Penalties to enforce Obedience thereto, several Masters of Vessels, who, since the making the said Act, have imported such Salt, have refused or neglected to enter and pay the Duties for the Salt by them so imported, as aforesaid, within the time limited by the said Act: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Master of any Ship or Vessel, who shall,

after

Foreign Salt imported, taken in for necessary Provision for the Voyage, or for curing of Fish, not entered in 10 Days, forfeited, and double the Value.

after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, import or bring into any Port or Place in Great Britain from Ireland, or any other Foreign Part, any Quantity of Salt, which was taken in only for the necessary Provisions of the Ship for such Voyage, or for curing of Fish, as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to enter and pay, or secure the Duty for the same, within Ten Days after his first coming into any such Port or Place, and before the same, or any part thereof, shall be landed or taken out of any such Ship or Vessel, all the Salt so imported shall be forfeited and lost, and the Master or other Person, Commander of the Ship or Vessel wherein any such Salt shall be imported, or the Owner or Importer of such Salt shall likewise forfeit double the Value thereof.

No Owner of Salt-Works to act as a Justice of Peace in Matters relating to Salt-Duties.

X X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Proprietor or Owner of Salt-Works, or who shall have any Interest in, or any Rent, Profit, or Benefit reserved upon, issuing out of, or any ways arising by any Salt-Pits, Salt-Works, Store-houses, or other Places made use of by any Baker, Refiner, Importer, or Dealer in Salt, shall act as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relating to the Duties on Salt, or any Offence committed against the Laws relating to the same.

Master of Ship carrying Salt from Scotland to England, or Coastwise, shall before landing give a Particular of the Salt to the Salt-Officer on Oath, &c.

X X. And be it further Enacted, That all and every Master and Commander of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, that from and after the four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall transport or carry any Foreign Salt from Scotland, or any of the Islands thereunto belonging, into England, or from any one Place or Port to any other Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall, before he or they land or deliver such Salt on Shore (by him so transported or carried) deliver to the Officers for collecting the Duties on Salt in the said Port or Place appointed to receive the same, a true particular of the Quantity so transported and carried, as aforesaid, signed by the Officers for collecting the said Duties on Salt, and by the Officers of the Customs for the Port or Place from whence the said Ship or Vessel came; and then the Master or his Mate, or the Boat-swain of such Ship or Vessel, shall make Oath before the Commissioners for collecting the said Duties on Salt, or their Officers, some or one of them (who are hereby impowered to administer the same, without Fee or Reward) that to his Knowledge there hath not been laid on board, or taken into the said Ship or Vessel any Salt since he or they came from such Port, as aforesaid; and in case such Ship or Vessel be to deliver one part of her Salt at one Port, and another part at another Port or Ports, that then the Officers for collecting the said Duties, and Officers of the Customs, where such Salt shall be delivered, shall certify on the backside of the Cocquet, Transire, or other Warrant, or else by Certificate only under the Hands and Seals of the Officers, how much, and what Quantity of the Salt mentioned in the Cocquet, Transire, or other Warrant, from the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel came, hath been there landed and delivered, upon the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise delivered, and Ten Shillings per Bushel.

Penalty.

Salt-Officers may demand a Sight of the Cocquet, and weigh the Salt.

X X I. And be it further Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer and Officers of the said Duties on Salt, at every unlading Port or Creek of such Ship or Vessel, to go on board the same, before the Delivery thereof, and to demand a Sight of such Cocquet so to be given, as aforesaid, and to weigh the Salt upon unlading the same; and if the Salt on the weighing the same shall be found to be more in Weight than what is contained in the said Cocquet, that then the Surplusage that shall exceed the Quantity contained in the said Cocquet, shall be forfeited, the one moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety thereof to the Person that shall inform or sue for the same; and if the Master of such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to shew unto such Officer the said Cocquet, upon due Request made, to the end he may see whether the Salt so unlading be the same Quantity with that contained in the Cocquet, That then, and in such case, it shall be lawful for the said Officer to seize the said Salt, and detain the same until the said Cocquet be produced: Provided always, that if the said Cocquet, having been duly taken out, be not shewn to such Officer in Four Days after the Seizure thereof, that then, and in such case, the Salt so seized shall be forfeited.

Master refusing, Officer may seize the Salt till Cocquet produced, &c.

XXII. And whereas the Importers of Foreign Salt do, after they come into Port, and before they enter and land the same, or proceed further on their Voyage to some other Port, frequently run Salt in Boats and other small Vessels in the Night-time; and if the Officers discover the same, the Persons on board such Boats or other Vessels, not only refuse to suffer the Officers to come on board to see if they have any Salt in their Vessels, but frequently beat and abuse them: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Customs, or the Officers of the Duties on Salt, and every of them, to go on board any Boat, Lighter, or other Vessel lying in any Port or Place, or riding up on the Sea-Coasts, and to search the same, and to see if there be any Salt on board, and to seize such Salt, in case the same be found in any other Vessel than that wherein such Salt was imported or brought into the said Port or Place, unless the same had been duly entered, or the Duties paid or secured; and all such Salt shall be forfeited and lost, or the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Master or Owner of such Boat or Vessel, who shall likewise be liable to all other Penalties and Forfeitures, as if the same had been landed without Entering or Payment of the Duty; and every Person or Persons who shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers in going on board any such Boat or Vessel, and searching the same, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Forty Pounds.

Officers of the Customs or Salt may go on board any Vessel, to see if there be any Salt there, &c.

XXIII. And whereas by an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, [Intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties on Salt] Reciting, that great Sums of Money were paid out of the Duties upon Salt on account of Debentures for Salt shipped to be exported to foreign Parts, which Salt was afterwards very often fraudulently reloaded on the Coasts of England and Wales; It is Enacted, That no Salt whatsoever, being of the Produce or Manufacture of England, Wales, Berwick upon Tweed, Scotland, or Ireland, nor any other Salt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Isle of Man, shall, after the first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, be imported or brought into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, nor taken out of any Ship or Vessel, nor put on shore within any of the said Ports or Places, upon Pain that all the Salt so imported or brought in, taken out of any Ship or Vessel, or landed, or put on shore, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; and that the Ship or Vessel in which any such Salt shall be so imported or brought in, or out of which any such Salt shall be taken, or put on shore, together with all her Tackle and Apparel, shall also be forfeited and lost; and every Person that shall take any such Salt out of any such Ship or Vessel, or carry the same on shore, or convey the same from the shore when landed, or be aiding or assisting therein, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, or suffer Six Months Imprisonment: And whereas some Doubts have arisen, whether English Salt, which is not actually exported to Parts beyond the Seas, but only put on board Boats, Barges, Ships, or other Vessels, in order to be exported, be within the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, although the Revenue in such case is liable to as great Frauds: And whereas great Frauds are frequently committed in reloading fish after the same are exported, or shipped to be exported, for want of a sufficient Provision: For preventing thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Salt or Recital of the Salt Act, 2 A. cap. 14.

No Salt, or Fish, after being put on board, to be taken out, or put on shore, but in Presence of a Salt-Officer.

Rock-Salt whatsoever, nor any Herrings, Pilchards, Stacks, Codfish, Ling, Hake, Salmon, or dyed Red Sparrs whatsoever, shall, after the same be put on board any Boat, Barge, Ship, or Vessel whatsoever, in any River, Port, or Place in Great Britain, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, from and after the four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, be taken out of such Boat, Barge, Ship, or Vessel, otherwise than to put such Fish into the Ships in which the same are to be exported, nor put on shore within any of the said Ports or Places, except in the Presence of some Officer of the Salt-Duties, under the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the said last recited Act is directed and appointed.

XXIV. And whereas the Importers of Foreign Salt do frequently run the same on shore, without Entry or Payment of Duty; which evil Practice might in a great Measure be prevented, if more suitable Penalties were provided for discouraging the same: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Foreign Salt shall be landed, or put on shore, before due Entry be made thereof with the Collector or Officer appointed for the said Duties on Salt in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, or before the Duty thereon be fully satisfied and paid, or without a Warrant for the Landing thereof, every Person who shall land, or put the same on shore, or convey the same from the shore when landed, or be aiding or assisting therein, shall, over and above the Penalties already given by Law for such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

On reshipping of Salt, Master, to be sworn, &c.

XXV. And whereas in the Laws relating to the Salt Duties, it is Provided, That Salt shipped to be carried Coastwise from one Port to another, shall not be landed till the Master hath produced a Certificate of the Quantity of Salt put on board at the Port from whence he came, and hath made Oath that there hath not been any Salt taken in since; but there is no Provision made to regulate Boats and Barges that take in Salt to be carried down any River, in order to be put on board any Ship, as aforesaid: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the reshipping any Salt, British or Foreign, or any Rock-Salt, from any Boat, Barge, Crow, Lighter, or other Vessel, into any other Ship or Vessel, and before any Dispatches be granted for the Salt so reshipped, the Master, Mate, Chief Bargeman, or Chief Boatman, that comes along with the Salt that is to be shipped on board another Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer of the Salt-Duties (who is hereby impowered to administer the same) that all the Salt or Rock Salt that he took in or loaded at the Place of Loading (mentioning the Quantity) is truly reshipped on board the Vessel that he shall reship it on, and that there was no Salt or Rock Salt added to it, or taken from it at such Place of Lading, or since he came from it, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, under the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise reshipped, and likewise Ten Shillings per Bushel.

Penalty.

Distribution of Forfeitures.

Exception.

XXVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures given by this Act, or any other Law relating to the Duties upon Salt (except where it is otherwise directed by this Act) shall be distributed in manner following, (that is to say) one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster; and all and every Officer and Officers for the said Duties on Salt, are hereby authorized and impowered to seize all Salt and other things which by this or any other Act or Law relating to the Duties on Salt are declared to be forfeited.

XXVII. And

XXVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, shall at any time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed, in pursuance of this or any other Statute relating to the Duties upon Salt, or the Powers thereby given, he or they shall or may Plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become Nonsuit, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant and Defendants shall have double Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all such several and respective Impositions, Rates, and Duties, for and upon all Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and for and upon every Dwelling-house inhabited, that now is, or hereafter shall be erected or built within the Kingdom of Great Britain, having Twenty Windows or more, as were granted, imposed, continued, or directed by the said Act of the Eighth Year of her said Majesties Reign for the Term of 8 A. cap. 4.
Terms of Years therein mentioned (except as therein is excepted) shall continue, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, for the Purposes in this Act prescribed and directed; and shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner, and Method, and Form, and at such Places, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are mentioned, expressed, or referred unto, in or by the said recited Act of the Eighth Year of her said late Majesties Reign; and that all the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters, and Things whatsoever, contained in the said Act of the Eighth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, or thereby referred unto, now being in force, for raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the said several Impositions, Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, as well upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, as upon Houses having Twenty Windows or more, during the Term or Terms aforesaid (except as is before excepted) shall be revived, and be for ever continued, practised, and put in Execution, for raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the said several Impositions, Rates, and Duties, by this Act intended to be continued and made perpetual, for the Purposes in and by this Act prescribed and directed, in the same manner, and as fully and effectually, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly and at large set down and reenacted in this Act; the said Act of the Eighth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding: Nevertheless the said several Impositions, Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money by this Act intended to be continued and made perpetual, as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Provisions and Powers of Redemption, as are hereafter in and by this Act contained and prescribed of and concerning the same.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising of or for the said Impositions, Rates, and Duties, hereby intended to be continued and made perpetual, subject to such Redemption, as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the same) shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Uses and Purposes in this Act prescribed; and shall, from time to time, be fairly and distinctly entered and registered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, severally, for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all seasonable times, shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

III. And it is hereby also Enacted, That all the Monies which, from and after the said Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, shall be brought into the Exchequer, or shall be then remaining there, of or for the said several Impositions, Rates, and Duties, by this and the said former Act of the Eighth Year of her late Majesties Reign, or either of them, 8 A. cap. 4. granted or continued, as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of issuing and applying the said Monies to the Uses and Purposes by this Act intended and directed, and rendering the Accounts thereof, and after paying or reserving in the Exchequer, Monies sufficient to pay all Arrears of the said Pay-Tickets due, at and for or before the Feast of St. Michael the Arch Angel, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen) shall be and are hereby appropriated, and shall be issued and applied to and for the Satisfaction of such several and respective Payments as are by this Act directed, in their due Order, Method, and Form, and with such Preferences, and subject to such Redemptions, as are in and by this Act prescribed of and concerning the same respectively, and without any Fee or Charge whatsoever, to be demanded of, or paid by the respective Persons or Corporations who are to receive the said Monies; and that the respective Officers of the Exchequer, who shall make any Delay in issuing or paying the same, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies, contrary to this Act, for any such Offence shall be forejudged from their respective Offices or Places, and be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and shall also be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums of Money so delayed, diverted, or misapplied, to the Party grieved; to be recovered by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be granted or allowed.
of,

Penalty on Exchequer-Officers misapplying.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if all the said Lottery Annuities for the said Term of Twenty three Years and Three Quarters of a Year, and all the said Arrearages, computed to amount to One hundred sixty eight thousand seven hundred forty eight Pounds, and five Shillings, as aforesaid, shall not, on or before the said Twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, be subscribed, as aforesaid, to be converted into Stock at the respective Rates aforesaid, pursuant to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, then the said Corporation shall be obliged, by virtue of this Act, to advance and pay into the said Receipt of Exchequer, so much of the said Sum of Seven hundred seventy eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, for the purpose last mentioned, as shall bear Proportion to the Lottery Annuities and Arrearages so to be subscribed at the respective Rates aforesaid, and no more; (that is to say) as the Sum of One million seven hundred twenty one thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, being the computed Value of all the said Lottery Annuities and Arrearages, is to the said Sum of Seven hundred seventy eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, so the Value of the said Lottery Annuities and Arrearages which shall be actually subscribed, being computed at the Rates aforesaid, shall be to the Sum which the said Corporation shall advance, for and towards paying off the said Debts and Incumbrances; and that such of the said Lottery Annuities and Arrearages as shall not be subscribed to be converted into Stock, as aforesaid, on or before the said Twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be paid and payable out of the Produce of the said Duties, at such Times, and in such Manner and Course of Payment, as the same ought to have been paid if this Act had not been made.

If all the Annuities, &c. be not subscribed by 20 June, 1719. Company to advance proportionally to the Annuities subscribed.

Annuities not subscribed to be paid out of the Produce of the Duties.

XV. And whereas by the said Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, for Redeeming the then Fund of the said Corporation, It is Enacted, That if at any time or times the Produce of the Duties and Revenues therein mentioned should be so low or deficient, as that the Money arising thereby at the Exchequer should not extend or be sufficient, according to that Act, to pay and discharge, or to complete the Payment at the end of any Quarter of a Year, of all the Money which should be then due, as well for or upon the above mentioned yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the above mentioned yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, then and so often, and in every such Case, the Deficiency of any such Quarter should and might be supplied out of the Over-

How Deficiencies shall be made good.

plus Monies of the said Duties and Revenues arising in any subsequent Quarter, and in default thereof by the space of Half a Year, then all and every such Deficiency and Deficiencies should be supplied and made good, from time to time, by or out of the General yearly Fund by another Act of that Session of Parliament established, or intended to be established, for redeeming the Duties and Revenues then charged or chargeable in and by several Lottery Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of her said late Majesty's Reign, and certain Annual Payments out of the Hereditary Excise in the said Act of that Session mentioned, or out of Money to be raised at the Exchequer for purchasing an Annuity or Annuities, after a Rate not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for every such Deficiency; which Annuity or Annuities should, by virtue of the said Act, be charged on the said General yearly Fund, and be payable and transferrable at the Bank of England, as other Annuities payable out of the said General yearly Fund, were intended by the said other Act of the said Session to be payable and transferrable until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, as by the said Act of the Third Year of his Majesty's Reign, for redeeming the then Fund of the said Corporation may more fully appear: Now it is hereby further Provided, Declared, and Enacted, That out of the First Payment of the said Sum of Seven hundred seventy eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, or of or for the said proportional Part thereof, to be paid by way of Advance into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, so much as at the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be deficient to make good the Sums then incurred and grown due, for or upon the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and for or upon the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, mentioned in the said former Act, and for and upon the Additional or Encreased yearly Fund and yearly Sum by this Act intended to be paid to the said Company, or such part of the same Deficiencies as shall bear Proportion to the Value of the Lottery Annuities and Arrearages which shall be actually subscribed, as aforesaid, at the Rates before mentioned, pursuant to this Act, shall and may be deducted, defalked, and recouped, for or towards satisfying and making good the said Deficiencies of the said yearly Funds and yearly Sums so growing due, at or before the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and that out of each subsequent Payment of the said Sum of Seven hundred seventy eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, or of or for the said proportional Part thereof, to be paid by way of Advance into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, so much as at and for the Quarter day next preceding the respective times hereby limited, for making those subsequent Payments respectively, shall be deficient to make good the Sums then incurred and grown due, for or upon the said yearly Funds and yearly Sums by this and the said former Act payable to the said Corporation, such Part of the same Deficiencies as shall bear Proportion to the Value of the Lottery Annuities and Arrearages which shall be actually subscribed, as aforesaid, at the Rates before mentioned pursuant to this Act, shall and may be deducted, defalked, and recouped, for or towards satisfying and making good the said Deficiencies of the said yearly Funds and yearly Sums so growing due, at or upon the Quarter day next preceding the respective times by this Act prescribed, for making each subsequent Payment by the said Corporation, as aforesaid.

The Additional
Annuity, &c. to be charged on the Duties on Coals and Houses,

XXI. And it is hereby Enacted, That as well the said Additional Annuity or yearly Fund, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed upon the said Additional Stock, to be adjusted and determined, as aforesaid, as also the said Additional yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds, or such lesser proportional Sum, to be allowed to the said Corporation for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, shall be, and the same, by force and virtue of this Act, are charged and chargeable upon, and made payable out of the Monies, from time to time, arising at the Receipt of

of the Exchequer of or for the said Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and of and for the said Duties on Houses, at such Times, and in such Course, Method, and Form, as are before in this Act prescribed in that behalf.

XXIII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority <sup>How the De-</sup> aforesaid, That if at any time or times after the Twenty fifth day <sup>ficiency of any</sup> of December, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the Pro- <sup>Quarter shall</sup> duce of all the Duties and Revenues by the said Act of the Third <sup>be supplied,</sup> Year of his Majesties Reign, for redeeming the then yearly Fund of the said Corporation, and the Proportion of the Duties and Revenues by the said Act of the Eighth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, granted and continued, and by the said Acts, and this Act, or any of them, appropriated or intended for Payment of the whole united yearly Fund and yearly Sums intended by this and the said last mentioned Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, to be paid to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, shall be so low or deficient in the Payment thereof into the Exchequer, as that the same shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge, or to complete the Payment at the end of any Quarter of a Year, of all the Monies which shall be then due and payable to the said Corporation, as well for and upon the said present yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said yearly Fund of Eight thousand Pounds, as upon the said increased yearly Fund of the said Corporation, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for their Additional Stock, as aforesaid, and for and upon the increased yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds, or a proportional Part thereof, as aforesaid, to be paid for Charges of Management, shall not extend or be sufficient for those purposes, then and so often, and in every such case, the Deficiency of any such Quarrer shall and may be supplied out of the Overplus Monies of the said Duties and Revenues, every or any of them, arising in any subsequent Quarter; and in Default thereof by the Space of Half a Year, then all and every such Deficiency and Deficiencies shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, by or out of the said General yearly Fund by the said other Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, established or intended to be established, as aforesaid, or out of Money to be raised at the Exchequer, for purchasing an Annuity or Annuities after a Rate not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum for every such Deficiency; which Annuity or Annuities shall, by virtue of this Act, be charged on the said General yearly Fund, and be payable and transferrable at the Bank of England, as other Annuities payable out of the said General yearly Fund are intended by the said other Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign to be payable and transferrable, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament; and if at any time or times any such Deficiency shall be paid to the said Corporation by such Annuity or Annuities charged on the said General yearly Fund, the Discount of such Annuity or Annuities which shall be necessary for converting the same into ready Money (if any such Discount shall happen) shall, by order of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Three or more of them, or High Treasurer for the time being, be satisfied to the said Corporation out of the same General yearly Fund, or out of Money to be raised at the Exchequer for purchasing a like Annuity or Annuities at the same Rate, to be charged on the same General yearly Fund, and to be payable and transferrable, as aforesaid, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament: And for the better and more regular Payment of all Monies intended by the said Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, for Redemption of the then yearly Fund of the said Corporation, to be paid to the same, subject nevertheless to such Redemption, as aforesaid, the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the time being, are hereby impowered and required to sign and issue out such Order and Orders for Payment of all such Sum and Sums of Money as by this or the said last mentioned Act are or shall become due and payable to the said Corporation, and also for raising out of and upon the said General yearly Fund established by the said recited Act of the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, so much as shall be requisite and necessary to pay to the said Corporation all such Deficiency and Deficiencies as are in and by this Act directed to be paid to them; and after signing such Order or Orders the same shall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Death or Removal of any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or High Treasurer, or Under Treasurer for the time being, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office, and Offices of them, or any of them; nor shall any Commissioner of the Treasury, or High Treasurer for the time being, have any Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Order or Orders, so signed, as aforesaid.

How the Deficiency of any Year shall be supplied.

XXIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times the Produce of the said Duties on Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and of the said Duties on Houses, shall be so low and deficient as that at the End of any Year (reckoning the same to end at Michaelmas Pearly) the Proportion of the said yearly Fund of One hundred thirty five thousand Pounds, applicable by this Act for or towards the discharging of the said unsubsribed Pay-Tickets then payable, shall not be sufficient for that purpose, then every such Deficiency shall be supplied and made good, from time to time, out of the first Aid to be granted in Parliament, next after such Deficiency shall appear, and shall, from time to time, be transferred thereunto, as soon as the same shall be granted, according to the Purport and true Meaning of the said former Act in that behalf.

All Annual Surplusses to be reserved for the use of the Publick.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Duties on Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and the said Duties on Houses, at the End of any One Year (reckoning the same to end at Michaelmas Pearly) after all the said Pearly and other Sums directed or authorized by this Act, and then or before that time incurred and become due or in Arrear, shall be fully satisfied, paid, and discharged, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that purpose, such Surplus or Remainder, shall, from time to time, be reserved for the Use of the Publick, and shall not be issued or disposed but by Authority of Parliament.

Company to continue a Body Politick :

XXXI. And it is hereby declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, for ever, shall remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the fishery, and shall have, hold, receive, and enjoy the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said Additional yearly Fund, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be added thereunto (by way of Encrease) as aforesaid; and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and the yearly Annuity of Two thousand Pounds, or such proportional Part thereof, as aforesaid, to be added thereunto (by way of Encrease for Management) pursuant to this Act, until the said yearly Funds and yearly Sums shall respectively be redeemed according to this Act; and shall have, hold, and enjoy all their Forts, Factories, Acquisitions, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere, with a perpetual Succession, and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, whereunto the said Governor and Company are, or before the making of this Act, were entitled by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Grant, or Charter, now in force (all which are by this Act ratified, confirmed, and made effectual to them and their Successors) freed and discharged of and from all former Provisions, Powers, Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever, for redeeming, determining, or making void the same, or any of them; subject

And to enjoy all their Privileges, &c.

Subject nevertheless to the several and respective Provisions and Powers of Redemption of the said yearly Funds and yearly Sums hereafter in this Act contained.

XXXII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon one Years Notice to be given by Authority of Parliament, at the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, or at any of the said Quarterly Feast-days after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain of the whole Sum whereof the said Capital Stock of Ten millions, with the said Stock to be added thereunto (by way of Increase, as aforesaid) shall then consist, according to such Notice, without Deduction, Discount, or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any part thereof, and upon Payment of all Arrears of the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and of the said Additional yearly Fund, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be added thereunto by way of Increase, as aforesaid; and of the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and of the said yearly Annuity of Two thousand Pounds, or such proportional Part thereof, as aforesaid, for Management, to be added thereunto, pursuant to this Act, (if any such Arrear or Arrears shall be then due) then the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said Additional yearly Fund, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and the yearly Annuity to be added thereunto by way of Increase for Management, as aforesaid, shall from thenceforth cease and determine.

XXXIII. And in regard it is intended, That after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, the Principal or Sum Total of the said capital or increased Stock of the said Company, consisting of Ten millions, and the Addition to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, may be satisfied to the said Governor and Company by any Payments (not being less than One million of lawful Money of Great Britain at a time) and that as the same Principal Monies shall be paid off, the said yearly Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said Additional yearly Fund after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be added thereunto, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, proportionally sink and be abated: Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times at or after the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, Notice shall be given by Authority of Parliament for Redemption of the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the yearly Fund which shall be added thereunto, as aforesaid, and the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and the Additional Annuity which shall be added thereunto, as aforesaid; and if Payment, according to such Notice, be made by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or their Successors, of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than One million at a time) in part of the Principal Monies whereunto the said Sum of Ten millions, and the Stock to be added thereunto, by virtue of this Act, shall jointly amount; and also if Payment be made of all Arreages then due to them of the said increased yearly Fund and increased yearly Sum, or so much of those Arreages as shall bear a Proportion to the Principal Monies, from time to time, remaining unsatisfied, being computed by the Day until the time of every such Payment of part of the Principal respectively, then, from and after every such Payment so made to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, so much of the said increased yearly Fund (consisting of five hundred thousand Pounds, with such Addition, as aforesaid) as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in part of the said Principal, shall cease and determine,

On One Years Notice after 24 June, 1723, and on Repayment, &c. the yearly Fund of 500000*l.* and the Additional yearly Fund, &c. to cease.

If Notice be given by Parliament after 24 June, 1723, for Redemption, and Payment be made (not less than 1000000*l.* at a time) then so much of the increased Fund shall be abated.

mine, and be abated ; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Redemption, the several Duties, Impositions, &c. shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament :

XXXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Redemption of all the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and of the Additional yearly Fund which is to be joyned to the same, as aforesaid, and of the said yearly Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, and the yearly Sum which is to be added thereunto for Management, as aforesaid, by Payments to be made according to the several and respective Provisoos or Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained of or concerning the same, then, and not till then, the several Duties, Impositions, Additional Impositions, and Revenues, and all proportional Parts of them, or any of them, which are chargeable therewith, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid, or applied to any Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without Authority of Parliament ; nevertheless the said Corporation, by the Name aforesaid, shall for ever remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, and shall have, hold, and enjoy all their Forts, Factories, Acquisitions, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere ; and also all the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that are or shall be by them purchased in Great Britain, not exceeding One thousand Pounds per Annum, with perpetual Succession, and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, whereunto the said Governor and Company are, or before the making this Act were entitled by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Grants, or Charter now in force ; all which are by this Act ratified, confirmed, and made effectual to them and their Successors ; and the said Governor and Company, and the Members thereof, without having any Share or Interest in the said yearly Funds, Payments, or Annuities, or any of them, after the same shall be redeemed, shall have and be entitled to the sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere, and such Power of Trade in the fishery, as by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force is directed, and all other Benefits, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages (the said respective Annuities to them issuing or payable after such Redemption, as aforesaid, only excepted) as if no such Redemption were had or made ; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

But the Corporation shall continue for ever.

XXXV. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by their Speaker in Writing, to be delivered at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, shall be deemed and adjudged to be sufficient Notice within the Words and Meaning of this Act, for redeeming their said yearly Funds or Annuities, pursuant to the Proviso or Provisoos of Redemption in this Act contained, and at the respective time or times therein mentioned ; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Article of Union 14.

Article of Union 15.

MAY it please your most Excellent Majesty, whereas in and Preamble.
by the Sixth Article of the Treaty for the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland (which Treaty was ratified by Acts of Parliament passed in either Kingdom, and particularly by an Act made in England in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, of Blessed Memory) It was provided, That the Customs and Duties on Import and Export, settled in England when the Union commenced, should, from and after the Union, take place throughout the whole united Kingdom, excepting and reserving, as in the said Article is particularly expressed; and in and by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty, It was Provided, That all Parts of the united Kingdom should for ever, from and after the Union, be liable to the same Excises (excepting only that such Beer or Ale as are therein described, should not, after the Union, be liable, upon Account of the then present Excise upon Excisable Liquors in England, to any higher Imposition than Two Shillings Sterling upon Thirty four Gallons English Barrel, being Twelve Gallons the then present Scots Measure;) and it was, by the Article last mentioned, Provided, That the Excise then settled in England upon all other Liquors should, when the Union commenced, take place throughout the whole united Kingdom: And in and by the Fourteenth Article of the said Treaty of Union, It was Provided, That Scotland should not be charged with any Duties laid on by the Parliament of England before the said Union (except such as were consented to in the said Treaty) in regard it was agreed, That all necessary Provision should be made by the then Parliament of Scotland for the Publick Charge and Service of that Kingdom, for the Year One thousand seven hundred and seven; Providing nevertheless, That if the Parliament of England should think fit to lay any further Impositions, by way of Customs, or such Excises, with which, by virtue of the said Treaty, Scotland was to be charged equal with England, in such case Scotland should be liable to the same Customs and Excises, and have an Equivalent to be settled by the Parliament of Great Britain. And whereas by the Terms of the said Treaty the Subjects of Scotland, for preserving an Equality of Trade throughout the United Kingdom, would be liable to several Customs and Excises then payable in England, which would be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England, contracted before the Union, It was by the Fifteenth Article of the said Treaty agreed, That Scotland should have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof should be so charged towards Payment of the said Debts of England in all Particulars whatsoever, in manner therein expressed, (viz.) That before the Union of the said Kingdoms the Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, should be granted to her said Majesty by the Parliament of England for the Uses after mentioned, being the Equivalent to be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the said Customs and Excises upon all excisable Liquors with which that Kingdom was to be charged upon the Union, as would be applicable to the Payment of the said Debts of England, according to the Proportions therein specified:

fied: And in Regard that after the Union, Scotland becoming liable to the same Customs and Duties payable on Import and Export, and to the same Excises on all exciseable Liquors as in England, as well upon that Account, as upon the Account of Increase of Trade and People, the said Revenues would much Improve beyond the Annual Values thereof set down in the said Article, whereof no present Estimate could then be made; yet nevertheless for the Reasons aforesaid, It was thereby Declared, That there ought to be a proportionable Equivalent answered to Scotland: And it was agreed, That after the Union there should be an Account kept of the said Duties arising in Scotland, to the end it might appear what ought to be answered to Scotland as an Equivalent for such Proportion of the said Increase as should be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England: And for the further and more effectual answering the several Ends after mentioned, It was agreed, That from and after the Union, the whole Increase of the Revenues of Customs and Duties on Import and Export, and Excises upon exciseable Liquors in Scotland, over and above the Annual Produce of the said respective Duties as therein stated, should go and be applied for the Term of Seven Years to the Uses after mentioned; and that upon the said Account there should be answered to Scotland annually, from the end of Seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in Proportion to such Part of the said Increase as should be applicable to the Debts of England, and generally that an Equivalent should be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the English Debts as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay by reason of the Union, other than such for which Appropriations had been made by Parliament in England, of the Customs or other Duties on Export and Import, and Excises on all exciseable Liquors, in respect of which Debts the Equivalents were therein before provided; and as to the Uses to which the said Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which were to be answered or allowed to Scotland, as aforesaid, were to be applied, It was by the said Treaty agreed, That in the first Place, out of the aforesaid Sum, what Consideration should be found necessary to be had for any Losses which Private Persons might sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, should be made good; in the next Place, that the Capital Stock or Fund of the then African and Indian Company of Scotland, advanced, together with the Interest for the said Capital Stock, after the Rate of five per Centum per Annum, from the respective times of the Payment thereof, should be paid; upon Payment of which Capital Stock and Interest, It was agreed the said Company should be dissolved and cease: And as to the Overplus of the said Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings (after Payment of what Consideration should be had for Losses in repairing the Coin, and paying the said Capital Stock and Interest) and also the whole Increase of the said Revenues of Customs, Duties, and Excises, above the then present Value which should arise in Scotland, during the said Term of Seven Years, together with the Equivalent which should become due upon the Improvement thereof in Scotland, after the said Term, and also as to all other Sums which according to the Agreements aforesaid, might become payable to Scotland, by way of Equivalent for what that Kingdom should thereafter become liable towards Payment of the Debts of England, It was by the said Article agreed, That the same should be applied in manner following, viz. That all the Publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as should be adjusted by the then present Parliament, should be paid, and that Two thousand Pounds per Annum, for the Space of Seven Years, should be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of Course Wooll within those Shires which produced the Wooll; and afterwards the same should be wholly employed towards encouraging and promoting the fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements

ments in Scotland, as might most Conduce to the General Good of the united Kingdom: And it was agreed, That her Majesty should be impowered to appoint Commissioners, who should be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for disposing the said Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which should arise to Scotland, upon the Agreements aforesaid, to the purposes before mentioned; who should keep their Office within the Limits of Scotland, with such Powers, and be subject to such Directions for keeping Accounts, and performing other Matters and Things, as in the said Fifteenth Article were prescribed. And whereas for preventing all Mistakes or Abuses which might hinder the ready Application of the aforesaid Money to the Proprietors, and others concerned in the Stock of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, conform to the said Article, there was an Act made in the last Session of the last Parliament of Scotland, [Intituled, An Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company] wherein it was Enacted, That the Directors of the said African and Indian Company of Scotland, should make up Accounts of the Sums advanced by the Proprietors of the said Company, and Debts due by the said Company, on the first day of May then next, as therein was prescribed; and in like manner by another Act of the said Parliament of Scotland, [Intituled, An Act concerning the Publick Debts] the Payments to be made on Account of the Publick Debts of Scotland, were adjusted, as in and by the said Treaty of Union, and several Acts before recited or mentioned (amongst other things therein contained) relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear. And whereas the said Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, was paid for and on the Part of England to the Commissioners of the Equivalent in Scotland, pursuant to the aforesaid Articles, and considerable Sums were by them issued out according to the same, and the above recited Acts of Parliament of Scotland, but by Experience it was found that some further Direction was yet necessary for the better Application of what remained of the said Sum unapplied, and all other Sums which were or might become due by virtue of the Agreements aforesaid, and for the more effectual attaining the Ends mentioned in the said Fifteenth Article of the Treaty and Acts above recited; and therefore an Act was made and passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the Sixth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Money] containing Powers and Directions, as by the same, relation being thereunto also had, may more fully appear. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made in the Tenth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, (amongst other things) for obviating Doubts concerning certain Payments in Scotland, It was Enacted, That the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges allowed, or to be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for keeping up the Courts of Session, and Justiciary, and Exchequer Court of Scotland, were and might be chargeable upon any part of the Revenues of Customs and Excise of Scotland, preferable to all other Payments whatsoever, (the Charges of Management excepted) but so as not any way to prevent any Application of the Excise out of the said Customs and Excise appointed by any former Law, as by the same Act (relation being thereunto had) may also more fully appear. And whereas an Act of Parliament of Great Britain was made in the Twelfth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, [Intituled, An Act to discharge and acquit the Commissioners of Equivalent for the Sum of Three hundred eighty one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, by them duly issued out of the Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, which they received] reciting, That the Commissioners for disposing the said Sum of Three hundred ninety eight thousand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, and all other Monies which should arise to Scotland upon the Agreements in the said Treaty of Union, or the major part of them, pursuant to several Commiſſions from her Maſteſty, had well and duly iſſued and paid the Sum of Three hundred eighty one thouſand five hundred and nine Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny, as directed by the Laws in that behalf, in manner therein ſet down (videlicet) towards the Loſs which Private Perſons ſuſtained by reducing the Engliſh Money then in Scotland to the Current Rate in England, the Sum of Three thouſand and ſeventeen Pounds, Eighteen Shillings, and Nine Pence; for reconing the Scots and Foreign Money, and reducing it to the Standard of the Coin of England, the Sum of Forty nine thouſand eight hundred eighty eight Pounds, Fourteen Shillings, and Eleven Pence, One ſixth of a Penny; towards Payment of the Stock, Intereſt, and Debts of the Indian and African Company, the Sum of Two hundred twenty nine thouſand ſix hundred and eleven Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eight Pence; towards the Charges of the Commiſſioners, Secretaries, and Accountants of the Two Treaties of Union, the Sum of Thirty thouſand four hundred ninety eight Pounds, Twelve Shillings, and Two Pence; towards Payment of the Firſt Claſs of the Civil Liſt, the Sum of Twenty ſeven thouſand five hundred fifty three Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, and Nine Pence, One third of a Penny; towards Payment of the Second Claſs of the Civil Liſt, the Sum of Four thouſand ſix hundred fifty five Pounds, and Six Shillings; towards Payment of the Firſt Claſs of the Military Liſt, the Sum of Fourteen thouſand one hundred eighty eight Pounds, and Eight Pence; towards Payment of the Second Claſs of the Military Liſt, the Sum of Fourteen thouſand four hundred fifty eight Pounds, Two Shillings, and Eight Pence, and Five ſixths of a Penny; for the Fees and Salaries of the Servants of the Commiſſion till the Fourteenth of March, and Thirtieth of April then laſt paſt, the Sum of five thouſand four hundred and thirteen Pounds, Eleven Shillings, and Four Pence; for the neceſſary Charges of the Commiſſion, and for defending of Law Suits where the Titles of Parties were not Clear (choſe Charges preceding the Six and twentieth day of March then laſt paſt) the Sum of Two thouſand two hundred twenty four Pounds, Six Shillings, and Ten Pence, One ſixth of a Penny: And it was thereby Declared, That the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Equivalent ſhould be acquitted of the ſeveral Sums above ſet down, amounting in the whole to the ſaid Sum of Three hundred eighty one thouſand five hundred and nine Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny; Providing nevertheless, That nothing therein contained ſhould free them from applying the Sum of Sixteen thouſand five hundred ſeventy five Pounds, Fourteen Shillings, and One Penny Half-penny, being the Balance of the ſaid Three hundred ninety eight thouſand and eighty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, then remaining in their Hands, together with what other Sums were or might become due and payable to them, to ſuch Uſes, and for ſuch Purpoſes, as the former Acts therein mentioned did appoint and direct: And it appearing, that the other Publick Debts of Scotland then unſatisfied, which were adjuſted and certified, pursuant to the Directions of the ſeveral Acts therein recited, did then amount to the Sum of Two hundred and thirty thouſand three hundred and eight Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Ten Pence, Five ſixths of a Penny, including the Intereſt of ſuch Parts thereof as bore Intereſt from the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, to the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fourteen, It was thereby Enacted, That it might and ſhould be lawful for the Commiſſioners of Equivalent for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they were thereby directed and required forthwith to call for and receive all the Certificates and other Warrants, and receive and cancel all the Debentures for which the Debt aforeſaid, amounting to the Sum of Two hundred and thirty thouſand three hundred and eight Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Ten Pence, Five ſixths of a Penny, was constituted and established, and Issue out New Debentures devisable, and transferrable, as the former Debentures were for the said Sum, to the several Persons proportionally and respectively entitled thereto: Which New Debentures are thereby Enacted to bear Interest from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that such Interest shall be paid out of the first and readiest of the Monies which either were or should become due to Scotland by way of Equivalent, according to the Agreements in the Treaty of Union above recited, and the Principal according to the Order and Preferences mentioned in the Fifteenth Article of the said Treaty, and several Laws and Acts therein mentioned, as by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, relation being thereunto had, may also more fully appear. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made and passed in the first Year of your Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent in the Terms of the Union; and for relief of the Creditors of the Publick in Scotland, and the Commissioners of the Equivalent] your Majesty was impowered to appoint Commissioners for taking, examining, and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland by way of Equivalent, and Provision was thereby made for Payment of a Sum not exceeding fifteen thousand eight hundred twenty two Pounds, Eight Shillings, and Seven Pence Three Farthings, to the Commissioners of Equivalent in Scotland, or any Persons appointed by them, or any Two of them, out of the Monies arisen or to arise by the said Revenues of Customs and Excise of Scotland, or either of them, for the Payment of One Years Interest (videlicet) from the Twenty third of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, to the Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, of the Capital Sum of Two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Ten Pence, and five sixths of a Penny, stated due to the Creditors of the Publick in Scotland, on the Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, pursuant to the said Act of the Twelfth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, and for Payment of the Salaries of the said Commissioners of Equivalent, and of the Fees and Salaries of their Servants, and necessary Charges, from the said Twenty third of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, to the Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen; and by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made in the Third Year of your Majesties Reign, for continuing the Act last before recited, the Powers given to your Majesty, for appointing Commissioners for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent in the Terms of the Union, were continued for the Term therein mentioned; and by the Act last mentioned, the Commissioners of your Majesties Treasury were impowered (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay the Civil Establishment in Scotland, authorized by the said Act of the Tenth Year of her late Majesties Reign) to cause Payment of a Sum not exceeding Thirty one thousand five hundred sixty five Pounds, Two Shillings, and five Pence Half-penny, to the Commissioners of the Equivalent in Scotland, out of the Monies arisen or to arise out of any the Customs, Duties, Excises, or Revenues, under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs and Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or either of them, for Payment of Two Years Interest of the said Capital Sum of Two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Ten Pence, and five sixths of a Penny, and of Eighteen thousand two hundred forty one Pounds, Ten Shillings, and Ten Pence, and Two thirds of a Penny, stated due to William Paterson Esq; by an Act of the First Year of your Majesties Reign, from the Twenty third of June, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, to the Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and for Payment of the Salaries of the the Commissioners of Equivalent, and of the Fees and Salaries of their Servants, and the necessary Charges of the Office for the said Two Years; Providing nevertheless, That the Commissioners of the Equivalent of Scotland for the time being, should secure and retain in their Hands the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds Sterling, appointed by the said Fifteenth Article of the Union, for the Encouragement of the Manufacture of Course Wooll, in such Shires where the same was or should be produced, to be applied for the Benefit of the said Manufacture, and the Wooll-Washers, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever, as by the Two Acts last before recited may also more fully appear; which several Sums for Payment of Interest, Salaries, and Charges, were issued to the said Commissioners of Equivalent accordingly. And whereas by reason of many Doubts arising in the Construction of the said Fifteenth Article of the said Treaty, and other Laws relating to the Extinction of the said Equivalent, and to the growing Equivalent due and becoming due to Scotland, and by reason of the many Difficulties which attend separating and distinguishing between Debts incurred before the Union, and Debts incurred for Service of the United Kingdom (both which have without Distinction been provided for since the Union) the Commissioners for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent, have not been able to adjust the Accounts thereof for the time past, and are like to meet with insuperable Difficulties therein for the future, during so long time as the same is to continue in the Terms of the said Treaty, although the making or endeavouring to make such Accounts is attended with an excessive Charge to the Publick, and may occasion great Alterations and Discontents in the United Kingdom: For obviating whereof, we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, as we think it just and reasonable, so we also judge it to be most conducive to the Publick Quiet and Tranquillity, that in lieu and full Discharge of all Equivalents whatsoever, that might hereafter be demanded from England, or the United Kingdom, upon the Foot of the said Treaty, such certain Annuities or yearly Funds and other Provisions may be settled and established for the Satisfaction of those interested or concerned in the Honies which were expected to arise from the said Equivalents, as are hereafter in this Act expressed; and do therefore humbly pray your Majesty, That it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That Pearly and every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the full Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, shall be One yearly Fund, and the full Sum of Two thousand Pounds, of like Moneys, shall be another yearly Fund, for the several Purposes in this Act expressed concerning the same yearly Funds respectively; and that the said yearly Funds shall continue and be payable for ever, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament, according to the respective Provisions herein after contained in that behalf; and that the said several Annuities or yearly Funds, during the Continuance thereof respectively, shall be charged and chargeable upon, and be payable and paid out of the Honies arisen and to arise, from time to time, of or for any the Customs, Duties, Excises, or Revenues, that are or shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs and Commissioners of the Excise in Scotland, or either of them, or of any Commissioners, Farmers, or Managers of those Revenues, or any of them, for the time being, which shall, from time to time, remain, after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay, the Charges of managing the said Revenues, and of keeping up the said Three Courts, and other Charges of the Civil Government in Scotland, pursuant to such Establishment or Establishments as are are or shall be made in that behalf, and with Preference to all Payments whatsoever, other than those Charges, and other than such Drawbacks and Allowances, as are or shall be settled by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be made out of the said Revenues, or any of them.

II. And it is hereby Enacted, That in case the Produce of the said Customs, Duties, Ecclesies, or Revenues, shall at any time or times appear to be so Low or Deficient, as that there should not be sufficient thereof to satisfy the said Annuities or yearly Funds of Ten thousand Pounds, and Two thousand Pounds, or either of them, when the same shall become due, then, and so often, and in every such case, the Deficiencies thereof shall and may be satisfied and made good by or out of any other Revenues in Scotland, which were introduced by virtue of the said Treaty of Union, or to which the Subjects of Scotland are or shall be liable, other than such Revenues as are expressly appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any Act or Acts of Parliament of Great Britain, made since the said Act for confirming the said Treaty of Union.

III. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Annuities or Funds of Ten thousand Pounds, and Two thousand Pounds per Annum, shall be paid and payable at the Four most usual Feasts in the Year, that is to say, the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annuntiation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, by even and equal Portions, until the Redemption of the same respectively, according to the respective Provisions herein after contained in that behalf; the first Payment thereof to be due, and accounted due and payable at the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and that the said several Annuities or yearly Funds, and every part thereof, shall be free from all Taxes, or Publick Charges and Impositions whatsoever, laid or to be laid thereupon by Authority of Parliament.

IV. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer of Great Britain, and the Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the time being, shall, and they respectively are hereby impowered, and strictly enjoyned and required to issue their Warrants and Orders for making the Payments of the said Annuities or yearly Funds, from time to time, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; and that the Payments thereof shall be made by the proper Commissioners or Officers, from time to time, without any Fees or Charges whatsoever to be demanded or taken for paying the same; and if any Commissioner, Receiver-General, Officer, or other Person or Persons, who shall have in his or their Hands any the Monies, which, in pursuance of this Act, shall be ordered or appointed for Payment of the said Annuities or yearly Funds, or either of them, shall divert or misapply the same, or any part thereof, contrary to the tenor and true meaning of this Act, then every such Commissioner, Receiver-General, Officer, or Person, for such Offence shall be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit, and be liable to pay double the Value of the Money so diverted or misapplied, to the Use of the Corporation which shall be erected in pursuance of this Act, for the Benefit of the Creditors of Scotland; and to be recovered by Action of Debt, or of the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the said Court of Exchequer of Scotland, wherein no Escoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imprudence shall be granted or allowed.

X. And it being just and reasonable that the Interest due on the said Debts, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Thye and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, until the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, to-

if the Produce of those Duties prove deficient, then to be made good out of any other Revenues in Scotland introduced by the Union, not appropriated.

These Funds to be paid quarterly till redeemed, and free from Taxes.

Treasury to issue their Warrants for Payment of the said Funds.

C A P. XXI.

An Act for the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesties Subjects to and from the East-Indies; and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesties Subjects Trading thither under Foreign Commissions.

Whereas it is of great Importance to the Welfare of this Kingdom, That the Trade and Traffick to and from the East Indies in the Countries and Parts of Asia and Africa, and to and from such Places of Asia, Africa, and America, or any of them, beyond the Cape of Bona Esperanza to the Straights of Magellan, where any Trade or Traffick of Merchandize is or may be used or had, be regulated according to the Acts of Parliament relating thereto, and the Royal Charters or Grants made in pursuance thereof: And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, It is Enacted and Provided, That the said East-Indies, or the Islands, Havens, Ports, Cities, Towns, or Places, within the Limits aforesaid, should not be visited, frequented, or haunted, by any of the Subjects of his Majesty, other than such as might lawfully go and Trade there; and that if any of the Subjects of his said late Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of what Degree or Quality soever, other than such as might or may lawfully go and trade to the East-Indies, or other the Parts in the same Act mentioned, by virtue thereof, should directly or indirectly, visit, haunt, frequent, trade, traffick, or adventure into or from the said East-Indies, or other the Parts aforesaid, all and every such Offender and Offenders should incur such Forfeitures and Losses as in the said Act is and are for that purpose appointed: And it is also Provided by the same Act, and by subsequent Laws, That all the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, to be laden upon any Ship or Ships bound from the said East-Indies, or Parts within the Limits aforesaid, should be brought, without breaking Bulk, to some Port of Great Britain, and there be unladen, and put on Land; notwithstanding which just and reasonable Provisions and Restrictions, several of his Majesties Subjects, not entitled under the said Acts of Parliament, have presumed to trade into and visit the said East-Indies, and other the Places aforesaid, in Fo-resign and other Ships, intending there to load Goods, and to bring them into Europe, and land them in Foreign Parts out of his Majesty's Dominions, to the great Prejudice of the Trade of this Kingdom, and the Diminution of his Majesty's Customs and other Duties: All which Practices being considered, his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, then Guardian of the Realm of Great Britain, and his Majesty's Lieutenant within the same, was pleased on the Eighteenth day of October, which was in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, to issue forth a Proclamation (amongst other things) strictly charging and commanding all his Majesty's Subjects not to serve on board any Foreign or other Ships, with Foreign Commissions and Colours, bound to or from the East-Indies, or any the Parts aforesaid; or directly or indirectly to visit, haunt, frequent, trade, traffick, or adventure, into or from the said East-Indies, or other the Parts before mentioned, contrary to Law: But notwithstanding the Prohibitions contained in the said Acts of Parliament and Proclamation, and in Defiance of the same, several Evil-disposed Persons have gone on to procure and obtain several Foreign Commissions or Passes, and under Colour thereof, or otherwise, have fitted out and manned several English and other Ships or Vessels, and have sailed with, or sent out the same to trade and traffick in the East-Indies, or other the Parts aforesaid: Now to the intent that such Collusive, fraudulent, and Illegal Trade and Practices may be prevented, and that so considerable and beneficial a Branch of Trade may be secured to this Kingdom: Be it Enacted and Declared by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any of his Majesty's Subjects shall, from and after the Twentieth day of February, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, sail, go, or repair to, or be in the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid, or any of them, contrary to the Laws now in being, or contrary to the Tenor of this Act, every such Person and Persons so offending, shall be liable to such Punishment as by any Law or Laws now in being may be inflicted for such Offence.

Proclamation
18 Oct. 1716.

Any of his Majesty's Subjects being in the East-Indies, contrary to Law, liable to Punishment.

East-India Company may Arrest any such Person within their Limits, and send him to England.

II. And to the Intent that such Offender and Offenders may be brought to Justice, It is hereby Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and their Successors, to take, arrest, and seize, or cause to be taken, arrested, and seized, such Person or Persons, being a Subject or Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, at any Place or Places, or where he or they shall be found within the Limits or Places aforesaid; and the Person and Persons so taken, arrested, and seized, to send and remit to England, there to answer for the Offence aforesaid, according to due Course of Law.

No Person to act under any Foreign Commission in East-India.

III. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who, from and after the Fifth day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, shall procure, solicit for, obtain, or act under any Commission, Authority, or Pass from any Foreign Prince, State, or Potentate whatsoever, to sail, or go, or trade in or to the East-Indies, or any the Parts aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so offending herein, shall incur and forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Penalty 500*l*.

Penalties how to be sued for, and distributed.

IV. And it is hereby Enacted, That all the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall or may be sued for and recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwise, wherein no Essoign, Wager of Law, or Protection, shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparllance; one Half-part of which said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of such Person or Persons as will inform or sue for the same, and the other Half-part to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

V. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed, deemed, or taken to extend, to restrain or prejudice such Trade or Right of Trade or Navigation within any part of the Limits aforesaid, as the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, now are entitled unto; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby Enacted, That this Act shall continue in force for Five Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Not to prejudice the South-Sea Company.

or enticing Artificers to go out of his Majesty's Dominions, how to persuade, or solicit any Manufacturer or Artificer of or in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or any other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer or Manufacturer of Great Britain, to go out of this Kingdom into any foreign Country out of his Majesty's Dominions, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, upon any Indictment or Information which shall be preferred or brought against him or them in any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes, or General Goal-Delivery, or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, for the County, Riding, or Division where such Offence shall be committed, the Person and Persons so convicted shall be fined any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds for such First Offence, according to the Discretion of the Court in which such Conviction shall be, and shall be imprisoned for the Space of Three Months, and until such Fine shall be paid; and if any Person or Persons, having been once convicted, as aforesaid, shall offend again, and be so convicted a Second time of the like Offence, then, and in such Case, the Person so convicted a Second time, shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court where such Conviction shall be, and be imprisoned for Twelve Months, and until such fine shall be paid.

shall be fined not exceeding 100 l. for the First Offence, and be imprisoned for 3 Months, and for the Second Offence, at the Discretion of the Court, and be imprisoned for 12 Months.

Prosecution to be within 12 Months.

II. Provided nevertheless, That no Person or Persons shall be prosecuted for any of the Offences aforesaid, unless such Prosecution shall be begun within the Space of Twelve Months next after such Offence shall be committed.

Artificers going into any Foreign Country to use or teach any Manufactures to Foreigners,

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of his Majesty's Subjects within this Kingdom, being such Artificer or Manufacturer, as aforesaid, shall, at any time after the first day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, go into any Country out of his Majesty's Dominions, there to use or exercise, or to teach any of the said Trades or Manufactures to foreigners, or in case any of his Majesty's Subjects now being, or who hereafter shall be in any such foreign Country out of his Majesty's Dominions, as aforesaid, and there using or exercising any of the said Trades or Manufactures herein before mentioned, shall not Return into this Realm within Six Months next after Warning shall be given to him by the Ambassador, Envoy, Resident, Minister, or Consul of the Crown of Great Britain, in the Country in which such Artificer shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, Envoy, Resident, Minister, or Consul, or by One of his Majesty's Secretaries of State for the time being, and from thenceforth continually inhabit and dwell within this Realm, then, and in such Case, every such Person or Persons shall be from thenceforth incapable of taking any Legacy that shall be devised to him within this Kingdom, or of being an Executor or Administrator to any Person or Persons within this Kingdom, and shall be incapable of taking any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and also forfeit all his Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, and Chattels, within this Kingdom, to his Majesty's Use, and shall from thenceforth be, and be deemed and taken to be an Alien, and shall be out of his Majesty's Protection.

not returning in 6 Months after Warning by Ambassador, &c.

Incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor, or of taking any Lands, &c. and to be deemed an Alien.

On Complaint upon Oath that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any Artificer, Justices to grant their Warrants,

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, upon Complaint made upon Oath before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, that any Person or Persons is or are endeavouring to seduce or draw away any such Manufacturer or Artificer, as aforesaid, out of his Majesty's Dominions, for any the Purposes aforesaid, or that any such Manufacturer or Artificer, as aforesaid, hath contracted, promised, or is preparing to go out of his Majesty's Dominions, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices of the Peace, unto whom such Complaint shall be made, to send forth his Warrant to bring the Person and Persons so complained of before him or them, or some other of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division,

Division, or City; and if when such Person or Persons shall be so brought before such Justice or Justices, it shall appear to such Justice or Justices, by the Oath or Oaths of One or more Credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Party or Parties so brought before him or them, that the Party so complained of was guilty of any of the said Offences, then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice and Justices to bind the Person so charged to appear at the next Assizes, General Goal-Delivery, or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, for the County, City, Riding, or Division, where such Offence shall be committed, to answer the Premises, with reasonable Sureties for such his Appearance; and in case such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to give such Security, then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice and Justices to commit the Person or Persons so refusing to the County Goal, there to be kept until the next Assizes, or next Quarter-Sessions of the County, City, Riding, or Division, where such Commitment shall be, at the Election of such Justice of the Peace, and until he, she, or they shall be delivered by due Course of Law; and in case any such Artificer or Manufacturer shall be convicted upon any Judgment to be preferred against him at such Assizes, or General Goal-Delivery, or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, as aforesaid, of any such Promise or Contract, or Preparation to go abroad beyond the Seas, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, then, and in such Case, the Person so convicted shall give such Security to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, not to depart out of his Majesty's Dominions for any the Purposes aforesaid, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned until such Security shall be given.

and may bind him over to the next Assizes, &c.

On Conviction Party to give Security not to depart out of the Realm, and to be committed till Security given.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the above mentioned Offences shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary, or the Circuits there.

XXXV. And it is hereby Enacted, That the said Sums amounting to Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence per Annum, and such further Sums for Charges of Management (when, and as they shall be added thereunto) shall, from time to time, be paid and payable to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, at such Times, and in such Manner and Form as their present Annuity or yearly Fund, and the said Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, are by this Act appointed to be paid and payable, till the same Annuities and yearly Funds shall be redeemed according to this Act; and that as well the said Sums amounting to Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence per Annum, as the said further Sums to be allowed for Charges of Management, shall be charged upon and payable out of the particular Duties, Revenues, and Incomes by this Act charged or intended to be charged to and with the Payment of the said present Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, and of the said several Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And for better securing to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, all the Pay.

Payments intended to be made to them, by virtue of in pursuance of this Act: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the above mentioned Duties and Revenues whatsoever by this Act charged, or intended to be charged to or with the Payment of the Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, and the Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, and to or with the Payment of the said yearly Sum of Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence, and the Additions for Charges of Management to be made thereunto, as aforesaid (whether the same Duties or Revenues, or any of them, be such as were granted in Perpetuity by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or be continued in Perpetuity by virtue of this Act) shall, from time to time, be raised, levied, and collected, and all the Monies arising thereby (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, and paying the same into the Exchequer in England) shall, from time to time, be brought and paid into the same Exchequer by and according to the Rules, Methods, and Directions, and with such Drawbacks, Repayments, and Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are prescribed by the said former Act or Acts of Parliament respectively, or referred unto by this Act, for raising, levying, collecting, or bringing in the same, as fully and effectually, as if the same Rules, Methods, Directions, Drawbacks, Repayments, Allowances, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and every of them, were in and by this Act particularly repeated and reenacted: and that all the Monies which shall be so brought into the said Receipt, from time to time, of or for the said Duties and Revenues respectively, shall be fairly and distinctly entered and registered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the said Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells severally for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned at all reasonable times shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

All the Duties and Revenues charged with the Companies yearly Fund, &c. to be brought into the Exchequer, according to the Directions of the former Acts, to be entered in Books by the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells.

XXXVII. And it is hereby also Enacted, That the said Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells for the time being, shall severally keep one other Book, in which shall be entered distinctly and separately so much of such Proportions of the said Monies, so coming, from time to time, into the said Receipt of Exchequer, as by the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall be applicable or ought to be applied for or towards the Payment of the said present Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, and the Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, at the respective Rates before mentioned, and for or towards the Payment of their said yearly Sum of Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence, for Charges of Management, and the Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, until such Redemption, as aforesaid: which Monies for that purpose shall be kept apart from other Monies whatsoever, payable into the said Receipt.

One other Book to enter distinctly so much of the Monies as ought to be applied to the Companies yearly Fund, and the Additions to be made thereto, and for Charges of Management.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby also Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which shall or ought to be so separated and kept apart for the said Purposes in this Act expressed, shall be and are hereby appropriated, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of such Sum and Sums of Money as, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall, from time to time, be due or payable to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or their Successors (subject nevertheless to such Reduction and Redemption, as are in and by this Act prescribed touching the same) and to none other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever; and that the respective Officers in the Exchequer, who shall make any wilful Delay in issuing or paying the same, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies contrary to this Act, for any such Offence, shall be forejudged of their respective Offices or Places, and be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and shall also be liable to pay double the Deficiency to be made good out of the Overplus in any subsequent Quarter.

XLI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times the Monies which shall be brought into the Exchequer, and be set apart, as aforesaid, for making the Payments by this Act appointed and intended to be made to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, as aforesaid (which Monies are by this Act appropriated for or towards that Use and Purpose) shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge, or complete the Payment at the End of any Quarter of a Year of all the Monies which shall be then due for or upon their said present Annuity or yearly Fund, and the said Additions to be made thereunto, and for and upon the said yearly Sum of Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence, for Charges of Management, and the Additions to be made to the same, as aforesaid, then, and so often, and in every such Case, the Deficiency of any such Quarter shall and may be supplied out of the Overplus Monies to arise and to be set apart, as aforesaid, in any subsequent Quarter.

Annuities not taken in, shall continue to be paid at the former Offices, and shall be transferrable, &c. as if this Act had not been made.

XLII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Annuities and Debts as shall not be taken in by Purchase or Subscription, or be paid off by or in pursuance of this Act, and the Interest Monies payable for the same Debts, shall severally continue to be paid, and shall be payable to the respective Proprietors thereof, their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, at the same respective Offices and Places, and out of the same Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, and at such Time and Times, and shall be assignable, transferrable, and disposable in the same manner and form as those Annuities and Debts, or the Interest of such Debts, are now payable, assignable, transferrable, or disposeable by the respective Acts or Statutes now in force concerning the same, and as if this present Act had never been made: And that this Act, or any Clause, Matter or Thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to interrupt, delay, or prejudice, at any time before or after the said first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, the receiving, assigning, transferring, or disposing the said Annuities or Debts, or the Interest of such Debts not taken in or paid off by virtue of this Act, as aforesaid, in any manner of wise; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding (except as is herein before otherwise provided and directed, relating to the stopping or delaying the assigning and transferring the Annuities or Shares in Stock for the same, now transferrable at the Publick Office of the Bank of England.)

Corporation shall continue for ever, and shall enjoy their increased Funds till the Redemption thereof,

LVII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, for ever shall remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the fishery; and shall have, hold, receive, and enjoy the said Annuity or yearly Fund of five hundred eighty seven thousand three hundred forty two Pounds, Four Shillings, and five Pence, and the said Annuities or yearly Funds which, pursuant to this Act, shall or ought to be added thereunto by way of Increase, as aforesaid, and the said yearly Sum of Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence, and the said yearly Sums to be added thereunto (by way of Increase for Management) pursuant to this Act, until the said Annuities and yearly Funds, and the said yearly Sums respectively shall be redeemed according to this Act; and shall have, hold, and enjoy for for ever, all their Forts, Factories, Acquisitions, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South Seas, and elsewhere, with a perpetual Succession; and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, whereto the same Governor and Company are, or before the making of this Act were entitled by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Grant or Charter now in force (all which are by this Act ratified, confirmed, and made effectual to them and their Successors) freed and discharged of and from all former Provisions, Powers, Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever, for redeeming, determining, or making void the same, or any of them; subject nevertheless to the Provisions and Powers herein after contained for redeeming the said present Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, and all Additions to be made thereunto, and the said yearly Sum of Nine thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence, for Charges of Management, and all Additions to be made thereunto, at such Time or Times, and in such Manner and Form, as are herein after specified in that behalf.

LVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or their Successors, of the whole Sum whereof their said Capital Stock, with all the Additions which (for taking in the said Annuities, Debts and Incumbrances) are to be made thereunto by way of Increase, as aforesaid, shall then consist, according to this Act, without any Deduction, Descalcation, or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any part thereof, and upon Payment of all Arrears which shall be then due at the respective Rates aforesaid, or either of them, for or upon the then Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, to be increased, as aforesaid, and upon Payment of all Arrears of the said yearly Sums for Charges of Management; all which Arrears (if any such be) shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast day then next preceeding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day, till the time of such full Payment made of the Capital Stock, to be increased, as aforesaid, then the said Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, payable as aforesaid, and the said Annuities or yearly Funds which shall be added thereunto pursuant to this Act, and the said yearly Sums to be allowed for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, and every of them, shall from thenceforth cease and determine.

After 24 June, 1727. on Repayment of the whole Capital Stock, &c. yearly Fund, &c. to cease.

LIX. And in regard it is intended that at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred twenty seven, the Principal or Sum Total of the said Capital and to be increased Stock of the same Governor and Company, consisting of Eleven millions seven hundred forty six thousand eight hundred forty four Pounds, Eight Shillings, and Ten Pence, and the Additions to be made thereunto, as aforesaid, may be satisfied to the said Governor and Company, by any Payments (not being less than One million of lawful Money of Great Britain at a time;) and that as the same Principal Money shall be paid off, the said Annuity or yearly Fund of the same Governor and Company, and the Annuities or yearly Funds to be added thereunto, as aforesaid, shall from time to time proportionably sink and be abated: Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or their Successors, of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than One million at a time) in part of the Principal

After 24 June, 1727. on Payment of any Sum, not less than 1000000 l. a proportionable part of the Annuities shall cease.

Monies whereunto the said Capital with all the Additions, which, for taking in the said Annuities, Debts and Incumbrances, are to be made thereunto, by way of Increase, as aforesaid, shall then jointly amount according to this Act, and upon Payment of all Arrearages then due to them at the respective Rates aforesaid, or either of them, for or upon their said Annuity or yearly Fund increased, or to be increased, as aforesaid, or so much of those Arrearages as shall bear a Proportion to the Principal Sums, from time to time, remaining unsatisfied, being computed by the Day, until the time of every such Payment of part of the Principal respectively; and upon Payment of all Arrearages then due, for or upon the said yearly Sums for Charges of Management; then from and after every such Payment so made to the same Governor and Company, or their Successors, so much of their said Annuity or yearly Fund, increased, or to be increased, as aforesaid, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine, and be abated; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other matter or thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Redemption of the Annuities, the Duties to be understood to be redeemed by Parliament.

LX. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Redemption of the said Annuity or yearly Fund of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and of the Additional Annuities or yearly Funds which are to be joyned to the same, as aforesaid, and of the said yearly Sums to be paid for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, according to the several and respective Provisions or Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained, of or concerning the same, then and not till then, so much of the said several Duties, Revenues and Incomes as were by this Act applicable thereunto during the Continuance thereof, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid, or applied, to any Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without Authority of Parliament: Nevertheless the same Corporation by the Name aforesaid, shall for ever remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, and shall have, hold, and enjoy, all their Forts, Factories, Acquisitions, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, sole Benefit of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere, and also all the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments that are or shall be by them purchased in Great Britain, not exceeding One thousand Pounds per Annum, with perpetual Succession, and all Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, whereunto the said Governor and Company are, or before the making this Act, were entitled by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Grants or Charter now in force; all which, and all the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, now being in force, are by this Act ratified, confirmed, and made effectual to them and their Successors; and the same Governor and Company, and the Members thereof, without having any Share or Interest in the said yearly Funds, Payments, or Annuities, or any of them, after the same shall be redeemed, shall have and be entitled to the sole and exclusive Benefits of Trade in and to the South-Seas, and elsewhere, and such Power of Trade in the Fishery, as by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force is directed, and all other Benefits, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages (the said respective Annuities to them issuing or payable after such Redemption, as aforesaid, only excepted) as if no such Redemption were had or made; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

But the Corporation to continue for ever.

All things by any former Acts or Charter granted, to continue for ever.

LXI. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Exemptions, Franchises, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, and all Pains of Death, and other Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and all Rules, Directions, Methods, Articles, Matters and Things whatsoever, which by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Clause or Clauses therein, or any Charter or Charters under the Great Seal of Great Britain,

Britain,

Britain, are enacted, granted, or established, to, for, touching, or concerning the same Corporation of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, or their Successors, or the Members of the same, or any Person or Persons employed or to be employed under them (being in force at or until the time of making this Act, and not hereby determined or altered) shall for ever continue and be practised, and put in Execution, for securing and paying the yearly Funds, Annuities, and Payments by this Act directed, and subject to the Provisoers for Redemption thereof in this Act contained, and also (as well after such Redemption as before) for securing the Possessions, Trade, and Business of the same Corporation, and for the Advantage of them, and all Persons employed, or to be employed under them, in all respects, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Exemptions, Franchises, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages, and the said Pains of Death, and other Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, and the said Benefit of Trade, Rules, Directions, Methods, Articles, Matters, and Things, were severally repeated, and at large re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

LXII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall obstruct or hinder, or be construed to obstruct or hinder the Payment of any part of the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, settled during his Majesties Life (which God long Preserve) for Support of his Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of his Crown; or any part of the Annuities granted by his Majesty to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or his Trustees, out of the same, pursuant to Acts of Parliament in that behalf: or to obstruct or hinder the Payment of the yearly Sum of four thousand Pounds payable by any Act or Acts of Parliament, out of part of the said Aggregate Fund, to Sheriffs of England, and Wales, for defraying the Charges of taking forth their Letters Patents for their respective Offices and passing their several Accounts, and obtaining their Quietuses; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to hinder the Payment of 700000 l. per Annum to his Majesty, or the Annuities to the Prince of Wales, or the 4000 l. per Annum for Sheriffs Charges.

LXVI. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted, That if the Sub-Governor, Deputy Governor, the Directors, Managers, Assistants, or other Members of the said Corporation of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South-Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, shall upon the Account of the said Corporation, at any time or times, purchase any Lands or Revenues belonging to the Crown, or advance or lend to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, any Sum or Sums of Money, by way of Loan or Anticipation, on any Part or Parts, Branch or Branches, Fund or Funds of the Revenues now granted or belonging, or hereafter to be granted or belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, other than such Fund or Funds, Part or Parts, Branch or Branches of the said Revenues only on which a Credit of Loan is or shall be granted by Parliament, that then the said Sub-Governor, Deputy Governor, Directors, Managers, or Assistants, or other Members of the said Corporation, who shall consent, agree to, or approve of the Advancing or Lending to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, such Sum or Sums of Money, as aforesaid, and each and every of them, so agreeing, consenting, or approving, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall for every such Offence, forfeit treble the Value of every such Sum or Sums of Money so lent: whereof One fifth part shall be to the Informer, to be recovered in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law, Escoign, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparliament, and the Residue to be disposed of towards Publick Uses as shall be directed by Parliament, and not otherwise.

Company not to purchase Crown-Lands, or lend Money to the Crown by way of Anticipation.

Penalty for so doing.

LXVIII. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Third Year of his Majesties Reign, the Monies to arise, from <sup>Geo. cap. 9.</sup> time to time, by certain Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplus Monies, therein specified, were appropriated for discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances as were incurred before the five and twentieth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and were declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act of Parliament in such Manner and Form as should be directed or appointed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith or out of the same; which Monies so arising by the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplus Monies, are commonly called the Sinking Fund, and the said Fund commonly so called the Sinking Fund, is like to be very much increased, in consequence of this present Act, by taking in several of the above mentioned Annuities and Debts, and settling (in lieu thereof) upon the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, Additions to their present Annuity or yearly Fund at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until and for the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred twenty and seven; and afterwards at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till Redemption thereof according to this Act: Now it is hereby further Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the Monies as at any time or times before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred twenty seven, shall arise by the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplus Monies, with the said Increase thereof, as shall or may remain in the Exchequer after discharging so much as remains unsatisfied of the Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, mentioned in an Act of the Fifth Year of his Majesties Reign for cancelling such Exchequer Bills as are therein specified, and after discharging such Payments as shall be charged or chargeable on the said Sinking Fund, or the Increase thereof, by any other Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament, and after paying off such Publick Debts and Incumbrances carrying Interest or an Annuity after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any higher Interest or Annuity, founded upon any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalf (not being part of the Capital Stock or Fund of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain) as may be redeemed before the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred twenty and seven, shall and may be applied, at the end of every Year, so far as such Remainder of the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplus Monies will, from time to time, extend, by even Sums of One hundred thousand Pounds at a time, for or towards paying off part of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, which shall carry the said Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and upon every such Payment a proportional part of their Annuity or yearly Fund, payable at that Rate for so much of the said Capital Stock as shall be so paid off, from time to time, shall cease and determine; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, are hereby directed and authorized to cause the Monies so arising of or for the said Sinking Fund, other than and except, as aforesaid, to be applied for or towards the paying off such Publick Debts and Incumbrances, and for or towards paying off such part of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and reducing a proportional part of their Annuity or yearly Fund accordingly; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

So much Money arising before 24 June, 1727, by the Overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund, with the Increase thereof, as shall remain after £500000. by 1 Geo. is completed, and after discharging Payments charged on the Sinking Fund, &c. redemptible before Midsummer, 1727.

shall be applied by even Sums of 100000 l. towards paying off part of the Capital, carrying Interest at 5 l. per Cent.

Exchequer Bills to be current in the Revenue.

LXXXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Exchequer Bills to be made forth, as aforesaid, and to be current at any time or times, within the said Term of Seven Years, shall be received and taken by, and shall pass and be of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, but for such time the Interest on every such Bill shall cease; and the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain shall not be obliged to bear or pay any Part or Proportion of the Interest so saved.

Persons paying Bills to Receivers, &c. to endorse their Names, and Time when paid in :

LXXXV. And to the End it may be known for what time such Bills bearing Interest shall, from time to time, remain in the hands of such Receiver or Collector, or in the Exchequer aforesaid; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person or Persons who shall pay any such Bill or Bills bearing Interest to any Receiver or Collector of any his Majesties Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, by way of Exchange or otherwise, or shall pay or lend such Bill or Bills to bearing Interest into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall, at the time of making such Payment, Exchange, or Loan, on each Bill bearing Interest, and so paid, exchanged or lent, put his or their Name or Names, and write thereupon in Words at length, the Day of the Month and Year in which he, she, or they so paid, lent, or exchanged such Bill or Bills bearing Interest; all which the said Receivers and Collectors respectively, and also the respective Tellers in the Exchequer, shall take care to see done and performed accordingly; to which respective Days the said Receivers and Collectors shall be allowed again the Interest which he, she, or they shall have allowed or paid upon such respective Bill or Bills, upon his, her, or their paying the same into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforesaid.

And the time of reissuing to be also endorsed.

LXXXVI. Provided also, and be it hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bills, or any of them, may be reissued and paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer; and when the same shall be reissued or paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer, the respective Teller there, from whose Office such Bill or Bills bearing Interest shall be so reissued or again paid out, shall endorse on the same Bill or Bills so reissued, in Words at length, the Day of the Month and Year in which the same were so reissued or repaid out of the said Exchequer, and also on what Account the same were last received into the Receipt of Exchequer, and sign the same, from which time the Interest of such Bill or Bills so reissued or paid again shall revive, and such Bill or Bills shall again run and pass at Interest, as the same did before they were paid unto or exchanged by the said Receivers or Collectors, or before the same were paid or lent into the Exchequer, as aforesaid.

Bills reissued to bear the same Interest as when paid in.

LXXXVII. And it is hereby Enacted, That the same Bills to be reissued from time to time, or at any time at the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be so reissued for the Principal Money to be contained therein, and for so much Interest as was due thereon, and allowed by the Teller at the respective time and times when such Bill and Bills were last paid into the Exchequer.

Receivers General to keep Books for all Money received.

LXXXVIII. And be it Enacted, That every Receiver General of any the Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, belonging, or to belong to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall keep a fair Book or Books of Accounts in Writing, of all the Monies by him received, in which he or his Deputy or Deputies shall truly enter all the Sums which shall have been received by him or them, for every such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, together with the Names of the several Collectors from whom the same, or any part thereof, was Received, the Days when, and the Sums paid, how much thereof in Money, and how much in such Exchequer Bills, and what Exchequer Bills shall have been exchanged by every such Receiver General, pursuant to this Act; to which Accounts every Person concerned shall have free Access, at all reasonable times, without Fee or Charge, and the said Accounts shall constantly lie open at one certain Place within the Limits of his Receipt for that purpose; and if such Receiver shall neglect to keep such Book or Books, or to enter therein any Sum or Sums of Money by him or them received and paid, as aforesaid, by the Space of of Three Days after the Receipt or Payment of the same, or shall refuse any Person or Persons concerned to inspect such Book or Books without Fee or Charge, as aforesaid, every such Receiver for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparllance.

Penalty on Receivers.

LXXXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Exchequer Bills, which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, shall be filled up by Writing, or Endorsements to be made thereon, as aforesaid, or shall by any Accident be defaced, It shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he and they are hereby authorized and enjoined (by their or his Discretions) from time to time, to cause New Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of the Exchequer, in lieu of such Bills which shall be so filled up or defaced, which Bills so filled up or defaced, shall be cancelled at the Receipt of Exchequer, and kept there on a File or Files for that purpose; and such Bill so to be made forth in lieu thereof, shall have a like Currency, and shall in all respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, and Continuance as the Bills so filled up or defaced were intended to have by this Act, and shall bear the same Numbers, Dates, and Principal Sums, and carry the like Interest, as were born and carried by the Bills so cancelled respectively.

Bills filled up by Endorsement, Exchequer to make forth New ones, &c.

XC. And it is hereby Enacted, That for the greater Ease and Dispatch of the Publick Business at the Exchequer, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he or they are hereby authorized and enabled (in case he or they shall so think fit) at the Request of the said Court of Directors of the Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain for the time being, to cause Exchequer Bills for any large Sums not exceeding Five thousand Pounds each, to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, and to be placed as Cash in the same Receipt in lieu of the like Value of the Principal contained in Exchequer Bills, made forth by virtue of this Act for lesser Sums, which at the time of making such large Bills shall happen to be in the said Receipt, which shall be at the same time cancelled and discharged, and be kept there on a File for that purpose; which New Bills for such large Sums shall or may be issued at the said Receipt, and have the same Currency, and in all respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, Continuance, and carry the like Interest, and have the same Security, Benefit, and Advantages, and the same Pains of Death, and other Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, for any Crime or Offence relating thereunto, shall be indicted, incurred, and put in Execution, as if they had been Bills originally issued by virtue of this Act: any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bills for large Sums not exceeding 5000*l*. each, may be issued, &c.

XCI. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit any Exchequer Bills, which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, or be renewed or made forth in pursuance of this Act, or any Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, or tender in Payment any such forged or counterfeited Bill, or any Exchequer Bill made forth by this Act with such counterfeited Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, or shall demand to have such counterfeited Bill, or any Exchequer Bill with such counterfeited Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, exchanged for ready Money by any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be obliged or required to exchange the same, pursuant to this Act, knowing the Bill so tendered in Payment, or demanded to be exchanged, or the Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein therein to be forged or counterfeit, and with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or the said Trustees, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, then every such Person or Persons, so offending (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Forging Exchequer Bills Felony.

No Interest to a lesser Sum than a Penny.

XCIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That as often as any Interest upon the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this or any other or further Act or Acts, as aforesaid, shall be demanded to be paid by the said Trustees for the time being, they shall not be obliged to pay for such Interest to any lesser Sum than One Penny upon such Bill, in case a single Bill be produced for Payment, or for the Total of the Interest of such Bills, where Two or more shall be offered at one time by the same Person; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Provision be made by Parliament of Money to discharge the Bills, or any Part thereof, the same to be applied thereto.

XCIV. Provided also, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times hereafter, Provision shall be made by Authority of Parliament of so much Money, in the lawful Coins of this Kingdom, as shall be sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Principal and Interest which shall be due upon the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, as aforesaid, or any Proportion thereof at a time; and if by like Authority the same coined Monies shall be actually brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer for that purpose, then the same shall be applied for or towards the paying off and discharging the same Bills, or such Proportion thereof, so far as such Money will extend, by paying to the respective Bearer or Bearers of the same Bill or Bills then standing out, the Principal and Interest which shall be due thereupon, and by placing the same coined Money, or any part thereof, in lieu of any the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, which shall then be in the Office or Offices of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer to answer such Payments, whereunto the same Bills to remaining in such Office or Offices shall then be legally subject or liable; which Payments shall be answered with the said Money in Specie, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are prescribed by any former Laws or Statutes concerning the Money for which such Bills did lie in the Exchequer, to prevent the diverting or misapplying the same; and from and after such Payments to the Bearer or Bearers, or such placing of Money in lieu of Bills in the said Office or Offices of the said Teller or Tellers to answer such Payments, as aforesaid (and not sooner) the federal and respective Bills themselves which shall be so paid off, or for which coined Money shall be so placed, shall be cancelled; and the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, shall repay to the respective Tellers so much Interest as remained due upon the same Bills respectively, at the time or times when they were last paid into the Exchequer before the cancelling thereof; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

If the Bills be not discharged
by 24 June, 1727, they shall be discharged by the Sinking Fund.

XCv. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if before the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, coined Money shall not be called and brought into the Exchequer, sufficient to pay off and discharge all the said Exchequer Bills which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, that then and in such case, from and after the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or so many of them as shall not have been paid off and discharged by such coined Money, as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby charged upon and made payable by and out of the first Money which shall, after the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, arise into the Exchequer for or by the aforesaid Surplusses, Excelses, and Overplus Monies herein before denominated the Sinking Fund, or by or out of Monies

nies to be raised thereon by way of Loan, after the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven; and the same Bills or such of them as shall so remain unsatisfied, shall be cancelled and discharged in such manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall direct; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCVI. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That the Court of Directors of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, for the time being, (with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and not otherwise) may at any time or times after the End of the Session of Parliament which shall next happen after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, by Writing to be signed by the Secretary of the same Court, and to be affixed upon the Exchange of London, and by Publication in the London Gazette, declare and direct, if they shall so see cause, and think fit, the said Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or any Number of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, for such time or times as shall be mentioned in such Writing or Writings and Publication, as aforesaid, so as the whole Interest on such Bills do not exceed the Rate of Three Pence per Centum per Diem: And for the greater Accommodation and Ease of paying the Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or any of them, to the Receivers and Collectors of the Publick Revenues, and into the Receipt of Exchequer, the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, have hereby Power, at the Request of the said Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain for the time being, to make forth, or cause to be made forth, any of the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, without bearing any Interest; yet nevertheless those Bills so made forth without bearing any Interest, may from time to time, be made to carry such Interest not exceeding the said Rate of Three Pence per Centum per Diem, as the Court of Directors of the same Company shall by Writing signify by the said Secretary, and to be affixed upon the Exchange of London, and published in the London Gazette, signify and declare in that behalf.

XCVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times before the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, any Exchequer Bills, or Bills in the nature of Exchequer Bills, shall be made forth or be current in the Publick Revenues or Exchequer of Great Britain, or any Part thereof, by Authority of Parliament (other than and except such Exchequer Bills as shall be made forth by virtue and in pursuance of this Act; and other than and except such Exchequer Bills, or Bills in the nature of Exchequer Bills, as shall be issued by virtue of any other Act of this Session of Parliament; and other than and except such Exchequer Bills, or Bills in the nature of Exchequer Bills, as shall be circulated by virtue of any future Act or Acts of Parliament upon the Credit of the Exchequer, or of the Publick Money which shall be brought into the Exchequer, or of such Money which the Commissioners of the Treasury, or High Treasurer for the time being, shall be empowered by Parliament to borrow, to support the Currency of such Exchequer Bills) then from and after such Currency of any Exchequer Bills, or Bills of the nature of Exchequer Bills (other than and except, as aforesaid) the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, shall not be obliged to furnish Money for exchanging any Exchequer Bills, pursuant to this Act, or to bear or pay any Interest, or Proportion of Interest, which from thenceforth shall grow due thereupon; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Directors with Consent of the Treasury m y, after the Session of Parliament which shall be after 24 June, 1721, declare, that the Bills to be made forth by this Act, shall carry a higher Rate of Interest.

Treasury at the Request of the Company may make forth Bills without bearing Interest.

If before 24 June, 1727, any further Exchequer Bills be made forth by Parliament, the Company shall not be obliged to exchange them.

Treasury, out of the Sinking Fund, to defray the Charges of executing this Act.

XCVIII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall have Power, and he or they are hereby enabled to pay and allow, or cause to be paid and allowed, out of the Monies to arise of or for the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, or of or for the Increase thereof, to be made in Consequence of this Act, from time to time, as well to the respective Managers and Directors to be constituted for taking in the above-mentioned Annuities and Debts, and performing such other Matters as are by this Act required to be performed by such Managers and Directors, and to the Persons who shall be appointed for taking the said Orders and Tickets, and for performing such other Matters as are by this Act required to be performed by them, and to the said Trustees, who shall be appointed for exchanging the said Exchequer Bills, and for performing such other Matters as are by this Act required to be performed by those Trustees respectively, such Salaries and Allowances for the Charges, Pains and Service of themselves, and those who shall be employed under them respectively in those respective Trusts, as they the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the said High Treasurer for the time being, shall, from time to time, think just and reasonable in that behalf; and also to pay and allow, or cause to be paid and allowed, out of the same Monies arising, as aforesaid, the necessary Charges for taking in and cancelling the said residuary Exchequer Bills, and making forth new Bills in lieu thereof, pursuant to this Act; and to allow and pay, or cause to be allowed and paid, out of the said Money to arise, as aforesaid, any reasonable Charges for Books, Clerkship, or other Matters and Things which shall be necessarily incident in or for the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof, by or by the Order or Direction of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed thereunto, or employed therein by them the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or by the said High Treasurer for the time being, and not otherwise; any thing in this or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Interest due on the Bills to be allowed by Receivers, &c.

XV. Provided always, That no Interest shall run or be paid upon or for any such Bill or Bills during the time that any such Bill or Bills, so paid, exchanged, or lent, shall remain in the Hands of any the said Receivers or Collectors, or in the Hands of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, but for such time the Interest on every such Bill shall cease; and the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain shall not be obliged to bear or pay any Part or Proportion of the Interest so saved.

No Interest on Bills in Receivers Hands, or in the Exchequer.

XVI. And to the End it may be known for what time such Bills bearing Interest shall, from time to time, remain in the Hands of such Receivers or Collectors, or in the Exchequer aforesaid; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person or Persons who shall pay any such Bill or Bills bearing Interest to any Receiver or Collector of any his Majesties Revenues, Aids, Tares, or Supplies, by way of Exchange or otherwise, or shall pay or lend such Bill or Bills so bearing Interest into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall, at the time of making such Payment, Exchange, or Loan, on each Bill bearing Interest, and so paid, exchanged or lent, put his or their Name or Names, and write thereupon in Words at length, the Day of the Month and Year in which he, she, or they so paid, lent, or exchanged such Bill or Bills bearing Interest; all which the said Receivers and Collectors respectively, and also the respective Tellers in the Exchequer, shall take care to see done and performed accordingly; to which respective Days the said Receivers and Collectors shall be allowed again the Interest which he, she, or they shall have allowed or paid upon such respective Bill or Bills, upon his, her, or their paying the same into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforesaid.

Persons paying Bills to Receivers, &c. to endorse their Names, and Time when paid in:

XVII. Provided also, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bills, or any of them, may be reissued and paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer; and when the same shall be reissued or paid again out of his Majesties Exchequer, the respective Teller there, from whose Office such Bill or Bills bearing Interest shall be so reissued or again paid out, shall endorse on the same Bill or Bills so reissued, in Words at length, the Day of the Month and Year in which the same were so reissued or repaid out of the said Exchequer, and also on what Account the same were last received into the Receipt of Exchequer, and sign the same, from which time the Interest of such Bill or Bills so reissued or paid again shall revive; and such Bill or Bills shall again again run and pass at Interest, as the same did before they were paid unto or exchanged by the said Receivers or Collectors, or before the same were paid or lent into the Exchequer, as aforesaid.

And the time of reissuing to be also endorsed.

Bills issued to bear the same Interest as when paid in.

XVIII. And it is hereby Enacted, That the same Bills to be re-issued from time to time, or at any time at the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be so reissued for the Principal Money to be contained therein, and for so much Interest as was due thereon, and allowed by the Teller at the respective time and times when such Bill and Bills were last paid into the Exchequer.

Receivers General to keep Books for all Money received.

XIX. And be it Enacted, That every Receiver General of any the Revenues, Aids, Tares, or Supplies, belonging, or to belong to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall keep a fair Book or Books of Accounts in Writing, of all the Monies by him received, in which he or his Deputy or Deputies shall truly enter all the Sums which shall have been received by him or them, for every such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, together with the Names of the several Collectors from whom the same, or any part thereof, was received, the Days when, and the Sums paid, how much thereof in Money, and how much thereof in such Exchequer Bills, and what Exchequer Bills shall have been exchanged by every such Receiver General, pursuant to this Act; to which Accounts every Person concerned shall have Free Access, at all reasonable times, without Fee or Charge; and the said Accounts shall constantly lie open at one certain Place within the Limits of his Receipt for that purpose; and if such Receiver shall Neglect to keep such Book or Books, or to enter therein any Sum or Sums of Money by him or them received and paid, as aforesaid, by the Space of Three Days after his Receipt or Payment of the same, or shall refuse any Person or Persons concerned to inspect such Book or Books without Fee or Charge, as aforesaid, every such Receiver for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparllance.

Penalty on Receivers.

Bills filled up by Endorsement, Exchequer to make forth New ones,
&c.

XX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Exchequer Bills, which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, shall be filled up by Writing, or Endorsements made thereon, as aforesaid, or shall by any Accident be defaced, It shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by their or his Discretion, from time to time, to cause New Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, in lieu of such Bills which shall be so filled up or defaced; which Bills so filled up or defaced, shall be cancelled at the Receipt of Exchequer, and kept there on a File or Files for that purpose; and such Bills so to be made forth in lieu thereof, shall have a like Currency, and shall, in all respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, and Continuance as the Bills so filled up were intended to have been by this Act, and shall bear the same Numbers, Dates, and Principal Sums, and carry the like Interest as were born and carried by the Bills so cancelled respectively.

Bills for large Sums not exceeding 5000*l.*
each, may be issued, &c.

XXI. And it is hereby Enacted, That for the greater Ease and Dispatch of the Publick Business at the Exchequer, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he or they are hereby authorized and enabled, in case he or they shall so think fit, at the Request of the said Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain for the time being, to cause Exchequer Bills for any large Sums not exceeding five thousand Pounds each, to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, and to be placed as Cash in the same Receipt in lieu of the like Value of the Principal contained tained in Exchequer Bills, made forth by virtue of this Act for lesser Sums, which at the time of making such large Bills, shall happen to be in the said Receipt, which shall be at the same time cancelled and discharged, and be kept there on a file for that purpose; which New Bills for such large Sums, shall or may be issued at the said Receipt, and have the same Currency, and in all respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, Continuance, and carry the like Interest, and have the same Security, Benefit, and Advantages, and the same Pains of Death, and other Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, for any Crime or Offence relating thereunto, shall be inflicted, incurred, and put in Execution, as if they had been originally issued by virtue of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall Forge or Counterfeit any Exchequer Bill which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, or be renewed or made forth in pursuance of this Act, or any Endorsement or Writing thereupon, or therein, or tender in Payment any such forged or counterfeit Bill, or any Exchequer Bill made forth by this Act, with such counterfeit Endorsement or Writing thereupon, or shall demand to have such counterfeit Bill, or any such Exchequer Bill with such counterfeit Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, exchanged for ready Money by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be obliged or required to exchange the same, pursuant to this Act, knowing the Bill so tendered in Payment, or demanded to be exchanged, or the Endorsement or Writing thereupon, or therein to be forged or counterfeit, and with intent to Defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or the said Trustees, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, then every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer as in cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Forging Exchequer Bills Felony.

XXIII. And it is hereby further Enacted, That the said Trustees shall, from time to time, have the Use and Custody of one part of all the Cheques, Indents, or Counterfoils of all the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, from which the said Bills shall be cut, in Order to prevent their being imposed upon by counterfeited or forged Bills; and that such parts of the said Cheques, Indents, and Counterfoils, shall be delivered back into the Receipt of Exchequer by the said Trustees for the time being, when the same Bills are to be cancelled and discharged, pursuant to this Act.

Trustees to have the Cheques, &c. of the Bills.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That as often as any Interest upon the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this or the said other Act of this Session of Parliament, shall be demanded to be paid by the said Trustees for the time being, they shall not be obliged to pay for such Interest to any lesser Sum than One Penny upon such Bill, in case a single Bill be produced for Payment, or for the Total of the Interest of such Bills, where Two or more shall be offered at one time by the same Person; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Interest to a lesser Sum than a Penny.

XXV. Provided also, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times hereafter, Provision shall be made by Authority of Parliament of so much Money, of the lawful Coins of this Kingdom, as shall be sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Principal and Interest which shall be due upon the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, as aforesaid, or any Propozition thereof at a time; and if by like Authority the same Monies shall be actually brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for that purpose, then the same shall be applied for or towards the paying off or discharging the same Bills, or such Propozition thereof, so far as such Money will

If Provision be made by Parliament of Money to discharge the Bills, or any Part thereof, the same to be applied thereto, &c.

will extend, by paying to the respective Bearer or Bearers of the same Bills then standing out, the Principal and Interest which shall be due thereupon, and by placing the same coined Money, or any part thereof, in lieu of any the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, which shall then be in the Office or Offices of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer to answer such Payments, whereunto the same Bills so remaining in such Office or Offices shall then be legally subject or liable; which Payments shall be answered with the said Money in Specie, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as are prescribed by any former Laws or Statutes concerning the Money for which such Bills did lie in the Exchequer, to prevent the diverting or misapplying the same; and from and after such Payments to the Bearer or Bearers, or such placing of Money in lieu of Bills in the said Office or Offices of the said Teller or Tellers to answer such Payments, as aforesaid and not sooner, the federal and respective Bills themselves which shall be so paid off, or for which coined Money shall be so placed, shall be cancelled.

not paid by 1 March, 1721.
or before the End of the next Session, how they shall be discharged.

XXVI. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if before the first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, or before the End of the Session of Parliament then next ensuing, coined Monies shall not be raised and brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Exchequer Bills which shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, that then and in such case immediately upon the End of such Session of Parliament next after the said first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, all or any the Monies then remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the said Sum of Three hundred twenty eight thousand six hundred and seventy three Pounds, Four Shillings, and Ten Pence Half penny, if the same or any part thereof shall then remain there not issued for the Purposes in this Act directed, and all the Monies which from and after the End of the said Session of Parliament next after the said first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, shall Quarterly arise into the Exchequer, of or for all the said Surplusses, Excises, and Overplusses, denominated the Sinking Fund, as aforesaid, or of or for such Increase thereof as shall be made by repaying the Monies which shall be lent to the said Governor and Company, as aforesaid, with Interest, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, and all or any the Monies, if any shall be then remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Loans which shall have been made there by virtue of this Act, for answering the said Proportions for circulating and exchanging the said Bills, or so much of the Monies before mentioned as shall be sufficient to discharge or to complete the discharging of all the Exchequer Bills which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, shall be applied for or towards discharging and cancelling the same, until they shall all be paid off, discharged, and cancelled, or so much of the same Monies shall be reserved in the Exchequer, as shall be sufficient for that purpose; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, and the High Treasurer for the time being, are hereby impowered, enjoyned, and required, to cause the said Monies so by this Act appointed and intended for cancelling and discharging all the said Exchequer Bills which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, to be applied accordingly; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, are hereby authorized and impowered, when and as the said Monies so by this Act appointed and intended for cancelling and discharging the said Exchequer Bills which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, or any considerable Proportion thereof, shall come or be brought into the said Receipt of the Exchequer for that purpose, by Publick Notice, or by federal Publick Notices in Writing, to be affixed on the Royal Exchange in London, and published in the London Gazette, to prefix a certain Day, or several Days, for the Bearers of the same Bills

Bills standing out, to bring the same, or any Proportion or Proportions thereof at a time, to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall appoint to receive the same, to be exchanged for ready Money, in order to be discharged and cancelled, as aforesaid; and that all such of the said Bills standing out as shall not be brought in upon such Notice or Notices to be exchanged for ready Money within the Time or Times thereby to be signified, shall lose their Currency; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And for the greater Accommodation and Ease of paying the Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or any of them, to the Receivers and Collectors of the Publick Revenues, and into the Receipt of Exchequer, the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, have hereby Power, at the Request of the Court of Directors of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, for the time being, to make forth or cause to be made forth any of the said Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, without bearing any Interest: Yet nevertheless those Bills to made forth without bearing any Interest, may, from time to time, be made to carry such Interest, not exceeding the said Rate of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, as the Court of Directors of the said Company shall, by Writing signified by the said Secretary, and to be affixed upon the Exchange of London, and published in the London Gazette, signify and declare in that behalf.

Treasury at the Request of the South-Sea Company may make forth Bills without bearing Interest.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times before the Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, any Exchequer Bills, or Bills of the nature of Exchequer Bills, shall be made forth or current in the Publick Revenues, or Exchequer of Great Britain, or any Part thereof, by Authority of Parliament (other than and except such Exchequer Bills as shall be made forth by virtue of this Act, and other than and except such Exchequer Bills, or Bills in the nature of Exchequer Bills, as shall be issued by virtue of any other Act of this Session of Parliament; and other than and except such Exchequer Bills, or Bills in the nature of Exchequer Bills, as shall be circulated by virtue of any future Act or Acts of Parliament upon the Credit of the Exchequer, or of the Publick Money which shall be brought into the Exchequer, or of such Money which the Commissioners of the Treasury, or High Treasurer for the time being, shall be impowered by Parliament to borrow, to support the Currency of such Exchequer Bills) then from and after such Currency of any Exchequer Bills, or Bills of the nature of Exchequer Bills, or other than and except, as aforesaid, the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, shall not be obliged to furnish Money for exchanging any Exchequer Bills, pursuant to this Act, or to bear or pay any Interest, or Proportion of Interest, which from thenceforth shall grow due thereupon; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

If before 24 June, 1727. any further Bills shall be made forth by Parliament, the Company shall not be obliged to exchange them.

XXVIII. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, shall be demanded or taken, directly or indirectly, by any his Majesties Officers in the Exchequer, or by any of the said Trustees, or by any of their Clerks or Substitutes, from any of his Majesties Subjects, for any Matter or Thing to be done by the said Officers, Trustees, and Clerks, or any of them respectively, in pursuance of this Act; and that no such Officer, Trustee, Clerk, or Substitute shall divert or misapply, or cause or procure to be diverted or misapplied, any of the Monies by this Act intended for the exchanging, circulating, or cancelling the said Bills, or any of them, or for Repayment of the said Loans, and the Interest thereof, or any of them, under such Penalties, forfeitures, and Disabilities to be incurred by and inflicted on them respectively, as by one Act of this Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid by a Land Tax, to XXIX. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall have Power, and he or they are hereby enabled to pay and allow or cause to be paid and allowed out of the Monies, to arise of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses, and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, or of or for any Increase thereof, from time to time, to the said Trustees, who shall be appointed for exchanging the said Exchequer Bills, and for performing such other Matters as are by this Act required to be performed by those Trustees respectively, such Salaries and Allowances for the Charges, Pains, and Service of themselves and those who shall be employed under them respectively in that Trust, as they the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the said High Treasurer for the time being, shall, from time to time, think just and reasonable in that behalf; and also to pay and allow, or cause to be paid and allowed out of the same Monies arising, as aforesaid, the necessary Charges of making forth such Bills as are to be made forth by virtue of this Act, and for Books, Clerkship, or other Matters and Things which shall be necessarily Incident in or for the Execution of this Act, or any part thereof, by or by the Order or Direction of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed thereunto, or employed therein by them the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or by the said High Treasurer for the time being, and not otherwise; any thing in this or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Anno 6 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XI.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon wrought Plate; and for applying Money arising for the clear Produce (by Sale of the Forfeited Estates) towards answering his Majesties Supply; and for taking off the Drawbacks upon Hops exported for Ireland; and for Payment of Annuities to be purchased after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum at the Exchequer, redeemable by Parliament; and for appropriating Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and to prevent counterfeiting Receipts and Warrants of the Officers of the South-Sea Company; and for explaining a late Act concerning Foreign Salt cellar'd and lock'd up before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and to give a further Time for paying Duties on certain Apprentices Indentures; and for Relief of Thomas Vernon Esq; in relation to a Parcel of Senna Imported in the Year One thousand seven hundred and sixteen.

IV. AND we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the said Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being fully resolved to furnish such Supplies as are necessary for defraying the Expences and Occasions of the Publick, have for that end and purpose cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several and respective Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, for and

and upon all Silver Plate to be made or wrought in Great Britain, or to be imported or brought into the same, and such further Sum and Sums of Money as are herein specified and appointed, in such Manner and Form as are herein after more particularly expressed; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, answered and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, (subject nevertheless to such Redemption as in and by this Act is afterwards provided in this behalf) for and upon all Silver Plate which shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, and for and upon all Silver Plate to be made or wrought within the same Kingdom, the several and respective Rates of Duties following; (That is to say) For and upon all Silver Plate made or to be made, which at any time or times after the first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, shall be imported or brought into the said Kingdom of Great Britain, (over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties already imposed thereupon) a Duty after the Rate of Six Pence for every Ounce Troy, and proportionally for greater or lesser Quantities, to be paid down in ready Money by the Importer thereof, from time to time, before the landing of the same; and for and upon all Silver Plate which shall be made or wrought in Great Britain, or at any time or times, from and after the said first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, shall or ought to be touched, assayed, or marked in Great Britain, as aforesaid, a Duty after the Rate of Six Pence for every Ounce Troy, and proportionally for any greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Makers or Workers thereof respectively, and to be secured to be paid in such Manner and Form as in and by this Act are afterwards prescribed in that behalf.

From 1 June, 1720. Silver Plate imported, or made in Great Britain, to pay 6d. per oz. for ever.

V. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties by this Act imposed upon wrought Plate to be imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered and paid, and be brought into the Exchequer (to and for the Uses and Purposes in this Act expressed) by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon Gold and Silver Wire imported, imposed by an Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, or by any Act of Parliament relating thereto, are prescribed and appointed to be raised, levied, recovered, answered and paid.

The Duty on Plate imported to be levied as the Duty on Gold or Silver Wire.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, at any time or times after the said first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, during the Continuance of the Duty by this Act imposed upon wrought Plate or Manufactures of Silver, export by way of Merchandise for any Foreign Parts, any wrought Plate or Manufactures of Silver by this Act charged or chargeable with the said Duty of Six Pence per Ounce, and the same shall appear to have been made or marked, as aforesaid, after the said first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty; and shall give sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Plate or Manufactures of Silver, intended to be exported, as aforesaid, and every part thereof, shall not be re-landed or brought again into Great Britain; and shall make Proof upon Oath, or by such Affirmation respectively, as aforesaid, that the same Silver Plate or Manufactures were actually made or marked, as aforesaid, after the said first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty; (which Securities shall be taken in the Kings Name, and to his Use, and the said Oaths and Affirmations shall be administered by the Customs or Collector of the respective Port for such Exportation) that then and in every such case the said Customs or Collector shall give to the Exporter thereof a Debenture expressing the true Kinds and Quantities of such Plate and Manufactures

On Oath that the Duty has been paid, and on Debenture from the Customs, &c. Exporter of Plate may draw back the Duty on Security.

manufactures of Silver so exported or shipped to be exported; and the Exportation or Shipping thereof being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Collector or Receiver of the said Duty on Plate upon producing the said Debenture so certified to him, shall forthwith pay a Drawback or Allowance, after the Rate of Six Pence for every Ounce of such Plate or Manufactures of Silver, out of the Money of the said Duty on Plate or Manufactures of Silver then in the Hands of such Receiver or Collector, without Fee or Reward; and if such Receiver or Collector shall not have Money in his Hands to pay any such Debenture, then the respective Commissioners of the said Duty upon Plate or Manufactures of Silver, are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid the said Debenture out of any the same Duties arising by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Drawback to be paid by the respective Commissioners, if the Collector has not Money in his Hand.

Commissioners and Officers to be appointed, liable to the Act 9 W. 3.

XXII. And to the end all the Monies to arise by this Act for the said Duties upon Plate and Manufactures of Silver may be duly and certainly raised and brought into the said Receipt of Exchequer for the Purposes aforesaid, It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners of the Customs and Excise, and other Officers, as shall be proper and necessary for the raising and levying the respective Duties and Sums of Money by this Act granted or chargeable, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that all Receivers General, Collectors, and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the raising, collecting, receiving, and paying the said respective Duties hereby granted, or any of them, and keeping and rendering the several Accounts thereof, shall perform their several Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third [Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum, not exceeding Two millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies] for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties on Salt, and upon Stampd Acellum, Parchment, and Paper, thereby granted or referred unto, or for detaining, diverting, or misapplying any part of the Monies which were granted or appropriated by the Act last mentioned.

Tax-free.

XXXV. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, at the End of any Year, for which the said Annuities are to be payable, after all the Annuities, Charges, and Payments, directed or authorized by this Act, shall be fully satisfied, paid and discharged, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall be reserved for the Publick Use, and shall be disposed and disposeable by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise.

Surplus to be reserved for Publick Use.

General Issue.

XXXVI. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any time or times be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence, and if upon the Tryal a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become Concluded, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

On Publick Notice in the Gazette, and on the Exchange, at any of the Quarterly Feast-Days, and on Repayment of the Annuities, then they are to cease, and any Vote of the Commons signified by the Speaker, shall be sufficient Notice.

Clause for taking off all the Drawbacks upon Hops exported for Ireland, after the 1 June, 1720.

XXXVII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time upon Publick Notice to be printed in the London Gazette, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, by Authority of Parliament, at any of the said Quarterly Feast-days for Payment of the said Annuities to be payable out of the said particular Fund, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the respective Principal Sums for which the same Annuities shall be payable to such respective Persons and Corporations as shall be entitled to the same Annuities, and also upon full Payment of all Arrearages of the same Annuities, to be computed by the Day, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till such actual Repayment, then, and not till then the same Annuities shall cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And that any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons signified by the Speaker in Writing, to be inserted in the said London Gazette, and affixed on the Royal Exchange in London, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged to be sufficient Notice within the Words and Meaning of this Act.

XXXIX. And whereas certain Duties upon Hops were by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, (of Blessed Memory) [intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon Hops] imposed for the Term of Four Years, reckoned from the First day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eleven, and were by an Act of the First Year of your Majesties Reign continued until the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen; and by another Act of the same Year were granted to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for ever, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament; in and by which Acts, or some of them, (amongst other Things therein contained) it was provided, that it should and might be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who should have actually paid the Duty thereby payable for any Quantity of Hops whatsoever of British Growth, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who should buy, or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Hops of British Growth from the said Person or Persons who actually paid the said Duty for the same, to export such Hops, being of British Growth, for Ireland, by way of Merchandize; and that upon giving such Security, and performing such other Requisites as by the said Acts, or some of them, are prescribed, the Customer or Collector of the Port where such Hops shall be exported, shall give to the Exporter a Debenture expressing the true Quantity of the British Hops so exported; and that upon such Debenture the said Duty shall be repaid, or the Security for the same be discharged in the Manner and Form thereby prescribed, as by the said Acts of Parliament, relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear: And whereas the said Duty upon Hops of British Growth is very moderate, and such Hops exported for Ireland, may reasonably bear the same Duty which is charged upon those consumed in Great Britain; Now we your Majesties said Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being minded and desirous to improve the Publick Revenues, which are applicable to the discharging of Publick Debts and Incumbrances, do further humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Hops of British Growth, or any part thereof, shall not be repaid or drawn back back for any such Hops which shall be exported, or shipped to be exported for Ireland, at any time or times after the first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty; and that no Debenture or Certificate shall be granted or made forth for or in order to the Repayment or Drawing back of the same Duty for or upon any such Hops so exported, or shipped to be exported for Ireland, after the said first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty; but such Drawback or Repayment from thenceforth shall cease and determine; the said recited Acts of Parliament, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XL. And whereas it may be requisite for encouraging the several Manufactures of wrought Plate, to continue both the Standard of Plate of Eleven Dunces Ten Penny Weight Troy, and also the Standard of Eleven Dunces Two Penny Weight Troy, for the better Accommodating the Buyers of Plate, and the Workers and Dealers therein; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, all Silver Vessels of Plate or Manufactured of Silver, shall not be made less in Fineness than that of Eleven Dunces Ten Penny Weight of Fine Silver in every Pound Troy, or of Silver less in fineness than Eleven Dunces Two Penny Weight of Fine Silver in every Pound Troy; which Two different Standards of wrought Plate shall be severally and respectively marked with distinguishing Marks; (that is to say) Vessels made of Silver Plate, or Manufactured Silver, not less in Fineness than Eleven Dunces Ten Penny Weight of Fine Silver in every Pound Troy, to be marked with the Workmans Mark, the Mark of the Wardens of the Mystery or Craft of the Goldsmiths, and with the Figure of a Lions Head Crested, and the Figure of a Woman called the Britannia; and all Vessels of Silver Plate, or Manufactured Silver, not less in Fineness than Eleven Dunces Two Penny Weight of Fine Silver in every Pound Troy, and under the Degree of Eleven Dunces Ten Penny Weight of Fine Silver in every Pound Troy, shall be marked with the Workers Mark, and the Wardens of the Mystery or Craft of Goldsmiths, as aforesaid, and with the Figure of a Lion passant, and the Figure of a Leopards Head; and that it shall not be lawful to make any Vessels of Silver Plate, or Manufactures of Silver, of a Coulter Alloy than what is herein specified, under the Penalties and Forfeitures prescribed by any of the Laws now in being concerning wrought Plate; any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The distinguishing Marks for the Two Standards.

No Plate to be of a Coulter Alloy.

XLII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies lent and to be lent to his Majesty upon one Act of this Session of Parliament [Intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid by a Land-Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty] and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans made or to be made on that Act, and the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Tax shall be satisfied, or Monies sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Monies lent or to be lent to his Majesty upon an Act of this Session of Parliament [Intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty; and for enabling the Lords Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury to call in such Exchequer Bills as are to be cancelled and discharged with Money appointed for that purpose] and so much of the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, thereby granted or continued, as shall arise and remain (if any such be) after all the Loans made or to be made on the same Act, or thereby transferred or directed to be transferred thereunto, and all the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the same Duties, shall be satisfied, or Monies sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and the said Sum not exceeding Three hundred and twelve thousand Pounds intended to be raised, as aforesaid; and the said Sum of Two hundred thou-

Clause for Explaining the late Act concerning Foreign Salt cellar'd and lock'd up before 24 June, 1719.

XLIX. And whereas by an Act passed last Session of Parliament, [Intituled, An Act for the Recovery of the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts, and for better Securing the Duties on Salt] Liberty is given to his Majesties Subjects to import Foreign Salt for the Use of the Fishery Duty-free after Midsummer-day, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and it being at the same time intended by the said Act, that all such Foreign Salt as was imported, weighed, cellar'd, and locked up in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties upon Salt, and under the joynt Custody of such Officer and the Importer thereof, before the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, should have the Benefit of being turned over as Stock in hand, and be made use of in the Fishery, Duty-free; but for want of sufficient Words to express clearly and plainly the Intention of the said Act, in relation to such Foreign Salt so imported, as aforesaid, before the said Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the Proprietors of the said Salt have, to their great Loss and Detriment, not been able to make use of the said Salt, in the last fishery, nor will, for the time to come, be enabled to make any use at all of it, unless the said Act be better explained: For Remedy whereof, and to supply the Defect in the said Act, Be it, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Foreign Salt, so imported, cellar'd, and locked up, as aforesaid, before the said Twenty fourth of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall, at the desire of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, or his or their Agent or Agents, be turned over as Stock in hand for the Use of the Fishery, Duty-free; subject nevertheless to the same Conditions and Restrictions as all other Foreign Salt intended for the Use of the Fishery, and have the same Benefit and Advantage as all other Foreign Salt intended for the Use of the Fishery, and imported after the said Twenty fourth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; any thing in this Act, or any other, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Clause for Relief of Thomas Vernon, Esq; in relation to Senna imported, 1716.

LI. And whereas Thomas Vernon Esq; did in the Month of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, import into the Port of London, on board the Ship Lambert from Alexandria, Four Bales of Senna, containing Three thousand four hundred and eight Pounds Weight, and did then duly enter the same at the Custom-house, and paid and discharged the Customs and Duties then due and payable by Law for the same, and actually sold the said Senna on board the said Ship before Entry made thereof, as aforesaid, and the same was accordingly delivered to the Buyers; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Senna shall not be chargeable with the Duties charged on Senna as a Medicinal Drug, by the Act made in the first Year of his Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act to continue Duties for encouraging the Coinage of Money; and to charge the Duties on Senna as a Medicinal Drug; and for the appropriating several Supplies granted to his Majesty.

An Act for preventing of Frauds and Abuses in the Allowances on damaged Wines, and for lengthning the time for the Drawbacks on the Exportation of Wines.

Whereas by the Tenth Rule annexed to an Act of Parlia- Preamble.
ment passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, Intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize exported and imported, which has been continued by several subsequent Acts, and is now in force, It is Provided, That if any Wines shall prove corrupt and unmerchantable, and fit for nothing but to distil into Hot Waters, or to make Vinegar, then every Owner of such Wines shall be abated in the Subsidy according to such his Damages in those Wines, by the Discretion of the Collectors of the Customs, and one of the Principal Officers: And whereas several other Subsidies, Impositions, and Duties, have been since laid, and are now payable to his Majesty, on the Importation of Wines into this Kingdom by several Acts of Parliament now in force; which several Acts have Reference to the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and to the said Rule in making Allowances for the Damages out of the respective Duties on Wines imported (except the Duty payable on Wines for the encouraging of Coinage, by an Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King Charles the Second:) And whereas frequent Disputes do arise between the Officers of the Customs and the Merchants, in the making and adjusting the Allowances which damaged Wines may deserve, the same depending for the most part on the Taste thereof; for the preventing the like Disputes for the future, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Second day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty, the said Tenth Rule annexed to the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage be, and the same is hereby repealed, made void, and shall no longer be put in Practice; any thing in the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, or in any other Act or Acts, in any wise to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And whereas it may be reasonable to make the Merchants The Tenth Rule annexed to the Act of Tonnage and Poundage for making Allowance on damaged Wines repealed.
Importers of Wine a Compensation for the Allowances they would have received out of the several Duties of their damaged Wines by virtue of the said Tenth Rule, whereby the Revenue may be collected with greater Certainty, and not so liable to Abuse; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Second day of May, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, there shall be made, as well to the Merchant at Importation, as also to the Prizage-Master or Proprietor of the Duties of Prizage, out of all the several Gross Duties now laid upon Wines in Casks (except the Coinage Duty before mentioned) over and above the present Abatements and Discounts, the several Allowances hereafter mentioned; that is to say, out of the several Gross Duties (except the Coinage) now laid upon Rhenish Wine, or Wine of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duty as such, an Allowance after the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum, upon French Wines, or Wines of the Growth of France, or of any of the French Kings Dominions, an Allowance after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum; and upon Spanish, Portugal, and all other Wines (except Rhenish or French) an Allowance after the Rate of

IV. And be it further Enacted, That over and above the Duties repaid or allowed, as aforesaid, the Merchant or other Person shall, for every Tun of Wine, containing Two hundred fifty and two Gallons, of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duties as such, and of the Growth of France, so staved, spilled, or otherwise destroyed, be allowed, as a Compensation for the Freight and other Charges, the Sum of Four Pounds; and Wines of the Growth of Spain, Portugal, and elsewhere, the Sum of Eight Pounds per Tun, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; which Allowances shall without Delay be paid by Certificate out of the Duties arising by the said Act of Connage and Poundage; and the Officers are hereby required and directed to make, pass, and pay such Certificate without Fee or Reward.

V. And for the further Encouragement of the Wine Trade, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Second day of May, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, every British Merchant shall have Eighteen Months time from the Importation of all Wines to export the same; and every Alien or Stranger shall have Fifteen Months time from the Importation of all Wines to export the same; Which Importation shall be reckoned from the Masters Report of the Ship; and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within Twelve Months or Nine Months respectively, as mentioned in the Second and Fourth Rules annexed to the said Act of Connage and Poundage; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided Certificates and Oaths be made, and all other Requisites performed, according to the Laws now in being, relating to the Importation and Exportation of Wine.

VI. And as a further Encouragement, Be it likewise Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above the present Duties drawn back on the Exportation of Wine, the Merchant Exporter be allowed, on the Terms and Conditions aforesaid, Two thirds of the Impost Duty paid on the Importation of Wine by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the First Year of King James the Second, [Intituled, An Act for for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the Four and twentieth of June, One thousand six hundred eighty five, and the Four and twentieth of June, One thousand six hundred ninety three] which by several subsequent Acts is continued and still in force; any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XV.

An Act to repeal so much of the Act, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesties Customs, passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of King Charles the Second, as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Deal-Boards and Fir-Timber from Germany.

Preamble.

Whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second [Intituled An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesties Customs] Deal-Boards and Fir-Timber are (among other things therein mentioned) prohibited to be imported from the Netherlands or Germany, upon any Pretence whatsoever, in any sort of Ships or Vessels whatsoever, upon Penalty of the Loss of all the said Goods, as also the Ship and Furniture: And whereas Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards, are not only found to be useful and necessary in the building and reftituting his Majesties Ships of War, and other Ships and Vessels, but the same have of late Years been, and now are very much used in and about all manner of Buildings, which hath occasioned so great a Demand for, and Consumption of the said Commodities, that the Price thereof, at the Places from whence the same may now be lawfully imported, is very much increased, to the Prejudice of Trade, which may be Remedied, if the Prohibition be taken off, whereby the said Commodities will become more plentiful, and the Price thereof much reduced: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the first day of August, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, so much of the said Act, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesties Customs, as prohibits the Importation of Deal-boards and Fir-timber from Germany only, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, annulled, and made void, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

The Clause in 13 & 14 Car. 2. §. 23. which prohibits Deals and Fir-Timber from Germany, repealed.

Fir-Timber, &c. of the Growth of Germany may be imported by British in British Built Ships, paying the like Duties as Fir-Timber, &c. from Norway.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, It shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesties Subjects to import any Quantity or Quantities of Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards, being of the Growth of Germany, into this Kingdom, from any Port or Place in Germany, in British Built Ships only, so as the Owner or Owners are his Majesties British Subjects, and whereof the Master and Three fourths of the Mariners at least are British Subjects, paying the like Rates and Duties to his Majesty for the same, as are now payable for Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards imported from Norway.

Not to repeal the said Clause so far as it relates to the Netherlands.

III. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge, or repeal the said Clause in the said Act of Parliament, so far as the same prohibits Importation of the said Commodities from the Netherlands: But as to such Importation thereof from the Netherlands, or any Port or Place therein, the before mentioned Act, and all the Penalties and Forfeitures therein contained, shall be in full force and effect, as fully and entirely as if this Act had never been made: any thing in this present Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money.

IV. AD be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any unmalsted Oats or Barley shall be found mixed with or amongst Hail Shipping or Shipped for Exportation, that then and in every such Case, the Person or Persons who shall ship or cause or procure to be shipped such Hail so mixed, shall, for every Bushel thereof, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings.

Forfeiture for mixing unmalsted Oats or Barley with Malt for Exportation, 5 s. per Bushel.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, no Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, exceeding the Quantity of One Gallon, shall be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom to another, by Land or by Water, without such Permit or Certificate from some or one of the Officers of his Majesties Customs or Excise, signifying and certifying the Quality and Quantity thereof, and that his Majesties Duties chargeable thereon have been duly paid and satisfied, or that the same had been Condemned, or was part of such Stock, as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting the Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters which shall be found carrying from one Place to another without such Permit or Certificate, together with the Casks and Vessels whatsoever containing the same.

No Brandy, &c. exceeding a Gallon, to be removed without a Permit.

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act given for or on Account of any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, Strong Waters, or Sweets, hereinafter mentioned, shall and may be sued for, recovered, and levied or mitigated by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture given by any of the Laws of Excise can or may be sued for, recovered, and levied, or mitigated; and that one moiety of every such Penalty or Forfeiture (the reasonable Charges of suing for, recovering, and levying thereof, being first deducted) shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety to him or them that shall seize, inform, or sue for the same.

Penalties how to be sued for, &c.

XXI. And whereas the Clandestine Importation of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, from Parts beyond the Seas into this Kingdom of Great Britain, is of late become more frequent than formerly; and his Majesties Officers who ought and do frequently seize such Liquors so clandestinely imported, are under great Discouragements in the Performance of their Duty therein, in the Trouble and Expence they are forced to be at in procuring the same to be condemned in his Majesties Court of Exchequer, or other of his Majesties Courts: For Remedy whereof, It is hereby Provided, Enacted, and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, where any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, British or Foreign, shall be seized as forfeited by virtue or in pursuance of this present Act, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to his Majesties Revenues of Customs and Excise, or either of them, by any of his Majesties Officers of the said Revenues, or either of them, all such Seizures (except in every Case where the Seizure shall be made for unlawful Importation, and the whole Quantity of the Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, at any one time for that cause seized, doth exceed Sixty three Gallons) shall and may, in a summary way, be proceeded upon, heard, examined into, and determined in the manner herein after mentioned; that is to say, in case such Seizures (except before excepted) shall happen to be made in any Place or Places within the immediate Limits of the chief Excise-Office in London, the same shall and may, in a summary way, be proceeded upon, heard, examined into, and determined by the Commissioners of Excise for the time being, or the major part of them; and in case such Seizure (except before excepted) shall happen to be made in any Place or Places out of the said immediate Limits of the said chief Excise-Office in London, then and in such Case the same shall and may, in a summary way, be proceeded upon, and examined into, heard, adjudged, and determined by and before any Two or more of his Majesties Justices of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Seizure or Seizures shall be made; which said Commissioners and Justices of the Peace respectively within their respective Jurisdictions, shall be and are hereby authorized and impowered to cause the respective Person or Persons, in whose Custody such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters so to be seized, as aforesaid, were found at the time of the Seizure thereof, to be summoned to appear before them at a certain Time and Place to be prefixed by the said Commissioners of Excise and Justices of the Peace respectively, who are hereby fully authorized, impowered, and required, upon the Appearance or Default of such Person or Persons so to be summoned, to examine into the Cause of such Seizure or Seizures, and thereupon to proceed to give Judgment for the Condemnation of such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, so seized (except before excepted) as upon due Examination shall be found to be forfeited by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to his Majesties Revenues of Customs or Excise, together with the Casks and other Vessels whatsoever containing the same, and to issue out their Warrants for the Sale of such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, as shall be so by them respectively condemned, and of the Casks, and other Vessels whatsoever containing the same; and such their respective Judgments shall be and are hereby declared to be taken and adjudged to be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, and final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and not liable to any Appeal, or to be removed by any Writ or Writs of Certiorari; any Law Statute, or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

After 1 Aug. 1720, how Brandy seized shall be sued for, and condemned.

When Brandy, &c. is seized, and no Claim made thereof in 20 Days, how to proceed to Judgment, and Condemnation.

XXII. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where any such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, as aforesaid, (except before excepted) shall be seized as forfeited, and no Person or Persons, within Twenty Days next after such Seizure, shall appear to the Officer or Officers who made such Seizure to claim the same, then and in such case if such Seizure or Seizures shall happen to be made within the immediate Limits of the chief Excise-Office in London, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers who shall make such Seizure or Seizures, from and after the Expiration of the said Twenty Days next after such respective Seizure or Seizures, to cause Notice in Writing to be signed by his Majesties Solicitor for the Revenue of Excise for the time being, to be affixed at the Royal Exchange, signifying the Day, and Time of the Day, that the Commissioners of the Excise for the time being, or the major part of them, will proceed to hear the Matter of such Seizure or Seizures, and to the Condemnation of the Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters so seized, as aforesaid, and of the Casks and other Vessels containing the same; and if such Seizure or Seizures of such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, as aforesaid, (except before excepted) shall happen to be made, as aforesaid, out of the immediate Limits of the said chief Excise-Office in London, It shall and may be lawful for the Officers who shall make such Seizure or Seizures, from and after the Expiration of Twenty Days next after such respective Seizure or Seizures, to cause Publick Notice to be

be given by Proclamation at the next Market-Town to the Place or Places where such respective Seizure of Seizures shall be made, as aforesaid, upon the next Market-Day after the Expiration of the said Twenty Days, of the Day and Place, when and where the Justices of the Peace will proceed to hear the Matter of such Seizure or Seizures, and to the Condemnation of such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, so seized, as aforesaid; in which said cases, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise and Justices of the Peace respectively, within their respective Jurisdictions, to proceed to examine into the Cause of such Seizure or Seizures, and to give Judgment for the Condemnation of such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, so seized, as upon due Examination shall appear to be forfeited, and of the Casks and other Vessels containing the same; which Judgments shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, and final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the respective Owner or Owners of the same Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or other Strong Waters, or the respective Person or Persons in whose Custody the same was at the respective time or times of the Seizure or Seizures thereof, had been respectively summoned to attend the said Commissioners of Excise and Justices of the Peace respectively, in the Manner herein before prescribed, and shall not be liable to any Appeal, or to be removed by Certiorari; any thing in this present Act contained, or any Law, Statute, or Provision, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

No Appeal, or Certiorari.

XXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, if upon Trial or Trials of or in any Information, Action, Suit, or Prosecution whatsoever, relating to his Majesties Duties of Customs and Excise, or to either of them, or to any other his Duties whatsoever, or to any Seizure or Seizures, Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, relating to the said Duties, or any of them, or if upon any Trial or Trials of or in any Action, Suit, or Prosecution whatsoever against any Person or Persons, for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, any or either of them, any Question or Questions shall be made, or any Doubt or Doubts, Dispute or Disputes shall arise or happen, touching or concerning the keeping of any Office or Offices of Excise in any City or Cities, Town or Towns, or touching or concerning any One or more Defendants being an Officer or Officers of or for the said Duties, any or either of them, that in every such Case and Cases, Proof shall and may be made, or Evidence given, either of the actual keeping of such Office or Offices of Excise in such City or Cities, Town or Towns, or of such One or more Defendants actually exercising of, and being employed and intrusted in such Office or Offices respectively, before and at the respective Time and Times when the Matter or Matters in Question upon such Trial or Trials shall happen to have been done or committed, or omitted or neglected to have been done or performed, without producing any particular Person or Persons to prove the Names of the particular and respective Commissioners to any Commissions in the respective Cases before mentioned, any or either of them, to be of their own Hand-writing; and that in every such Case and Cases respectively, such Proof and Evidence shall be deemed and taken to be legal and sufficient Evidence, unless or until by other Evidence the contrary shall or do appear.

In Trials relating to Customs, Excise, &c. if Questions arise concerning the keeping of any Office, or any ones being an Officer, what Proof is requisite.

XXX. And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, Intituled, An Act against Clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, any Ship, Vessel, or Boat of the Burthen of fifteen Tuns or under, wherein any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof thereof (except only for the Use of the Seamen then on board; not exceeding one Gallon for each such Seaman) such Ship, Vessel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, or the Value thereof, is forfeited, and lost, and shall and may be seized, recovered, broke up, and sold, as therein mentioned: And whereas to elude the Penalty of the said Law, many ill disposed Persons do now carry on a Clandestine Trade, by importing these Goods in Ships and Vessels above Fifteen Tuns: For the Prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, shall, from and after the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat, of the Burthen of Thirty Tuns or under (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding One Gallon for each such Seaman) every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, as also all such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be prosecuted by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Seizor or Prosecutor; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it further Enacted, That after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel or Boat, the same shall be intirely broke up, and publickly sold to the best Advantage, together with the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel thereto belonging, and the Produce thereof divided in like manner as the Ships, Vessels and Boats, under Fifteen Tuns, are to be broke up, sold, and the Produce thereof divided, by virtue of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.

XXXII. And whereas by the said Act of the last Session of Par-<sup>5 Geo. cap. 11.</sup>liament, a Remedy was provided, amongst other things, to prevent the Running of Brandy from Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of Fifty Tuns or under, which lie hovering on the Coast within the Limits of the Ports of this Kingdom, and the Exportation of Wooll: And whereas such Ships or Vessels, to elude the Intent of that Law, do lie at Anchor or hover on the Coasts as near to the said Limits as may be, whereby the Masters of such Ships or Vessels, have better Opportunities of making their Signals to the Exporters of Wooll, and the Runners of uncustomed and prohibited Goods, to draw down to the Sea side (as they frequently do in great Numbers of armed Men) and of running the Goods on Shore, and carrying off the Wooll and Coin of this Kingdom in their Boats, which make more frequent Trips to and from the Shore than they could do, if such Ships or Vessels were obliged to lie at a greater Distance from the Shore: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, where any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Fifty Tuns, or under, being in part or fully laden with Brandy, shall be found at Anchor, or hovering within Two Leagues from the Shore, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commander of any of his Majesties Ships of War, frigots, or Armed Sloops, appointed for the Guard of the Coasts, or to and for the Commander of any Pacht, Smack, Sloop, or other Boat or Vessel in the Service of his Majesties Customs, or to and for any Officer of his Majesties Customs, to compel the Master or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, to come into Port: And it is hereby Declared, That such Master or other Person, as aforesaid, as likewise such Ship or Vessel, and the Brandy wherewith such Ship or Vessel is laden, in part or in the whole, shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Cargoes, Ships, and Vessels, and the Masters or others taking Charge thereof, which hover within the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, are by the said Act subject unto; any thing therein, or in any other Act, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXII. And forasmuch as such illegal Importations and Exportations cannot be carried on by such Ships or Vessels, if the Masters or Commanders thereof do take due Care to prevent the same: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, if the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall suffer any Brandy, or other uncustomed or prohibited Goods, to be put out of the said Ship or Vessel into any Bay, Lighter, Boat, or Bottom, to be laid on Land, or shall suffer any Wooll, Wooll-Fells, Worplings, Shortlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wooll-Flocks, Fullers Earth, Fulling-Clay, or Tobacco-Pipe-Clay, to be laden or taken in from the Shore, to be put on board such Ship or Vessel, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, he or they so offending, being convicted thereof, shall, besides the Penalties and Forfeitures to which they will be liable by any Law now in being, suffer Six Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize.

Master, &c. suffering Brandy or uncustomed Goods to be put out of his Ship, or Wooll, &c. to be taken in from the Shore, besides former Penalties, shall suffer Six Months Imprisonment.

XXXIII. And for the preventing Disputes that may arise concerning the Admeasurement of Ships laden with Brandy and other Spirits, as aforesaid, or Ships hovering on the Coast: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the following Rule shall be observed therein, that is to say, Take the Length of the Keel within Board, (so much as she treads on the Ground) and the Breadth within Board by the Midship Beam, from Plank to Plank, and half the Breadth for the Depth, then multiply the Length by the Breadth, and that Product by the Depth, and divide the whole by Ninety four, the Quotient will give the true Contents of the Tonnage: according to which Rule, the Tonnage of all such Ships and Vessels shall be measured and ascertained; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

The Rule to measure the Contents of the Tonnage of such Ships.

XXXIV. And whereas the Punishment already inflicted by Law on such who shall forcibly hinder Officers of the Customs in the due Performance of their Duty, has proved insufficient: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, if any Officer or Officers of the Customs be forcibly hindered, wounded, or beaten in the due Execution of their Office, by any Persons armed with Club, or any manner of Weapon, tumultuously assembled in the Day or Night, to the Number of Eight or more Persons, all and every Person or Persons so forcibly hindring, wounding or beating the said Officer or Officers, or such as shall act in their Aid or Assistance, being convicted thereof, shall, by Order of the Court before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, be transported to some of his Majesties Colonies and Plantations in America, for such Term as the Court shall think fit, not exceeding Seven Years, in the same manner as by an Act made in the Fourth Year of his present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the further preventing Robbery, Burglary, or other Felonies, and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons and unlawful Exporters of Wooll, and for declaring the Law upon some Points relating to Pirates, the Offenders therein mentioned are to be transported to the said Colonies and Plantations.

Eight or more hindring, wounding, &c. Officers in Execution of their Office, to be transported.

XXXV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain or Ireland, before the Expiration of the said Term, contrary to the Intent and Meaning hereof, he or they so returning, shall suffer as Felons, and have Execution awarded against them as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Offender, before Conviction, discovering Two of his Accomplices within Two Months, to have 40 l. for each, and acquitted.

XXXVI. Provided nevertheless, That if any such Offender shall within Two Months after such his Offence, and before his Conviction, discover Two or more of his Accomplices therein to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, so as they, or Two of them at least, be convicted of such Offence, the Offender so discovering shall have and receive the Sum of Forty Pounds for every Offender so discovered and convicted, as a Reward for such his Discovery, and shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his Offence.

Other Persons discovering in 3 Months to have 40 l. over and above any other Reward.

XXXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, if any other Person or Persons shall, within Three Months after such Offence shall have been committed, discover to the said Commissioners respectively any Person or Persons who shall have been guilty of such Offence, so as such Offender or Offenders be convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall have and receive the like Reward of Forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, over and above any other Reward and Recompense which he or they may be entitled unto on Account of the Goods so carried or conveyed away, which shall be recovered by means of such his or their Discovery, or on Account of the Penalty which shall be recovered for the running the said Goods.

To be paid by the Cashire of the Customs.

XXXVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland shall cause the several Rewards of Forty Pounds for the Discovery of the Offenders before mentioned, to be paid by the respective Receiver General or Cashire of the Customs for the time being, out of any Publick Money in his Hands under the Management of the said Commissioners, upon producing to them a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of the Judge or Justice of the Court before whom the Cause shall be tried, certifying the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders; and the Money so paid by any Receiver General, as aforesaid, shall be accepted of and allowed in his Accounts, as so much paid to his Majesty; and he is and shall be hereby discharged thereof accordingly; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And whereas prohibited and customable Goods found by Officers of his Majesties Customs in the Custody of Persons in Boats on the Water, or coming directly from the Water-side, to wit, the customable Goods on Suspicion they were unshipped without Payment of Duty, and the prohibited Goods for being imported contrary to Law; and such Goods being also found in other Places, upon Information that they were clandestinely run, are in like manner kept until the Persons in whose Custody the same are found, or the Owners of such Goods, shall apply to the Commissioners of the Customs, or to the Collector of the Port where such Goods are kept respectively, that the said Goods may be discharged in case there be no just Cause to detain the same; nevertheless the Owners of the Goods, instead of making such Application, do sue the Officers for more than the Value thereof, to their great Charge and Discouragement in the Execution of their Duty: And whereas there is good reason to believe, that many ill-disposed Persons do put themselves purposely in the way of Officers with such Goods in their Custody, and that others, by the Directions of the Owners, do falsely or deceitfully inform the Officers that the Goods were run, to the intent such Officers should seize the same, in order to sue the Officers, and thereby the Owners get excessive Prices for their Goods, and the Officers are deterred from making Seizures, whereby the Clandestine Running of Goods is greatly encouraged: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, if prohibited or

customable Goods shall be found by any Officer or Officers of the Customs in the Custody of any Person or Persons, being in a Bark, Hoy, Lighter, Barge, Boat, or Wherry, on the Water, or coming directly from the Water side, without the Presence of an Officer; or if such Goods shall, upon the Information of One or more Credible Person or Persons, be found in any House, Shop, Cellar, Warehouse, Room, or other Place, on a Search there made in such Manner as in and by an Act made in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second [Intituled, Prohibited or customable Goods in any Boat, &c. or in any House, &c. Officer may stop and warehouse the same till claimed, &c.

An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesties Customs] is mentioned and directed, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers to stop and put the said Goods in his Majesties Warehouse in the Port next to the Place where such Stop shall be made, there to remain until the Claimer or Claimers thereof shall make Proof, by Oath or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for managing his Majesties Customs, if such Stop shall be made within the Ports of London or Edinburgh respectively, that the Duties of the Customable Goods have been paid, or secured to be paid, or that the same had been bought in a lawful way of Trade, and that he, she, or they, so claiming the said Goods, do verily believe the Duties thereof to have been paid, or secured to be paid, or that the said Goods had been compounded for, or condemned in his Majesties Court of Exchequer at Westminster or Edinburgh, or been otherwise delivered by Writ of that Court respectively, and that the prohibited Goods had been compounded for, or condemned, or otherwise delivered, as aforesaid; in which Case such Goods shall and may be delivered without Delay or Charge: And if such Goods shall be stopped in any other of the Ports within this Kingdom, the Claimer or Claimers thereof shall and may make the like Proof to the like Purpose, as aforesaid, and deliver the same to the Collector, or in his Absence, to one of the other Principal Officers of the Customs in the Port where such Stop shall be made; which Proof shall, without Loss of Time, be transmitted to the said Commissioners respectively, for their Directions touching the immediate Delivery of such Goods, without Charge to the Claimer or Claimers, or for the seizing and prosecuting the same, as the said Commissioners shall see Cause.

XL. Provided, such Proof be made within Ten Days after the Goods shall have been so stopped, in Failure whereof the same shall and may be seized, and prosecuted in such Manner as by the several and respective Laws now in force against the Importation of prohibited or uncustomed Goods, is provided, the Forfeiture of such Goods after Condemnation, shall be to and for such Uses, and according to such Proportions or Shares, as are therein and thereby respectively mentioned and distributed.

Proof to be in 10 Days after stopping.

XLI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if upon such Prosecution where no Application hath been made to the Commissioners or Officers aforesaid, and not otherwise, the Property of the Goods shall be claimed by any Person or Persons, and if any Question, Dispute, or Doubt shall arise, whether the Duties thereof were paid or secured, or that the said Goods had been compounded for, or condemned, or otherwise delivered by Writ out of the Court of Exchequer, or bought in a lawful way of Trade, the Proof shall be incumbent on such Claimer or Claimers, and not on the Seizor or Prosecutor; and if thereupon a Verdict shall pass for such Claimer or Claimers, or if the Officer or Officers shall become Nonsuit, or forbear Prosecution, or discontinue the same, or if upon Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Officer or Officers, then and in any of the said Cases, the Claimer or Claimers shall, over and above the Recovery of his, her, or their Goods, or the Value thereof, have reasonable Costs of Suit, for which he, she, or they shall have the like Remedy as where Costs by Law are awarded; which said Costs of Suit shall be reckoned and esteemed as a full Satisfac-

Proof to lie on the Claimer.

If Verdict pass for the Claimer, he shall have reasonable Costs of Suit.

on for the said Claimer or Claimers Damages occasioned by the Detention and Seizure of the said Goods.

If the Claimer make Proof of his Goods, or that they have received any Damage, the Goods to be delivered him without Charge or Delay, and he may bring his Action for Damages.

XLII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where the Claimer or Claimers of such Goods so stopp'd, as aforesaid, shall make Proof either by Oath before any Justice of Peace, or other Person impow'ed to administer the same, or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for managing his Majesties Customs respectively, or Officers of the Customs, as aforesaid, in manner before directed and appointed, so as to induce the respective Commissioners to order the Delivery of the Goods so stopp'd; and if the Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers of such Goods, shall receive any Damage by means of such Stop, then and in such Case the Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers of the said Goods, shall and may receive such Goods by virtue of such Order, without any Charge or Delay; and it shall and may nevertheless be lawful to and for such Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers, to bring his, her, or their Action or Actions against the Officer or Officers, who shall stop his or their Goods, for such reasonable Damages, which, he, she, or they shall or may have sustained by means of the said Goods being so stopp'd or detain'd, as aforesaid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers may prosecute notwithstanding the Directions of the Commissioners.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it Declared to be the true Intent and Meaning hereof, That if the Officer or Officers who shall stop such Goods, or any other Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall be delinquent to seize and prosecute the same, notwithstanding any Directions of the Commissioners of the Customs for the Delivery of the said Goods respectively; It shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers to seize and prosecute the same in such Manner as by the several and respective Laws of the Customs now in force such Goods may be seized and prosecuted; in every of which Case the Officer or Officers so prosecuting, shall be liable, and he or they are hereby declared liable to be sued by the Owner or Owners of the Goods, for the Recovery of the same, or the Value thereof, with full Costs of Suit; or if the said Commissioners shall not order the Delivery of the said Goods so stopp'd, then and in such Case, the Owner and Owners, Claimer or Claimers of such Goods, shall and may nevertheless sue for the Recovery of such Goods, together with Costs and Damages, according to the usual Course of Law, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as he or they might have done before the Passing of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

So may the Owners.

Offences relating to the Customs, where and how to be tried.

XLIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Offences in this Act mentioned, relating to the Customs, or other Duties upon Importation or Exportation, or to uncustomed or prohibited Goods (except as in this Act is otherwise provided) shall and may be heard, tried, and determined by Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XLV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne [Intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low-Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Mullins; and for granting New Duties upon several of the said Commodities and also upon Calico, China Ware, and Drugs] It is Enacted, That any Person or Persons may import into this Kingdom Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Tea, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned; and so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of her Majesties Customs of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices and Tea so intended to be imported, and the Place to which they intend to import the same, same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the time being for the Landing and Importing thereof, as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of her said late Majesty [Intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty New Duties of Excise, and upon several Imported Commodities, and for other Purposes therein mentioned] It is Enacted, That Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, and Race, may be imported into Great Britain, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, the Importer thereof first giving Notice to the said Commissioners of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices, and the Place into which he intends to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the importing thereof; which Importation is to be continued during the Continuance of the said respective Acts which are still in force: And whereas many ill-disposed Persons having taken out Licences for great Quantities of the said Spices and Tea, do import the same at several times in small Parcels, with intent secretly to land the same, as Opportunity shall offer; but if the said Spices or Tea are found by the Officers of the Customs on board the Ship, the Importers, to prevent the Seizures thereof, do produce their Licences, and pretend that those Spices or Tea are part of the Quantities mentioned in the said Licences, whereby there is good reason to suspect that great Frauds are frequently committed, to the lessening his Majesties Revenue, and Prejudice to the fair Merchant: Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Licence to be granted from and after the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, in pursuance of the said Acts, and during their Continuance, for the importing of Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Race, and Tea, shall be expressed the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices and Tea, and the Place or Port into which the same are intended to be imported; and that if any greater Quantity of the said Spices or Tea shall be imported, than what is expressed in the said Licence, the same so imported shall be deemed to be imported without a Licence; and such Licence shall and may be granted without any fee or Reward by the Commissioners or chief Managers of the Customs for the time being, or any Three of them, or by the Customier or Collector and Comptroller of the Port into which the said Spices and Tea are to be imported, so as that all Nutmegs, Cloves, Race, and Cinnamon, to be imported into this Kingdom by virtue of such Licence, from any Place or Places beyond the Seas, other than directly from the East-Indies, be not in any other Package than in Casks or Bales; which Casks or Bales shall contain the Quantity hereafter mentioned, that is to say, each Cask of Nutmegs, Cloves, or Race, to weigh Near Three hundred Pounds Weight, or upwards, each Bale of Cinnamon to weigh Near Seventy Pounds Weight, or upwards.

In every Licence for importing Nutmegs, &c. the Quantity and Place of Landing to be expressed, &c.

Repeated as to Tea, vide 7 Geo. cap. 20.

Repeated as to Tea, vide 7 Geo. cap. 20.

XLVI. And be it further Enacted, That the Licence so taken out for Spice and Tea, as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the Merchant demanding the same; which Licence shall be produced and delivered up by the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship wherein such Spice or Tea shall be imported, with the Name of the Ship and Master, together with the Marks and Numbers of each Cask, Bale, or Parcel, and the Quantity and Quality of such Spice or Tea endorsed on the Back thereof, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port into which the same shall be imported, at the time of his or their entering the Ship; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Licence to be delivered up at entering the Ship.

XLVII. And whereas such Spices are frequently imported in Bags, and other small Parcels, packt in Hogheads, Casks, Bales, or other Package, in order to run the same clandestinely; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Spices above mentioned, shall be found on board any Ship or Vessel, in

Spices in Bags, or small Parcels, &c. for- feited

Bags

Bags or other small Parcels, packt in Hogheads, Casks, or Bales, the same shall be forfeited, one Moiety whereof to be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XLVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the Eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, made (amongst other things) for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks; It was Enacted, That no Debenture should be paid or allowed for any Tobacco, exported from any Port of Great Britain to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate should be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Goods should be landed, testifying the Landing thereof (the Danger of the Seas or Enemies excepted:) And whereas it frequently happens, that Tobacco imported into this Kingdom, and afterwards shipped again for Ireland, both in the Carriage thither waste, and decrease in Weight, but as the Law now stands, no more Drawback can be allowed than for the Quantity of Tobacco particularly specified in the said Certificates returned from Ireland: Now for the Encouragement of all Fair Traders, that shall send Tobacco for Ireland, It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from time to time, upon producing such Certificates, as aforesaid, under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Tobacco shall be landed, testifying the Landing thereof in that Kingdom, at any time or times after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, in case there shall appear to be any Difference in Weight between the Quantity specified in such Certificate, and the Quantity entered and shipped for Exportation thither, so that the Quantity landed in Ireland, shall be less than the Quantity so entered and shipped for that Kingdom, in all and every such Case and Cases, an Allowance shall be made to the Merchant Exporter on the Duties to be drawn back of all such Tobacco so shipped and exported to Ireland, in Consideration of the Waste which may happen (if any be) in the Voyage between Great Britain, and Ireland, so as such Allowance do not in any case exceed Two per Cent; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Allowance of 2 l. per Cent. to be made for Tobacco exported to Ireland for Waste

Tobacco exported for Foreign Parts, landed in Ireland, forfeited and double the Drawback, &c.

XLIX. And whereas it is found by Experience, That great Quantities of Tobacco are clandestinely run into Ireland, after the entering and exporting the same from Great Britain for other Foreign Parts, and the Exporters have entitled themselves to Debentures for the Drawbacks in this Kingdom, in Prejudice of his Majesty's Revenues, and to the Discouragement of Fair Traders; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tobacco, so entered out and exported, shall afterwards be landed in Ireland, the same, and double the Drawback thereof shall be forfeited, and every Debenture for the Drawback thereof shall become void, as if the said Tobacco were reloaded in any Part of Great Britain; which Forfeitures shall and may be prosecuted and recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin respectively, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; in which Prosecution, no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparance; the Moiety of which Forfeiture or Forfeitures to be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same, as aforesaid.

L. And whereas the Exporters of Tobacco for any Foreign Parts, are now only obliged to swear that the Tobacco shipped and certified is not landed, or intended to be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain; It is hereby Enacted that from and after the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, Ireland shall be added and included in the Oath before mentioned (except Ireland to be added to the Oath of Exporters of Tobacco to Foreign Parts.

8 A. cap. 13.

(except for such Tobacco as shall be regularly shipped for Ireland) without which the Officers of the Customs shall not suffer the Debiture to pass; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVI. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, or any of the Clauses therein contained, such Person and Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence for his, her, or their Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his or their Action, or be Non-suited, or Judgment shall be given against him or them upon Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have full Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

Anno 7 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. III.

An Act for repealing an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain, or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the spreading of Infection.

Whereas in the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, an Act passed, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine: And whereas Marseilles, and other Places in the Southern Parts of France, have, for some time past, been visited with the Plague, which occasioned just Apprehensions least the Infection might be brought into this Kingdom from the Places so infected, or other Places trading or corresponding therewith, unless timely Care were taken to prevent the same: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the said Act is defective and insufficient for the Purposes intended; and the Penalties inflicted by the same not adequate to the Offences thereby prohibited; and some further Provisions are necessary to be made, in case it should please Almighty God to permit these Kingdoms to be afflicted with the Plague: For Remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That during the present Infection, and in all future Times, when any Country or Place shall be infected with the Plague, all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever, coming or imported in such Ships or Vessels, into any Port or Place within Great Britain, or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any Place so infected, or from any Place the Inhabitants whereof are known to trade or correspond with any Country or Place actually infected, or from any Place from whence his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy-Council, shall judge it probable that the Infection may be brought, shall be obliged to make their Quarantine in such Place and Places, for such Time, and in such Manner, as hath been or shall, from time to time, be directed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by his or their Order or Orders made in his or their Privy-Council, and notified by Proclamation; and that until such Ships, Vessels, Per-

When any Country shall be infected, all Ships, &c. coming from thence, or from Places trading therewith, to make their Quarantine, as shall be directed by Proclamation, and till discharged, no Persons or Goods to come on Shore, or go on board any other Ship, unless by Licence.

All Ships to be subject to his Majesties Orders in Council notified by Proclamation.

After any Orders made concerning Quarantine, the Principal Officer of the Customs, or other Person appointed, to interrogate the Master, who is to give a true Account of all Particulars hereafter mentioned,

That is to say,

On Examination, if any Person on board appear to be infected, all Officers, &c. to resist the Entrance of such Ship into any Port, &c. by Firing of Guns, or by any other Force.

Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, shall have respectively performed, and be discharged from such Quarantine, no such Persons, Goods, or Merchandizes, or any of them, shall come or be brought on Shore, or go or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel in any Place within his Majesties Dominions, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Council, and notified, as aforesaid; and that all such Ships and Vessels, and the Persons and Goods coming or imported in, or going or being put on board the same, and all Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Persons receiving any Goods or Persons out of the same, shall be subject to such Orders, Rules, and Directions concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection, as have been or shall be made by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Council, and notified by Proclamations, as aforesaid.

II. And to the end it may be the better known, whether any Ship or Vessel be actually infected with the Plague, or whether such Ship or Vessel, or the Mariners or Cargo coming and imported in the same, are liable to any Orders touching Quarantine; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the present Infection, and in all future Times, when any County or Place shall be infected with the Plague, and any Order or Orders shall be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection, and notified, as aforesaid, as often as any Ship or Vessel shall attempt to enter into any Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, the Principal Officer of his Majesties Customs in such Port or Place, or such Person as shall be authorized to see Quarantine duly performed, shall go off, or cause some other Person to be by him appointed for that Purpose, to go off to such Ship or Vessel; and such Officer or other Person authorized to see Quarantine performed, as aforesaid, or the Person so by him appointed for that Purpose, shall, at a convenient Distance from such Ship or Vessel, demand of the Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, and such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall, upon such Demand, give a true Account of the following Particulars; (that is to say) The Name of such Ship or Vessel; The Name of the Commander or the Person having Charge thereof; At what Place the Cargo was taken on board; What Place or Places the Ship or Vessel touched at in her Voyage; Whether such Places, or any, and which of them, were infected with the Plague; How long such Ship or Vessel had been in her Passage; How many Persons were on board when the said Ship or Vessel set Sail; Whether any, and what Persons, during that Voyage, on board such Ship or Vessel, had been or shall be then infected with the Plague; How many died in the Voyage, and of what Distemper; What Ships or Vessels he or any of his Ships Company with his Privy went on board, or had any of their Company come on board his Ship or Vessel in the Voyage; And to what Place such Ships or Vessels belonged; And also the true Contents of his Lading to the best of his Knowledge; And in case it shall appear upon such Examination or otherwise, that any Person then on board such Ship or Vessel, shall at the time of such Examination be actually infected with the Plague, in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of any of his Majesties Ships of War, or any of his Majesties Forts or Garrisons, and all other his Majesties Officers, whom it may concern, upon Notice thereof given to them, or any of them respectively, and to and for any other Person or Persons, whom they shall call to their Aid and Assistance, and they are hereby required to resist and oppose the Entrance of such Ship or Vessel into any such Port or Place, or to oblige such Ship or Vessel to depart out of the same, and to use all necessary Means for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them, be it by Firing of Guns upon such Ship

Ship or Vessel, or any other kind of Force and Violence whatsoever; and in case any such Ship or Vessel shall come from any Place visited with the Plague, or have any Person on board actually infected, and the Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall not discover the same, such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and suffer Death, as in case of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; and in case such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall, upon such Demand made, as aforesaid, not make a true Discovery in any other of the Particulars before mentioned, such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the King, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will sue for the same, by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, Edinburgh, Dublin, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, respectively.

Ship coming from Places visited, or having any infected on board, Master, &c. not discovering, Guilty of Felony, and not discovering any of the other Particulars forfeits 200 l.

How to be recovered and divided.

If the Master, shall quit the Ship, &c.

unless by Licences, or shall not after Notice, cause the Ship and Lading to be conveyed into the Place for Quarantine, Ship, &c. forfeited to his Majesty.

Where to be sued for.

And Master, &c. to forfeit 200 l.  $\frac{1}{2}$  to the King,  $\frac{1}{2}$  to the Informer.

Persons quitting the Ship may by Force be compelled to return on board, and shall be imprisoned for 6 Months, and also forfeit 200 l.  $\frac{1}{2}$  to the King,  $\frac{1}{2}$  to the Informer.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarantine, shall himself quit, or shall permit or suffer any Seaman, or Passenger coming in such Ship or Vessel, to quit such Ship or Vessel by going on Shore, or by going on board any other Ship, Boat, or Vessel, before such Quarantine shall be fully performed, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made or to be made concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection, and notified, as aforesaid; or in case any Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall not within convenient time, after due Notice given for that Purpose by the proper Officer, cause such Ship or Vessel, and the Lading, to be conveyed into the Place or Places appointed for such Ship or Vessel, and the Lading thereof, to perform Quarantine respectively, then and in every such Case, every such Ship or Vessel, with her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, shall be forfeited to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and shall and may be seized, sued for, and recovered in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, or Man respectively, to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and every such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the King, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will sue for the same; and also if any Person shall to quit such Ship or Vessel by going on Shore, or by going on board any other Ship or Vessel contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for all Persons whatsoever, by Force and Violence, to compel such Person to return on board such Ship or Vessel; and every such Person so quitting such Ship or Vessel, shall, for every such Offence, suffer Imprisonment for the Space of Six Months, and shall also forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; one Moiety to the King, his Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same; the same respective Penalties and Forfeitures to be recovered by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times hereafter any City, Town or Place within Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall be infected with the Plague, and the same, upon Examination, shall be made appear to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Council, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of to such Order.

XIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall appear to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, that during the Time of such Infection, as aforesaid, any Ship or Vessel shall come into any Port or Place within any of his Majesties Dominions from any Place infected with the Plague, or being laden with any Goods or Cargo taken on board such Ship or Vessel at any Place so infected, or from on board any Ship or Vessel so infected, as aforesaid, or that there shall be any Person or Persons on board such Ship or Vessel actually infected with the Plague, or that any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes are actually infected with the Plague, then, and in any of the said Cases, It shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Order in Council, to direct, authorize, and empower any Person or Persons that shall be thought proper, to burn or destroy, or cause to be burnt or destroyed, such Ship or Vessel, with the Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereof, and such Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes infected, as aforesaid, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for preventing the Spreading of the Infection.

His Majesty, by Order in Council, may cause any Ship, &c. coming into any Port from any Place infected, to be burnt, or destroyed.

XIV. And it is hereby further Enacted, That after Quarentine shall have been duly performed by any Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, obliged to perform Quarentine, according to such Order or Orders made and notified, as aforesaid, and this Act, and upon Proof to be made by the Oaths of the Master, or other Person

How Ships and Persons shall be discharged after Quarantine performed.

son having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, and of Two of the Persons belonging to such Ship or Vessel, or upon Proof to be made by the Oaths of Two Credible Witnesses before the Customier, Comptroller, or Collector of the Port where such Quarantine shall be performed, or the next Port thereunto, or before any of their Deputies, or any One Justice of the Peace living near to such Port or (where such Quarantine shall have been performed in any Inland Place) before any Two Justices of the Peace living near thereunto, or where such Quarantine shall have been performed within any of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, before any Two Justices or Magistrates of any of the said Isles respectively (which Persons are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath) that such Ship or Vessel, and all and every such Person and Persons respectively, have duly performed Quarantine, as aforesaid, and that the Ship or Vessel, and all and every such Person and Persons, are free from Infection, then, and in the said respective Cases, such Customier, Comptroller, or Collector, or any of their Deputies, together with the said Justice of the Peace, or such Two Justices of the Peace, or such Jurats or Magistrates, as aforesaid, respectively, are hereby required to give a Certificate thereof; and thereupon such Ship or Vessel, and all and every such Person and Persons so having performed Quarantine, shall be liable to no further Restraint or Detention upon the same Account for which such Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons shall have performed Quarantine, as aforesaid.

Fee for Certificate, Oath, &c. 1 s. each.

XV. And it is hereby further Enacted, That the Officer before whom such Oath shall be made, and by whom such Certificate shall be given, shall, for such respective Oath and Certificate, demand no more than One Shilling for each, over and above the Stamp Duties.

After Quarantine performed, all Goods to be aired.

XVI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby Enacted, That all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, shall, after Quarantine performed, be opened, and aired, in such Place or Places, and for such Time, and in such Manner, as hath been or shall be directed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors by such Order or Orders, made or to be made and notified, as aforesaid; and after such Orders shall have been duly complied with, and Proof shall be made thereof by the Oaths of Two or more Credible Witnesses before the Customier, Comptroller, or Collector of the Port, living next to such Place or Places where such Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, shall have been opened and aired, as aforesaid, or any of their Deputies, and any One Justice of the Peace living near the same, or before any Two Jurats or Magistrates of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively (who are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath) upon Certificate and Return of such Proof by such Customier, Comptroller, or Collector, or any of their Deputies, or such Two Jurats or Magistrates, as aforesaid, (who are hereby respectively required to make such Certificate and Return to the Commissioners appointed for the Management of the Customs in Great Britain, or Ireland, or to the Governor or Commander in Chief, being upon the Place, in the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively,) such Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, shall be forthwith discharged from any Restraint or Detention on the same Account, by Order of the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, or of the said Governor or Commander in Chief of any of the said Isles, as aforesaid, respectively; for every of which Oath, Certificate, and Order, no more shall be demanded or taken than the Sum of One Shilling.

Proof to be made thereof by Oath, which is to be certified,

and thereby, Order to be discharged.

Fee for Certificate, Oath, &c. 1 s.

Fee for Certificate, &c. 1 s. Officer demanding more, forfeits, 100 l.

to the King,

XVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if any Officer or other Person shall demand or take any greater Sum than is hereby allowed and limited for any such Oath, Order, or Certificate, to be administered or made in pursuance of this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the

the other Party to him or them, who will sue for the same by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or in the proper Courts of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively; in which Cases Costs shall be allowed to either Party as in other Cases.

XVIII. And whereas it is Notorious, that notwithstanding the many good Laws made to prevent the clandestine Importation of customable and prohibited Goods and Merchandizes, a Pernicious Trade of that kind is still carried on, for the most part, in open Boats, and Vessels of small Burthen, which privately, and in the Night, put into Creeks and secret Places on the Coast, thereby escaping the Observation of the Officers of the Customs; which Practices may prove highly Detrimental to the Safety of these Kingdoms, during a Time of Infection: For Prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the present Infection, and in all future Times, when any part of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or France, Spain, Portugal, or the Low Countries, shall be infected with the Plague, It shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his or their Proclamation, to prohibit and restrain all small Boats and Vessels, under the Burthen of Twenty Tuns, from sailing or passing out of any Port or Place of Great Britain, or Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them, until Security be first given by the Master of every such Boat or Vessel respectively, to the Satisfaction of the Principal Officer of the Customs, or the Chief Magistrate of the Port or Place from whence such Boat or Vessel shall sail, by Bond taken to the King, his Heirs or Successors, with sufficient Sureties, in the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds, with Condition, That if such Boat or Vessel shall not go to, or touch at any Country, Port, or Place to be mentioned for that purpose in such Proclamation, and if the Master or other Person having Charge of such Boat or Vessel, and all and every Mariner and Mariners, Passenger and Passengers going in such Boat or Vessel, shall, during the Time aforesaid, not go on board any other Ship or Vessel at Sea, and if such Master or other Person having Charge of such Boat or Vessel, shall not permit or suffer any Person or Persons to come on board such Boat or Vessel at Sea, from any other Ship or Vessel, and shall not, during the Time aforesaid, receive any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever out of any other Ship or Vessel, then such Bond shall be void, or to such effect; for the making of which Bond no more shall be taken than the Sum of One Shilling over and above the Stamp-Duties; and in case any Boat or Vessel, for which such Security shall be required by such Proclamation, shall set sail or pass out of any Port or Place of Great Britain, or Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them respectively, before such Security shall be given, as aforesaid, every such Boat or Vessel, so sailing or passing out of any Port or Place contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, shall be forfeited to the King, his Heirs and Successors, and shall and may be seized, sued for, and recovered in his Majesties Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively, to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and the Master of, and every Mariner sailing in every such Boat or Vessel, being thereof lawfully convicted upon his or their Appearance or Default, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more Credible Witnesses, by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace where such Offender shall be found, which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered and required to administer, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offender shall be found; the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders to the Informer.

During any Infection his Majesty, by Proclamation may prohibit small Boats, &c. under 20 Tuns from passing out of any Port without Security in 100*l.* Penalty, &c.

Any such Boat or Vessel going out of Port without such Security, forfeited, &c. to his Majesty.

Proclamation.

General Issue.

ders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, as aforesaid; and for want of sufficient Districts, every such Offender shall by such Justice or Justices be committed to Prison, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months; and in case such Offender shall be found in any of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and shall be lawfully convicted of such Offence in any Action or Suit to be founded upon this Act, in the proper Court of any of the said Isles where he shall be so found, such Offender shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offender shall be found, and shall suffer Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months.

XIX. And forasmuch as the Persons using such clandestine Trade, are greatly encouraged to continue in the same, by reason great Numbers of Persons, for their private Lucre, receive and buy the Goods and Merchandizes so by them clandestinely imported contrary to Law: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall receive or buy any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, so clandestinely run or imported, before the same shall have been legally condemned, knowing the same to be so clandestinely run or imported, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted upon his, her, or their Appearance or Default, upon the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses, by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Division, or Liberty, where such Offence shall be committed, or the Offender shall be found (which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer) the Person so convicted shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; the same to be levied by Districts and Sale of the Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, as aforesaid; and for want of such Districts, every such Offender shall by such Justice or Justices be committed to Prison, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Months.

XX. And to the End that all Persons may know how to demean themselves in the Premises, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when, and as often as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall make any Order or Orders concerning Quarentine, and the Prevention of Infection, and notify the same by Proclamation, as aforesaid, such Proclamation shall be publickly read upon the next Sunday after the Receipt of the same, and the first Sunday in every Month afterwards, during the time such Orders shall continue in Force, immediately after the Prayers and the Sermon, in all Parish-Churches and other Places set apart for Divine Worship within such Counties and Places as shall be specified for that purpose in such Proclamation.

XXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this present Act, that the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Tryal to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

XXII. And it is hereby Enacted, That this Act, and the several Clauses and Provisions therein contained, shall commence and take Effect from and after the Tenth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred, and twenty, and shall continue in Force for the Space of Three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and from and after the said Tenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, the aforesaid Act, made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform Quarentine (as to all Matters and Things to arise or be done, from and after the said Tenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and twenty) shall be and stand absolutely repealed.

Act to take Effect from and after 10 Feb. 1720. and to continue for 3 Years, &c. and the Act 9 Anne, cap. 2. repealed from this day.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Watches by this Act before directed to be kept, shall be maintained at the Charges of the County or Riding wherein such Watches shall be respectively kept; and that the Justices of the Peace in their General Quarter-Sessions shall have Power, and are hereby required to raise Monies upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in which they are impowered to act by their Commissions, in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, as they are respectively impowered to raise Money for County Goals and Bridges, to satisfy the Charges and Expences of such Watches as shall have been kept in pursuance of this Act; and the Monies so raised, shall be paid to the Chief Constable of each Division, to be by him paid and distributed according to the Order of such Justices, to the Persons who shall be respectively entitled to receive the same on Account of keeping such Watches, as aforesaid.

Watches to be maintained by the County, &c.

The Monies to be paid to the Chief Constable.

XXIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer, or other Person appointed to see Quarentine duly performed, or any Person placed or appointed as a Watchman upon any Town or Place infected with the Plague, or upon any Line or Lines, Trench or Trenches made, as aforesaid, or any House, Lazaret, Ship, or other Place for Performance of Quarentine in pursuance of this Act, shall knowingly and willingly permit or suffer any Person, Ship, Goods, or Merchandizes, to depart, or be conveyed out of such Town or Place infected, or such Line or Lines, Trench or Trenches made, as aforesaid, or such House, Lazaret, Ship, or other Place respectively appointed for Performance of Quarentine, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, as are or shall be directed or permitted by some Order or Orders, made or to be made and notified by Proclamation, as aforesaid, then and in any of the said Cases, every such Officer and Person so offending, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Officer or Watchman permitting any Person, Ship, &c. to depart without Licence, guilty of Felony.

XXV. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That in case any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any Judgment of any Justice or Justices of the Peace given for any Offence against this Act, It shall and may be lawful for such Person to appeal against such Judgment to the Justices of the Peace in the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held for the same County, Riding, Division, or Liberty, next after Notice of such Judgment of the said Justice or Justices; and the Justices of the Peace in the said General Quarter-Sessions are hereby impowered to summon Witnesses, and examine the same upon Oath, and to hear, and finally determine the Matter of the said Appeal; and in case the Justices in such General Quarter-Sessions shall give Judgment against such Appellant, then the same Justices shall award and order to the Party on whose Behalf such Appeal shall be determined, such reasonable Costs and Charges to be paid by such Appellant, as to the same Justices shall seem meet.

Persons grieved, may appeal to the Quarter-Sessions, &c.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it hereby Enacted, That no Attainder of Felony by virtue of this Act, shall extend to work any Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture of any Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments.

No Attainder to extend to Corruption of Blood.

How the Duties chargeable with these Annuities, shall be raised.

VII. AN D for the better Securing to the said South-Sea Company, and their Successors, as also to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and the said East-India Company, and their Successors respectively, all the Payments intended by this Act to be reserved or made to them severally; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Duties and Revenues whatsoever, which by the said Act of the Sixth Year of his Majesties Reign, were charged, or intended to be charged, to or with the Payment of the Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said South-Sea Company, or any Additions which were to be made thereunto, or to or with the Payment of any Monies for Charges of Management, shall, from time to time, be raised, levied, and collected, and all the Monies arising thereby (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, and paying the same into the Exchequer in England) shall, from time to time, be brought and paid into the same Exchequer for the Purposes in and by this Act prescribed and expressed, by and according to the Methods, Rules, and Directions, and with such Drawbacks, Repayments, and Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as by any former Act or Acts of Parliament are prescribed or referred to in that behalf; and that all the Monies, which shall be so brought into the said Receipt, from time to time, of or for the said Duties and Revenues respectively, shall be fairly and distinctly entered and registered in One or more Book or Books, to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the said Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells severally for that purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all reasonable Times, shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

6 Geo. cap. 4.

The Monies arising by the Duties to be entered in a Book distinctly.

One other Book to be kept for entering such Proportions of the Monies as shall be issuable to the South-Sea Company.

Another Book for the Bank.

Another for the East-India Company.

VIII. And it is hereby also Enacted, That the said Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells for the time being, shall severally keep one other Book, in which shall be entered distinctly and separately, so much or such Proportions of the said Monies so coming, from time to time, into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, as, by the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall be issuable to the said South-Sea Company for their Annuities, and for their Proportions of the said Charges of Management; and one other Book, in which shall be entered distinctly and separately, so much or such Proportions of the said Monies so coming, from time to time, into the said Receipt, as, by the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall be issuable to the said Governour and Company of the Bank of England (after an Assignment or Transfer made to them, as aforesaid) for their Annuity or Annuities, and for their Proportion of the said Charges of Management; and one other Book, in which shall be entered distinctly and separately, so much or such Proportions of the said Monies, so coming, from time to time, into the said Receipt, as, by the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall be issuable to the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, (after an Assignment or Transfer made to them, as aforesaid) for their Annuity or Annuities, and for their Proportion of the said Charges of Management; and that all the Proportions of Money, so, from time to time, coming into the said Receipt, for the several Purposes before mentioned, shall shall be separated and kept apart from all other Monies whatsoever, payable into the same Receipt.

IX. And it is hereby also Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies, which shall or ought to be so separated and kept apart for the said Purposes in this Act expressed, shall be and are hereby appropriated, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of such Sum and Sums of Money, as, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall, from time to time, be due or payable to the said South-Sea Company, and (after such Assignment or Assignments, Transfer or Transfers) to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to the said East-India Company respectively (subject nevertheless to such Reduction and Redemption as are in and by this Act prescribed touching the same) and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever: And that the respective Officers in the Exchequer, who shall make any wilful Delay in issuing or paying the same, or shall be guilty of diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies contrary to this Act, for any such Offence, shall be forejudged of their respective Offices or Places, and be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit whatsoever, and shall also be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums of Money so wilfully delayed to be paid, or so diverted or misapplied, as aforesaid, to the said respective Corporations or Bodies Politick, or such of them as shall be injured thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed.

All the Monies so set apart, to be accordingly appropriated.

Penalty on Officers of the Exchequer delaying or diverting the Money.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Annuities or Yearly Funds payable to the said Corporations, or any of them, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, shall, at the respective Rates aforesaid, grow, and be accounted due Quarterly, at the four most usual Feasts in the Year by equal Portions, until and for the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, and from thenceforth after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until Redemption by Parliament pursuant to this Act: It being intended, and hereby Declared and Enacted, That from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, such of the same Annuities, as in the mean time are to be payable after the said Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be certainly and actually reduced to the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until such Redemption; which Payments so growing due Quarterly, shall and may nevertheless be satisfied by Weekly or other Payments, as is hereinafter directed. And for the better and more regular Payment of all the Monies intended by this Act to be paid to the said several and respective Corporations or any of them, (subject nevertheless to such Reduction and Redemption as are by this Act provided concerning the same) an Order or Orders shall, from time to time, be made forth and signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or by the High Treasurer for the time being; and after signing thereof, the same shall be good, firm, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Death or Removal of any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the time being, or by or upon the Death or Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them, or any of them; nor shall any Commissioners of the Treasury, High Treasurer, or Under Treasurer for the time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Order or Orders so made forth and signed, as aforesaid.

Annuities payable Quarterly at 5 l. per Cent. till 24 June, 1727. and afterwards at 4 l. per Cent.

be issued Weekly, &c.

XI. And for the more speedy Payment of the Monies which shall be due and payable to the same Corporations, or any of them, thereupon; It is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That Weekly, or otherwise, as the Monies appointed or intended by this Act to be applied for or towards the said Payments to grow due to them, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and shall or ought to be set apart for that purpose, as aforesaid, such Monies shall and may, from time to time, be issued upon such Order or Orders, for or towards discharging the said several Annuities or Yearly Funds of the same Corporations respectively, and the said Allowances for Charges of Management to grow due at the End of that Quarter of a Year, in which such Issues or Payments shall be made, so as such Weekly or other Payments do not exceed the Sums which shall grow due for or at the End of such Quarter respectively.

The Deficiency of one Quarter to be supplied out of the Overplus of the subsequent Quarter.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, at any time or times, the Monies, which shall be brought into the Exchequer, and be set apart, as aforesaid, for making the Payments by this Act appointed and intended to be made to the said Corporations and their Successors, or any of them (which Monies are by this Act appropriated for or towards that Use and Purpose) shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge, or complete the Payment at the End of any Quarter of a Year of all the Monies which shall be then due for or upon their said Annuities or Yearly Funds, and for or upon their said Allowances for Charges of Management, then and so often, and in every such Case, the Deficiency of any such Quarter shall and may be supplied out of the Overplus of the like Monies to arise, and to be set apart, as aforesaid, in any subsequent Quarter.

All Abilities, Capacities, &c. for Securing their Possession, Trade, &c. continued to the Three Companies.

XXI. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared, That all and every the Abilities, Capacities, Powers and Authorities, and all Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and all other Matters and Things whatsoever, which, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Clause or Clauses therein contained, or by any Charter or Charters founded upon them, or any of them, are enacted, granted, or established, to, for, touching or concerning the said several and respective Corporations or Bodies Politick, called the South-Sea Company, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the said East-India Company, or any of them, or the Members of the same, or any of them, or any Person or Persons employed, or to be employed under them, or any of them (being now in force, and not by this Act altered, or intended to be altered) shall, according to the Tenor and true Meaning thereof, continue, and be practised, and put in Execution, for securing their several and respective Possessions, Trade, and other Effects, and for governing their Affairs and Business respectively, in all respects, as fully and effectually as if the same Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and other Matters and Things, were severally repeated, and at large reenacted in the Body of this present Act.

Not to hinder the Payment of 700000 l. per Annum to his Majesty;

or the Annuities to his Royal Highness; or the 4000 l. per Annum for Sheriffs.

XXII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall obstruct or hinder, or be construed to obstruct or hinder the Payment of any part of the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, settled during his Majesty's Life (which God long preserve) for Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of his Crown; or any part of the Annuities granted by his Majesty to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or his Trustees, out of the same, pursuant to Acts of Parliament in that behalf; or to obstruct or hinder the Payment of the Yearly Sum of four thousand Pounds, payable by any Act or Acts of Parliament out of part of the Duties and Revenues above mentioned, to Sheriffs of England, and Wales, for defraying the Charges of taking forth their Letters Patents for their respective Offices, and passing their several Accounts, and obtaining their Quietness; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time after the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament, to the said Corporation, commonly called the South-Sea Company, of the Sum of the Capital Stock, or of that part of the Capital Stock, which shall then belong to that Corporation, according to this Act, without any Deduction, Defalcation or Abatement whatsoever, to be made out of the same Sum, or any part thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears, which shall be then due at the respective Rates aforesaid, or either of them, for or upon their then Annuities or Yearly Funds, payable in respect thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears of the said Yearly Sums, or of such Proportions thereof, as shall be payable to them for Charges of Management; all which Arrears (if any such be) shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast Day then next preceding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day, till the time of such full Payment of their Capital Sum; then the same Annuities or Yearly Funds, and the Yearly Sums to be allowed to them for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, and every of them shall, from thenceforth cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 24 June, 1727, on Repayment to the South-Sea Company of their Capital Stock, &c. their Annuities to cease.

XXIV. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England of the whole Capital Sum which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to them from the said South-Sea Company, pursuant to this Act, as aforesaid, without any Deduction, Defalcation, or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any part thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears which shall be then due for or upon the then Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, payable in respect thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears for their part of the said Allowances for Charges of Management; all which Arrears (if any such be) shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast day then next preceding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day till the time of such Payment of their part of the said Capital Stock; then the said Annuity or Annuities, Yearly Fund or Yearly Funds, and the said Yearly Sums for Charges of Management, so payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and every of them, shall from thenceforth cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 24 June, 1727, on Repayment to the Bank of the whole Sum transferred from the South-Sea Company, &c. the Yearly Funds, &c. to cease.

XXV. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said East-India Company of the whole Capital Sum which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to them from the said South-Sea Company, pursuant to this Act, without any Deduction, Defalcation, or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any part thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears which shall be then due for or upon the Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said East-India Company in respect thereof; and upon Payment of all Arrears of their part of the said Allowances for Charges of Management; all which Arrears (if any such be) shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast-day then next preceding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day till the time of such full Payment of their Capital Sum; then the same Annuity and Annuities, Yearly Fund and Yearly Funds, and the said Yearly Sums for Charges of Management, so payable to the said East-India Company, and every of them, shall from thenceforth cease and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The same Clause for the East-India Company.

XXVI. And

After 24 June, 1727. on Repayment to the South-Sea Company of any Sum, not less than 50000*l.* at a time, a proportional part of their Annuities shall cease.

XXVI. And in regard it is intended, that at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, the Principal or Sum Total of the Capital Stock, or so much thereof as shall then belong to the said South-Sea Company, may be satisfied to them by any Payments (not being less than Five hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain at a time) and that as the same Principal Monies shall be paid off, the Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said South-Sea Company, payable in respect thereof, shall, from time to time, proportionably sink and be abated; Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time or times, after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said South-Sea Company, of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than Five hundred thousand Pounds at a time) in part of the Principal Monies of the said Capital Stock which shall then belong to the said South-Sea Company; and upon Payment of all Arrears then due to them at the respective Rates aforesaid, for or upon their said Annuities or Yearly Funds, or so much of those Arrears as shall bear a Proportion to their Principal Sums, from time to time, remaining unsatisfied, being computed by the Day, until the time of every such Payment of part of the Principal respectively; and upon Payment of all Arrears then due, for or upon the said Yearly Sums, or their part of the said Yearly Sums for Charges of Management; then from and after every such Payment so made to the said South-Sea Company, so much of their said Annuities or Yearly Funds as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine, and be abated; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And on Repayment to the Bank of any Sum not less than 50000*l.* at a time, a proportional part of their Annuities to cease.

XXVII. And in regard it is also intended, that at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, the Principal or Sum Total of the Capital Stock, which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, pursuant to this Act, may be satisfied to them by any Payments (not being less than Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain at a time) and that as the same Principal Money shall be paid off, the Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, payable in respect thereof, shall, from time to time, proportionably sink and be abated: Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon the Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds at a time) in part of the Principal Monies of the said Capital Stock, which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to them from the said South-Sea Company, as aforesaid; and upon Payment of all Arrearages then due to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for or upon the said Annuities or Yearly Funds in respect thereof, or so much of those Arrears as shall bear a Proportion to their Principal Sums, from time to time, remaining unsatisfied, being computed by the Day, until the Time of every such Payment of part of the Principal respectively; and upon Payment of all Arrears then due for their part of the said Allowances for Charges of Management; then from and after every such Payment so made to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, so much of their said Annuities or Yearly Funds as shall bear Proportion to the Money so paid in part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine, and be abated; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And in regard it is likewise intended, that at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, the Principal or Sum Total of the Capital Stock, which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to the said East-India Company, pursuant to this Act, may be satisfied to them by any Payments (not being less than Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain at a time) and that as the same Principal Monies shall be paid off, the Annuities or Yearly Funds of the said East-India Company, payable in respect thereof, shall, from time to time, proportionably sink and be abated: Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said East-India Company of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds at a time) in part of the Principal Monies of the said Capital Stock, which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to them from the said South-Sea Company, as aforesaid; and upon Payment of all Arrearages then due to the said East-India Company, for or upon the said Annuities or Yearly Funds in respect thereof, or so much of those Arrears as shall bear a Proportion to their Principal Sums, from time to time, remaining unsatisfied, being computed by the Day, until the Time of every such Payment of part of the Principal respectively; and upon Payment of all Arrears then due for their part of the said Allowances for Charges of Management; then, from and after every such Payment so made to the said East-India Company, so much of their said Annuities or Yearly Funds as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine, and be abated; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The like Clause
for the East-India Company.

XXIX. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Redemption of the said Annuities or Yearly Sums of the said several Corporations, or any of them, and of the said Yearly Sums for Charges of Management, or any of them, according to the several and respective Provisions, and Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained for or concerning the same, then, and not till then, so much of the several Duties and Revenues abovementioned, as were by this Act applicable thereunto, during the Continuance thereof, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid, or applied to any Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, without Authority of Parliament.

After such Redemption the Duties applicable thereto shall be understood to be redeemed
by Parliament.

XXX. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue a Corporation, with all the Powers, Privileges and Advantages thereunto belonging, until all their Share or Shares of Capital Stock, which shall be assigned or transferred, or then belong to them, from the South-Sea Company pursuant to this Act, and all their Annuity or Annuities to attend the same, and such Proportion for Charges of Management, as by this Act is intended to be allowed to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be actually redeemed, according to the several and respective Provisions or Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained for that purpose, notwithstanding the Redemption of their other Funds by which they are established, or any of them; any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank to continue a Corporation till all the Shares transferred to them by the South-Sea Company be redeemed.

XXXVII. And it is hereby Enacted, That upon every such Payment, or reserving such Money in the Exchequer to make such Payment to the said South-Sea Company, and to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the said East-India Company, every or any of them respectively, a proportional part of the Annuities or Yearly Funds then belonging to them, and every or any of them respectively, for which the said Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum is payable, as aforesaid, and for which so much of their Capital Stock shall be paid off, or for which Money shall be so reserved, from time to time, shall cease and determine; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

On every such Payment a proportional part of the Annuities to cease.

C A P. VII.

An Act to preserve and encourage the Woollen and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom; and for more effectual employing the Poor, by prohibiting the Use and Wear of all printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household-Stuff, Furniture, or otherwise, after the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two (except as therein is excepted.)

Preamble.

Whereas it is most evident, that the wearing and using of printed, painted, stained, and dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household Stuff, Furniture, and otherwise, does manifestly tend to the great Detriment of the Woollen and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and to the excessive Encrease of the Poor, and if not effectually prevented, may be the utter Ruin and Destruction of the said Manufactures, and of many Thousands of your Majesties Subjects and their Families, whose Livelihoods do intirely depend thereupon: For Remedy thereof, may it please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of December, which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, It shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to use or wear in Great Britain, in any Garment or Apparel whatsoever, any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico, under the Penalty of forfeiting to the Informer the Sum of Five Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, for every such Offence, being lawfully convicted thereof by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace; which Justice or Justices is and are hereby respectively authorized and strictly enjoined and required, upon any Complaint or Information upon Oath exhibited or brought of any such Offence committed, contrary to this Act, within Six Days after Commitment thereof, to summon the Party accused; and, upon his or her Appearance or Contempt, to proceed to Examination of the Matter of Fact; and upon due Proof made thereof, either by voluntary Confession of the Party, or by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath or Oaths the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer) to hear and determine the same, and upon such Conviction to cause the said Penalty, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals respectively, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, rendering to the Party the Overplus (the Charge of such Distress and Sale being first deducted;) nevertheless it shall be lawful for any Party agreed to appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the County, City, Riding, or Place, where the said Offence or Offences shall have been committed, giving Six Days Notice at the least of such Appeal to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors; which

After 25 Dec. 1722. None to wear in any Apparel any painted Callico, on Penalty of 5 l. on Conviction before a Justice of Peace.

Penalty to be levied by Distress.

Appeal to the next Quarter-Sessions, giving 6 Days Notice to the Prosecutor.

which Justices, at such General Quarter-Sessions, are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine the same, and their Judgment therein shall be final.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Mercer, Draper, Upholder, or any other Person or Persons, or Corporation whatsoever, shall, at any time or times after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, sell, utter or expose to Sale any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico, or any Bed, Chair, Cushion, Window-Curtain, or other Household Stuff, or Furniture whatsoever, made up of, or mixed with any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico, unless for Exportation thereof, and unless the same shall be cleared outwards accordingly, as is usual in case of Sale for Exportation, every such Person or Corporation so offending, shall, for every such Offence, being lawfully convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered as is herein after directed; and every Steward, or other Officer of such Corporation, or his Deputy, offending herein, and being lawfully convicted of such Offence, shall, over and besides the Forfeiture or Penalty aforesaid, forfeit and lose his Office and Employment, and be incapable to hold the same.

No Mercer, &c. to sell any painted Callico, or any Furniture made therewith, unless for Exportation, on Penalty of 20 l.

Penalty on Steward, &c. offending.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, It shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to use or wear in Great Britain, in or about any Bed, Chair, Cushion, Window-Curtain, or any other sort of Household-Stuff, or Furniture, any printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico (except as hereinafter is excepted) under the Penalty of forfeiting (being thereof lawfully convicted) the Sum of Twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered as hereinafter is directed.

None to use in any Bed, &c. painted Callico on Penalty of 20 l.

Exception.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one moiety of all Pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, where the same shall exceed five Pounds, shall be to the Informer or Prosecutor, and the other moiety to the Poor of the Parish or Place where the Offence shall be committed; and such Penalties as are not herein directed to be otherwise recovered, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, or in his Majesties Court of Session, Court of Justiciary, or Court of Erchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in that part of Great Britain, together with full Costs of Suit, by any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, within six Calendar Months next after the Offence committed; and that in any such Action or Suit, no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance.

How the several Penalties shall be recovered, and disposed of.

V. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall appear, that any Person convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall be sheltered or protected, or doth, or shall reside or inhabit in any pretended Privilege Place whatsoever, every such Offender shall and may be taken from thence by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any of his Majesties Justices of the Court of Kings Bench, Common-Pleas, or Barons of the Erchequer in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, or by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any of the Lords of Session, Judges of the Court of Justiciary, or Barons of the Erchequer in Scotland; and shall be, by any such Justice, Lord of Session, Judge, or Baron, committed to the Common Goal of the County or Place where the Offence was committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, till Payment and Satisfaction of all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, with full Costs.

Persons protected or residing in any Privilege Place to be taken out from thence by Warrant of any Judge, &c. and committed to the County Goal till Payment.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, in any wise to any

M m m

Callicoes

Not to extend to Callicoes made up into Furniture before 25 Dec. 1722.

Nor to Callicoes printed, &c. in Foreign Parts.

Callicoes exported before 25 Dec. 1722. to have the same Allowances on Exportation as if exported within 12 Months after Importation.

General Issue.

The Prohibition to extend to any Stuff made of Cotton, or mixt therewith, printed with any Colour, and Callico chequered, &c. in Foreign Parts.

Exception.

Callicoes dyed all Blue excepted.

Callicoes which have already been, or which before the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be made up or used in any Bed, Chair, Cushion, Window-Curtain, or other sort of Household-Stuff or Furniture: Provided the same be continued to be worn and used in such Household-Stuff or Furniture, and not otherwise.

VII. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal, make void, or alter any Law now in Force for prohibiting Callicoes printed, painted, dyed, or stained in Foreign Parts, or for prohibiting any other Goods or Manufactures whatsoever.

VIII. Provided also, and be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons and Bodies Corporate, who shall on or before the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, export any Callicoes, shall be entitled to, and have such and the same Allowances and Advantages upon the Exportation thereof, as fully as if the same had been exported within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued or prosecuted for any thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Prosecutor or Prosecutors, shall become Nonsuit or forbear Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs, and shall have the like Remedy for the same, as in any Case where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Prohibition of Callicoes intended by this Act, and the Penalties thereby inflicted for wearing or using printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico in Apparel, Household-Stuff, or Furniture, after the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, contrary to this Act, shall respectively extend to prohibit, and shall be levied and recovered for wearing or using in Apparel, Household-Stuff, or Furniture, after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, any Stuff made of Cotton, or mixt therewith, which shall be printed or painted with any Colour or Colours, or any Callico chequered or striped, or any Callico stitched or flowered in Foreign Parts with any Colour or Colours, or with coloured Flowers made there (Muslins, Neckcloths, and Fustians excepted) in such Manner as the Penalties inflicted by this Act for wearing or using printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callico, in Apparel, Household-Stuff, or Furniture, after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, contrary to this Act, are to be levied or recovered; but under such Limitations, and with such Liberties, Privileges, and Advantages as are mentioned and expressed in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force relating thereto, or relating to printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callicoes.

XI. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to such Callicoes as shall be dyed all Blue.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majesties Subjects from trading to the East-Indies under Foreign Commissions; and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto; and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet.

Whereas it is of Importance to the Welfare of this Kingdom, Preamble.
 that the Trade to and from the East-Indies, as the same is now regulated, be carried on in such manner, as that the British Nation may have and enjoy the full Fruits and Advantages thereof: And whereas by virtue of several Acts of Parliament and Letters Patents, the whole Trade to and from the East-Indies, and other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, in the said Acts and Letters Patents mentioned, is now solely vested in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies; notwithstanding which, and notwithstanding the Prohibitions, Injunctions, and Penalties contained in such Acts and Letters Patents, for securing the said Trade to the said Company, several evil-minded Persons, Subjects of his Majesty, preferring their own private Gain to the Good of their Country, have not only clandestinely, and without any Authority from the said Company, trafficked and traded to and from the East-Indies, but have also, by Colour or upon Pretence of Commissions obtained from foreign Governments, openly and publicly, in Defiance of the said Laws, and in Contempt of his Majesties Authority, fitted out, manned, and loaded great and defensible Ships, and have sent out the same, or sailed therewith, to the East-Indies, and Parts aforesaid, and have prevailed upon several British Seamen, and other Subjects of his Majesty, to serve on board the said Ships, and to engage in the same Undertaking, to the Diminution of his Majesties Revenue, and of the Naval Force and Commerce of this Kingdom: Now to the Intent that such wicked, mischievous, and destructive Practices may be prevented for the future; and that the Trade aforesaid may be more effectually guarded, and successfully carried on; Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if at any time, from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, any of his Majesties Subjects shall sail, go, or repair to, or shall trade, traffick, or adventure in, to, or from the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid, contrary to the Laws now in being, or contrary to the Tenor of this Act, in every such Case it shall and may be lawful, either for his Majesties Attorney General for the time being, or for the said United Company, at any time within the Space of Six Years, to file or exhibit in any one of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, one or more Information or Informations against such Offender or Offenders for the Offence by him or them committed; and if the Party or Parties, Defendant or Defendants, to such Information or Informations, shall, by due Course of Law, appear or be found to be guilty thereof, in the Court where such Information or Informations shall be so filed or exhibited, shall forthwith proceed to give Judgment against the Defendant and Defendants, by such Fine and Imprisonment, or either of them, as the said Court shall think fit; and shall also award the Prosecutor or Prosecutors his and their full Costs of Suit; but in case the Defendant or Defendants shall be, upon any Information exhibited by the said Company, acquitted or found not guilty, in such Case the said Com-and Master to forfeit 1000 l. and Wages.

IV. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Goods, Merchandize, Treasure, and Effects, that shall, at any time or times from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, be shipped, or put on board any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, bound to the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid (other than and except the Goods, Merchandize, Treasure, and Effects of the said Company, or such as are licensed by them, or the Naval Stores, Provisions and Necessaries for such Ship or Ships performing their Voyage) and all and every the Goods, Merchandize, Treasure, and Effects (except as before is excepted) that shall, from and after the time aforesaid, be taken out of any such Ship or Vessel, in her Voyage homeward from the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid, to England, before her Arrival there, the same, and every of them, shall be forfeited, together with double the Value thereof; and the Master or Commander, or other Officers of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, for the time being, knowingly permitting or suffering any such Goods, Merchandize, Treasure, or Effects, to be shipped, or put on board any such Ship or Ships so bound to the East-Indies, or to be taken out of any such Ship or Ships bound from the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid, to England, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One thousand Pounds, and moreover shall not be entitled to have, demand, or receive any Wages whatsoever; nor shall the said Company be obliged, or compelled or compellable to pay any Wages to, or to the Use, or upon the Account, of any such Master, Commander, or Officer, for or in respect of the Voyage so made, or to be made, by such Master, Commander, or Officer, but shall have an Allowance or Deduction in respect thereof out of the Monies payable by them on Account of the Ship to which such Master or Officers belong.

V. But soasmuch as it happens many times, that the above-mentioned illegal Trade is carried on and managed so artfully and covertly, that the said United Company cannot come to the Knowledge and Proof of the same, and at most cannot ascertain the Quantities, Qualities, and Values of the Goods, Merchandize, Treasure, and Effects, so traded for, nor therefore obtain any Satisfaction or Compensation for the Damages by them sustained, to their great Loss and Detriment, and to the great and apparent Lessening of his Majesties Revenue: Therefore it is Provided and further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesties Attorney General for the time being, at the Relation of the said Company, or by his own Authority, to exhibit a Bill or Bills of Complaint in his Majesties Court of Exchequer against any Person or Persons Trading, Dealing, Trafficking, or Adventuring, at any time from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, in, to, or from the East-Indies, or Places aforesaid, contrary to Law, or against any Person or Persons concerned as Agent, Factor, or Copartner with such illegal Traders, for Discovery of such their Trading, Dealing, Trafficking, and

The Attorney General, at the Relation of the Company, or by his own Authority, may exhibit a Bill against any Person Trading to, or from the East-Indies, and Adventuring, and for Recovery of such Duties and Damages as are herein after mentioned, waiving or disclaiming in every such Bill all the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Person or Persons for the Matters in such Bill contained; and that such Person or Persons shall answer the said Bill or Bills, and not plead or demur to the Discovery thereby sought, and pay to his Majesty the Customs and Duties of the Goods and Merchandize arising, produced, or purchased by the said unlawful Trade, Traffick, or Adventuring; and shall answer and pay to the said Company for the same Thirty Pounds per Centum according to the Value thereof in England; and if such Offender or Offenders pay the said Duties and Customs, or the Amount of the same, into his Majesties Exchequer for the Use of his Majesty, and Damages to the said Company, he or they shall not be prosecuted upon any other Branch or Article in this Act, or upon any other Law or Statute whatsoever, for the same Offence; and if such Bill or Bills (if exhibited at the Relation of the said Company) be dismissed by the Court where the same shall be exhibited, the said United Company shall pay every such Defendant and Defendants his and their Costs of Suit; and in case there be a Verdict obtained against the Defendant or Defendants, such Defendant or Defendants shall pay Costs to his Majesty and the Relator respectively.

and not liable to further Prosecution.

If the Bill be dismissed Company to pay Costs; otherwise the Defendant.

VI. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties herein before appointed and enacted, or which are appointed or enacted in and by one Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William, Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding Two millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum; and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies; or in and by one other Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for better securing the Duties of East-India Goods; or in and by one other Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesties Subjects to and from the East-Indies; and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesties Subjects trading thither under Foreign Commissions, shall, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, be sued for, recovered, and recoverable, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, at the Suit or Prosecution of his Majesties Attorney General for the time being, or of the said United Company, or of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, such Officer or Officers of the Customs first taking such Consent and Directions as is or are contained in the proviso for that Purpose hereafter; and that one Third part of all such Forfeitures and Penalties shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; one other Third part thereof to the Use of the said United Company; and the remaining Third part thereof to the Use of such Officer or Officers of the Customs as shall inform, and so, as aforesaid, sue for the same; in which Suits or Prosecutions no Essoign, Wager of Law, or Protection shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed, deemed, or taken to extend, to subject the Governor and Company of Merchants of England trading into the Levant Seas, or any Member thereof, to answer any such Bill, or subject him or them to any other the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby Enacted, for and in respect of his or their trading into the Levant Seas; Any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, no Commodity of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East-Indies, or other the Places aforesaid, shall be imported or carried into the Kingdom of Ireland, the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or into any Land, Island, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, to his Majesty, or to the Crown of Great Britain belonging, or which shall hereafter belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Africa or America, but such only as shall be bona fide, and without Fraud laden and shipped in Great Britain in Ships navigated according to the several and respective Laws now in being, as to the several Places to which the said Goods shall be imported or carried, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such Goods, or the Value thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel in which they shall be imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition, and Apparel; and such Ship and Goods shall and may be seized, and the same or the Value thereof, shall and may be seized, and the same or the Value thereof, shall and may be prosecuted in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in Dublin, or in any of his Majesties Courts in such Land, Island, Colony, Territory, or Place where the Offence shall be committed, or in the Royal Courts of Jersey and Guernsey respectively, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall seize or sue for the same; except such Offence shall be committed in any of his Majesties Plantations in Africa or America, in which case one Third part of the said Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, one other Third part to the Governor of such Land, Island, Colony, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, and the other Third part to the Informer or Prosecutor; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And if any Officer or Officers of the Customs, in the said Kingdom of Ireland, or in the Lands, Islands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories, or Places aforesaid, shall willingly or knowingly connive at the fraudulent Importation of any such Commodities as is before mentioned, contrary to the true meaning hereof, or if any such Officer or Officers shall take upon him or them to seize any of the said Commodities, and shall, by Fraud or Collusion, desist or delay the Prosecution thereof to Condemnation, he, or they, so conniving, desisting, or delaying, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in manner aforesaid;

X. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, for granting to their Majesties certain Additional Impositions upon several Goods and Merchandizes, for the Prosecuting the War against France, the several Duties charged by that Act upon Amber Beads, Amber Rough, Coral Beads, and polished Coral, and upon Cowries, are to be repaid to the Merchants exporting the same, if exported within Three Years from the Importation thereof; which Act is now in force: And whereas by several other Acts of Parliament now in force, the Time for Exportation of some Foreign Goods by British Merchants is limited to the Space of Twelve Months, and of other Foreign Goods to the Space of Eighteen Months, or thereabouts, from the Times of the Importation thereof: And whereas the Time for Exportation of some Foreign Goods, by Aliens, or Merchant Strangers, is limited to the Space of Nine Months and of others to the Space of fifteen Months, or thereabouts, from the Times of importing the same; but so far as it hath been found by Experience, that the said respective Times of Nine Months, Twelve Months, fifteen Months, and Eighteen Months, afore mentioned, are too short, and very inconvenient to Traders; and for as much also as it will be for the Benefit of the Trade of this Kingdom, if the Time given for repaying or drawing back the Duties upon the Exportation of all Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesties Plantations, and all other Foreign Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever, be enlarged; Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Times for Exportation of all Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesties Plantations, and all other Foreign Goods and Merchandizes, as the same are now limited by any Law or Laws in being, shall, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, be extended and enlarged, so that in all Cases where Repayments, Allowances, or Drawbacks are made upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesties Plantations, and all other Foreign Goods and Merchandizes imported, and afterwards exported by virtue of any Law now in Force, all Merchants and Traders, Bodies Politick, and Corporations, shall, from thenceforth have, and be allowed Three Years Time, from the Importation of such Goods, to export the same, accounting such Importation from the Masters Report of the Ship; and all and every such Merchant and Merchants, Trader and Traders, Bodies Politick, and Corporations, shall have the like Repayments, Allowances, and Drawbacks, by and for such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within the respective Times before mentioned, or any other Times limited by any Law now in being for that purpose; such Law, or any other Law, Rule, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, That Certificates and Vouches be made, and all other Requisites performed according to the Laws now in being relating to the Importation or Exportation of such Goods.

XI. And whereas by the several Acts which granted the Duties of fifteen per Centum upon Mullins and White Callicoes imported (which Acts are now in Force) the Importers, before the Landing thereof, are to give Security by Bond for Payment of the said Duties, as soon as the same shall be sold, and for exposing the said Goods to Sale openly and fairly by way of Auction or Pitch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of Twelve Months after the Importation thereof; and in case the said Goods shall, within the Time limited, be fairly sold, as aforesaid, and in case the Importers shall pay down the said Duties in Ready portation, to Drawback the Duties on Exportation.

Money, within Twenty Days after such Sale, they are to have an Allowance after the Rate of five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of Duties so paid : And whereas by several Acts of Parliament now in Force for granting, continuing, and better securing the Duties payable ad valorem upon unrated East-India Goods, and for ascertaining the Values according to which such Duties shall be paid, the Importer or Importers thereof are, in like manner, to give Security by Bond for Payment of the said Duties according to the real Values of the said Goods, to be ascertained according to the respective Acts of Parliament in that behalf made (except Coffee) as soon as the said Goods shall be sold, and also for exposing the said Goods to Sale openly and fairly by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of Twelve Months after the Importation thereof ; and for as much as the restraining the said Muslins, White Callicoes, and unrated East-India Goods to be sold within Twelve Months from the Importation thereof, may some times be detrimental to the Revenue ; and that the enlarging the said Time of Sale will be for the Benefit of the Trade of this Kingdom : Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for such of the said Goods as are at present imported and unsold, or shall, from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, be imported, the Importer or Importers thereof may, at any time within the Space of Three Years from the Importation of such respective Goods, expose the same to Sale, and after such Sale, there shall be allowed the like Discounts on Payments of the respective Duties on such Goods, as if the same had been exposed to Sale within the Time of Twelve Months, as before mentioned, or any other Time heretofore limited by Law ; and from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, The Condition of the Bond or Bonds to be given by the Importers for Payment of the said Duties on the Goods before mentioned, shall be to expose the same to Sale within the Space of Three Years from the Importation thereof ; and the Importer or Importers of the said Goods shall be entitled to the same Discounts, Allowances, and Payment of the Duties upon the said Goods, as if the same had been sold within the said Time of Twelve Months ; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Importers of

XII. And whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for continuing Duties upon Low-Muslins, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins, and for granting New Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callico, China Ware, and Drugs ; It is Enacted, That any Person or Persons may import into this Kingdom Tea, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of her Majesties Customs of the Quantity and Quality of the said Tea so intended to be imported, and the Place in which they intend to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the time being, or any Three of them, for the landing and importing thereof, as aforesaid ; which Act hath been since continued, and is now in Force : And whereas the Method of granting those Licences, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, is altered and explained : And whereas under the Colour of such Licences great Frauds are committed, to the Prejudice of his Majesties Revenue, and soasmuch as it hath been found by Experience, That the allowing the Importation of Tea, by virtue of such Licences or Certificates, from Ostend, and other Places, not being the Place of its Growth, tends to promote the illegal Trade carried on by his Majesties Subjects to the East-Indies under Foreign Commissions, and in Conjunction with Foreigners, and is very prejudicial to the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom: For the preventing thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, so much of the said Act of the Third Year of her said late Majesty, and of the several Acts continuing the same, and so much of the said Act of his present Majesty which pass the last Sessions of Parliament, and every other Act which relates to or allows of the importing Tea by Licence or Certificate, as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, annulled, and made void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Acts allowing Importation of Tea by Licence repealed.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said United Company, shall for the future be allowed to ship out Stores, Provisions, Utensils of War, and Necessaries for maintaining their Garrisons and Settlements, free of all Duties, so as such Duties if they had been to be paid, would not have exceeded or do not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Three hundred Pounds.

Company may ship out Stores, &c. Duty-free, so as the Duties do not exceed 300 l. in One Year.

Anno 7 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XXVII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, by charging Annuities at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Civil List Revenues till redeemed by the Crown; and for enabling his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, (by causing such a Deduction to be made as therein is mentioned) to make good to the Civil List the Payments which shall have been made upon the said Annuities; and for borrowing Money upon certain Lottery Tickets; and for discharging the Corporations for Assurances of part of the Money which they were obliged to pay to his Majesty; and for making good a Deficiency to the East-India Company.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of your Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for the better Support of his Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain] several Rates and Duties of Excise, and a further Substitute of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties or Revenues, were granted or continued during your Majesties Life (which God long preserve) and the same, with several Hereditary Duties and Revenues therein particularly specified (except as therein is excepted) were thereby Enacted and Declared to be for the Support of your Majesties Household, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, subject to such Incumbrances and Savings as in the said Act are expressed: And in and by another Act of the said first Year of your Majesties Reign (made among other things) for enlarging the Fund of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, relating to Exchequer Bills, and for settling an Additional Revenue of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum upon your Majesty during your Life, Provision was made for Payment of the said yearly Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, for the Service of your Majesties Household and Family, and other your necessary Expences and Occasions, during your Majesties Natural Life, out of the Monies of the Fund commonly called the Aggregate Fund therein mentioned and described, in the Course and Manner thereby prescribed: And in and by the Act last mentioned, It is Provided and Enacted, That

Preamble.

1 Geo. cap. 1.

1 Geo. Sess. 1.
cap. 12.

That if the Revenues settled or appointed for the Service of your Majesties Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, by the Act first above recited, together with the said Additional Revenue of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, should, from the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, which was in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, at any time during your Majesties Life, produce in clear Money more than the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, then the Overplus of such Produce should go and be applied to such Publick Uses as in and by the Act last before recited are prescribed, as in and by the said several Acts (Relation being thereunto respectively had) may more fully appear: And whereas by reason of several extraordinary Expences arisen since the making the said recited Acts, divers Arrears of Salaries, Wages, Diet Monies, and other Allowances, and sundry Debts for Emptions, Provisions, and other Causes, have incurred and grown due to your Majesties Servants, Tradesmen, and others, and do now remain unsatisfied, amounting to a very considerable Sum in the whole: Now we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that your Majesty, in the Administration of your Civil Government, may not remain under any Difficulties in respect of the Arrears and Debts contracted, as aforesaid; and that therefore a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds may be raised to enable your Majesty to discharge Debts and Arrears by Sale of Annuities, to be charged and secured upon a Yearly Fund to be answered and paid out of the said Revenues, but to be redeemable by such Ways and Means, and in such Manner and Form, as hereafter by this Act are prescribed, do most humbly pray your Majesty that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Yearly and every Year, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, a certain Yearly Fund to be computed after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for and upon all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, is and shall, by force and virtue of this Act, be settled and established, and be payable in the Manner and Form hereinafter expressed and declared, for satisfying and discharging the same Annuities, from time to time, until the same shall be redeemed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act; Nevertheless the said Yearly Fund shall be subject to a proportionable Reduction or Abatement, upon Redemption of part of the said Annuities, according to the Proviso or Power of Redemption herein after contained in that behalf.

From 24 July, 1721, a certain Yearly Fund to be computed at 5 l. per Cent. to be settled for all the Annuities to be purchased on this Act, till redeemed.

The Fund to be charged on all the Civil List Revenues, Hereditary and Temporary, during his Majesties Life, unless sooner redeemed.

II. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Yearly Fund, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, (subject nevertheless to such proportionable Reduction or Abatement upon Redemption of part of the said Annuities as is provided by this Act) is and shall, by virtue of this Act, be charged and chargeable upon, and be payable out of all the Revenues, Additional Revenues, Duties, and Branches whatsoever, settled or appointed for the Support of his Majesties Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as aforesaid, as well those which are Hereditary in the Crown, as those which were granted during his Majesties Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Time and Term of his Majesties Natural Life (which God long preserve) unless all the said Annuities shall sooner be completely redeemed according to the Proviso and Power of Redemption hereinafter contained in that behalf; and that the Sum and Sums of Money, which, from time to time, during his Majesties Life, shall be issued or paid for or upon the said Yearly Fund, after the said Rate of Five Pounds per Centum tum per Annum, shall be and be deemed and reckoned to be part of the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds abovementioned.

III. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of his Majesties Demise, before the complete Redemption of all the said Annuities, then the said Yearly Fund after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, (subject nevertheless to such proportional Reducement or Abatement, as aforesaid) is and shall, by virtue of this Act, be charged and chargeable upon, and be paid and payable out of the Hereditary Revenues, Duties, and Branches before mentioned, and every of them, until the complete Redemption of all the said Annuities to be purchased upon this Act; and that all the Payments for or upon the said Yearly Fund, shall be made with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever, which shall or may hereafter be charged upon the said Revenues, Duties, or Branches, or any of them.

In case of his Majesties Demise, the Fund to be charged on the said Hereditary Revenues.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to make void, alter, or prejudice any Disposition, Appropriation, Appointment, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, contained, saved, excepted, or allowed in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, of or concerning any the Revenues, Duties, or Branches aforesaid, or in any Manner to prejudice any Pensions or Annuities charged and to be paid out of the said Hereditary Revenues, or any of them, by or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by virtue of any Grants or Letters Patents made or granted by any of his Majesties Royal Predecessors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that the same Dispositions, Appropriations, Appointments, Matters, and Things, shall continue and be in Force, and shall take Effect, and be observed, as if this Act had not been made; and the said last mentioned Pensions and Annuities shall remain due, and shall be paid, but shall not be deemed or reckoned to be part of the said Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, during his Majesties Life.

Not to prejudice any former Dispositions, &c.

IX. And to the End that all the Annuities that shall be purchased on this Act may, from time to time, be justly satisfied, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof; It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesties Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the time being, shall, and they are hereby enjoined and required (without any further or other Warrant or Authority in this behalf, to be sued for, had, or obtained) to cause so much of the Monies, from time to time, arising at the Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the Revenues, Duties, or Branches of Revenue hereby charged with the said Yearly Fund, as aforesaid, to be separated and set apart Weekly, or otherwise, as shall be sufficient, at or before the End of every Quarter of a Year, to answer and pay so much as shall be due at the End of every such Quarter of a Year, or within Six Days after, upon every such Annuity; which Monies so set apart are hereby appropriated for the Payment thereof; and shall issue, or cause to be issued, the same, from time to time, to the said Chief Cashier of the Bank of England for the time being, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for the Payment of the said Annuities; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, shall be demanded or taken, directly or indirectly, by any Officers in the Exchequer, or by the said Cashier, or others, for the Issuing or Payment thereof, or for any Transfer, or other Matter or Thing hereby required to be done concerning the same, other than such Allowance as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be pleased, at his or their own Charge, to make, for their Pains and Service therein; and in case any such Officers or Persons shall take or demand any such Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, other than, as aforesaid, or shall, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, divert or misapply any of the Monies which ought

So much of the Civil List Revenues to be set apart Weekly as shall be sufficient to discharge the Annuities Quarterly.

The Monies so set apart, appropriated for Payment of the Annuities.

No Fee to be taken, &c. or Money misapplied.

Officers guilty thereof, to forfeit treble the Value, and incapacitated.

On a Quarters Notice, and repaying the Purchase-Money, &c. Annuities to cease.

On repaying a Half-part of the Purchase-Money, a proportional part of the Annuities to cease :

And his Majesty may at any time afterwards redeem the Remainder.

ought to be paid into the said Receipt, and issued thence on Account of the said Yearly Fund for Payment of the said Annuities to be purchased on this Act, every such Officer or Person shall be incapable of holding any Office or Place of Trust or Profit under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and shall also forfeit treble Damages to the Party grieved, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for the Kings Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, at any time upon One Quarter of a Years Notice to be given under his or their Royal Sign Manual, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, at any of the Quarterly Days of Payment of the said Annuities, to redeem the said Annuities and every of them, by paying to the then Proprietors of the same Annuities the Consideration or Purchase-Money which was originally paid for the same, (without Deduction of the Allowance for Prompt Payment) and all Arrearages of the said Annuities which shall be incurred till the time of such Payment, to be made at the then next ensuing Quarterly Feast-Day; and that from and after such Payment made, or reserving Money in the Exchequer, ready to make such Payment on Demand, and not till then, the same Annuities and every of them, shall from thenceforth cease and determine, and the said Revenues shall be discharged of, from, and against the same.

XVIII. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors (if he or they shall so think fit) upon One Quarter of a Years Notice to be given and published, as aforesaid, at any of the said Quarterly Days of Payment, to redeem one Moiety or Half-part, or any other greater and certain Proportion of all the said Annuities, by paying to the then Proprietors of the same, one Moiety or such greater Proportion of the Consideration or Purchase-Money which was originally paid for the same (without any Deduction of the Allowance for Prompt Payment) and all Arrearages of the same Annuities which shall be incurred till the time of such Payment, to be made at the End of the then next ensuing Quarterly Feast-Day; and that from and after such Payment made, or reserving Money in the Exchequer ready to make such Payment, a Proportional Part of such Annuities, for which such Proportional Part of the Consideration or Purchase-Money shall be so paid or reserved, shall from thenceforth cease and determine, and the said Revenues shall be discharged of, from, and against a Proportional Part of all the said Annuities so redeemed; and it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, at any time afterwards, upon the like Notice, as aforesaid, to redeem the remaining Parts of all and every the said Annuities, by paying to the then Proprietors thereof, the Residue of the Consideration or Purchase-Money which was paid for the same, and all Arrearages of the said Annuities, which shall be due till the time of such Payment to be made at the then next ensuing Quarterly Feast-Day after the Notice last mentioned shall be given; and that from and after Payment made of such Residue of the said Purchase-Money, or reserving Money in the Exchequer ready to make such Payment, the remaining Parts of the said Annuities shall from thenceforth intirely cease and determine, and the said Revenues shall be intirely discharged of, from, and against the same; this present Act, or any Clause, Matter, or Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And to the end his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may be enabled to reimburse himself or themselves such Sum and Sums of Money as in pursuance of this Act shall have been issued or furnished out of his Majesties Civil List Revenues, during his Life (which God long preserve) or out of the said Hereditary Revenues after his Majesties Demise, for or towards the Payment of the said Annuities, or for or towards the Redemption of the same; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Warrant under the Great Seal of Great Britain, Privy Seal, or Royal Sign Manual, to cause a Deduction to be made, not exceeding Six Pence in the Pound, out of all Monies which, from and after the First Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, shall be paid for or upon all Pensions and Annuities charged upon any of the said Hereditary or Temporary Duties, and for and upon all Salaries, Fees and Wages, payable for or in respect of Offices of Profit, granted by or derived from the Crown, and for and upon all other Payments from the Crown whatsoever, or for or upon any Arrearages of them, or any of them, incurred or to be incurred; the Pay of Commission and Non-Commission Officers and Private Men, serving in the Navy or Army only and always excepted; the same Deductions to be made for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of his or their Civil Government, so long as the said Annuities shall, by virtue of this Act, be payable out of the Revenues charged therewith, as aforesaid, and until the same Annuities shall be redeemed pursuant to this Act; any former Law, Statute or Provision whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may cause a Deduction of 6 d. in the Pound out of all Salaries, &c. from 1 Aug. 1721.

Except Commission Officers, &c. serving in the Navy or Army.

XX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to charge, or to enable his Majesty to charge the Annuities or Yearly Sums, amounting to One hundred thousand Pounds, granted to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or his Trustees, during the joint Lives of his Majesty and the said Prince; or the Annuities or Yearly Sums, amounting to Fifty thousand Pounds, granted to her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for her, to commence and take Effect immediately after the Decease of the said Prince, or any of the same Annuities or Yearly Sums, so granted, with the above mentioned Deduction or Payment of Six Pence in the Pound, or any Part thereof; but that the same Annuities or Yearly Sums, and their Royal Highnesses respectively, and their respective Trustees, Treasurers, and Receivers General for the time being, in respect of the same, shall be free and clear of and from the said Deduction or Payment of Six Pence in the Pound; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to extend to the Annuities of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

XXI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice, delay, or interrupt the Payment of the said Annuity or Annuities, amounting to Fifty thousand Pounds, granted to her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for her, to commence and take Effect immediately after the Decease of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not to prejudice the Annuity of 50,000 l. to the Princess after his Royal Highness's Death.

C A P. XXIX.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the Kings most Gracious, General, and Free Pardon.

GEORGE R.

THE Kings most Excellent Majesty taking into his Consideration, that great Numbers of his Subjects have exposed themselves to great Penalties and Forfeitures incurred upon several Crimes and Offences by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, and out of his merciful Disposition, being graciously inclined for the establishing the Peace and Quiet of this Kingdom, and the Happiness of all his Subjects, to free them from the Apprehensions they may justly lie under from a severe Execution of Justice, has resolved and determined to grant them his General and Free Pardon in a large and beneficial manner, not doubting but that all his Subjects, by this Act of Clemency and Grace, will be induced henceforth more carefully to observe the Laws, and live in a Loyal and Dutiful Obedience to his Majesty; and therefore his Majesty is well pleased and contented that it be Enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament; And be it Enacted by the Authority of the same, in Manner and Form following; (that is to say) That all and every his Majesties Subjects, as well Spiritual as Temporal, of this his Majesties Realm of Great Britain, their Heirs, Successors, Executors, and Administrators, and every of them, and all and singular Bodies Politick and Corporate, and their Successors, and all Cities, Boroughs, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, wapentakes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets, and Tithings, and every of them, shall be, by the Authority of this present Parliament, acquitted, pardoned, released, and discharged against the Kings Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and every of them, of and from all and all manner of Treasons, Conspiracy of Treasons, Felonies, Treasonable and Seditious Words or Libels, Leasing-making, Conspiracy of Felony, Seditious and Unlawful Meetings and Conventions, and all Offences whereby any Person may be charged with the Danger and Penalty of Praemunire; and also of and from all Riots, Routes, Offences, Contempts, Trespasses, Entries, Wrongs, Deceits, Misdemeanors, Forfeitures, Penalties, and Summs of Money, Pains of Death, Pains Corporal, and Pains Pecuniary; and generally of and from all other Things, Causes, Quarrels, Suits, Judgments, and Executions, in this present Act hereafter not excepted or fore-prized, which may be or can be by his Majesty in any wise or by any means pardoned, and have been had, made, done, committed, omitted, perpetrated, incurred, or forfeited, before and unto the Twenty fourth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one.

The Offences pardoned by this Act, which were committed before 24 July 1711.

Not heretofore excepted or foreprized.

The Pardon to be as good as if the Offences were particularly named.

II. And also the Kings most Excellent Majesty is contented that it be Enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament; and be it Enacted by the Authority of the same, That this his Majesties Free Pardon shall be as good and effectual in Law to every of his said Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, in, for, and against all things aforesaid, and not hereafter in this present Act excepted and foreprized, as the same Pardon would have been if all such Offences, Contempts, Forfeitures, Causes, Matters, Suits, Quarrels, Judgments, Executions, Penalties, and other Things not hereafter in this Act particularly excepted and foreprized, had been particularly, singularly, specially and plainly named, rehearsed, and specified, and also pardoned by proper and express Words and Names; and that his said Subjects, or any of them, the Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of any of them, or the said Bodies Corporate, and others before named and rehearsed, or any of them, be not, nor shall be sued, vexed, or unquieted in their Bodies, Goods, Chattels, Lands, or Tenements, for any Matter, Cause, Contempt, Misdemeanor, Forfeiture, Trespass, Offence, or any other Thing, suffered, done, or committed, or omitted before the said Twenty fourth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, against his Majesty, his Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, or the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, but only for such Causes, Matters, and Offences, as be rehearsed or mentioned in the Exceptions of this present Act to be excepted and foreprized, and for none other; any Statute or Statutes, Laws or Customs, heretofore had, made, or used, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Exception.

Fines, Issues, &c. pardoned.

III. And the Kings Majesty, of his bounteous Liberality, and by the Authority of this present Parliament, doth grant and freely give to every of his Subjects, every of the said Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, and every of them, all Goods, Chattels, Debts, Fines, Issues, Profits, Amerciaments, Forfeitures, and Sums of Money, by any of them forfeited, which to his Majesty do or shall appertain, by reason of any Offence, Contempt, Trespass, Entry, Misdemeanor, Matter, Cause, or Quarrel, suffered, done, or committed by them, or any of them, before the said Twenty fourth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, not hereafter in this present Act foreprized and excepted.

Exception.

Grants made by Persons which have forfeited, void.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it Enacted, That all Grants thereof, or of any part thereof, made by any such as have so forfeited the same, and are hereby restored, as aforesaid, and all Executions thereof, or of any part thereof, had against any such, after such Forfeiture thereof committed or made, shall be of such Force and Effect as if no such Forfeiture had been had or made, and of no other; the same Forfeiture, or any thing in this Act before to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any Person may plead this Act.

V. And be it further Enacted, That all and every of his Majesties Subjects, and all and singular Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, may, by him or themselves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies, or by his or their Attorney or Attornies, according to the Laws of this Realm, plead and minister this Act of Free Pardon for his or their Discharge, of or for any thing that is, by virtue of this Act, pardoned, discharged, given, or granted, without any Fee or any other thing paying to any Person or Persons for the Writing or Entering of the Judgments or other Cause concerning such Plea, Writing, or Entry, but only Sixteen Pence to the Clerk or Officer that shall enter such Plea or Matter for Judgment or the Parties Discharge in that behalf; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Pardon to be taken most beneficially for the Subject.

VI. And further the Kings Majesty is contented and pleased that it be Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this his Majesties Free Pardon, by the General Words, Clauses, and Sentences before rehearsed, shall be reputed, deemed, adjudged, expounded, allowed, and taken, in all manner of Courts of his Majesty, and elsewhere, most beneficial and available to all and singular the said

Sub.

Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearsed, and to every of them, in all things not in this present Act excepted and forepized, without any Ambiguity, Question, or other Delay whatsoever, to be made, pleaded, objected, or alledged by the Kings Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by his or any of their General Attorney or Attornies, Advocate or Advocates, or by any Person or Persons for his Majesty, or any of his Heirs or Successors.

XVIII. And also excepted all Offences of Perjury and Subornation of Witnesses, and Endeavouring or Conspiring to bribe or corrupt any Person to give false Testimony, and the Offences of Forgery or Counterfeiting, and Solicitation of Forgery and Counterfeiting any Fines, or other Records, Deeds, Wills, Escrips, or Writings whatsoever, or Publishing, or making Use in Evidence of any such, knowing the same to be forged.

Perjury and Subornation, &c. excepted.

XXIV. And also excepted all Offences, Contempts, and Misdemeanors, had, committed, or done, contrary to any Act of Parliament (other than using, or causing to be used, any Craft, Mystery, or Occupation, by any Person or Persons not brought up therein Seven Years as an Apprentice) or contrary to the Laws of this Realm, for which any Person hath been or shall be so far prosecuted, that on or before the First Day of Michaelmas Term, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, any Verdict hath been or shall be obtained upon such Prosecution, or any Outlawry, Conviction, Judgment by Default, or other Judgment, Sentence, or Decree, had, given, or entered in any of his Majesties Courts, or before any Commissioners of his Majesty within this Realm of Great Britain, or by his Majesties Commissioners for the Management of his Receipt of Excise, or other Duties under their Management, or by his said Majesties Justices of the Peace.

Excepted all Offences for which before Michaelmas Term 1721. a Verdict hath been obtained.

XXIX. And also excepted all Conditions and Covenants, and all Penalties, Titles, and Forfeitures of Conditions or Covenants, accrued or grown to his Majesty by reason of the Breach of the Non-Performance of any Covenant or Condition whatsoever.

All Conditions and Covenants to his Majesty, excepted.

XXX. And also excepted out of this Act of Pardon all Offences, Misbehaviors, Misdemeanors, or Omissions, committed, suffered, or done by any Officer of the Exchequer or Revenue, in or concerning the Execution of his Office, or by Colour thereof, and all Forfeitures, Disabilities, Incapacities, and Penalties whatsoever, to which any such Officer is or may be liable by reason of such Offences, Misbehaviors, Misdemeanors, or Omissions, and all Suits, Proceedings, and Prosecutions, had or to be had for or by reason thereof.

Offences of Officers of the Exchequer or Revenue, excepted.

XXXI. And also excepted out of this Act of Pardon all willful Offences, Misbehaviors, or Misdemeanors, or Omissions, committed, suffered, or done by any Assessor or Assessors, Collector or Collectors of any Aids or Taxes granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament, in or concerning the Execution of their Offices, or by Colour thereof, and all Suits, Proceedings, and Prosecutions, had or to be had for or by reason thereof.

Offences of Assessors or Collectors of Taxes, excepted.

XXXV. And also excepted out of this Pardon all and every the Sums of Money and Duties accruing or arising by or from any Customs or Subsidies, Excise, Imposition upon Wine, or other Liquors, or Commodities, Duties upon Halt, Hops, Candles, Soap, Paper, Duties on printing, painting, staining, or dying Silks, Callicoes, Linens, and Stuffs, Duties on Starch, Duties upon Gilt and Silver Wire, Duties on Salt, Duties upon Tonnage of Ships, Duties upon Parchment,vellum and Paper, Arrears of any Land Tax, Poll-Money, all Arrears of Rent, and all other Sums of Money due or owing from any licensed or Hackney or Stage-Coachmen, Duties arising by Wine-Licences, or the Post Office, or by or from any other Tax, Assessment, Duty, Imposition, Debt, or Sum of Money whatsoever to the Kings Majesty given or belonging, or leviable by any Act of Parliament, or otherwise due or belonging to the Kings Majesty, and all Arrears vers, or other Officers, or other Accountant whatsoever, who have received or collected, or are any other way accountable to his Majesty for any the Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, Excises, Dutties, Land Taxes, Post-Money, Rents, or other Matters before mentioned, or for Prize-Goods, or for any other Tax, Assessment, Duty, Imposition, Debt, Sum of Money, or other Things whatsoever, given to the Kings Majesty, or leivable by Act of Parliament, or otherwise belonging to his Majesty; and all Accounts of every other Person whatsoever, that ought to be Accountant to the Kings Majesty, for or in respect of any Receipt or other Charge, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Sureties of any Person that ought to account, for all Things touching only the same Accounts, and all and singular Arrearages of Accounts, and all Impetitions, Charges, Seizures, Suits, Demands, and Executions, which may or can be had of or for any such Account or Accounts, or any Arrearages of the same.

And except all Recognizances,
&c. of Receivers, to account.

XLII. And also excepted all Recognizances, Obligations, and other Securities, given or entred into by any Receiver of any Land-Tax or other Duties or Impositions, or any other Sums of Money whatsoever, due or payable to his Majesty by Act of Parliament, or otherwise, or by any Receiver, Bailiff, Collector, or other Accountant in either of the Courts of Exchequer in England or Scotland,

land, or given or entered into by any Person or Persons impowered or permitted by any such Receiver, Reeve, Bailiff, Collector, or other Accountant, to have or receive any Sum or Sums of Money arising from the Land-Tax, or other Duties or Impositions, or any other Sums of Money whatsoever due or payable to his Majesty by Act of Parliament, or otherwise, and their Sureties and their Accounts respectively, and all other Recognizances and Obligations whatsoever, with or upon Condition to account, or for Payment of Money, and all Obligations or other Securities given or entered into by any Officer or Officers of any his Majesties Revenues, or their Sureties, for the true Discharge of his or their Trusts.

XLIII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to pardon or discharge any Recognizance or Obligation not yet forfeited; nor to pardon or discharge any forfeited Recognizance or Obligation, or any other Forfeiture or Penalty, whereof any Person or Persons, who are or have been Farmers or Cuckmen of any part of the Publick Revenue, ought to receive any Benefit or Advantage; nor to pardon or discharge any Debt due by any Recognizance or Obligation, or otherwise, to any Person or Persons indebted to the Crown, which hath been duly seized in Aid of the Crowns Debt; nor to pardon or discharge any Debt due by Recognizance, Obligations, Condemnation, or otherwise, whereupon any Estalment or Seizure has been at any time heretofore made, upon which Estalment or Seizure any Thing is, or at any time since the Nineteenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine, hath been answered and paid; nor to pardon or discharge any Penalties, Forfeitures, or Sums of Money due or accrued to his Majesty by reason of any Act, Statute or Statutes, which Forfeitures, Penalties, and Sums of Money, since the said Nineteenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine, be converted into the Nature of any Debt, by Judgment, Order, or Decree, or by the Agreement of the Offender or Offenders, or have been estalled, or any Seizure made for the same, and upon such Seizure or Estalment any thing answered or paid since the said Nineteenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and nine; nor to extend, or be construed to pardon or discharge any Recognizance which hath been entered into and forfeited for or on Account of any Crimes or other Matters which by this Act are excepted or foreprized out of this Pardon.

L. And also excepted all such Persons who being in actual Custody, have desired to be transported into any of his Majesties Plantations, or other Parts beyond the Seas.

LIX. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons hereby pardoned, may plead the General Issue without special pleading of this Pardon, and give this Act of Pardon in Evidence for his Discharge; and that the same shall be thereupon allowed, and Advantage thereof had, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been fully and well pleaded.

LX. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Pardon shall be of as good Force and Effect to pardon and discharge all and singular the Premises above mentioned and intended to be pardoned and discharged, as well against such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, as do or shall claim the same by or under any Letters Patents, or Lease, or Grant by the Kings Majesty, or any his Predecessors, as against the Kings Majesty himself.

Also excepted
all forfeited Recognizances,
&c.

Persons who have desired Transportation,
excepted.

Persons pardoned may plead the General Issue.

Pardon as good against Patents, &c. as against the King.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for making several Provisions to restore the Publick Credit, which suffers by the Frauds and Mismanagements of the late Directors of the South-Sea Company, and others.

Preamble reciting the South-Sea Acts of the Sixth and Seventh of the King.

Whereas in and by an Act of Parliament of the Sixth Year of his Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for enabling the South-Sea Company to increase their present Capital Stock and Fund, by Redeeming such Publick Debts and Incumbrances as are therein mentioned; and for Raising Money to be applied for Lessening several of the Publick Debts and Incumbrances; and for Calling in the present Exchequer Bills remaining uncanceled; and for making forth new Bills in lieu thereof, to be circulated and exchanged upon Demand at or near the Exchequer] It was Enacted, That the said Company should pay into the Receipt of his Majesties Exchequer the Sum of Four millions one hundred fifty six thousand three hundred and six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eleven Pence, by such Proportions, and at such Times, as were thereby appointed for the Payment thereof; and such further Sums to be computed after the Rate of Four Pears and an Halfe Purchase, and such further Sums to be computed after the Rate of One Pears Purchase, as are therein mentioned, by Quarterly Payments, at such Feast-Days as were thereby limited for Payment of the same; and in and by an Act of Parliament of the Seventh Year of his Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act to enable the South-Sea Company to ingraft part of their Capital Stock and Fund into the Stock and Fund of the Bank of England, and another part thereof into the Stock and Fund of the East-India Company; and for giving further Time for Payments to be made by the South-Sea Company, to the Use of the Publick] It is Provided, Declared, and Enacted, That the said Company shall pay, and be obliged, by force and virtue of that Act, to pay into the Receipt of his Majesties Exchequer the said Sum of Four millions one hundred fifty six thousand three hundred and six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eleven Pence; and the said several Sums after the Rate of Four Pears and an Halfe Purchase, and One Pears Purchase; and that the same shall be payable by such Proportions, and at or by such respective Days or Times of Payment, as are therein limited and appointed, and herein after mentioned, for the Payment thereof, and not otherwise; That is to say, One full and equal Fourth Part of the respective Sums, so payable, shall be paid on or before the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two; One other full and equal Fourth part thereof, on or before the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two; One other full and equal Fourth part thereof, on or before the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two; and the remaining full and equal Fourth part of the said respective Sums, so payable, on or before the Feast of the Birth of Our Lord Christ, which shall be in the said Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two; and that the said South-Sea Company, and their Stock and Funds, (except as therein is excepted) are and shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the said several Sums at or before the said respective Days and Times by the last mentioned Act appointed for the Payment thereof, without any Deduction, Defalcation, or Abatement whatsoever: And it is thereby further Enacted, That in case Default shall be made by the said South-Sea

Company in the Payment of all or any Part or Parcel, Parts or Parcels, of the said several Sums of Four millions one hundred fifty six thousand three hundred and six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eleven Pence, and of the said Sums to be paid after the Rate of Four Years and an Halfe Purchase, and One Years Purchase, or any of them, at the respective Days or Times by that Act limited for the Payment thereof, then the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, or the Officers of the Exchequer for the time being, shall, and they respectively are thereby authorized, enjoined, and required, to cause the Money, whereof such Default in Payment shall be made, with Interest for the same, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, (to be computed as is therein mentioned) to be kept out of the Monies which, Weekly or otherwise, shall be payable to the said Company at the Exchequer, for or upon their Annuities or Yearly Funds (except as therein is excepted) and to cause the Principal and Interest to be kept, to be applied as is therein after directed in that behalf, as by the said several Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto respectively had, may more fully appear: And whereas by the many frauds, Abuses, and Breaches of Trust, which were committed by the late Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor, and Directors of the said Company, and others in Confederacy with them, or some of them, the said Company has suffered an immense Loss and Damage, and the Publick Credit (as well as the Credit of the said Company) hath been extremely reduced and disordered, contrary to the Purport and true Meaning of the Act of Parliament first above in part recited, whereby the said Company is become unable to comply with all the Payments required to be made by the Act of Parliament last in part before recited; and if their Capital Stock, and the Annuities and Yearly Funds payable in respect thereof, should continue subject and liable to all the said Payments, and to such Stoppages as are directed by the said Act last mentioned, the Credit of the said Company would be utterly impaired, and the Sufferings of the Members would be extremely increased: And whereas in regard to the Inability of the said Company, under the bad Circumstances to which the same is reduced; and to the Intent that the said Company may be obliged and better enabled to give some further Relief (as this Act directs) to the several Proprietors and Persons concerned in Interest in or with the said Company, in order to the Ascertain- ing and Settling their respective Properties and Interests, and the Re-establishing of the Publick Credit, and thereby Quieting the Minds of his Majesties Subjects; It is thought meet, that the said Sum of Four millions one hundred fifty six thousand three hundred and six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eleven Pence, and the said several and respective Sums, which were intended to be computed after the said respective Rates of Four Years and an Halfe Purchase, and One Years Purchase, be remitted and discharged, so as from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, the Sum of Two millions Sterling, part of the Capital Stock which shall then belong to the said Company, be reduced and annihilated, and so as a proportionable part of their Annuities or Yearly Funds, in respect of the said Two millions, do from that time cease and determine for the Benefit of the Publick; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Sum of Four millions one hundred fifty six thousand three hundred and six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Eleven Pence, and the said several and respective Sums, which were intended to be computed and paid after the said several and respective Rates of Four Years and an Halfe Purchase, and One Years Purchase, and all Actions, Suits, Executions, Demands, Stop-

C A P. IV.

An Act for taking off the Duty upon all Salt used in the Curing of Red Herrings, and laying a proportionable Duty upon all Red Herrings consumed at Home only; and for ascertaining the Customs and Excise payable for the Sugar-Houses in Scotland; and for making an Allowance for Salt lost in any Harbour or River of this Realm; and for the better securing the Duties on Salt delivered in Scotland.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of his present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt; It is Enacted, That all Curers of Fish shall be allowed to Import Foreign Salt, or take from any Salt-Works, or Salt-Pits, any such Quantity of British Salt, where the

Geo. cap. 18.

the same is allowed by Law, for Curing of Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for Curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof; in Consequence whereof all Red Herrings sent within this Realm, are or should be cured with Salt that has paid the Duties; but in regard the same are cured promiscuously, it is difficult to distinguish them from such as are intended to be Exported, whereby his Majesty may be defrauded in his Revenue, without a proper Remedy for preventing the same; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at the Beginning of every fishing Season for Herrings, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt, delivered Duty free for the Curing of Herrings for Exportation, pursuant to the said Act, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall, instead of the Oath required by the said Act, make Oath in Writing before the Officer for the Duty on Salt, at the Office nearest to the Place where the said Salt is lodged (who is hereby empowered to administer the same) declaring the Quantity of the foreign or British Salt respectively lodged for Curing of fish; and that all the said Salt is intended for the Curing of Fish for Exportation only, and shall not by his or their Order, Consent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly, be sold, given away, or any way delivered, but for the Purpose aforesaid; Except so much thereof as shall be used for Curing such Red herrings, as shall be entered with the Officer of the Place for Home Consumption, and charged with the Duties by this Act chargeable thereupon.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Maker or Curer of Red Herrings, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, before he remove any Red Herrings (except for Exportation) from the Office or Place where the same shall be cured, shall, from time to time, make Entry thereof at the next Salt-Office, and shall pay to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, a Duty of One Shilling and Eight Pence for every Thousand of Red Herrings so to be removed, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity: And that in case such Red Herrings shall be packed or put up in Casks, then the Number of Herrings in each Cask shall be marked on the Head thereof; and upon Entry, and Payment of the Duty, and Marking each Cask, as aforesaid, a Permit shall be given gratis by the Salt-Officer, expressing the Number of Red Herrings, for which the Duties shall be paid, as aforesaid, and the Marks and Numbers of such Casks, and for what Place the same are intended, and whether to be sent by Land or Water Carriage, on Pain of Forfeiting all the Red Herrings that shall be removed or carried away before Entry be made, and the Duty paid, and without the Casks being marked, and Permit obtained, as aforesaid, and of the Cask or Vessel in which such Herrings shall be found, and also the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Thousand of Red Herrings so removed, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered from the Person or Persons who shall so remove or carry away the same; One Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers, who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered, and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any fine. Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated, by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, and all and every Officer and Officers of his Majesties Customs, Excise, or Duties upon Salt, are hereby authorized and empowered to seize all such Red Herrings, so removed or carried before Entry and Payment of Duty, and all other things performed, as aforesaid, and the said Cask or Vessels wherein they shall be found.

At every Fishing Season for Herrings, Proprietor, &c. in stead of the Oath required by the Act, Geo. to make Oath of the Quantity of Salt intended for Curing Fish for Exportation:

Except Salt used for Curing Red Herrings for Home Consumption.

Curer of Red Herrings, after 25 March, 1722. before he remove them (except for Exportation) to make Entry, and pay 1 s. 8 d. for every Thousand.

Casks to be marked.

Upon Entry, &c. Permit to be given gratis.

Penalty on Removal before Entry, &c.

Moiety to the King, Moiety to the Officer informing.

Officer to seize Red Herrings removed before Entry, &c.

Proprietor of Salt, &c. to express the Quantity of Red Herrings entered for Home Consumption.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty free, for Curing Red Herrings for Exportation, his or their Agent or Agents, shall, in the Account which after the End of every Fishing Season they are to deliver in Writing into the Salt-Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered, and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, as by the former Law is directed (and under the Penalties thereby prescribed) express also the Quantity of Red Herrings entered for Home Consumption, on which such Salt has been used or consumed.

IV. And whereas by the aforesaid Act in the Fifth Year of his Majesties Reign, the Proprietor or Proprietors of Salt delivered Duty free, for the Curing of Fish for Exportation, are required at the End of every Fishing Season, to deliver an Account in Writing into the Salt-Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered, and shipped to be exported, or which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officers of the several Ports, where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account: And whereas it may happen that such Fish may never be exported, for want of an Opportunity to ship them while they are Good and Merchantable, so that the Proprietors of the Salt can have no such Certificate as is by the said Act required; Be it therefore Enacted, That in such Case, the Owner of the Fish may cause them to be destroyed in the Presence of an Officer of the Salt Duties; and the Officers Certificate that such Fish were destroyed in his Presence, shall be admitted to verify the Account of the Proprietor of the Salt used in Curing them, instead of the Officers Certificate that they were shipped for Exportation, required by the said Act.

Owner of Fish may cause them to be destroyed in Presence of Officer, whose Certificate shall be admitted instead of Certificate of Exportation, required by the Act 5 Geo. cap. 4.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Duties of Excise on Salt (which now amount to Three Shillings and Four Pence per Bushel on Home made Salt, and Six Shillings and Eight Pence per Bushel on Foreign Salt) or any of them, shall cease, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then the Rate or Duty of One Shilling and Eight Pence per Thousand hereby imposed upon Red Herrings, shall cease to be lessened, in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease, determine, or be redeemed: Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duty of 1 s. 8 d. per Thousand upon Red Herrings shall cease to be lessened, in Proportion to Duties on Salt.

VI. And whereas by Act of Parliament made in the First Year of his present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for raising Nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds for Publick Services, by Sale of Annuities, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and to authorize a Treaty concerning Private Rights claimed by the Proprietors of the Sugar-Houses in Scotland, It was (inter alia) Enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, should be, and they were thereby empowered to treat with the Proprietors of the Sugar-Houses in Scotland, for such Sum or Sums of Money as might be a reasonable Satisfaction for such Private Rights of Exemption from Custom and Excise, to which the said Proprietors were entitled: And whereas the said Proprietors of the Four Sugar-Houses in Scotland, commonly called the Easter, Wester, and South Sugar-Houses of Glasgow, and the Sugar-House of Leith, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in Consideration of their being released and discharged of and from all Claim and Demand which the Crown might have upon them for Custom or Excise pretended to be due by them, have proposed to surrender and disclaim all Right, Title, and Privilege, which they either had, or pretend to have, to any Exemption from Custom or Excise; which Proposition appearing to be just and reasonable, and tending to settle the Trade upon the same Foot in Scotland, as it is in England; Therefore be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, the said Proprietors shall be subject and liable to pay for their Sugars, and other Commodities, the same and such like Duties of Custom and Excise, as any other of his Majesties Subjects are liable to pay by the Acts of Parliament now in Force; Any Right or pretended Right in the said Proprietors to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Proprietors of Sugars in Scotland to pay the like Duties as other Subjects.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Conditional Bonds, or other Securities whatsoever, which, on or before the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, have been entered into by the said Proprietors, or either of them, for Payment or Security of any Duties of Custom or Excise, pretended to be due or payable by the said Proprietors, or either of them, as Proprietors of the said Sugar-Houses, for which they claimed Exemptions, and for which such Bonds or Securities were given, as aforesaid, be, and the same are hereby declared to be void, and of no Force or Effect; and the proper Officer, in whose Power or Custody such Bond or Security is or shall be, is hereby authorized and required to deliver up the same to be cancelled.

Conditional Bonds for Payment of Duties before 25 March, 1722. void.

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Proprietors, their Executors and Administrators, and every of them, shall be and are hereby discharged, released, and indemnified from the Payment of any Duty of Custom and Excise due, or pretended to be due, from them, as Proprietors of the said Sugar Houses, and for which they claimed such Exemption, as aforesaid, before the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two.

Proprietors discharged.

IX. And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for the better securing the Duties on Salt, Directions are given, that at the End of every Fishing Season, the Officers for the Duty on Salt shall take a particular Account of the Quantity of Foreign and British Salt respectively remaining in Hand, which remaining Salt shall be immediately locked up in the Joint Custody of the said Officer, and Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents; and the Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, of the said Salt, using the said Salt, as aforesaid, shall, as soon as possible, after the End of every Fishing Season, deliver an Account in Writing into the Office for the Duty on Salt, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered, and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used and consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officer of the several Ports where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation; which said Account delivered into the said Office, as aforesaid, shall be affirmed by the Oath of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, using the said Salt, as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents, who have used the same; and such Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Persons concerned, who shall for the Space of Six Months after the End of every Fishing Season, neglect or refuse to deliver such Account attested upon Oath, as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such other Person or Persons, as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit Forty Pounds: And whereas some Doubts have arisen touching the Periods of the several Fishing Seasons, and that for the Want of ascertaining the Time when the Accounts aforesaid were to be delivered to the proper Officers, the Merchants Exporters of Fish have in many Places neglected to account for the Salt received by them Duty Free, under Pretence that the Fishing Seasons have no End: For Remedy whereof, and for the better Securing of his Majesties Revenues, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Quantities of Foreign or British Salt, as have been deli-

X. And for the more regular Accounting for such Salt as shall be delivered Duty Free, for the Curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, after the five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Quantities of Foreign or British Salt, as shall be so delivered after the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be accounted for Yearly, as the aforesaid Act directs, within Three Months after the Expiration of each Year; and every Person or Persons, who shall receive into his or their sole Custody any Quantity of Foreign or British Salt Duty Free, for Curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, that shall neglect or refuse to weigh over to the proper Officer what of that Salt shall remain in his or their Hands, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver to the proper Officers Yearly, within Three Months after the Expiration of each respective Year, such Accounts of the Salt received, as aforesaid, and of the Fish cured therewith, and exported as the Act directs, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officers of the several Ports where the said Fish was shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account (which Certificates the said Officers are hereby required to give gratis, and without Delay) shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose Ten Shillings per Bushel, to be recovered of the Proprietor or Proprietors, Person or Persons, to whom, or for whose Use or Account the said Salt was delivered, for every Bushel so delivered to, or received by them; One Moiety of all which Penalties aforesaid to be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall sue or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered, and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated, by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed.

Penalty on Neglect of Delivery of Accounts of Salt received, &c.
of Fish cured,
and exported.

XI. And whereas by Storms and Violent Rages of the Tides from Sea, into several Ports and Harbours of this Realm of England, divers Ships, Barges, and Lighter-Boats, laden with Salt, for which the Duty and Excise charged thereon were duly paid, have been stranded, overset, sunk, and cast away, within the Bounds and Limits of the same Ports and Harbours, before the same Salt, or any Part thereof, have been landed or delivered on Shore, whereby the said Salt hath perished and been wholly lost, and many of his Majesties good Subjects, Owners of such Salt, have sustained great and heavy Damages thereby, for which no Relief or Redress in respect to the said Duty and Excise have hitherto been provided: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Second Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties of Salt; It is, among other things, Provided and Enacted, That in such Cases, where any Salt, for which the said Duty hath been paid, shall by Violent or Stormy Weather be lost at Sea, any Merchants, or other Persons, Owners of the said Salt, being Subjects of this Realm, shall, upon due Proof made thereof before such Justices at such times, and in such manner, and with such Restrictions as in the same Act are set forth, shall receive Certificate of such Proof as is therein directed, upon producing thereof to any the Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt, the said Officer or Officers shall let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in such Certificate to be lost, without paying any Duty or Excise for the same, as in and by the said Act is expressed: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Merchants, and others, as aforesaid, who shall be Owners of any Salt, which after due Payment of the said Duty, shall perish or be lost in any of the Ports or Harbours, or Rivers of this Realm, by Storms or Rages of the Tides from Sea, or otherwise, as aforesaid, shall, upon such Proofs to be made thereof, in all Points, and in manner as by the said recited Act is directed, shall be entitled to such Certificate, and thereupon to such Right and Privilege in all Respects, as any Owners of the like Salt lost at Sea in the like Case, are entitled to by virtue of the said Act: Any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Relief for Salt perished, or lost by Storms, in any Harbour or River of this Realm.

Anno 8 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. VI.

An Act for granting the People called Quakers, such Forms of Affirmation or Declaration, as may remove the Difficulties which many of them lie under.

Whereas, for giving some Ease to Scrupulous Consciences, an Act was made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, Intituled, An Act for Exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, Dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, whereby (among other things) a Declaration of Fidelity in the Form therein expressed, is appointed to be made and subscribed by certain Persons, Dissenters from the Church of England, who scruple the taking of any Oath: And whereas an Act was made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled, An Act that the Solemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People called Quakers, shall be accepted instead of an Oath in the usual Form, under the Provisoers therein mentioned; which Act being at first Temporary, was afterwards farther continued by an Act made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty; and the same Act is made Perpetual by an Act made in the first Year of his present Majesties Reign; by which last mentioned Act a Form, importing the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, is prescribed to be taken by the said People called Quakers: And whereas the Inconveniencies to the said People called Quakers, and their Families, and to others requiring their Testimony, in many Cases are not sufficiently aboiled by reason of Difficulties among the said Quakers, relating to the Forms of the Declaration, Affirmation, and Abjuration before mentioned, as the same are now prescribed: And whereas it is evident, that the said People called Quakers, have not abused the Liberty and Indulgence allowed to them by Law; and they have given Testimony of their Fidelity and Affection to his Majesty, and the Settlement of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and it is reasonable to give them farther Ease and Relief: May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, That it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Ad.

Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where by the Law any Quaker is or shall be required or permitted to make and subscribe the Declaration of Fidelity in the Form prescribed by the said first mentioned Act, or to make the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, or to take the Effect of the Abjuration Oath in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the First Year of his present Majesties Reign, every such Quaker shall, instead of such first mentioned Declaration of Fidelity, make and subscribe a Declaration of Fidelity in the following Words, viz.

Form of the Declaration of Fidelity altered.

I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely Promise and Declare, That I will be True and Faithful to King George; and do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Profess, Testifie, and Declare, that I do from my Heart Abhor, Detest, and Renounce, as Impious and Heretical, that wicked Doctrine and Position, That Princes Excommunicated or Deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be Deposed or Murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatsoever. And I do Declare, that no Foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath, or ought to have, any Power, Jurisdiction, Superiority, Preheminence, or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

The Form of the Affirmation altered.

II. And instead of the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, every such Quaker shall make the Solemn Declaration or Affirmation following, viz.

I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Declare and Affirm.

The Form for the Effect of the Abjuration Oath altered.

III. And instead of the Form prescribed by the said Act of the First Year of his present Majesties Reign, for the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, every such Quaker shall take the Effect thereof in the following Words, viz.

I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly Acknowledge, Profess, Testifie, and Declare, That King George is Lawful and Rightful King of this Realm, and of all other his Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging; And I do solemnly and sincerely Declare, That I do believe the Person pretended to be the Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King James, and since his Decease, pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Style and Title of King of England, by the Name of James the Third, or of Scotland, by the Name of James the Eighth, or the Style and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, nor any other the Dominions thereunto belonging; and I do Renounce and Refuse any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do solemnly Promise, That I will be True and Faithful, and bear true Allegiance to King George, and to him will be Faithful against all Traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my best Endeavour to Disclose and make Known to King George, and his Successors, all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies which I shall know to be made against Him, or any of Them. And I will be True and Faithful to the Succession of the Crown against him the said James, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands Settled by an Act, intituled, An Act Declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and Settling the Succession of the Crown, to the late Queen Anne, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants; and as the same, by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better Securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands Settled and Intailed, after the Decease of the said late Queen, and for Default of Issue of the said late Queen, to the late Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants.

And all these things I do plainly and sincerely Acknowledge, Promise, and Declare, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, Mental Evasion, or Secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Renunciation, and Promise, heartily, willingly, and truly.

IV. And all Persons authorized or required to administer or tender either the said former Declaration of Fidelity, or the said former Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, or the former Effect of the Abjuration Oath aforesaid, shall be and are hereby authorized and required to administer and tender the same respectively to the said People called Quakers, in the Words by this Act respectively appointed.

Who shall administer the same.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Declaration of Fidelity, and Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, and the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, appointed by this Act for the said People called Quakers, instead of the respective Forms prescribed for the same by the said recited Acts, shall respectively be adjudged and taken to be of such and the same Force and Effect, and no other, to all Intents and Purposes, in all Courts of Justice and elsewhere, as if such Quaker had made and subscribed the Declaration of Fidelity, or had made the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, or had taken the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, in the respective Forms appointed by the said recited Acts: And if any Person making such Affirmation or Declaration, as is appointed by this Act to be made, instead of the Affirmation or Declaration in the Form prescribed by the before mentioned Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, shall be lawfully convicted of Willful, False, and Corrupt Affirming or Declaring any Matter or Thing, which, if sworn in the common or usual Form, would have amounted to Willful and Corrupt Perjury, every such Person so offending, shall incur and suffer such and the same Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are inflicted or enacted by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm against Persons convicted of Willful and Corrupt Perjury.

The Declaration, &c. by this Act to be of the same Force as the former.

Persons guilty of Corrupt Affirming, &c. to suffer, as if guilty of Corrupt Perjury.

7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 34.

VI. Provided always, That all Clauses, Provisoes, and Exceptions, contained in the said recited Acts, or any of them, not hereby expressly altered or repealed, shall be of such and the same Force and Effect, as they were before the making of this Act.

All Clauses in the former Act to be in Force if not Repealed by this.

C A P. VIII.

An Act to enable his Majesty effectually to prohibit Commerce (for the space of One Year) with any Country that is or shall be infected with the Plague; and for shortning the Continuance of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of his Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for repealing an Act made in the Ninth Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or Isles of Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the spreading of Infection.

Whereas several Places in Foreign Parts, having for some time past been, and still continuing to be visited with the Plague, it may be judged necessary by his Majesty, for securing his Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions there.

thereunto belonging, from so dreadful a Calamity, to prohibit or restrain the Commerce between his Majesties Subjects and those of any other Country or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague: And whereas it will be requisite to enforce such Prohibition or Restraint by severe Penalties; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majesty (in whose great Wisdom and Care for the Preservation of his People, they do, under the Divine Protection, confide) by One or more Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued at any time or times before the Twelfth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons to visit, go to, or frequent any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague; and also to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate whatsoever, to ship, export, carry, or send, or cause or procure to be shipped, exported, carried, or sent, directly or indirectly, from or out of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and any the Dominions thereunto belonging, unto any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, any Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandizes whatsoever, for and during such time and times, before or until the five and twentieth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, as shall be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, under the Penalties herein after mentioned, and in such Manner and Form, and under such Regulations, as in and by such Proclamation and Proclamations respectively, shall be prescribed.

The King by Proclamation before 2 Dec. 1722. may forbid all Persons to go to Places infected, or to export any Goods to such Places,

for any time till 25 March, 1723.

The King may by Proclamation, also forbid all Persons to come from Places infected, or to import any Goods from such Places,

for any time till 25 March, 1723.

All Goods exported contrary to such Proclamation, and this Act, and the Ships, Tackle, &c. forfeited, and may be sued for as Goods, for unlawful Importation, &c.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majesty, by the same, or any other Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued at any time or times before the said Twelfth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, under the said Great Seal, to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, to come or pass from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any of them; and also to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate whatsoever, to import or bring, or cause or procure to be imported or brought, directly or indirectly, into Great Britain or Ireland, or any the Dominions thereunto belonging, any Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandizes whatsoever, from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, that is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, for and during such time and times, before or until the said Twelfth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, as shall be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, under the Penalties herein after mentioned, and in such Manner and Form, and under such Regulations, as in and by such Proclamation or Proclamations respectively, shall be prescribed.

III. And be it further Enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every the Goods, Wares, Commodities, and Merchandizes, which shall be exported, or shipped for Exportation, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of such Proclamation or Proclamations, and of this Act, and the Ships or Vessels upon which they shall be so exported, or shipped for Exportation, and all the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized wheresoever they can be found; and such Seizures shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, by the same Ways and Means, and by such Rules and Remedies, and in in such Manner, as any Goods seized for unlawful Importation or Exportation, shall and may be sued for and recovered: And moreover, that all and every such Person and Persons, who shall have exported, or shipped for Exportation, or caused to be exported, or shipped for Exportation, any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of any such Proclamation, and of this Act, shall forfeit double the Value thereof, to be ascertained and recovered as the Value of any uncustomed or prohibited Goods is by Law to be ascertained and recovered.

Exporter also to forfeit Double the Value.

IV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times, after the issuing and publishing such Proclamation or Proclamations respectively, as aforesaid, any Person or Persons shall visit, go to, or frequent any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of such Proclamation or Proclamations, and of this Act; then and in every such case the Person or Persons so offending, shall incur and suffer such Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as were ordained and provided by the Statute of Provision and Præmunire, made in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second; And that if at any time or times aforesaid, any Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, coming from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, shall attempt to enter any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions thereunto belonging, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of such Proclamation or Proclamations, and of this Act; It shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, and they are hereby required to resist and oppose the Entrance of such Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, into such Port or Place, and the Landing of any Goods or Merchandizes out of such Ship or Vessel, or to oblige such Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, to depart out of the same, and to use all necessary Means for the Purposes aforesaid, be it by Firing of Guns upon such Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, or any other kind of Force whatsoever: And in case any such Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, coming from any Kingdom, Country, or Place infected, as aforesaid, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, or any Goods or Merchandizes brought on board the same, shall actually enter or be landed in any such Port or Place, as aforesaid, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of such Proclamation or Proclamations, and of this Act, every such Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy; and such Ship or Vessel, Goods or Merchandizes, so actually entering into, or being landed in any such Port or Place, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of any such Proclamation, and of this Act, shall be forfeited; and also it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his or their Order in Council, to direct, authorize, and empower any Person or Persons whatsoever, to burn or destroy, or cause to be burnt or destroyed, such Ship or Vessel, and the Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereof, and Cargo on board the same, and also such Goods and Merchandizes so landed, as aforesaid: And moreover, that all and every Person and Persons, who shall have caused and procured any such Goods or Merchandizes to be imported contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of any such Proclamation, and of this Act, shall forfeit treble the Value thereof, to be ascertained and recovered, as the Value of any uncustomed or prohibited Goods is by Law to be ascertained and recovered.

After such Proclamation, Persons going to or Places infected, incur a Premunire.

Ship or Person coming from such Places, and attempting to enter any of our Ports, any Persons may oppose their Entrance, or landing of Goods, or oblige them to depart, by any kind of Force.

Ship, Goods, or Persons, coming from such Places, entering any Port, or landing Goods, the Offender to suffer Death as a Felon, and the Ship and Cargo forfeited, and may by His Majesty's Order be burnt.

Importer to forfeit Treble the Value.

of the Penalties to go to the King, he bearing the Charge of Prosecution, the other to the Informer

V. And it is hereby Enacted, That Two third Parts of all and every the said Penalties and Forfeitures to be sued for and recovered, by virtue of this Act, shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Charges of Prosecution and Recovery being born by his Majesty, and the other Third Part to the Use of him or them, who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same.

The Act

7 Geo. cap. 3.
to continue no longer than till
25 March, 1723.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act passed in the Seventh Year of his present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for repealing an Act made in the Ninth Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine; And for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the spreading of Infection, or any thing therein contained, shall not continue in Force any longer than until the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundreded twenty three; Any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Anno 8 GEORGII Regis.

CAP. X.

An Act for Repealing such Clauses in the Act passed in the Seventh Year of his Majesties Reign (relating to Quarantine and the Plague) as give Power to remove Persons from their Habitations, or to make Lines about Places infected.

Preamble reciting several Clauses in the Act
7 Geo. cap. 3.
relating to Quarentine.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty [Intituled, An Act for Repealing an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain, or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the Spreading of Infection] It is, amongst other things, Enacted, That if any Person infected with the Plague, or obliged to perform Quarantine, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair within convenient Time, after due Notice for that Purpose given to him, her, or them, by the proper Officer, to the Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place, duly appointed for him, her, or them, or having been placed in such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place, shall escape, or attempt to escape out of the same, whilst he, she, or they shall continue infected, or before Quarantine fully performed respectively, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen, and other Persons appointed to see Quarantine performed, by any kind of Violence that the Case shall require, to compel every such Person to refusing or neglecting, as aforesaid; and every such Person so escaping, or attempting to escape, as aforesaid, to repair or return unto such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place so appointed for him or her, as aforesaid; and every such Person so refusing or neglecting to repair within convenient Time, after such Notice, as aforesaid, into such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place appointed for him or her, as aforesaid, and also every Person actually escaping, as aforesaid, shall be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy: And it is by the said recited Act also further Enacted, That if at any time or times hereafter, any City, Town, or Place within Great Britain, or Ireland, shall be infected with the Plague, It shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to cause One or more Line or Lines, Trench or Trenches, to be cast up or made about such infected City, Town, or Place, at a convenient Distance from the same, in order to cut off the Communication between such infected City, Town, or Place, and the rest of the Country; and to prohibit all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever, to enter, pass, or be carried over such Lines or Trenches, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions for Performance of Quarantine, as shall be directed or permitted by any Order or Orders made, or to be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or

Successors, in Council, and notified by Proclamation; and in case any Person or Persons, being within such Lines or Trenches, or any of them, shall, during the time of such Infection, presume or attempt to come out of the same, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions for Performance of Quarentine, as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made or to be made, and notified, as aforesaid, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen, or Persons appointed to guard or secure such Lines or Trenches, or any of them, by any kind of Violence that the Case shall require, to compel all and every such Person and Persons to return back within such Lines or Trenches; and in case any Person shall actually come out of such Lines or Trenches, or any of them (unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions, as aforesaid) every such Person shall be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy: And whereas the Execution of the Powers, and Authorities mentioned in the said recited Clauses might be very grievous to the Subjects of this Kingdom; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Clauses, and the Powers therein mentioned, and all other Powers in the said Act, to compel any Person or Persons to remove from his, her, or their Habitations to any Ship, Lazaret, or other Place, shall be, and are hereby Repealed and made Void from and after the five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two.

The before recited Clauses, &c. repealed after 25 March, 1722.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained, shall be construed to repeal or make void any of the Powers or Penalties in the said recited Act mentioned, relating to Persons who shall be on Board any Ship obliged to perform Quarentine, or shall come on Shore, or go on Board any other Ship from any Ship obliged to perform Quarentine, but that such Powers and Penalties shall be and remain in as full Force, as if this Act had not been made.

Not to repeal the Powers relating to Persons in Ships obliged to perform Quarentine, or coming on Shore, or going on Board other Ships, from Ships performing Quarentine.

C A P. XII.

An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

Whereas in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of <sup>Preamble.</sup> Her late Majesty Queen Anne, a good Law was made for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America, by an Act which commenced the First Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and five, and continued from thence forward for the Space of Nine Years; and by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of Her said late Majesties Reign, the aforesaid Act is continued from the time of the Expiration of the same, for the further Term of Eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; and by the Act last mentioned, Encouragement is given for the Importation of Naval Stores from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that Part of Great Britain called England, during the Remainder of the time limited for granting Premiums to the Importers of Naval Stores from America, by the said Acts: And whereas in Consequence of the said Encouragement, it is found by Experience that great Quantities of Good and Merchantable Pitch and Tar (part of the Naval Stores mentioned in the said Acts) have been imported into this Kingdom from the said Plantations in America, which Pitch and

and Tar have been found useful for the Service of his Majesties Navy, and it is necessary to give farther Encouragement therein : And whereas it is probable that the Owners of large Tracts of Land in the said Plantations, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, lying near the Sea, and upon Navigable Rivers, would be induced to sow the same with Hemp, if farther Encouragement were given for that Purpose : May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, That it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Premium or Reward of Six Pounds given by the said Acts for every Tun of Hemp water-rotted, bright and clean, each Tun containing Twenty Gross Hundreds and Six Pounds, shall be continued from the Expiration of the said Act of the Twelfth Year of her said late Majesties Reign, for and during the Term of Sixteen Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament ; and shall be paid and payable in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Methods, and Restrictions, as are prescribed in and by the said former Acts, or either of them, touching the same ; and all such Hemp, being lawfully imported into this Kingdom after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be free and clear of and from all Duties, Customs, and Impositions whatsoever, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors ; Any Law, Custom, or other Matter or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And whereas great Quantities of Wood and Timber, and of the Goods commonly called Lumber, herein after particularly enumerated (That is to say) Deals of several Sorts, Timber Barks of several Sizes, Barrel-Boards, Clap-Boards, Pipe-Boards, or Pipe-Volt, White Boards for Shoemakers, Boom and Cant-Spars, Bow-Staves, Capravens, Clap-Volt, Ebony-Wood, Headings for Pipes, and for Hogheads and Barrels, Hoops for Coopers, Dars, Pipe and Hoghead-Staves, Barrel-Staves, Firkin-Staves, Trunnels, Speckled-Wood, Sweet-Wood, Small Spars, Oak-Plank, and Maincoat, or some of them, have usually been imported into this Kingdom from foreign Countries at excessive Rates or Prices, especially in time of War, and Foreigners have thereby found Opportunities to export the Coined Monies of this Realm ; and it is well known that the said Commodities, being of the Growth and Product of his Majesties Plantations in America, may be furnished from thence, if due Encouragement was given in that behalf ; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who, within the Term of One and twenty Years, to be reckoned from the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall import, or cause to be imported into Great Britain, directly from any of his Majesties British Plantations or Colonies in America, in any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, which may lawfully trade to or from his Majesties said Plantations or Colonies, and which shall be navigated according to Law, any sort of Wood, Plank, or Timber whatsoever, Wrought or Unwrought, or any of the Goods called Lumber, before in this Act enumerated, such Wood, Plank, Timber, and Lumber, being of the Growth and Product of the said Plantations or Colonies, or some of them (except Barks, Pards, and Bowsprights, touching which Duties and Premiums are ascertained by former Acts in that behalf) shall and may import the same free from all Customs and Impositions whatsoever, granted to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

III. And to the End his Majesties Royal Navy may, from time to time, have the Benefit of so much of such Hemp, as shall be requisite for the Service thereof ; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Importation of any Hemp, for which any Bounty or Premium is by this or any former Act given, such Hemp imported after 24 June, 1722. to be free of Duty to his Majesty.

Premium for Hemp water-rotted, &c. continued from Expiration of the Act 12 Anne, for 16 Years, &c.

Wood, Lumber, &c. (except Barks, &c.) imported from America, for 21 Years after 24 June, 1722. Duty-free.

Presumption of Hemp imported, to be tendered to Commissioners, &c. of the Navy.

the Preemption or Refusal of such Hemp shall be offered and tendered to the Commissioners of his Majesties Navy, or some of their Agents for the time being, upon landing the same; and if within the space of Twenty Days after such Tender, the said Commissioners shall not contract or bargain for the same, it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners of such Hemp, otherwise to dispose thereof, as by Law they may, for his, her, or their best Profit and Advantage.

Such Hemp not contracted for by them within 20 Days, to be otherwise disposed of.

IV. And whereas in and by the said Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from Her Majesties Plantations in America, a Reward or Premium was given for Tar brought into this Kingdom, directly from her Majesties Plantations in America, after the Rate of Four Pounds for every Tun of Good and Merchantable Tar, under such Rules, Regulations, and Provisoos, as are therein mentioned; which Act was continued by one other Act made in the Twelfth Year of the same Reign, Intituled, An Act for continuing an Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesties Plantations in America; and for Encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that Part of Great Britain called England, and is still in Force; and by the said last mentioned Act the like Reward or Premium of Four Pounds per Tun, was extended to and given for Tar brought from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that Part of Great Britain called England, under the like Rules, Regulations, and Provisoos, as in the Case of Plantation Tar: And whereas by one other Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act against Clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods; and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, the said Reward or Premium is to be allowed for such Tar only as should be clean, good, merchantable, and well conditioned, and fit for making Cordage; and nevertheless, the Tar imported from the said Plantations has hitherto been found to retain an hot and thick Quality, whereby it is not so fit for making Cordage, as the East Country Tar: Wherefore for Remedy thereof for the future, and to the End his Majesties Navy may have the Benefits intended by the said Acts, in being supplied with Plantation Tar fit for making Cordage; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, no Certificate be made out by any Officer of his Majesties Customs in any Port of this Kingdom, for any Tar which shall be imported into this Kingdom, from any of his Majesties Colonies or Plantations in America, nor any Bill made out by the Commissioners or Principal Officers of his Majesties Navy, whereby to entitle the Importer of such Tar to any Reward or Premium, unless the Certificate of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Collector of the Customs, and Naval Officer, or any Two of them (which Certificate is by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, directed to be by them made out in such Terms, Manner, and Form, and for such Intents and Purposes, as are therein mentioned) do express that it has appeared to them (the Persons so certifying) by the Oath of the Owner or Maker of the Tar, for which such Certificate shall be granted (such Oath to be made before any Justice of the Peace within the Colony or Plantation where such Tar shall be made, who is hereby authorized to administer the same) that the Tar therein mentioned was made from Green Trees prepared for that Purpose, after the following manner; That is to say, That when such Trees were fit to bark, the Bark thereof was stript Eight Foot, or thereabouts, up from the Root of each Tree, a Slip of the Bark of about four Inches in Breadth having been left on one side of each Tree; and that each Tree, after having been so barked, had stood during one Year at the least, and was After 29 Sept. 1724. No Certificate to be made by Officer of the Customs for Tar imported, &c.

nor Bills granted by Commissioners of Navy to entitle Importer to a Premium, unless the Certificate from Governor, &c. do express that such Tar was made from Green Trees in manner here by prescribed.

The manner.

not before cut down for the making of Tar ; Any thing herein, or in any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And whereas the Laws already made, and still in Force, for the Preservation of White Pine-Trees in his Majesties Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, and Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, for the Masting the Royal Navy, have been found insufficient for that Purpose, so that a further Provision is necessary to be made therein : And soasmuch as there are great Numbers of White Pine-Trees, fit for Masting the Royal Navy, growing in his Majesties Province of Nova Scotia in America ; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty first Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, no Person or Persons within the said Colonies or Plantations of Nova Scotia, New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, and Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, or within any of them, do or shall presume to cut, fell, or destroy any White Pine-Trees, not growing within any Township, or the Bounds, Lines, or Limits thereof, in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, without his Majesties Royal Licence for so doing first had and obtained, on Pain that every Person so cutting, selling, and destroying such Pine-Trees, or who shall be aiding or assisting therein, or in drawing away the said Pine-Trees, after the same shall have been so cut, felled, or destroyed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the several and respective Sums following ; That is to say, For every White Pine-Tree, of the Growth of Twelve Inches Diameter and under, at Three foot from the Earth, the Sum of Five Pounds ; for every such Tree, from Twelve Inches to Eighteen Inches Diameter, the Sum of Ten Pounds ; for every such Tree, from Eighteen Inches to Four and twenty Inches Diameter, the Sum of Twenty Pounds ; and for every such Tree, from Four and twenty Inches Diameter and upwards, the Sum of Fifty Pounds ; which several Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be sued for within Six Months after the Offence committed, by Plaintiff or Information, upon the Oath of One or more Credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before the Judge of the Admiralty, or his Deputy, within the Colony or Plantation where such Pine-Tree shall be cut, felled, or destroyed ; one moiety of such Penalties and Forfeitures to be to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, the other moiety to the Informer who shall sue for the same ; and in case any Dispute shall arise whether such Tree, when cut, felled, or destroyed, was growing within any Township, or the Bounds, Lines, or Limits thereof, as aforesaid, the Proof shall lie upon the Owner ; and on Conviction of such Offender for such Offence, as aforesaid, if he shall refuse or neglect to pay the Penalty and Forfeiture thereby incurred by the Space of Twenty Days after such Conviction, that then such Judge, or his Deputy, shall and may, by Warrant under his hand and Seal, cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, rendering the Overplus, if any be, to the Owner ; and when no sufficient Distress can be found, such Judge or Deputy shall commit the Offender to Prison, within the Colony or Plantation where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, during such time as such Judge or Deputy shall appoint, not exceeding Twelve Months, nor less than Three Months, or until such Offender shall pay the Penalty or Sum of Money so recovered ; and after such Payment made, shall likewise find sufficient Security for his good Behaviour, during the Space of Three Years, to be accounted from the time of such his Conviction : And it is hereby Declared, That all White Pine-Trees, Masts, or Logs made from such Trees, which from and after the said One and twentieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be found cut or felled without such Licence, as aforesaid, in any of his Majesties said Colonies or Plantations, shall be forfeited and seized for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; Any former Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

A. cap. 17.

VI. And whereas by one other Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Preservation of White and other Pine-Trees growing in Her Majesties Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Maine, and Rhode Island, and Providence Plantations, the Narraganset Country, or Kings Province, Connecticut, in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, for the Masting her Majesties Navy; It was, amongst other things, Enacted, That no Person or Persons within the said Colonies and Plantations, should cut, fell, or destroy any White Pine-Tree fit for Mast (not being the Property of any private Person) such Tree being of the Growth of Four and twenty Inches Diameter and upwards, at Twelve Inches from the Earth, without her Majesties Licence, on the Penalty of One hundred Pounds Sterling, to be recovered, levied, and distributed, as therein is mentioned; Be it hereby further Enacted, That so much of the said Act, as relates to the cutting, selling, or destroying such White Pine-Trees, and the Penalties to be incurred thereby, shall, from and after the One and twentieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, be, and stand absolutely Repealed.

Repeal of part of the Act 9 Anne for Preservation of White and other Pine-Trees, &c.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom; and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes Exported; and for reducing the Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs Imported; and for Importation of all Furs of the Product of the British Plantations, into this Kingdom only; and that the Two Corporations of Assurance, on any Suits brought on their Policies, shall be liable only to single Damages and Costs of Suit.

Preamble.

MA Y it please your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas the Wealth and Prosperity of this Kingdom both very much depend upon the Improvement of its Manufactures, and the profitable Trade carried on by the Exportation of the same, which Trade ought, by all proper Means, to be Encouraged, for the more comfortable Support and Maintenance of great Numbers of your Majesties Subjects employed in the Making or Working of such Goods, and for the Enlargement of the Commerce of Great Britain: And whereas the Manufacture of Silk-Stuffs, and of Stuffs mixed with Silk, which is one of the most considerable Branches of the Manufacture of this Kingdom, has, of late Years, been greatly improved in this Kingdom, and there is reason to believe, that the Exportation of them into Foreign Parts would considerably increase, were it not obstructed and hindered by reason of the high Duties payable upon the Importation of Raw and Thrown Silk, without any Allowance being made upon the said Silks, when brought up and exported; and in regard the said Raw and Thrown Silk, when exported unmanufactured, do draw back great part of the Duties paid Inwards; and it seems just and reasonable that the said Silks, when made up, should also enjoy the same Benefit and Allowance upon the Exportation of them; and for that there is a Waste of the Raw and Thrown Silk used in the Manufacture: Therefore we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray your Majesty, That it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the several and respective Allowances, or Sums of Money hereafter in this Act expressed, shall be paid to any Person or Persons, who, at any time or times, within or during the Term of Three Years, to be reckoned from the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, or at any time or times before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall really and truly export out of this Kingdom, by way of Merchandize, any of the Goods or Commodities of the Manufacture of Great Britain, herein after particularly specified, and so in Proportion for any greater Quantity; That is to say,

after Entry, and before or after Shipping, to examine Bales, &c.

II. And for the better preventing Frauds in the Entering any of the said Goods under a wrong Denomination, to the Prejudice of the Revenue, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Searcher, or other proper Officer of the Customs, after the Entry of any of the said Goods, and before or after the Shipping thereof, to open and strictly examine any Bale, Truss, Chest, or other Package, as now by Law they may do, to see if the Goods are right entered; and if on such Examination the same shall be found to be right entered, the Officer shall at his own Charge cause the same to be re-packed, to the Satisfaction of the Exporter, which Charge shall be allowed to the said Officer by the Commissioners of the Customs, if they think it reasonable; but in case such Officer shall find the said Goods, or any part thereof, to have been entered under a wrong Denomination, whereby his Majesty would have been defrauded in the Allowance to be paid on the Exportation of such Goods, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, all such Goods so wrong entered, shall and may be seized, and the same, as likewise the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be prosecuted and divided as herein after mentioned.

Goods wrong entered, forfeited, and the Value.

No Allowances for Manufactures mixed with Gold or Silver on the Edges, &c. only.

III. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said respective Allowances shall not be demanded or made for such of the said Manufactures mixed with Gold or Silver, when they are only so mixed at the Edges and the Ends of the Pieces, or for such of the said Manufactures mixed with Silk, when they are only so mixed at the Edges or Ends of the Piece: And if any Dispute shall arise concerning any of the said Manufactures, that is to say, whether the same were made in Great Britain, or touching the Quality of the Goods, the Onus Probandi shall lie on the Exporter, Claimer, or Owner thereof, and not on the Officer.

Onus Probandi

nalty of the Bond.

IV. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the said Silk-Stuffs, or other Manufactures aforesaid, shipped to be exported, for which Allowance is hereby made, shall be re-landed or unshipped in any Port or Place in Great Britain, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, without the Licence of One or more of the Principal Officers of such Port or Place, first had and obtained, or unless it be in case of Distress to save the said Goods from Perishing, which shall be forthwith made known to One of the said Officers, the Goods (over and above the Penalty of the Bond to be levied and recovered to his Majesty's Use, as aforesaid) and Treble the Value of such Goods, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be prosecuted and divided in the manner herein after mentioned.

Allowances to be paid out of any Duties upon Goods Imported.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Allowances shall and may be paid by the respective Customer or Collector, out of any Money in his Hands, arising from Customs or other Duties upon Goods imported from Parts beyond the Seas, and the Money so paid shall be accepted of in his or their Account, as so much paid to his Majesty, and he and they is, are, and shall be discharged thereof accordingly.

Allowances to be abated in Proportion to Customs on Thrown or Raw Silk, if redeemed, &c.

VI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Customs or other Duties now payable on the Importation of Foreign Thrown or Raw Silk, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, be redeemed, or otherwise cease to be payable, so much of the Allowance or Allowances to be made on the Exportation of the Silk-Stuffs, or other Manufactures before mentioned, shall be abated, as shall bear a Proportion to the Customs or Duties so redeemed, or that shall cease to be payable on the Importation of Thrown or Raw Silk; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And for the further Incouragement of the British Manufactures, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, the several and respective Subsidies and other Duties whatsoever, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Law now in Force, upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes of the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, shall cease, determine, and be no longer due or payable for so much of the said Goods or Merchandizes, as shall from thenceforth be exported; except such Goods and Merchandizes, touching which a special Provision is herein after made.

After 25 March, 1722. Duties on Goods of British Produce or Manufacture exported, to cease.

VIII. And it is hereby Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to determine, alter, or lessen the several or respective Subsidies of Poundage, or other Duties, payable upon the Exportation of Allom, Lead, Lead-Ore, Tin, Leather tanned, Copperas, Coals, Wool-Cards, White Woollen Cloths, Lapis Calaminaris, Skins of all sorts, Grew, Cony Hair or Wool, Hares Wool, Hair of all sorts, Horses, and Licharge of Lead; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties on Allom, Lead, &c. exported, to continue.

IX. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, to export out of any Port of this Kingdom, in which there is a Customier or Collector, all such Goods and Merchandizes of the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, as may now be lawfully exported, and that without paying any Subsidy, or other Duty whatsoever (other than for the Goods or Merchandizes, touching which an Exception or Special Provision is before made in this Act) so as a due Entry be first made of the said Goods or Merchandizes in such Custom-House respectively, where the same shall be exported, in the same Manner and Form, expressing the Quantities and Qualities of the respective Goods, as was used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same be shipped by the proper Officer for that Purpose; on Failure whereof the said Goods to be liable to the Payment of the Duties, as if this Act had never been made; Any Law, Statute, Provision, or Usage, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

On Entry, &c. all Goods of British Produce, &c. as may lawfully be exported, to be Custom-free.

Exception.

X. And for the further Encouragement of the Manufactures of this Kingdom, by the Promoting the Importation of Drugs, and other Goods used for Dying; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, It shall and may be lawful to import into this Kingdom, all sorts of Drugs and other Goods, herein after particularly enumerated, which are used for Dying; that is to say, Agarick, Annatto, Antimonium Crudum, Aquafortis, Argoll, Arsenick, Bayberries, Brazil Wood, Braziletto Wood, Cochineal, Cream of Tartar, Fustick, Galls, Gum Arabick, or Gum Seneca, Indico of all sorts, Ilinglasi, Limus, Logwood, Madder of all sorts, Madder Roots, Nicaragua Wood, Orchal, Orchelia, Pomegranate Peels, Red Wood, Safflower, Sal-Armoniack, Sal-gem, Sappan Wood, Red Saunders, Shoemack, Sticklack, Turnsole, Valonia, and Verdegrease, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, Imposition, or other Duty whatsoever for the same (Salt Petre always excepted) so as a due Entry be first made thereof in the Custom-House belonging to the Port into which such Drugs, or other Dying Goods, shall be imported, in the same Manner and Form, expressing the Quantities and Qualities of the respective Goods, as was used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer appointed for that Purpose, and so as such Importation be according to the Rules prescribed and enjoined by an Act of Parliament passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increasing of Shipping and Navigation; and on Failure of the said Conditions or Directions herein last mentioned, such Drugs, or Dying Goods, shall be liable to the Payment of the respective Duties, as if this Act had never been made; Any Law, Statute, Provision, or Usage, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

On Entry Dying Drugs, &c. Imported, Duty-free.

22 Car. 2. cap. 18.

XI. And to the End the Encouragement given to the Manufactures of this Kingdom, in allowing the before mentioned Foreign Drugs, or other Goods used in Dying, to be imported Duty-free, according to the true Meaning of this Act, may in no wise tend to the Benefit of Manufactures made in Foreign Parts, as it may do, should such Drugs, or other Goods used in Dying, be again carried out of this Kingdom, without paying any Duty for the same, whereby they may be sold in Foreign Markets so much cheaper: We your Majesties said Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant to your Majesty, and do humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for and upon all Foreign Goods, Commodities, or Materials used in Dying, which shall be imported into this Kingdom free of Duty by virtue of this present Act, and which, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be again exported thereout, there shall be paid and answered to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Subsidy of Poundage upon the Value of Twenty Shillings, according to the several Rates and Values hereafter mentioned, the Sum of Six Pence, and so after that Rate for greater or lesser Quantities; That is to say,

Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, upon the Exportation of any of the said Beaver Skins within the time allowed by Law, for which the Duties chargeable by this Act shall have been first paid or secured, there shall be allowed a Drawback of a Moiety of the said respective Duties so paid or secured, and no more; which Drawback shall be made or allowed, according to such Rules and Methods, as Drawbacks are allowed by any Law now in Force relating to the Customs.

Duty on Pepper for Home Consumption to be reduced to 4d. per lb.
Weight,

besides the Half-Subsidy paid at Importation.

XV. And whereas Pepper imported directly from the Place of its Growth, in English Built Shipping, is valued in the Book of Rates at One Shilling and Eight Pence per Pound Weight, according to which Value it now pays, or is liable to pay, several Subsidies, after the Rate of Twelve Pence in the Pound; and there is also charged thereupon an Impost of Three Pence, and a New Duty of Eighteen Pence per Pound Weight, which Subsidies, and other Duties, amount in the whole to One Shilling and Eleven Pence Half penny per Pound Weight (over and above One half-penny per Pound Weight chargeable for the Half-Subsidy upon the Importation thereof) and the said Duties amounting to One Shilling and Eleven Pence Half-penny per Pound Weight, are, or ought to be, applied in manner following; That is to say, for Half the said Old Subsidy, One Half-penny; for the said further Subsidy, One Penny; for the One third Subsidy, One third part of a Penny; for the Two third Subsidy, Two third parts of a Penny; for the Old Impost, Three Pence; and for the New Duty, One Shilling and Six Pence, as by several Acts of Parliament now in Force doth appear; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, the said Duties amounting to One Shilling and Eleven Pence Half-penny per Pound Weight, upon such Pepper, as aforesaid, which thenceforth shall be delivered from the proper Ware Houses for Home Consumption (without altering the Half-Subsidy now payable upon the Importation thereof) shall be lessened and reduced to pay Four Pence per Pound Weight, and no more.

Value of Pepper how to be estimated and divided.

XVI. And for better making a Distribution thereof to and amongst the said several Subsidies and Duties respectively, It is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the Value of the said Pepper shall be esteemed at Six Shillings and Eight Pence per Pound Weight, upon which Value Twelve Pence in the Pound doth amount to the said Sum of Four Pence per Pound Weight; and the said esteemed Value of Six Shillings and Eight Pence per Pound Weight, shall be divided as follows, in order to compute the several Duties hereafter to be paid thereupon; to wit,

To the Old Subsidy, Three Pence, and One third part of a Penny.

To the further Subsidy, Three Pence, and One third part of a Penny.

To the One third Subsidy, and Two third Subsidy, Three Pence, and One third part of a Penny.

To the said Impost, Ten Pence.

And to the said New Duty, Five Shillings.

Four Pence per Pound, how to be applied.

XVII. And the said Sum of Four Pence in the Pound shall be apportioned and applied to the said several Subsidies, and other Duties accordingly; Any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And

XVIII. And whereas Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs imported, are valued in the Book of Rates at the respective Values following, That is to say, Hacc the Pound Weight, Twenty Shillings, Cloves the Pound Weight, Ten Shillings, Nutmegs the Pound Weight, Eight Shillings; according to which several Values the Duties now payable upon Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs imported, do amount as follows, That is to say, For the said Old Subsidy, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, One Shilling; for the said further Subsidy, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, One Shilling; for the said One third Subsidy, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the respective Values, Four Pence; for the said Two third Subsidy, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, Eight Pence; for the New Duty, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, One Shilling; for the New Additional Duty, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, One Shilling; and for the further New Duty, for every Twenty Shillings Value, according to the said respective Values, five Shillings; amounting in the whole to Ten Shillings for every Pound Weight of Hacc, to five Shillings for every Pound Weight of Cloves, and to four Shillings for every Pound Weight of Nutmegs, as by several Acts of Parliament thereto relating, and now in Force, doth appear: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, the Duties upon Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs, from thenceforth to be imported, shall be computed and paid, as if they had been valued in the said Book of Rates, at the Values following, That is to say, Hacc the Pound Weight, Six Shillings, Cloves the Pound Weight, Four Shillings, Nutmegs the Pound Weight, Three Shillings; according to which respective Values there shall be paid,

Duties upon Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs, reduced, and how to be computed and paid,
viz.

For every Pound Weight of Hacc so imported, Three Shillings, and no more.

Hacc, 3 s.

For every Pound Weight of Cloves so imported, Two Shillings, and no more.

Cloves, 2 s.

For every Pound Weight of Nutmegs, One Shilling and Six Pence, and no more.

Nutmegs,
1 s. 6 d.

Which several Sums shall be applied to the said several Subsidies and other Duties, in such Proportions as Ten Shillings bear to Three Shillings for Hacc, as five Shillings bear to Two Shillings for Cloves, and as four Shillings bear to One Shilling and Six Pence for Nutmegs; Any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Application of the several Sums.

XIX. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Importation of Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs, every or any of them, shall be subject to the same Rules in taking forth the Licences and other Rules and Restrictions, whereunto the same were subject before the making of this Act; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Hacc, &c. imported, subject to the same Licences, Rules, &c. as formerly.

XX. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all the several and respective Sum and Sums of Money, which shall arise by virtue of this Act, for the said reduced Duties upon Beaver Skins imported, and for such Pepper delivered out of the Warehouses for Home Consumption, and for the said reduced Duties upon Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs imported, shall have such or the like respective Continuances, and shall and may, from time to time, be raised, received, levied, secured, and recovered, by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Discounts and Allowances, and in such Manner and Form, as the present Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Hacc, Cloves, and Nutmegs, before the making of this Act, might be raised, received, levied, secured, or recovered, by any Law or Laws of the Customs now in Force.

Monies arising by reduced Duties on Beaver Skins,
Pepper, Hacc,
&c. imported,
to have like Continuance,
as Duties upon Beaver Skins,
Pepper, Hacc,
&c. before this Act.

Monies how appropriated.

Subject to Redemption.

Continuance of the Powers in former Acts for appropriating Duties.

Drawbacks upon Exportation
of Mace, &c. to be in Proportion to the former Drawbacks.

Penalties how to be prosecuted.

Moiety to the King, Moiety to Prosecutor.

General Issue.

XXI. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Sum and Sums of Money, as shall arise by virtue of this Act, for the said reduced Duties upon Beaver Skins imported, and for such Pepper delivered out of the Warehouses for Home Consumption, and for the said reduced Duties upon Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs imported (the necessary Charges of Management excepted) are and shall be appropriated and applied to and for the same respective Uses, and in such or the like Proportions, Manner, and Form, and subject to such respective Powers of Redemption, as the present Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs, at or before the making of this Act, were by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force respectively appropriated and applicable; and that all the Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament for appropriating and applying the said present Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs, every or any of them, shall be continued, practised, and put in Execution, for appropriating and applying the Monies to arise by virtue of this Act, for and upon the said reduced Duties upon Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs, according to this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; Any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, upon Exportation of any of the said Mace, Cloves, or Nutmegs, or any of them, within the Time allowed by Law, for which the Duties chargeable by this Act shall have been first paid or secured, there shall be allowed certain Drawbacks, as shall bear such or the like Proportion to the Sums charged by this Act upon Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs respectively, as the former Drawbacks allowable on Mace, Cloves, and Nutmegs exported respectively did bear to the Duties thereupon, before the making of this Act, and no more; which proportional Drawbacks shall be made and allowed, according to such Rules and Methods as Drawbacks are allowed by any Laws now in Force relating to the Customs.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, shall and may be prosecuted and determined by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinborough respectively, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparllance shall be allowed; and One Moiety of the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of the Kings Majesty, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as will sue for, or prosecute the same.

XXIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in Pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and if the Plaintiff shall be Non-suited, or discontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

XXV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Beaver Skins, and other Furs of the Product of any of the British Plantations in America, Asia, or Africa, shall, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, be imported directly from thence into Great Britain, and laid on Shore there, and not elsewhere, under the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second [Intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increasing of Shipping and Navigation] in relation to Sugars, Tobacco, and other enumerated Goods, of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of any of the English Plantations therein mentioned, to be recovered and distributed in such manner, as the Penalties and Forfeitures relating to the said enumerated Goods are, by the said recited Act, to be recovered and distributed.

Beaver Skins, and other Furs, after 25 March, 1722. to be Imported directly from British Plantations, under Forfeiture, &c. as in the Case of Sugar, and other enumerated Goods.

Anno 8 GEORGII Regis.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for taking off the Duty upon all Salt used in the Curing and Making of White Herrings, and instead thereof laying a proportionable Duty upon all White Herrings consumed at Home only; and for making an Allowance for Tobacco Exported from Scotland in the Time therein mentioned; and for giving farther Relief to the Refiners of Rock Salt.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of his present Majesties Reign [Intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt,] It is Enacted, That all Curers of Fish shall be allowed to Import Foreign Salt, or take from any Salt-Works, or Salt-Pits, any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same is allowed by Law, for Curing of Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for Curing Fish for Foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof; in Consequence whereof all White Herrings spent within this Realm, are or should be cured with Salt that has paid the Duties; but in regard the same are cured promiscuously, it is difficult to distinguish them from such as are intended to be Exported, whereby his Majesty may be defrauded in his Revenue, without a proper Remedy for preventing the same; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That at the Beginning of every Fishing Season for Herrings, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt, delivered Duty Free for the Curing of Herrings for Exportation, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, pursuant to the said Act, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall, instead of the Oath required by the said Act, make Oath in Writing before the Officer for the Duty on Salt, at the Office nearest to the Place where the said Salt is lodged (who is hereby empowered to administer the same) declaring the Quantity of the Foreign or British Salt respectively lodged for Curing of Fish; and that all the said Salt is intended for the Curing of Fish for Exportation only, and shall not by his or their Order, Consent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly, be sold, given away, or any way delivered, but for the Purpose aforesaid; Except so much thereof as shall be used for Curing such White Herrings, as shall be entered with the Officer of the Place for Home Consumption, and charged with the Duties by this Act chargeable thereupon.

At Beginning of Fishing Season for Herrings, Proprietor, &c. in England, &c. instead of the Oath required by the Act 5 Geo. cap. 12, to make Oath of the Quantity of Salt intended for Curing Fish for Exportation, &c.

Except Salt used for Curing White Herrings for Home Consumption, &c.

Cure of White Herrings, after 25 March 1722. before he remove them (except for Exportation) to make Entry, and pay 3 s. 4 d. per Barrel, &c.

Quantity to be marked on Casks.

Upon Entry, &c. Permit to be given gratis.

Penalty on Removal before Entry, &c.

Moiety to King, Moiety to Officer seizing, &c.

Officer to seize White Herrings removed before Entry, &c.

Proprietor of Salt Duty Free, to export Quantity of White Herrings.

Duty upon White Herrings shall cease to be lessened proportionably to Duties on Salt.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Baker or Curer of White herrings, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, before he remove any White Herrings (except for Exportation) from the Office or Place where the same shall be cured, shall, from time to time, make Entry thereof at the next Salt Office, and shall pay to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, a Duty of Three Shillings and Four Pence for every Barrel, containing Thirty two Gallons, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity: And that every Cask or Cessel in which such White Herrings shall be packed or put up, shall have a Mark or Marks on the Head thereof, shewing the Contents or Quantity of every such Cask or Cessel; and upon Entry and Payment of the Duty (each Cask or Cessel being marked, as aforesaid) a Permit shall be given gratis by the Salt Officer, expressing the Quantity of White Herrings, for which the Duties shall be paid, as aforesaid, and the Marks and Numbers of such Casks or Cessels, and for what Place the same are intended, and whether to be sent by Land or Water Carriage, on Pain of forfeiting the White Herrings that shall be removed or carried away before Entry be made, and the Duty paid, and without the Casks or Cessels being marked, and Permit obtained, as aforesaid, and of the Casks or Cessels, in which such Herrings shall be found, and also the Sum of Fifty Shillings for every Cask or Cessel so removed, to be recovered from the Person or Persons who shall so remove or carry away the same: One Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers, who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered, and levied, in such Manner, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated, by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, shall be granted or allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance; and all Officers of his Majesty's Customs, Excise, or Duties upon Salt, are hereby authorized and empowered to seize all such White Herrings, so removed or carried away before Entry, and Payment of Duty, and all other things performed, as aforesaid, and the said Casks or Cessels wherein such White Herrings shall be found.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty free, for Curing White Herrings for Exportation, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, his or their Agent or Agents, shall, in the Account which after the End of every Fishing Season, they are to deliver in Writing into the Salt Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered, and Shipt to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, as by the former Law is directed (and under the Penalties thereby prescribed) express also the Quantity of White Herrings entered for Home Consumption, on which such Salt has been used or consumed.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Duties of Excise on Salt (which now amount to Three Shillings and Four Pence per Bushel on Home made Salt, and Six Shillings and Eight Pence per Bushel on Foreign Salt) or any of them, shall cease, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then the Rate or Duty by this Act imposed upon White Herrings, shall cease to be lessened, in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease, determine, or be redeemed: Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

6 A. cap. 13.

V. And whereas an Act passed in the Eighth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, for Continuing several Impositions, Additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods Imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten; and for better preventing Frauds on Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, in which Act there were several Regulations Enacted to be complied with, in order to entitle the Exporters of Tobaccoes to their Debentures, which New Regulation being made to commence from the Seven and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, by which time the same could not be known in Scotland, several Parcels of Tobaccoes through Ignorance were Exported from thence, without Regard to the Regulation laid down in the said Act, the Debentures of which Tobaccoes have been refused to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants upon that Account only; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Tobaccoes Exported from Scotland after the Seven and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and before the Seventh Day of May next following, the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland shall cause the Debentures to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants, according to the Law then in Force, before the Seven and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten; Any thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Debentures allowed on Tobacco exported from Scotland, since 27 March, 1710. and before 7 May next.

5 Geo. cap. 18.

VI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt;] It is Enacted, That the Curers of Fish shall be allowed to Import Foreign Salt, or take from any Salt Works, or Salt-Pits, any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same is allowed by Law, for Curing Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for Curing Fish for Foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof: And whereas the Refiners of Salt from Rock Salt, cannot have equal Benefit of the said Act with the Proprietors of other Salt, the said Refiners being obliged to pay, or give Security to pay the Duty before the Rock Salt be removed from the Pits, and cannot draw it back, there being no Provision made in what Manner the said Duty shall be drawn back; For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, it shall and may be lawful for any Refiner of Rock Salt, to deliver, in the Presence of an Officer of the Salt-Duties, to any Curer or Curers of Fish, any such Quantity of Refined Salt, where the same is allowed by Law for Curing Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for Curing Fish for Foreign Markets; and the Collector of the Salt-Duties shall give a Certificate under his Hand, expressing the true Quantity delivered, and to whom, and whither to be carried; and the Officer of the Place whither the same shall be carried for the Curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, shall give a Certificate of the true Quantity brought thither, and lodged in a Warehouse under the Lock and Key of the said Officer, as well as the Proprietor of the said Salt; and if it shall appear to be the full Quantity that was first delivered (making reasonable Allowance for Waste) such Certificate shall be accepted by the Collector of the Duties on Salt at the Rock Pits, towards Discharging the Security given for the Duty on the Rock Salt made use of in making the said Refined Salt; and that upon the Warehousing any such Refined Salt, or any other Salt delivered Duty free, for the Curing Fish for Foreign Markets, that has been brought by Sea in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, the Master or his Mate, or the Boatswain of such Ship or Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer of the Salt-Duties (who is hereby impowered to administer the same) that all the Salt he took in or loaded at the Place of Loading (mentioning the Quantity) is truly delivered to be lodged in a Warehouse under the Lock and Key of the Officer, and that there was no Salt added to it, or taken from it at such Place of Loading, or since he came from it, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, under the Penalty of Forfeitting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise delivered, and Ten Shillings per Bushel; and if it shall happen that the Vessel on which such Refined Salt, as aforesaid, is shipped, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies, with such Salt on board her, That in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division, or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them; and upon Producing the said Certificate to the Collector of the Salt-Duties at the Rock Pits, such Certificate shall be accepted by such Collector, towards Discharging the Security given for the Duty on the Rock Salt made use of in making such Refined Salt.

Anno 8 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to prevent the Clandestine Running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; and to prevent Ships breaking their Quarentine; and to subject Copper Ore, of the Production of the British Plantations, to such Regulations, as other Enumerated Commodities of the like Production are subject.

Preamble.

As much as the Laws already made to prevent the secret Landing of Prohibited and Uncustomed Goods, have been found insufficient for that Purpose, it being Notorious that such Infamous and Pernicious Practices are still continued, in open Defiance of the Laws, to the great Diminution of the Publick Revenues, the Discouragement of Honest Traders, and, during the Time of Infection Abroad, to the Endangering the Health and Lives of many Thousands of his Majesties Innocent Subjects, by bringing into this Kingdom, from Infected Places, Goods apt to retain Infection: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of his present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act against Clandestine Running of Uncustomed Goods; and for the more effectual Preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, It was Enacted, That any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, of the Burthen of fifteen Tuns, or under, wherein any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, should be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof (except as therein is excepted) such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, or the Value thereof, should be forfeited and lost, and should and might be seized, recovered, broke up, and sold, as therein mentioned; which Forfeiture is, by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, extended to Vessels of Thirty Tuns: And whereas to elude the Intent of the said Laws, many Persons do now carry on a Clandestine Trade by Importing those Goods in Ships and Vessels above the Burthen of Thirty Tuns; for the Prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, shall, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, be imported or brought into Great Britain,

After 15 March,
1722. no Brandy,
&c. to be imported in any Vessels than 40 Tuns.

or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, of the Burthen of Forty Tuns, or under, according to the Admeasurement prescribed in the last mentioned Act (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on Board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons for each such Seaman) every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, as also all such Brandy, Arrack, Strong Waters, or Spirits, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be prosecuted and divided in such Manner and Form as is prescribed in the said Acts concerning Ships, Vessels, and Boats of Fifteen or Thirty Tuns, as aforesaid; Any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Exception, not exceeding Two Gallons for each Seaman.

Brandy and Vessel, &c. forfeited.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, the Principal Officers of his Majesties Customs, in the Port or Place where the same shall be at the time of such Condemnation, are hereby directed to cause the Hull of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to be burnt and wholly destroyed, and the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel thereunto belonging, to be publickly sold to the best Advantage, and the Produce thereof to be divided, as herein after mentioned, the reasonable Charges of Prosecuting, Selling, and Burning, as aforesaid, being first deducted.

After Seizure and Condemnation, Hull of the Ship to be burnt, and the Tackle, &c. sold.

Produce to be divided, but Charges to be first deducted.

III. And whereas many Frauds are committed, to the Prejudice of the Revenue, in the Clandestine Running of Goods Imported, and in Relanding Certificate Goods, as well as in Exporting Moll, and the Coin of this Kingdom, by Watermen and others in Boats, Wherries, Pinnaces, Barges, or Gallies, which are sometimes rowed with Six, Eight, or Twelve Oars, built on purpose for the Smuggling Trade, and in case they are pursued by the Officers, do make their Escape, which may be also a Means of bringing in the Infection; For the Preventing whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, if any Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, rowing, or made or built to row, with more than Four Oars, shall be found upon the Water, or in any Bargehouse, Workhouse, Shed, or other Place, within any of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, or Essex, or in the River of Thames, either above or below London Bridge, or within the Limits of the Ports of London, Sandwich, or Ipswich, or the Members or Creeks to them, or either of them respectively belonging, such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, with all her Tackle and Furniture, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs; and the Owner or Owners thereof, or any Person using, or rowing in such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Pounds; and such Seizure and Forfeiture shall and may be prosecuted in the manner herein after mentioned; and after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, the Principal Officers of his Majesties Customs, in the Port or Place where the same shall be at the time of such Condemnation, are hereby directed to cause such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, to be burnt, and wholly destroyed, and the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel thereunto belonging, to be publickly sold to the best Advantage, the Produce whereof to be divided as herein after mentioned; the reasonable Charges of Prosecuting, Selling, and Burning, as aforesaid, being first deducted.

Boats, &c. rowing with more than 4 Oars, above or below London Bridge, &c. forfeited.

Owners or Persons rowing, &c. to forfeit 40*l*.

Boat, &c. after Condemnation, to be burnt.

Tackle and Furniture to be sold, and Produce divided after Charges deducted.

IV. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to any Barge or Galley belonging to, or to belong to his Majesty, or the Royal Family, or any of them, or to any Long Boat, Paul, or Pinnace, belonging to, and used in the Service of any Merchant Ship, or Vessel, or to such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, as shall be licensed by the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High

High Admiral, or the major part of the same Commissioners, for the time being; which Licences shall be in Writing, signed by the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the major part of such Commissioners, for the time being, and shall be granted without any Fee or Charge whatsoever.

V. Provided always, That no such Licence shall be granted, but upon sufficient Security to be given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Owner or Owners of such Boat, Wherry, Pin-nace, Barge, or Galley, by Bond, in such Penalty as the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the time being, shall find to be reasonable, with Condition that the same shall not be made use of in the clandestine Running of Uncustomed and Prohibited Goods; which Security the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, who shall grant such Licence, are hereby impowered and required to take for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, all and every Person and Persons, who shall be found passing (knowingly and wittingly) with any Foreign Goods or Commodities, landed from any Ship or Vessel, without the due Entry and Payment of the Duties by Law charged thereon, in his, her, or their Custody, from any of the Coasts of this Kingdom, or within the Space of Twenty Miles of any of the said Coasts, and shall be more than Five Persons in Company, or shall carry any Offensive Arms or Weapons, or wear any Habit, Mask, or other Disguise, when passing with such Goods or Commodities, as aforesaid, or shall forcibly hinder or resist any of the Officers of the Customs or Excise, in the Seizing or Securing any sorts or kinds of Run Goods or Commodities, shall be deemed and taken to be Runners of Foreign Goods and Commodities, within the Meaning of this present Act, and (being convicted of or for any of the said Offences, for which he, she, or they so convicted, are by this present Act declared to be deemed and taken to be Runners of Foreign Goods and Commodities) shall be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and shall, for such his, her, or their Offence, be Transported as a Felon, to some or one of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, there to remain for the Space of Seven Years, in the same manner as Felons are appointed to be Transported, by an Act made in the Fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, Intituled, An Act for the further Preventing of Rob- 4 Geo. cap. 17. bery, Burglary, and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons, and unlawful Exporters of Wooll; and for Declaring the Law in some Points against Piracies; and by another Act made in the Sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, Intituled, An Act for the fur- 6 Geo. cap. 23. ther Preventing Robbery and Burglary, and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons; and if any such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain or Ireland, before the Expiration of the said Seven Years, he, she, or they so returning, shall suffer as Felons, and have Execution awarded against him, her, or them, as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Runner of Foreign Goods or Commodities, as aforesaid, shall, within Two Months after such his Offence, and before his Conviction, discover Two or more of his Accomplices therein, to the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in England or Scotland respectively, so as they, or Two of them at least, be convicted of such Offence, the Offender or Offenders so discovering, shall have and receive the Sum of forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, as a Reward for such his Discovery, so as the Value of the Goods recovered for the Use of his Majesty on such Discovery, shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and such Person so Discovering, shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his or her Offence.
ing,

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, if any other Person or Persons shall, within Three Months after such Offence shall have been committed, discover to the said Commissioners respectively, any Person or Persons who shall have been Guilty of such Offence, so as such Offender or Offenders be convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall have and receive the like Reward of Forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, over and above any other Reward or Recompence, which he or they may be entitled unto, on Account of the Goods so carried or conveyed away, which shall be recovered by Means of such his or their Discovery, or on Account of the Penalties which shall be recovered for the Running the said Goods, so as the Value of the Goods recovered for the Use of his Majesty on such Discovery, shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Other Persons discovering in Three Months, to have 40*l.* over and above any other Reward.

So as the Value of the Goods for his Majesty's Use exceed 50*l.*

Reward by whom to be paid.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in England and Scotland respectively, shall cause the several Rewards of Forty Pounds for the Discovery of the Offenders before mentioned, to be paid by the respective Receiver General or Cashier of the Customs and Excise, for the time being, out of any Publick Money in his or their Hands, under the Management of the said Commissioners, in Proportion to the Duties payable on the Goods so Clandestinely run, for which such Person or Persons shall be convicted, upon producing to them a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of the Judge or Justice of the Court, before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be tried, certifying the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders; and the Money paid by any Receiver General or Cashier, as aforesaid, shall be accepted of and allowed in his Accounts as so much Money paid to his Majesty, and such Receiver General or Cashier is and shall be hereby discharged thereof accordingly; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And forasmuch as the Persons using such Clandestine Trade, are greatly encouraged to continue in the same, by reason great Numbers of Persons, for their Private Lucre, receive and buy the Goods and Merchandizes, so by them Clandestinely imported contrary to Law, which may be a Means of Winging in the Infection; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall receive or buy any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes so Clandestinely run or imported, before the same shall have legally been condemned, knowing the same to be so Clandestinely run or imported, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted upon his, her, or their Appearance or Default, upon the Oath or Oaths of One or more Credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Party, by One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Division, or Liberty, where such Offence shall be committed, or the Offender shall be found (which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer) the Persons so convicted shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of such Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender shall be convicted, as aforesaid; and for want of such Distress, every such Offender shall by such Justice or Justices be committed to Prison, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months.

Persons knowingly receiving or buying Goods, &c. Clandestinely run, &c. to forfeit 20*l.*

To be levied by Distress.

or offender to be committed to Prison for 3 Months.

XI. And whereas several considerable Dealers in Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, have and keep very large Stocks of Quantities of Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, for Sale, many whereof lye upon or near the Coasts of this Kingdom, dom, and thereby have or may have Opportunities of furnishing themselves with the said Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, either by Running the same themselves, or Procuring it from others, who have or shall run it: And whereas many of the said Dealers are gotten into a Practice of Receiving into their Custody great Quantities of Spirits made in this Kingdom, which for the most part are brought to them from London, with Permit or Certificate that the Duties of the same have been paid, which Spirits are either drawn so low, or by mixing the same with Water, made of so mean a Quality, that of themselves they are of little or no Value; and by having those Spirits in their Custody, the said Dealers have Opportunities of Increasing their Stocks of Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, which they either run themselves, or procure others to do it for them: and when such Increase is discovered by the Officers of the Excise, the same is pretended to have been made by a Mixture of the said mean British Spirits with their Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, whereas in Truth they really destroy the said British Spirits, and do not mix the same with their Foreign Goods, whereby the Practice of Running the same is become difficult to be found out and discovered, and the Pernicious Trade of Running the said Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, successfully carried on: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, all Dealers in Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, who shall then have, or from thenceforth receive into their Custody, any British Spirits, shall keep the same separate and apart, and in separate Cellars, Vaults, or other Places, from their Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon of British Spirits, which shall be found in any Vault, Cellar, or other Place, where any Dealer in Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, shall have or keep any Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, together with the Casks and other Vessels wherein the same British Spirits shall be so found.

XII. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer of the Excise shall find any Increase of Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, in the Hands of any such Dealer, over and above the Quantity which such Officer found in such Dealers Custody at the time of such Officers last preceding Survey upon such Dealer, such Increase shall be deemed and taken to be made by Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, for which no Duties were paid, and which had been privately brought by such Dealer into the Place where such Increase shall be found, without any Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duty thereof, or any previous Entry or Notice to any Officer of Excise of bringing the same: and so much of the said Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, as shall be found so increased, shall, together with the Cask or other Vessel, wherein the same shall be so contained, be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be seized and secured by such Officer and Officers of Excise, who shall so find and discover the same, unless the Owner thereof shall make it appear, that such Increase was made either by Mixing some of his Stock of British Spirits whereof the Officer of Excise had taken an Account, with his Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, in the Presence of the Officer of Excise of the Division where the said Increase shall be found, or by Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, brought into the Place where such Increase shall be found, with a Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duties thereof, or that the same had been formerly condemned, or was part of some Persons Stock in Hand on the first Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, and that due Notice was given to the Officer of Excise at the said Division, of the bringing in the same, before the same was so brought in.

All Dealers in Foreign Brandy, &c. to keep them separate from British Spirits, on Penalty of 10s. for every Gallon British, and Forfeiture of Casks, &c.

Increase of Foreign Brandy, &c. found by Officer after former Survey, to be deemed as Brandy without Permit, &c.

Such Brandy, &c. with Cask forfeited.

Exception.

XIII. And whereas many Retailers of Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, are furnished with the Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, which they retail, by Persons who run the same, or their Accomplices, in small Quantities (viz.) Less than One Gallon at a time; and when the Officers of Excise find such small Quantities in the Hands of such Retailers, they refuse to produce any Permit or Certificate for the same, alledging, that no such Permit or Certificate are required by Law for any Quantity of such Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, under the Quantity of One Gallon, whereas the Runners thereof find Means to dispose of great Quantities of such Run Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, no Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, although the same be under the Quantity of One Gallon, shall be received or taken into the Custody or Possession of any such Retailer, or any Person or Persons, for the Use of any such Retailer, without a Permit or Certificate, signed by some Officer of the Customs or Excise, signifying that the Duties thereof were paid, or secured to be paid, or that the same had been Condemned as forfeited, or was Part of some Persons Stock in Hand on the first Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty, upon Pain of Forfeiting all such Foreign Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, as shall be so found in the Custody of such Retailer, or any other Person or Persons, for the Use of any such Retailer, without a Permit or Certificate, together with the Cask, Vessel, or other Vessel, wherein the same shall be so found; Any Law, Statute, or Provision, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Retailers having Foreign Brandy, though less than One Gallon, without Permit, &c. the Brandy, &c. forfeited, with the Cask, &c.

XIV. And whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the Sixth Year of his Majesties Reign, obliging all such Ships, Persons, and Goods, coming from Places that are or shall be mentioned in his Majesties Proclamation, to perform Quarentine, It is Enacted, That in case any Commander, Master, or other Person, taking Charge of any Ship liable to perform Quarentine, shall not, within convenient Time, after due Notice given for that Purpose by the proper Officer, cause such Ship or Vessel, and the Lading thereof, to perform Quarentine respectively, then such Ship or Vessel is forfeited, and the Commander, Master, or other Person, as aforesaid, forfeits Two hundred Pounds: And whereas the Commanders, Masters, or other Persons, taking Charge of such Ships or Vessels, do pretend, after they are put into the Place or Places to perform Quarentine, to be bound to Parts beyond Seas, or some other Port or Place of this Kingdom, and do frequently depart from such Places without the Licence of the proper Officer appointed to see the Quarentine duly performed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Commander, Master, or other Person, taking Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarentine, shall depart with, or permit or suffer such Ship or Vessel to depart from the Place or Places appointed for the Performance of Quarentine, without Leave or Licence of the proper Officer or Officers appointed to see the same performed, such Ship or Vessel, with her Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, shall be forfeited to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Commander, Master, or other Person, as aforesaid, shall also forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer or Prosecutor.

Ships departing without Licence from Places appointed for Quarentine, forfeited, and Commanders, &c. to forfeit 200 l.

XV. And whereas several Persons, Guilty of the Clandestine Running of Brandy, or other Customable and Prohibited Goods, or of receiving such Goods, knowing the same to have been so run, do frequently remove from their usual Places of Abode into some other County, and are there called by other than their true Names, to avoid their being prosecuted with Effect for such their Persons Running Brandy, &c. or receiving, knowing the Goods to be run, &c. may be prosecuted, and thereupon a Capias in the first Process may issue, and the Offender shall be obliged to give Security to appear and answer the Prosecution.

Notorious Offences; Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, after the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, be Guilty of any Offence or Offences, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this or any other Act of Parliament, made for the Preventing of the Running of Brandy, or other Customable or Prohibited Goods, or of receiving such Goods into his or their House, Shop or Warehouse, Custody or Possession, knowing the same to be so Run, such Person and Persons shall and may be prosecuted for any of the Offences or Offences aforesaid, by Action, Bill, Complaint, or Information, and thereupon a Capias in the first Process, specifying the Sum of the Penalty sued for, shall and may issue; and such Person or Persons shall be obliged to give sufficient Bail or Security, by Natural Born Subjects, or Denizens, to the Person or Persons to whom such Capias shall be directed, to appear in the Court out of which such Capias shall issue, at the Day of Return of such Writ, to answer such Suit and Prosecution, and shall likewise, at the time of such Appearing, give sufficient Bail or Security, by such Persons, as aforesaid, in the said Court, to answer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for such Offence or Offences, in case he or they shall be convicted thereof, or to yield his or their Body or Bodies to Prison.

XVI. And whereas by Two several Acts passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, the One Intituled, An Act for Granting to Her Majesty New Duties of Excise, and upon several Imported Commodities, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; the other Intituled, An Act for Continuing several Impositions, Additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods Imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten; and for taking off the Over-Sea Duty on Coals Exported in British Bortoms; and for better Preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and other Purposes therein mentioned; It is thereby respectively Enacted, That if any sort of Goods whatsoever, liable to the Payment of Duties, be unshipped with Intention to be laid on Land (Customs and other Duties not being first Paid or Secured) or if any Prohibited Goods whatsoever be Imported into any Port of Great Britain, or in case any Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods, contained or specified in any Certificate, whereupon any Drawback is to be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for such Drawback, shall, when shipped for Exportation, be landed again in any Part of Great Britain (except as therein is excepted) the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses, and other Cattle, and Carriages whatsoever, used in the Landing, Relanding, Removing, Carriage, or Conveyance, of the aforesaid Goods, shall be forfeited and lost, and may be sued for, recovered, and distributed in such manner, as by the said Act is Provided and Directed; which Laws have not had the good Effects thereby proposed, in regard that the Keeping or Maintaining the Horses so seized, from the time of Seizure to the time of Condemnation in his Majesties Court of Exchequer, is very Chargeable, and for that the Charge of Condemning such Vessels, Boats, and Horses, as aforesaid, is very Great, whereby Officers are Discouraged from making such Seizures, and the Smugglers Encouraged in their illegal Practices; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Seizures of Vessels or Boats of the Burthen of fifteen Tuns or under, which shall be made after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, by Virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, for carrying or conveying Uncustomed or Prohibited Goods from Ships Inwards, or for Relanding Certificate or Debenture Goods from Ships Outwards; and that all Seizures of Horses, or other Cattle, or Carriages whatsoever, which shall be made after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, for being used in the Removing, Carriage, or Conveyance of such Goods, contrary to the said Acts,

8 A. cap. 7.

8 A. cap. 13.

Seizures of Vessels, &c. of 15 Tuns or under, and Seizures of Horses, or other Cattle or Carriages used in Running Goods, may be proceeded upon, heard, adjudged, and determined, by two or more Justices of Peace.

or any of them, shall and may be Examined into, Proceeded upon, Heard, Adjudged, and Determined, by and before Two or more of his Majesties Justices of the Peace, residing near the Place where such Seizure shall be made, in such Manner, and after such Summons, or Publick Notice given, as by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for Preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, Seizures of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, (except as therein is excepted) may be Examined into, Proceeded upon, Heard, Adjudged, and Determined, before Two or more of his Majesties Justices of the Peace; and such their respective Judgments shall be, and are hereby Declared to be taken and adjudged to be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, and final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and not liable to any Appeal, or any Writ or Writs of Certiorari; Any Law, Statute, or Provision, to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Certiorari.

XVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the Cities of London and Westminster, shall have the like Power and Authority in the Summoning, Examining, Proceeding, Hearing, Adjudging, and Determining, such Seizures, as are or shall be made within the Cities of London or Westminster respectively, as any Two Justices of the Peace of any other County or Place have; Any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices of London, &c. to have like Power as other Justices.

XVIII. And whereas Foreign Goods are frequently taken in at Sea by Masters of Coasting Vessels, who privately land the same, to the Prejudice of the Revenue, and the Encouragement of the Foul Traders; For the Prevention whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Goods brought or coming into any Port within the Kingdom of Great Britain, from any other Port within the said Kingdom, by Coast-Cocquet, Transire, Let-Pass, or Certificate, in any Ship or Vessel, shall, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, be unshipped to be landed or put on Shore before such Cocquet, Transire, Let-Pass, or Certificate, shall be delivered to the Customer, or Collector, and Comptroller, of the Port or Place of her Arrival, and Warrant or Surreance made and given from such Customer, Collector, and Comptroller, for the Landing or Discharging thereof, the Master, Purser, Boat-swain, or other Mariner, taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, out of which the Goods shall be landed or put on Shore, knowing and consenting thereunto, shall forfeit the Value of the Goods so unshipped; and if any Goods of Foreign Growth, Production, or Manufacture, coming Coastwise, as aforesaid, shall be landed without the Presence of an Officer of the Customs, such Foreign Goods, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any Goods brought from one Port into another in Great Britain, &c. unshipped before Cocquet, &c. delivered to Customer, &c. and Surreance for Landing, &c. Master, &c. to forfeit the Value of the Goods.

Foreign Goods landed without the Presence of Officer, forfeited.

XIX. And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for Preventing of Frauds and Abuses on Damaged Wines, and for Lengthning the Time for the Drawbacks on the Exportation of Wines, It is Enacted, That in case any Merchant or other Person Importing Wines, shall find the same, or any part thereof, so damaged, corrupt, or unmerchantable, that he shall refuse to pay or secure the Duties of such Wines, and shall thereupon stave, spill, or otherwise destroy the same, as by the said Act he is allowed to do, in the Manner therein mentioned, such Merchant or other Person, shall, as a Compensation for the Freight and other Charges, have the Sum of four Pounds for every Tun of Wine, containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons, of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duties as such, and of the Growth of France, so staved, spill, or otherwise destroyed, and the Sum of Eight Pounds per Tun for every Tun of Wine of the Growth of Spain, Portugal, or elsewhere, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid in the Manner thereby directed, which several and respective respective

respective Allowances were made with Regard to the Distances of the Places from whence the said several Sorts of Wine are usually Imported: And whereas since the making of the said Act, great Quantities of Mean and Corrupt Wines have been Imported from the Isle of Man, the Freight whereof was inconsiderable, and saved for the Benefit of the above mentioned Allowances for Freight and Charges, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; which fraudulent Practice may not only, from the Encouragement before mentioned, be continued from the said Islands, but also be carried on by ill-disposed Persons from Ireland, and the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, or other Places in Parts beyond the Seas, to the lessening of his Majesties Revenues, and Prejudice of fair Traders: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Allowance shall be made by virtue of the said Act, for the Freight or Charges of any Wine, which shall be Imported after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, unless such Wine be Imported in Casks on board some Merchant Ship or Vessel, directly from the Country or Place of the Growth of such Wine, or the usual Port or Place of its first Shipping: Any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 25 March, 1722. No Allowances for Freight of Wine, unless Imported directly from the Place of its Growth.

Allowances for Wines in Ships stranded.

XX. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Ship or Vessel having Wines on board, shall, by Strife of Weather, or any other Accident, be stranded, then and in such Case, the Wines on board such Ship or Vessel, which shall be saved, may be put on board any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, and be carried to any of the Lawful Ports or Places for Landing of Goods in this Kingdom, and be entitled to the same Allowances for such of them, as shall be saved, split, or destroyed, as if they came in the Ship or Vessel in which they were first loaded: Any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Licence for Importation of Nutmegs, &c. be not delivered to Collector of the Port, by the Master, &c. where the Spices shall be imported, &c.

XXI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of his Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for Preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues or Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, It is Enacted, That every Licence taken out for the Importation of Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, or Cinnamon, in the Manner therein directed, shall be delivered to the Merchant demanding the same, to be produced and delivered up by the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port at the time of entering the Ship, which Act is evaded for want of Penalty to enforce the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of any Ship, Importing any of the said Spices from any Place or Places beyond the Seas, other than directly from the East-Indies, shall not deliver up such Licence to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port, into which the said Spices shall be Imported, at the time of his or their Entering the said Ship, regularly Endorsed, as in and by the said Act is directed, and also annex such Licence to the Entry or Report of the Ship; and in case each Cask of Nutmegs, Cloves, or Mace, so Imported, shall not contain Near Three hundred Pound Weight, and each Bale of Cinnamon Near Seventy Pound Weight, as by the said Act is directed, then and in any of the said Cases, such Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, or Cinnamon, shall be forfeited, and deemed to be Imported without a Licence, granted or to be granted by virtue of the said Act, or any former Law; and such Spice shall and may be prosecuted, as also the Ship Importing the same, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force relating to the Customs, as if such Spice had been Imported without Licence: Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

6 Geo. cap. 27.

And if each Cask of Nutmegs, Cloves, or Mace, shall not contain Near 300 lb. and each Bale of Cinnamon 70 lb. Goods Forfeited, as also the Ship, XXII. And whereas by the Acts made in the Twelfth and Twentieth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, the former intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increas-

cap. 5.

sing of Shipping and Navigation; and the latter Intituled, An Act for the Incouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trade, and for the better Securing the Plantation Trade; and by One other Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act for Granting to her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes Imported, certain Commodities therein respectively enumerated, of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of any of the British Plantations in America, Asia, or Africa, are, for the Reasons therein mentioned, restrained to be Imported into this Kingdom, or to some other of the said Plantations, under the Securities and Penalties in the said Two first recited Acts, or either of them, particularly mentioned; since the making of which Laws, Copper Ore (which is not in any of the said Acts particularly enumerated) is produced in the said Plantations, and carried to Foreign Markets in Europe, without being first brought into this Kingdom, to the Prejudice of the Trade, and the lessening the Correspondence and Relation between this Kingdom and the aforesaid Plantations; For Prevention whereof for the future, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, all Copper Ore shall be, under the like Securities and Penalties, restrained to be Imported into this Kingdom, as by the fore-recited Acts, or any of them, is provided for the Goods therein particularly enumerated; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Copper Ore of the Produce of British Plantations, subjected to such Regulations as other enumerated Commodities, &c. Imported from thence.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, shall and may be Prosecuted and Determined by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively (except where it is in this Act otherwise directed) wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed; and One Hoity of the said several Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Hoity to such Person or Persons as will sue for or prosecute the same.

Penalty how to be prosecuted, &c.

XXIV. And whereas Doubts have arisen and been made of and concerning the Seizing of such Brandy, Arack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, as well Foreign as British, and also of such Foreign Excisable Liquor, as by Act or Acts relating thereto now in Force, are in several and respective Cases Enacted and Declared to be forfeited; Now to clear all Doubt and Question therein, or relating thereto, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Liquors aforesaid, every or any of them, which have been, are, is, or hereafter shall be forfeited by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, or hereafter to be made, together with the Casks, Bottles, Ussels, or other Package, containing the same, ought to be, and from time to time, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise respectively, or by such Person or Persons, who are or shall be deputed or authorized thereto, by Warrant from the Lord Treasurer or Under Treasurer, or by Special Commission from his Majesty under the Great Seal or Privy Seal, but by none other or others whatsoever.

Seizures of Brandy, Arack, Rum, &c. British or Foreign, may be made by Officers of the Customs or Excise, or by other Persons authorized.

XXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, obstruct, or hinder any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, in the due Seizing or Securing any Brandy, Arack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, either Foreign or British, or any Foreign Excisable Liquors, which by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, shall or may be seized by Virtue or in Pursuance of this or any other Act or Acts now in Force, or hereafter to be made, or shall, by Force or Violence, rescue, or shall cause or procure to be rescued, any Brandy, Arack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, British or Foreign, or any Foreign Excisable Liquors, after the same shall have been seized by by such Officer or Officers, as aforesaid, or shall attempt or endeavour so to do, or shall, at or after such Seizure, take, break, or otherwise destroy or damage any Cask, Vessel, or Bottle, containing such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, British or Foreign, or such Foreign Excisable Liquor, the Party or Parties so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Forty Pounds.

General Issue.

XXVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in Pursuance of this Act, that the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be Non-suited, or Discontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Exchequer Bills, which shall be Current, as aforesaid, shall be filled up by Writing or Endorsements made thereon, as aforesaid, or shall by any Accident be defaced, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by their or his Discretion, from time to time, to cause New Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, in lieu of such Bills which shall be so filled up or defaced; which Bills so filled up or defaced, shall be cancelled at the Receipt of Exchequer, and kept there on a file or files for that Purpose; and such Bills so to be made forth in lieu thereof, shall have a like Currency, and shall in all Respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, and Continuance, as the Bills so filled up were intended to have been by this or any other Act, and shall bear the same Numbers, Dates, and Principal Sums, and carry the like Interest, as were born and carried by the Bills so cancelled respectively.

New Bills to be made forth in lieu of Bills filled up or defaced, and to have like Currency, &c.

Treasury may cause Exchequer Bills, for any Sum not exceeding 5000 l. each, to be made forth in lieu of Principal for Bills of less Value in the Exchequer, &c.

Such New Bills to have like Currency, &c. as if originally issued.

Forging such Bills, &c. Felony.

If Provision be made by Parliament of Money for discharging the Bills made forth by 6 Geo. then the Bills paid off, shall be cancelled.

XIX. And it is hereby Enacted, That, for the greater Ease and Dispatch of Publick Business at the Exchequer, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he or they are hereby authorized and enabled, in case he or they shall so think fit, to cause Exchequer Bills, for any large Sums not exceeding Five thousand Pounds each, to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, and to be placed as Cash in the said Receipt, in lieu of the like Value of the Principal contained in the said Exchequer Bills made forth for lesser Sums, which at the time of making such large Bills shall happen to be in the said Receipt, which shall be at the same time cancelled and discharged, and be kept there on a File for that Purpose; and such New Bills for such large Sums shall or may be issued at the said Receipt, and have the same Currency, and be in all Respects subject to the same Rules, Methods, Continuance, and carry the like Interest, and have the same Security, Benefits, and Advantages; and the same Pains of Death, and other Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, for any Crime or Offence relating thereunto, shall be inflicted, incurred, and put in Execution, as if they had been Originally issued by virtue of this or any other Act for the said lesser Bills; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit any Exchequer Bill, made forth by virtue of this or any other Act of Parliament, before the same shall be paid off and cancelled, or any Exchequer Bill to be renewed or made forth in Pursuance of this Act, or any Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, or tender in Payment any such Forged or Counterfeit Bill, or any Exchequer Bill with such Counterfeit Endorsement or Writing thereon, or shall demand to have such Counterfeit Bill, or any such Exchequer Bill, with such Counterfeit Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, exchanged for Ready Money by any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be obliged or required to exchange the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, knowing the Bill so tendered in Payment, or demanded to be exchanged, or the Endorsement or Writing thereupon or therein, to be Forged or Counterfeit, and with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the Persons to be appointed to circulate or exchange the same, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, then every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

XXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, at any time or times hereafter, Provision shall be made by Authority of Parliament, in the Lawful Coins of this Realm, placed in the Exchequer, for Paying off and Discharging the said Exchequer Bills, which are made forth by the said Act of the Sixth Year of his Majesties Reign (in lieu of Old Exchequer Bills which were cancelled in Pursuance thereof) computed to amount to the said Sum of Nine hundred nineteen thousand nine hundred twelve Pounds, and Ten Shillings, or thereabouts, then the Bills themselves, so computed to amount to Nine hundred nineteen thousand nine hundred twelve Pounds, and Ten Shillings, or thereabouts, which shall be so paid off, or for which such Coined Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same, shall be discharged and cancelled; and if before the Seventh Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, Coined Money shall not be raised and brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, for Discharging the Bills last mentioned, then all the Monies

Monies which shall then remain or afterwards come into the Exchequer, of or for the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplusses, commonly called the Sinking Fund, shall be applied for or towards Paying off, Discharging and Cancelling the said Exchequer Bills, not exceeding Nine hundred nineteen thousand nine hundred twelve Pounds, and Ten Shillings, or thereabouts, till they shall be all completely paid off and cancelled, in such or the like Manner and Form, as are by this Act prescribed for Cancelling and Discharging the said Bills not exceeding One Million, to be made forth by virtue of this Act; This present Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Monies be not raised before 7 June, 1723, then the Monies coming in of the Sinking Fund, to be applied to cancelling Bills, &c.

XXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arisen or to arise into the Exchequer by the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplusses, commonly called the Sinking Fund (except so much as at Lady-day, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, or afterwards, is to be applied to discharge the said Exchequer Bills not exceeding One Million, which were Originally created to be lent to the said Company, as aforesaid, and except so much of the said Sinking Fund, as will pay off and discharge the said Bills, not exceeding Nine hundred nineteen thousand nine hundred twelve Pounds, and Ten Shillings, or thereabouts, in such Case, as aforesaid, and except such Monies as are by this or any other Act of this Session of Parliament, or by any Act or Acts of any former Session of Parliament, specially charged upon the said Sinking Fund, or to be paid out of the same, or out of any Monies composing the said Sinking Fund) shall be appropriated, reserved, and employed, to and for Discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances, as were incurred before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and are declared to be such National Debts, as may be redeemed and are provided for by Act of Parliament, in such Manner and Form, as shall be directed and appointed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament, to be discharged therewith or out of the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

Monies to arise by Sinking Fund (except as herein excepted) to be appropriated for Discharging Principal and Interest of National Debts incurred before 25 Dec. 1716.

XXX. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, shall be demanded or taken, directly or indirectly, by any his Majesties Officers in the Exchequer, or by any of their Clerks or Substitutes, from any of his Majesties Subjects, for any Matter or Thing to be done by the said Officers, Clerks, and Substitutes, or any of them respectively, in Pursuance of this Act; and that no such Officer, Clerk, or Substitute, shall divert or misapply, or cause or procure to be diverted or misapplied, any of the Monies by this Act intended for the Exchanging, Circulating, or Paying off the said Bills, or any of them, under such Penalties, forfeitures, and Disabilities, to be incurred by, and inflicted on them respectively, as by One Act of this Session of Parliament for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, are prescribed or enacted for Diverting and Misapplying any the Monies thereby granted, or for taking or demanding any Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, concerning the same.

No Fee to be taken for any thing done in Pursuance of this Act.

Penalty on Officer, &c. misapplying Monies, &c.

XXXI. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall have Power, and he or they are hereby enabled, to pay and allow, or cause to be paid and allowed, out of the Monies to arise of or for the said Surplusses, Eccesses, and Overplusses Monies, called the Sinking Fund, from time to time, the necessary Charges of Cancelling such Exchequer Bills as are hereby directed to be cancelled, and of making forth the New Exchequer Bills hereby authorized to be made forth, and such other Charges as shall be necessarily incident in or for the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Treasury, out of Sinking Fund, to defray the Charges of Executing this Act.

An Additional Duty of 2 s. per Bushel to be paid on Apples Imported
after 1st March, 1722. for 3 Years, &c.

XLVI. And moreover, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be raised, levied, answered, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Apples, which, at any time or times after the Feast Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, during the Term of Three Years from thence next ensuing, or before the End of the Session of Parliament next following the said Term of Three Years, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties, already imposed thereupon) an Additional Duty, to be reckoned after the Rate of Two Shillings for every Bushel, and proportionally for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid down in Ready Money by the Importers, from time to time, before the Landing of the same respectively.

How, and under what Penalties, to be paid.

XLVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Additional Duty upon Apples Imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered, and paid, and be brought into his Majesties Exchequer, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the other Duties upon Apples Imported, or any of them, are, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, prescribed or appointed to be raised, levied, recovered, answered, and paid.

To what Use applied.

XLVIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Additional Duty upon Apples Imported (except the necessary Charges of Management thereof) is and shall be applied for or towards making good the Services for which his Majesties Supply, granted in this Session of Parliament, is by this Act appropriated or applicable.

Duties payable on Pictures Imported after 25 March, 1722.

XLIX. And whereas by several Acts of Parliament now in Force, several Duties are payable upon the Importation of Pictures, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties for all Pictures, which shall be Imported from and after the Feast Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall cease and determine; and in lieu thereof there shall be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all Pictures, that from and after the said Feast Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, shall be Imported into Great Britain, the certain Duties following, according to the respective Dimensions of such Pictures, That is to say,

For Pictures of Four Feet
Square, 3 s.

For every Picture of Four Feet Square or upwards, or of any Dimensions, which being reduced will produce a Square of Four Feet or upwards, the Sum of Three Pounds, of Lawful Money of Great Britain.

Two Feet
Square, 40 s.

For every Picture of Two Feet Square, and under Four Feet Square, or of any Dimensions, which being reduced will produce a Square of Two Feet, and under Four Feet, the Sum of Forty Shillings, of like Money.

Less than Two Feet, 20 s.

And for every Picture under Two Feet Square, or of any Dimensions, which being reduced will produce a Square less than Two Feet, the Sum of Twenty Shillings, of like Money.

To be paid in Ready Money before Landing.

Which Duties shall be paid down in Ready Money by the respective Importers of such Pictures, from time to time, before the Landing of the same respectively.

How, and under what Penalties, to be paid.

L. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties upon Pictures Imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered, and paid, and be brought into the Exchequer, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon Pictures hereby taken away, or any of them, might have been raised, levied, recovered, and paid, if the same or any of them had continued.

How appropriated.

LI. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties to arise upon the Importation of Pictures, pursuant to this Act (the necessary Charges of Management excepted) shall be appropriated and applied, as near as may be, to the same Uses and Purposes, to which the former Duties upon upon Pictures by this Act taken away, were applicable or ought to have been applied if this Act had not been made.

LII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That the Duties by this Act charged upon Pictures Imported, or any part thereof, shall be redeemable by Parliament, in the same Manner as the said former Duties on Pictures hereby taken away, or any of them, were redeemable; and in all Cases where any of the said former Duties on Pictures were to cease or determine, a proportional Part of the Duties on Pictures hereby charged, shall likewise cease and determine.

How redeemable.

Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, and they are hereby directed and required out of any Current Coined Money, as shall then be in his or their Hands, of such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, to pay such of the same Bills, as shall be brought to them respectively, by any Person or Persons desiring to have Money for the same; and in case any such Receiver or Collector shall refuse or neglect to exchange such Bill or Bills for Ready Money, by the space of Twenty four Hours, then the Person or Persons demanding the same, shall and may bring an Action of Debt, or on the Case, for the Principal or Interest Monies due upon each Bill or Bills, against such Receiver or Collector having Money in his Hands, as aforesaid, in which Action the Plaintiff shall or may declare, that such Receiver or Collector is indebted to the Plaintiff in the Money demanded upon every such Bill, according to the Form of the Statute, and hath not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and the Plaintiff in every such Action shall recover against the Receiver or Collector, not only the Monies so neglected or refused to be paid, but also his full Costs of Suit; and such Receiver or Collector shall be subject and liable thereunto; and in such Action no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or more than One Imparance; and upon Payment of the Monies so to be recovered, the Plaintiff, his Executors or Assigns, shall deliver up such Bill or Bills to the Defendant, his Executors or Assigns.

Tallies to be delivered for Payment or Loan of Bills,
&c.

X. And be it further Enacted, That as any of the said Bills shall, at any time or times hereafter, within the respective times, during which they shall be current pursuant to this Act, be paid or lent into the Exchequer by any of his Majesty's Receivers, or other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, making any Payments or Loans at that Receipt, the Officers there shall cause Tallies to be levied and delivered to the Papers or Lenders, as amply and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if they had made such Payments or Loans in Specie.

Interest upon
such Bills, &c.

XI. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Interest, which shall, from time to time, be due upon any of the Bills so to be current, as aforesaid, shall be allowed to all Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, paying the same to any Receiver or Collector, Receivers or Collectors of any his Majesty's Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, or by way of Exchange, as aforesaid, to the respective Days whereupon such Bill or Bills shall be so paid, exchanged, or lent.

Interest to cease while the Bills are in the Hands of Receivers, &c.

XII. Provided always, That no Interest shall run or be paid upon or for any such Bill or Bills during the time that any such Bill or Bills, so paid, exchanged, or lent, shall remain in the Hands of any the said Receivers or Collectors, or in the Hands of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, but for such time the Interest on every such Bill shall cease.

Bills to be dated when paid to Receivers,
&c.

XIII. And to the End it may be known for what Time such Bills bearing Interest, shall, from time to time, remain in the Hands of such Receivers or Collectors, or in the Exchequer, as aforesaid; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person or Persons who shall pay any such Bill or Bills, bearing Interest, to any Receivers or Collectors of any his Majesty's Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, by way of Exchange, or otherwise, or shall pay or lend such Bill or Bills, so bearing Interest, into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall, at the Time of making such Payment, Exchange, or Loan, on each Bill bearing Interest, and so paid, exchanged, or lent, put his or their Name or Names, and write thereupon in Words at length the Day of the Month, and Year, in which he, she, or they so paid, lent, or exchanged such Bill or Bills bearing Interest; all which the said Receivers and Collectors respectively, and also the respective Tellers in the Exchequer, shall take Care to see done and performed accordingly; to which respective Days the said Receivers and Collectors shall be allowed again the Interest which he, she, or they shall shall have allowed or paid upon such respective Bill or Bills, upon his or their paying the same into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforesaid.

XIV. Provided also, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bills, or any of them, may be reissued and paid again out of his Majesty's Exchequer; and when the same shall be reissued and paid again out of his Majesty's Exchequer, the respective Teller there, from whose Office such Bill or Bills bearing Interest shall be so reissued, or again paid out, shall Endorse on the same Bill or Bills so reissued, in Words at length, the Day of the Month, and Year, in which the same were so reissued or repaid out of the Exchequer, and also on what Account the same were last received into the Exchequer, and sign the same, from which Time the Interest of such Bill or Bills so reissued or paid again shall Revive, and such Bill or Bills shall Revive, Run, and Pass at Interest, as the same did before they were paid unto, or received by the said Receivers or Collectors, or before the same were paid or lent into the Exchequer, as aforesaid.

Bills reissuable out of the Exchequer, &c.

and Interest to Revive.

XV. And it is hereby further Enacted, That the same Bills, to be reissued from time to time, or at any time at the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be so reissued for the Principal Money to be contained therein, and for so much Interest as was due thereon, and allowed by the Teller, at the respective Time and Times when such Bill and Bills were last paid into the Exchequer.

XVI. And be it Enacted, That every Receiver General, of any the Revenues, Aids, Tares or Supplies belonging or to belong to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall keep a fair Book or Books of Account in Writing, of all the Monies by him received, in which he or his Deputy or Deputies shall truly enter all the Sums which shall have been received by him or them for every such Revenue, Aid, Tar, or Supply, together with the Names of the several Collectors, from whom the same, or any part thereof, was received, the Days when, and the Sums paid, how much thereof in Money, and how much thereof in such Exchequer Bills, and what Exchequer Bills shall have been exchanged by every such Receiver General, pursuant to this Act; to which Account every Person concerned shall have free Access at all reasonable Times, without Fee or Charge; and the said Account shall constantly lie open at one certain Place within the Limits of his Receipt for that Purpose; And if such Receiver shall neglect to keep such Book or Books, or Enter therein any Sum or Sums of Money by him received and paid, as aforesaid, by the Space of Three Days after his Receipt or Payment of the same, or shall refuse any Person or Persons concerned to inspect such Book or Books, without Fee or Reward, as aforesaid, every such Receiver for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who will sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or upon the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or more than One Imparlance.

Receivers General, &c. to keep Books of Account of Monies received, &c.

Penalty.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Exchequer Bills, which shall be current, as aforesaid, shall be filled up by Writing or Endorsements made thereon, as aforesaid, or shall by any Accident be defaced, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and he and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by their or his Direction, from time to time, to cause New Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, in lieu of such Bills, which shall be so filled up or defaced, which Bills so filled up or defaced, shall be cancelled at the Receipt of Exchequer, and kept there on a file or files for that Purpose; and such Bills, so to be made forth in lieu thereof, shall have a like Currency, and shall

New Bills to be made forth in lieu of Bills filled up or defaced, &c.

in all respects be subject to the same Rules, Methods, and Continuance, as the Bills so filled up were intended to have been by this Act, and shall bear the same Numbers, Dates, and Principal Sums, and carry the like Interest, as were born and carried by the Bill so cancelled respectively.

Forging or Counterfeiting
Exchequer
Bills, &c.
Felony.

XIX. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit any Exchequer Bill, which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, before the same shall be paid off and cancelled, or any Exchequer Bill to be renewed, or made forth in pursuance of this Act, or any Endorsement, or Writing thereupon, or therein, or tender in Payment any such Forged or Counterfeit Bill, or any Exchequer Bill, with such Counterfeit Endorsement, or Writing thereon, or shall demand to have such Counterfeit Bill, or any such Exchequer Bill, with such Counterfeit Endorsement, or Writing thereupon, or therein, exchanged for Ready Money, by any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall be obliged or requested to exchange the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, knowing the Bill tendered in Payment, or demanded to be exchanged, or the Endorsement or Writing thereupon, or therein, to be forged, or Counterfeit, and with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, or the Persons to be appointed to pay off the same, or any of them, or to pay any Interest thereupon, or the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, who will contract to circulate or exchange the same, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate; then every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death, and other Forfeitures, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

XX. And whereas the several Surplusses, Excusses, and Overplus Monies, commonly called the said Sinking Fund (which in and by the said Act, made in the Third Year of his Majesty's 3 Geo. cap. 3. Reign, were appropriated to and for Discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts, and Incumbrances, as were incurred before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and were declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act of Parliament, in such Manner and Form, as should be directed, or appointed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament, to be discharged therewith, or out of the same) have usually been computed at or about the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, in every Year, and the last Computation of the clear Produce thereof, now lying before the Honourable House of Commons, did terminate at or about the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two: Now to the End, Intent, and Purpose, that all the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, not exceeding, as aforesaid, may be paid off and discharged in such Course and Order, as are hereafter in and by this Act appointed in that Behalf; and to the End the same Bills, or so many of them, as shall, from time to time, remain undischarged, may the better obtain a Currency for such time as they, or any of them, are hereby intended to be current, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, and the High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall from henceforth cause the clear Produce of the said several Surplusses, Excusses, and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, to be computed and stated Half-yearly (to wit) at the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, in every Year, until all the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, shall be fully paid off and discharged, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for completely paying off and discharging the same: The First of which Accounts so to be stated of the said Surplusses, Excusses, and Overplus Monies, shall terminate at the Feast of the Annunciation

Produce of Sinking Fund
to be stated Half-yearly,

ciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and the subsequent Accounts thereof shall be made up and adjusted at every of the said Half-yearly Feast Days, or assoon after as the Accounts of the Publick Revenues, whereupon such stated Accounts are to be formed, can be collected for that Purpose.

XXI. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies of the said Surplusses, Excesses, and Overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund, which were produced at or before the said Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, which shall remain over and above the said Sum of Two hundred and four thousand seven hundred eighty six Pounds, Three Shillings, and Four Pence Three Farthings, to be issued out of the same, as aforesaid, (if any such be) and all the Monies from time to time arising of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses, and Overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund, which hereafter shall or ought to appear upon the making up and adjusting every Half-yearly Account or State of the Produce of the same, as aforesaid (except such Monies of the said Sinking Fund, as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any other or former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, and shall be payable or demandable before the End of every such Half-year respectively) shall, from time to time, as the same shall arise at the said Receipt of Exchequer, be issued to such Paymaster as is herein after mentioned, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for and towards the paying off and discharging the said Exchequer Bills, which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, in their due Course and Order, as they shall be numbered and stand in the said Register, and for or towards the Charge of exchanging and circulating the said Bills, or any of them, and for or towards such other Payments, as are in and by this Act directed or allowed to be made or discharged out of the same, and for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever, until all the said Bills shall be paid off, discharged, and cancelled, and the said other Payments shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for those Purposes.

How the Sinking Fund shall be applied.

Exception

XXIII. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, and the High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, without any further or other Warrant or Authority to be sued for, had or obtained in this Behalf, cause not only so much of the Money of the said Surplusses, Excesses, and Overplusses produced, at or before the said Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, as aforesaid, as shall remain over and above the Sum of Two hundred and four thousand seven hundred eighty six Pounds, Three Shillings, and Four Pence Three Farthings before mentioned (if any such be) but also all the clear Monies of the said Surplusses, Excesses, and Overplusses, which shall or ought to arise upon such Half-yearly States or Accounts, as aforesaid, and every of them, as they shall arise, from time to time, to be issued at the Exchequer to the said Paymaster for the time being, to be constituted, as aforesaid, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for or towards paying off and discharging the said Exchequer Bills: in such Course, as aforesaid, and such other Payments relating to the said Exchequer Bills, as are to be made by such Paymaster, as aforesaid, and that such Paymaster shall, from time to time, apply all the Monies by him so to be received, as he shall receive the same, from time to time, towards discharging the said Bills in Course, and other Payments hereby directed or allowed, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this present Act, and not otherwise.

Surplus, &c. applied to the Discharge of Exchequer Bills, &c.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That as often as any Interest upon any Exchequer Bill or Bills to be made forth by this Act, shall be demanded to be paid, the said

Con-

Interest upon Bills not to be paid to any Sum less than a Penny, &c.

Contractors or Paymasters shall not be obliged to pay for such Interest to any lesser Sum than One Penny upon such Bill, in case a single Bill be produced, or for the Total of the Interest of such Bills, where Two or more shall be offered at One Time by the same Person; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Monies due upon Bills lost, burnt, or destroyed, to be satisfied upon Oath, &c.

XXXII. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That in case Proof shall be made upon Oath of one or more Credible Witnesses, before the Lord Chief Baron, and other the Barons of the Coif of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or any of them, that any of the Bills, which shall have been made forth by this Act, were by Casualty, or Mischance, lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, before the coming thereof in Course of Payment; and if by the Parties Oaths, the Numbers and Sums of such Bill or Bills shall be ascertained; and if thereupon the said Chief Baron, and other the said Barons, or any of them, before whom such Oaths were made, shall certify that he or they are satisfied in such Proof; Then and in every such Case the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby authorized to cause the Money due upon such Bill or Bills so lost, burnt, or destroyed, to be satisfied by the said Paymaster or Paymasters, as if the Original Bill or Bills were brought in to be paid off: Provided the Person or Persons so receiving the Money, do give Security to the King, to the good liking of the Person or Persons, who shall be appointed, as aforesaid, to pay off and take in the said Bills, to pay into the Exchequer, for the Use of the Publick, so much Money as shall be paid upon such Certificate or Certificates, if the Bill or Bills so certified to be lost, burnt, or destroyed, be hereafter produced.

same shall be provided for and made good by Authority of Parliament, and no more: Any thing in this Act, or any former Law, Statute, or Provision whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And as for and concerning the other Moiety or Half-part of the said whole Capital Stock of the said Company, commonly called the South-Sea Company, so remaining and continued to the said South-Sea Company as their Capital Stock, and all Sums settled and allowed, or to be settled and allowed for Management, as aforesaid, with all the other Benefits, Profits of Trade, Privileges, and Advantages whatsoever belonging to the said Company before the making of this Act: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company shall, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, continue to have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled to have, receive, and enjoy, at the Exchequer, in their own Right, the Residue of the said Annuities or Pearly Funds, computed in the whole to One Million six hundred fifty one thousand seven hundred and thirty Pounds, Ten Shillings, and Ten Pence Half-penny per Annum, till the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, and to amount afterwards to One Million three hundred fifty two thousand ninety nine Pounds, Six Shillings, and Eleven Pence Half-penny per Annum, till Redemption by Parliament, as aforesaid: which said Residue, till the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, is computed at Eight hundred and six thousand six hundred sixty eight Pounds, Nine Shillings, and a Penny Farthing, as is before mentioned, and afterwards is to be computed after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till Redemption, as aforesaid, as the Annuity or Pearly Fund to attend the said remaining Moiety or Half-part of the said Capital Stock, hereby intended to be continued in the said South-Sea Company, as aforesaid, till the Redemption thereof by Parliament, as aforesaid: and shall also have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled by virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy, the said whole Sums of Eight thousand Pounds per Annum, and One thousand three hundred ninety seven Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Six Pence per Annum, already settled for Charges of Management, and all other Sums to be allowed for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, during the Continuance thereof: and shall be also entitled to hold, exercise, and enjoy all the Profits of Trade, and other Privileges and Advantages belonging to the said Company, before the making of this Act: and that all and every the Members and Proprietors, having any Share or Shares, on the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, in the said remaining Moiety or Half-part of the said Capital Stock, to be continued in the said South-Sea Company, as aforesaid, his, her and their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns respectively, shall have and be entitled to Proportional Shares of and in the said Annuities or Pearly Funds attending the same, and also all Benefits of Trade and other Benefits, and all Dividends, Profits, and Advantages whatsoever, belonging and remaining in the said South-Sea Company, and the said Allowances made, and to be made for Charges of Management.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, at any Time or Times hereafter, any Deficiency or Deficiencies shall happen in the Produce of all or any the several Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, charged with the said Joint Stock of the South-Sea Annuities, and attendant on the said remaining Stock, and the said Allowances for Charges of Management, to be continued to the said South-Sea Company, in their own Right, as aforesaid, then, and in every such Case so happening, the said South-Sea Company, upon Account and in respect of the remaining Stock, and the Allowances to be continued to them in their own Right, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time,

South-Sea Company, after 24 June, 1723, to receive the Residue of their Stock at the Exchequer, till 24 June, 1727.

South-Sea Stock to bear a Moiety of all Deficiencies, &c.

bear One Moiety or Half-part of every such Deficiency, until the same shall be provided for and made good by Authority of Parliament, and no more; Any thing in this Act, or any former Law, Statute, or Provision whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any time after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Company, commonly called the South-Sea Company, of the said whole Principal or Capital Sum of Thirty three Millions eight hundred two thousand four hundred eighty three Pounds, fourteen Shillings, and One Half-penny, that is to say, The Sum of Sixteen Millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred forty one Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, One Farthing, being One Moiety or Half-part of the said whole Principal or Capital Sum, for the Use of such Person and Persons, Body and Bodies Politick and Corporate, as shall then be Proprietors of the said Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities to be founded on this Act, according to the Shares and Interests which they respectively shall then have therein; and the remaining Sixteen Millions nine hundred one thousand two hundred forty one Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, and One Farthing, being the other Moiety or Half-part thereof, for the Use and Account of the said Capital Stock, remaining and to be continued to the Company in their own Right, as aforesaid, and upon Payment of all Arrears, which shall then be due for or upon the said Annuities or Yearly Funds payable at the Exchequer attending the same respectively, as aforesaid, and upon Payment of all Arrears of the said Yearly Sums, allowed or to be allowed to the said Company for their own Use, for Charges of Management, as aforesaid; (all which Arrears, if any such be, shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast Day then next preceding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day, till the Time of such full Payment made) then the said Yearly Annuities or Funds, payable at the Exchequer to the said Company in Trust for the said South-Sea Annuitants, and in their own Right respectively, as aforesaid, as also the said Yearly Sums to be allowed for Charges of Management, as aforesaid, and every of them, shall from thenceforth cease and determine.

Upon Repayment by Parliament of the Capital Sum of 33,024,831. 14 s. 0 d.  $\frac{1}{2}$  after 24 June, 1727. to the Company, &c. Annuities out of the Exchequer to cease, &c.

XVII. And in regard it is intended, that at any time or times after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, the Principal or Sum Total of the said Capital, amounting to Thirty three Millions eight hundred two thousand four hundred eighty three Pounds, fourteen Shillings, and One Half-penny, shall be satisfied to the said Company, called the South-Sea Company, by any Payments, not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a time; and that as the same Principal Money shall be so paid off, such lesser Payments shall, from time to time, be applied, either towards discharging the said Principal Sums which shall belong to the said South-Sea Company in their own Right, or towards Discharging the said Principal Sums of the said South-Sea Annuities, or towards discharging, as well the said Principal Sums of the said Company, as also of the said South-Sea Annuities, in such Proportions, Manner, and Form, as shall be prescribed by the respective Act or Acts of Parliament for furnishing such lesser Sums; and that, as the said Principal Monies shall be paid off, the respective Annuities or Yearly Funds, payable to the said South-Sea Company at the Exchequer, in their own Right, or in Trust, as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, proportionally sink and be abated; Be it therefore further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time or Times, after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty seven, on Repayment by Parliament to the said South-Sea Company, of any Sum or Sums of Money,

How Annuities, &c. payable at the Exchequer, &c. as shall bear Proportion to Monies paid in Part of Principal, shall cease.

not being less than Five hundred thousand Pounds at a time, in Part of the Principal Monies of the said Capital Stock of Thirty three Millions eight hundred two thousand four hundred eighty three Pounds, Fourteen Shillings, and One Half penny, to be applied according to such future Act or Acts of Parliament, as aforesaid, and upon Payment of all Arrears, which shall then be due, for or upon the same Yearly Annuities or Funds, payable at the Exchequer, as aforesaid, or upon any Part thereof, or so much of the said Arrears as shall bear a Proportion to the Principal Sums then remaining unsatisfied to the said Annuitants and the said Company in their own Right respectively, and upon Payment of all Arrears, then due of the said Yearly Allowances for Management, for the Sole Use and Account of the said Company (all which said Arrears, if any such be, shall be computed and paid to the Quarterly Feast-Day then next preceding, and from thence shall be computed and paid by the Day, till the time of such Payment made in Part, as aforesaid,) then from and after every such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuities or Yearly Funds payable at the Exchequer, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part of the Principal, shall cease, determine, and be abated: Any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Redemption of Capital, &c. the Revenues applicable thereto shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, &c.

XVIII. Provided also, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Redemption of the said Capital or Principal Sums, amounting to Thirty three Millions eight hundred two thousand four hundred eighty three Pounds, Fourteen Shillings, and One Half penny, and the said several Yearly Funds or Sums payable at the Exchequer, according to the several and respective Privileges and Conditions of Redemption in this Act contained for that Purpose, then, and not till then, so much of the several Duties, Revenues, and Incomes, as are by this Act applicable thereunto, during the Continuance thereof, shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued or applied to any Use or Purpose, without Authority of Parliament.

C A P. VIII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for Continuing some Laws, and Reviving others therein mentioned, for Exempting Apothecaries from serving Parish and Ward Offices, and upon Juries, and relating to Jurors; and to the Payment of Seamen's Wages, and the Preservation of Naval Stores, and Stores of War; and concerning the Militia, and Trophy-Money; and against Clandestine Running of Uncustomed Goods, and for more effectual preventing Frauds relating to the Customs, and Frauds in Mixing Silk with Stuffs to be Exported.

VIII. AND whereas, by an Act made in the Fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign [Intituled, An Act against Clandestine Running of Uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs] several Clauses therein mentioned, were to have Continuance for the Term of Three Years, from the several Times of Commencement thereof, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament respectively, which are near Expiring, and it hath been found by Experience, that several of the said Clauses are necessary to be continued, to prevent Frauds, which might otherwise be practised to the Prejudice of the Revenue and fair Trade: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Act, as relates to such Foreign Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as shall be taken in at Sea out of any Ship or Vessel, in order to be landed or put into any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat; and so much of the said Act, as relates to Goods not reported and found after clearing Ships; and so much of the said Act, as provides further Remedies against Relanding Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and Foreign Goods Shipt out for Parts beyond the Seas; and so much of the said Act, as relates to the opening or altering the Package of Goods on Board Ships Outward Bound; and so much of the said Act, as relates to Hoisting Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of Fifty Tuns, or under; and so much of the said Act, as concerns the Sales or Package in which Coffee shall be Exported, as was to continue in Force for Three Years, from the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and so much of the said Act, as relates to Rum Imposited in Casks or Vessels, not containing Twenty Gallons at the least, which was to continue in Force for Three Years, from the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and so much of the said Act, as relates to Certificate Goods entered in order to be exported to Ireland, which was to continue in Force for Three Years, from the First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be continued and be in Force, and put in Practice for the Purposes therein mentioned, from and after the Expiration of the several and respective Terms before mentioned, for and during the Space of Five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

So much of the Act, 5 Geo. cap. 11. as relates to Foreign Goods taken out of Ships at Sea, to Goods found after clearing Ships, to Relanding Goods, to opening or altering Package on Ships Outwards, to Ships Hoisting, to Sales of Coffee exported, to Rum in small Casks, to Certificate Goods to Ireland, further continued for 5 Years, and to the End of the then next Session.

8 Geo. 12p. 15.

IX. And whereas, in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of his present Majesty (for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) certain Allowances or Sums of Money are to be paid to the Exporters of Stuffs made in Great Britain, or Silks and Program Parn, and also of Silk Stuffs made in Great Britain, mixed with Inkle, Cotton, or Woollen, as in the said Act expressed: And whereas it is by the said Act provided, that no Allowance shall be demanded or made for such of the said Manufactures mixed with Silk, when they are only mixed at the Edges, or Ends of the Piece, which is found by Experience, not sufficient to prevent Frauds and Abuses in making those Manufactures, by mixing Silk, not with any design to advantage the Sale of the Goods, but with an intention to obtain the Bounty or Allowance on the Exportation, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: To Remedy which Abuses, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the making any Allowance on the Exportation of any the Manufactures aforesaid, Mixt with Silk, except such, wherein at least Two third Parts of the Ends or Threads of the Warp (by which is meant the Length of the Piece) be either all Silk, or else mixed or twisted with Silk in the Warp; Any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

British Manufactures Mixt with Silk, not to have any Allowance on the Exportation, except 2ds of the Warp be Silk.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be found to enter or ship any of the Goods aforesaid, which are not mixed with the Quantity of Silk as is beforementioned, such Person or Persons shall not only forfeit the Goods so Entered or Shipped, but shall likewise be prosecuted for Double the Value thereof; such Seizure and Penalty to be prosecuted, determined, and divided in such Manner, as other Seizures or Penalties are in and by the said Act directed and appointed.

Any Persons Shipping any of the Goods not so mixed, Forfeits the Goods and Double the Value.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act to continue the Duties for Incouragement of the Coinage of Monies; And for Relief of William late Lord Widdrington; And to prevent Foreign Lotteries being carried on in this Kingdom; And for ascertaining the Duties on Bound Books Imported; And for issuing Certificates and Debentures for Arrears due to Five Regiments, to be satisfied by Annuities therein mentioned; And for Discharging the Duties of Rock-Salt lost on the Rivers Weaver and Mercy; And for limiting the Times of Continuance of Commissioners for Forfeited Estates in England and Scotland respectively; And for appropriating the Supplies granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament; And to rectifie Misnomers and Omissions of Commissioners for the Land-Tax in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty three.

Preamble.

MAJ it please Your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas great Benefit and Advantage did accrue to England by one Act of Parliament, passed in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King Charles the Second [Intituled, An Act for Incouraging of Coinage] and continued by another Act made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King Charles the Second [Intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage;] both which said Acts were revived by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of his Majesty King James the Second; and were continued by an Act made in the Fourth Year of King William and Queen Mary, of Blessed Memory; and were further continued by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King William; and were further continued by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, of Blessed Memory, and then extended to Scotland; and were further continued by an Act made in the First Year of Your Majesty's Reign, to be in Force for Seven Years, from the First Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; so that unless the said Acts be revived and continued the Incouragement given thereby will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the future of so great a Good, as it hath for many Years last past enjoyed: Now we Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant unto Your Majesty the Rates, Duties, and Impositions, herein after mentioned, for and during the Term and Time herein after expressed, and do humbly pray, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties, and Impositions, as, by the said Act of Parliament of the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, were granted; and by the said subsequent Acts were continued for and upon the Importation of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and Strong Waters Imported during the respective Terms of Times therein mentioned, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy, and Strong Waters, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain within or during the Space of Seven Years, to commence from the first Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; and that all the said former Acts, and all other Acts of Parliament concerning Coinage, and every of them, and every Clause, Article, and Sentence in them, or any of them, contained, now being in Force, shall be and are, by Virtue of this Act, revived and continued, and shall be in Force, and be duly put in Execution, for and during all such Term and Time, as are before mentioned, as fully and effectually, as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; Any former Law, Statute, Provision, Matter, or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And to the End the Importers of Gold and Silver into the Mints of England and Scotland respectively, may not be discouraged by any Deficiency of the Revenue by this Act settled, for defraying the Coinage thereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, out of the Monies arising by this Act, or out of any other the Publick Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament, to cause so much Money to be applied, as shall be necessary for defraying the Expences of the said Mints of England and Scotland respectively, by way of Imprest and upon Account for that Service, so as the same, together with the Coinage Duties arising by this Act, do not exceed in any one Year the Sum of Fifteen thousand Pounds, and so as the said Monies be issued out of the Exchequer of Great Britain to the Master of the Mint in England, and the Master of the Mint in Scotland respectively, for the said Purposes.

VI. And whereas by several Acts of Parliament, several Duties are payable upon the Importation of Books Bound, which Duties being payable ad Valorem, have been found Inconvenient; For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties payable ad Valorem, for all Books Bound, which shall be Imported from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, shall cease and determine, and instead thereof there shall be payable and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all Bound Books which shall be Imported into Great Britain, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred twenty three, the Sum of Fourteen Shillings, of lawful Money of Great Britain, for every Hundred Weight, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Weight, which Duty shall be paid down in Ready Money by the respective Importers of such Bound Books, from time to time, before the Landing of the same respectively.

Books Bound Imported to pay 14 s.
per Hundred Weight.

VII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Bound Books Imported, shall be raised, levied, recovered and paid, and be brought into the Exchequer, by such Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and in such Manner and Form, as the Duties upon Bound Books hereby taken away, or any of them, might or ought to have been raised, levied, recovered, or paid, before the making of this Act.

How to be raised,

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duty to arise upon the Importation of Books Bound pursuant to this Act (the necessary Charges of Management deducted) shall be appropriated and applied, as near as may be, to the same Uses and Purposes to which the former Duties upon Bound Books, by this Act taken away, were applicable or ought to have been applied, if this Act had not been made.

and appropriated.

Redeemable by Parliament.

IX. Provided also, and it is hereby Enacted, That the Duty by this Act charged upon Bound Books Imported, or any Part thereof, shall be redeemable by Parliament, in the same Manner as the said former Duties on Bound Books hereby taken away, or any of them, were redeemable; and in all Cases, where the said former Duties on Bound Books, or any of them, were to cease or determine, the Duty hereby granted, or a proportional Part thereof, shall cease and determine.

Anno 9 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XXI.

An Act for Enabling his Majesty to put the Customs of Great Britain under the Management of One or more Commissions, and for better securing and ascertaining the Duties on Tobacco, and to prevent Frauds in Exporting Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, or carrying the same Coast-wise.

Preamble.

Whereas by the Sixth Article of the Act of Parliament for Uniting the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, all Parts of the United Kingdom were for ever, from and after the Union, to be liable to the same Customs and Duties on Import and Export, and to be under the same Restrictions and Regulations of Trade: And whereas the Customs and Duties arising by the Exportation and Importation of Goods and Merchandize, were put under the Direction of Two distinct Commissions, One of which to have the Care and Management of the Customs and Duties arising in England, the other in Scotland, but each vested with the like Powers and Authorities; Be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, the Customs and other Duties, now under the Management of the several and respective Commissioners of the Customs of England and Scotland, shall and may be put under the Management of One Commission of the Customs for the whole United Kingdom, or under the Management of several Commissions of the Customs for England and Scotland respectively, from time to time, as his Majesty shall judge to be most for the Advantage of Trade, and Security of his Revenues; Any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 1 June,
1723.

The Customs of Great Britain may be under One or more Commissions.

The Number of Commissions may be encreased.

II. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to increase the Number of Commissioners for the managing, and raising and collected, his Customs and Duties, as shall be thought proper for the carrying on the said Service, and in such Commission or Commissions to make Provision for putting in Execution the several Laws relating to the Customs; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Recital of the Duties on Tobacco of the British Plantations.

III. And whereas by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and by the Book of Rates thereto annexed, a Duty of One Penny per Pound (commonly called the Old Subsidy) was laid upon all Tobacco of the British Plantations Imported; and by the same Act and Book of Rates, an Additional Duty of One Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco Imported; and by another Act made in the First Year of the Reign of the late

1 A. cap. 9.

King James the Second, a Duty or Impost of Three Pence per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco Imported; and by another Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, a further Subsidy of One Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco Imported; and by another Act made in the Second Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, a Duty or Subsidy of One third Part of a Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco Imported; all which Duties, on Tobacco Imported, as before mentioned, amounting in the whole to Six Pence, and One third Part of a Penny per Pound Weight, are by several subsequent Acts since continued, and are now in Force: And whereas certain Abatements, Discounts, and Allowances, for Waste and Damage, and other Allowances, are made to the Importer of such Tobacco out of the said Duties, which by Experience have been found prejudicial to Trade, and a Loss to the Revenue; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Duties upon Tobacco Imported after the said first Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, during the Continuance thereof respectively, in the Manner following; that is to say, The Importer of Tobacco of the British Plantations, shall on the Importation thereof, pay down the said Old Subsidy of One Penny per Pound, with an Allowance of Twenty five per Centum, instead of the former Allowance of Five per Centum; and that all the other Duties aforesaid on such Tobacco Imported, amounting together to Five Pence, and One third of a Penny per Pound, shall be paid down, or the Importer thereof shall become Bound to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with One or more sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Collector of the Port where the Tobacco shall be Imported, with the Consent of the Comptroller of such Port, in One or more Bond or Bonds, at the Election of the Importer, for Payment of the respective Duties within Eighteen Months, to commence at the End of Thirty Days after the Master's Report of the Ship, or to commence from the Merchant's Entry of the Goods within those Thirty Days, which shall first happen; and that in lieu of all former Encouragements, Allowances for Waste or Damage, or other Allowances and Discounts for Prompt Payment (all which Encouragements, Allowances, and Discounts, are intended to be repealed and abrogated, and are, by force and virtue of this Act, repealed and abrogated accordingly) One Allowance of Twenty five per Centum of the said last rectified Duties, amounting to Five Pence and One third of a Penny per Pound, as aforesaid, shall be deducted and allowed upon the Entry of the Importer, paying down the said Duties; and every Importer not paying down the said Duties, shall have an Allowance only of fifteen per Centum; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Importer of Tobacco to pay the Old Subsidy with an Allowance of 25 per Cent.

All this other Duties to be paid down, or secured to be paid, in 18 Months, in lieu of all former Allowances, the Importer to have an Allowance of 25 per Cent. for Prompt Payments.

otherwise 15 per Cent. only.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, no Allowance shall be made to the Importer for or in Consideration of any damaged or mean Tobacco, either at the Scale or otherwise; but in case any Merchant or other Person shall refuse to enter and pay, or secure the Duties aforesaid, for such Tobacco, then he or they shall have Liberty to refuse the same, or to separate such damaged Tobacco, by cutting off from the Hogshead or other Package so much thereof, as he or they shall refuse to pay Custom for, and the Principal Officers of his Majesty's Customs, or any Three or more of them, shall cause all such Tobacco to be burnt and destroyed, without making any Allowances to such Importer for Freight or other Charges, other than the Allowances hereafter in this Act provided for; Any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Allowance to be made for damaged Tobacco.

But the Merchant may refuse the same, or cut off so much thereof as he refuses to pay Custom for, to be destroyed, &c.

Not to separate the Stalk from the Leaf.

V. Provided always, and it is not hereby intended, That any Merchant, or other Person, shall have Liberty to separate the Stalk from the Leaf, on Pretence that the same is damaged or mean Tobacco.

Tobacco Exported to draw back the whole Duty, and no more.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Tobacco, which shall have been entered, and the Duties thereof paid or secured, in Manner aforesaid by this Act directed and appointed, shall, from and after the said first Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, be Exported into any Foreign Parts, the Exporter shall, upon the Exportation thereof within the Time limited by Law, on a proper Debenture to be made forth for that Purpose, be paid or allowed to draw back the whole Duty, or the Security vacated on the Bond or Bonds given on the Importation, and no more, as to what shall be so Exported, Care being taken, that the several Allowances and Deductions made at the Importation, be again deducted on the Debenture; Any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowances on Importation
be deducted
on Exportation.

Persons discovering Frauds in Drawbacks to have One Half of the Officer's Share, after Charges deducted.

Commissioners are to cause the same to be paid.

Person discovering acquitted of the Offence.

Tobacco or Foreign Goods carried Coastwise from any other Port than the Place from whence certified, forfeited, and Double the Value.

Master to forfeit the Value.

Discoverer to have one Half of the Officer's Share, after Charges deducted.

VII. And whereas, notwithstanding the many Laws to prevent Fraudulent Drawbacks upon Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandize Exported, yet the same still Continue, but if some further Encouragement were given to such as would be willing to discover such Frauds, the same might in some Measure be prevented; Be it therefore Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person (other than the Exporter) shall discover to the Commissioners, or any Officer of the Customs, any Frauds committed, either by the Exporter of the Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize, or by any other Person or Persons in Aid or Assistance of the Exporter, whereby his Majesty has been or shall be defrauded by the Exportation of such Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize, such Person or Persons (except as aforesaid) shall, as an Encouragement, have and receive One Half of the Officer's or Prosecutor's Share of what shall be recovered and paid by such Discovery, the Charges of Prosecution being first deducted; and the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, are to cause such Charges to be paid equally by the Crown, and the Officer or Prosecutor; and in case such Person or Persons, who were aiding or assisting to the Exporter in such Fraud, so discovering, he or she shall, in Consideration of such his or her Discovery, be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his or her Offence; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And whereas Frauds are many times committed under Pretence of carrying Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods or Merchandizes, from one Port to another in Great Britain Coastwise, by Masters of Coasting Vessels, who take in such Goods in Ports beyond the Sea, or out of Ships or Vessels at Sea, or in any Place, other than the Port from whence it was certified, and privately land the same in Great Britain, to the Prejudice of the Revenue, and the Encouragement of the foul Traders: For the Prevention whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods or Merchandizes, shall be taken on Board any Coasting Vessel in Ports beyond the Seas, or out of any Ship or Vessel at Sea, or at any Port or Place of this Kingdom, other than the Port or Place from whence such Goods shall be certified, that then the said Goods, and Double the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; and the Master of the said Coasting Ship, wherein the said Goods were Imported, shall forfeit the Value of the said Tobacco, or other Goods.

IX. And be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person (other than the Owner or Claimer of the Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize, so shipped Coastwise, or pretended to be shipped Coastwise) shall discover to the Commissioners, or any Officer of the Customs, any Frauds committed either by the Owner or Claimer of the Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize so shipped, or pretended to be shipped Coastwise, or by any other Person or Persons, in Aid or Assistance of the Owner or Claimer of such Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize, whereby his Majesty has been or shall be defrauded in his Duties, such Person or Persons (except as aforesaid) shall, as an Encouragement, have and receive One Half of the Officer's or Prosecutor's Share of what shall be recovered and paid by such Discovery, the Charges of Prosecution being first deducted; and the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being, are to cause such Charges to be paid equally by the Crown, and the Officer or Prosecutor: And in case such Person or Persons, who are aiding or assisting to the Owner or Claimer of the Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandize so shipped, or pretended to be shipped Coastwise, in such Frauds, be or she, shall, in Consideration of such his or her Discovery, be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his or her Offence; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners to cause the same to be paid.
Aider discovering acquitted.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, shall and may be prosecuted and determined by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Erchequer at Edinburgh respectively, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; and one Moiety of the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Persons as will sue for or prosecute the same.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be sued for, and divided.

XI. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any thing done, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, or any of the Clauses therein contained, such Person or Persons shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, for his, her, or their Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his or their Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him or them upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have full Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

XII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Importer or Proprietor of Tobacco, that hath given Security, as aforesaid, for the Payment of the said Duties in Eighteen Months, shall be desirous to discharge his Bond or Bonds, or any Part thereof, in Ready Money, sooner than the Expiration of the said Eighteen Months, he shall be abated upon such Bond or Bonds so much as the Discount, at the Rate of Seven per Centum per Annum, shall amount to in Proportion to the Time unexpired.

Importer discharging his Bond within the 18 Months to have a Discount of 7 per Cent. for the Time unexpired.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Tobacco shall happen to receive Damage on Board any Ship or Vessel, by Strefs of Weather at Sea, or any Damage by any Ship or Vessels being forced on Shore in any Part of Great Britain, or if any unforeseen Accidents should happen after the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel in Port, by the Ships Bulging on an Anchor, or by the Lighter into which the Tobacco is put, in order to be laid on Land, or by any such like Accidents, whereby such Tobacco shall receive Damage, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners or Collectors, or other Chief Officers of his Majesty's Customs, to allow and pay to the Importer at the Rate of One Half-penny for every Pound of such Tobacco, for which the Importer shall refuse to pay or secure the full Duties, and which shall be cut off or separated from the sound, in order to be burnt, or otherwise publicly destroyed by the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, so as such Allowance shall not exceed Thirty Shillings for all the Tobacco damaged in any one single Hogthead Imported; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowance of One Half-penny per lb. for Tobacco damaged on Board or in Port.

To be separated and burnt, &c.

Such Allowance not to exceed 30 s. for any Hogthead.

No Drawback for Tobacco in Package but in Cask of Three Hundred or more, except any Tobacco cut or rolled.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Drawback shall be allowed on any Tobacco Exported in any Package, but only in Casks, containing Three hundred Weight, or more, in each Cask, except such Tobacco as shall be Cut or Rolled; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 lb. upon every Hoghead of 560 lb. or more for Draft allowed at Scale, but not to be deducted on Exportation.

XV. And whereas the Allowances at the Scale for Draft upon every Hoghead of Tobacco Imported have been uncertain, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, there shall be allowed only at the Scale Eight Pounds upon every Hoghead that shall contain Three hundred and fifty Pounds of Tobacco, or more, which Allowance shall not be deducted upon Exportation.

Tobacco arriving after 1 May, 1723, and Unentered before 2 June, to be reckoned to be Imported from 1 June, 1723.

XVI. And whereas divers Quantities of Tobacco of the British Plantations may happen to arrive before the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and it being reasonable that the Tobacco Trade should be on an equal Foot, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Time of Importation of all such Tobacco, as shall arrive after the First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and on or before the Second Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and then remain unentered, shall be reckoned to be from and after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, in like Manner, as if the Masters of such Ships or Vessels had made Report of their several Ladings on the said Second Day of June; and the Importers or Proprietors of such Tobacco shall pay or secure the Duties, and have and enjoy the several Allowances and Discounts, and be entitled to draw back the Duties, as fully and in like Manner, as if the said Tobacco had been Imported, and the Masters of the Ships had made the respective Reports of their Ladings on the said Second Day of June; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 24 June, 1724 Tobacco Imported stript from the Stalk or Stem.

XVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, no Tobacco shall be Imported into Great Britain stript from the Stalk or Stem; and in case any Tobacco Stript from the Stalk or Stem, shall be so Imported after the said First Day of June, the same shall be seized, and shall be liable to be searched for and forfeited by any Officer of the Customs, in the same Manner as any other Prohibited Goods may, by the Laws now in being, be searched for or seized; and all and every such Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be recovered by Information in the Court of Erchequer of England or Scotland respectively; One Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall seize and sue for the same.

Forfeited.

Officer not to search for Stript Tobacco after weighed.

XVIII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby Declared, That nothing herein contained shall authorize or empower any Officer of the Customs, or other Person, to search for any Stript Tobacco Imported, after the same shall have been weighed by the proper Officer, for the Payment of the Duties payable for the same; and where it shall happen there shall not be more than Twenty Pounds Weight of Stript Tobacco in any One Hoghead, the same shall not be subject or liable to be seized or forfeited by virtue of this Act.

20 lb. Stript Tobacco may be Imported in a Hoghead.

These Duties how appropriated.

XIX. Provided always, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies to arise of or for the Duties of Tobacco, under the Regulation by this Act prescribed (the necessary Charges of Management excepted) are and shall be appropriated and applied to such Uses and Purposes, and in such or the like Proportions, and in such Manner, as the Duties on such Tobacco were appropriated and would have been applicable, if this Act had not been made, under such Penalties and Forfeitures for diverting or misapplying any of the said Monies, as in the like Case or Cases might have been inflicted by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, for diverting or misapplying any Money arising by the Duties on Tobacco therein mentioned; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Drawback shall be allowed for any Tobacco Stalks or Stems Exported by themselves, when they have been or shall be separated from the rest of the Leaf; Any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Drawback allowed for Tobacco-
Stalks exported.

Anno 9 GEORGII Regis.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act to prevent his Majesty's Subjects from Subscribing or being concerned in Encouraging or Promoting any Subscription for an East-India Company in the Austrian Netherlands; And for the better Securing the Lawful Trade of his Majesty's Subjects to and from the East-Indies.

Whereas several Acts and Statutes have been heretofore made and provided by Parliament, for the securing to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the sole Trade to and from the East-Indies, and other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, in the said Acts, some or one of them particularly mentioned and described, to the Intent that the British Nation might thereby have and enjoy the full Fruits and Advantages of so beneficial a Trade; notwithstanding which Acts, the Prohibitions, Injunctions, and Penalties contained therein, several evil minded Persons (Subjects of his Majesty) preferring their own Lucre to the Good of their Native Country, have not only in their private Capacities secretly and illegally traded to and from the East-Indies, and with the Pirates infesting those Seas, but have also openly, and in Defiance of the Laws of this Kingdom, under Foreign Commissions, fitted out and loaded many great and defensible Ships for Voyages to the East-Indies, and have corrupted several British Sailors to serve on board such Ships for such Voyages, and of late, with Design totally to elude the good and wholesome Laws made to prevent such Practices, as aforesaid, have subscribed, contributed to, or promoted the raising, establishing and carrying on a Foreign Company, under a Foreign Charter, for carrying on an East-India Trade from the Austrian Netherlands, taking and providing for themselves Shares and Proportions in the Stock or Capital of such Company, with Design to engage others of his Majesty's Subjects, as well as themselves, to be concerned in the same Undertaking, by which pernicious and unwarrantable Practices the Trade of this Kingdom is diverted, the Revenue diminished, and the Treasure thereof exhausted: To prevent therefore such wicked Practices, and more effectually to secure the said East-India Trade to his Majesty's Subjects for the future, according to the Laws now in being; Be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if at any Time or Times from and after the four and twentieth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, any Person or Persons whatsoever, Subject or Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall contribute or subscribe to, or encourage or promote the raising, establishing, or carrying on any Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, trading, trafficking, or adventuring, or hereafter to trade, traffick, or adventure, from any Part or Parts of or in the Austrian Netherlands, in, to, or from the East-dies, or Places aforesaid.

After 24 June, 1723, none of his Majesty's Subjects shall subscribe to, or be concerned in promoting an East-India Company in the Austrian Netherlands, aforsaid, or shall be interested or concerned in his, her, or their Name or Names, or in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons whatsoever, or otherwise howsoever, in any Part or Share of or in the Capital, Principal Stock or Actions of any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, or shall make any Payments in Money, or by Bills of Exchange, Remittances, or otherwise, to, for, or towards the raising, supporting, sustaining, encouraging, or promoting such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, or the Trade or Traffick thereof, or shall subscribe, contribute to, encourage, or promote the raising, establishing, or carrying on any other Foreign Company or Companies hereafter to be raised, formed, or erected, for trading or dealing to the East-Indies, or Parts aforesaid, or shall become interested in or entitled unto any Share in the Stock or Capital of such last mentioned Company or Companies, every such Person and Persons, so offending, shall forfeit all his, her, and their Interest, Share, Proportion, and Concern in the Capital Principal Stock or Actions of any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, together with Treble the Value thereof; One third Part thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the remaining Two third Parts thereof to the Use of the said United Company, if they shall inform, sue, or prosecute for the same; or otherwise, One third Part of such Two thirds shall be to the Use of such Person or Persons, as shall inform or sue for the same, such Informer or Prosecutor first taking such Directions and Consent, as hereafter is mentioned for that Purpose; and the said Penalties shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Wager of Law, or Protection, shall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlaner.

or any other Foreign Company,

on Forfeiture of their Stock in such Foreign Society, and Treble Value.

Forfeiture how to be divided,
and where prosecuted.

Attorney General may prosecute by Bill,
&c.

II. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Attorney General for the time being, of his own Authority, or at the Relation of the said United Company, and to and for the said United Company, to file or exhibit a Bill or Bills of Complaint in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, or Court of Exchequer, against any Person or Persons, who shall have subscribed, contributed to, encouraged or promoted, or any Ways become interested or concerned in the raising, establishing, or carrying on any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, or the Stock, Capital Trade, or Traffick thereof, for the Discovery of such his and their Offence, remitting or waiving in every such Bill, the said Forfeiture of the Treble Value of the Offender's Stock, Interest, Share, Proportion, and Concern in the Principal Stock or Actions of any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, and insisting only on the Single Value thereof, and thereupon such Person and Persons shall answer the said Bill or Bills, and not plead or demur to the Discovery thereby sought, and in such Case the Single Value only of such Interest, Share, Proportion, and Concern, shall be decreed to be paid by such Offender or Offenders, One third Part thereof shall be yielded and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the remaining Two third Parts thereof to the Use of the said United Company.

Common Informers how to prosecute, &c.

III. Provided also nevertheless, and it is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if before any Suit or Prosecution shall be commenced for the Recovery of the Penalties aforesaid, either by his Majesty's Attorney General, or the said United Company, any common Informer or Informers shall go to the Court of Directors of the said United Company, and make known to them the Offence committed, and his or their Intentions to sue or prosecute for the same at Law; and if instead thereof the said Court of Directors shall elect to have the Suit or Prosecution brought or commenced by Bill or Bills of Complaint, to be filed or exhibited in his Majesty's said Courts of Chancery or Exche-

Exchequer, then and in every such Case there shall be yielded and paid to such common Informer or Informers, One third Part of the remaining Two third Parts of the Single Value of the said Interest and Concern, when recovered; but if the said Court of Directors shall elect to have the Suit or Prosecution commenced for the Penalties or Forfeitures by Information or Action of Debt at Law, then the said Informer or Informers shall and may accordingly sue and prosecute for the same at Law, and the said Information or Action shall be proceeded upon, and shall not be discontinued or determined, but by and with the Consent of the said United Company, or their Court of Directors.

IV. And for the more effectual Discovery of the Interest, Share, Proportion, or Concern of any of his Majesty's Subjects, of or in the Capital, Principal, or Stock of any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, Subject or Subjects of his Majesty whatsoever, shall have accepted of any Trust or Trusts, or shall know of any Interest, Share, Part, Proportion, or Concern, which any of his Majesty's Subjects shall have or be entitled to in any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, and shall not within Six Months next after his, her, or their accepting such Trust, or coming to the Knowledge of such Interest, Share, Proportion, or Concern, as aforesaid, truly discover and disclose in Writing the same to the said United Company, or their Court of Directors for the time being, every Person so Offending shall forfeit Treble the Value of the Interest, Share, Proportion, or Concern, so accepted in Trust, or so known, and not discovered, as aforesaid; One Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them, who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparance; or otherwise, such Offender and Offenders shall, at the Discretion of the Court, where the Prosecution is commenced, suffer Imprisonment by the Space of One whole Year, without Bail or Painsize.

Subjects accepting such Shares, &c. in Trust, not discovering in Six Months, forfeit Treble Value, or imprisonment for a Year.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person, who shall, within the Time above limited for that Purpose, voluntarily come to the Court of Directors of the said United Company, and make a true Discovery in Writing of the Interest, Share, Part, Proportion, or Concern, of any of his Majesty's Subjects in the Capital, Principal, or Stock, of any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, then every such Person, making such Discovery, shall have and receive, out of the Forfeitures arising or to arise upon or by virtue of this Act, by, from, and out of the Estate or Estates of such Person and Persons, so interested or concerned in any such Foreign Company, Society, or Corporation, as aforesaid, One Moiety or Half-part of the Clear Amount of such Forfeitures; and the Court, in which the Prosecution against such Offender or Offenders shall be commenced, shall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby directed to award to the Person making such Discovery, such Reward, as aforesaid.

Persons within the Time limited Discovering, to have Moiety of the Forfeitures.

VI. X. And

X. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and also the said Acts made in the Fifth and Seventh Years of His said present Majesty's Reign, in all and every the Clauses, Articles, and Parts thereof, shall be and be deemed, construed, and adjudged to be Publick Acts, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: And furthermore, that the said Act made in the Fifth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, shall stand, continue, and be in full Force and Virtue for Seven Years, to be computed from the five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer; Any thing therein to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

This Act and the Acts 5 and 7 Geo. Publick Acts.

Acts Geo continued for seven Years, &c.

XI. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said United Company shall first inform, sue, or prosecute for any the Offences committed contrary to all or any the Laws or Statutes made for encouraging, settling, or securing to the said Company the Lawful Trade to and from the East-Indies, or for preventing any unlawful Trade thereto or therefrom, that then the Part, Share, and Proportion of the Penalties and Forfeitures otherwise given or appointed, in and by any of the said Acts, to any other Person or Persons that should sue or inform for the same, shall devolve upon, and be to the Use of the said United Company, although such Information, Suit, or Prosecution be commenced by the said Company after the Time limited by Law for the Suit, Prosecution, or Information of the common Informer is elapsed.

If the Company first inform, the Part of the Forfeitures shall devolve upon them.

XII. Provided always, That if any Suit or Prosecution shall be commenced upon or by virtue of any the aforesaid former Act or Acts, then and in such Case the Offender or Offenders shall not be sued or prosecuted upon this Act, or any Branch or Article thereof, except such Suit or Prosecution be by Bill or Bills of Complaint in the said Courts of Chancery or Exchequer.

If Suit be commenced on the former Acts, Offenders not to be sued on this Act, except by Bill of Complaint.

Several Clauses in An Act, Intituled, An Act for Repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste imported; and for granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for Prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paste; and for better ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts imported; and for granting Relief to Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath.

MAY it please Your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William (of Glorious Memory) Intituled, (An Act for Granting to His Majesty several Additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices, towards Satisfaction of the Debts due for Transport-Service for the Reduction of Ireland) several Additional and other Duties and Impositions herein after mentioned, were granted to His Majesty for and upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, and Tea, which should be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time after the first Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred and ninety five, and before the Second Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred and ninety eight, over and above all Duties before that Time payable for the same at the Custom-House: That is to say, For every Hundred Weight of Coffee imported, as aforesaid, accounting One hundred and twelve Pounds to the Hundred, fifty six Shillings of lawful English Money: For every Hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts imported, and containing, as aforesaid, from any the Plantations belonging to the Crown of England, fifty six Shillings: For every Hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts imported, and containing, as aforesaid, from any other Country or Place, from whence they may by Law be imported, Four Pounds and four Shillings of like lawful English Money: For every Pound of Chocolate ready made, imported as aforesaid, One Shilling: For every Pound of Cocoa Paste imported, as aforesaid, Two Shillings: For every Pound of Tea regularly imported, as aforesaid from whence the same might have been lawfully imported before the making that Act, One Shilling: For every Pound of Tea imported, as aforesaid, from Holland, or any other Country, not the Place of its Growth or usual Shipping, Two Shillings and Six Pence

Recital of granting several Additional Duties for Terms, and of making them Perpetual, but subject to Redemption.

Pence per Pound Weight, and so proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity of any of the Commodities imported, as aforesaid, respectively : And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Third Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty <sup>3 A. cap. 4.</sup> Queen Anne, Intituled, (An Act for Continuing Duties upon Low-Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins ; and for granting New Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callicoes, China-Ware and Drugs ) several New and Additional Rates and Sums of Money herein after mentioned, were granted to Her said Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all and all manner of Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, and Tea, which should be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time or Times after the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and four, and before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and ten, over and above all Duties and Additional Duties before that Time payable for the same, or any of them, by any other Law then in Force, and over and above the Duties herein before mentioned, the New and Additional Rates and Sums of money following : That is to say, For every Hundred Weight of Coffee imported as aforesaid, accounting One hundred and twelve Pounds to the Hundred, fifty six Shillings of lawful English Money : For every Hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts imported, and containing, as aforesaid, from any the Plantations belonging to the Crown of England, fifty six Shillings : For every hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts imported, and containing, as aforesaid, from any other Country or Place, from whence they may by Law be imported, Four Pounds and Four Shillings of like lawful English Money : For every Pound of Chocolate ready made and imported, as aforesaid, One Shilling : For every Pound of Cocoa Paste imported as aforesaid, Two Shillings : For every Pound of Tea regularly imported, as aforesaid, from whence the same might lawfully have been imported before the making of the said Act of the Sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, One Shilling : <sup>6 W. 3. cap. 7.</sup> For every Pound of Tea imported as aforesaid, from Holland, or any other Country, not the Place of its Growth or usual Shipping, Two Shillings and Six Pence, and so proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity of any the Commodities imported, as aforesaid, respectively : Which said several Rates and Duties herein before particularly mentioned, were, by several Acts of Parliament, continued and made payable to Her said Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen : And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, ( Intituled, An Act for Enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to Her Majesty for the Service of the Year, One thousand seven hundred and nine ) all the said several Rates and Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, and Tea, herein before particularly mentioned, which should be imported or brought into Great Britain, from and after the Twenty third Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen, should be paid and payable to Her said Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in the said last mentioned Act expressed, subject nevertheless to the Proviso or Condition of Redemption in the same Act contained relating thereto : And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, amongst other things for laying Additional Duties upon Hides and Skins, Tallow and Parchment, and New Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, Oils and Silber Wire, several New Rates and Duties upon all Coffee, and Tea, which should be imported or brought into Great Britain, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of Thirty two Years, to be reckoned from the Seventeenth Day of <sup>7 A. cap. 7.</sup> June, <sup>10 A. cap. 26.</sup>

June, One thousand seven hundred and twelve; over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon, or payable for the same; (That is to say) For all Coffee imported, as aforesaid, Twelve Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity: For all kinds of Tea imported from any Place or Places, within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company, Two Shillings for every such Pound Weight; and for all kinds of Tea imported from any other Place or Places, Five Shillings for every such Pound Weight, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities of Tea: And whereas by an Act made in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign, amongst other things, for Redecimring the Duties and Revenues, which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on Four Lottery Acts, passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her said late Majesty's Reign, the said last mentioned Rates and Duties upon Coffee and Tea are continued and made Payable to Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in the same Act prescribed and directed, subject to such Proviso's and Powers of Redemption, as are in and by the same Act contained and prescribed of and concerning the same, as by the said several Acts, Relation being had to them respectively, more at large may appear: And whereas the Duties now subsisting upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste, are or may be very much lessened, not only by the clandestine Importation thereof from Parts beyond the Seas, but also by the fraudulent Re-landing of the same, after the same have been exported from this Kingdom for Foreign Parts, and the Duties thereupon drawn back, without paying any Duties for the same, contrary to the true intent and Meaning of the several Acts relating to the said Duties, and to the Ruin of the fair Traders in the said Commodities: For Remedy whereof, and for the more effectual securing a Revenue to Your Majesty, to arise by the said Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste, We Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty, that it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, the several Duties upon Coffee and Tea granted (by the said Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King William the Third, and by the said Act of Parliament made in the Third Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and by the said Act of Parliament made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne) for several Terms of Years in the said respective Acts mentioned, and which have been since continued by several Acts of Parliament, and made Perpetual (subject to Redemption by Parliament, as aforesaid;) and the several Duties upon Cocoa Nuts, granted (by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King William, and by the said Act of the Third Year of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne) for several Terms of Years in the same respective Acts mentioned, and which have been since continued by several Acts of Parliament, and made Perpetual, (subject to Redemption by Parliament, as aforesaid) shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; Any thing in the before mentioned Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, no Chocolate, ready made, or Cocoa Paste, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any Part or Parts beyond the Seas, and upon Pain of forfeiting all Reasons for Repealing the said Additional Duties, and for granting Inland Duties instead thereof.

From the 24th of June, 1724: the said former Additional Duties to cease, &c.

these Inland Duties.

VII. And for the better Ascertaining, Charging, Collecting, Lebying, Raising, and Securing the several Rates and Duties by this Act imposed upon all Coffee and Tea, which shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain, and upon all Chocolate, which shall be made or sold in Great Britain, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, and for preventing Frauds concerning the same: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons, as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain for the time being, shall, from time to time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be His Majesty's Commissioners for the Receipt and Management of the said Inland Duties by this Act set and imposed upon Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, as aforesaid, within Great Britain; which said last mentioned Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, shall, and have hereby Pow-

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Chocolate, as shall or ought to be entered upon or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall, within Fourteen Days after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, and all such Chocolate, as shall or ought to be entered upon or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, in any other Part of Great Britain, shall, within Six Weeks next after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, be brought to the respective Offices where the same Entries shall or ought to be made, inclosed and tied up in like manner as is before directed, and shall then have such Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device affixed thereon, as aforesaid.

All Chocolate, after the End of the said 6 Weeks, found unstamped, and in Custody of any Seller or Dealer, forfeited.

Every Maker and Seller of Chocolate to forfeit 20 s. for every Pound of Chocolate not stamped.

After the said 6 Weeks, all Chocolate found removing without a Stamp, forfeited.

For counterfeiting such Stamp, or Selling Chocolate with a counterfeit Stamp, the Party forfeits 500 l. and is to suffer 12 Months Imprisonment.

XXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the End of the said last mentioned Six Weeks, all such Chocolate, as shall be found in the Possession or Custody of any Baker or Seller of Chocolate (other than and except such Chocolate, for which the Duties granted by this Act shall not have been become due or payable) without such Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device thereon, shall be forfeited, and such Baker or Seller of Chocolate shall further forfeit and pay Twenty Shillings for every Pound Weight of such Chocolate so found in his or her Custody or Possession without such Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device, as aforesaid; and all such Chocolate as, from and after the End of the last mentioned Six Weeks, shall be found removing from one Place to another without such Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and may be seized for his Majesty's Use, together with the Package containing the same.

XXII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall at any time counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged, any such Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device, which shall be provided and made use of in Pursuance of this Act, or shall utter, vend, or sell any Chocolate with such counterfeit Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, then every such Person or Persons, so offending therein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and also shall be committed to the next County Goal, there to remain for Twelve Months without Bail or Mainprize.

XXIII. And whereas many of his Majesty's Subjects have been accustomed, or may be disposed, to make or cause Chocolate to be made not for Sale, or to make any Profit thereof, but to be consumed in their own Private Families; for the better Accommodation of such Persons, It is hereby Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, in case any such Person or Persons shall be minded to make any Quantity of such Chocolate at his, her, or their own private House, or any other Place, and shall give Notice in Writing, under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, of such his, her, or their Intention to make such Chocolate, to the Officer for the said Duties hereby set and imposed, of the Division or Place in which such Chocolate for private Use is intended to be made, by the Space of Three Days at the least, before his, her, or their beginning to work or make, or causing to be worked or made, such Chocolate, in which Notice shall be particularly specified the Weight or Quantity of Cocoa Nuts designed to be so made into Chocolate, the Name or Names of the Person or Persons to be employed in the Making or Working thereof, and the House or Place where the same Chocolate is to be so made, then, and in every such Case, such Officer or Officers shall sign or give a Permission in Writing, under his or their respective Hand or Hands, without Fee Reward, for the making or Working such Quantity of Chocolate by such Person or Persons, and at such Place or Places, as shall be so notified, as aforesaid; and such House or Place shall not, in respect of the making such Chocolate there, be subject or liable to be surveyed, visited, or inspected by such Officers, as aforesaid; Any thing in this Act before contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Chocolate made in private Families.

Upon Three Days Notice Officer may give private Persons Permissions to make Chocolate for private Use only.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case the Chocolate so made, as aforesaid, for private Use, the Person or Persons, who shall work or make the same, or for whose Use the same shall be worked or made, do and shall, within Three Days after the finishing the Working or Making the Quantity of Chocolate, so permitted to be made for private Use, make, or cause to be made, an Entry on Oath with the proper Officer before directed to take Entries of Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, in the Division, District, or Place, where such Chocolate shall be made, as aforesaid, of the whole Quantity of Chocolate then made by Virtue of such Permit, and shall bring or produce, or cause to be brought or produced, all such Chocolate so made ready, wrapped up, or inclosed, as before is directed, to have such Mark, Stamp, Impression or Device affixed thereon, and at the same time shall pay, or cause to be paid, the Duty hereby imposed for the same Chocolate; and that in Default of such Entry, Marking, or Stamping, and Payment of such Duties, as aforesaid, all such Chocolate, as shall not be entered, marked, or stamped, or for which such Duties, shall not be paid, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and the Person or Persons for whom the same shall be made, shall forfeit to his Majesty Treble the Value thereof.

But if within Three Days after finishing such Chocolate, it is not entered, brought to be stamped, and the Duty paid, the Party forfeits the Chocolate, and treble the Value.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be permitted to work, or make into Chocolate, for his, her, or their own private Use, any Quantity of Cocoa Nuts less than half one hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts at a time; Any thing in this Act before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Less than half an hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts at each time not to be made into Chocolate for private Use.

XXVI. And for the better securing the Inland Duties by this Act granted upon Coffee and Tea sold to be consumed in this Kingdom, and upon Chocolate, which shall be made and sold in Great Britain, by Wholesale or Retail, and to the Intent that the same may not be too burthensome on the Importers of such Coffee and Tea, as shall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas; It is hereby Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand

After 24 June, 1714. Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts imported, to be entered at the Custom-house, and put into a Ware-house provided by the Importer, and approved by the Commissioners of Customs.

Securities to be discharged upon Certificate, or on Proof the Goods were taken or perished in the Seas.

XXVII. And for preventing all clandestine importing or bringing of Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts into this Kingdom of Great Britain, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, shall import or bring any Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts (which ought to be secured in such Ware-house, as aforesaid) into Great Britain, and shall not make due Entries thereof, and bring the same into the said Ware-house, or Ware-houses, as aforesaid, the same shall be, and is hereby adjudged to be clandestinely run, and unlawfully imported, and the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or for the said Inland Duties hereby granted; and such Person or Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, offending therein, shall forfeit and lose all the Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts so clandestinely run, or unlawfully imported, together with the Canisters, Bags, Casks or other Vessels or Things containing the same, and the Horses, Carts and other Carriages made use of in the carrying of the same.

Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, imported, not so entered and brought to such Ware-house, and the Package thereof, and Horses employed brought in carrying thereof, may be seized.

XXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Dispute shall arise whether the Customs or Inland Duties payable for any Coffee or Tea, or the Customs for any Cocoa Nuts, which shall be seized in Pursuance of this Act, have been duly paid, or that the same or any Part thereof have been condemned as forfeited, the Proof thereof shall lie on the Owner or Claimer thereof, or the Person or Persons on whom the same shall be found, and not on the Officer.

Upon any Disputes, the Proof to lie on the Claimer.

XXIX. And for preventing the clandestine carrying the said Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts out of the said Ware-houses, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Keeper or Keepers of the said Ware-house and Ware-houses, who shall be appointed by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, and the Person or Persons, who shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the said Inland Duties granted by this Act to attend the said respective Ware-houses, shall each of them keep One or more Book or Books, wherein they shall respectively and separately fairly enter in Writing all exact, particular, and true Account of all Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts, which from time to time shall be brought into Every Ware-house-keeper, &c. to keep a Book or Books for entering all Coffee, &c. brought in, and carried out, and to transmit Accounts, to the respective Commissioners.

and carried out of the respective Ware-house or Ware-houses, to which he or they shall respectively belong, and the Days and Times when the same shall be so brought in and carried out, and how much thereof was delivered out to be consumed and spent in Great Britain, and how much for Exportation, and the Names of the respective Person or Persons, to whom or for whose Use the same was delivered out; and shall, at the End of every Six Months, or oftner, if required, transmit in Writing an Account thereof upon Oath to the respective Commissioners of the Customs, and for the said Inland Duties hereby granted for the time being, under whom they respectively serve, together with an exact Account of how much shall be remaining in the respective Ware-house or Ware-houses to which they respectively belong; And the said Commissioners of the Customs, and the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties, severally and respectively are hereby required and enjoined, within One Month after the same shall be respectively transmitted to them, as aforesaid, to appoint One or more Person or Persons to inspect the said respective Book or Books, Ware-house or Ware-houses, and to examine the same Accounts; and if upon Examination it shall appear that any of the said Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, were delivered out otherwise than as aforesaid, or before Payment of his Majesty's Inland Duties for such of the said Coffee, and Tea, as shall have been sold to be consumed in Great Britain, or giving such Security, as aforesaid, for such of the said Coffee, or Tea, which shall be delivered out for Exportation, as aforesaid, then the Ware-house-keeper or Ware-house-keepers, and Officer or Officers respectively offending therein, shall not only be disabled to hold or enjoy any Publick Office or Employment, but shall also forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, so to be lodged in any such Ware-house or Ware-houses, as aforesaid, to affix One Lock to every such Ware-house, the Key of which shall remain in the Custody of such Proprietor or Proprietors, and to and for the Officer or Officers to be appointed by the said Commissioners for the said Inland Duties, to attend such Ware-house or Ware-houses, to affix One other Lock upon every such Ware-house or Ware-houses, the Key whereof to remain in the Custody of the said Officer for the said Inland Duties; and the said Proprietor and Proprietors shall and may, in the Presence of the said Ware-house-keeper or Ware-house-keepers, and Officer or Officers appointed for the said Inland Duties (who are hereby obliged to attend at all reasonable times for that Purpose) view, sort and receive out of the said Ware-house or Ware-houses, the said Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, or any Part thereof in manner following; That is to say, Such of the said Coffee or Tea, which shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain, upon paying the Inland Duties hereby charged thereon, to the Persons and in the Manner herein before prescribed; and such of the said Cocoa Nuts, as are intended to be made into Chocolate in Great Britain, upon making an Entry thereof in the Manner before prescribed, and giving Permits and Certificates, as is before directed; and such of the said Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts, as shall be sold for Exportation, upon giving such Security as is before in that behalf expressed.

XXXI. And for the more effectual securing the said Inland Duties upon Coffee by this Act imposed, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties for the time being, or the major part of them, if they shall think it convenient and necessary, from time to time, to provide such and so many Houses, as they shall judge expedient, and at such Places as they shall think most proper, for the Roasting of all such Coffee Berries as shall be brought to them respectively for that Purpose,

At the End of every Six Months, or oftner, if required.

If, upon examining such Accounts, it shall appear, that any Coffee, &c. has been unduly delivered out, Ware-house-keeper, &c. to be incapable of any Office, and to forfeit 100*l*.

Proprietor of such Coffee, &c. and such Ware-house-keeper, &c. each to have a Lock and Key.

Ware-house-keepers, and Officers for Inland Duties to attend at reasonable times.

Commissioners for the Inland Duties may provide Roasting-houses, and Officers to attend.

Purpose, and shall constitute and appoint such Officers, as they shall think necessary, for attending the same, and One or more Person or Persons at each House, well skilled in the Roasting of Coffee, who are constantly to attend at such Roasting House for that Purpose, and also proper Materials for the Roasting thereof; to which all Importers, Sellers, and Dealers in Coffee, either by Wholesale or Retail, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, may resort to have their Coffee Berries roasted, bringing a Certificate from some or one of the Officers for the said Inland Duties, that the Duty of such Coffee Berries, so brought to be roasted, hath been paid, or that the same was Part of the Stock in hand of some Dealer in Coffee on the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, or that the same had been condemned as forfeited; for the Roasting of which Coffee no more shall be paid than Eight Shillings for every One hundred Weight Averdupois thereof, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

8 s. per Hundred Weight, to be paid for roasting Coffee.

XXXII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Sellers and Dealers in Coffee, either by Wholesale or Retail, to appoint such Person or Persons, as he or they shall respectively think proper for the Roasting of their Coffee Berries in such Houses to be provided, as aforesaid, who shall be permitted to roast the same therein accordingly, paying only Three Shillings for every Hundred Weight thereof, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

Sellers and Dealers may send their own Roaster, Paying 3 s. per Hundred Weight only.

XXXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the providing of such Roasting-houses, and during the Continuance of the same for the Purposes aforesaid, no Coffee Berries shall be roasted, burnt, or dried in Great Britain, in order to make the same fit for Sale, but in some One of those Houses to be provided, as aforesaid, upon Pain of forfeiting the Coffee which shall be so roasted, burnt, or dried in any Place, other than in some One of those Houses to be provided, as aforesaid, and the Sum of five Shillings for every Pound Weight of Coffee Berries, which shall be so roasted, burnt, or dried in any other Place than in some One of the said Houses to be provided, as aforesaid, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

During the continuing such Houses, no Coffee for Sale to be roasted elsewhere, on forfeiting the Coffee and 5 s. per Pound.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer or Officers, Roaster or Roasters of Coffee, who shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties hereby granted, to attend such Roasting-houses, as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to give due Attendance at such Roasting-houses, for the Roasting of such Coffee, as shall be brought thither for that Purpose, such Officer or Officers so neglecting or refusing shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Ten Pounds for such his or their first Offence therein; and in case such Officer or Officers shall afterwards offend in the same nature a second time, such Officer or Officers, for such second Offence, shall respectively forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and also from thenceforth be incapable of holding any Office or Employment in any Branch of his Majesty's Revenues: Provided always, That no Seller or Dealer in Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, shall receive out of any of the publick Ware-houses aforesaid, any less Quantity of Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, than One hundred Weight of each Sort at one time, except in such particular Cases where the Importation and Delivering into such Ware-houses shall be in less Quantities or Parcels, or where the said Goods shall be publicly sold by any Lot or Lots, Parcel or Parcels, in less Quantities than One hundred Weight of each Sort.

Officer or Roaster not attending, forfeits for first Offence 10 l. for second 20 l. and to be incapable, &c.

No Dealer, &c. to receive out of such Ware-house less than 100 Weight of Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts at one time: Except where the Importation or Sale is in less Quantities.

XXXV. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better ascertaining the Quantities of all Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, and Chocolate, which shall, from time to time, be sold, all Sellers and Dealers therein, or in any of them,

All Sellers of, &c. and Keepers of Coffee and Chocolate-houses, to keep Accounts of Quantities less than 6 Pounds of Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate daily sold or consumed, and the Totals to be every Night set down in a Book.

The like Sellers, &c. in one other Book to set down each Parcel sold, &c. being above 6 Pounds.

Such Parcels above 6 Pounds not to be removed without Permit from the Officer for the Inland Duties.

Such Books to be prepared by the Commissioners for the Inland Duties.

No Seller to have at the same time above one Book of each sort.

Such Books, when filled up, to be delivered back upon Oath.

Books to kept to lie open to be perused by Officers for the Inland Duties.

Refusers to keep such Books, make such Entries, or to permit Officers to inspect them, or not delivering them back, or for making false Entries, forfeit 100*l*.

and all Bakers of Chocolate, and all Coffee-house-keepers and Chocolate-house-keepers, who shall sell or consume the same, or any of them, in small Quantities under the Weight of Six Pounds, shall and are hereby obliged and directed, from time to time, after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, to keep an Account of all such Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, and Cocoa Nuts, which they, or any of them, respectively shall so sell or consume in small Quantities in each Day, and shall every Night enter in a Book, to be kept for that Purpose, an Account of the Gross Quantities of the said several Commodities, which have been by him, her, or them respectively so retailed or consumed in that Day in small Quantities under the said Weight of Six Pounds; and the said Sellers or Dealers in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, and Chocolate, and Coffee-house-keepers and Chocolate-house-keepers shall also keep One other Book, wherein they shall respectively enter each Parcel of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate, above the Weight of Six Pounds, which they shall respectively sell in each Day; which said Parcels of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate, above the Weight of Six Pounds, shall not be removed out of the respective Seller's Custody, without a Permit or Certificate signed by some Officer for the said Duties, expressing the Quantity and Quality of the Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate so sold, and the Name of the Persons so selling, and the Persons so buying the same, and the Place to which the same is intended to be carried, and that the Duties by this Act charged on the Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, where paid, or that the Cocoa Nuts were entered, or that the same were condemned as forfeited, or were Part of the Stock in hand of some Person or Persons, expressing their Names, of which an Account had been taken on or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four; which said Books shall be, and are hereby directed to be prepared for the making such Entry, as aforesaid, and delivered upon Demand unto the respective Sellers and Dealers in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, and Chocolate, by the Commissioners, for the said Inland Duties, or such Person or Persons, as they the same Commissioners for the said Inland Duties shall for that Purpose direct and appoint: Provided always, That no such Seller or Dealer, as aforesaid, shall have in his, her, or their Custody, more than One such Book of each Sort at a time; and when the said Books in their Custody shall be filled up, the same are hereby directed, from time to time, to be returned to the respective Officer or Officers for the said Inland Duties, from whom the same were respectively received, upon the Oath, or in Case of a Quaker, upon the Solemn Affirmation of such Sellers or Dealers, as aforesaid, or his, her, or their Servant or Servants, who kept the same, and made the Entries therein, of the Truth of such Entries, according to the best of his, her, or their Knowledge and Belief; and One or more new Book or Books shall thereupon be delivered to such respective Sellers or Dealers, in the Room of such Book or Books so returned, and so toties quoties, as often as such Book or Books shall be filled up with such Entries; which said Books so kept by such respective Sellers or Dealers shall, from time to time, lie open, to be perused by the Officers for the said Inland Duties hereby granted, the better to enable them to make their Charges of such Duties, and keep their Stocks of the Increase and Decrease of the respective Commodities charged therewith: Provided always, That if any such Seller or Dealer in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate, shall neglect or refuse to keep such Books, and make such Entries therein, or to permit the said Officers for the said Duties to inspect them, or not return the said Books according to the Direction of this Act, or shall make any false Entry in such Book or Books, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXVI. And whereas several Quantities of Coffee and Tea have been or may be imported, and upon Importation thereof, the Duties, which by Law remain to the Crown on Exportation only, have been paid or secured, Part of which Coffee or Tea may, upon the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, be in some One or more of the Ware-house or Ware-houses appointed in Pursuance of the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, under the Care and Custody of the respective Proprietors thereof, and the respective Ware-house-keepers appointed by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs for that Purpose; all the Duties of which said Coffee and Tea, which are, in Pursuance of this Act, to cease and determine on the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, not having been paid for the same; It is therefore Provided, Enacted, and Declared, by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, so much only of the several and respective Inland Duties by this Act set and imposed upon Coffee and Tea, as have not been paid for the Duties hereby determined, shall be and are hereby set, imposed, and chargeable upon all the said Coffee and Tea respectively, which shall be so found in such Ware-house or Ware-houses upon or after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four.

Coffee and Tea in Ware-houses on the 24 June, 1724. having paid only such Duties as belong to the Crown after the Exportation.

Charged with the remainder of the Inland Duties.

XXXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Coffee and Tea so found in such Ware-house or Ware-houses, shall, within One Month next after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, or upon Delivery thereof out of the said Ware-houses, before the Expiration of the said Month, make an Entry at the Custom-house of all such Coffee and Tea so found, and shall pay or secure the remaining Customs or Duties due thereon, which, notwithstanding this Act, are still to be paid or secured at the Custom-house at the Importation thereof, that is to say, the Old Subsidy, the New Subsidy, the One Third Subsidy, and the Two Thirds Subsidy, and the Additional Impost, and on Failure thereof, all such Coffee and Tea shall be forfeited and lost; and in case the said Coffee and Tea, or any Part thereof, shall be exported within the Time allowed by Law for that Purpose from the Importation thereof, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall, on a proper Debenture, be entitled to draw back all the Duties that shall have been paid on such Importation, or the Security for the same shall be vacated, as to so much thereof as shall be exported (except Half of the Old Subsidy so paid or secured, as aforesaid, which is to remain to the Crown) and upon Payment of the Inland Duty for so much of the said Coffee and Tea, as shall remain unexported, the Securities given in respect of the same Coffee and Tea, shall also be vacated; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Importer to Enter them at the Custom-house within a Month after 24 June, 1724. or upon delivery thereof, it delivered out sooner.

And if the Old Duties thereof are not paid or secured in that time, the Coffee and Tea forfeited.

If such Coffee and Tea is exported in time, to Drawback the Duties, or the Security vacated.

On paying the Inland Duties for what is not exported, the Securities to be vacated.

XXXVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of the said Duties granted by this Act, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, from time to time, to enter into all and every such last mentioned Ware-house or Ware-houses, wherein such Coffee and Tea, or any of them, shall be kept, and to weigh and take an Account of the respective Quantities thereof, and the respective Proprietors of the same, and to and for the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties, or the major part of them, to appoint One or more Ware-house-keeper or Ware-house-keepers, of such Ware-house or Ware-houses of such Coffee and Tea; which said Ware-house-keeper or Ware-house-keepers so appointed for the same Ware-house or Ware-houses last mentioned respectively, shall and may affix One Lock upon every such Ware-house or Ware-houses, the Key whereof shall remain in the Custody of such Ware-house-keeper or Ware-house-keepers Officers for the inland Duties to enter such last mentioned Ware-houses, and to take Account of Coffee and Tea.

Commissioners for the Inland Duties to appoint Ware-house-keepers.

Such Coffee and Tea not to be taken out of such Ware-houses without paying the Inland Duties.

Such Ware-house-keepers to keep Books, and transmit Accounts to the Commissioners for the Inland Duties.

Such Ware-house-keepers liable to the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, as before.

Coffee, Tea, &c. concealed, &c. by any Seller or Dealer.

And the Treble Value forfeited.

For assaulting &c. Officer, &c. or for refusing, destroying, or damaging Coffee, &c. seized.

Penalty 50*l*.

All Penalties and Forfeitures, as well Specifick as Pecuniary, to be sued for, &c. as by the Laws of Excise, or by Action, &c. in Westminster or Edinburgh.

One Moiety to the King, the other to the Informer.

keepers respectively; which said Coffee or Tea, so remaining in such Ware-house or Ware-houses, shall not be taken from or out of the same, without first paying the respective Duties imposed thereon by this Act: And the said last mentioned Ware-house-keeper and Ware-house-keepers, shall keep such and the like Books, and make such and the like Entries therein, and transmit such and the like Accounts in Writing upon Oath to the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties hereby granted, and do and perform all such other Matters and Things, with respect to the Coffee and Tea, which shall be so under their Care and Inspection, as are prescribed, directed and required to be done and performed by the Ware-house-keepers, who shall be appointed, in pursuance of this Act, for the Ware-houses, in which all Coffee and Tea, which shall be imported into Great Britain, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, are directed to be kept, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as the said first mentioned Ware-house-keeper and Ware-house-keepers are subjected and liable unto by Virtue of this Act for any Offence or Neglect by them committed against this Act.

XXXIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Seller or Dealer in Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, or any Baker or Seller of Chocolate, shall hide or conceal any Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate, from the Sight or View of the Officers of the said Inland Duties by this Act granted, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty of the same, the Person or Persons offending therein, shall forfeit and lose all such Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, and Chocolate, which shall be found so concealed, and Treble the Value thereof, and also all Casks, Bags, Boxes, Jars, Cans, and other Vessels, and Package, containing the same.

XL. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, obstruct, or hinder any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or for the Duties by this Act granted, in the due seizing or securing of any Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, or Chocolate, which by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or for the Duties hereby granted, shall or may be seized by Virtue or in Pursuance of this or any other Act or Acts now in Force, or hereafter to be made, or shall by Force or Violence rescue, or shall cause to be rescued, any of the said Commodities, after the same shall have been seized by such Officer or Officers, as aforesaid, or shall attempt or endeavour so to do, or after such Seizure shall stab, break, or otherwise destroy or damage any Vessels or Package, wherein the same shall be contained, all and every the Party or Parties so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XLI. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines and Penalties, and all Forfeitures, as well Specifick as Pecuniary, relating to the Inland Duties by this Act imposed, or to the Commodities hereby prohibited to be imported, or to any Seizures made in pursuance of this Act, shall be sued for, levied, and recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws relating to his Majesty's Revenues of Excise, or any of them, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for any thing done in that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, for any thing done in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and that One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that shall seize, inform, and sue for the same.

XLII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Persons, as shall, for the time being, be in pursuance of this Act, appointed Commissioners for the Duties on Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, arising or to arise in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or the major part of them, shall have and exercise the same or like Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and may judge, determine, mitigate, or order, in all Cases and Matters relating to the Duties arising within the Limits aforesaid, as the Commissioners of Excise upon Beer and Ale, and other Liquors, may or lawfully can or ought to exercise, adjudge, determine, mitigate, or order in like Cases or Matters in relation to the said Duties on Excise; and that the Judgments, which shall be so given in pursuance of this Act by the said Commissioners and Justices of the Peace respectively, shall be, and are hereby declared to be final, and not liable to be removed by Certiorari into any of the Courts at Westminster; Any Law, Statute, or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Commissioners for the Duties granted by this Act to have the like Powers, &c. as the Commissioners of Excise.

Judgments given by the Commissioners or Justices, pursuant to this Act not to be removed by Certiorari.

XLIII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person, who shall be appointed a Commissioner for the Duties by this Act granted, and every subordinate Officer under such Commissioners, who shall receive any Salary or Allowance in respect of his or their Office, shall, before he or they shall act in their respective Trusts, take an Oath for his and their due and faithful Execution of the same, according to this Act; which Oath shall and may be administered to any Commissioner by any other Person, who shall be appointed a Commissioner, as aforesaid, and to the said Officers respectively, by any One of the said Commissioners, or by One Justice of the Peace, who shall give to such Officer a Certificate thereof gratis.

All Commissioners and Officers to be sworn faithfully to execute this Act.

XLIV. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence in his Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff shall discontinue his Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him upon Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff.

General Issue may be pleaded.

Defendant to have Treble Costs.

XLV. And to the End all the Rates and Duties upon Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, consumed in Great Britain by this Act granted, may be duly and certainly raised, and the same (except the necessary Charges of Executing this Act) may be justly and duly brought into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, according to the true Meaning hereof, It is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from time to time there shall be appointed such and so many Commissioners and Officers as shall be proper and necessary for Managing, Raising, Collecting, and Paying the said several Rates and Duties herein before granted, and for keeping and rendering the Accounts of the same; and that the respective Commissioners and Officers concerned therein, shall perform their several Duties in relation to the Premises, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities for any Offence or Neglect therein, or for Detaining, Diverting, or Misapplying any Part of the Monies arising by the same Rates and Duties, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Commissioners and Officers for their Duties subject to the like Penalties as in 9 W. 3.

9 W. 3. cap. 44. Ninth Year of his late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled (An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding Two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies) for the like Offence or Neglect relating to the Duties thereby granted or referred unto, or for Detaining, Diverting, or Misapplying any Part of the Monies, which were granted or appropriated by the Act of Parliament last mentioned.

How the Money arising by the Inland Duties is to be applied.

XLVI. Provided always; and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That One moiety of the Monies, arising by the said Inland Duties by this Act charged and imposed upon all Coffee and Tea, and all the Money arising by the said Inland Duty by this Act charged upon all Chocolate, shall be appropriated, issued, and applied, and the same are hereby appropriated and made payable to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as the Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Cocoa Nuts, and Cocoa Paste, continued and made Perpetual by the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, <sup>7 A. cap. 7.</sup> were appropriated and applicable before the making of this present Act, and shall be also subject and liable to the same Redemption by Parliament, as the said Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Cocoa Nuts, and Cocoa Paste, continued and made Perpetual by the last mentioned Act, were by the same Act subjected and liable unto; and the remaining moiety of the Monies arising by the said Inland Duties by this Act charged and imposed upon all Coffee and Tea, as aforesaid, shall be appropriated, issued, and applied, and the same is hereby appropriated to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as the Duties upon Coffee and Tea, continued and made Perpetual by the said Act of the Third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George, <sup>3 Geo. cap. 7.</sup> were and stood appropriated and applicable before the making of this present Act; and shall also be subject and liable to the same Redemption by Parliament, as the said Duties upon Coffee and Tea, continued and made Perpetual by that Act were, by the said last mentioned Act, subjected and liable unto.

The Old Subsidy on imported Tea to be according to the reduced Value, and the other Subsidies and Additional Impost proportionably.

XLVII. And whereas by Law the several Subsidies and Additional Impost, payable upon Tea imported from any Place within the Limits of the East-India Company's Charter, are to be computed according to the Gross Price, at which such Tea is publicly sold by Auction or Inch of Candle, after the Deduction of the Customs, and other Duties payable thereon to his Majesty at Importation, and other Deductions; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Tea, imported, or to be imported, as aforesaid, shall from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, pay the Old Subsidy of Twelve Pence in the Pound, granted by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, according to the reduced Value thereof, after the Deductions before mentioned, and the several other Subsidies and Additional Impost upon Tea, are to be paid on the Importation thereof, according to such reduced Value proportionably; Any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. <sup>12 Car. 2. cap. 4.</sup>

Coffee rated at 7 l. per hundred Weight, Cocoa Nuts at 50 s. per hundred Weight. Imported after the 24 June, 1724.

XLVIII. And whereas the several Subsidies and Additional Impost upon Coffee and Cocoa Nuts imported, are by Law charged according to the Value, at which such Coffee and Cocoa Nuts are sworn by the Importers, which by Experience has been found to be very unequal, some Persons valuing the same at far lower Prices than others, to the Detriment of the Revenue, and the Discouragement of fair Traders: For Remedy thereof for the future, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, all Coffee imported shall be Rated at Seven Pounds for every hundred Weight, containing One hundred and twelve Pounds, and all Cocoa Nuts imported shall be Rated at Fifty Shillings for every hundred Weight, containing One hundred and twelve Pounds; and the Subsidy of Twelve Pence in the Pound, by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King Charles the Second, shall be paid according to such respective Rates of Seven Pounds and Fifty Shillings, and the further Subsidy, The One Third and Two Third Subsidies, and Additional Impost, shall be paid according to such Rates respectively, and not according to the Value sworn;

Sworn; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XLIX. And whereas over and above the Inland Duties by this Act charged upon Coffee and Tea imported, and upon Chocolate made in this Kingdom, the several Duties hereafter mentioned are by Law still payable at the Custom-house upon and for Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts imported, that is to say, the Old Subsidy, the New Subsidy, the One Third and the Two Third Subsidies, and the Additional Impost; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Subsidies, and Additional Impost, shall be paid or secured, and shall be raised, levied, and collected, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, with such Discounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as are mentioned and expressed in the several Acts of Parliament, which granted or continued the said respective Subsidies, and Additional Impost; and all Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the Raising, Levying, Collecting, Securing, Answering, and Paying the said respective Duties, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as the same might and ought to have been in case this Act had never been made; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Customs on Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts imported, to be paid, &c. according to the former Acts

L. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall give or grant, or extend, or be contrived to give or grant any Power, Authority, or Licence, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, to import any Tea into any of his Majesty's Dominions, but such only as could by Law import the same, and in such Manner as the same could be lawfully imported before the making of this Act; Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

This Act not to give any new Powers to import Tea.

LI. Provided also, and be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases, where it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any Three or more of them (who are hereby empowered and required to examine the Vatter upon Oath) that any Cocoa Nuts have been lawfully imported into this Kingdom before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, and that the Duties then payable by Law upon the Importation thereof have been paid, or secured to be paid, it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Importers thereof, to Export the same at any time or times before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five (Security against fraudulently Relanding the same being first given, as is usual in Cases of Exportation;) and upon such Exportation such and the same Drawbacks, Allowances and Advantages shall be had and allowed to such Importers or Proprietors respectively, as if the same had been exported within the respective Time or Times allowed by Law for the Exportation thereof: Provided such Cocoa Nuts shall, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, be brought into some or one of the Ware-houses to be appointed pursuant to this Act, or the Key or Keys of the Ware-house or Ware-houses, where the same are or shall be then kept, be, on or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, delivered to some or one of the Officers to be appointed for the said Inland Duties, to prevent Frauds in relation thereto; Any Law, Usage or Custom, or any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Cocoa Nuts lawfully imported before 29 Sept. 1723. may be exported before 25 June, 1725. and drawback the Duties on Security.

Provided such Cocoa Nuts be brought into such Ware-house, &c. or the Key delivered to the Officer for the Inland Duties before 24 June, 1724.

C. A. P. XVI.

An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fishery.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of their late Majesty King William and Queen Mary, for encouraging the Greenland Fishery, a Company was incorporated, exclusive of the rest of their then Majesty's Subjects, and by the said Act it was Enacted, That it should be lawful for the said Company, and for all and every the Ships and Vessels belonging thereto, or employed by the said Company, truly belonging to England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Masters should be Englishmen, and inhabiting within the Places aforesaid, and for no other Ship or Vessel whatsoever, from and after the First Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred and ninety three, until the First Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seven, employed for catching of Whales in the Greenland Seas, during such their Voyages to be navigated with One third of the Mariners, English at the least, and yet to pay no farther or other Custom for the Dyl, Blubber, or Fins, caught and imported in such Ships or Vessels, than if such Ships or Vessels had been navigated with Three fourths of the Mariners English: And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, [Intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties imposed on Glas Wares, and the whole Duties laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, and for granting (in lieu thereof) new Duties upon Whale Fins and Scotch Linen] It is amongst other Things Enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of July, One thousand six hundred and ninety eight, there should be answered and paid to his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, for and upon all Whale Fins, that should be taken, caught, and imported, in and by any Ships or Vessels whatsoever, of or belonging to the Company established for the Greenland Trade, the Sum of Three Pence, for every Pound Weight thereof, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Whale Fins, which are or shall be taken, caught, or imported by Foreigners, or by any Ships or Vessels not belonging to the said Company, the Sum of Six Pence for every Pound Weight thereof, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity: And whereas by an Act made in the First Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, of Glorious Memory, [Intituled, An Act for Enlarging and Encouraging the Greenland Trade] It is amongst other Things Enacted, That from and after the First Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and two, it should and might be lawful for any of her Majesty's Subjects whatsoever, that would adventure to Greenland for Fishing of Whales, to have and enjoy all the Privileges that were granted to the said Company by the aforesaid Act of Parliament, and should not pay any further or other Duty, than if they had been of the said Greenland Company; and that no Harpinner or other Foreigners that were permitted by the said Act for carrying on the said Fishery, should be impressed for her Majesty's Service: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament, made in the said First Year of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, the said Duty of Three Pence per Pound on Whale Fins caught, as aforesaid, is continued and since made payable to her said Majesty, her heirs and Successors, for ever, for the Purposes in the same Act prescribed and directed, subject to such Provisions and Powers of Redemption, as are in and by the said Act contained and prescribed, of and concerning the same, as by the said several Acts, Relation being had to them respectively, more at large may appear:

year: And whereas, notwithstanding the great Privileges granted by the several Acts of Parliament aforesaid, the Fishing in the Greenland Seas hath been intirely neglected by his Majesty's Subjects, and is like to continue so, as long as the Duty aforesaid is payable upon Whale Fins taken and caught in the said Seas, by Ships belonging to his Majesty's Subjects; and in regard that the permitting his Majesty's Subjects to import Oyl, Blubber, and Whale Fins, taken and caught in the said Seas, without paying any Duties for the same for a competent time, may very much contribute to the regaining the said Greenland Trade, and will encourage the Navigation, and promote the Consumption of the Manufactures of this Kingdom: Wherefore may it please Your Majesty, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, it shall and may be lawful for any of his Majesty's British Subjects, for and during the Space of Seven Years, to import Whale Fins, Oyl, and Blubber of Whales, taken and caught in the said Greenland Seas, in British Ships navigated according to Law, without paying any Custom, Subsidy, or other Duties for the same, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give Liberty of importing Whale Fins, Oyl, or Blubber, Duty free, unless the Captain, Master, or other Commanding Officer of the Ship or Vessel importing the same, shall first make Oath before some of One of the Commissioners or Principal Officer of the Customs in the Port or Place of Importation (who is and are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath) that all the Whale Fins, Oyl, and Blubber imported in such Ship or Vessel, was really, and bona fide, the Fins, Oyl, or Blubber of Whales, caught and taken in the said Greenland Seas, by the Crew of such Ships and Vessels only, whereof the Captain or Master, and One third Part at the least of the Partners, were British Subjects.

After 25 Dec.
1724 British Subjects may import Whale Fins, Oyl, and Blubber, Custom-free, for 7 Years.

Master to swear that the Whale Fins, &c. were caught in the Greenland Seas
by the Crew of the Ship, whereof the Master and One Third of the Mariners, were British.

Debts by them not paid.]

had the day he became first Officer or Accomptant, stood bound by Writing obligatory having the effect of a Statute of the Staple, to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors for the true Answering and Payment of the same Arrearages or Debts.

Certain cases wherein the Accomptants Lands may be sold.

And forasmuch as many Times it may come to pass, that the Queens Highness, her Heirs or Successors, shall not or may not be conveniently satisfied of the Debt to be determined or due upon any Accompt or Farm as is aforesaid, by way of Extent, for that the Yearly Value of the Lands extended will not satisfy her Highness, her Heirs or Successors, within the compass of many Years, so as thereby great Loss might ensue to her Highness, her Heirs and Successors; for remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That if any Treasurer, Receiver, Collector, Farmer, Customer, Teller, Collector of Custom, Subsidy or Impost, or other Person Accomptant before mentioned, which shall, from and after the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel now next coming, receive or be chargeable with Money or Treasure of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Heirs or Successors; and shall, upon the determining of his or their Accompt (all his and their due Petitions to them upon the same Accompt being allowed) or by reason of any Farm, as aforesaid, be found in Arrearages, to owe unto our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, any Sum or Sums of Money, and shall not within the Space of Six Months next after his or their Accompts finished, or Debt known, (having Allowance of his or their due and reasonable Petitions as is aforesaid) truly satisfy and pay all such Arrearages and Sums of Money as he or they shall owe, upon Determination of his or their Accompt, or upon his or their Debt known, as is aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful to the Queens Highness, her Heirs and Successors, at any Time, and from time to time, after the said Six Months ended, to make Sale by her or their Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, of so much of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of every such Accomptant or Debtor so being found in Arrearages, or in Debt, as is above mentioned, as may suffice our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, for the Satisfaction of his or their Debt or Arrearages, to be determined or adjudged upon his or their Accompt or Farm, as is aforesaid, (all due Petitions being allowed, as is aforesaid) until her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, be by such Sale fully satisfied and paid, of such Arrearages and Debt to be found upon Accompt or Farm, as is aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Sales to be made by the Queens Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, as is aforesaid, shall be good and available in Law against the Party accomptant indebted, as is aforesaid, and his Heirs claiming as Heirs, and against the Queens Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, notwithstanding any former Charge or Incumbrance to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by the Person or Persons for whose Debt or Duty the same shall fortune to be sold.

Lands purchased by Accomptants tho' in other Persons Names liable to the Crowns Debt.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons accomptant or indebted, as is aforesaid, shall at any Time after he or they shall become accomptant or chargeable, as is aforesaid, purchase and buy, or cause to be purchased and bought, any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and cause the Assurance thereof to be made in the Name of any other Person or Persons, where the same is indeed meant or intended to the use, profit or behoof of such Person accomptant or indebted, or of any other Person or Persons, and that the same manner of Purchasing, and secret Uses, Profits or Behoof, shall be found by Office or Inquisition, That then all and every Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so to be bought or purchased, or caused to be purchased (as is before mentioned in this last Proviso) shall by virtue of this Act, be taken, deemed, and used for the Satisfaction of the Arrearages and Debt of every such Accomptant or Debtor, as is above mentioned, to all intents and purposes, as though the Person or Persons indebted, upon his or their Accompt or Farm, were thereof actually seized of such Estate that was conveyed to any Person or Persons, by any such Accomptant or Debtor, or by his Means, as is aforesaid, and that all Sales to be thereof made by the Queens Majesty her Heirs and Successors, for Satisfaction of such Debt or Arrearages as shall be found, as is aforesaid, to be due and owing to our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Heirs and Successors, shall be of the like effect, and be used and done in such like Manner and Form, as is before expressed.

Provided always, That if the Lands and Tenements so to be seized, taken or sold by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, as is last above mentioned, do surmount after the Rate and Value aforesaid, the Debt and Arrearages to be set, determined and adjudged upon the Account of any Treasurer, Receiver, Teller, Customer, Collector or Accomptant before named, that then her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall take and seize only so much as shall amount after the Rate and Value aforesaid, to the just Payment and Satisfaction of such Debt and Arrearages, as hath been or shall be set, determined or adjudged upon his or their Account, as is aforesaid.

Only so much Land to be seized as will satisfy the Debt.

And be it further Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act or any thing therein contained, shall not in any wise extend to charge any Treasurer, Receiver, Teller, Customer, Collector or Accomptant aforesaid, having any Yearly Receipt, nor any their Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whose Yearly Receipt, Collection and Charge, or whose whole Receipt from the beginning of his Charge, is not or hath not been, or hereafter shall not be above the Sum of 300 l. otherwise, or in any other Manner and Form than he or they might lawfully have been charged before the making of this Act; Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Provided also, That this Act, as touching only the Sale of any Lands or Tenements, shall not extend to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which any Person or Persons now have or enjoy, and have purchased or obtained Bona fide, and not being privy or consenting unto any such Intent to defraud the Queens Majesty, as is aforesaid; and that it shall be lawful to every Person and Persons, whose Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall by any Office or Inquisition, be found to be fraudulently conveyed or assured, as is aforesaid, to have his or their lawful Traverse to every such Office or Inquisition; and if it be found with the Party that tendereth the Traverse, that then he shall have the said Lands out of the Princes Hands without any Petition, Livery, or Oustre le maine, or any other Suit to be had, made or used; and the same being found for such Person or Persons so traversing the same Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, shall be adjudged as not liable, chargeable, nor to be sold by force of this Statute.

Nor to Lands purchased Bona fide.

Any Party grieved may have the Traverse.

Provided also, and be it Enacted, That if the Queens Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall by any Sale of Lands by force of this Statute, be fully satisfied of the Debt or Arrearages of any such Accomptant or Debtor, or any Part thereof, then the Sureties of such Accomptant or Debtor shall be discharged of so much of the Debt, Forfeiture and Arrearages, as so shall be satisfied, and so for the Residue only, shall be ratably according to their Abilities charged; Any thing in this or any other Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, 13 Eliz. cap. 4. §. 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 10, 14, 15.

Upon Sale of the Accomptants Lands, his Sureties shall be discharged for so much.

For Redressing of divers Disorders in common Informers, and for better Execution of Penal Laws, be it Enacted, That every Informer upon any Penal Statute shall exhibit his Suit in proper Person, and pursue the same only by himself, or by his Attorney in Court; and that none shall be admitted or received to pursue against any Person or Persons upon any Penal Statute, but by way of Information, or Original Action, and not otherwise, nor shall have ne use any Deputy or Deputies at all; and that upon every such Information which shall be exhibited, a special Note be made of the very Day, Month and Year of the Exhibiting thereof into any Office, or to any Officer, which lawfully may receive the same, without any manner of Antedate thereof to be made, and that the same Information be accepted and taken to be of Record from that time forward, and not before: And be it likewise Enacted for the Consideration aforesaid, That no Process be sued out upon such Information, until the Information be exhibited in Form aforesaid, and that upon every such Process shall be indorsed as well the Parties Name that pursueth the same Process, as also the Statute upon which the Information in that behalf made, is grounded; and that every Clerk making out Process contrary to the Tenor and Provision of this Act, shall forfeit and lose Forty Shillings for every such Offence, the One half to be to the Queens Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other half to the Party against whom any such defective Process shall be awarded, to be recovered in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt or Information, in which no Essoin, Protection, Injunction or Wager of Law, shall be permitted or allowed.

Where in the Parliament holden at Westminster the Second Day of April in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Elizabeth, there was amongst other things an Act made, Entituled, An Act to make Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels of Tellers, Receivers, &c. liable to pay their Debts; upon which Act some Doubt and Question hath been moved, whether the Queens Highness, her Heirs and Successors, might for the Satisfaction of her and their Debts and Farms, by her or their Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, make Sale of all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whereof her Highness, her Heirs and Successors,

cessors, have Power or Authority to make Sale by virtue of the same Act, after the Death of such Accomptant or Debtor, as is mentioned in the said Act, or where the Accompt of such Accomptant or Debtor was not or is not made, or his or their Debt known in the Life-time of the same Accomptant or Debtor :

For Declaration and Explaining whereof, Be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That the said Act, in every Part thereof, touching the Power given by that recited Act unto her Highness, her Heirs and Successors, to make Sale of any the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments by the same Act limited to be sold, is, shall, and ought to be expounded and intended, as well in case where the Sale is to be made after the Death of such Accomptant or Debtor, as where it is to be made in his or their Life-time ; and also as well in case where the Accompt is made, or the Debt known within Eight Years after the Death of such Accomptant or Debtor, as where the same Accompt is made, or the Debt known in the Life-time of the same Accomptant or Debtor ; any Ambiguity or Question that hath risen or grown, or may arise, grow or be conceived upon the Letter of the same Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Sale to be of the Accomptants Lands as well after his Death as before.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Death of such Accomptant and Debtor as is mentioned in the said recited Act, and before such Time as any the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments descended unto the Heir of such Accomptant or Debtor, as Heir unto the same Accomptant or Debtor, shall be sold, as aforesaid, a Scire facias shall be awarded out of her Majesties Court of Exchequer, unto the Sheriff of the County where any such Lands do lie, to garnish the same Heir, to shew Cause why the same Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so to him descended, as aforesaid, should not be put to sale for Satisfaction of the said Debts or Farms in the same Act mentioned, according to the Tenour of the said Act ; whereupon if the Heir do not within a convenient Time upon a Garnishment or Two Nichils returned, shew and prove unto the said Court, that the Executors or Administrators of such Accomptant or Debtor have sufficient which ought to answer or be liable for the same Debt or Farm, and whereby the said Debt or Farm shall and may be duly and fully satisfied, That then after Ten Months next after such Two Nichils, or Garnishment returned, the same Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall be sold by her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the Money hereof coming, disposed according to the true Intent and Meaning of said former recited Act.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That this Act of Explanation shall extend only unto such as have been, or shall be Tellers, Receivers, Treasurers, Customers, Cofferers of the Households, Farmers of Impoit, Collectors, Bailiffs, Victuallers, and other Officers of Receipts and Accompts unto our Sovereign Lady the Queens Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and to every of them, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and to no other.

To what Accomptants this Statute shall extend.

Provided also, and be it likewise Enacted, That if the Heir of any Accomptant or Debtor before mentioned, shall happen to be within the Age of One and twenty Years when any such Process shall fortune to be awarded, that then during the time of his or her Nonage, this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not in any wise be extended, executed or put in use as touching or concerning only the selling of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments of any such Heir ; any thing in the same Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding : And yet nevertheless, after such Time as any such Heir shall accomplish the full Age of Twenty one Years, all and singular the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments descended unto the same Heir from any such Debtor or Accomptant, as aforesaid, shall at all times during the Space of Eight Years then next ensuing, be subject and liable to be sold for the Payment and Satisfaction of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, according to the Intent and true Meaning of this Act, in such Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Heir had been of full Age at the time of the Death of such Debtor or Accomptant, 27 Eliz. cap. 3. §. 1, 2, 3, 5, 7.

In any Declaration or Information, the County shall be expressed where the Offence was done.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in any Declaration or Information at any time after Twenty Days after the End of this Session of Parliament to be had, brought, sued or exhibited, the Offence against any Penal Statute shall not be laid to be done in any other County but where the Contract, or other Matter alledged to be the Offence, was in truth done: And that every Defendant, in such Action or Information, shall and lawfully may traverse and alledge, that the Offence supposed by the same Suit to be committed, was not committed in the County where such Offence is alledged, which being tried for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be thereupon Nonsuit in his Information or Suit, that then the Plaintiff shall be barred in that Action or Information; Any Law or Use to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers of Record shall not be bound by this Act.

Provided always, That this Act nor any thing herein contained, shall in any wise extend to any such Officers of Record, as have in respect of their Offices heretofore lawfully used to exhibit Informations, or sue upon Penal Laws; but that they and every of them may inform and pursue in that Behalf as they might have done before the making of this Act; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Certain Offences whereof Information may be given in any County.

And provided also, That this Act nor any thing herein contained, shall extend to the Laying or Alledging of any Offence in any Declaration or Information, for or concerning any Champerty, buying of Titles, or Extortion, or any Offence committed, or to be committed against the Statute made in the First Year of the Queens Majesties Reign, Entituled, An Act limiting the Times for laying on Land Merchandize from beyond the Seas, and touching Customs of Sweet Wines; And one other Act made in the said First Year of her Majesties Reign, Entituled, An Act of a Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, or any thing in any of them contained, or for the Concealing or Defrauding the Queens Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, of any Custom, Tunnage, Poundage, Subsidy, Impost, or Prizage, or for any matter of corrupt Usury, or for any Offence comprised in any Statute made against Engrossing, Regrating or Forestalling, where the Penalty or Forfeiture shall appear to be to the Value of Twenty Pounds or above; but that every such Offence shall or may be laid in any County, at the Pleasure of any such Informer; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Within what times Suits upon Penal Statutes shall be pursued.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Actions, Suits, Bills, Indictments or Informations which after Twenty Days next after the End of this Session of Parliament, shall be had, brought, sued, or exhibited for any Forfeiture upon any Statute Penal, made or to be made, whereby the Forfeitures is or shall be limited to the Queen, her Heirs or Successors only, shall be had, brought, sued or exhibited within Two Years after the Offence committed or to be committed against such Act Penal, and not after two Years: And that all Actions, Suits, Bills, or Informations which after the said Twenty Days shall be had, brought, sued or commenced for any Forfeiture upon any Penal Statute made or to be made, except the Statutes of Tillage, the Benefit and Suit whereof is or shall be by the said Statute limited to the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, and to any other which shall prosecute in that Behalf, shall be had, brought, sued or commenced by any Person that may lawfully pursue for the same, as aforesaid, within One Year next after the Offence committed, or to be committed, against the said Statute; and in Default of such Pursuit, that then the same shall be had, sued, exhibited or brought for the Queens Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, at any time within Two Years after that Year ended: And if any Action, Suit, Bill, Indictment or Information for any Offence against any Penal Statute made or to be made, except the Statute of Tillage, shall be brought after the Time in that Behalf before limited, That then the same shall be Void and of none Effect; Any Act or Statute made to the contrary notwithstanding.

Actions, Informations, &c. limited by some Statutes to be sued within a shorter Time.

Provided always, That where any Action, Information, Indictment, or other Suit, is or shall be limited by any Statute Penal, to be had, sued, commenced or brought within shorter Time than is afore rehearsed, That in every such Case, the Action, Information, Indictment, or other Suit shall be brought within the Time limited by such Statute, 31 Eliz. cap. 5. §. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Whereas the Offences against divers and sundry Penal Laws and Statutes of this Realm may better and with more Ease, and less Charge to the Subject, be commenced, sued, informed against, prosecuted and tried in the Counties where such Offences shall be committed: And whereas the poor Commons of this Realm are grievously charged, troubled, vexed, molested and disturbed by divers Troublesome Persons, commonly called Relators, Informers and Promoters, by prosecuting and enforcing them to appear in his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and to answer Offences supposed by them to be committed against the said Penal Laws and Statutes, or else to compound with them for the same: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That all Offences hereafter to be committed against any Penal Statute, for which any Common Informer or Promoter may lawfully ground any Popular Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information before Justices of Assise, Justices of Nisi prius or Goal-delivery, Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or Justices of Peace in their General or Quarter Sessions, shall after the End of this present Session of Parliament, be commenced, sued, prosecuted, tried, recovered and determined, by way of Action, Plaint, Bill, Information or Indictment before the Justices of Assise, Justices of Nisi prius, Justices of Oyer and Terminer, and Justices of Goal-delivery, or before the Justices of Peace of every County, City, Borough or Town-corporate, and Liberty, having Power to enquire of, hear and determine the same within this Realm, of Great Britain, wherein such Offences shall be committed in any of the Counties, Places of Judicature, or Liberties aforesaid, respectively, only at the Choice of the Parties which shall or will commence Suit, or prosecute for the same, and not elsewhere, save only in the said Counties, or Places usual for those Counties, or any of them: And that the like Process in every Popular Action, Bill, Plaint, Information or Suit to be commenced, or sued, or prosecuted after the End of this present Session of Parliament, by Force of, or according to the Purport of this Act, be had and awarded, to all intents and purposes, as in an Action of Trespas, Vi & Armis, at the Common Law; and that all, and all manner of Informations, Actions, Bills, Plaints and Suits whatsoever hereafter to be commenced, sued, prosecuted or awarded, either by the Attorney General of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors for the time being, or by any Officer or Officers whatsoever for the time being, or by any Common Informer, or other Person whatsoever, in any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, for, or concerning any the Offences, Penalties or Forfeitures aforesaid, shall be void and of none effect; Any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Informations to be exhibited, and in all Bills, Counts, Plaints and Declarations, in any Action or Suit to be commenced against any Person or Persons, either by, or on the Behalf of the King, or any other, for or concerning any Offence committed, or to be committed against any Penal Statute, the

not guilty.*

Offence shall be laid and alledged to have been committed in the said County where such Offence was in truth committed, and not elsewhere: And if the Defendant to any such Information, Action or Suit, pleadeth that he oweth nothing, or that he is not guilty, and the Plaintiff or Informer in such Information, Action or Suit, upon Evidence to the Jury that shall try such Issue, shall not both prove the Offence laid in the said Information, Action or Suit, and that the same Offence was committed in that County, then the Defendant and Defendants shall be found not guilty.

The Informer shall make Oath that the Offence was committed in the same County where the Suit is commenced.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer or Minister in any Court of Record, shall receive, file or enter of Record any Information, Bill or Plaint, Count or Declaration, grounded upon the said Penal Statutes, or any of them, which before by this Act are appointed to be heard and determined in their Proper Counties, until the Informer or Relator hath first taken a Corporal Oath before some of the Judges of that Court, that the Offence or Offences laid in such Information, Action, Suit or Plaint, was, or were not committed in any other County than where by the said Information, Bill, Plaint, Count or Declaration, the same is, or are supposed to have been committed, and that he believeth in his Conscience, the Offence was committed within a Year before the Information or Suit, within the same County where the said Information or Suit was commenced; the same Oath to be there entered of Record.

*The Defendant
in an Information upon a Penal Statute, may eral Issue.*

And be it also Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Information, Suit or Action shall be brought, or exhibited against any Person or Persons, for any Offence committed or to be committed against the Form of any Penal Law, either by, or on the Behalf of the King, or by any other, or on the Behalf of the King, and any other, it shall be lawful for such Defendants to plead the General Issue, that they are not guilty, or that they owe nothing, and to give such Special Matter in Evidence to the Jury that shall try the same, which Matter being pleaded, had been good and sufficient Matter in Law to have discharged the said Defendant or Defendants against the Information, Suit or Action, and the said Matters shall be then as available to him or them, to all Intents and Purposes, as if he or they had sufficiently pleaded, set forth, or alledged the same Matter in Bar, or Discharge of such Information, Suit or Action.

excepted.*

Provided always, That this Act, or any Clause contained therein, shall not extend to any Information, Suit or Action grounded upon any Law or Statute made against Popish Recusants, or for, or concerning Popish Recusancy, or against those that shall not frequent the Church, and hear Divine Service, nor to any Information, Suit, or Action, for Maintenance, Champerty, or buying of Titles, nor to any Suit or Information grounded upon the Statute made in the First Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord the King, of a Subsidy granted to the King, of Tunnage, Poundage, Wooll, &c. Nor for or concerning the Concealing or Defrauding the King, his Heirs or Successors, of any Custom, Tunnage, Poundage, Subsidy, Impost or Prifage, or for transporting of Gold, Silver, Ordnance, Powder, Shot, Munition of all sorts, Wooll, Wooll-Fells or Leather, but that such Offence may be laid or alledged to be in any County, at the Pleasure of any Informers; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, 21 Jac. 1. cap. 4. §. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

C A P. VII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France.

W E your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, being sensible of the great and necessary Expence in which your Majesties are engaged for carrying on the present War against the French King, and being desirous to supply the same in such Manner as may be least Grievous to your Majesties Subjects: Therefore for the Incouragement of such Persons who shall voluntarily contribute to the advancing and paying into your Majesties Exchequer, towards carrying on the said War, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Ten hundred thousand Pounds, upon the respective Terms and Recompences hereafter mentioned, we your Majesties said loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, have given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto your Majesties, the several Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, for and during the several Terms herein after expressed; And do beseech your Majesties that it may be enacted.

II. And be it Enacted by the King and Queens most excellent Majesties, by the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand six hundred ninety four, there shall be throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, levied, collected and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, until the Seventeenth Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety seven, and no longer, for Salt, the Rates and Duties following; (That is to say)

III. For every Gallon of Salt not being of the Product or Manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, imported or to be imported from and after the said Five and twentieth Day of March, into the said Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of Three Pence of lawful Money of England, to be paid by the Importer thereof, over and above the present Duties now payable for Salt imported, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity. And for every Gallon of Salt and Rock-Salt, made at the Salt-Works, or taken out of any Pits within the said Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of One Penny Half-penny, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duty hereby set on all Foreign and imported Salt shall be, from time to time, satisfied and paid by the Merchant or Merchants, Importer or Importers of the same in Ready Money, upon his or their Entry or Entries made, and before the Landing thereof, and that in case any Foreign or imported Salt shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel from beyond the Seas, before due Entry be made thereof with the Collector or Officer appointed or to be appointed for the said Duty on Salt, in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, or before the Duty hereby imposed be fully satisfied and paid, or without a Warrant for the Landing or Delivering of such imported Salt first signed by the Hand of the said Collector, or Officer for the said Duty on Salt in the said Port and Place respectively, That all such imported Salt, as shall be landed, put on shore, or delivered contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof in manner as is herein after provided: Nevertheless, That all and every Person Importing any Salt into this Kingdom, for which the aforesaid Duty is payable by this Act, shall have Six Months time for the Penalty for conveying without Warrant.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Officers so appointed, to seize all such Salt which shall, from and after the said Five and twentieth Day of March, be conveying, or conveyed by Day or by Night, either by Land or by Water, before due Entry be made of such Salt, without Warrant, Ticket or Licence obtained from the Commissioners of the Duties granted by this Act, their Collectors or Officers, or some or one of them, as aforesaid, for the Conveying or Carrying the said Salt: And the Salt that shall be so seized, shall be brought to the Office appointed for these Duties, next adjoining to the Place where such Salt shall be so seized, there to be detained and kept; And in case the Salt so seized shall not be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed under his or their Hand, within Ten Days after Seizure, the said Salt shall be absolutely forfeited to their Majesties, and shall be sold the next General Day of Sale to be appointed by the Commissioners, or their Officers respectively, after the said Days are expired, the One Moiety or Half Part of the Proceed thereof (all necessary Charges being first deducted out of the whole) to be paid to the Use of their Majesties, and the other Moiety or Half Part to be paid to the Party or Parties who seized the same; And in case such Salt so seized shall be claimed within Ten Days, by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed thereunto under his Hand; and if the said Owner or Claimer shall nevertheless neglect, or refuse to make it appear before the next Justice of Peace of the County where such Seizure shall be made, by the Oath of One or more Credible Witnesses, (which Oath the said Justice is hereby Impowered to administer) that the said Salt so seized was, or had been duly Entred, and a Warrant, Ticket, or Licence obtained, for the Carrying and Conveying the same, as aforesaid, That then the said Salt shall likewise be forfeited to their Majesties, to be sold and disposed of, as aforesaid; and every Person who shall carry or convey, or cause any Salt to be carried and conveyed before due Entry made, and Warrant or Licence obtained, as aforesaid, shall likewise forfeit to their Majesties double the Value of such Salt so carried or conveyed.

Penalty.

VIII. And be it further Enacted, That no Retailer nor Shopkeeper shall be permitted to Ship any Salt to be sent to any Port within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before he hath made it appear by Oath, or otherwise, before the Commissioners for Collecting of the said Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, or some or one of them, that the Duty of such Salt is paid, or secured to be paid, or that it was bought of some other Retailer or Shopkeeper that hath paid the Duty.

Retailer not to convey Salt from one Port to another, till the Duty be paid or secured.

IX. And be it further Enacted, That all and every Master and Commander of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, that from and after the said Five and twentieth Day of March, shall Transport or Carry any Salt, or Rock-Salt, from one Port to another, within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall, (before he or they have any Warrant for the Landing or Delivering of such Salt (by him transported and carried) on Shore in any Port) deliver to the Officers for Collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, in the said Port, appointed to receive the same, a true Particular of the Quantity so transported and carried, as aforesaid, Signed by the Officers for Collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, and by the Officers of the Customs of the Port from whence the said Ship or Vessel came; and that then the Master or his Mate, or the Boatswain of such Ship or Vessel, shall make Oath before the Commissioners for Collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, some, or one of them, That to his knowledge there hath not been laid on Board, or taken into the said Ship or Vessel, any Salt, since he or they came from such Port, as aforesaid; And in case such Ship or Vessel be to deliver one Part of her Salt at one Port, and another Part at another Port or Ports, That then the Officers for Collecting the said Duties, and Officers of the Customs, when such Part of the said Salt shall be delivered, shall certify on the backside of the Cocket, Transfire, or other Warrant, or else by Certificate alone, under the Hands and Seals of the Officers, how much, and what Quantity of the Salt mentioned in the Cocket, Transfire, or other Warrant, from the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel came, hath been there landed and delivered, upon the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise delivered. And be it further Enacted, That no Fee or Reward be had or taken, for making, issuing or granting any of the Tickets, Warrants or Licences herein before mentioned, but that the same be made, issued and granted gratis.

And in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture, shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis) the Principal Commissioners for Managing their Majesties Revenue of Excise for the time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in course out of the First Money in their Hands arising out of the said Duties upon Salt; And any Officer neglecting or refusing to pay the said Money, or to give such Certificate, as is here directed, shall forfeit double the Sum so to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall export beyond the Seas any Salt, as well Foreign as English, or any Rock Salt, the Officer of the Place where the said Salt was made, taken out of Pits, or imported, and the Duty thereof paid or secured to be paid, shall upon demand deliver gratis a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, That the Duty imposed by this Act, on such Salt, hath been duly paid or secured to be paid, and then the Officer of the Place where the Salt is exported upon producing the said Certificate, and Oath made of Shipping off the said Salt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, shall give a Debenture under his Hand for Repayment of the said Duty, which being produced to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on the said Salt shall have been paid, or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged; And all and every Sum and Sums of Money paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be repaid upon demand by the said Officer without Fee or Reward.

XII. And be it further Enacted, That the Justices of the Peace not concerned in making or selling Salt, in every County, Riding or Division of England, shall and are hereby Authorized and Impowered at every Easter and Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, to set the Prices of all Salt and Rock-Salt, to be sold by the Maker or First Seller thereof in the said County, for the Half Year next ensuing, and that no Person or Persons that shall be the Maker or First Seller of any Salt, shall sell the same for more than the Prices so set by the said Justices, as aforesaid, over and above the Duty payable by virtue of this Act, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence Five Pounds, and double the Value of the Salt so sold, to be levied by distress and sale of the Offenders Goods, the One Moiety thereof to be paid to their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer.

XIII. And be it Enacted and Declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the Product of any of the said Places, shall be adjudged and deemed to be Foreign Salt imported, and shall be charged as such with the Duty of Three Pence per Gallon by this Act granted, and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by Land, shall be entered at Carlisle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers for that purpose there to be appointed, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of double the Value of such Salt so brought in.

XIV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be capable of acting as Chief Commissioner for Collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, until he or they shall, before One of the Barons of the Exchequer, take the Oaths appointed by an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for the Abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, and the Oath following;

YOU shall swear to execute your Office truly and faithfully without Favour or Affection, and shall, from time to time, true Account make and deliver to such Person and Persons as their Majesties shall appoint to receive the same, same, and shall take no Fee or Reward for the Execution of the said Office from any other Person than from their Majesties, or those whom their Majesties shall appoint on that Behalf;

So help you God, &c.

XV. And be it likewise Enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be capable of intermeddling with any Office or Employment relating to the said Duties granted by this Act, other than that of Chief Commissioner, until he or they shall (before two or more of the Chief Commissioners for Collecting the Duties granted by this Act, or before two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where they shall be appointed Officers for Execution of this Act) take the aforesaid Oaths appointed by the said Act, and the said other last mentioned Oath mutatis mutandis; And the said Barons of the Exchequer, and Chief Commissioners for Collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, the said Justices are hereby Impowered, and Required to administer the said Oaths.

Persons not to act till they shall have taken the Oaths.

XVI. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done, or executed in pursuance of this Act, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be Nonsuit, discontinue or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants, shall have double Costs, to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; for which Costs he shall have such Remedy as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

General Issue.

XVII. Provided also, and be it Enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any Order or Orders made by the said Chief Commissioners or Justices of Peace, in pursuance of this Act; but that Execution and other Proceedings shall and may be had and made thereupon; Any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithstanding.

No Certiorari upon Orders made by the Commissioners or Justices.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, For the Ascertaining of all Measures where the said Duties are to be paid, That all Salt be measured by a Bushel of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and by fit Measurers living upon the Place where the Salt is made, to be sworn and admitted by some Justice of Peace near adjoining, without Charge or Fee, upon Forfeiture of double the Value of the Salt that shall not be so measured.

Salt to be measured by the Winchester Bushel.

Penalty.

XIX. And be it Enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered from any Salt-Works or Pits, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that purpose, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Salt so delivered; and upon Pain of Twenty Pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt-Works or Pits where such Salt shall be so delivered; the Moiety of which Forfeitures to be to the Use of the Prosecutor, and the other Moiety to the Use of their Majesties.

Penalty for Removing Salt from the Pits without Notice.

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that if any of the Salt for which the Duty shall have been repaid and discharged upon the Exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, shall (by fraud or otherwise) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the Duty be again paid, and such Entry, and all other Things performed, as are herein before required, in case where any Foreign Salt is imported, every Person so Offending shall forfeit double the Value of such Salt so landed, and such other Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any Person who shall land any Foreign Salt, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Penalty for Re-landing Salt.

XXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant or other Person, being a Subject of this Realm of England, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, Ship any Salt or Rock-Salt, that hath paid the Duty to their Majesties by this Act imposed, to convey it by Sea to any Part of England, and the Vessel, on which such Salt, as aforesaid, is Shipt, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with such Salt on Board her, that in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division or Town wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so

Salt or Rock-Salt lost at Sea, Proof to be made at the Quarter Sessions, and then the Persons may buy the like Quantity without paying any Duty.

shipt, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them, and, upon producing the said Certificate to any of their Majesties Officers appointed to collect the Duty by this Act imposed, the said Officer or Officers are hereby required to let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in the Certificate to be lost, without paying to their Majesties any Duty or Excise for the same; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Owner not to pay Excise till the Rock-Salt be sold and delivered.

XXII. Provided also, and be it Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners and proprietors of any Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouses adjoining to or belonging to such Pits, into his or their other Warehouses, or other Places for Storing thereof, for Conveniency of Selling or Shipping off the same, any of the said Salt-Rock or Rock Salt, after due Entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same, from the Officer next to such Salt-Pits, which Warrant or Ticket the said Officer is hereby Required, upon Demand, to give without Fee or Reward, as aforesaid; And that the said Owners or Proprietors shall not be obliged to pay or secure the Payment of the said Duty, until such Time as the said Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt shall be sold and delivered, as aforesaid.

Contracts heretofore made how charged.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall be obliged by virtue of any Contract made, at any time before the First Day of December, One thousand six hundred ninety three, to deliver any Salt or Rock-Salt, unless the Person who is to receive the same, shall before or at the Time for Delivery of the same, by such Contract pay to the Seller thereof such Sum or Sums, as he shall have paid or secured to pay for the Duty for the same by virtue of this Act.

Salt made in County of Chester to be entered by weight,

XXIV. And whereas Salt made at the present Salt-Works in the County Palatine of Chester, when taken from the Pans is put into Walms, Baskets or Vessels, and must be carried by the Maker some Miles distant from the Works before he can deliver the same to the Merchant or first Buyer, so that to break and measure the Salt at the said Salt-Works, would be great Loss to the Makers thereof, Be it therefore Enacted, That all Salt made at the said Salt-Works in the said County, shall be entered by weight only, and that Fifty six Pounds weight thereof shall be deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushel of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and shall be entered, rated and taxed accordingly.

at 56 lb. to the Bushel.

And Salt-Rock to be sold by weight, at 120 lb. to the Bushel.

XXV. And whereas Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt taken out of the Pits is in such great Lumps that it cannot be measured without breaking the same to Powder, which would be great Loss to the Proprietors thereof, Be it therefore Enacted, That all Salt-Rock or Rock Salt taken out of Pits, shall be entered by weight only, and that Sixscore Pounds weight thereof shall be deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushel of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and shall be entered, rated and taxed accordingly.

Allowance to Refiner of Rock-
Salt.

XXVI. And to the Intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-Salt may not, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be charged more than other English Salt, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that where any such Rock-Salt shall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty imposed by this Act, according to the Direction of the same, the Person who shall make such Salt by Renning, shall receive an Allowance and Abatement of Duty on the Salt by him to made, after the Rate and Proportion of Twelve Pence for every Bushel of such Rock-Salt so melted and refined, which had paid the Duty, as aforesaid, Oath being first made before some Justice of the Peace near adjoining to such Salt-Works of the Particular Quantities of the said Rock-Salt so by him employed in making the said Salt by refining; which Oath the said Justice of the Peace is hereby Impowered to administer, and upon due Proof by Oath or otherwise made of the Payment of the Duty imposed by this Act.

Money to be kept apart.

XXIX. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners and Governors for Management and Receipt of the Excise, at the Head Office in London for the time being, shall separate and keep apart all and every the Monies raised by the Rates and Duties of Excise and other Duties upon Salt hereby granted, as the same shall, from time to time, arise, or be paid into the said Office of Excise by the Receivers or Collectors of the same, or by any other Person whatsoever: And the said Commissioners and Governors of Excise for the time being, are hereby required, and strictly enjoined, from from time to time, to pay Weekly, (videlicet) on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not a Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not a Holiday, all and every the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties of Excise, and other Duties hereby granted, into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, distinct, and apart from the other Monies, which the said Commissioners and Governors of Excise shall receive for the Use of their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors: And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in their Majesties Exchequer (That is to say,) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, One Book, in which all the said Weekly Monies, which shall be paid into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever.

A Separate Account to be kept of the Payments.

XXX. And be it further Enacted, That if the said Commissioners and Governors of Excise for the time being, shall refuse or neglect to pay into the Exchequer all or any the said Weekly Sums appointed to be paid, as aforesaid, in such Manner as they are before by this Act required to do, or shall divert or misapply any of the same, then they for every such Offence shall forfeit their Offices of Commissioners and Governors for the Management and Receipt of the Excise, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums, so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons, who will sue for the same, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed.

Penalty upon the Commissioners neglecting to pay the Money Weekly.

Part of the XXXI. Provided always and be it Enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, out of the said Duties arising upon Salt, to cause such Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid, from time to time, for Salaries or other incident Charges, as shall be necessary in and for the Receiving, Collecting, Levying or Managing of the same Duties upon Salt, during the said Term therein by this Act granted; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Head Office of Excise which is now Established within the City of London, shall be continued and be within the said City, or Ten Miles thereof, and a sufficient Number of Commissioners therein, from time to time, shall be continued or appointed by their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, to govern and manage the Receipt of Excise, and to perform and execute the several Matters and Things hereby enjoined to be done and executed by such Commissioners, until the same shall be fully Performed and Complied with, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; And that in like Manner there shall be continued, and be within the said City, or Ten Miles thereof, by the Appointment of their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, a Comptroller of Excise, until such Time as all Matters and Things, which by this Act such Comptroller is enjoined to do and perform shall be fully Performed and Accomplished; which said Comptroller for the time being, is hereby also Required and Commanded to keep a perfect and distinct Account in Books fairly Written of all the Monies which shall arise by the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties of Excise by this Act granted, as the same respectively shall, from time to time, arise, come or be brought into the said Office of Excise; To which Books all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all seasonable Times, without Fee or Charge; and that the said Commissioners and Comptroller shall execute their respective Offices, in the Performance of all Things enjoined by this Act, without any other Salary, Fee or Reward than what they now have or enjoy.

Accounts of Salt, and Excise to be kept apart.

LVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Receiver or Receivers General, or other Person or Persons, who is, or shall be employed in the Receiving, Collecting or Paying the several Duties upon Salt by this Act granted, shall, and are hereby required, between the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand six hundred ninety five, and the Nine and twentieth Day of September following, and so from Year to Year Yearly, at those Times, during the Continuance of this Act, to deliver in their respective Accounts thereof to their Majesties Auditors of the Imprest

Receivers to give an Annual Account to the Auditors of the Imprest before the Treasurer, &c.

Imprest for the time being, or One of them, who shall, and are hereby, from time to time, respectively Authorized to examine upon Oath the said Receiver or Receivers General, or other Person or Persons, Accomptants, which are or shall be employed, in Raising, Receiving and Collecting the said Duties, of what Sum or Sums of Money was, or were by them, or any of them respectively raised, collected or received within the Time of such their Accompts, and likewise what Part thereof was by them, or any of them, paid into their Majesties Receipt of Exchequer, or by virtue of any Warrant of Privy Seal, or Warrant of the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of their Majesties Treasury for the time being; otherwise paid, and to whom, and for what Service or Services; And in making the said Accompts, to, and before the said Auditors, or One of them, they are to produce Proper Vouchers for every Sum or Sums of Money so by them, or any of them raised, received and paid according to the Ancient Methods of the Exchequer. And to the End it may appear upon Record, what the same amounted to in the Year, for which such Accompt or Accompts shall be made, and what thereof was paid, and to whom, and for what Use and Service, Uses and Services, as aforesaid, and what Remains unpaid, and rests insuper upon each respective Receiver and Collector, and such Accompt or Accompts so to be taken by the said Auditor, is, and are to be declared before the Lord Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer now, and for the time being, according to the Course of the Exchequer in such Cases.

Duties on Salt granted for ever, as directed by 5 & 6 W. & M.

II. And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Rates and Duties upon Salt granted by the said recited Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, answered and paid unto your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens of England, for ever, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned in the said Act for Raising, Levying, Collecting, Answering and Paying the same, for the Term granted in the said Act; and that the said recited Act, and every Article, Rule and Clause therein mentioned, as for and concerning the Rates, Duties and Impositions upon Salt, shall Continue and be in full Force for ever, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly Recited, Expressed and Enacted in the Body of this Act.

Commissioners of Excise to keep apart the Monies arising by the Duties hereby granted, and pay the same Weekly into the Exchequer, distinct from other Money.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners and Governors for Management and Receipt of the Excise, at the Head Office in London for the time being, shall separate and keep apart all and every the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties hereby granted and continued, as the same shall, from time to time, arise, or be paid into the said Office of Excise, by the Receivers or Collectors of the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever; And the said Commissioners and Governors of Excise for the time being, are hereby required, and strictly enjoined, from time to time, for ever, to pay Weekly, (viz.) on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not an Holyday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not an Holyday, all and every the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties hereby granted and continued, into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinct and apart from the other Monies which the said Commissioners and Governors respectively shall receive for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

A Book to be kept in the Exchequer for entering the said Monies.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be, from time to time, for ever provided and kept in his Majesty's Exchequer (that is to say) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book, in which all the said Weekly Monies which shall be paid into the Exchequer, as aforesaid, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever.

Penalty on Commissioners neglecting or misapplying the Monies.

V. And be it further Enacted, That if the said Commissioners and Governors for the time being shall refuse or neglect to pay into the Exchequer all or any the said Weekly Sums appointed to be paid, as aforesaid, in such Manner as they are before by this Act required to do, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the same, then they, for every such Offence, shall forfeit their Office of Commissioners and Governors for the Management and Receipt of the Excise, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums so diverted or misapplied, to any Person intitled thereunto by virtue of this Act, who will sue for the same, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Priviledge, or any more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

Weekly Sums to be the Fund.

VI. And be it further Enacted, That all the Sums appointed by virtue of this Act to be paid Weekly into the Receipt of Exchequer, shall be the Fund for the several and respective Intents and Purposes herein after mentioned and expressed.

Salaries, &c. to be paid out of the Duties.

VII. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, out of the said Duties granted and continued by this Act, to cause such Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid, from time to time, for Salaries, or other incident Charges as shall be necessary, in and for the Receiving, Collecting, Levying or Managing of the same Duties; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of his Majesty, and the late Queen Mary of Blessed Memory, Intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Remcompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, for such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying

5 & 6 W. & M. cap. 7.

rying on the War against France, it is Provided and Enacted, That there should be raised, levied, collected and paid to their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, until the Seventeenth of May, One thousand six hundred ninety and seven, for every Gallon of Salt, and Rock-Salt made at the Salt-Works, or taken out of any Pits within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, One Penny Half-penny, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity: And whereas some dispute hath since arisen, whether Salt refined, or Salt made from Salt, either Imported or made in England, and hath paid the Duties by the said Act imposed, and is since melted down, either in Sea-water or other Water, and made into Salt again, shall be charged with the Duty of One Penny Half-penny: For the Settling whereof it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt made from Rock-Salt (allowing the Drawback for the same, as in the said Act is mentioned) and all refined Salt, or Salt made from Salt, either imported or made in England, was and is intended to be charged and chargeable with the said Duty of One Penny Half-penny per Gallon; Any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Salt and Rock-Salt.

Salt refined.

Salt made from Rock-Salt, and refined Salt, do pay One Penny Half-penny per Gallon.

XLIV. And whereas the Measures for making the Winchester Bushel, at Eight Gallons to the Bushel, appointed by the said Act for measuring of Salt, for Payment of the said Duties, are various and unequal, and have proved Inconvenient, not only to the Duties, but to the Makers and Traders in Salt in general: For the Prevention whereof, and the Payment of the said Duties more equally, it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt at all Salt-Works and Salt-Pits (Rock-Salt excepted) shall be ascertained, as to the Payment of the said Duties, at the Rate of Fifty six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and no more; Any thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XLV. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt, whether brought from Scotland by Land, and also all imported Salt, whether the same be of the Product or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or of the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, brought in, landed or put on shoar, before due Entry made with the Officer appointed to receive the same, and Payment of Duties by the said Act imposed, shall be forfeited, One Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that shall or will seize, inform or sue for the same; Any thing in the said Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Salt brought from Scotland by Land, or imported and landed before Duty paid, to be forfeited.

XLVI. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties on Salt, according to the Bushel of Fifty six Pound Weight herein before declared, in all Parts and Places where any Salt-Work or Salt-Pit is or shall be, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Collector or Officer appointed to receive and collect the said Duties, shall from and after the said Seventeenth Day of May, One thousand six hundred ninety and six, provide at every such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit a sufficient Beam, Scale and Weights, or Stileard, and shall have liberty to fix the same in some convenient Place in or about such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit, for the Weighing all Salt that shall be delivered from such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit; And that One or more Person or Persons (as Occasion shall require) living on or near such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit, shall be admitted and sworn to the due and true Weighing all Salt, from thence to be delivered, before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace near adjoining (which Oath he or they are hereby Impowered to administer) without Fee or Reward: And such Weigher and Weighers shall be satisfied and paid for their Pains for Weighing such Salt, by the said Collector or Officer for the said Duties; Any thing herein, or in the said former Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Collectors at every Salt-Pit to provide a Beam, &c. for weighing of Salt.

Weights to be sworn, and paid by the Collectors.

XLVII. And whereas the Carriers of Salt do frequently load several Horses with Salt at One Salt-Work, and at One Time, for which they have had but One Warrant, or Permit, and are often obliged, for convenient Carriage of the said Salt to several Places, to separate the said Horses, and to drive them several Roads, by which means some of the said Salt has been liable to seizure: For Prevention therefore of such Inconveniencies to the said Carriers, it is hereby Enacted, and the said Officers are hereby strictly charged and required to deliver gratis, and without Delay, such and so many several Warrants or Permits to each Carrier of Salt, as he shall demand, for such several Horse-Loads of Salt as he shall load at One Time, and at One Salt-Work; Any thing heretofore to the contrary notwithstanding.

Carriers of Salt to have Permits gratis for so many Loads as are loaded at One Time.

Rates paid for Fish (except Conger) exported.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Rates and Sums of Money directed to be paid by an Act made in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of his Majesty and the late Queen Mary, and herein First recited, for the several Sorts of Fish (except Conger) therein mentioned to be exported, shall be allowed and paid, during the Continuance of this Act, in such Manner as by the said First recited Act is directed and appointed; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding. 5 & 6 W. & M.
cap. 7.

Sale (except Foreign) to be sold at 6 l. 10
the Bushel, and not otherwise.

XLIX. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons selling Salt (except Foreign Salt) made for Use, shall from and after the Seventeenth Day of May, One thousand six hundred ninety and six, sell the same after the Rate of Fifty six Pound Weight to the Bushel, and not otherwise, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and that every Person offending therein shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds to the Informer, to be sued for and recovered in such Manner as other Forfeitures by this Act are to be sued for and recovered.

Penalty.

Salt not made in England, Wales, or Berwick, to pay as Foreign.

XXIII. And be it Enacted and Declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land, into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the Product of any of the said Places, shall be adjudged and deemed to be Foreign Salt imported, and shall be charged, as such, with the higher Duties by this Act charged upon Salt imported, and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by Land, shall be entred at Carlisle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers, for that purpose there to be appointed, under the Penalty of Forfeiture of double the Value of, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Bushel for such Salt so brought in.

Scotch Salt to be entred at Carlisle or Berwick.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be Nonsuit, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have double Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have such Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

Persons sued on this Act, may plead the General Issue, &c.

XXV. Provided also, and be it Enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari shall supersede Execution, or other Proceedings upon any Order or Orders made by the said Chief Commissioners or Justices of the Peace, concerning the said Duties upon Salt, in Pursuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall and may be had and made thereupon, Any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithstanding.

No Writ of Certiorari to supersede the Orders of the Commissioners, &c.

XXVI. And be it Enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered from any Salt-Works or Pits, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that purpose, upon Pain of Forfeiting of the Salt so delivered, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Bushel for the same, to be recovered from the Owner or Owners of the Salt-Works or Pits where such Salt shall be so delivered; the One Moiety or Half-part of which Forfeitures to be to the Use of the Prosecutor, and the other Moiety or Half-part to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

No Salt to be delivered from the Works or Pits without Notice given to Officer, &c.

Penalty.

XXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Salt for which the Duty shall have been repaid or discharged upon the Exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, shall (by fraud or otherwise) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the Duty be again paid, and such Entry, and all other Things performed, as are herein before required, in case where any Foreign Salt is imported, every Person so offending shall forfeit double the Value (and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Bushel) of such Salt so landed, and such other Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any Person, who shall land any Foreign Salt, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Penalty on Person landing Salt after Duty has been repaid, before the Duty be again paid.

XXVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant or other Person, being a Subject of this Realm of England, shall ship any Salt or Rock-Salt, that shall have paid the Duty to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by this Act imposed, to convey it by Sea to any Part of England, and the Vessel, on which such Salt, as aforesaid, is shipped, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with such Salt on Board her, that in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the Quarter Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division or Town wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to any of the Officers appointed to collect the Duty by this Act imposed, the said Officer or Officers are hereby required to let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in the Certificate to be lost, without paying to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors any Duty or Excise for the same; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

may on Proof buy the like Quantity except in the Certificate, to be lost without Payment of Duty.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of any Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouses adjoining to, or belonging to such Pits, into his or their own Warehouses, or other Places for storing thereof, for Convenience of selling or shipping off the same, any of the said Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, after due Entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same, from the Officer next to such Salt-Pits, which Warrant or Ticket the said Officer is hereby required upon Demand, to give without Fee or Reward, as aforesaid; And that the said Owners or Proprietors shall not be obliged to pay or secure the Payment of the said Duty, until such Time as the said Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt shall be sold and delivered, as aforesaid.

*Contract is here-
charged.*

XXX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, shall be obliged by virtue of any Contract made, at any time before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thousand six hundred ninety eight, to deliver any Salt or Rock-Salt, unless the Person who is to receive the same, shall, before or at the Time of Delivery of the same by such Contract, pay to the Seller thereof such Sum or Sums, as he shall have paid or secured to pay for so much of the Duties thereupon as are imposed by virtue of this Act. And whereas Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt taken out of Pits in such great Lumps that it cannot be measured without breaking the same to Powder, would be great Loss to the Proprietors thereof, Be it therefore Enacted, That all Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, taken out of Pits, shall be entred by Weight only; and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight thereof shall be deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushel of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and shall be entred, rated and taxed accordingly.

*And Salt-Rock
to be sold by weight, at 110 lb. to the Bushel.*

*Allowance to Refiner of Rock-
Salt which has
paid the Duty.*

XXXI. And to the Intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-Salt, may not, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be charged more than other English Salt; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that where any such Rock-Salt shall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty imposed by this Act, according to the Direction of the same, the Person who shall make such Salt by refining, shall (over and above his Allowance by any former Act) receive, by virtue of this Act an Allowance and Abatement of the Duty on the Salt by him so made, after the Rate and Proportion of Two Shillings and Four Pence, for every Bushel of such Rock-Salt, so melted and refined, which had paid the Duty, as aforesaid, and being weighed in the Presence of the Officer before melted down, and Oath being first made before some Justice of the Peace, near adjoining to such Salt-Works, of the particular Quantities of the said Rock-Salt so by him employed in making the said Salt by refining; which Oath the said Justice of the Peace is hereby Impowered to administer, and upon due Proof by Oath or otherwise made of the Payment of the Duty imposed by this Act.

Salaries and incidents to be paid.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or to or for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being, out of the said Duties arising upon Salt by this Act, to cause such Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid, from time to time, for Salaries or other incident Charges, as shall be necessary in and for the Receiving, Collecting, Levying or Managing of the same Duties upon Salt; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

What Salt is intended to be charged.

XXXIII. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt made from Rock-Salt (allowing the Draw-back for the same, as in this Act is mentioned) and all refined Salt, or Salt made from Salt, either imported or made in England, is, and is intended to be charged and chargeable with the said Duties by this Act granted; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

*All Salt (except Rock-Salt) to be ascertained, at 56 lb.
Weight to the Bushel.*

XXXIV. And to the End the said Duties upon Salt may be equally paid, It is hereby Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt at all Salt-Works and Salt-Pits (Rock-Salt excepted) shall be ascertained as to the Payment of the said Duty by this Act, at the Rate of Fifty six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and no more.

*Scotch Salt and all imported Salt, landed before due Entry, forfeited,
&c.*

XXXV. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Salt, whether brought from Scotland by Land, and also all imported Salt, whether the same be of the Product or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or of the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, brought in, landed or put on shore, before due Entry made with the Officers appointed to receive the same, and Payment of the Duties by this Act imposed, shall be forfeited, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Bushel for such Salt, to be recovered from the Offender (to wit) One Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other

Moiety

Molesty thereof to him or them that shall or will seize, inform or sue for the same; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And for the better ascertaining the said Duties on Salt, according to the Bushel of Fifty six Pounds Weight herein before declared, in all Parts and Places where any Salt-Work or Salt-Pit is or shall be, Be it Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That every Collector or Officer appointed to receive and collect the said Duties upon Salt, shall provide at every such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit, a sufficient Beam, Scale and Weights, or Stileard, and shall have liberty to fix the same in some convenient Place in or about such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit, for the Weighing all Salt that shall be delivered from such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit; and that One or more Person or Persons (as Occasion shall require) living in or near such Salt-Work or Salt-Pit, shall be admitted and sworn to the due and true Weighing all Salt, from thence to be delivered, before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, near adjoining (which Oath he or they are hereby empowered to administer) without Fee or Reward; and such Weigher and Weighers shall be satisfied and paid for their Pains in Weighing such Salt, by the said Collector or Officer for the said Duties.

Collectors at every Salt-Pit to provide a Beam, &c. for weighing of Salt.

Weighers to be sworn, and paid by the Collectors.

XXXVII. And whereas the Carriers of Salt do frequently load several Horses with Salt at one Salt-Work, and at one Time, for which they have had but one Warrant, or Permit, and are often obliged, for convenient Carriage of the said Salt to several Places, to separate the said Horses, and to drive them several Roads, by which means some of the said Salt may be liable to Seizure: For Prevention therefore of such Inconveniencies to the said Carriers, It is hereby Enacted, and the said Officers are hereby strictly charged and required to deliver gratis, and without Delay, such and so many several Warrants or Permits to each Carrier of Salt, as he shall demand, for such several Horse-loads of Salt, as he shall load at one Time, and at one Salt-Work.

Carriers of Salt to have Permits gratis for so many Loads as are loaded at one Time.

XXXVIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons selling Salt made for Use (except Foreign Salt) shall sell the same after the Rate of Fifty six Pound Weight to the Bushel, and not otherwise, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and that every Person offending therein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds to the Informer, to be sued for and recovered in such Manner as other Forfeitures by this Act are to be sued for and recovered.

Penalty.

XXXIX. And for the Preventing of Exactions upon Sale of Salt in this Kingdom, and to have the Rates and Prices thereof ascertained, Be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London shall and may (and are hereby required in the Court of Aldermen within the City of London, upon or before the Tenth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety eight) set, ascertain, and publish in Writing, certain reasonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt to be sold, or exposed to sale, after the said Tenth Day of July, in the City of London and Precincts thereof, and the Bills of Mortality; and that the respective Justices of the Peace for the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall and may (and are hereby required, upon or before the First Day of August, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety eight, at the several and respective General Sessions of the Peace for the said several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace) set, ascertain and duly publish in Writing certain reasonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt to be sold or exposed to sale, after the said First Day of August, One thousand six hundred ninety eight, within the said several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace; and that the Lord Mayor of London, and the said Court of Aldermen in the Court of Aldermen, and that the said respective Justices of the Peace of the several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places aforesaid, as aforesaid, at the several and respective General Sessions of the Peace for the said several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places, wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace, shall and may, and are hereby required, from time to time, (if necessary) at the several and respective

Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London to ascertain the Price of Salt within the City of London.

And may alter the Rates.

Penalty on Commissioners not paying duly into the Exchequer, &c.

General Sessions of the Peace for the said several and respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities and Places, from and after the said First Day of August, One thousand six hundred ninety eight, by Writing duly made and published, alter and correct the Rates and Prices of all Salt to be sold and exposed to sale in the said several and respective Places; which Rates and Prices which shall be so set, ascertained, altered and corrected, are hereby enacted and required to be observed, accepted, received and taken by all and every Person and Persons selling or exposing to sale any Salt, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and if any Person or Persons, shall sell any Salt at any higher Price or Rate, or refuse to sell any Salt at the Prices and Rates aforesaid, such Person and Persons so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds, to be levied out of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender or Offenders, by Distress and Sale thereof, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or of any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the Place or Places wherein such Offence shall be committed, or Distress shall be to be made: And in default of sufficient Distress, for the same, it shall and may be lawful by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, from the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or from any such Justice of the Peace, as aforesaid, to imprison the said Offender or Offenders, until such Offender or Offenders, shall pay the said Sum of Five Pounds, one Moiety of which Sum of Five Pounds, is hereby enacted to be paid to the Use of our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Moiety thereof to be paid to such Person or Persons as shall inform and prosecute for the same, before the said Lord Mayor of London, or the said respective Justices, as aforesaid.

Part of the XL. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners and Governors of the Revenue or Receipt of Excise for the time being, at the Head Office in London, from time to time, shall separate and keep apart all and every the Sum and Sums of Money arising by the several Rates and Duties for or upon Salt, and Rock-Salt, by this Act granted, as the same shall, from time to time arise, or be paid into the said Office of Excise by the Receivers or Collectors of the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever; and that the Chief Commissioners for marking and stamping of Velum, Parchment and Paper, or for managing the Duties thereupon for the time being, shall at their Head Office cause to be separated and kept apart in like Manner, all and every the Monies arising by the respective Rates and Duties granted by the Act before mentioned, for and upon Velum, Parchment and Paper, as the same shall, from time to time arise, or be paid into their Office: And as well the said Commissioners, and Governors of Excise, as the said Commissioners for the said Duties upon Velum, Parchment and Paper respectively for the time being, are hereby required and strictly enjoined, from time to time, for ever, to pay Weekly, to wit, on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after, that is not an Holiday, all and every the Monies arising, as well by the several and respective Rates and Duties hereby granted for or upon Salt and Rock-Salt, as the said several Duties granted or payable by the Act herein before mentioned, for and upon Stampt Velum, Parchment and Paper respectively, into the Receipt of the Exchequer of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, distinct and apart from all other Monies, which the said Commissioners shall severally receive for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

XLII. And be it further Enacted, That if the said Commissioners of Excise, or the said Commissioners for the Duties on Velum, Parchment and Paper for the time being respectively, shall refuse or neglect to pay, or cause to be paid into the Exchequer, all or any the Sums appointed to be paid by them severally, as aforesaid, in such Manner as they are respectively Required by this Act, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the same, then they and every of them, so offending, shall forfeit their several Offices and Places, and shall be incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Place of Profit or Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay double the Value of all and every Sum and Sums of Money so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, who shall be intitled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act settled, and will sue for such Forfeiture by Action of Debt or of the Case, Bill, Suit or Information founded upon this Act, in any Court of Record of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, wherein no Esfoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

XLIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Head Office of Excise, and the Chief Office for the said Duties upon Velum, Parchment and Paper, shall for ever be continued, with a sufficient Number of Commissioners, and a Comptroller in either of them, for performing and executing such Matters and Things as are by this Act enjoyned to be done or performed by such Commissioners and Comptrollers respectively, according to the true Meaning hereof.

Excise and Stamp Office to be for ever continued with Commissioners and Comptrollers of the said Duties.

XLIV. And be it Enacted, That the respective Comptrollers in the said Offices for the time being, shall keep perfect and distinct Accounts in Books fairly Written, of all the Monies which shall arise of or for the said Duties upon Salt, and of or for the said Duties upon Velum, Parchment and Paper respectively, as the same shall, from time to time, arise or be raised; to which Books, all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all seasonable Times without Fee or Charge; and if any such Comptroller, as aforesaid, shall neglect his Duty therein, then he or they, for such Offence, shall forfeit his Office or Place, and be rendered incapable, as aforesaid, and shall also forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, Intituled to any Annuity or Payment by this Act, and that will sue for the same, as aforesaid.

Comptrollers to keep distinct Accounts.

Penalties

XLV. And be it further Enacted, That if any Collector or Receiver of any the Duties by this Act granted upon Salt, or Rock-Salt, or of any the further Duties granted by the Act before mentioned, for or upon Velum, Parchment and Paper, shall detain all or any part of the Monies by him collected or received contrary to his Duty, then he or they for any such Offence shall be dismissed from his Employment, and be charged with Interest for the same, after the Rate of twelve Pounds per Centum per Annum, and be liable to answer treble Damages, to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, that shall be grieved by such Detention; and if any Collector or Receiver of any the said Duties upon Salt, Rock-Salt, Velum, Parchment and Paper, shall divert or misapply all or any part of the Monies by him collected or received, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, then he or they for every or any such Offence shall be dismissed from his Employment, and rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as aforesaid, and shall moreover forfeit double the Sum or Sums so by him or them diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, who shall be intituled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act settled, and will sue for the same, as aforesaid.

Penalties on Collectors detaining Money, &c.

C A P. XXII.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the more full and effectual Charging of the Duties upon Rock-Salt.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons Preamble; of England in Parliament assembled, taking Notice that by divers Acts of Parliament now in Force, several Duties, whereof some are for Terms of Years yet unexpired, and others in Perpetuity, are imposed upon all Salt and Rock-Salt, made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or taken out of any Pit or Pits within the same, to be raised, disposed and applied, to and for the several Uses and Purposes in the same, or by some other Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf expressed and declared, and being sensible that Rock-Salt, which in and by the said Acts, or some of them, is chargeable with the said Duties, after the Rate of One hundred and twenty Pound Weight to the Bushel, may be, and is used in kind for Curing Fish, Flesh, and other Purposes, without being refined into White Salt, and all White Salt made from Brine, or otherwise, being chargeable with the

the said Duties, after the Rate of Fifty six Pound Weight to the Bushel, and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight of Rock-Salt, used in kind, will serve the Use of almost Two Bushels of White Salt, reckoned at Fifty six Pounds Weight, as aforesaid, whereby the Makers of Salt from Brine, have been and are extremely discouraged, and his Majesty's Duties intended by the said Acts, have been and are very much impaired, have therefore resolved to increase your Majesty's Duties upon all Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock, by reducing the Bushel, according to which the Duties thereof shall be paid for the future, in the Manner hereafter mentioned.

75 lb Weight of Rock-Salt deemed a Winchester Bushel, and rated accordingly.

II. And be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety nine, every Seventy five Pounds Weight of Rock-Salt, or Salt-Rock, taken out of any Pit or Pits, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushel of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and shall be entered, rated and taxed accordingly, to and for the several Duties upon Salt-Rock and Rock-Salt, by the said several Acts of Parliament charged or made payable, instead of the Bushel of One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight in the said Acts, or any of them mentioned, and greater or lesser Quantities of the said Salt-Rock, or Rock-Salt, shall be reckoned proportionably; Any thing in the said former Acts, or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Owner of Rock-Pit shall before Removal, cause Rock-Salt to be weighed, in Presence of Officer.

Who is to make Return to Commissioners.
Owners to have a Copy thereof.

Penalty.

III. And whereas by the said former Acts, or some of them, it is provided, that all Makers and Proprietors of Rock-Salt should make true Entries with his Majesty's Officers, of the Quantities of Salt by them taken out of any Pit or Pits, and should have a Warrant or Ticket from some one of the Officers, to carry away the same, before the said Salt made or taken out of any Pit or Pits, should be removed or carried from the respective Pits, and that such Warrant should be given gratis unto such Maker or Proprietor, upon paying or giving Security for Payment of his Majesty's Duties, within Six Months after such Entry made; Nevertheless the Owners or Proprietors of Rock-Salt, having by the said Acts, or some of them, Liberty to remove their Rock-Salt, into his or their own Warehouses, or other Places for securing thereof, for Conveniency of selling or shipping off the same, after due Entry made, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same, from the Officer next to such Salt-Pits, and to pay and secure the Duty when the said Rock-Salt shall be sold and delivered, it is found by Experience, that there is not a sufficient Charge made and kept upon the said Owners or Proprietors, for all the Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock taken out of his or their Pit or Pits, but between the Pits and the said Storehouses (which are in many Places contrived so as to be remote from the Pits) or else before the selling and delivery of the said Rock-Salt, great Quantities thereof are run and imbezled, and never charged, to his Majesty's great Damage, and the Injury of such Workers as justly pay his Majesty's Dues: For Remedy whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Proprietor of any such Rock-Pit or Pits, who after the said Fifteenth Day of May, One thousand six hundred ninety nine, shall take any Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, out of any such Pit, shall, before the Removal thereof, cause the same to be weighed in the Presence of the Officer appointed for the Duties on Salt, which Officer is hereby authorized and required to attend at such Salt-Pits, at all reasonable Hours in the Day time, to see and take Account of all such Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock so weighed, and thereof to make Return, or Report in Writing under his Hand, to the Commissioners of Excise, or to such Person as they shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy of such Return in Writing under his Hand, with such Proprietor, and such Report or Return shall be a Charge upon such Proprietor respectively; and if any such Proprietor shall refuse to weigh any such Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock, in the Presence of the Officer, when taken out of any Pit, as aforesaid, or shall remove or convey, or suffer to be conveyed from such Pit, any such Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock, before the same shall have been weighed, as aforesaid, every such Proprietor shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and also double the Value of the Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock so removed, as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further Enacted, That every Proprietor of such Rock-Pits, shall pay and clear off the Duties of all Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock so charged, as aforesaid, within two Days after such Charge was made, or shall within the said Two Days, give Security to pay the same within Nine Months; and every such Proprietor who shall not pay and clear off, nor give Security to pay, as aforesaid, shall forfeit double the Value of the said Duties.

Duties to be cleared off in Two Days after Charge made or Security given.

Penalty.

V. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall within the said Two Days after such Charges, as aforesaid, pay down the Duty charged by this Act, such Person or Persons shall be allowed after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Cent, per Ann. for the said time of Nine Months.

Allowance for Prompt Payment.

VI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any such Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock for which his Majesty's Duties, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds Weight to the Bushel, shall have been first duly charged and paid or secured, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be melted and refined, the Person or Persons who shall refine the same into White Salt (which White Salt is charged by the said Acts with New Duties, after the Rate of Fifty six Pounds to the Bushel) shall have an Allowance or Abatement out of the Duties of the said White Salt, of so much as was charged on the said Rock so melted and refined, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds to the Bushel, and not after the Rate of One hundred twenty Pounds to the Bushel, as by the said former Acts was prescribed, so as the Rock so refined was before the melting thereof weighed in the Presence of the Officer, and so as Oath be first made before some Justice of Peace, near adjoining to such Salt-Works, of the particular Quantities of such Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock so by such Refiner employed in making the said White Salt, and that he or any other Person or Persons, by his Privy or Knowledge, did not increase the said Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, by mixing or other undue Practice, and that no former Allowance or Abatement for the said Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock had been made or obtained to his Use or Benefit (which Oath the said Justice of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer) and so as due Proof be made upon Oath or otherwise, that the Duties for the said Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock so refined were duly charged and paid, or secured to be paid, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds to the Bushel, according to this Act, and not otherwise; Any thing in the said former Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowance for Rock-Salt refined into White Salt.

Oath first made,

And Duties paid or secured.

VII. And to the end that Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock in kind, and Salt refined and made from Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock may be exported, and the Duties charged thereon be repaid, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all such Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock, and refined Salt made from Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, as shall be exported from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be allowed and paid for every Bushel of such Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, whereof the Duties shall have been charged and paid, as aforesaid, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and for every Bushel of such refined Salt made from Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, whereof the Duties shall have been charged and paid or allowed, after the Rate of Fifty six Pounds to the Bushel, the Duties which shall have been so paid for every such Bushel of Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock or refined Salt, so exported, to the Person or Persons exporting the same, by the Officer or Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt in the same Port from whence any such refined Salt shall be exported, within Two Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs in the Port where such Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock or refined Salt shall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of such Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock or refined Salt actually shipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter, or his Agent, be first taken before the Principal Officers of the said Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and empowered to give the said Oath, That the Duties, as aforesaid, for the Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock or refined Salt, in such Debenture mentioned, were first actually paid, and that such Rock-Salt, Salt-Rock or refined Salt, is really exported, or shipped

And not to be re-landed in England, &c.

ped to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be re-landed in England, Wales or Berwick; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward shall be given; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture, shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the Principal Commissioners for managing the Revenue of Excise of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for the time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the Duties upon Salt, and any Officer neglecting or refusing to pay the said Money, or to give such Certificate as is hereby directed, shall forfeit double the Sums to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Effoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Penalty.

Duties how to be raised, &c.

VIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties upon Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock, which shall be charged in pursuance of this Act, shall be raised, levied and recovered, by such Ways and Means, and in such Manner and Form, in all Cases (unless in such where other Methods or Directions are hereby prescribed) as the Duties upon Salt or Rock-Salt, chargeable by the said former Acts, or any of them, were thereby appointed to be raised, levied and recovered: And that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall and may be sued for, levied and recovered, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Forfeiture or Penalty is or may be recovered, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Forfeiture or Penalty, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall inform or sue for the same; and that all the Duties which shall be charged by virtue of this Act, as aforesaid, shall be brought in, applied, issued and disposed of, to the same Uses and Purposes, and in the same Proportions as the Duties upon Salt and Rock-Salt, charged by the said former Acts respectively, are appointed to be brought in, issued and applied, and under the same Penalties for delaying, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies arising for the said Duties to be charged by this Act, as in and by the said former Acts, or any of them, in the like Case and Cases are prescribed; Any thing in this or the said former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

And Fines, Penalties, &c. recovered.

Duties how to be applied.

IX. And for the greater Equality, in determining Differences touching the Duties upon all Salt whatsoever, and the Penalties and Forfeitures concerning the same, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety nine, if any Person or Persons shall find him, her or themselves aggrieved by any Order or Judgment of any Two Justices of the Peace, relating to the Duties upon Salt, or to any Forfeiture or Offence concerning the same, That then it shall and may be lawful, to and for such Person or Persons to appeal to the Justices at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for that County, Liberty, Riding, Division or Place, where the said Order or Judgment shall be made or given, and the said Justices at such Quarter Sessions, are hereby Impowered and Authorized, to hear and determine the same, whose Judgment therein shall be final; Any thing in this or any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

All Salt whatsoever to be weighed, at the Place where shipped.

X. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety and nine, all Rock-Salt, and Salt-Rock, and White Salt whatsoever, that shall be shipped or taken on board any Ship, Boat or Vessel, whatsoever, to be delivered as a Commodity, either to be exported to Ireland, or any other Place beyond the Seas, or to be unladen, in any Port, Creek, Haven or other Place, on the Coasts of England, or elsewhere, shall be weighed at the Place or Creek where the said Salt is to be taken on board, by such Officer or Officers, as the Commissioners of the Excise, or the major Part of them for the time being, shall, from time to time, direct and appoint; and that no such Salt shall be carried on board any Ship, Boat or Vessel whatsoever, till the same shall be so weighed or tendered to be weighed, and a Permit or Certificate, containing the Quantity of such Salt

And not put on board till weighed, and Permit obtained.

Salt so weighed or tendred to be weighed, as aforesaid, be first had and obtained, under the Penalty of forfeiting the said Salt, not so weighed or tendred to be weighed, and over and above Ten Shillings per Bushel, for the same, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, so carried on board any Ship, Boat or Vessel, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, which said Permit or Certificate such Officer shall give to the Party requiring the same gratis, on the Penalty of Five Pounds to the Party grieved.

Penalty.

Penalty.

Officer refusing to weigh such Salt.

Owner may ship the same.

If Salt on unloading be found more in Weight than contained in Permit, Surplusage, forfeited.

Master refusing to show Permit,

Officer may seize the Salt.

Permit not shown in Four Days, Salt forfeited.

XI. Provided always, That if the said Officer or Officers shall refuse to weigh such Salt so to be taken on board, as aforesaid, or shall not attend to weigh the same at such Place where the same is to be taken on board, as aforesaid, or after the weighing the same, shall refuse to give such Permit or Certificate, that then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owner or Possessor of the Salt, to carry the said Salt on board any Ship, Boat or Vessel, without incurring any Penalty for so doing; Any thing herein contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XII. And be it likewise Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for the Officer and Officers, so to be appointed, as aforesaid, at every unloading Port or Creek of such Ship, Boat or Vessel, to go on board the same before the Delivery thereof, and to demand a sight of such Permit or Certificate, so to be given, as aforesaid, and to weigh the said Salt upon the unloading the same; and if the Salt on the weighing of the same, shall be found to be more in Weight than what is contained in the said Permit or Certificate, that then the Surplusage that shall exceed the Quantity contained in the said Permit or Certificate shall be forfeited, the one Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person that shall inform or sue for the same: And if the Master of such Ship, Boat or Vessel, shall refuse to shew unto such Officer the said Permit or Certificate, upon due Request made, to the End he may see whether the Salt so unloading, be the same Quantity with that contained in the Permit or Certificate, that then, and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Officer to seize the said Salt, and detain the same, until the said Permit or Certificate be produced.

XIII. Provided always, That if the said Permit or Certificate, having been given, as aforesaid, be not shewn to such Officer, within Four Days after the Seizure thereof, that then, and in such Case, the Salt so seized shall be forfeited.

of Salt, Refiner of Rock-Salt, and Proprietor of any Salt-Works or Salt-Pits, who after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and two, shall erect, set up, or make use of any Salt-Work, Salt-Pit, Salt-Pan, Storehouse, Warehouse, or other Place, for the making, laying, refining or keeping of Salt or Rock-Salt, without giving Notice thereof at the next Salt-Office, shall forfeit and lose for every Salt-Work, Salt-Pit, Salt-Pan, Storehouse, Warehouse, or other Place, so erected, set up, or made use of, without such Notice, as aforesaid, the Sum of Forty Pounds.

Officer may Enter into Salt-Work, &c.

Penalty on Refusal.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the several Officers for the said Duties, to enter into all and every the Works, Warehouses, Storehouses, and other Places made use of by any Maker, Refiner or Importer of Salt, or Proprietor of Rock-Salt, for the better looking after the said Duties, and preventing Frauds therein; and if any Salt-maker, Importer of Salt, or any Refiner or Proprietor of Rock-Salt, after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, shall, upon due request or demand made by the Officers for the said Duties, in the Day-time, or in the Night in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, refuse to permit such Officer to enter and come into his or their Works, Warehouses, Storehouses, or other Place by him or them made use of for making, laying, refining or keeping of Salt, such Maker and Importer of Salt, and the Refiner or Proprietor of Rock Salt respectively, shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of Forty Pounds.

Salt found and not Entred, and Duty paid.

Penalties.

III. And whereas great Quantities of Salt are frequently found in the Custody or Possession of several Persons who live near the Salt-Works or Sea-Coasts, which Salt is not duly Entred, nor any Duties paid for the same, and if discovered by the Officers for the said Duties, the Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same is found, pretend that the same doth not belong to them, so that the Penalties by Law imposed on the Persons that landed such Salt, or removed the same from the Salt-Work, without Entry or Payment of Duties, cannot be inflicted on such Offenders: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person in whose Custody or Possession any Salt shall be so found, which hath not been duly Entred, and the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid, shall, in case the same be Foreign Salt, be liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as if such Person had landed the same without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same; or in case the same shall be English Salt, then to be liable to such Penalties and Forfeitures, as if such Person had removed such Salt from the Salt-Works, without Entry, or Paying or Securing the Duties thereof, and without any Ticket or Licence obtained for removing the same, unless the Person or Persons, in whose Custody or Possession such Salt shall be found, shall make it appear upon the Trial, or hearing of the Information for such Offence, that he bought such Foreign or English Salt of a Maker, Retailer or Importer of Salt, and of whom he so bought the same.

Salt Carriers

before Entry,
&c.

Officer may seize the same,

IV. And whereas several Persons, especially Salt-Carriers, do frequently carry Salt from the Salt-Works and Storehouses of Makers of Salt, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same; and when they find themselves pursued by the Officers for the said Duties, with force obstruct and hinder the Officers from making Seizures thereof, and frequently Beat and Abuse them, whereby they are very much discouraged in performance of their Duties; and sometimes the said Persons scatter the said Salt on the Ground, or cast the same into Water, to prevent the Seizure thereof; and the said Offenders, being for the most part very Poor, are not able to pay the Penalties by Law imposed on them for such Offences, and sometimes before such Penalties can be adjudged against them, make their Escapes to remote Parts, and cannot be found: For Remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Salt-Carrier, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, remove or convey any Salt from any Salt-Works, or Place thereunto belonging, without due Entry of the same, and Payment of the Duties thereof, or giving Security for such Duties, or without Warrant, Ticket or Licence for carrying or removing the same, that then, and in every such Case, It shall be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties, not only to seize the Salt so removed, but also to apprehend the said Offender or Offenders, and carry him, her, and them before one of her Majesties Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed: And in case the said Offence shall be proved before the said Justice of the Peace, and the Offender or Offenders shall not forthwith pay down the Penalties by the Laws relating to the said Duties imposed on such Offender or Offenders, for the Offence so proved on such Offender or Offenders, and no sufficient Distress can be found, whereupon to levy the same, It shall be lawful for the said Justice of the Peace to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt, and kept to hard Labour, for any time not exceeding One Month: And if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers for the said Duties, in the Execution of his or their Offices, or the Powers given them by this Act, or any other Law relating to the said Duties, or shall beat or abuse the said Officers, or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Offices, such Person and Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and for Non-payment thereof, and in default of Distress whereby to levy the same, it shall and may be lawful for any of her Majesties Justices of the Peace, upon due Proof of such Offence, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt, and kept to hard Labour, for any time not exceeding One Month.

On Non-payment of the Penalties, &c. Offender to be committed to the House of Correction.

Penalty on Person hindring or abusing a Salt Officer, no Distress Offender to be committed to the House of Correction and whipt, &c.

V. And whereas several Persons do make use of Brine taken out of Brine-Pits or Brine-Pans, for curing or Pickling of Flesh and Fish, or for preserving of other Provisions, without Boiling the same into Salt; and also of Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, without refining the same into White-Salt, whereby her Majesties Duties on Salt are much prejudiced: For Prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and two, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall make use of any such Brine before the same is boiled into Salt, or of any Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock, before the same is refined into White-Salt, for the pickling or curing of Flesh or Fish, or for preserving of any Provisions, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Gallon of such Brine, or Pound of Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock so made use of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

No Brine or Rock-Salt to be used for Curing and Pickling of Flesh or Fish, &c.

Penalty.

VI. And whereas her Majesty is very much defrauded of her Duties upon Foreign Salt, by the different and uncertain Measuring of the same, upon the Importation and Exportation thereof: For Remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, Eighty four Pounds Weight of Foreign Salt shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel of Foreign Salt, both upon the Importation and Exportation thereof; Any thing herein, or in any former Law, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

84 Pound the Content of a Bushel of Foreign Salt.

VII. And whereas the Importers of Foreign Salt, do bring the same in Vessels on the several Coasts of this Kingdom, and Dominion of Wales, and lie hovering off the said Coasts, and will not bring the same into Port, or land the said Salt, until they can get an Opportunity of Running such Salt; without Entry or Payment of Duties; and in many cases where they do bring the same into Port, yet continue such Salt in Port on board their Vessels, and refuse to enter or land the same, and in the Night-time, or Absence of the Officers from on board such Vessels, privately Run the said Salt on shore, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same: For Prevention thereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, where any Ship or Vessel laden with Salt shall be found hovering on the Coasts of England or Wales, not directly proceeding on her Voyage to some Port, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Customs, or the Officers for the said Duty on Salt, to go on board such Vessels, and compel the same to come into Port, and to continue on board such Ships or Vessels until the Salt shall be unladen, or the said Ship or Vessel shall depart from the said Port, on her intended Voyage to some other Place; and if the Persons on board such Ship or Vessel, or any other Ship or Vessel importing Salt, shall neglect or refuse to enter or unlade such Salt, for the Space of Twenty Days after the same is come into Port, or within that time to depart and proceed regularly on their Voyage to Ships laden with Salt, hovering on the Coast, may be compelled by such Officers to come into Port.

Salt not entered or Ship not departing, 20 Days.

Unless permitted to stay,

Salt, forfeited, and double the Value.

Salt imported in Ships less than 20 Tuns, Forfeited, and double the Value.

65 lb. to be deemed a Bushel of Rock-Salt.

No Rock-Salt to be refined, but within Ten Miles of the Pit whence taken, &c.

Penalty.

No Drawback to be allowed for Salt exported for Ireland, till a Certificate is produced from thence.

Proviso for Salt-Ships drove into Port by stress of Weather, &c.

some other Place, unless permitted by the Chief Officer of the Customs for that Port to make a longer Stay, then and in such Case, all the Salt on board such Ship or Vessel, shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, or the Person commanding the same in that Voyage.

VIII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, no Foreign Salt shall be imported from Parts beyond the Seas, in any Ship or Vessel of less Burthen than Twenty Tuns, and in Bulk only (except for the Necessary Provisions of the Ships) upon Paid of forfeiting the said Salt, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Person Importing the same.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, Sixty five Pounds Weight of Rock-Salt shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel of Rock-Salt; Any thing in the said former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And it is hereby also Enacted, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, no Rock-Salt whatsoever shall be refined or made into White-Salt in any Place or Places whatsoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, (except such Places as are or shall be within Ten Miles distance of the respective Pit or Pits from whence such Rock-Salt shall be taken, or at such Places as upon or before the Tenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and two, shall have been used for the refining of Rock-Salt,) under the Pain of Forty Shillings for every Bushel of Rock-Salt that shall be melted or refined in any House, Place or Places, not by this Act allowed for that Purpose, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XI. And whereas by the several Acts for laying Duties upon Salt, any Person, exporting Salt to Parts beyond the Seas, is Intituled to a Drawback of the whole Duty of the Salt so exported; and it is found by Experience, that many Exporters of Salt and Rock-Salt, after they have obtained the said Drawback, or a Debenture for the same, do privately Re-land such Salt or Rock-Salt in England or Wales, without paying the Duties thereof upon such Re-landing: for Prevention thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid, for or upon account of Exportation of any Salt or Rock-Salt for Ireland, until the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock-Salt, shall produce to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock-Salt shall be landed, or the Person executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock-Salt actually landed, to be computed after the Rate of Fifty six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English White-Salt, and after the Rate of Sixty five Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English Rock-Salt, and after the Rate of Eighty four Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be Foreign Salt; which Salt and Rock-Salt is hereby directed and required to be weighed by the said Collectors or Persons executing their respective Offices, and the said Certificate to be made gratis, and without Delay. And it is hereby Enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed or paid for more Salt or Rock-Salt, of the Quantity exported in such Vessel, than what shall appear by such Certificate to have been actually landed in Ireland.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel laden with Salt exported, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, shall, from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, by stress of Weather or otherwise, be drove or come into any Port, Creek, Harbour, or other Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer of Excise on Salt for such Place, appointed or to be appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners of Excise, to enter or come on board such Ship or Vessel, and there to continue and be, till the said Ship or Vessel shall unlade her Cargo, or return to Sea to go her intended Voyage, under the Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, who shall refuse such Officer so to come and continue tinued on board, as aforesaid. And if the said Master, or any other Person, shall unlade or put on shore any Part of the said Salt, before due Entry or Repayment of the Duty, as by the Statutes in that Behalf made is provided, That then, and in every such Case, not only the said Salt so unladed, but also the whole Cargo of Salt in such Ship or Vessel remaining, shall be forfeited and lost.

Salt landed before Entry, or Repayment of the Duty, the whole Cargo forfeited.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt, as well Foreign as English, shall be laid on board any Ship or Vessel, either to be transported to Parts beyond the Seas, or carried Coastwise, to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick, the Officer of the Customs of the Port where the said Salt shall be laden on board any such Ship or Vessel, shall in the Cocquets made out and delivered for such Ship or Vessel (which Cocquet shall be also signed by the Officer in the said Port appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the Duty on Salt, and given without Fee or Delay) express the particular Quantity of Salt so laden on board: And in case such Ship or Vessel shall come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or Place in England, Wales, or Berwick, It shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs, or other Officers for the said Duties, to go on board any such Ship or Vessel, and demand a sight of such Cocquet, and in case he or they shall have just Cause to suspect that there is not so much Salt on board as the Quantity expressed in such Cocquet, and shall make Affidavit thereof before the Collector or Customer of the said Port, or Person executing their or either of their Offices, to weigh all the Salt remaining on board; and in case upon such Weighing, there shall appear not to be so much Salt on board, as the Quantity expressed in such Cocquet, making reasonable Allowance for the Waste of the said Salt since its Exportation, and making also Allowance (for Salt going Coastwise) of Salt delivered at another Port, and endorsed in the Salt-Permit, going with the said Vessel, as delivered at such Port, then and in such case, the said Salt so remaining on board, shall be forfeited and lost.

Salt exported or carried Coastwise,

Quantity to be expressed in the Cocquet.

Officer finding less on board than expressed in the Cocquet Salt forfeited.

XIV. And for Prevention of Frauds frequently Practised in curing Fish at Sea with Salt, which hath not, or shall not have been entred, nor the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid, according to the Directions of the former Laws, or with Salt exported from England or Wales, the Duties whereof shall have been repaid upon such Exportation, or Debentures obtained, in order to the drawing back of the same: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and two, no Fish, for which Allowances are by Law given upon Exportation, shall be imported, brought in, or landed within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, unless the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer for the said Duties, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed, (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) That all the Salt, wherewith the said Fish was cured, was laden or put on board from some Part of England, Wales or Berwick, and that no Drawback, or Allowance, or Debenture for the same, hath, to his Knowledge or Belief, been had or obtained, or is intended to be had or obtained, upon the Exportation or Carrying out of the said Salt, or any Part thereof, upon Pain of forfeiting such Fish that shall be imported, brought in, or landed, contrary to the Intent and Meaning hereof, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

No Fish for which Allowances are given upon Exportation, shall be Imported, unless Oath be made,

That all the Salt which cured the Fish was carried from England without Drawback.

Forfeiture.

XV. And whereas the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise, to take Care of the Duties on imported Salt, and to prevent Frauds in the undue obtaining Debentures for Drawbacks and Allowances out of the said Duties, are not by any of the Laws relating to the said Duties, sufficiently Impowered to go on board Ships and Vessels for that purpose, although the Duties on Salt are under the Management of the said Commissioners and their Officers: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the said Duties on Salt, from time to time, to go on board all Ships importing or exporting any Salt or Fish, and to continue on board such Ships, to take an Account of such Salt and Fish, and see the same weighed, landed or exported: and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in Performance of their Duties aforesaid, then, and in every such such Case, the Person offending therein, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XVI. And whereas her Majesties Duties on Salt are much lessened by the Exportation of great Quantities of Fish, in regard the Exporters thereof, after the same are carried out of Port, and Allowances, or Debentures for Allowances out of the Duties on Salt, had or obtained on such Exportation, do frequently bring back such Fish into Port, and Re-export the same, and obtain a Second or more Allowances for the very same Fish: For Remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and two, It shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective Parts of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake, before the same shall be so exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling or Hake hath been so exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be re-landed or re-imported; And also, That it shall be lawful upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, White-Herrings, Red-Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red-Sprats, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel or other Vessel, wherein any such Pilchards, Scads, White-Herrings, Red-Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red-Sprats, shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Pilchards, Scads, White-Herrings, Red-Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red-Sprats, have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation of the same, in case the same or any of them, shall be re-landed or re-imported.

Officer to cut off part of the Tail upon Exportation of Codfish, Ling or Hake, and to mark Casks of Pilchards, &c.

Fish fraudulently Re-landed, forfeited, and double the Value.

Salt-Maker not to act as Justice of the Peace, relating to the Duties on Salt, &c.

XVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Codfish, Ling or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, White-Herrings, Red-Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red-Sprats, shall, after the same shall be exported, be fraudulently Re-landed in England, or Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Re-imported, all the said Fish so re-landed or re-imported, shall be forfeited and lost, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Salt-Maker or Dealer in Salt, shall act as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relating to the Duties on Salt, or any Offence committed against the Laws relating to the same; and in case there shall not be a sufficient Number of Justices of the Peace in any Corporation (that are not Makers or Dealers in Salt) sufficient to hear and determine the Offences relating to the said Duties, then, and in such Case, the Justices of the Peace of the County next adjoining to such Corporation, shall have hereby Power and Authority, from time to time, to hear and determine all Offences, Matters and Things relating to the said Duties on Salt, in the same Manner as if they were Justices of the Peace for such Corporation respectively; Any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Penalties, how to be recovered, and distributed.

XIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures hereby given and imposed, shall be recovered and levied by the same Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance: And that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be distributed in manner following, (viz.) one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue or inform for the same.

XX. And whereas the Allowances given by the several Acts relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Codfish, Ling and Hake, therein mentioned, do much exceed the Duty of the Salt usually employed in the Curing the same, so that many Persons, for the sake of the said Allowances only, do export such Fish not duly Cured, and Fish of very small Size, not having a due Quantity of Salt made use of in Curing the same, which is not only a Prejudice to her Majesty in her said Duties on Salt, but also a great Disparagement to the Trade of English Fish in Foreign

Makers: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the several Allowances given out of the said Duties on Salt, by the Acts relating to the same, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, there shall be allowed and paid the several and respective Sums herein after mentioned, for the several and respective Sorts of Codfish, Ling or Hake, herein after mentioned, which shall be exported from any Port or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June; That is to say:

XXI. For every Hundred of Codfish, Ling and Hake (other than and except dried Cod, Ling or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall contain in Length Four and twenty Inches, and upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the Third Joint in the Tale of such Fish, the Sum of Fifty Shillings, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XXII. For every Hundred of Codfish, Ling or Hake (other than and except dried Cod, Ling or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall be of the Length of Eighteen Inches, or more, and under the Size of Four and twenty Inches, from the Bone in the Fin to the Third Joint in the Tail of such Fish, the Sum of Five and twenty Shillings, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XXIII. For every Hundred of dried Codfish, Ling or Hake, commonly called Haberdines, one Moiety of the Allowance given by this Act for other Codfish, Ling and Hake of the same Dimensions; upon Debentures, to be prepared according to the Directions of the several Acts relating to the said Duties, and doing and performing such other Matters and Things, as by the said former Acts, and this present Act, are required and prescribed, in order to the obtaining such Allowances.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Duties on Salt shall cease, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then, and in any of the said Cases, the said Allowances upon Exportation of Codfish, Ling or Hake, hereby settled, shall be lessened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease, determine or be redeemed.

XXV. And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That no Allowance shall be paid out of the said Duties on Salt, for or on Account of the Exportation of any Fish, that are or shall not be well Cured, or shall be Unmerchantable, nor for any Conger.

XXVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for her Majesty (if she pleases) from time to time, to constitute and appoint particular Commissioners, separate and apart from the Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, for the Receipt, Management and Government of the said Duties on Salt, during her Majesties Pleasure; and upon her Majesties constituting and appointing such particular Commissioners for the said Duties on Salt, and during such Time only as her Majesty shall, from time to time, think fit to continue the same under the Receipt and Management of such particular Commissioners, all and every the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, and by the several Acts relating to the said Duties on Salt, or any of them, to the Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, and the Collectors and other Officers for the said Duties under them, shall be, and are hereby vested and transferred to such particular Commissioners as her Majesty shall so, from time to time, constitute and appoint, for the Receipt, Government and Management of the said Duties on Salt; and the Collectors and Officers to be, from time to time, appointed by such particular Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Clauses, Matters and Things, which in and by the said Acts, relating to the said Duties upon Salt, are directed to be exercised, practised, applied, used and put in Execution by the said Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, and their Officers under them respectively, with relation to the said Duties on Salt, or any Penalties, Forfeitures, Frauds or Offences, against the said Acts, or any of them, relating to the same, shall, during such Time as her Majesty shall please to continue the said Duties on Salt, under the Receipt and Management of such particular Commissioners, be exercised, practised, applied, used and put in Execution by such particular Commissioners, and the Officers under them respectively for the time being.

Salt, &c. Entered beyond Sea, Officer to take Security. &c.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock-Salt shall be cured, according to the former Laws relating to the said Duties on Salt, and the same shall be intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, then, and in such Case the Officers for the said Duties on Salt shall be, and are hereby Authorized and Impowered to take sufficient Security from the Merchant or Merchants that intend to export such Salt or Rock-Salt, for the due Payment of the Duties thereof, without insisting, that the Original Proprietor of such Salt or Rock-Salt be bound in such Security.

No Person to buy Salt but by Weight. Penalty.

XXVIII. And whereas notwithstanding the Act of Parliament for obliging all Persons to sell Salt by Weight, the same is not observed, by reason the Persons that buy the same refuse to buy the same of the Proprietors otherwise than by Measure, to the great Prejudice of the said Proprietors: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, no Person shall buy any Salt otherwise than by Weight, and not by Measure, under the Penalty of Ten Shillings for every Bushel of Salt which shall be bought contrary to the true Meaning hereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Person or Persons so buying the same, to be recovered and distributed, as any the Penalties by this Act inflicted are hereby directed to be recovered and distributed.

Persons paying Duty in 28 Days after Security given, to have a Discount, &c.

XXIX. And whereas the Salt-Proprietors having a Liberty to pay the Duty in Ready Money, or give Security to pay the same, in Nine Months for the Rock, and in Six Months for other Salt, tends only to the Benefit of the Richer sort of Proprietors, but is destructive to the Salt-Trade in general, through the Difficulties attending such as have not Ready Money, thereby causing several Bonds to be sued, when by a due Encouragement to such, as well as other Proprietors, it might in a great measure be prevented, and the Duty sooner paid: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who shall give such Security, as aforesaid, shall have Liberty, at any time within Twenty eight Days after giving the same, to pay the Duty thereby secured, and on Payment thereof, shall have and receive a Discount after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Cent per Annum, for the remainder of the Time for which such Security shall be given.

Bonds given by Fishermen who used the North-Sea Fishery, An. 1700, &c. made void.

XXX. And whereas several Fishermen, who used the North-Sea Fishery, did in the Year One thousand seven hundred, Ship several Quantities of Salt at North and South-Shields near Newcastle upon Tine, giving Bonds for the Duties thereof, and then exported the said Salt to the North-Seas, where they spent it in curing and salting of Fish caught in those Seas, believing that upon Affidavit of Shipping off the said Salt, and its not being Relanded in England or Wales, they might be Intituled to a Drawback of the Duties, which some other Fishermen in the like Case had obtained, as if such Salt had been actually Exported to Parts beyond the Seas; and upon bringing Home their said Fish, sold the same to several Retailers at Home-Markets, at a low Price accordingly. Now forasmuch as such Fishermen might be ignorant that they were liable to pay the said Duties, notwithstanding such Salt was spent in curing of Fish, and they not being enabled by the Price thereof to pay the same, a Prosecution upon such their Bonds would ruin them and their Families: For Prevention whereof, upon due Proof to be made before the Commissioners for the Excise or Salt-Duties, that such Salt so shipped off was by them spent in curing and salting of Fish caught in the North-Seas, that the said Fish was afterwards sold to Retailers at Home-Markets, at a low Price, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been already made or paid by the said Commissioners for the Excise or Salt-Duties: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Bonds as were so given at North and South-Shields near Newcastle, for the Duties of such Salt so expended, as aforesaid, and for which no Drawback or Allowance has already been made upon Exportation thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby made and declared Void, and of none Effect: And the Commissioners for the Excise or Salt-Duties for the time being, are hereby Impowered and Directed to cancel or deliver up the same to the respective Persons therein concerned, who shall desire such Bonds, or any of them; and that all Prosecutions at Law upon the said Bonds do cease and determine.

Commissioners to cancel the same, and Prosecutions to cease.

XXXI. And whereas divers Frauds have been committed in curing and packing of Pilchards, by which means a great Disrepute is brought on the said Commodity beyond the Seas, which tends as well to the great Dishonour of the English Nation, as to the Destruction of that Trade: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June, no Person or Persons do presume to cure or pack Pilchards for Sale, unless he or they be Owner or Owners, or Part-Owners, of some Seyn or Seyns, or of Drift-net or Drift-nets, or have the Consent of such Owners in Writing, and that on each Cask or Hoghead of Pilchards the Word Seyn or Drift (according to the manner of their being taken) shall be burnt with an Iron in some visible Part thereof, together with the Name and Surname of the Owner or Owners of the same, as also the Number of Pilchards contained in each Cask or Hoghead; under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of double the Value of the said Fish for every such Offence, to be recovered and disposed as other Penalties by this Act are to be recovered and disposed.

Pilchards not to be cured or packed for Sale but by Owner or Owners, &c.

Cask to be marked with the Owners Name, &c.

under Forfeiture of double the Value.

Anno 2 & 3 A N N Æ Regina.

C. A. P. XIV.

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the better Securing and Regulating the Duties upon Salt.

Whereas great Sums of Money are paid out of her Majesties Duties upon Salt, on account of Debentures for Salt shipped to be exported to Foreign Parts, and it is found by Experience, That great Part of the Salt, for which such Debentures have been paid, hath been fraudulently Landed on the Coasts of England and Wales, and not Exported to any Foreign Parts, or having been actually Landed in Ireland, or other Places out of England and Wales, have been shipped off again from thence, and fraudulently brought into England or Wales, by which evil Practices her Majesties said Duties are very much lessened in the Produce thereof, and the Salt-Makers, who pay their full Duties, are very much prejudiced and discouraged in their Trade, by reason they cannot sell their Salt in Places which are supplied with Salt Run, as aforesaid: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That no Salt whatsoever, being of the Produce or Manufacture of England, Wales, Berwick upon Tweed, Scotland or Ireland, nor any other Salt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Isle of Man, shall, after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, be imported or brought into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, nor be taken out of any Ship or Vessel, nor put on shore within any of the said Ports or Places, upon Pain that all the Salt so imported or brought in, taken out of any Ship or Vessel, or landed, or put on shore, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited and lost; and that the Ship or Vessel in which any such Salt shall be so imported or brought in, or out of which any such Salt shall be taken or put on shore, together with all her Tackle and Apparel, shall also be forfeited and lost; and every Person that shall take any such Salt out of any such Ship or Vessel, or carry the same on shore, or convey the same from the shore when Landed, or be aiding or assisting therein, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, or suffer Six Months Imprisonment.

Preamble.

Salt imported from Ireland, Scotland, or the Isle of Man.

Forfeited as also the Ship, &c. Person un-ship- ping; or landing the Salt, &c. forfeit 20l. or suffer 6 Months Imprisonment.

II. And be it further Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, to and for any of the Officers for the said Duties upon Salt, at any time within Two Months after the Importation or Landing any such Salt, and not afterwards, to seize the Salt so imported or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, or landed or put on shore, or conveying from the Shore; and also the Ship or Vessel in which such Salt was imported, together with all her Tackle

Salt so imported or landed may in Two Months after be seized,

also the Ship, &c.

And if not claimed in Twenty Days,
may be sold.

and Apparel : And in case the Owner of such Salt or Ship shall not within Twenty Days after such Seizure, claim the Salt and Ship so seized; and also give sufficient Security to answer the Value thereof; then and in every such Case, the Salt and Ship, with all her Tackle and Apparel, shall be sold to the best Advantage.

Salt carried Coastwise ex-
cepted.

III. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend to any Salt which shall be shipped, to be carried Coastwise by Certificate from one Port to another in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, according to the Directions of the former Acts relating to the said Duties.

Salt forced into any Port by strefs of Weather, &c. may be re-landed on Entry and re-payment of the Duty.

IV. Provided also, That in case where any Salt shall have been entred and shipped to be exported to Foreign Parts, according to the Directions of the former Acts in that Behalf, and the Ship or Vessel, laden with such Salt, shall by strefs of Weather, Enemies, or other unavoidable Necessities, be forced into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owner of such Salt, or Master of such Ship, within Twenty Days after her coming into such Port to re-land the said Salt, so as due Entry be made, and the Duties again paid down for the whole Quantity of Salt that was entred to be exported, before any part thereof shall be re-landed, and not otherwise, Any thing in this Act, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fishermen may Land Salt taken on board for salting of Fish, on Oath made, &c.
where it was taken in.

V. Provided also, That in case where any Fisherman shall have taken any Salt on board his Boat or Vessel from any Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, for the salting of Fish at Sea, it shall and may be lawful for any such Fisherman to bring in and land any such Salt so taken on board, so as Oath be made before the landing thereof, (which Oath the Officer for the said Duties hath hereby Power, and is hereby Directed to administer, without Fee or Charge) That the particular Quantity of Salt so to be landed, was taken on board from some Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and at what Place it was taken on board, and that no Part thereof was taken out of any Ship or Vessel at Sea, Any thing in this Act, or any other Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Salt for Ships Provision, or for curing Fish, may also be landed so as Entry be made in Ten Days.

VI. Provided also, That in case where any Ship or Vessel shall come into any Port of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, from Ireland, or any other Foreign Part, having on board any Quantity of Salt, which was taken in only for the necessary Provisions of the Ship for such Voyage, or for curing of Fish, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Master of such Ship or Vessel, to land the said Salt so as Entry be made thereof within Ten Days after his first coming into such Port, and the Duties paid down, or secured for the same, before the same, or any Part thereof, shall be landed or taken out of any such Ship or Vessel, in the same manner as the Duties of Foreign Salt imported are to be paid or secured; Any thing in this Act, or any other Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Salt to be brought out of Sea Land by Land into England.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, no Salt shall be brought out of Scotland by land, into any Part of England, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Precincts thereof, on Pain of forfeiting the Salt so brought into any of the said Places, and Twenty Shillings a Bushel, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any of the Officers for the Duties upon Salt, to seize any Salt so brought into any of the said Places, and to apprehend the Person and Persons who shall bring in the same, and to carry him, her, or them, before any of her Majesties Justices of the Peace, near the Place where such Seizure shall be made; and if upon full Proof of the Fact, such Offender shall not pay down the said Penalties by this Act imposed, such Justice shall commit such Offender to the next Goal, there to remain for the Space of Six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

Penalty.

Salt-Officers to seize such Salt, and the Persons who are to be committed for 6 Months if they do not pay the Penalty.

VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of the late King William and Queen Mary, Intituled, An Act for Granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France; it is amongst other things Enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered.

cap. 7-1

vered from any Salt-Works, or Pits, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that purpose, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Salt so delivered, and upon Pain of Twenty Pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt-Works, or Pits, where such Salt shall be delivered: And whereas several Salt-Makers have been, and others may be subjected to the said Penalties of Twenty Pounds, by the Evil Practices of Salt-Carriers, and others, who convey Salt from the Salt-Works without a Warrant, or Permit for conveying the same, For preventing whereof, be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, as well the Carrier, or Person who shall carry or convey any Salt without a Warrant, or Permit for carrying the same, as the Proprietor of the Salt-Works, who shall deliver Salt without Notice first given, shall forfeit the said Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Salt-Carrier, carrying Salt without a Permit.

X. Provided always, and it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock-Salt, (the Duties whereof shall have been paid or secured to be paid, according to the Direction of the former Laws, relating to the said Duties on Salt) shall from and after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, be shipped or laid on board any Ship or Vessel, in any Port, River or Place within this Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or be carried Coastwise, and the said Salt, or Rock-Salt, so shipped or laid on board, shall happen to perish by the Sinking of the Ship or Vessel, on which the same shall be shipped or laid on board, before the said Ship or Vessel shall go out of such Port or Place, and before the Exporter of such Salt shall be intitled to a Drawback or Allowance of the Duties thereof, then and in such Case the Exporter, or Proprietor of the said Salt, or Rock-Salt so perished, shall upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division, or Place next to the Place where the said Salt, or Rock-Salt, shall so perish, of the Loss of the Salt, or Rock-Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate, that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to any of her Majesties Collectors, or Officers appointed to collect the said Duties on Salt, the said Collectors and Officers are hereby required to let the said Exporter or Proprietor, buy the like Quantity of Salt, or Rock-Salt, as is expressed in the said Certificate to be so perished, without paying to her Majesty any Duty of Excise for the same, in the same Manner as if such Salt, or Rock-Salt had so perished, going Coastwise from one Port in England to another.

on Proof made at the Quarter-Sessions.

Proprietor to buy the like Quantity, Duty Free.

XI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, shall at any time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done, or executed in Pursuance of this Act, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be non-suit, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants, shall have double Costs to him or them awarded, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have such Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

Defendant to have Double Costs.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures hereby given and imposed, shall be recovered and levied by the same Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoign, Protection or Wager of Law, nor any more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; and that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be distributed in manner following, (to wit) one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue or inform for the same.

Penalties and Forfeitures, how recovered,

and cured at Newfoundland, or Island, so as Oath be first made before the landing thereof by the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, before the Officer for the said Duties, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed, (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) that all the Fish so imported came from Newfoundland, or Island, and were caught and cured there, and so as the said Fish be, at the landing thereof, and before the same be removed from the Shore, tendred to the Officer of the Port for the said Duties, to have part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake cut off, that no Allowance for such Fish be obtained upon Exportation; and the said Officer is hereby impowered and required to cut off part of the Tail of all such Fish on the Importation thereof: And in case any such Fish shall be landed before the same shall be tendred to the Officer, to have part of the Tail cut, as aforesaid, all the Fish so imported and landed, shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen, the other Moiety thereof to him or them who shall prosecute or sue for the same.

XV. And whereas the Proprietors who have given Securities at their Works or Pits for the Duty of Salt or Rock-Salt bought of them, do often suffer Damage by Frauds committed in the Exportation without their Privy: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock-Salt shall after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, be entred, and Security shall be given for the Duties, and certified to the Officer, according to the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, no such Salt or Rock-Salt shall afterwards be entred for Exportation by any Person or Persons not bound in the Security first given, as aforesaid, until such Person or Persons so exporting such Salt or Rock-Salt, shall give or find sufficient Security for the Duties thereof, (which the Officer for the said Duties at the Port where the same is so entred for Exportation is hereby required to take) and the same Officer shall deliver gratis, and without Delay, a Certificate of such New Security taken, and upon producing such Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty of the said Salt was first secured to be paid, such first Security shall be discharged.

XVI. And whereas by several Leases, Grants or Contracts made before the Sixth Day of November, One thousand six hundred ninety three, certain Rents payable in Salt were reserved, granted, or agreed to be paid out of, or for divers Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments; and it is evident that the imposing the present Duties on Salt, since the making the said Leases, Grants, or Contracts, doth in effect increase the said Rents, and make them more Burthenfome to the Persons liable thereunto; it is therefore Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Owners, Proprietors and Tenants of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so charged by any Leases, Grants or Contracts made before the time aforesaid, do from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and three, pay or deliver any such Rent in Salt, the Person or Persons who shall Receive the same, shall be obliged by this Act to pay to him or them, who shall make such Payments of Salt in kind, so much Money as the Duty and Duties paid or payable to her Majesty for the same Salt, by any Act or Acts of Parliament made since the said Sixth Day of November, One thousand six hundred ninety three, do amount unto.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, during the present War, to bring in Bay Salt of the Produce of the Island of Guernsey, upon paying the same, and no higher or other Duty than what is or shall be laid upon Salt made in England, and so as the same Salt so to be imported shall be imported in the Ports of Turmouth in Norfolk, Portsmouth, Plymouth and Falmouth, or any of them, and shall not exceed in the whole Four thousand Bushels in any one Year, so as due Entry (according to Law) be made of the same, for which Salt no Drawback shall be allowed upon the Exportation thereof; Any thing in this present Act, or any other Act, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And whereas divers Merchants, and other Persons, being Subjects of this Realm of England, do ship Salt that hath paid the Duty to her Majesty, to convey it to some Part of England, and the same or part thereof of may be lost at Sea, by violent or stormy Weather, or by being thrown Over-board for preserving Mens Lives, or the Vessel in which such Salt is shipped, as aforesaid; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall upon Proof made (by the Oaths of Two or more Credible Witnesses, whereof the Master or Mate of the Vessel to be One, before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions, held for the County, Riding, Division, or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, in open Court) of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, and that the same was not occasioned by any Leakage of the Ship or Vessel, or by any Negligence or Default of the Master or Mariners, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to any of the Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt, the said Officer or Officers are hereby required to let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in the Certificate to be lost, without paying to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, any Duty or Excise for the same; Any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Owner to buy the same Quantities so lost, without paying Duty.

XIX. And whereas in the late Violent Storms, which happened in the Months of November and December, One thousand seven hundred and three, Two Vessels laden with Salt from Newcastle to the Humber, where by stress of Weather blown into Holland, and the Masters did there unlade and sell the said Salt; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Proof made thereof, upon the Oath of Two Credible Witnesses, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Salt, shall be intitled to the Drawback upon the same, as if the said Salt had been entred for Exportation into Parts beyond the Seas; Any thing in this or any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Two Ships with Salt drove into Holland by stress of Weather, and the Salt there sold. Proprietors intitled to the Drawback.

XX. And whereas by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, it is Enacted, That no Rock-Salt whatsoever shall be refined or made into White-Salt in any Place or Places whatsoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, except in such Places as are, or shall be within Ten Miles distance of the respective Pit or Pits, from whence such Rock-Salt shall be taken, or at such Places as on or before the Tenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and two, shall have been used for the refining Rock-Salt, under a Penalty therein expressed; and whereas Lawn Marsh in the County of Carmarthen, hath been an Ancient Place used for making Salt from Sea-Water; and upon several Occasions Rock-Salt is very useful to strengthen the Brine in the said Work, when weakened by Fresh-Water, or other Accidents; but the proper Use of the said Salt-Work not being for the refining Rock-Salt, it hath been doubted whether Rock-Salt might be there used: For preventing such Doubts for the future, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That Rock-Salt may be so used in the making Salt from Sea Water in the Salt-Works at Lawn-Marsh aforesaid; Any thing in the said Act, or in any other Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding, so as her Majesties Duties for all the Salt proceeding as well from the said Rock-Salt, as from the Sea-Water, be duly charged, answered and paid to her Majesties Use.

Rock-Salt may be used in making Salt at Lawn-Marsh, so as the Duties be paid.

XI. AND whereas by an Act made in the First Year of her present Majesty's Reign, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Salt, and for the better Payment of Debentures at the Custom-House, It is Enacted, That no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid for or upon the account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock-Salt for Ireland, unless the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock Salt shall produce to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock-Salt shall be landed, or the Person executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock-Salt, actually landed: And whereas 'tis equally reasonable, That for Salt and Rock-Salt shipped, in order for Exportation for Ireland, though the same perish by sinking of the Ship, or be taken by the Enemies, there should be made and allowed a Drawback as in the Case where Salt and Rock-Salt is exported and landed; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock-Salt hath been or shall be shipped in order for Exportation to Ireland, and the same hath perished or shall perish by sinking of the Ship or Vessel on which the same was or shall be shipped, and laid on board, or is or shall be taken by the Enemies, Then and in such Case the Exporter or Proprietor of such Salt or Rock-Salt so perishing or lost, shall upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division or Place from whence the same was so exported, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, or to be shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate, that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged, and so much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be repaid upon Demand by the said Officer, without Fee or Reward. Provided such Proof to be made, as aforesaid, as to all Salt lost or taken, before the Twentieth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and five, shall be made by Two Credible Witnesses upon Oath, before the Twentieth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and six; and as to all Salt which shall be lost after the said Twentieth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and five, the like Proof shall be made within Six Months after such Loss or Taking, as aforesaid.

XII. And whereas in and by One Act of Parliament made in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for the better Securing and Regulating the Duties upon Salt, It is amongst other things, provided, That nothing therein contained should extend to prohibit the Importing and Landing any Codfish, Ling or Hake, which had been caught and cured at Newfoundland or Island, upon making such Oath before the Landing, of the Catching and Curing the same, and upon tender thereof upon landing, and before the same be removed from the shore, and under such Penalties for not tending the same, to have part of the Tail cut off, as in and by the said Act is directed and appointed: And whereas North-Sea Codfish, Ling and Hake are omitted in the said Act;

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the Ease of her Majesties Subjects in Relation to the Duties upon Salt, and for making the like Allowances upon the Exportation of White-Herrings, Flesh, Oatmeal, and Grain called Beer alias Bigg, as are to be made upon Exportation of the like from Scotland.

Whereas by the Articles of Union between the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, which are Agreed upon and Confirmed by an Act of this present Parliament, there are certain Concessions made for the Advantage of her Majesties Subjects of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in Matters relating to the Duties upon Salt, and other Goods and Merchandizes, as are herein after mentioned, whereby her Majesties Subjects in England, Trading in Salt and other the Commodities herein after particularly expressed, will be liable to great Disadvantages, unless Provision be likewise made for their Ease in the said Trade: We your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons in Parliament assembled, being desirous that there may be as great an Equality of Trade as is possible among all your Majesties Subjects, do beseech your Majesty that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Foreign Salt that shall be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seven, shall, upon the landing thereof, be weighed, cellared, and locked up in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, under the Custody of the Merchant or Importer (who is to be at the Charge of the Cellarage or Storehouse) and such Officer as the Commissioners for the Duties on Salt for the time being, shall appoint, in the Port or Place where the same shall be so imported and landed; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Merchant or Importer of the said Salt, from time to time, in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, and by Warrant or Permit, under such Officers Hand and Seal, to have what Quantity thereof his Occasions may require, not under a Weigh or Forty Bushels at a time, giving Security for the Duty of what Quantity he receives, payable in Six Months time after the Delivery of any such Salt; and in case such Merchant or Importer shall pay Ready Money upon the Delivery of the Salt, he shall have after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum out the said Duties abated him.

Foreign Salt to be weighed, cellared, and locked up in the Presence of the Salt Officer.

Importer to have, from time to time, what Quantity he will not under 40 Bushels with a Permit on Security to pay the Duties in 6 Months, if in Ready Money to be allowed 10 per Cent. per Ann.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Foreign Salt imported, shall not, upon the Landing thereof, be Secured, as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to Payment of Duties, and to such Penalties and Forfeitures, for not paying or securing such Duties, as if this Act had not been made; and that no Salt so cellared and locked up, as aforesaid, shall be removed from any such Cellar or Place, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, and without a Warrant or Permit for conveying the same, as aforesaid, upon Pain of forfeiting

IV. And whereas Salt carried Coastwise is or may be liable to Waste, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Merchant or Person who, from and after the said First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seven, shall ship any English Salt, or Rock-Salt, to be carried Coastwise (viz.) from any Port of England, or Wales, or the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, to any Port of England, or Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, the Duties having been paid or secured to be paid, according to former Laws, shall have an Allowance made to him, after the Rate of Three Bushels for every Forty Bushels of English White-Salt, and after the Rate of One Bushel and an Half for every Forty Bushels of English Rock-Salt so shipped to be carried Coastwise, and proportionably for a greater or less Quantity, in Consideration of the Ordinary Waste in the Carriage thereof, which Allowance shall be made but once for the same Salt, altho' such Salt be carried from several Ports Coastwise, as aforesaid; and the proper Officer of the Port, where such Salt or Rock Salt shall be first shipped to be carried Coastwise, shall not only express the said Allowance on the Coast-Cocquer or Transire for the same, but also give gratis to the said Merchant, or other Person there shipping the same, a Certificate under Hand and Seal, of the Number of Bushels of Salt so shipped, and how much the Allowance hereby directed to be made at the Rates aforesaid doth amount to, which Certificate being produced to the Officer who first received the Duties of the said Salt, or took Security for the same, the Officer last mentioned shall re-pay so much Money as he received for the Duties of the said Salt, or Rock-Salt, as is to be allowed for Waste, as aforesaid; and if the Duties thereof shall not then have been paid in Money, then the said Officer shall discount the said Allowance for Waste on the said Security.

Times of Payment of the Duties on Salt extended to 9 &
12 Months.

V. And it is hereby Enacted, That in all Cases where, by the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, the Time for Payment of the Duties on Rock-Salt is appointed to be Nine Months, there shall be Twelve Months time allowed, in stead of the said Nine Months; and where the Time for Payment of the Duties on other English Salt is by the said former Laws appointed to Six Months, there shall be Nine Months time allowed in stead of the said Six Months; and the Securities and Discounts for Prompt Payment after the said First Day of May next, shall be regulated accordingly.

An Act for Allowing a Drawback upon the Exportation of Salt, to be made use of for the Curing of Fish taken at North-Seas, or at Island.

Preamble.

WHereas the Fishing for Cod in the North Seas, and at Isleland, gives great Employment to the Navigation of this Kingdom, and breeds up great Numbers of hardy and industrious Mariners for Defence of the Realm, and Improvement of Commerce; and whereas the said Fishing Trade cannot be so effectually carried on, unless Salt for curing Cod taken there, may be had Free of Excise: For the Preservation therefore, and Encouragement of the said Trade, Be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Master of any Boat or Vessel, bound on a Fishing Voyage to the North Seas, or Isleland, may take on board his said Boat or Vessel, in any Port of Great Britain, such Quantities of British Salt as he shall judge proper and necessary for his said Voyage, such Master paying or giving Security to pay the Duties due and payable for the same; which Money shall be re-paid, or Security shall be discharged, in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

Masters of Fishing Boats going to the North Seas or Island, may take Salt on board on paying or securing the Duty.

Officers to give a Certificate of the Quantity shipped.

II. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officer of the Place where the said Salt was made, and the Duties thereof paid or secured to be paid, shall, upon Demand, deliver gratis, to such Master of the Vessel, a Certificate, under his Hand and Seal, of the particular Quantity of Salt shipped on board his Vessel for the North-Seas, or Isleland, and that the Duties on such Salt have been paid, or secured to be paid.

Cod, Ling, or Hake, caught in the North-Seas or Island, may be imported on Oath made the Fish was caught and cured there, the Tail of the Fish being cut off by the Salt Officer.

III. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Codfish, Ling, or Hake, which have been caught and cured, at the North-Seas, or at Isleland, may be imported and landed, so as Oath be first made, before the landing thereof, by the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, before the Officer for the said Duties in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed, (who is hereby impowered and required to administer the same, without Fee or Charge) That all the Fish so imported came from the North-Seas, or Isleland, and were caught and cured there; and so as the said Fish be, at the landing thereof, and before the same be removed from the shore, tendered to the Officer of the Port for the said Duties, to have part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling, or Hake, cut off, that no Allowance for such Fish be obtained upon Exportation; and the said Officer is hereby impowered and required to cut off part of the Tail of all such Fish on the Importation thereof; and in case any such Fish shall be landed before the same shall be tendered to the Officer, to have part of the Tail cut off, as aforesaid, all the Fish so landed shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Foul Salt remaining to be destroyed.

IV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Salt, so made use of in curing of Fish, shall remain, such foul Salt shall be thrown over board, and destroyed, in the Presence of the Officer for the Salt-Duties for such Port, before the Collector shall sign his Certificate.

V. And

V. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall happen, that any of the Salt so taken on board for curing of Fish, shall not have been used for that Purpose, It shall and may be lawful, to and for the Master of such Ship or Vessel, to land the said Salt, so as an Entry be made thereof within Ten Days after his coming into any Port in Great Britain, that he shall first arrive at, and the Duties paid down for the same, before such Salt, or any part thereof, shall be landed or taken out of any such Ship or Vessel: And if such Master shall Neglect or Refuse to enter such Salt, in such Port where he shall first arrive, and pay down the Duties for the same within the said Ten Days (except in case of his being driven into any Port, or detained there by stress of Weather, or contrary Winds, or other unavoidable Necessities) then and in such Case all the Salt on board such Ship or Vessel shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, or the Person Commanding the same in that Voyage.

If any of the Salt shall not be landed, to be entered in 10 Days, otherwise forfeited and double the Value,

VI. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of such Boat or Vessel, upon producing to the Collector of the Salt-Duties for the Port where he imports his Fish, such Certificate of the Quantity of Salt taken on board, and that the Duties of it were paid, or secured to be paid, and making Oath before the said Collector, of the particular Quantity of the Salt in such Certificate mentioned, that was made use of in curing of Codfish, Ling, or Hake, caught and cured at the North-Sea, or at Isleland, and that the said Fish have been all marked, as aforesaid, that there may be no Allowance obtained for the same upon Exportation (which Oath the said Collector is hereby impowered and required to administer, without Fee or Charge) shall receive gratis from the said Collector a Certificate of the same, which, together with a Certificate of Payment of the Duty of the Remainder of the Salt taken in for that Voyage, if there shall be any Remainder, (which Certificate he shall also receive gratis) being produced to the Collector of the Salt-Duties for the Place where the Duties on the said Salt were paid, or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be re-paid upon Demand by the said Collector, without Fee or Reward.

Master producing a Certificate of the Salt used and Duty paid or secured and on Oath thereof,

Duties to be repaid or Security vacated,

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Master of any such Boat or Vessel shall have taken in any Quantity of British Salt, for the curing of Fish in the North-Seas, or at Isleland, as aforesaid, the Duties of the Salt having been paid or secured to be paid, and the Vessel on which such Salt, as aforesaid, is shipped, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with such Salt on board her, that in such Case, any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division, or Town wherein he doth Inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them; and upon producing the said Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged; and so much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be re-paid upon Demand by the said Officer, without Fee or Reward; provided such Proof be made within Nine Months after such loss or taking, as aforesaid.

Salt in such Vessel, perishing at Sea or taken by the Enemy, the Duty thereof to be repaid or Security vacated.

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures given by this, or any former Law, relating to the Duties of Excise upon Salt, shall be distributed in Manner following, (That is to say) one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall seize, sue, or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered, and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated by any Law of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint, or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster; and all and every Officer and Officers for the said Duties on Salt, are hereby Authorized and Impowered to seize all Salt, and other Things which by this, or any former Act, or Law relating to the Duties on Salt, are declared to be forfeited.

Penalties and Forfeitures by this or any other Law relating to the Duties on Salt, how to be prosecuted and divided.

*Persons sued may plead the
General Issue.*

IX. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued, or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this, or any other of the Statutes relating to the Duties of Excise upon Salt, or the Powers thereby given, he or they shall or may Plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, for his Defence; and if upon a Trial, a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become Non-suit, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant and Defendants shall have double Costs to him or them awarded, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

The Names of the Lawful KEYS, WHARFS, &c. for Shipping and Landing of Goods in the PORT of LONDON.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament it is Ordained, That the Keys, Wharfs, and Places hereafter named, and no others, be Assigned, Appointed, and Allowed by his Majesty to be lawful Keys, Wharfs, or Places for the Shipping, Lading, or Landing of Goods: That is to say,

Brewers-Key. Chesters-Key. Galley-Key. Wooll-Dock.

Custom-House-Key. Stone stairs on the West-side thereof, is declared not to be a Place for Shipping or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Porters-Key. Bear-Key.

Sabs-Dock, Excluding the Stairs there, which are declared no lawful Place for Shipping or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Wiggans-Key. Youngs-Key. Ralphs-Key.

Dice-Key. The Stairs there declared unlawful for Shipping or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Smarts-Key.

Somers-Key. The Stairs there declared no lawful Place for Shipping or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Lyon-Key. Buttolph-Wharf. Hammons-Key.

Gaunts-Key. The Stairs on the East-side are declared unlawful for Shipping, Lading or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Cocks-Key.

One other Place betwixt Cocks-Key and Fresh-wharf, called part of Fresh-wharf, the Stairs are declared unlawful for Shipping or Landing of Goods or Merchandize.

Billinggate to be a Common open Place for the Landing or Bringing in of Fish, Salt, Victual, or Fuel of all sorts, and all Native Materials for Building, and for Fruit (all manner of Grocery excepted) and for carrying out the same, and for no other Wares or Merchandize.

Brige-houfe in Southwark may be allowed as a Place convenient for the Landing of any kind of Corn, brought or provided for the Provision or Victualling of the City, and not upon any private or particular Persons account, and for no other Goods or Merchandize.

It may be lawful for any Person to Ship or Lade into any Ship or Vessel on the River of Thames bound over Sea, and lying between London and Woolwich, any of the Goods or Merchandize. hereaftermentioned; viz. Horses, Coals, Beer, ordinary Stones for Building, Fish taken by any of his Majesty's Subjects, Corn or Grain: Provided that the Custom and Duties of such Goods be duly Paid, and Cocquets or other lawful Warrants passed for the same.

It may be lawful for any Person or Persons to unship and lay on Land Deal-boards, Barks, and all sorts of Masts and great Timber, at any Place of the River of Thames, betwixt Westminster and Limehouse-Dock: Provided the Owner of such Goods do first pay or compound for the Custom and other Duties, and declare the Place at which they will Land them, before they unship any of the Goods, to the Officers or Farmers of the Customs thereof for the time being, and receive sufferance or permission from them so to do; and that they unship none of the said Goods, but in the Presence of a Waiter or Officer appointed thereunto; otherwise the said Goods to be liable to Forfeiture according to Law.

To prevent all future Differences and Disputes touching the Extent and Limits of the Port of London, the said Port is declared to extend and be accounted from the Promontory or Point called the North-foreland in the Isle of Thanet, and from thence Northward in a supposed right Line to the opposite Promontory or Point called the Naes, beyond the Gunfleet, upon the Coast of Essex, and so continued Westward through the River of Thames,
and

and the several Channels, Streams and Rivers falling into it, to London-Bridge. Saving the usual and known Right, Liberty and Privilege to the Ports of Sandwich and Ipswich, and either of them, and the known Members thereof, and of the Customers, Comptrollers, Searchers, and their Deputies, of and within the said Ports of Sandwich and Ipswich, and the several Creeks, Harbours, and Havens to them or either of them respectively belonging, within the Counties of Kent or Essex. dizes whatsoever, to be packed, casked, piped, barrellled, or any ways vesseled; with the Surbey of the Measure, Number and Weight of the said Merchandizes, together with the Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments aforesaid; and also the Office or Imployment of Carriage and Portage of all Wools, Wool-fells, Bales of Tin, and all other Merchandizes whatsoever, as well of any Denizen, whose Father is or shall be an Alien born, without the Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs or Successors, as of any Alien born without the Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs or Successors, and under any Foreign Allegiance, in Parts beyond the Seas, which shall be carried into London, from the River of Thames to the House of such Alien, and from thence to the said River, together with the Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments aforesaid, To hold and exercise the Offices and Impointments aforesaid, and either of them, with their Appurtenances, and the Dispositions, Orderings, Surveyings and Corrections thereof, and of either of them, together with all Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments whatsoever, to the said Offices or Impointments, or either of them, in the said Two Tables or Schedules to these Presents annexed, mentioned and respectively appointed, to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, and their Successors, for ever: And also to exercise and occupy the said Offices or Impointments, and every and either of them, by themselves, or by their sufficient Minister or Ministers, Deputy or Deputies, without any Account or other thing, to be therefore rendred or made to us, our Heirs and Successors (besides the Rent hereafter in these Presents mentioned to be reserved and paid to us, our Heirs and Successors) and without incurring any Penalty or Forfeiture of the Offices aforesaid, or either of them, or of any Parcel thereof, although they or their Deputies, Officers or Servants, do not pack the said Goods or Merchandizes, when they are ready, and upon reasonable Request and Notice thereof given for the performing the said Services. And that no other Porter or Carrier, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall presume to intermit or intrude him or themselves, to carry or lade any of the said Goods or Merchandizes from any Wharf or Shore within the Limits aforesaid, into any Ship or Vessel, or to unlade any Goods or Merchandizes from any Ship or Vessel, upon any Wharf, Shore, or Lane within the Limits aforesaid, without the special Appointment or Licence of the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City aforesaid, or of their Officers or Deputies for that purpose, first had or obtained. And that the Porter or Carrier appointed, and from time to time, to be appointed, by the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, or by their sufficient Officers or Deputies for the time being, shall have, take or receive of or from the said Merchants, as well Aliens born without the Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs or Successors, and under any Foreign Allegiance in Parts beyond the Seas, as of the said Denizens born, or to be born within the Power or Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs or Successors, whose Father is, or shall be an Alien born without the Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs or Successors, for the Carriage or Portage of the said Goods and Merchandizes, such Sums of Money for their Labour aforesaid, as in a certain Schedule to these Presents annexed are mentioned and appointed, without any Account or other thing to be therefore rendred or made to us, our Heirs or Successors (besides the Rents hereafter in these Presents mentioned, to be paid to us, our Heirs or Successors.) AND FURTHER, Of our more abundant Grace, certain Knowledge, and meer Motion, and for the Consideration aforesaid, We do for us, our Heirs and Successors, give and grant to the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, and their Successors, the Office or Imployment of the Scavage and Surveying, and also the Scavage of all the Goods and Wares customable whatsoever, of any Merchants, as well Aliens as Denizens, whose Father is or shall be an Alien born or to be born without the Allegiance of us, our Predecessors, Heirs, or Successors, and to be be brought from any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Liberties and Franchises of the said City and Suburbs thereof, on account of Merchandizing; and also the Surveying, Delivring, or Balliage of all the Goods and Wares of any of the said Merchants, within the Liberties and Franchises of the said City, which shall be carried out into Parts beyond the Seas, by way of Merchandize, thorough and upon the River Thames, within the Limits aforesaid, in any Ship, Boat, Barge or Vessel whatsoever, floating, laden, remaining or being off of any Shore of the said River of Thames, and which upon any Bank, Wharf or Shore of the said River, shall happen to remain and be delivered or unladen within the Liberties and Franchises of the said City and Suburbs thereof; together with the Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments in a certain Table or Schedule to these Presents annexed, mentioned, and respectively limited and appointed, according to the form of the Statute made and published in the Two and twentieth Year of Henry the Eighth, late King of England. All and singular which said Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments, in the said Table or Schedule last mentioned and expressed, as due and lawful Fees to the said several Offices of Scavage and Balliage aforesaid, annexed and belonging, and in the Execution of the same Offices, and either of them respectively hereafter to be had and taken: We do for us, our Heirs and Successors, ratifie, establish, and confirm, by these Presents; and the same Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments in the said last mentioned Table or Schedule, We do, for us, our Heirs and Successors, grant to the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, and their Successors, for ever, by these Presents. TO HAVE and exercise the said Offices and Employments last mentioned, and either of them, with the Appurtenances, and the disposings, orderings, superbillings and corrections of the same, and either of them, together with all the Fees, Sums of Money, Profits and Emoluments to the said Offices or Employments, and either of them, in the said Table or Schedule to these Presents annexed, mentioned and respectively appointed, unto the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens of the said City, and their Successors, for ever; and also to exercise and occupy the said Offices or Employments, by themselves, or by their sufficient Minister or Ministers, Deputy or Deputies, without any Account or other Matter to be rendered or made to us, our Heirs or Successors, for the same (besides the Rents hereafter in these Presents mentioned to be reserved and paid to us, our Heirs and Successors) and without incurring any Penalty of the said Offices or Employments, or either of them, or any Parcel thereof, although they or their Deputies, Officers or Servants, shall not survey or deliver the Goods and Merchandizes aforesaid, when they shall be ready, upon reasonable Request or Notice thereof given, for the performing the said Works or Services. WILLING, and by these Presents, for us, our Heirs and Successors, enjoying and commanding all and singular such Aliens and Denizens aforesaid, that they, from time to time, do make and deliver, or cause to be made and delivered, unto the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, and their Successors, or their Servants, Deputies or Collectors of the Scavage aforesaid for the time being, true and perfect Bills of Entry of all and every their Goods, Merchandizes and Wares, which shall be, from time to time, brought within the Liberties and Franchises of the said City and Suburbs thereof, under Pain of our Royal Indignation, and of being further punished for their Contempt of our Command in this Behalf. YIELDING therefore yearly to us, our Heirs and Successors, into the Receipt of our Exchequer at Westminster, Three Pounds Six Shillings and Eight Pence of lawful Money of England, at the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, by equal Portions every Year to be paid. AND WHEREAS We are informed, that, with intent to defraud and deceive the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, of the Fees and Profits to the said several Offices belonging and appertaining, several Goods and Merchandizes have been fraudulently laden and unladen, by divers Persons, at certain Wharfs or Places, commonly called, St. Kathelines, Tower-Wharf, Southwark, Dick-shore, Wapping, Rotherhithe, Deptford, Greenwich and Blackwall, and other Places between Blackwall and London-bridge, on both sides of the River Thames aforesaid, supposing the same Places to be without the Port of London aforesaid, and the Liberties, Franchises and Suburbs thereof; WE WILL, and by these Presents, for us, our Heirs and Successors, do Ordain and Declare, That for ever hereafter, all and singular Merchant-Strangers, born without our Allegiance, in Parts beyond the Seas, and under Foreign Obedience, and also the Sons of such Merchant Strangers, who henceforth shall lade or unlade any Goods or Merchandizes Customable in the Port of the City of London aforesaid, or in any of the said Places or Wharfs above mentioned, shall, from time to time, render and pay, or make and cause to be rendered and paid, unto the said Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, and their Successors, or their Officers, Deputies and Servants, such Wages and Fees as are in the said Tables or Schedules mentioned and expressed. AND FURTHER, Because We are given to understand, that divers Goods and Merchandizes of Merchants, as well Aliens born without our Allegiance, under Foreign Obedience, in Parts beyond the Seas, as also such Denizen, whose Father is or shall be an Alien, and born under Foreign Allegiance, in Parts beyond the Seas, which are carried out of the Port of the said City, and brought into the said Port from Foreign Parts, and beyond the Seas, are very often subtilly concealed and coloured under the Names of other Persons, to defraud us of our Customs, and other Things to us belonging, for such Goods and Merchandizes, to the Prejudice and Loss of us, our Heirs and Successors, and also of the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the said City, of the Fees and Sums of Money, so as aforesaid respectively limited, appointed and ordained, by reason of the Exercise of the Offices aforesaid, or any of them; We therefore being willing to look after our Indemnity in this Behalf, and also to the intent that the said Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, may the better detect the Frauds, Covins and Deceits of all Persons concealing and withdrawing the said Goods and Merchandizes, and the Fees aforesaid, We do for us, our Heirs and Successors, give, and by these Presents grant, to the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens, and their Successors, That the Mayor of the City aforesaid, for the time being, and the sufficient Deputies, Servants or Officers of the said Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, in that Behalf, from time to time, duly assigned, shall and may have full Power and Authority to give and administer the Oath upon the Holy Evangelists, from time to time, to all such Persons suspected, or to be suspected, of the said Withdrawings, Concealments, Colourings, Frauds, Covins. And that it shall and may be lawful to the said Mayor, his Minister and Deputy, or Officer for the time being, by all lawful Ways and Means, to compel all such Persons suspected, or to be suspected, as shall refuse or deny to take the said Oath, to take the same Oath. A though express Mention of the true Pearly Value, or of the certainty of the Premises, or any of them, or of any other Gifts or Grants by us, or by any of our Progenitors or Predecessors, to the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City aforesaid, or any of them heretofore made, is not made in these Presents; or any Statute, Act, Ordinance, Provision, Proclamation, or Restraint to the contrary thereof, heretofore had, made, published, ordained or provided, or any other Thing, Cause or Matter whatsoever, in any wise notwithstanding. IN WITNESS whereof, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patents: WITNESS Our Self, at Westminster, the fifth Day of September, in the Sixteenth Year of Our Reign.

Power to the Mayor, &c. to administer the Oath to discover concealed Goods.

Allowances for Draughts.

FOR all Goods weighing under One C. Weight, One Pound to be allowed for Draught.

Goods weighing from 1 C. to 2 C. Two Pounds Draught.

from 2 to 3. Three Pounds Draught.

from 3 to 10 Four Pounds Draught.

from 10 to 18. Seven Pounds Draught.

from 18 to 30. or upwards, Nine Pounds Draught.

The above Table of Allowances being look'd upon to be a full Satisfaction to all fair Merchants for the Turn of the Scale, and all other Pretences, the Landwaiters and Weighers are not, upon any Pretence whatsoever, to consent to any other Allowances than those above specified, unless they shall have the particular Direction of the Board for so doing.

Note, For Tobacco there is by Law an Allowance of 8 lb. Draught on every Hogthead that shall contain 350 lb. or more, which is not to be deducted upon Exportation, vide, 9 Geo. cap. 21. §. 15. Page 734

The most regular Method of making these Allowances for Draughts, is for the Weighers to call the true Gross Weight in the Scale to the Landwaiter, who is to enter such true Gross Weight in his Book, and against each Draught to enter the Allowance for such Draught, according to the above settled Table, in order to deduct the said Allowance at the Foot of the Account.

Preamble.

City of Poundage, of Twelve Pence in the Pound, was granted to his late Majesty King William the Third (of Glorious Memory) for his Life, by an Act made in the Ninth Year of his Reign, upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except such as are therein excepted) which further Subsidy was again granted to her late Majesty Queen Anne, for her Life, by an Act made in the First Year of her Reign; and the said further Subsidy was again granted to his present Majesty for his Life, (which God long preserve) by an Act made in the First Year of his Majesty's Reign, with the like Provision, with respect to any Goods imported that were not rated in the said Book of Rates, as was made touching the like Goods liable to the first mentioned Subsidy of Twelve Pence in the Pound, granted by the said Act, made in the Twelfth Year of King Charles the Second: And whereas, by an Act made in the Second Year of her said late Majesty, another Subsidy of Poundage was granted upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except as therein is excepted) commonly called the One Third Subsidy, and by an Act passed in the Third Year of her said late Majesty, another Subsidy of Poundage was granted upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except as therein is excepted) commonly called the Two Thirds Subsidy; which said several Subsidies of One Third and Two Thirds are by the respective Acts, which granted and continued the same, to be paid in Proportion to the said further Subsidy granted by the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, and since continued during his present Majesty's Life, as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, an Imposition (commonly called the Old Impost) was laid on several Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and it is provided that where any Duties upon Goods and Merchandise therein granted are to be levied, according to the Value of the same, where such Goods or Merchandizes are particularly Rated in the said Book of Rates, the Value shall be understood and taken according to such Rate, and where they are not particularly rated, the Value shall be taken by and according to the Oath of the Importer, and not otherwise (the Duties imposed by the said Act not to be reckoned into the Value of the same:) And whereas, by an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties, an Additional Impost was laid upon several Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, according as the same stood rated in the said Book of Rates, and also upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported, not particularly rated in the said Book of Rates, paying Duty at Value, five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Value thereof, to be affirmed upon the Oath of the Importer, according to the Direction of the said Book of Rates (except Hum, and such Goods and Merchandizes, as were particularly charged by the said Act of the Fourth Year of their said late Majesties, or by the said Act of the Second Year of their said late Majesties Reign:) And whereas by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, an Additional Duty of Twenty five Pounds per Centum ad Valorem was laid upon all Goods of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of France, imported (other than those particularly rated) to be raised, levied, collected and paid by such Rules, Means, and Ways, as are mentioned in the said Act of Tunnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of his said late Majesty King Charles the Second: And whereas by an Act made in the Third Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, a further Duty was granted, after the Rate of Four Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Value, for and upon all unrated Drugs (Drugs excepted) that should be imported from any Parts or Places (other than the East Indies, Persia, China, and other Parts within the Limits of the Charters granted to the East India Company) and that the Values of such unrated Drugs should be affirmed by the Oaths of the Importers of such Drugs respectively; all which Acts, which granted the said several Subsidies, commonly called the Old Subsidy, the One Third Subsidy, and Two Thirds Subsidy (except the said further Subsidy, which is granted to his Majesty during his Life) as also the said Impositions, Additional Duty on French Goods, and the further Duty upon unrated Drugs, are by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the Values of the several sorts of Goods, usually imported, and not rated in the said Book of Rates, which are sworn to or affirmed by the Importers, according to which the said Subsidies, and other Duties, are to be paid, have been very unequal, some Persons greatly undervaluing the same, to the Detriment of the Revenue, and Discouragement of the fair Traders: Now (for remedying the Abuses aforesaid, and for putting Trade on a more equal Foot) We your faithful Commons in Parliament assembled, do beseech your Majesty, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Provisions and Clauses contained in the said recited Acts, and Book of Rates before mentioned, for ascertaining the Value of Goods or Merchandizes imported, according to the Oaths or Affirmations of the Importers, so far as the same relate to the particular Goods and Merchandizes mentioned and expressed in a certain Book of Rates herein after mentioned and referred unto, shall, from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, be and are hereby repealed and made void.

Provisions for rating Goods ad Valorem repealed after 25 March, 1725.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the said former Rates and Duties ad Valorem, repealed by this Act, there shall, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, be payable and paid for the said Old Subsidy, the several Rates and Duties mentioned and expressed in One Book of Rates, Intituled, An Additional Book of Rates of Goods and Merchandizes usually imported, and not particularly rated in the Book of Rates referred to in the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, with Rules, Orders, and Regulations, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Esq; Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons. The said Rates and Duties to be paid upon Importation of the said Goods and Merchandizes respectively, into any Port or Place within this Kingdom, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; which said last mentioned Book of Rates, composed and agreed on by your Majesty's said Commons, and every Article, Rule and Clause therein contained, shall be and remain, during the Continuance of the said first recited Act of Tonnage and Poundage, of full Force, and shall be put in Execution, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly inserted in the Body of this present Act.

In lieu thereof,
the Old Subsidy
to be paid
according to the Additional Book of Rates
signed by Speaker
Compton, Esq; Speaker.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases, where any of the said Goods or Merchandizes mentioned in the said Book of Rates, are by Law subject or liable to the Payment of the said further Subsidy, the One Third Subsidy, the Two Thirds Subsidy, the Old Impos, the Additional Impos, the Additional Duty on French Goods, and the further Duty on Unrated Drugs, or any of them, according to the respective Values set thereon, for the said Old Subsidy, or in proportion thereto, the same shall, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, be paid proportionably, according to the particular Value set thereon in the said Book of Rates last mentioned for the Old Subsidy aforesaid, and not according to the Oath of Affirmation of the Importer; Any thing in the respective Acts which granted the said Duties, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas by an Act, made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, (for laying several Duties upon all Sope and Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) a New Duty, after the Rate of Twenty Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value, was laid upon all Paper, White or Brown, or of any other Colour or Kind whatsoever, which should be imported or brought into this Kingdom, (not being particularly charged in that Act) and by another Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, a further New Duty, after the Rate of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value, was laid on the like Sorts of Unrated Paper imported, the said Values of such Paper in the Two Acts last mentioned, to be taken to be so much as such imported Kinds are really worth, to be sold at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement for the Duties charged by the said Acts, or any former Acts, the said New Duties, so payable ad Valorem, to be received and levied upon the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant or Importer; which said Acts are by subsequent Acts continued for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, the said several Acts of Parliament, made in the Tenth and Twelfth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty, so far as they relate to the levying the said respective New Duties of Twenty Pounds per Centum, and Ten Pounds per Centum, on all Paper, White or Brown, or of any other Colour, imported, not particularly charged in the said Acts, according to such Valuations thereof, upon the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant or Importer, shall be and are hereby repealed, and instead thereof, the said New Duties of Twenty Pounds per Centum, and Ten Pounds per Centum, so payable ad Valorem, shall be answered, levied, and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, over and above the Subsidies and other Duties on Unrated Paper, for and towards the Funds granted by the said Acts of the Tenth and Twelfth Years of her said late Majesty, and during the Continuance thereof, according to the respective Rates and Values for and upon the several Kinds and Sorts of Unrated Paper, mentioned and expressed in a certain Book of Rates before mentioned, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton Esq; Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity, as fully and effectually as if the said Rates and Values, and the Clauses and Rules relating thereunto were inserted in the Body of this present Act; any thing in the said Acts of the Tenth and Twelfth Years of her said late Majesty, or in any other Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

As to the said Anne, relating to unrated Paper, repealed, and such Paper to pay according to the Values in the said Additional Book of Rates, for the New Duties of 20l. and 10 l. per Cent.

New Sorts of Paper imported, to pay according to the Values of those nearest above in Size and Goodness.

V. And for the more equal Payment of the said several Duties upon Unrated Paper, Imported or Brought into this Kingdom, from and after the five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five; Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any New Fabrick, or Sorts, or Kinds of Paper shall be Imported, which are not particularly Valued or Rated in the said respective Books of Rates, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament, such Paper or Papers shall pay the several and respective Duties that are Charged thereon, according to the Values and Rates of those Sorts or Kinds of Papers, which are nearest above in Size and Goodness to the several Sorts or Kinds of Papers, Valued or Rated in the said respective Books of Rates, or by this, or any former Act or Acts of Parliament, without any Distinctions of Country or Place from whence the same shall be Imported; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Subsidies, Impositions, Duties, New Duties, and further New Duties upon the said several Sorts of Unrated Goods, shall be Paid or Secured, and shall be Raised, Levied, and Collected, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as are mentioned and expressed in the several Acts of Parliament, which Granted or Continued the same respectively; and all Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles and Clauses therein contained, (except in such Cases where any Alteration is by this Act made) shall continue in full Force and Effect, during the Continuance of the said respective Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties, and New Duties, and shall be Applied, Practised, and Executed, for the Raising, Levying, Collecting, Securing, Answering, Paying, and Appropriating the said respective Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Matters, and Things, (except, as aforesaid) had been again repeated in the Body of this present Act; Any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the several Subsidies on unrated Goods are to be raised, &c.

VII. And whereas it may happen that several Goods and Merchandizes may be Imported, which are omitted to be Rated in either of the said Books of Rates; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in such Case, the Value and Price of such Goods and Merchandizes shall be Ascertained by the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant, in the Presence of the Customs, Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor, or any Two of them, and the Old Subsidy, and other Duties, which are payable in Proportion to the said Old Subsidy, are to be Paid according to such Value and Price.

How the Value of Goods not rated in the Books of Rates are to be ascertained.

VIII. And the better to prevent Frauds to the Revenue, and that all Merchants may be upon a more equal Foot in Trade, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officers of the Customs, to Open, View, and Examine such Goods and Merchandizes, paying Duty ad Valorem, and compare the same with the Value and Price thereof, so Sworn to or Affirmed; and if upon such View and Examination, it shall appear that such Goods or Merchandizes are not Valued by such Oath or Affirmation, according to the true Value and Price thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, that then, and in such Case, the Importer, or Proprietor, shall, on Demand made in Writing by the Customs, or Collector, and Comptroller of the Port, where such Goods or Merchandizes are Entered, deliver, or cause to be delivered, all such Goods and Merchandizes into his Majesty's Ware-house, at the Port of Importation, for the Use and Benefit of the Crown; and upon such Delivery, the Customs or Collector of such Port, with the Privy of the Comptroller, shall, out of any Money in his hands, arising by Customs or other Duties belonging to the Crown, Pay to such Importer or Proprietor the Value of such Goods and Merchandizes so sworn to, or affirmed for the said Old Subsidy, as aforesaid, together with an Addition of the Customs and other Duties paid for such Goods, and of Ten Pounds per Centum over and above the Value thereof, taking a Receipt for the same from such Importer or Proprietor in full Satisfaction for the said Goods, as if they had been regularly sold; and the respective Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the said Goods to be fairly and publicly sold for the best Advantage; and out of the Produce thereof the Money so paid or advanced, as aforesaid, shall be repaid to such Collector, to be replaced to such Funds from whence he borrowed the same, and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid into his Majesty's Exchequer towards the sinking Fund; Any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Proper Officer of the Customs may examine Goods paying ad Valorem, and if not valued to the true Price, may Ware-house the Goods for the Use of the Crown, and pay to the Importer the Value sworn to, with the Customs paid, and 10 l. per Cent. over.

The Goods to be publicly sold, and out of the Produce the Collector to be repaid, and the Overplus, paid towards the Sinking Fund,

IX. And whereas, by an Act made in the Tenth Year of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, (for laying additional Duties on Hides and Skins, Tallow and Parchment, and new Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea, and Drugs, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) a Duty was granted after the Rate of Twenty Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of all kinds of Drugs imported (Dying Drugs imported from Foreign Parts, and Turpentine imported from the British Plantations excepted) over and above all other Customs, Subsidies, and Duties imposed upon, or payable for the same; And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the laying the said Additional Duty of Twenty Pounds per Centum on the said Drugs, has not answered the Intention thereof, the said Duty being so excessive high, that the fair Merchant cannot import the said Drugs, which gives Opportunity to run the same clandestinely, to the Prejudice of the Revenue; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Additional Duty of Twenty Pounds per Centum upon Drugs, payable by Virtue of the said last mentioned Act, shall, from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, cease, determine, and be no longer payable; Any thing in the said Act, or in any other Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Additional Duty
10 Anne, on Drugs to cease
after 25 March, 1725.

Duty on old Rags imported repealed, and after the 25 March, 1725, to be imported Free.

X. And for the Encouragement of the making of Paper in this Kingdom, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, it shall and may be lawful to import into this Kingdom any Old Rags, Old Ropes, or Junks, or Old Fishing-Nets, fit only for the making of Paper or Past-board, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, Imposition, or other Duty for the same, so as a due Entry be first made thereof in the Custom-House belonging to the Port into which the same shall be imported, in the same Manner and Form, expressing the Quantities and Qualities of the said Goods, as was used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers appointed for that Purpose; and on Failure of such Conditions such Goods shall be liable to Forfeiture, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted, and the Value thereof divided, as if this Act had never been made; Any Law, Statute, Usage, or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

Additional Duty on Apples, 8 Geo. imported,
further continued for Seven Years.

XI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (for paying off <sup>8 Geo. cap. 20.</sup> and cancelling One Million of Exchequer Bills, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) an Additional Duty of Two Shillings for every Bushel, was laid upon all Apples imported after the Feast Day of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, to continue during the Term of Three Years, and until the End of the next Session of Parliament next following the said Term of Three Years; which Term being near expired, and it being found necessary to continue the same for a further Term of Years, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Additional Duty of Two Shillings for every Bushel of Apples imported shall be further continued, from and after the Expiration of the Term and Time aforesaid, for and during the Term of Seven Years; and the said Act so made in the Eighth Year of his present Majesty, and all Powers, <sup>8 Geo. cap. 20.</sup> Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained (for or concerning the said Additional Duty on Apples imported) shall continue and be in Force, and be applied, practised, and executed for the raising, ledying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Additional Duty upon Apples Imported, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said Act, so far as the same relates to the Additional Duty on Apples imported, had been again repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act; Any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Geo. cap. 25.

XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it is (amongst other Things) Enacted, That from and after the Feast Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, there shall be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all Pictures, which shall be imported into Great Britain, the certain Duties following, according to the respective Dimensions of such Pictures; that is to say, for every Picture of Four Feet square, or upwards, or of any Dimensions, which being reduced will produce a Square of Four Feet, or upwards, the Sum of Three Pounds; for every Picture of Two Feet square, and under Four Feet square, the Sum of Forty Shillings; and for every Picture under Two Feet square, the Sum of Twenty Shillings: And whereas some Doubts have arisen, as to the reducing Pictures to the said several Squares of Four Feet, and Two Feet, for Obviating and Preventing such Doubts for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Pictures, which from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, shall be Imported into Great Britain, shall be Measured and Reduced to Superficial Measure, that is to say, every Picture, which being reduced will produce a Square of Four Feet, or upwards, shall be a Picture that shall contain Sixteen Superficial Feet, or upwards, and shall pay the said Sum of Three Pounds; every Picture of Two Feet Square, and under Four Feet Square, shall, when reduced, produce Four Superficial Feet, or upwards, and under Sixteen Superficial Feet, and shall pay the said Sum of Forty Shillings; and every Picture under Two Feet Square, shall be a Picture, which, when reduced, shall produce less than Four Superficial Feet, and shall pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings; Any Thing in the said Act of the Eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, or any other Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Clause for ascertaining the Method of measuring Pictures imported.

RULES.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations.

The Additional Book of Rates is not to alter the Method of ascertaining the Value of Unrated East-India Goods,

NY of the Rates aforesaid, or any thing contained in this Additional Book of Rates, is not to extend to alter the Method prescribed by Law for ascertaining the Values upon such unrated Goods, Wares and Merchandizes imported, as are of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East-Indies, China, or other the Parts within the Limits of the Charters granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies,

Or,

or to charge any Duty on Lumber, or Wood, which are to be imported Free by 8 Geo. cap. 12.

To the charging any Duty upon such sort of Wood, Plank or Timber wrought or unwrought, or any of the Goods called Lumber, which are to be imported Duty free, by virtue of the Act made in the Eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, on the Conditions therein mentioned, during the Continuance of the said Act, or to charge any Duty upon Dying Goods, which are to be imported Duty Free by 8 Geo. cap. 15.

Or,

To the charging any Duty upon such Drugs, or other Goods used in Dying, which are to be imported Duty free, by virtue of another Act made in the Eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, on the Conditions therein mentioned.

Proper Officer may examine Goods paying ad Valorem, and if not valued to the true Price,

may Warehouse the Goods for the Use of the Crown,

and pay to the Importer the Value sworn to, with the Customs paid and 10 l. per Cent. over.

The Goods to be publicly sold, and the Overplus to be paid into the Exchequer towards the Sinking Fund.

And whereas it may happen, that several Goods and Merchandizes may be imported, which are omitted to be rated in the Book of Rates made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, or in this Additional Book of Rates, or in some particular Act of Parliament, in such Case, the Value and Price of such Goods and Merchandizes for the Old Subsidy (other than of those of India, Persia, or China) shall be ascertained by the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant, in the presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor, or any Two of them; and the better to prevent Frauds, and that all Merchants may be upon an equal Foot in Trade, the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officers of the Customs, may open, view, and examine such Goods and Merchandizes, paying Duty ad Valorem, and compare the same with the Value and Price thereof so sworn to, or affirmed; and if upon such View and Examination it shall appear, that such Goods or Merchandizes are not valued by such Oath or Affirmation, according to the true Value and Price thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, that then and in such Case the Importer or Proprietor shall on Demand made in Writing by the Customer or Collector and Comptroller of the Port, where such Goods or Merchandizes are entred, deliver, or cause to be delivered, all such Goods and Merchandizes into his Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, for the Use and Benefit of the Crown; and upon such Delivery, the Customer or Collector of such Port, with the Privy of the Comptroller, shall, out of any Money in the Hands of such Customer or Collector, arising by Customs or other Duties belonging to the Crown, pay to such Importer or Proprietor, the Value of such Goods and Merchandizes so sworn to or affirmed, for the said Old Subsidy, as aforesaid, together with an Addition of the Customs and other Duties paid for such Goods, and of Ten Pounds per Centum, to such Value, taking a Receipt for the same from such Importer or Proprietor, in full Satisfaction for the said Goods, as if they had been regularly sold; and the respective Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the said Goods to be fairly and publicly sold for the best Advantage, and out of the Produce thereof, the Money so paid or advanced, as aforesaid, shall be repaid to such Customer or Collector, with the Privy of the Comptroller, to be replaced to such Funds from whence the same was borrowed, and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid into his Majesty's Exchequer, towards the Sinking Fund, by the Title of Unrated Goods Imported Undervalued.

Sp. COMPTON,
Speaker of the House of Commons.

THE forementioned ACT past the 11 GEO. cap. 7. having Repealed the Duty of 20 l. per Cent. laid upon Rated DRUGS, by the 10 A. cap. 26. which ACT past since the Printing the former Part of this Book, it was thought proper to Compute the DUTIES on those DRUGS de novo, Exclusive of the said 20 l. per Cent. and therefore the following Computation of the DUTIES on the Rated DRUGS is to be used instead of that in the former BOOK of RATES, from Page xxiv to p. xxxviii

French Drugs rated (not used in Dying) are to pay the Old Subsidy, and the further Subsidy, as of other Foreign Parts; but instead of the Impost, 1690. they pay 25 l. per Cent. after the Rate of the further Subsidy, for the Additional Impost, 1697. Folio 85 and also the 2<sup>d</sup>. 25 per Cent. by 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 20. Folio 106 according to the same Rate.

French Drugs rated (which are used in Dying) pay only the Old Subsidy, the 25 per Cent. Additional Impost, and the 2<sup>d</sup>. 25 per Cent. by 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 20. both according to the Rate of the Old Subsidy.

Rated Drugs of the Manufacture of India or China, are, instead of the 10 per Cent. by the Impost Act, 1690. to pay 20 per Cent. by the said Act.

All Drugs (used in Dying) and which are enumerated among other Dying Goods in 3 & 4 Annæ, cap. 4. §. 8. Folio 217 are exempted from Payment of the following Duties, viz.

The advanced Duty on the Old Subsidy by 8 & 9 W. 3. cap. 20.

The further Subsidy by 1 Georgii, cap. 1.

The  $\frac{1}{3}$  Subsidy by 2 & 3 Annæ, cap. 9.

The  $\frac{2}{3}$  Subsidy by 3 & 4 Annæ, cap. 5.

The New Duty by 3 & 4 Annæ, cap. 4.

Note, The following enumerated Drugs (which are used in Dying) may by 8 Geo. cap. 15. §. 10. Folio 685 be Imported without paying any Custom, or other Duty, so as due Entry be made thereof, and so as the same be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer, and that such Importation be according to the Rules prescribed in the Act of Navigation, 12 Car. 2. cap. 18. viz.

An Act for Redeeming the Annuities of Twenty five thousand Pounds per Annum, charged on the Civil List Revenues, by an Act of the Seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign; and for discharging the Debts and Arrears due from his Majesty to his Servants, Tradesmen, and others.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, (Intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, by charging Annuities, at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Civil List Revenues till redeemed by the Crown; and for enabling his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, (by causing such a Deduction to be made, as therein is mentioned) to make good to the Civil List the Payments, which shall have been made upon the said Annuities; and for borrowing Money upon certain Lottery Tickets; and for discharging the Corporations for Assurances of part of the Money they were obliged to pay to his Majesty; and for making good a Deficiency to the East-India Company) It was Enacted, That Yearly, and every Year, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, a certain Yearly Fund, to be computed after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum, per Annum, for and upon all the Annuities to be purchased on the said Act, was and should by force and virtue of the said Act, be settled and established, and be payable in the Manner and Form therein expressed and declared, for satisfying and discharging the same Annuities; from time to time, until the same should be redeemed by Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and that the said Yearly Fund was and should be charged, and chargeable upon, and be payable out of all the Revenues, Additional Revenues, Duties, and Branches whatsoever, settled or appointed for the Support of Your Majesty's Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as well those, which are hereditary, as those, which were granted during Your Majesty's Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Term of Your Majesty's Life, unless all the said Annuities should sooner be compleatly redeemed, according to the Provision and Power of Redemption therein contained in that Behalf; and in case of your Majesty's Demise before the compleat Redemption of all the said Annuities, then the said Yearly Fund was thereby charged upon the said hereditary Revenues, Duties, and Branches, and every of them, until the compleat Redemption of all the said Annuities: And by the said Act it was Enacted, That any Person or Persons might contribute, advance, and pay to the Person, and in the manner therein mentioned, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, for the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities, to commence from the said Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, to be paid and payable to such Contributor or Contributors, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns respectively, until the same should be redeemed according to the Provisions, and Power of Redemption therein after contained; which Annuities should be computed after the Rate of five Pounds per Annum for every One hundred Pounds, and proportionably for any greater Sum so to be advanced or paid, and the same should be payable Quarterly, in manner as therein is mentioned; and by the said Act, amongst divers other Clauses and Things therein contained, it was Enacted, That all the Po-

nles to be contributed on the said Act, should be deemed, reputed, and taken to be One Joynt Stock, on which the said Annuities should be attending, and that the same should be Transferrable at the Bank of England: And it was thereby provided, That it should be lawful for your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, at any Time, upon one Quarter of a Years Notice, to be given in manner as by the said Act is directed, to redeem the said Annuities, and every of them, by paying to the then Proprietors of the same Annuities the Consideration or Purchase-Money, which was originally paid for the same; and all Arrearages of the said Annuities, which shall be incurred till the Time of such Payment, to be made at the then next ensuing Quarterly Feast-day; and that from and after such Payment made, or reserbing Money in the Exchequer to make such Payment on demand, then, and not till then, the same Annuities, and every of them, should from thenceforth cease and determine, and the said Revenues should be discharged of, from, and against the same: And to the End your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, might be enabled to reimburse your Self, or themselves, such Sum and Sums of Money, as in pursuance of the said Act should be issued out of the Civil List Revenues, for or towards Payment of the said Annuities, or for or towards the Redemption thereof, it was thereby further Enacted, That it should and might be lawful for your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, to cause a Deduction to be made, not exceeding Six Pence in the Pound, out of all Monies which, from and after the first Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and twenty one, should be paid for or upon all Pensions and Annuites, charged upon any of the said Hereditary or Temporary Duties, and for and upon all Salaries, Fees and Wages, payable for or in respect of Offices of Profit, granted by, or derived from the Crown, and for and upon all other Payments from the Crown whatsoever, or for or upon any Arrearages of them, or any of them, incurred or to be incurred, (the Pay of Commission and Non-Commission Officers, and private Men serving in the Navy or Army, only and always excepted) the same Deductions to be made for the Use of your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of you or of their Civil Government, so long as the said Annuities should, by virtue of the said Act, be payable out of the Revenues charged therewith, as aforesaid, and until the same Annuities should be redeemed, pursuant to the said Act, as by the said Act, (amongst divers other Clauses and Provisoes therein contained) relation being thereto had, more fully and at large it doth and may appear: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act, the said whole Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds hath been advanced or contributed, and the Annuities attending thereon, and charged on the said Civil List Revenues, amount to the Yearly Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds; and whereas the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, so contributed on the Credit of the said Act, was not sufficient for answering the Purposes intended by the said Act, by discharging all the Arrears then due to your Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen, and others, by means whereof, and of several extraordinary Expences arisen since the making of the said Act, divers Arrears of Salaries, Wages, Diet-Monies, and other Allowances, and sundry Debts for Emptions, Provisions, and other Causes, still remain due to your Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen, and others, amounting to a very considerable Sum in the whole: Now your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being deeply sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Wise and Happy Government, and being desirous, not only that your Majesty may partake of the Benefit of the present happy State of the Publick Credit, but also that your Majesty, in the Administration of your Civil Government, may not remain under any Difficulties in respect of the Arrears or Debts contracted, as aforesaid, and being therefore desirous that a Sum, not exceeding One Million of Pounds Sterling, may be raised, to enable your Majesty, as well to redeem the said Annuities of Twenty five thousand Pounds per Annum, as to discharge the said Debts and Arrears, do for that End and Purpose most humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, at any Time or Times, on or before the Four and twentieth Day of December, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, by such Proportions at a time, as they respectively shall find to be most for his Majesty's Advantage, to prepare or make, or cause to be prepared and made, at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, in such Method and Form, as they shall think most convenient, any Number of New Exchequer Bills, so as all the Principal Sums, to be contained in such New Exchequer Bills, do not in the whole exceed the Sum of One Billion of Pounds Sterling; and that such New Bills shall bear an Interest not exceeding Two Pence per Cent. per Diem, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Sum to be contained therein, and to be payable to the Bearers thereof respectively: Nevertheless, the said Interest shall be abated and saved upon such of the said Bills to be made forth by this Act, as shall at any Time or Times be in the Receipt of the Exchequer, or in the Hands or Power of any Receivers or Collectors of any Taxes, Aids, or Revenues whatsoever, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, during such Time and Times respectively, as such Bills shall be or remain in such Receipt, or in such Hands or Power, as aforesaid: And the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and the said High Treasurer for the time being, are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to cause such New Bills, as shall be prepared by virtue of this Act, to be placed as so much Cash in the respective Offices of the Tellers, at the said Receipt of Exchequer; each and every of which Tellers shall be severally charged with the Proportions of the said Bills, which shall be so placed in his Office respectively.

culate these Bills,

XV. And for the better supporting the Currency of the said Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, and to the End a sufficient Provision may be made for circulating and exchanging for ready Money, from time to time, the said Bills, or such of them as shall, from time to time, remain undischarged, during such Time as they or any of them are to be current, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, on his Majesty's Behalf, shall or may, from time to time, enter into any Contract or Contracts, for obliging any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, who will voluntarily undertake this Service, at his or their own Costs and Charges, to circulate and exchange, at some Publick Office in London or Westminster, for ready Money, from time to time, all such of the said Bills, which shall have been made forth by virtue of this Act, as shall be demanded at such Publick Office during the Time or respective Times of such Contract or Contracts, by paying, in ready Money, at their own Costs and Charges, upon every such Demand, or within Twenty four Hours after all the Principal Monies contained in every such Bill to be demanded, and the Interest which shall then be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as any such Bill shall be demanded, the said Contractors or Undertakers, from time to time, upon exchanging every such Bill, taking in the Bill so exchanged for their own Use, and being allowed a Rate, or several Rates, not exceeding Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as well for paying the said Interest at their own Costs, as also in Reward for their Service upon all the said Bills so undertaken to be circulated; which said Contract or Contracts shall be made in Writing, and registered in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be made to endure for such Time and Times respectively, as shall be agreed by the Contractors.

at 3 l. per Cent.
per Ann.

Contractors,
after 24 June, 1725. may direct these Bills to carry a lower or higher Rate than 2 d. per Diem, by consent of the Treasury.

XVI. Prohibited always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Contractors (with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, and not otherwise) may, at any Time or Times after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, by Writing, to be affixed upon the Exchange of London, and by Publication in the London Gazette, declare and direct, if they shall so see Cause and think fit, the said Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or any Number or Part of them, to carry a lower or higher Rate of Interest, than the said Rate of Two Pence per Centum per Diem, for such Time or Times, as shall be mentioned in such Writing and Publication, as aforesaid. And for the greater Accommodation and Ease of paying the Bills, to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or any of them, to the Receivers and Collectors of the Publick Revenues, and into the Receipt of the Exchequer, the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, have hereby Power, at the Request of such Contractors, to make forth, or cause to be made forth any of the said Exchequer Bills, without bearing any Interest, yet nevertheless, those Bills so made forth without bearing any Interest may, from time to time, be made to carry such Interest, as the said Contractors shall, by Writing, to be affixed upon the Exchange of London, and published in the London Gazette, signify and declare in that Behalf.

Contractors
not disabled from being Parliament Men,
&c.

XVII. And it is hereby Enacted, That such Contractors, or any of them, shall not, for that Cause only, be disabled from being a Member or Members of Parliament, or be adjudged liable to be a Bankrupt or Bankrupts, within the Intent or Meaning of all or any the Statutes made against or concerning Bankrupts; Any Law, Statute, or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Body Politick or Corporate shall become the Contractors or Undertakers for the circulating or exchanging such Exchequer Bills to be made forth, as aforesaid, such Body Politick or Corporate, shall continue and remain to be a Body Politick or Corporate during the Continuance of such their Contract or Undertaking; Any former Law or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And to the End the said Exchequer Bills, so to be made forth by virtue of this Act, may the better obtain a Currency during so long Time, as they or any of them shall be standing out uncanceled or undischarged, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that, for and during all the Time that the same Exchequer Bills, or any of them, shall be standing out uncanceled or undischarged, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to continue the same Deduction of Sir Pence in the Pound, to be made out of the several Payments, which in and by the aforesaid recited Act were made liable to the same, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Provisions and Savings, as by the same recited Act is directed concerning the same Deductions; and that all and every the said Exchequer Bills, to be made forth in pursuance of this Act, and the Principal, Interest, Premium, or Rate to grow due thereon, shall be, and are hereby charged and chargeable upon the Monies arisen, or to arise into the Exchequer, by or from the said Deductions, and also upon such Monies, as at any Time or Times, from and after the making forth of such Exchequer Bills, shall be or remain in the Receipt of Exchequer, arisen or to arise from all or any the Duties, Revenues, or Branches granted to his Majesty for the Support of his Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as well those, which are Hereditary, as those, which were granted during his Majesty's Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Term of his Majesty's Life (which God long preserve;) and from and after his Majesty's Demise, then upon all such Monies as from thenceforth shall grow due, and come into the Receipt of Exchequer, from the Hereditary Revenues, Duties, and Branches before mentioned (except such Part both of the Temporary and Hereditary Revenues, Duties, and Branches before mentioned, as are appropriated to any other particular Use or Uses, or granted or saved to any particular Person or Persons by any former Act or Acts of Parliament) and such Monies shall and may be issued for or towards taking in, circulating, discharging, or cancelling such Exchequer Bills, or any Interest, Premium, or Rate for the same, or any Charges or Expences in or about the same, as the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, or the High Treasurer for the time being, shall from time to time direct or appoint.

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Sum or Sums of Money shall, from time to time, during his Majesty's Life, be issued or paid out of any the Revenues, Duties, or Branches granted to his Majesty for the Support of his Civil Government, for the Purposes before directed by this Act, in, about, or concerning the said Exchequer Bills, shall be deemed or reckoned to be Part of the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, payable out of the same to his Majesty, during his Majesty's Life.

XXI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the before recited Clause, or Power of deducting Sir Pence in the Pound, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to charge, or to enable his Majesty to charge the Annuities or Yearly Sums amounting to One hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, granted to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or his Trustees, during the joint Lives of his Majesty and the said Prince, or the Annuities or Yearly Sums, amounting to Fifty thousand Pounds per Annum, granted to her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for her,

Body Corporate not obliged by reason of circulating these Bills.

So long as these Bills remain uncanceled, the Deduction of 6 d. per l. to continue.

These Exchequer Bills charged thereon, and on the Civil List.

The Sums issued out of the Civil List Revenue, about these Bills, to be deemed Part of the Yearly Sum of 700,000 l.

Salvo first his Royal Highness, and his Princess:

to commence and take Effect immediately after the Decease of the said Prince, or any of the said Annuities or Yearly Sums so granted, with the above mentioned Deduction or Payment of Six Pence in the Pound, or any Part thereof; but that the same Annuities or Yearly Sums, and their Royal Highnesses respectively, and their respective Trustees, Treasurers, and Receivers General for the time being, in respect of the same, shall be free and clear of and from the said Deduction and Payment of Six Pence in the Pound; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the Payments on Account of circulating these Bills.

XXII. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make any Payments out of the said Civil List Revenues, for or on Account of circulating, exchanging, or discharging the said Exchequer Bills, or any Interest, Premium, or Rate thereon, liable to the said Deduction of Six Pence in the Pound; but all such Payments shall be for ever absolutely discharged from the said Deduction, and from all other Fees to Officers, Taxes, or Impositions whatsoever.

XXIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the said Sum not exceeding One Million, appointed to be raised by this Act, shall, as soon as conveniently may be consistent with the Provisions of Powers of Redemption, contained in the said herein recited Act of Parliament, be issued and applied for or towards Redemption of the said Annuities of Twenty five thousand Pounds per Annum, and that from and after the Payment thereof, to or for the Use of the Proprietors of the said Annuities, such Annuities, or so much thereof, as shall be thereby redeemed, shall from thenceforth cease, determine, and be no longer payable; and that the Remainder of the said Sum, not exceeding One Million, which shall be raised by virtue of this Act, over and beyond what will be sufficient to redeem the said Annuities of Twenty five thousand Pounds per Annum, shall and may be issued and applied for or towards satisfying the said Debts and Arrears, and other Uses of his Majesty's Civil Government.

At Michaelmas Yearly, Exchequer to take an Account of all the Monies received of the Deductions of 6 d. per l. &c.

XXIV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Yearly and every Year, during the Continuance of the said Exchequer Bills, or any of them, the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall, on the Feast Day of St. Michael the Archangel, in every Year, or within Ten Days after, cause a true and perfect Account in Writing, to be taken and attested by the proper Officers of all the Monies which shall in the preceding Year have been paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for or on Account of the said Deductions of Six Pence in the Pound, and how much thereof hath been applied, or will be necessary to be applied, for or towards the Interest, Premium or Rate on the said Exchequer Bills, or other necessary Charges in, about, or for circulating or exchanging the same; and in case it shall appear that on any such Feast Day, there shall be or remain in the Exchequer any Surplus arisen from the said Deductions, over and beyond what will satisfy such Interest, Premium, or Rate and Charges to that Time, such Surplusses shall be and are hereby appropriated, and shall be, from time to time, forthwith issued and applied, as far as the same will extend, for or towards the paying off the Principal Sums contained in such Exchequer Bills, and cancelling and discharging the same in a Numerical Course, beginning with Number (One,) and so on progressively, until all the said Bills shall be discharged.

XXV. And to the Intent that no Failure may happen in raising the said Sum of One Million, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case his Majesty shall think fitting not to make out any of the said Exchequer Bills, but to raise the said whole Sum of One Million by some other Method, or to make out Exchequer Bills only for a Part of the said Sum of One Million, and to raise the Remainder thereof by some other Method, then, and in either of the said Cases, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by Letters Patent to be made and passed at any Time or Times, on this Side or before the Twenty fourth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to limit, appoint, set apart, and appropriate, such Yearly Sum or Sums, as, computing the same after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, per Annum, shall amount to an Annuity after that Rate for so much of the said Sum of One Million, as shall not be raised by Exchequer Bills, as aforesaid, to be issued and paid in such Manner and Form, and from such certain Day or Days, as in the said Letters Patents shall be expressed, declared, or directed, from time to time, until the same shall be redeemed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; and that the said Yearly Sum or Sums so to be limited, set apart, and appropriated, is, are, and shall by virtue of this Act be charged and chargeable upon, and be payable out of all the said Revenues, Additional Revenues, Duties and Branches whatsoever, settled or appointed for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as well those which are hereditary in the Crown, as those which were granted during his Majesty's Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Term of his Majesty's Life (which God long preserve) unless all the said Yearly Sum or Sums shall sooner be completely redeemed; and that the Sum and Sums of Money, which, from Time to Time, during his Majesty's Life, shall be issued or paid, for or upon the said Yearly Sum or Sums to be set apart, as aforesaid, shall be, and be deemed and reckoned Part of the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, granted to his Majesty for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case of his Majesty's Demise before the compleat Redemption of all the said Yearly Sum or Sums to be set apart, as aforesaid, then the same Yearly Sum or Sums is, are, and shall by virtue of this Act be charged and chargeable upon, and be paid and payable out of the hereditary Revenues, Duties, and Branches before mentioned, and every of them, until the compleat Redemption thereof; and that all the Payments for or upon the same Yearly Sum or Sums shall be made with Preference to all other Payments, which by this Act are, or which hereafter shall or may be charged upon the said Revenues, Duties, or Branches, or any of them.

His Majesty by Letters Patent made before 24 Dec. 1725. may appoint a Yearly Sum for an Annuity at 3 l. per Cent. till redeemed.

XXVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty by such Letters Patent, as aforesaid, to direct and appoint any Sum or Sums of Money to be raised upon the Credit of the said Yearly Sum or Sums to be set apart, as aforesaid, so as the Principal Sum or Sums so to be raised, do not, together with the Principal Sum to be contained in all the Exchequer Bills to be made forth, as aforesaid, exceed in the whole the Sum of One Million; and also to direct and appoint upon what Terms, by what Methods, and in what Manner and Form the same shall and may be raised and paid, and to authorize, permit, and empower any Person or Persons, Parties or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate (who are or shall be willing) to advance or contribute the same, or any Part thereof, and to direct and appoint how and in what Manner the said Yearly Sum or Sums to be set apart, as aforesaid, or any Shares or Proportions thereof, or the Payments out of the same shall be disposed, settled, aliened, or applied for the Satisfaction of the Persons, who shall advance or contribute any Sum or Sums on the Credit thereof, as aforesaid; and likewise to direct where, how, and in what Manner the Monies, which shall be payable to any Person or Persons out of the said Yearly Sum or Sums to be set apart, as aforesaid, or the Principal Sums to be repaid on the Redemption thereof, shall and may be, from time to time, transferred or assigned without Power of Redocation, with such further Powers, Directions, and Clauses to be inserted in the said Letters Patent, as may best conduce to the effectual Settlement of the said Yearly Sum or Sums so to be set apart, as aforesaid, and the Satisfaction of the Contributors thereupon; and such Letters Patents so to be made and passed, and such Powers, Directions, and Clauses so to be contained therein, shall be firm, valid, and effectual in Law, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, and of this present Act; Any Law for Suppressing of Lotteries, or any Restriction in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any other Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may direct the Sum to be raised on that Credit, &c.

These Yearly Sums how to be redeemed.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to enable his Majesty to grant, aliene, or dispose of the said Yearly Sum or Sums so to be set apart, as aforesaid, for any further or longer Time than until the same shall be redeemed by his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors; but that it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, in and by such Letters Patent, to direct and appoint in what Manner and Proportions, and upon what Notice the same, or any Part thereof, shall or may be redeemed by his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, so as the Principal Sum or Sums of Money to be paid or payable for the Redemption thereof, do not, in the whole, exceed the Principal or Original Sum or Sums, which shall be advanced or contributed on the Credit of such Letters Patent, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

Officers not to take any Fee.

XXVIII. And be it hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Officers or Persons in the said Receipt of Exchequer, who are, from time to time, to make any Payments out of the said Yearly Sum or Sums so to be set apart, pursuant to the Directions of such Letters Patents, as aforesaid, shall perform their respective Duty therein, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Reward, or Gratuity for so doing, from the Party who is to receive such Money; and in case any such Officers or Persons shall take or demand such Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, or shall, contrary to the Directions to be contained in such Letters Patent, and the true Meaning of this Act, divert or misapply any of the Monies, which ought to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon Account of the said Yearly Sum or Sums so to be set apart, as aforesaid, every such Officer or Person so offending shall be incapable of holding any Office or Place of Trust or Profit under his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, and shall also forfeit Treble Damages to the Party grieved, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparllance shall be allowed.

Penalty.

The Money advanced on this Act to be Tax-free.

XXIX. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Money to be advanced or contributed, or that shall be payable to any Person or Persons, or to any Corporation whatsoever, by virtue of such Letters Patents to be made and passed, as aforesaid, shall not be charged or chargeable with any Rates, Taxes, Duties, or Impositions whatsoever.

The Money arising from the Deductions to be issued, to reimburse the Yearly Sum set apart.

XXX. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the Money to arise or come into the Exchequer, by or from the said Deductions of Six Pence in the Pound, as shall be wanting or necessary to replace or reimburse such Sum or Sums of Money, as shall, from time to time, be issued or paid out of the said Receipt of Exchequer, for or on Account of such Yearly Sum or Sums so to be set apart, in or by such Letters Patent, as aforesaid, shall be, from time to time, issued or applied to replace and reimburse the same accordingly; Any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Preamble.

After 24 June, 1725. Officers of Excise may go on board Ships to search for Brandy, &c. as Custom Officers legally may, and if forfeited, may Seize, and if such Goods be found unshipping or unshipped before due Entry.

Officer by Special Warrant may search for Brandy, &c. fraudulently hid.

Whereas, notwithstanding the many good Laws, which have been made and passed for preventing of Frauds and Abuses in his Majesty's Duties of Excise, and other his Majesty's Duties, which have been put under the Receipt and Management of the respective Commissioners of Excise in Great Britain, the several and respective Revenues, arising by and from the said several and respective Duties, are very much lessened by the clandestine and Collusive Importation of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, and Chocolate, into this Kingdom of Great Britain, from Parts beyond the Seas, without Payment of any of the Duties by Law chargeable on the same, and the said Dealers in the said Commodities much prejudiced in their Trade therein: For Remedy whereof be it Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue of Excise, or any of them, to go on board and enter into any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, which shall be within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, and to continue on board the same, and to Rummage and Search in like Manner, as the Officers of the Customs may now legally do, for all such Arrack, Rum, Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, or other Excisable Liquors whatsoever, and for all Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste, and to Seize, for his Majesty's Use, as well all such of the said Commodities, as shall be there found, as by the Laws thereunto respectively relating shall be forfeited, together with the Casks, Boxes, Chests, Bags, or other Package containing the same, and in like Manner to seize such of the Commodities aforesaid, every or any of them, as before due Entry thereof with the proper Officer or Officers, and without paying or securing the Duties on the Importation thereof, shall be found unshipping or unshipped out of such Ship or Vessel, to be laid on Land, without Entry and Payment of the Duties due for the same respectively, together with the Casks, Chests, Boxes, Bags, or other Package whatsoever containing the same.

II. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Officers for the said Duty of Excise, shall have cause to suspect that any Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, shall be fraudulently hid or concealed in any Place whatsoever, either entred for keeping the same, as aforesaid, or not entred, with an Intent to Defraud his Majesty of the Duties thereon, then and in such case, if such Place shall be within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before the Commissioners of Excise for the time being, or any Two or more of them, or in case the same shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place, where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be hid or concealed, setting forth the Ground of his or their Suspicion, It shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by Special Warrant or Warrants under his and their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers by Day or by Night, but if in the Night-time, in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace, to enter into all and every such Place or Places, where he or they shall so suspect such Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters shall be so fraudulently hid or concealed, and seize and carry away all such Foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, which he or they shall then and there find so fraudulently hid and concealed, as forfeited, together with all the Casks or other Vessels and Things, wherein the same shall be contained; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall obstruct, oppose, molest, let or hinder any Officer or Officers of or for the said Duties, or any of them, in the doing, performing, or executing any of the Powers or Authorities by this Act given to such Officer or Officers, every such Person or Persons offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Obstructing
such Officer for-

III. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, no Arrack, Brandy, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, whether British or Foreign, shall be sold, uttered, or exposed to Sale, either by Wholesale or Retail, but when the same shall be in some or One of the Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, or other Places, entered or to be entered in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise and Customs, Stamp Duty and House Money, on Pain of forfeiting all such Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, which shall be so sold, uttered, or exposed to Sale, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with the Casks, Bottles, or other Vessels containing the same, over and above the Penalty of Forty Shillings per Gallon imposed for the said Offence by the said Act of the Sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

No Brandy,
&c. to be exposed to Sale
but in an extra Place.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall keep a Publick House, Shop, Cellar, or Warehouse, for selling of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or Strong Waters, and shall have in his, her, or their Custody, or in the Custody of any other Person or Persons, for his, her, or their Use, any Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, or Cocoa-Nuts, exceeding the Quantity of Six Pounds of any of the said Commodities, shall be deemed and taken to be Sellers and Dealers in the said Commodities within the Meaning of this and the said former Act for charging Inland Duties upon Coffee, Tea and Chocolate.

Sellers of Brandy,
&c. having more than
6lb. of Coffee,
&c. to be deemed Dealers.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, no Dealer in Tea, or Manufacturer or Oper thereof, or pretending so to be, shall counterfeit or adulterate Tea, or cause or procure the same to be counterfeited or adulterated, or shall alter, fabricate, or manufacture Tea with Terra Japonica, or with any Drug or Drugs whatsoever, nor shall mix or cause or procure to be mixed with Tea any Leaves, other than Leaves of Tea, or other Ingredients whatsoever, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Tea so counterfeited, adulterated, altered, fabricated, manufactured, or mixed, and other Thing or Things whatsoever added thereto, or mixed or used therewith, and also the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Preamble.

VI. And whereas, by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa-Paste, and for granting Inland Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it was Enacted, that the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, of such Coffee and Tea, as were found in the Warehouses appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs for the Reception thereof, should, in One Month next after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, or upon Delivery thereof out of the said Warehouses, before the Expiration of the said Month, make an Entry at the Custom-House of all such Coffee and Tea so found, and pay or secure the remaining Customs or Duties due thereon, or, on Failure thereof, that all such Coffee and Tea should be forfeited and lost, and in case such Coffee and Tea, or any Part thereof, should be exported within the Time allowed by Law for that Purpose, from the Importation thereof, the Exporter or Exporters should, on a proper Debenture, be entitled to draw back all the Duties paid on such Importation, or the Security for the same should be vacated (except Half of the Old Subsidy.) And whereas a considerable Quantity of Coffee and Tea was found in the said Warehouses, which had been there upwards of Three Years, and for which the remaining Duties were paid or secured according to the Directions of the said Act, Part of which Coffee and Tea hath been exported to Parts beyond the Sea, and some Doubts have arisen upon the making out of the Debentures for drawing back the Duties of such Coffee and Tea so exported, the Exportation of which Coffee and Tea not being by Law restrained to any particular Time; for obviating of which Doubts Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Exporters of all such Tea and Coffee, as have been exported since the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, or shall be exported before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and twenty six, are and shall be entitled to draw back the respective Duties so paid or secured for the same (except Half of the Old Subsidy;) any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Warchoused Coffee, &c. exported since 24 June, 1724 or to be exported before 25 March, 1726. draws back all the Duties, except Half of the Old Subsidy.

VII. And whereas great Quantities of Tea, imported into Flanders, Holland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, directly from the East-Indies, by Foreigners, are from thence imported into this Kingdom, on Pretence that such Tea was formerly exported from hence, to the great Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and to the great Discouragement and Loss of the fair Importers of the said Commodity from the Place of its Growth, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, no Tea whatsoever shall be imported into this Kingdom from any Place whatsoever, other than from the Place of its Growth, although the same may have been formerly exported from hence, or upon any other Pretence whatsoever, on Pain of Forfeiture of all such Tea; One Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person and Persons, as shall seize and sue for the same; any Law, Statute, Custom, or Usage to the contrary whatsoever notwithstanding.

Tea imported but from the Place of its Growth, on any pretence, forfeited,  $\frac{2}{3}$  to the King,  $\frac{1}{3}$  to the Seizor.

IX. And whereas, in Order to increase the Weight of roasted Coffee, whereby to defraud and impose upon such as buy the same, divers evil disposed Persons, at the Time or Times of Roasting such Coffee, or soon after, or before the Selling thereof, do use or mix, or cause to be used or mixed therewith, or do add or cause to be added thereto Butter, Lard, Grease, Water, or other Materials, whereby such Coffee is rendered less wholesome, to the Prejudice of of the Health of his Majesty's Subjects, and to the Loss and Injury of all honest and fair Dealers therein: For Preventing whereof be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, no Person or Persons whatsoever, either in Roasting, or soon after the Roasting, or before Selling thereof, shall, in Order to increase the Weight of such Coffee, use or add thereto, or mix therewith, any Butter, Lard, Grease, Water, or other Materials whatsoever, on Pain of Forfeiting, for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Trader or Dealer in Coffee shall knowingly buy or sell any Coffee so mixed, or to which such Addition shall be made, every such Trader or Dealer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on Roasters of Coffee, mixing Butter, &c. therewith, 100*l*.

X. And whereas several Dealers in Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa-Nuts, in Order to secure Quantities of the said Commodities, which have been clandestinely imported without paying any of the Duties by Law charged thereupon, from being seized, as forfeited for such clandestine Importation thereof, do frequently take out Permits from the Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, for the Removing of the said Commodities from one Place to another, but in reality do not remove the Commodities from the respective Places they are authorized by such Permit, to remove the same to the respective Places they are by such Permit authorized to carry the said Commodities unto, but make Use of such Permits for securing the like Quantity of Commodities mentioned in such Permits, which have been clandestinely imported, from being seized, as forfeited for such clandestine Importation; For Remedy whereof, be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall take out any Permit or Permits from the Officers employed in the said Duties, or any of them, for Removing of any of the said Commodities from one Place to another, and if, within the Times limited in such Permit or Permits respectively, the Party or Parties, by or for whom such Permit or Permits shall be so taken out, shall not either actually and really send away all the Commodities by such Permit or Permits authorized thereby to be sent away, pursuant to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, or, in Default of so sending away such Commodities, shall not, before the Expiration of the Time limited in and by such Permit and Permits, respectively, return such Permit and Permits to the Officer or Officers, from whom the same was had, then, and in every such respective Case and Cases, the Person or Persons taking out such Permit or Permits, or for whose Use such Permit or Permits shall be taken out, shall, for every Gallon of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, & Spirits, and Strong Waters, and for every Pound Weight of Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa-Nuts, mentioned in such Permit or Permits, and not removed according to the Purpose thereof, forfeit and lose Treble the Value thereof, to be estimated according to the highest Rate of the like Commodities, at the Time when such Forfeiture shall be incurred; and if such Permit or Permits are not so returned, as aforesaid, and in Case, upon taking an Account by any of the Officers for the said Duties upon Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, and Strong Waters, and for the said Inland Duties of the Stock of the Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa-Nuts remaining in the Hands or Custody of the Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock the Commodities, mentioned in such Permit or Permits, as aforesaid, are thereby authorized to be removed, there shall not appear a sufficient Decrease to answer the Removal of the Commodities mentioned in such Permit or Permits, as aforesaid, respectively, then, and in such Case, the respective Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock the said Commodities mentioned in the said Permit or Permits shall be authorized to be removed, shall forfeit and lose the like Quantities of the respective Commodities, so permitted to be removed, and not removed according to such Permission, to be seized and taken by the Officers for the said respective Duties, for his Majesty's Use, out of the like Commodities then in the Possession of the Person or Persons forfeiting the same: Provided always, that no Person or Persons whatsoever shall demand, take, or receive, any Permit or Permits from any Officer or Officers for the said respective Duties, for the Removal of any of the said Commodities from one Place to another, without the special Direction, in Writing, of the Person or Persons, or the known Servant or Servants of the Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock for the said Commodities are to be removed, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence therein the Sum of Fifty Pounds, or, in default of the Payment thereof, shall suffer Imprisonment for and during the Space of Three Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

XI. And whereas by the Act, whereby the said Inland Duties on Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate are granted, several Oaths and Affirmations are appointed to be administered to the Sellers of and Dealers in the said Commodities, relating to their Trade therein, and the Entries by them made with the Officers for the same Duties, for better securing the same; and whereas it hath been observed, that in some Instances, where such Oaths and Affirmations by the said Act are to be taken and made by such Sellers and Dealers, yet many of them neglect or refuse to take the same, insinuating, that by the said Act no Persons are expressly authorized to administer the same unto them; For Remedy whereof be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons, as the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties for the time being, or the major Part of them in that behalf shall appoint, from time to time, to administer the said Oaths and Affirmations to the Sellers and Dealers, who do or shall reside within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and to and for the Collectors and Supervisors of Excise in all other Parts of Great Britain, to administer the said Oaths, and to take Affirmations from the respective Sellers and Dealers in any of the said Commodities, within their respective Collections and Districts.

XII. Prohibited always, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Inland Duties, or any Two or more of them for the time being, within the respective Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, upon any Officer or Officers for the said Inland Duties making Complaint, upon Oath, to such Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, that he or they do suspect any Dealers in the said Commodities not to have made true and just Entries in the Books, which he, she, or they, are obliged, in pursuance of the said Act, to keep for that Purpose, of such of the said Commodities, as he, she, or they, from time to time, sell or deliver out or consume, in which Oath shall be set forth the Causes of such Suspicion to summon such suspected Person or Persons to appear before the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, with their respective Entry-Books, aforesaid, to the Intent that such Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, may examine such suspected Person or Persons, or such as keep the said Book or Books, upon his, her, or their Oaths or Affirmations, touching the Truth of the Entries made in their said Books; and any such Dealer in Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, who shall neglect or refuse to make such Oaths or Affirmations, as are by the said last mentioned Act required, and by this present Act appointed to be administered, as aforesaid, being thereunto required by the respective Person or Persons, who by this Act is and are authorized to administer the same, or shall neglect or refuse to attend such Summons, as aforesaid, with his, her, or their respective Entry-Books, and be examined upon Oath, as aforesaid, touching the the Truth of the Entries made in their respective Entry-Books, then, and in every such Case or Cases, the Person or Persons offending therein, or either of them, shall, for each and every of such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIII. And whereas in and by the said Act of Parliament, whereby the said Inland Duties on Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate are granted, it is Enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever should at any time Counterfeit or Forge, or cause to be Counterfeited or Forged, the Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device, which by the said Act of Parliament is directed to be provided and made use of on the Paper inclosing each Pound of Chocolate, in pursuance of that Act, or should vend or sell such Chocolate with such counterfeit Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device thereon, knowing the same to be Counterfeit, then every such Person or Persons offending therein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, and also should be committed to the next County Goal, there to remain for the Space of Twelve Months without Bail or Mainprize: And whereas the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties having, pursuant to the said Act, provided such Marks, Stamps, Impressions, and Devices, for the stamping and marking Papers inclosing such Chocolate: And whereas such Chocolate, as, pursuant to the said Act, has been duly entered with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have been charged or paid, has, from time to time, been inclosed in such Paper and Papers, having on it and them the Impression of such Marks or Stamps so provided, as aforesaid: And whereas, after such Papers, having on them the Impression of such Marks or Stamps, have been taken from such Chocolate, as has been so duly entered, and for which the said Duties have been duly charged or paid, the same Paper or Papers, having on it or them the Impression of such Mark or Marks, Stamp or Stamps, have been fired unto, placed upon, and made use of to inclose other Chocolate, which has not been duly entered, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, whereby his Majesty has been and is as much and as effectually Defrauded of and in his said Inland Duties on such Chocolate, as if the Actors in such Fraud had counterfeited and forged a Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks, to resemble such Marks or Stamps to as aforesaid provided by the said Commissioners: For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if and in case, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, upon any Chocolate, which has not been duly entered with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, fix or place such Paper or Papers, having on it or them the Impression of such Mark or Marks, Stamp or Stamps, or shall in such Paper or Papers inclose such Chocolate, as hath not been duly entered with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, with Intent to Defraud his Majesty of the said Inland Duties, for and in respect of such Chocolate, that then, and in every such Case, every Offender therein shall be subject and liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures, which by the said Act, made in the Tenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, are set and imposed upon Persons for counterfeiting or forging the Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks provided, or which shall hereafter be provided by the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties for the time being, and as if such Offender or Offenders had actually forged or counterfeited such Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks.

Fixing Papers with the Stamp on Chocolate, that has not paid Duty, is 500 l. Penalty, and Imprisonment.

XIV. And whereas it often happens, that after Chocolate is made up for Sale, and duly stamped, as the Law directs, it receives Damage by lying by, or otherwise becomes unfit for Sale, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner of such stamped Chocolate, in the Presence of an Officer of Excise for the Division, or Place where such Chocolate shall be, to open the said Chocolate so made and stamped, as aforesaid, and to deliver the said Stamps to the said Officer, and to work Damaged Chocolate to be restamped.

the same Chocolate over again with fresh Cocoa-Nuts, and that such Owner shall be allowed to have the Chocolate restamped, paying the Inland Duty for so much Chocolate, as shall be added and used in the Reworking the same, and no more.

On reworking Chocolate Proof to be made: that the Duties have been paid, &c.

XV. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons whatever, who shall work their Chocolate over again, shall make Proof before the Commissioners of the Inland Duties, or the major Part of them, in case the same shall be worked over again within the Limits of the Bills of Mortality, or in case the same shall be worked over again out of the said Limits, before any Two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Division, Town or Place, where such Chocolate shall be so worked, that all and every of his Majesty's Duties for the Cocoa-Nuts, wherewith such Chocolate was made, and for what Cocoa-Nuts shall be added thereunto in the reworking thereof, have been duly and fully paid, and that all the said Chocolate so to be reworked and restamped had been duly entered with the proper Officers appointed for that Purpose; and, upon failure of such Proof to be made, it shall in no wise be lawful to rework and re-stamp the same.

Harbouring, keeping, or concealing Goods prohibited, Run or liable to Duties, forfeits the Goods and Treble Value.

XVI. And for the more effectual discovering and detecting the running of any Goods, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever, which are either prohibited to be imported, or which are liable to any Duty or Duties of Customs and Excise, and Inland Duty or Duties, or to any or either of them, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer to be harboured, kept, or concealed, such prohibited Goods, or run Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, liable to any Duty or Duties of Customs, Excise, and Inland Duties, or to any or either of them, the Party or Parties offending therein, whether he, she, or they, have or have not, or do or do not claim or pretend to have any Property or Interest in such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities so harboured, kept, or concealed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose all such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever, so harboured, kept, and concealed, and Treble the Value thereof.

The Value of Goods forfeited to be taken at the best Rate, the like Goods sell for in London.

XVII. And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Single Value and Worth of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever so forfeited, shall, from time to time, be deemed and taken to be, according to and at the Rate and Rates, Price and Prices, as the best Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities of the like Sorts, Kinds, and Denominations do or shall, at such respective time or times, bear and sell for in London.

Prohibited or run Goods offered to Sale may be seized, by the Party to whom offered, or by any Officer of Customs, or Excise.

XVIII. And for the better detecting and discovering the selling or exposing to Sale any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, which are or shall be prohibited, or which have been or hereafter shall be run, or shall be pretended so to have been, or to be, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall offer or expose to Sale any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, which are or shall be prohibited, or which actually have been, or shall be, or shall, by the Party or Parties so offering or exposing the same to Sale, be pretended to have been run, all such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities whatsoever, together with the Package whatsoever including and containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by the Party or Parties, to whom the same shall be so offered or exposed to Sale, or by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; Provided, that within the respective Times next after such Seizure herein after mentioned, that is to say, if such Seizure shall be made in any Place or Places within the Limits of the

Weekly

Weekly Bills of Mortality, then and in such Case, within the Space of Twenty four Hours, and if such Seizure shall be made in any other Place or Places out of the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, that then and in such Case, within the Space of Forty eight Hours next after such Seizure, such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities so seized, shall, from Time to Time, be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in Manner herein after mentioned, that is to say, If such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities are prohibited, or liable unto, or chargeable with only Duties of Customs, or Import Duties, and are not liable unto, or chargeable with any Excise, or Inland Duty or Duties, that then the same be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in some Warehouse or Warehouses belonging to his Majesty, under the Care and Management of some of the Officers of his Custom or Import Duties, near to the Place where the same shall be seized; and in case such Seizure be made at a Place too remote from any such Warehouse, the same shall be lodged in some Excise-Office near to the Place of such Seizure; but if such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or other Commodities be liable to any Excise, or Inland Duty or Duties, that then, and in such Case, the same, within the respective Times aforesaid, be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in some Office or Offices of Excise, or for the said Inland Duties, or other safe Place, under the Custody of some Officer or Officers of Excise, or for the said Inland Duties, near to the Place where the same shall be so seized, as aforesaid.

In what Warehouses such seized Goods shall be lodged, and in what Time.

XIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person and Persons whatsoever, to offering or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, as aforesaid, over and besides the forfeiting such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities, shall also forfeit and lose the Treble Value thereof, to be estimated in Manner as aforesaid.

Beside the Goods, the Person forfeits Treble Value.

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the like prohibited or run Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatsoever, so, or as such, bought by any Person or Persons whatsoever, together with the Package containing the same, shall in like manner be forfeited, and shall and may be seized, and taken from such Buyer or Buyers thereof, either by the Seller or Sellers thereof, or by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; Provided that within the like respective Times, as are herein before limited and appointed, of and concerning Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities to be seized from the Person or Persons exposing or offering thereof to Sale, such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, so to be seized from such Buyer or Buyers thereof, be placed, lodged, and secured in the like Places respectively, and in the like Manner, and in the Custody of the like Persons respectively, as is before directed and appointed, of and concerning Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, seized or to be seized from the Person or Persons offering or exposing thereof to Sale.

Prohibited or Run Goods may be seized from the Buyer, by the Seller, or by any Officer of Customs, or Excise.

XXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Case, where any Person or Persons whatsoever shall buy any such prohibited or run Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, or which, by the Seller, at the Time of selling, thereof, shall be pretended so to be either prohibited or run, he, she, or they so buying, over and besides the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities so bought, as aforesaid, shall also forfeit and lose Treble the Value thereof, to be computed and estimated in Manner as aforesaid: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That it is not meant or intended by this Act that, as well the Party or Parties buying, as also the Party or Parties selling, or offering, or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, as aforesaid, shall, in any Case or Cases, both and each of them respectively forfeit or be prosecuted for the Treble Value of One and the same identical Parcel or Parcels Buyer also forfeits Treble Value, besides the Goods.

Both Buyer and Seller not to be prosecuted for the same Goods.

If Prosecution be not commenced within One Month,
Warehouse-keeper, &c. may prosecute the Goods.

Parcels of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, as aforesaid, but that the Party or Parties, whether Buyer or Seller of, or offering or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, who with Effect shall first prosecute the other of the said Parties for such the Treble Value of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, shall, in every such Case and Cases, be and is hereby declared discharged, and acquitted of and from the like Forfeiting, or being prosecuted for, or on Account of the Treble Value of every such respective Parcel and Parcels of Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, or Commodities, for and on Account whereof the other Party or Parties shall be prosecuted with Effect: Provided always, that if, within One Month next after making such Seizure, as aforesaid, either by the Seller or Buyer, or by the Party or Parties, to whom such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities are or shall be offered or exposed to Sale, a Prosecution or Prosecutions is not commenced, and afterwards carried on, for the Adjudging and Determining of and concerning the Forfeiting or not Forfeiting of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, by the Party or Parties, as shall so seize the same, That then and in every such Case and Cases, the Warehouse Keeper, or Keeper of the Office of Excise or Inland Duties, or other Person or Persons, in whose Custody such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities shall be lodged and secured, shall and may prosecute for the Forfeiture of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, as, after having been so lodged and secured, as aforesaid, shall not, within such Month next after such Seizure, be prosecuted for by the Party or Parties, who shall have seized the same.

XXII. And whereas, before and at the Time of the commencement of the Inland Duties upon Chocolate, granted by an Act made in the Tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, (Intituled, An Act for Repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa-Paste imported, and for Granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof, and for Prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa-Paste, and for better Ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa-Nuts, imported) there were, in his Majesty's Warehouses, under the Care and Custody of his Officers of Customs, several Quantities of Cocoa-Paste, and of Chocolate imported ready made, which had been seized for having been imported and landed without making due Entries and paying the Duties thereof; And whereas several other Quantities of Cocoa-Paste and Chocolate imported, and landed, and seized, since the Commencement of the aforesaid Act, and contrary thereto, already are and hereafter may be in such or the like Warehouses; And whereas One Society of the appraised Value of such Cocoa-Paste and imported Chocolate, when condemned in his Majesty's Courts of Exchequer, either at Westminster or in Scotland, or of the Rate and Price for which the same hath been or shall be bought at, in his said Majesty's said Courts respectively, doth and will belong to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the other Society to the Party or Parties, who seized or hath bought the same, as aforesaid, but neither of the said Societies can be raised, unless the same be sold and disposed of, which cannot be done without being liable to be seized a second Time, unless the same be inclosed in Paper, stamped or marked with the Stamp or Mark already provided, in Pursuance of the aforesaid Act; For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That, as for and concerning such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste, as, in the Manner before mentioned, actually and really was in such Warehouse or Warehouses before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty four, in case the respective Seizers or Buyers thereof do or shall respectively, on or before the Twenty fourth Day of July now next ensuing, enter the same with the respective Receiver or Collector of the Inland Duties of the Place and Places, where such respective Warehouse or Ware-

XXXII. And whereas, notwithstanding the Act made in the Sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, Intituled, (An Act for Preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money) great Difficulties have frequently arisen upon the Tryal of divers Actions, and other Prosecutions, concerning his Majesty's Revenue, or for Resisting or Obstructing the Officers thereof in the Execution of their Offices, by requiring strict Proof of the Commissions, Deputations, or other Authorities of such Officers: For Remedy thereof be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, if, upon the Tryal of any Information,

If on Trial of an Information relating to the Customs, Excise, &c. any Question arise whether the Person be an Officer of the Duties, formation, Action, or Suit whatsoever, relating to his Majesty's Customs or Excise, or the Duties upon Salt, or to any other Duties whatsoever, or to any Seizure or Seizures, Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, touching or concerning the said Duties, or any of them, or the Collection thereof; or, if upon the Cryal of any Indictment, Action, Suit, or Prosecution whatsoever, against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done by Virtue or in Pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, or any of them; or, if upon the Cryal of any Information or Indictment for Assaulting, Resisting, or Obstructing any Officer or Officers of the Customs, Excise, or Duties upon Salt, or other Duties due and payable to his Majesty, in the Execution of his or their respective Office or Offices, or for Rescuing any Goods or Merchandizes, seized or to be seized by any such Officer or Officers, any Question shall arise, whether any Person be an Officer of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, or of for any of the said Duties, in every of the said Cases, Proof shall and may be made and admitted, that such Person was reputed to be, and had acted in, and in fact exercised such Office, and at the respective Time and Times, when the Matter or Matters in Controversy upon such Cryal or Cryals shall happen to have been done or committed, or omitted to have been done or performed, without producing or proving the particular Commission, Deputation, or other Authority, whereby such Officer was constituted and appointed, and that in every such Case such Proof shall be deemed and taken by the Judges or Justices, before whom any such Cryal shall be had, to be good and legal Evidence, unless by other Evidence the contrary shall be made to appear: Any Law or Usage to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Proof shall be admitted that he was reputed to be such Officer, without producing or proving the Commission, &c.

How these Penalties shall be sued for, and divided.

XXXIX. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, by this Act before imposed, of and concerning the suing for, recovering, and dividing whereof other Directions are not herein given, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws relating to his Majesty's Revenues of Excise, or any of them, or by Act or of Debt, Bill, Pluruit, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for or on account of any thing done or omitted to be done contrary to this Act, in the Part and Parts of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for or on account of any thing done or omitted to be done contrary to this Act, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and that one moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety thereof to him or them that shall sue or inform for the same.

Recital of the Act 5 Geo. relating to the British Fishery.

XLI. And whereas, by an Act made and passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (Intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts, and for better securing the Duties on Salt) it is, among other Things, Enacted, That, at the End of every Fishing Season the Officer for the Duty on Salt shall take a particular Account of the Quantities of Foreign and British Salt respectively remaining in Hand, which remaining Salt shall be immediately locked up in the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, and the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents of the said Salt, using the said Salt, shall as soon as possible after the End of every Fishing Season, deliver an Account in Writing into the said Office for the Duty on Salt, containing the Quantity of Fish exported and entered, or shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates, by the proper Officers of the several Ports, where the

the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account, which Certificates the said Officers are thereby directed to give, gratis; which said Account delivered into the said Office, as aforesaid, shall be affirmed by the Oath of the said Proprietor or Proprietors using the said Salt, as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents, who have used the same, and shall remain in the said Office, to the End that the Quantity of Fish Cured for Exportation, and the Quantity of Salt used in Curing the said Fish, may, from time to time, appear upon Oath, and be compared together; and in case any of the said Salt shall be delivered over to any other Persons, and used by them in Curing of Fish, the several Quantities of Salt so delivered over shall be expressed in the said Account, and each Person, to whom such Salt shall be so delivered, or his Agent, shall likewise upon Oath make another Account of the particular Quantity of such Salt used by each of them in the Curing of Fish so exported or shipped for Exportation, as aforesaid, which said Account, together with proper Certificates, as aforesaid, shall likewise be transmitted into the Office aforesaid, there to remain for the Purposes above mentioned; but if such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, or any other Person or Persons, to whom any Quantity of Salt should be by them delivered over, as aforesaid, should, for the Space of Six Months after the End of every respective Fishing Season, neglect or refuse to deliver such Account attested upon Oath, as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such other Person or Persons, as aforesaid, should, for every such Offence, forfeit Forty Pounds: And whereas, since the making of the said Act, several Frauds and Abuses, and many Inconveniencies have been discovered, whereby his Majesty's Revenue, arising out of the said Salt, has been very much lessened, and the certain Quantity of Salt used in the Curing of Fish not any ways ascertained, they, the said Proprietors, at their Pleasure, during the Fishing Season, convert and dispose of, for their own private Advantage, but in a secret Manner, great Quantities of Salt to Persons unknown, who sell the same, without paying any Duty for the same, or giving any Account thereof, as by the said Act is required, by which Means the fair Trader also is undersold: Now, for preventing for the future, any Frauds, Imbezilments, or Misapplications of any Salt, whether British or Foreign, and for avoiding all Disputes and Controversies, that may hereafter happen or arise between the Owners of Salt Works, Proprietors of Salt for Curing of Fish, and the Officers for the Duty on Salt, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, if any Proprietor or Proprietors of Salt, his or their Agent or Agents, shall deliver over to any Person or Persons any Quantity of Salt, which he shall have received from the proper Officer or Officers, as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, shall, by Oath or otherwise, make it appear to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer or Officers, that such Salt so parted with, or delivered over to any Person or Persons, as aforesaid, was by him or them used in Curing of Fish, according to the Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and in Default thereof, every Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, shall be adjudged guilty of Imbezilment and Misapplication of such Salt, and shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling.

XLII. And whereas by the said recited Act it is further Enacted, that the present Allowances given by the Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Fish cured with Foreign Salt, should be no longer paid upon Fish Exported, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, but that the Curers of Fish, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, should and might Cure their Fish with British or Foreign Salt, without paying any Duty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation of Foreign Salt, and be intitled to have and receive upon the Exportation thereof such and no other Allowances, than are therein mentioned and appointed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Act for the Exportation of Fish cured with Foreign Salt, so as to be intitled to the Allowances then given, was too short, in respect that being the prime Season of the Salmon-fishing, considerable Quantities of Salmon and Codfish were then in the Hands of several Cuters of Fish in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which they were under a Necessity to Cure with Foreign Salt, the Duties whereof were either paid, or secured to be paid: and whereas it may be just and reasonable, that the Cuters and Proprietors of all such Fish, actually and really in hand on the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, legally and duly Cured with Foreign Salt, according to the several Acts of Parliament in that behalf, the Duties of which Salt were either paid, or secured to be paid, should be paid the same Allowances, and in the same manner, as if Exported on or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, upon receiving a satisfactory Proof of what Quantities of Salmon and Codfish were actually and really in hand on the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, duly Cured with Foreign Salt, and legally exported, the Duties whereof have been either paid, or are secured to be paid, shall and may order and direct the proper Officers to make out Debentures to the Proprietors or Cuters of such Fish, certifying the Allowances for the Fish contained in such Debentures to be the same as were payable before the said Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and to be paid in the same Manner.

Relief for Foreign Salt used in curing Salmon and Codfish in Scotland in 1719, and legally exported.
